Campus Shows Continue: Tuesday Program Added

Leading Films Are Booked

The weekly motion pictures shown on the campus last year are being continued again this year. However, as result of student requests, there will be shows on Tuesday nights as well as Friday. Leading current-first-run pictures will be shown at both performances. The Tuesday program will last approximately one and a half hours instead of two hours as on Friday. This is made possible by omitting the news and possibly the short subjects, depending upon the length of the main feature.

Tonight the feature is "Destination Tokyo," starring Cary Grant, John Garfield and Alan Hale. Included in the program are a news reel and selected short subjects. "Chip Off the Old Block," with Donald O'Conner and Peggy Ryan will be shown on October 10 with a color cartoon and technicolor Sports Parade. Scheduled for Friday night is "Hello, Frisco, Hello."

Coming attractions will include "Crash Drive," with Tyrone Power, "This is the Life," with Donald O'Conner, "The Impatient Years," with Jean Arthur, "Christmas Holiday," with Deanna Durbin, and many others.

Mr. G. M. Brock, with the assistance of students, has complete charge of booking, arranging and running the films. He is providing interesting entertainment for students and townspeople.

Proceeds resulting from the fifteen cents admission price, in addition to the rental cost of the film, go to the state treasury for the benefit of the college. A small part of it is used to improve the motion picture equipment.

Eastern Girls Contribute 30 "Buddy Bags"

Thirty are Filled to be Sent Overseas

The women students of Eastern have filled thirty "buddy bags" to be sent to hospitals overseas. This project was carried out in cooperation with the Richmond D. A. R.

The freshmen girls, showing much enthusiasm, were responsible for ten of the "buddy bags," and the other twenty were filled by the upperclasswomen.

In every "buddy bag" were put comb, razor blades, soap, tooth brush, tooth paste, shaving cream, wash cloth, bath towel, deck of cards, small mirror, handkerchief, thread needles, thimble, mystery and detective books, tablet, pencil, envelopes and buttons. Some of the girls added other surprise packages—such as chewing gum, games, hard candy and Christmas cards (with names and addresses.)

Ministers and Students Speak

Three of Richmond's ministers and seven Eastern students representing various organizations on the campus were speakers in the first chapel program of the year. President W. F. O'Donnell welcomed the students to the campus in a brief greeting.

The students who told what organization they represented and the purposes of that club were Evelyn Tritsch, representing the Y. W. C. A.; Neil Roberts, for the Y. M. C. A.; Henrietta J. Miller, World Affairs Club; Patay Newell, speaking for the Burnam Hall Council; Lema Aker, representing the Photo Club; Nina Mayfield, president of the Canterbury Club; Tommy Rankin, for the Eastern Progress staff, and Jean Harrison, representing the Madrigal Club.

The Rev. Frank N. Tinder, pastor of the First Christian church, the Rev. Olof Anderson, of the Presbyterian church, and the Rev. E. N. Perry, pastor of the Baptist church, held conferences with the students who preferred their separate churches.

The purpose of having night classes is to take care of the needs of people who are of college age but do not have the opportunity to attend because they work during the day. People working at the ordinance depot and business houses in Richmond are enrolled in the classes.

YWCA OFFERS PROGRAMS FOR FRESHMEN

Amateur Program Features Freshmen

TEA ON SUNDAY

The Eastern YWCA planned and carried out a number of programs for the incoming freshmen, climaxing them on Saturday night with a progressive party, featuring a freshman amateur hour. A tea given on Sunday afternoon at the home of their sponsor, Miss Mary F. McKinney, completed the week of activities.

The programs included a community sing held in the recreation room of Burnam Hall on Wednesday night, September 20. The program was under the direction of Evelyn Tritsch, president of the YWCA, and the songs were led by Kathryn Siphers.

The amateur hour for freshmen, which has been held for a number of years, was combined this year with the Saturday night progressive party in the Student Union Building. Following games and dancing in the rec room, the freshmen audience heard ten amateurs with Kathryn Siphers and Tommy Rankin as masters of ceremonies. Those who took part in the show were: Ruth Ann Warnick, saxophone solo, first prize winner; Marie Wiley, piano solo, second prize winner; a trio composed of Mary Jo Curtis, Dorothy Curtis, and Virginia Van Hook, third prize winner; Dorothy Kendall, voice solo, Phyllis Hemer, twirler; Nora Grubbs, negro reading; Dorothy Hancock, voice solo; and Madolyn Wheatly, voice solo.

Lt. Harold Porter Killed on Saipan

First Lt. James Harold Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Porter, Beattyville, was killed in action on July 29, according to word received by his parents August 22.

Lt. Porter was a graduate of Eastern in the class of 1942. He enlisted in the Air Corps as a cadet and received his wings at Napier Field, Dothan, Alabama, in December 1943.

He was stationed in the Hawaiian Islands for a year before going to the Gilbert Islands and Saipan.

By Nordean Burress

The Y.W. and Y.M.C.A. is beginning once again to swing back into action. We are getting organized, making plans, and enlisting new members.

GREETINGS!

