Press Box

Eastern Kentucky University working press facilities are located atop the home stands at Roy Kidd Stadium. The ninth level houses space for sports writers, home and visiting radio, home and visiting coaches and public address. Only working press, coaches and game administration personnel with valid credentials will be admitted to this level.

Press Passes

All requests for working press credentials should be directed to the Athletic Public Relations Office. Passes not furnished by return mail must be picked up in person at the "Press Will Call" window located in front of Roy Kidd Stadium.

Photographers

Photographers must secure sideline passes from the Athletic Public Relations Office and adhere to a working area designated as "any area along the sidelines, except between the 30-yard lines, and beyond the end zones."

Media Parking

Media parking is located on the north end of the stadium in the lot next to the Student Wellness Center.

Services

Game programs, flip cards and statistics are provided at every Eastern Kentucky home game. A meal and drinks will also be served prior to every contest. Post-game interviews will be conducted in separate defined locations outside of each team's locker room. Wireless internet is available in the press box.

Player Interviews

Phone interviews will be arranged at the player's convenience, but it is asked that all player interviews (in person or via phone) be arranged through the Athletic Public Relations Office. During game weeks, all player interviews must be conducted by the end of practice on Thursday. Requests are asked to be made at least 24 hours in advance.

Coaches' Interviews

The best time to interview Coach Hood or any member of the football coaching staff is in the mornings. Please call the Athletic Public Relations Office to set up all interviews.

Weekly Press Conference

Head coach Dean Hood will conduct a press conference every week prior to an Eastern Kentucky game. The conference day, time and location will be announced to media members prior to the beginning of the season. A few select players will be available for interviews at the weekly press conference as well.

How to Get to EKU

From Cincinnati, Ohio and Points North:

All three Lexington network television stations (WTVQ-36, WKYT-27 and WLEX-18) cover EKU home football games at Roy Kidd Stadium.

Radio Coverage

Radio station WCYO (100.7 on the FM dial) will serve as the flagship station for the 2010 EKU Football Network. WCYO "The Coyote" is the flagship station for Wallingford Broadcasting of Richmond and Irvine. With 25,000 watts of power, The Coyote signal reaches more than 625,000 people.

This year's broadcast team will again be headed by longtime play-by-play announcer Greg Stotelmyer, who will be serving his 27th season as "The Voice of the Colonels" and his 31st season overall covering EKU football.

Stotelmyer has been employed the past 22 years as a reporter for WTVQ-TV in Lexington and also serves as the producer and host for the Coach Dean Hood Show and Coach Jeff Neubauer Show seen on Channel 36.

Joining Stotelmyer in the booth as the analyst for the eighth season will be Greg McClellan, who had handled the field reporting duties from 1997-2000.

In addition to the radio broadcasts, the EKU Football Network features pre-game interviews with coaches and players, and Hood joins Stotelmyer on the field after each game for the informative Coach Dean Hood Post-Game Show.

www.EKUSports.com

Eastern Kentucky's Athletic Department unveiled its new web site in the summer of 2008.

The site, which is powered by Sidearm Sports, features the latest news on all the EKU athletic teams. Live stats, feature stories, rosters, photo galleries and up-to-date schedules are just a few of the things that can be easily accessed through the site.

The site also features streaming audio for each football game, streaming video for all home games, press conference video clips and breaking news as it happens.

Fans can also sign up for an e-mail newsletter service through the site that will allow them to stay up-to-date on all their favorite Colonel squads.

Perhaps the best feature for EKU fans is the fact that audio from all football games will be streamed live via EKUSports.com at no charge to the fan.

The 2010 Eastern Kentucky University football radio broadcast team: (l-r) Greg McClellan, Greg Stotelmyer and Sean Hamilton.

Eastern Kentucky University is known as the Campus Beautiful, and for good reason.

