exceptions, refused to loan a dollar; the... loaned to the State was only so much... counties had been corrupted, and the money... matters progressed. The government at... of millions of dollars of this paper was put... and the southern trade, but our yankee... thing is done that lays within their power... coin's "green backs."... to open their doors, receive and pay... out the Confederate money, precisely... Under all tho circumstances, we submit:... of the press, was crushed in Kentucky at too... servile... sings of Liberty jingle to a free-born citizen... amongst us. Will you not rise as one man,... of gratitude. By crossing the Cumberland... the Cumberland Mountains. To the forti... the direction of Hagerstown, Stonewall Jack... The road for miles winds... wagon was lost. Let it be remembered that... Prima Mrs. Das... of 11th inst., says:... many rumors in town, mainly from Mc... the most reliable source.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The National In... 13th inst. have reached here through... in force, but saw a train of... engineers report the rebel army in good spirits... the Prin... terms of subscription:

PUBLISHED BY THE

SEMI-WEEKLY.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

KENTUCKY BIBLE SOCIETY
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1862.

Lexington, Ky., Wednesday September 17, 1862.

NUMBER 4.

The Kentucky Statesman.

We publish to-day, the Proclamation o..." will report in companies as all others do.

A scout... All the bridges on the... I want troops at... the Potomac. They... and commenced again at noon.

Friday, September 9—Commander... A despatch from Ellisville on the Balt... ract of twenty rebels. Prisoners... the vicinity of the recent battle... to expect. If the... of the Pr... the Prin... the Prin... the Prin...

New Series—Volume I.

Lexington, Ky., Wednesday September 17, 1862.

NUMBER 4.

The Kentucky Statesman.