It is a pleasure to be permitted to welcome new students to Eastern and to greet those returning from other years. We are delighted to have the opportunity to work with you, and to make some contribution to your training and success. In spite of the tenseness of our lives in these days, you should find much happiness in your association with your fellow students, in your participation in campus activities, and in the calm assurance that when peace comes again, as it surely will come, you will be better prepared to live and work in the busy, interesting and possibly thrilling years ahead.

This greeting goes also to Eastern's sons and daughters who are serving with our military forces in far-off places. In other days they added zest and spirit to life on this campus, and the college is a better place because they once were here. We look forward hopefully to that happy day when we can celebrate their homecoming. In the meantime, each issue of the Progress will be both a news letter and a token of remembrance from the college to them.

Students Pick Bean Crop on College Farm

Seventy Bushels of Stringless Variety Harvested By Students

By NEIL ROBERTS
Eastern's farm is very grateful to the students of the college who turned out in force to harvest the bean crop, which might well have gone to waste for want of an adequate labor supply. Here's how it happened:

In the first assembly of the year, Leslie Combs, after having received the consent of President O'Donnell, stood up, holding a bean stock high in the air, and said: "Students, this is a bean plant! There are many more just like it, over on the farm. If we don't find people to harvest these beans, they will not be picked, and we may not have beans to eat this winter. We can harvest them, this very day, save the crop, and insure ourselves plenty of beans to eat this winter. Mr. Roderer says that there are eighty bushels. All the students who want to pick beans, please be over in the Student Union building at 1 o'clock this afternoon."

Then, on that first Wednesday afternoon, a good portion of Eastern's students appeared at the bean patch, ready to do their part in saving a very good bean crop from waste. Some worked one hour, others two, and still others, three, but the beans were picked, seventy good, heavy bushels of them, and although some of the students appeared the next day with sore backs, sore hands, etc., Eastern will have plenty of nice, juicy Stringless Burpee green beans canned for use during the coming winter. Leslie Combs is to be complimented on his foresight and sincerity in appealing to the students of Eastern to perform this task, since as well as saving a considerable amount of good food, this job was an enjoyable experience, and brought the students together in a recreational activity which was profitable as well, since all the students who participated are to receive thirty cents for each hour they spent in the bean harvest.

Frosh Week is Observed; No Doubt 'bout It

New Students On Campus Welcomed By Upperclassmen

By Emma Boyd Bevoqua
Wednesday—20th Ah! the great day arrived! With the clatter of suitcases, trunks, et cetera a new group of freshman arrived on Eastern's Campus. It was exciting for the new freshmen and the few upper classmen who came early to exchange such questions as "What's your name?" "Where you from?"

Things started rolling Thursday with classification tests (don't you just love em?) and an informal tea at President and Mrs. O'Donnell's home. This gave the freshmen a chance to get acquainted and also to get a taste of the nice friendly surroundings they're to be in for some time to come.

Now, on Friday they had some more of those lovely little tests, but Friday night, "Whee! a free movie." "Happy Go Lucky" nice huh?

Saturday, the Freshmen had their first experience in standing in line to see some person who didn't do a thing but shove a little ole card under their nose and send them to someone else. But it seems as tho they all stood up under the so called ordeal fairly well and came threw with flying colors. Saturday nite with the help of "Pig Ole", Miss Katie, and Miss Tommye the amateur show went over with a bang! and I do mean bang! This was just one of the many attractions of the party sponsored by the YWCA.

Sunday morning found all the feminine pulchritude arrayed in doll hats, French heels and fancy dresses escorted by the masculine apolloes attired at their best (Yep! all the gals and guys had on their best Sunday go to meetin.) Where were they going? Why to church. Let's have every Sunday like this one. The same group (in their same slick chic outfits) made an appearance at the home of Miss McKinney for tea. Everyone enjoyed themselves immensely. How boot that freshman?

By this time everyone hopes that you have a feeling of welcome and that you consider this your Alma mater too.

700 STUDENTS IN WORKSHOPS PAST SUMMER

Five Districts Have Shops

In the past summer Eastern, in cooperation with the State Department of Education, sent members of the faculty to five workshops throughout the state. The purpose of these workshops was to provide every facility possible for the in-service education of teachers. Over 700 students were enrolled in these workshops. The workshops offered instruction in the problems of elementary education for which the students got eight quarter hours of credit.

The teachers who helped with the various workshops were: Dr. D. Thomas Ferrell, director; Miss Katherine Evans, Miss Mary Burrier, Miss Cora Lee, Miss Mary F. McKinney, and Miss Germana Wingo;

Hindman: Miss Margaret Lingenfelter, director; Miss Elizabeth Wilson, Mrs. Blanche Seever, and Miss Ethel Slade;

Hazard: Dr. F. A. Engle, director; Mrs. Gladys Tyng, Dr. N. B. Cuff, Miss Grace Hieronymus, Harlan, and Miss Anna Frances Todd, Madison County;

Harlan: Miss Mae Hansen, director, Dord Fitz, E. M. Norsworthy and C. W. Mathis, Harlan county school principals, and Miss Jennie Ramsey and Mrs. James L. Howard, teacher in the Harlan system.

Beattyville: R. A. Edwards, director, Miss Virginia Story, Miss Norma Hamilton, Falmouth, graduate of Eastern, and Mrs. Icie Johnson, Estill County.