The EKU campus is one of the most scenic college campuses in the nation and it features several striking features. From the James E. van Peursem Music Pavilion and the Ravine, to the Chapel of Meditation and the Keen Johnson Building, EKU features some of the most diverse and attractive locales on any college campus anywhere.

However strong Eastern Kentucky University's reputation is for its visual aesthetics, the real character of the University can be found in its students, faculty and staff, and outstanding academic programs.

EKU offers more than 160 degree programs and features an excellent 17-1 student-to-faculty ratio. The University serves more than 16,200 students, which represent almost all 120 counties in Kentucky, all 50 states and over 60 countries worldwide.

The University, which celebrated its centennial in the spring of 2006, had humble beginnings. EKU's origins can be traced back to a conflict between the northern and southern branches of Kentucky's Presbyterian Church.

A group of alumni and supporters from the Southern branch lost control of Centre College in Danville and set out to start their own institution of higher learning. From that conflict, Central College was chartered in 1873 and the school opened in September of 1874.

Financial problems led to Central College's consolidation into Centre College in 1901, but Richmond's place in higher education did not move with Central College. Walters Collegiate Institute offered a preparatory curriculum for college-bound men and served as a transitional institution between Central College and what would become Eastern Kentucky University.

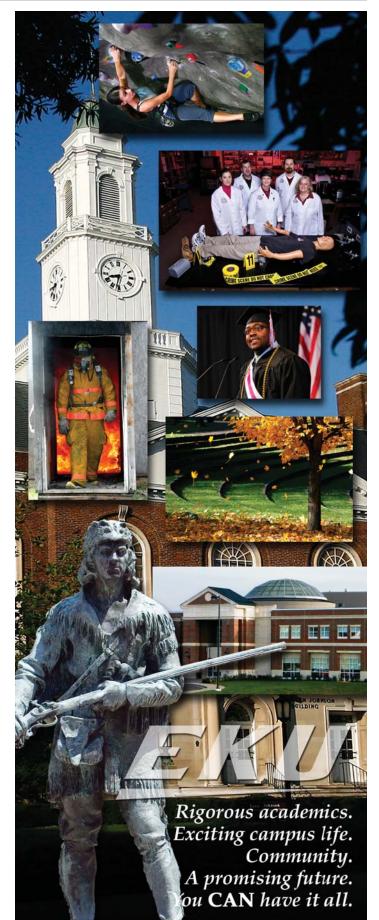

In 1906, the Kentucky General Assembly approved a bill that would establish two normal schools in the eastern and western parts of the state in order to prepare teachers to enter the classroom. The eastern school, which was located in Richmond, was called the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, later evolving into the regional institution now known as Eastern Kentucky University.

Modern-day EKU now encompasses three branch campuses in Corbin, Danville and Manchester. The University also boasts one of the state's strongest distance learning programs, giving students from around the world an opportunity to receive an EKU education.

EKU is also home to the College of Justice and Safety, which educates students from around the world. As EKU's Program of Distinction, the College of Justice and Safety is involved in numerous worldwide research projects. It also educates a vast majority of the law enforcement officers in the Commonwealth.

The University also boosts 17 championship sports at the NCAA's Division I level, competing in the Ohio Valley Conference. The Colonels' history includes several national championships, conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. However, the best is yet to come as the school's athletic department is committed to ensuring that EKU student-athletes are given the necessary resources to continue to compete at a national level.

All told, Eastern Kentucky University provides a safe and attractive environment in which its students can learn and become productive members of society. The lessons learned at EKU will follow students for a lifetime and the performance of its graduates will, in turn, continue to enhance the already strong regional and national reputation of the University.

City of Richmond

COLONELS

Richmond is home to many interesting and convenient activities. Whether it's arts and entertainment, recreation, or shopping and dining out you are looking for, Richmond has it all.

With more than 100 buildings in Richmond on the National Register of Historic Places and three areas on the National Register of Historic Districts, it is one of Kentucky's finest restored 19th Century commercial districts.