This was in addition to the service that the college offered on the campus to the regular enrolled students and the special workshop for helping teachers which was conducted here on the campus.

New Workshop is Started

A workshop for elementary teachers has been organized for the Fall Quarter in Lincoln county. Miss Margaret Lingenfelter is director of this group which has an enrollment of 40.

Eastern Men Organize

Eastern men last week organized the Mens Activities Club for the purpose of bringing the men of the campus into closer association. The club plans to sponsor parties and to aid other organizations.

President of YWCA Names '44 Cabinet

Evelyn Tritsch, president of the YWCA, last week named the following as members of the 1944-45 cabinet and assigned to each her duties: Nina Mayfield, chapel devotions; Emily Mayfield, social service; Madeline Corman and Blanche Colyer, special programs; Martha Davis, vespers; Mildred Stamper McHenry, quiet hour; Suzanne Malott and Delhea Stanley, music; Dorothy Moore and Janet West, posters; Tommye Rankin and Norman Burris, publicity; Norma Rayburne, finance; Delhea Stanley, fellowship; Lula Turner and Anita O'Hearn, social; Lucille Brandenburgh, student service, and Margie DeVan and Mary W. Lee, scrap book.

Miss McPherson Joins Faculty

Miss Frances McPherson from St. Louis Missouri has joined the music department here. Last year she taught piano and voice at State College for Women, Tallahassee, Florida. Previously she was head of the music department at Torkio College, Torkio, Missouri.

Miss McPherson is a member of the Junior League, the Fort Nightly Music club, the American Guild of Organists. She is a graduate of Lindenwood College, St. Louis, Missouri, and received her masters degree from Michigan State College.

Planning Education for the Post War in Kentucky is Theme

The fifteenth annual meeting of the Central Kentucky Education Association began last night, October 5, and continued through today. The theme of all meetings of the Association was Planning Education for the Post War in Kentucky.

Only meetings of committees and the board of directors were held last night in the Student Union Building. The general session began at 9:30 this morning in the Hiram Brock Auditorium with Supt. F. W. Hood, president of the association, from Georgetown, presiding.

The morning program began with community singing led by Thomas Bonny, Irvine public schools. Following the invocation by the Rev. Frank N. Tinder, Richmond, greetings were extended by President W. F. O'Donnell. At 9:55 Supt. W. F. Hood, president of the C. K. E. A., delivered an address. Hon. John Fred Williams, superintendent of public instruction, spoke on the subject "Looking Ahead for Education in Kentucky."

"The K. E. A. and the State School Program" was discussed by J. T. Aiton, president of the Kentucky Education Association, Vine Grove, followed by a talk on "How the N. E. A. Can Help" by R. F. Flege, superintendent of Irvine city schools.

Following the business session, one of the highlights of the day's program was an address by Hon. Josh Lee, member of the Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington, D. C. His subject was "Aviation Will Build a New World."

The assembly adjourned for lunch at 12:10. The afternoon session was made up of work conferences on Problems in Educational Planning. Each session began at 2:00 p. m. and closed not later than 3:10 p. m. so that classroom teachers might attend the special meeting in Hiram Brock Auditorium at 3:15.

Sixteen work conferences have been arranged in the following fields: School Administration, Attendance and Delinquency, Arts and Crafts, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, Home Making, English, Foreign Languages, Middle Grades, Primary Grades, Science and Mathematics, Small Rural Schools, Social Sciences, Teacher Education, Upper Grades, Vocational Agricultural Education and Supervisors of Student Teaching.

Jacob C. Darnell, Woodford county schools, Versailles, presided over the special classroom teachers' meeting in Brock Auditorium.

Basketball to be Resumed This Year by Maroons

Rankin Assembles Classy Squad as Prepares for Schedule

After a year's absence from the Kentucky basketball picture, Eastern State's Maroons are ready to set sail on what should be one of the college's most successful cage campaigns.

A big, classy squad of a dozen or more seasoned basketballers swung into the first practice of the year Monday under the watchful eye of Coach Rome Rankin. In addition to the regular K. I. A. C. conference tilts, Eastern plans to tackle a number of non-league quintets. In all likelihood some of the biggest "name" colleges in the South will be listed on the Maroon schedule.

Most of the lads on whom Eastern's basket hopes hinge are native Kentuckians from widely scattered parts of the state. These include Bill Miller, George Maines, Harry Doepke, Dick Moberly, Ben Johnson, Doyle Lovett, Jim Rush, Ray Smith and Cecil Shyrock. To augment these native sons Coach Rankin has imported Jim Argentine, who hails from Toronto, Ohio, Fred Lewis, of New York, and Jim Wade from Memphis.

There seems to be no doubt that the above mentioned young men should constitute a top flight ball club. Nine members of the squad tower to the six foot mark, and four soar to even greater heights. The others make up in speed and general ability for their shortage in height. It is a well balanced, seasoned bunch of basket-busters that Eastern will display this year. And they're ready.

Notice

All students interested in working with The Progress this quarter are requested to meet in The Progress office, room 100 in the basement of the Student Union Building, at 4 p. m. Tuesday, October 10.

GREETINGS

To you, the class of 1948, is extended a very hearty greeting from the upperclassmen, the faculty, the administrative staff, and all those who are connected with and love Eastern. It is our sincere wish that you will come to love our college as we do; that you will love its beautiful campus as much as we. But most of all we hope that in your stay here, whether it be for a short or long while, you will find something added to your lives that you would not have had elsewhere. We know that your experiences here will never be forgotten.

There are certain memories that cling about you forever . . . the ravine at sunset, jam sessions in the dorms, Saturday nights in the SUB, quiet hours in the dorms, club meetings, the campus at daybreak on a snowy morning, Hanging of the Greens and the Messiah, basketball games, even late hours studying, hell-week, shows and the hamburgers you eat downtown. These are our memories. We give them to you.

ELDERLY ADVICE

It's been rumored that a lot of freshmen (or at least enough to make an impression) are homesick. Not just the "my, I wish I could see the folks tonight," kind, but the nice, blue, repenting, weeping kind in which the person in question throws her or himself face downward on his bed and pours tears into the pillow and strangled words into his roommate's ears.

We even heard that one person made an appointment with one of the faculty members for a half hour of weeping at ten o'clock on Monday morning. For some unknown reason (probably because there were no tears available) the lamenting freshman did not appear on the scheduled hour. Not at all disquieted, the faculty member called the dormitory and had the freshman sent over, and a few minutes later the homesick soul appeared bearing a towel over her shoulder, and with the consoling faculty member disappeared behind closed doors. . .

What happened? We don't know.

And now, freshmen, comes a word of advice from an aged senior. Try looking into the crystal ball (or Eastern's catalogue) and visualize yourself three or four years from now when graduation and leaving Eastern are just around the corner. "Oh, you say, 'I don't think I'll ever get that far.'" Oh, yes, you will. We've been along the same path, and we know. Then is the time when you can really feel a little bit lonesome, and as if you'd like to weep on somebody's shoulder. Then is the time you're going to realize that you're going to graduate, and after that you can come back, but never in the same way.

That time will come soon enough, so, right now, spend your time enjoying every spare minute of college and getting the best that you can from it. Maybe then you won't need to call home every night or two. You'll wear out your welcome anyway if you don't stop reversing the charges.

DIRECTORY FOR FRESHMEN

"The school of hard knocks is the best of schools," makes a fine sounding sentence, but, we don't want the freshmen taking too many bumps, so we're just mentioning a few of the things that might be of value.

Frinstance, No. 1, and most important. . . The best way in the world to get hit and hit hard is to start cutting line in the cafeteria. One thing that is extremely important around here is food, sooo, just remember don't try to get ahead of anybody that was already there.

No. 2.—Remember, the faculty lounge is for the use of the faculty exclusively.

No. 3.—Freshmen girls cannot be out after ten o'clock on any night. They cannot even stay on Burnam's porch. So when the clock chimes ten get out of that clench and come on in.

No. 4.—The ravine is a place of beauty. Studied by daylight, it can furnish knowledge as well as enjoyment. But if you wander down that way after dark (even if there is a moon), just remember, "Love is blind, but the nightwatchman ain't."

No. 5.—Do you like cokes? Of course you do. Who doesn't? Well, you'd better keep the coke bottles out of the halls and your rooms, too, or the coke machine will be permanently "out of order."

No. 6.—A note of warning. Herbert Searcy's the most eligible wolf on the campus.

No. 7.—When you get ready to relax after several hours of study come down to Burnam's lobby for Quiet Hour.

No. 8.—Grls, there are certain men on the campus that are just naturally untouchable. Reason—they're already pretty well hooked, but "all's far in love and war." In other words, don't ever look at Fred Lewis. He brought his girl with him. Bobby Williams?—LeFaun's getting over a broken heart.

No. 9.—Don't let all the tales about hell-week get you down. You can make it whatever you will, so what happens in hell-week is all up to you.

No. 10.—Can you tell if you're in love? If you can't drop by 353 Burnam and read the directions for finding out just why your heart beats that way.

No. 11.—Pig Oil is not available at the present.

No. 12.—Do you need a pin-up boy? Let Dotty Kendall and Co. supply you.

No. 13.—A special word to one of Eastern's newest students who felt his identification tag was really unnecessary for so well-known. We are sorry to disillusion him, but a few of the students have not yet had the honor of making his acquaintance.

We stopped with thirteen because it's our lucky number, and remember next Friday is the thirteenth.

EASTERN NEWS LETTER

The News Letter, with the Progress, is mailed without charge to all members of the armed forces, both overseas and in this country. Information about graduates and former students is welcomed by the Alumni Association. Miss Mary F. McKinney is alumni secretary.

Pfc. Clarence Wright Killed in Action

Pfc. Clarence M. Wright, of Joptha, was killed in action June 6 while serving with a paratroop regiment in France, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wright of Joptha, were informed in a telegram July 11.

Pfc. Wright volunteered in the army before the war. He attended Eastern during the 1939-40 school year, the summer of 1940 and the first semester of 1940-41. He has a brother, Jackson Wright, serving in an infantry regiment overseas.