Arts and entertainment take center-stage with the Eastern Kentucky University theatre program. They offer several shows each year from classical theatre to modern musicals. Local artistic talents are on display year round at Gallery On Main. This is a perfect showcasing of local talent and an opportunity for community involvement.

There is never any lack of recreational activities in Richmond. An array of parks and recreational centers across the city offers something for everyone. Lake Reba Recreational complex includes golf, little league baseball and softball fields, soccer, fishing and a water park which opened in the summer of 2008.

If it's shopping you want, downtown Richmond can accommodate you. Locally owned businesses line the historic streets of downtown Richmond with everything from fine antiquities to exquisite jewelry. There is a wide variety of stores at the brand new Richmond Centre as well. The outdoor mall offers shoppers convenience and style.

Dining isn't hard to find either. Family-owned and major chain restaurants give Richmond a unique variety of menus. Local hot spots include Madison Gardens, which is uniquely Richmond, to restaurants such as Applebee's, Logan's Roadhouse, O'Charley's and Outback Steakhouse. Whatever your pallet craves, Richmond dining offers a variety of tastes made to satisfy.

Never far from mainstream, Richmond offers the comforts of simplicity with the convenience of the city.

Only 29 miles from Lexington and the Bluegrass Airport, Richmond is easily accessible to all travelers. Interstate 75 is a major artery of both state and national motor transportation. Richmond's location on I-75 makes it an important factor in making the city a commercial hub.

In fact, the ease of travel to and from Richmond makes the city an ideal spot for those who enjoy outdoor activities.

Fort Boonesborough State Park is located only 12 miles from EKU's campus, while Natural Bridge State Park (63 miles) and Cumberland Falls State Park (100 miles) are located nearby.

Also within easy driving distance of Richmond are the Kentucky Horse Park, the state capital in Frankfort, Herrington Lake, My Old Kentucky Home at Bardstown, White Hall State Shrine and thoroughbred horse racing at Keeneland.

A Brief Richmond History

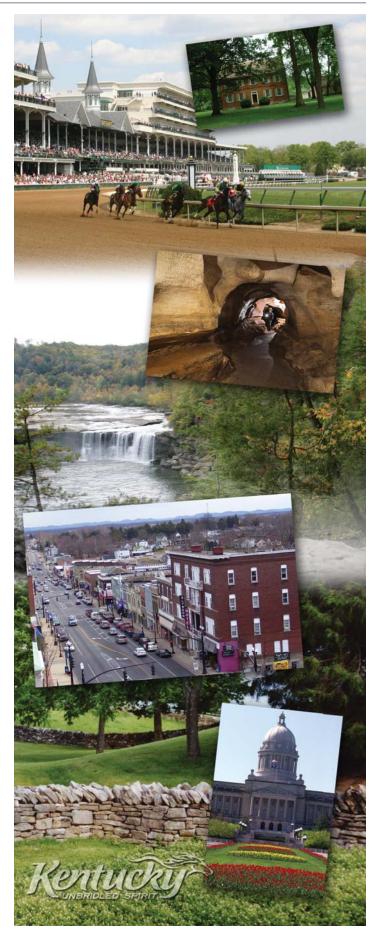

Richmond was founded in 1798 by Colonel John Miller, a Revolutionary War soldier. In 1798, the Kentucky Legislature authorized the moving of the Madison County seat from nearby Milford to land owned by Colonel Miller.

The move was bitterly opposed by about 300 residents of the Milford area and a fight to retain the seat resulted between Dave Kennedy, who represented the Milford location, and William Kearly, who represented the new site.

Although history does not record the results of the brawl, the county approved the move in March of 1798 and two acres of land were purchased from Colonel Miller. Court was held in his barn.

On July 4, 1798, the site was officially named Richmond in honor of Miller's birthplace, Richmond, Va.

The 2010 Eastern Kentucky University football team has many important pieces in place for another run at the Ohio Valley Conference title. In each of his previous two years as head coach, Dean Hood and the Colonels have had the opportunity to play for the conference crown in the regular-season finale.