Pvt. Barney DeJarnette Drowned

Pvt. Barnett DeJarnette, formerly of Richmond, was drowned somewhere in the South Pacific July 8, according to word received by his father, George DeJarnette, Dayton, O. No details were received.

Pvt. DeJarnette was graduated from Model high school and received a scholarship to Andover College. After graduation from Andover he was awarded a scholarship to Columbia University but entered the service before completing his work there.

He is survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James DeJarnette, and two aunts, Miss Emma DeJarnette and Mrs. R. L. Burton, all of Richmond, in addition to his father.

MISSING IN ACTION

Lt. Bill Smith
Lt. William A. Smith, of Millfield, Ohio, and Lt. A. Kendrick Roy, of Stearns, have been reported missing in action.

Lt. Smith has been missing in action over France since June 17, according to a message received from his mother, Mrs. Mabel L. Smith, 1416 W. 80th St., Seattle 7, Wash., July 24.

In the service about two years, Lt. Smith was a junior at Eastern the first semester of 1940-41. He is the brother of Lt. Bert Smith, bombardier missing in action over Burma since April 5, 1943.

Lt. Kendrick Roy
Lt. Kendrick Roy, freshman the first semester of 1941-42, has been missing in action since a bombing mission over Germany June 29. Pilot of a Liberator bomber, he had been overseas six weeks when reported missing.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Roy, and his wife and son live in Stearns. Lt. Roy was at home on leave in May when his son was born.

Graduates Wounded in Action

Cpl. Gordon Rader (42) of Louisville, was seriously wounded in the Saipan invasion and is at present undergoing treatment in the Naval Hospital, Ward 45 B, Oakland, Calif. He was wounded by enemy machine gun in the right leg, through the nose and right eye.

In a recent letter to the Alumni Secretary he wrote that hospitalization will be a matter of months but he is getting along fine. Pfc. Everett Griffith (42) of Cincinnati, his buddy, also in the invasion, is all right, Cpl. Rader reported. Marines Rader and Griffith have been together since entering the Marine Corps soon after graduation and have seen action at Kwajalein and other campaigns.

Ensign Denver Sam (43) Bimble, was wounded in Italy when a German artillery shell hit near him, the concussion puncturing his left ear drum. He has been in hospitals overseas and in New York for the past four months, but was granted a leave in September and visited the campus a few days. He returned to the Naval Hospital at Great Lakes. Ens. Sams was on overseas duty about seven months before being wounded.

Pfc. James Harold Hieronymus, Richmond, (33) received leg wounds August 9 in France and was returned to a hospital in England. He entered the service in February 1944, received his overseas assignment in May and was in England two weeks before being sent to France, where he was with an infantry division a month before being wounded. Pfc. Hieronymus suffered a nerve injury in one of his legs and will be in the hospital in England some time. His address is 3211 USA

Hosp., APO 350, New York, N. Y.

1st Lt. Elvy B. Roberts (39) Barbourville, was wounded in France sometime in August. No further details have been obtained. Lt. Roberts graduated from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point in 1943 and was with the Parachute Infantry at Camp Mackall, N. C., before going overseas. Mrs. Roberts is the former Drucilla Wilson, '41 of Irvine.

Capt. (recently promoted) Raymond J. Huck and 1st Lt. Albert L. McCarthy, both of '40, were slightly wounded in France. Capt. Dale L. Morgan, in the same battalion, has written that these two boys can go down on Eastern's hero list, having performed brilliantly and daringly under fire.

NEWS ABOUT GRADUATES OVERSEAS

Lt. Z. S. (Dick) Dickerson (42) Prestonsburg, has been on the front lines, with a "deluxe foxhole equipped with running water." Most of the time the weather has been misty and rainy, he writes. Lt. Dickerson was sent to England in January. Mrs. Dickerson (Mildred Gortney, '42) of Harrodsburg, is teaching home economics in Sardstown.

Pvt. Paul B. Fife (39), Richmond, is with an infantry division in France. He was sent overseas in July, entering the army in March 1944.

Cpl. Robert M. Conley (42) Paintsville, Signal Corps, is somewhere in France. He entered the service in July 1942 and has been overseas since March of this year.

Capt. Dale L. Morgan (39) Newport, is in the operations section of a field artillery battalion, with most of his time taken up with mathematics, solving of polygons and computing ranges, controlling the fire of the battalion. In a recent letter to Dean W. C. Jones, Capt. Morgan said "while we win battles and campaigns it is in the legislative houses of the world that the war will be won." He has been in the service since June 1, 1941, and overseas since January 1944. Mrs. Morgan (40) and their son live at 3763 Drakewood Drive, Cincinnati 9.

Lt. Fithian S. (Jack) Faries (42) Maysville, was in the invasion and is somewhere in France. He has been overseas with an engineering battalion since May 1943. Mrs. Faries (Olive Gabriel, '41) is employed at her home in Martins Ferry, Ohio. Her address is 811 S. Zane Highway.

Lt. Jack Hughes (37) Frankfort, was in France with the invasion, for a time was in Normandy and is now in Belgium, according to letters received by Miss Pearl Buchanan. He has been in the service more than two years and overseas since November of last year.