EKU successfully won the 2008 OVC title with a thrilling 33-31 decision at UT Martin. However, the Colonels came up just short last fall at Jacksonville State as the Gamecocks pulled out a 34-26 win.

"We'd like to get back to where we are winning championships every year, or every other year, or two out of every three years, and be successful in the playoffs," Hood said. "[The players] came up with their own team goals for this year and one of the things they said we need to do is play passionate, hard-nosed football. I think we need to be a tougher group than we were a year ago and I think the players realize that."

Eastern is particularly loaded on defense with eight of the 11 starters from 2009 back on the roster, including All-OVC performers Andrew Soucy (defensive tackle), Jordan Dalrymple (linebacker) and Jeremy Caldwell (defensive back). Under Hood, the Colonel defense has been known for forcing turnovers, but was held without a turnover in the final three games of 2009.

"We weren't lucky," Hood said. "Luck is where preparation meets opportunity. We need to prepare better so when those opportunities do present themselves, we make the play."

On offense, the EKU passing game has the chance to be as explosive as it has ever been. The 2009 OVC Freshman of the Year, quarterback T.J. Pryor, has plenty of targets to work with on the perimeter including senior Shannon Davis, sophomore Orlandus Harris and senior Evan Cromer. A new addition, 6-7 tight end transfer Matt Lengel, will give the Colonels something they were missing last year – a safety valve receiver in the middle of the field.

Heading into preseason camp, Coach Hood is most excited about having both the offensive and defensive signal callers returning.

"This is the first time since I've been here that we've had both [our quarterback and safeties] back," Hood said. "You can do all the preparing you want, but when the ball is kicked off, it's on those players to get the rest of the team lined up and doing the right things."

Quarterbacks

One year ago, the biggest story line heading into preseason camp was the battle at the quarterback position. There is no such debate this fall as sophomore T.J. Pryor is the clear cut quarterback for the foreseeable future.

"The best thing about freshmen is that they turn into sophomores," Hood said. "It wasn't our intent to play him as much as we did last year, but he was the right guy for the job. We're excited to see what he's going to do as a sophomore."

Pryor was utilized in a back-up role to start the 2009 campaign, but was thrust into the starter's spot in game four at nationallyranked Eastern Illinois. The Louisville, Ky., native responded by completing 19-of-30 passes for 293 yards and two scores in the 36-31 win. Pryor went on to become just the sixth Colonel to throw for 2,000 yards in a season (2,153) on the way to finishing third in the OVC in passing yards per game (195.7) and total offense (220.2). Not only can Pryor pass the ball, but he is a threat to run. In nine of the 11 games last season, Pryor tallied at least one rush of 10 yards or more.

Backing up Pryor will be redshirt freshman Brendon Gregory. The native of Erlanger, Ky., proved this spring that he could lead the team if need be. Gregory threw for more than 1,300 yards as a junior at Lloyd Memorial High School before injuring his knee as a senior. Two incoming freshmen – Jacob Russell and Alex Conley – will redshirt this year, but are excellent prospects for the future.

Running Backs

There is a big hole to fill at running back this year. The team's leading rusher in 2009, C.J. Walker, graduated last December leaving the starting position up for grabs among three or even four players.

Junior H.B. Banjoman came out of the spring as the most likely candidate to take over the starting position. Banjoman played in all 11 games as a sophomore while averaging 5.1 yards per carry. Against Kentucky on Nov. 7, Banjoman totaled nine carries for 35 yards and a touchdown. In the spring game, Banjoman led all running backs with 65 yards on eight carries.

"Banjoman is a big, physical back who can get tough yards for the offense," Hood said.

Senior Aaron Bradley could also be in the mix for playing time. However, Bradley is a question mark as he is still dealing with a knee injury that he suffered in the 2009 spring game. Another player to keep an eye on is junior Kyle Lumpkin, a transfer from the Air Force Academy. Lumpkin ran for 452 yards for Air Force in 2008.