Three former students are also in France, according to recent messages received. Capt. James W. Todd, Richmond, sophomore in 1941-42, is a Signal Corps photographer and has received three copies of the Progress and a copy of Life at Eastern since landing in France. Sgt. Casey Nowakowski, Chicago, junior the winter quarter of 1942-43, is in France with an infantry division. He has been overseas about three months. Mrs. Nowakowski (Carolyn Brock, '42) is at home in Frankfort. Lt. Karl Schilling, Richmond, freshman in 1940-41, is with a light tank battalion in France. He has been overseas since January.

PROMOTIONS

Colonel Adriel Williams (38) formerly of Shelbyville, was promoted to the rank of full colonel in the Air Corps early in July and has received the Distinguished Flying Cross for D-Day work in the invasion of France. In the most recent letter from him, Col. Williams was somewhere in Italy living in the field under tents. In command of a Troop Carrier Group, he entered the Air Force in 1938. He was 23 years old August 11.

Lt. Col. Keith Dicken (36) Louisville, has been promoted to lieutenant colonel in the European theater. Entering the service in January 1941, he was classification officer for the Armored Force Replacement Training Center at Ft. Knox before being transferred to England last summer. Mrs. Dicken (Elizabeth Hancock, '39) and their daughter are at her home in Finchville.

President Names Class Sponsors

Major Robert Dickman (40) Covington, was promoted to the rank of major in the Air Corps at 15th AAF base in Italy recently. A staff weather officer with a B-24 heavy bombardment wing, he has been overseas since December 1942. He has been awarded the presidential citation and the European theater ribbon with two combat stars. He is a veteran of the Tunisian as well as the Italian campaign. Mrs. Dickman and their 22 months' old son live in Los Angeles.

Lt. (jg) Virgil H. McWhorter (40) Oakley, received the presidential citation March 23 while on the Destroyer USS Nicholas for outstanding service against a superior Japanese force in the battle of Rula Gulf the night of July 5-6, 1943. He has seen action in four major campaigns and several air and sea battles. Lt. McWhorter entered the service in August 1942 and has been in the Pacific for 20 months.

"She will understand." This greatest tribute that can be paid, is truly applicable to Mrs. Emma Y. Case. She understands because she once faced the same problems that she now helps other girls to solve each day. Her official title is Dean of Women but to the thousands of girls who know her is just Mrs. Case.

Mrs. Case was born in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, the daughter of a Methodist Minister. After her graduation from Cavanaugh High School she married Robert P. M. Case. They had two daughters, Lucille and Jane; both of whom later graduated from Eastern. Just four years after their marriage Mr. Case died. Mrs. Case taught school for several years and then decided to resume her education. After completing two years at the University of Kentucky, she came to Eastern and took her A.B. degree. She received her Masters from the George Peabody College for Teachers, and then returned to Eastern as a faculty member in 1926. She was critic teacher in the Rural School for four years and taught Rural Education on the campus for two years. In 1932 Mrs. Case became Dean of Women, her and our Alma Mater.

When asked about her favorite pastime or hobby Mrs. Case replied that she didn't suppose she had a hobby, because she never did any one thing consistently enough.

We disagree. We say it is "knowing her girls". True to her Kentucky blood, Mrs. Case is always "At Home" to her friends and many times through the year girls drop in for an informal get-together and an off the record chat.

She meets each one of the students personally and they come to know each other quite well in the Orientation Sociology course offered all freshman and transfer students.

Mrs. Case is a member of the Richmond Womens Club; D. A. R.; Delta Kappa Gama, and a member of the State Board of this sorority; American Association of University Women and a member of the State Board of this organization also; Kentucky Association of their Post War Planning Committee; and the National Association of Deans of Women.

The women of Eastern since 1932 have learned to place a great deal of confidence in the wise suggestions of their favorite dean.

Anyone who has a little niece or nephew back home they are lonesome to see can drop in and swap a few yarns with Mrs. Case. She has two strapping grandsons, Eugene Francis and Charles Foster Wright—like most grandmothers she has a few tales she can tell . . . I know I tried it.

After Freshman Week and organization, next on our list is Fall Retreat. It is a day of planning, picnicking, and presenting to the new members the ideas and aims for which we stand and strive. When Christmas comes we try to share a bit of the Christmas spirit with the unfortunate children of Richmond by a party and gifts that are useful.

At Christmas every Easterner thinks of the "Y" Hanging of the Greens. "Hanging of the Greens" is an old Eastern tradition that is widely known for its beauty and impressiveness.

Windy March arrives, bringing with it joy because this is the month of our annual banquet. Our tribute to the Easter season is the beautiful, impressive sunrise service, held in the Amphitheater. This is followed in May by our Spring Retreat.

At present, we are planning one of our great events—Fall Retreat—for Sunday, October 8, 1944, including two delicious meals for only 60c. On the evening of this Sunday we have our candlelight service for the installation of the new cabinets and recognition of the new members.

The "Y" sponsors "Quiet Hour" that is held each evening in Burnam Hall, where all the girls gather for a few minutes of devotion and meditation.