Newcomers Patryk Bielawski and Chaz Hope will most likely fill the fullback role in short-yardage situations.

Wide Receivers

Eastern Kentucky's wide receiver position is filled with plenty of big-play potential. Seniors Shannon Davis and Evan Cromer along with sophomore Orlandus Harris are all capable of piling up 100-plus yards receiving in a game.

Quarterback T.J. Pryor was the OVC Freshman of the Year one season ago.

Davis is the deep-play threat and averaged 19.1 yards per reception as a junior. Harris, the team's top returning wide out, has a world of potential. The sophomore finished with 432 receiving yards last year including 97 yards against Kentucky on Nov. 7. Cromer is a dependable, possession receiver who knows the position and runs excellent routes.

Meanwhile, senior Ronnie Letcher, a Western Kentucky transfer, and junior Chris Moore, a converted linebacker, give the receivers a few new faces.

"Ronnie [and Chris] give us some physicality at the position," Hood said. "It seemed like we were missing that last year which hurt our screen game."

Redshirt freshman Justin Williams and sophomore Trey Fairchild should also see playing time at the position. Williams impressed the coaching staff with his play-making abilities on the practice field throughout his redshirt season. Fairchild has battled injuries since his arrival to EKU last year, but when healthy can give the Colonels another solid possession receiver.

Offensive Linemen

There will be a whole new look to the offensive line in 2010 as senior guard Chris Krack is the only starter returning to the unit. The coaching staff was able to address this issue during the recruiting period by adding two former Hofstra linemen and two junior college transfers.

"I actually think this could be an area of strength for us and we might even be better than last year on the offensive line," Hood said.

One of the Hofstra transfers, junior Derek Moore, started 23 games in his career for the Pride while earning 2009 All-CAA third team honors. Moore is expected to start at one of the tackle positions. Sophomore Patrick Ford, a hometown product from Richmond and son of former Colonel Gary Ford, is slated to start at the other tackle spot. Ford saw time on the offensive line in 2009.

Besides Krack, the other guard position looks to be filled by the other Hofstra transfer, Kevin Brown.

The center position will be contested between two returnees – sophomore O.J. Enabosi and junior Josh Miller. Miller started eight games at center one year ago before injuring his knee against Andrew Soucy blocked a kick attempt in five straight games as a junior.

Kentucky. Enabosi replaced Miller in the line-up, but at the guard spot. However, Enabosi's natural position is center and he is the frontrunner to earn the spot heading into preseason camp.

The two Eastern Arizona junior college transfers – Joe Arnason and Bo Faauaa – will provide quality depth at the guard and tackle positions.

Another addition to the line in 2010 will be 6-7 tight end Matt Lengel. The transfer from Northeastern gives the offense a dimension it was lacking following the departure of Stephen Sizemore, who recorded a team-high 48 receptions in 2008.

Defensive Linemen

Senior all-conference performer Andrew Soucy heads up the Colonel defensive line. Fellow senior Yameen Thomas and junior Emory Attig are two other starters returning in 2010.

"Soucy and Attig are going to be the work-horse guys inside," Hood said. "We've got three young guys – Robert Knowles, David Carter and Devin Gainer – that we also feel good about. One of those guys will have to step up to be the guy in the rotation with Soucy and Attig to give those guys a break."

Soucy led the team and ranked fifth in the OVC with 9.5 tackles for loss as a junior. He had a career game against UT Martin on Oct. 17 with eight tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a blocked PAT. Attig chipped in with 3.5 sacks and eight tackles for loss in 2009.

Thomas will be in his second season as a starting defensive end. Joining Thomas on the outside should be sophomore Jasper Williams. Two redshirt freshmen – Anthony Brown and Shawn Shupperd – impressed the coaching staff during the spring and could be valuable contributors this season. Shupperd had an impressive spring game as he posted two sacks.