By Betty Jo Picklesimer
What an extraordinary group of freshmen we have this year! Most of them are hep to the jive, but then there are a few that well—it's this way—we seniors are here for our fourth year and we have yet to step inside the faculty lounge—let alone being caught reading an Esquire in said room.

Freshmen, will you know better next time? We surely hope so—You could at least pick a time when there are no faculty members in the SUB. And another thing—cutting cafeteria line is just one of the things that isn't done! Everyone is usually fished by the time he gets in line, and he certainly does not appreciate someone going out of turn and leaving the rest to pass out quietly.

And furthermore, Burnam Hall is the girls' dormitory, and Beekham Hall is the boys' dorm. Please get this straight! During registration some, shall we say misinformed or just being hopeful frosh, insisted till the last that he lived in Burnam.

But all in all, we really are glad you are with us, and we know you'll be the best class in years. The longer you stay, the better you'll like us so be patient and do try to give us a fair trial. Don't forget, we were all freshmen once.

Who knows what the outcome of the "buddy bags" will be? There may be some life long acquaintances as a result. Who can tell?

Have you all been keeping up with the Hit Parade lately? In case you haven't, I'll Walk Alone was No. 1. How true! How true!

Blue Champagne was on the Hit Parade years ago, Herb—did you forget, er' sumpin'?

Lay off upperclassmen—you had dates when you were freshmen. Time about's fair play, don't you think? Besides, you shouldn't rob the cradle. Give the gals a break. I admit they're doing all right anyway, but why don't you give them a clear road?

The impression the freshmen had that all teas are stiff was slightly torn to smithereens when Miss McKinney's tea turned out to be such a swell affair.

Yippe! We are finally getting newspapers in Burnam again. Now we can find out whether the MONSTER or Daisy Mae will get Lil' Abner. More power to them—maybe one of them will get her man—I hope so.

At last! We now have P. O. boxes—No more waiting in lines and having to get on the good side of the grill clerks. It really was a scream to watch the basketball stars fumble for hours trying in vain to work their combinations.

As school begins again, so do the various clubs and organizations on our campus. A few of our organizations are inactive because of present conditions, but there are still many interesting and worthwhile groups who are looking forward to new members and new plans of work.

The Photo Club exists on the campus for the benefit of the students interested in photography. The club owns a camera and all members have the privilege of using it on the campus. Films are furnished by the club at a small expense to the members. A fully equipped dark room is maintained where the members can develop and print pictures. Last year's activities included taking pictures of life on the campus and publishing them in Life at Eastern. This book was mailed to Eastern's service men throughout the world. Parties were also given. This year the club plans to continue the general activities, but as yet definite plans cannot be announced. Membership is open to anyone who has completed one quarter of college work and who is passing in all subjects. Dr. LaFuze is the sponsor.

SIGMA TAU PI

Sigma Tau Pi is the commercial club of the campus. It has bi-weekly meetings, and discussions of commercial problems are held at these meetings. The old members will have a meeting in the near future to vote on new members and a new sponsor. W. J. Moore, State Revenue Commissioner, was our sponsor, but since he isn't on the campus we have to choose a new one.

YWCA

The YWCA sponsored by Miss Mary Frances McKinney holds cabinet meetings twice each month. Chapel devotions, quiet hour and vespers are three continuous functions of the "Y." The vester program is our weekly meeting held on Thursday evenings from 6:15 to 7:00. A different program is held every week, and you are dismissed in time for physical education. Be wise and join the "Y's" so we can have fun while we "plan our work and work our plan."

CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club is the organization on the campus for English majors and minors. The club strives to promote literary interest and enthusiasm among the students. It meets twice a month on Wednesday nights for a dinner meeting in the cafeteria. Following the dinner is a short business meeting and a program, usually given by some member of the club. Once or twice a year Canterbury is entertained with a party or picnic in the home of Dr. Roy E. Clark, the sponsor. The officers for the new year are president, Nina Mayfield; vice president, Tommy Rankin; secretary, Jean Harrison; treasurer, Herbert Searcy.

The first meeting of the fall quarter will be held October 11 in room 201 of the Student Union Building.

WORLD AFFAIRS CLUB

The World Affairs Club is an organization formed for the purpose of discussing world activities. Everyone interested in world affairs is invited to join this organization. The sponsor is Dr. L. G. Kenamer.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is open to all students who are majoring in home economics. The club meets twice a month and topics of professional interest are discussed. The members also plan several social events for each year. The officers of the club for this year are: Geraldine Monhollon, president; Mae Porfitt, vice president; Norma Raybourne, secretary; and Louise White, treasurer. Miss Mary K. Burrier sponsors the club. A social event for all the new home economics students will be held within a few days and the regular meeting time will be decided upon.

By Jim Wade

The powers that be, the voices of authority that after ponderous deliberation consult the compass of public will and then chart the course of this institution's athletic activity have decided that it is altogether fitting and proper that EASTERN should have a basketball team this year. . . . But there was an afterthought. . . . in order to have a basketball team a school must have certain essentials. These include: (1) a coach, (2) several long-legged young men known as players, and (3) a gymnasium and a basketball.

Since Eastern was already equipped, and admirably so, with a coach one Mr. Rome Rankin, a very fine gymnasium and a pre-war basketball, it seemed that the only thing that stood between Eastern and cage immortality was the absence of players. We are happy to report that this final problem has been solved.

Just how Coach Rankin happened to lure his various proteges into the confines of Eastern should make an interesting, if rather involved story? 'Tis rumored that on a fishing trip this summer Coach Rankin was forced to detour deep into the heart of the hill country. Our distinguished mentor, it seems, became lost in that mountainous wilderness, miles from any form of civilization. Suddenly our coach's sensitive nostrils picked up the delicate odor of beans and gravy. Following his nose he soon came upon a deep cave that rambled far back into a hillside.

And what do you think he found in that cave? That's right! Far back in the recesses of their mountain retreat, eating beans and gravy with one hand and bouncing a basketball with the other were Bill Miller and Doyle Lovett. . . . The rest of our story needs no telling. . . . If the reader may be so brazen as to doubt the preceding tale, we refer him to Mr. Rankin.

But enough of our quaint humor. . . . Speaking seriously, it would seem that surely this is destined to be a big year for EASTERN in basketball. . . . From New York comes Fred Lewis, 195 pounds of Yankee who has a rather uncanny eye for the bucket. There is Bill Miller, Doyle Lovett, Cecil Shyrock, Harry Doepke, Jim Argentine from Toronto, O., George Maines, Jim Tom Rush, Ray Smith, Ben Johnson, Dick Moberly, and yours truly who slunk in from Memphis. It's a big, aggressive, sharp shooting bunch of lads that will carry the Maroon banner this season. . . . You may expect big things.

According to Coach Rankin, formal practice is slated to get under way this week. This will allow two months of practice and conditioning before the lid is pried off the cage campaign. The gang is raring to go. . . .

There's one thing certain about this world series: You can't lose money if you bet on St. Louis. . . . Our very close friend, Mr. George Maines, was one of the few individuals we have encountered that was particularly grieved to see the Browns outlast the Tigers of Detroit for the American League pennant. . . . It's been a long hard pull for the St. Louis club that has fought through sixteen long years of American League competition without ever winning a pennant. The Browns have been close before, desperately close, but they had never been able to muster that "down the stretch drive" that it takes to win in a close finish. . . . But make no mistake, the Browns really put on an exhibition of stellar pressure baseball. St. Louis captured 7 of their last 8 ball games, the last four being consecutive triumphs over the ever-dangerous Yankees. . . . Of course that Tiger team battled the Browns toe to toe until the very last day of the regular season. . . . Their fight was a game one. . . . and but for the fact that two of their top hurlers suffered a costly let-down from over work, the Detroit men, we firmly believe, would have come through with the title. But the auto city has enough pennant scalps in its tent. We are glad to see the overdue Browns up there on top. . . .

By the way the Browns had a most ardent rooter here on the EASTERN faculty. . . . none other than Mr. Keith who used, not so many years ago, maybe twenty-five, to do a little pitching for the new champs.

We listened to most of that Kentucky-Tennessee affair over the radio last week. . . . Pardon the rather sudden switch from the diamond to the gridiron. . . . and it was quite a ball game. Our native state, as you may have gathered, is Tennessee and we have always been an ardent Volunteer rooter. . . . U. T., it seems, has something of a jinx on the Blue Grass team. . . . We heard a loyal Kentuckian remark after the game that Tennessee's cheer leader could beat the Wildcats so strong is the spell that the Vols cast. . . . It was an odd ballgame. . . . It was an odd ball game. . . . Practically all the scoring came as a result of long, sensational runs. . . . Majors for the Vols and this fast moving Wildcat, Klein, seemed destined to carve themselves quite a chunk of glory before this season dies.

This loyal Memphian was quite overjoyed to read that Pete Gray, the sensational one-armed center fielder of the Memphis team, has been sold to none other than the high-riding St. Louis Browns.

Gray is undoubtedly the most colorful sports figure that we have ever seen. . . . Last season he clouted the ball at a .333 clip that included four home runs. He stole 68 bases. He played center field in a polished, at times brilliant fashion. While on base he was a constant source of worry for the opposing hurler, his daring leads off bases often rattled a pitcher into wild deliveries. . . . Pete Gray plays every game right up to the hilt.

Gray was voted the most valuable player in the Southern League. . . . We saw him in action all last season. . . . saw him go out to the plate with a tiny three-year-old lad who had lost an arm watching him with adoring eyes. . . . The kid had been brought from California to see his hero perform in a chips down play-off game with Nashville. Pete strode out on the field with fifteen thousand people praying for him to give that little boy inspiration. . . . And the idol had no feet of clay. . . . Slashing out two singles, two doubles, and a game winning triple in six times at bat, Pete carved a niche in the hearts of all who watched that night that will last as long as men talk baseball. . . . Watch Pete in the majors next year. . . . The fellow has a date with baseball immortality.

So much for baseball. . . . If you would like preview of Eastern's cage prospects this season drop out to the gym some afternoon and take a gander. . . . Coach Rankin has a house full of darned good ball players. . . . Guard Fred Lewis and pivot man Bill Miller look like the big guns in the Maroon offense. . . .