One other addition to the defensive line unit is sophomore Patrick Henry who is transitioning from the offensive line. Henry is set to compete at defensive end.

Linebackers

Seniors Jordan Dalrymple and Antonio Fredrick return to their familiar places of inside linebackers in 2010.

"We'll be better at linebacker than we have been since I've been here," Hood said.

Dalrymple, a 2009 All-OVC pick, led the squad and ranked seventh in the OVC with 85 tackles one season ago. A consistent player, Dalrymple totaled at least five tackles in every game as a junior. Fredrick had to sit out the spring season with an injured shoulder, but the hard hitter should be ready to go for preseason camp.

A pair of new faces will serve as back-ups at the inside positions.

"We also have two redshirt freshmen who I absolutely love – Zavier Foster and Ichiro Chiba," Hood said. "Both of those players have motors that don't stop running."

One other face to watch out for is redshirt freshman Tyler Horn. He is a swing player who could play inside or outside linebacker.

Making the move from inside backer to the strong side will be junior Tyson Patrick. That move has made the defense much stronger according to Coach Hood. Hood compares the play of Patrick to former Colonel outside linebacker TyJuan Jones. Patrick led all players with eight tackles, including one sack, in the spring game.

Sophomore Nick Vicini, who saw action in all 11 games last year, is slated to serve as Patrick's back-up.

Season Outlook

COLONELS

Defensive Backs

Coach Hood tends to have a personal connection with the defensive backs unit because he himself played the position in college and then climbed the coaching ranks as a secondary coach. The EKU defense relies on the safeties to call the coverage and schemes for the entire unit.

Luckily for the Colonels, both starting safeties from 2009 are back for another season together.

Senior Robert Dees and junior Patrick McClellan were two of the steadiest defenders last year. Dees finished with 61 tackles and three pass break-ups. Meanwhile, McClellan chipped in with 64 tackles and three interceptions.

Sophomore Brooklyn Fox will be used in the safety rotation this fall, allowing Dees and McClellan a chance to catch their breath.

"Brooklyn probably had the best spring of anyone on our whole football team," Hood said. "With the emergence of Brooklyn at safety, that has allowed us to be comfortable moving Marcus Williams back over to his natural position [of corner back]."

Williams will be joined on the outside by all-league performer, junior Jeremy Caldwell. Caldwell tied for fourth in FCS football last year with seven interceptions. He made an immediate impact in the season opener with two interceptions against Indiana. He then sealed the win over Eastern Illinois with a fourth-quarter interception returned for a touchdown.

One other player likely to see plenty of quality playing time at corner back will be senior Jaren Gooden. Gooden has started 15 games in his Colonel career while registering four pass break-ups as a junior.

"I think we need to be a tougher group than we were a year ago and I think the players realize that." – Dean Hood, EKU head coach –

Special Teams

The coaching staff is hopeful that senior Logan O'Connor, who handled the punting and various kicking duties the previous two years, will be used only as the placekicker this season. O'Connor struggled at times kicking last fall, but finished strong thanks to making both field goal attempts in the season finale at Jacksonville State.

Coach Hood is hopeful that redshirt freshman Jordan Berry, a native of Australia, can help the team in the punter's role.

"[Berry] improved as the spring went along," Hood said. "He has a powerful leg, but he needs to be more consistent on his punts."

EKU will be searching for a new long snapper in 2010 following the departure of three-year starter Jacob Claycomb. Junior Emory Attig and freshman Chaz Hope spent time long snapping in the spring. Senior Chris Krack has been used as the short snapper before and could be called on to fill that role again. Another option at long snapper could be true freshman Danny Adams. Adams was rated the number one long snapper in the nation last year by www.prokicker.com.

The most likely candidates to return kick-offs will be junior Jeremy Caldwell and sophomore Orlandus Harris. Caldwell will probably be utilized as the primary punt returner for the second consecutive season as well.

Defensive back Jeremy Caldwell was named to the initial Buck Buchanan Award watch list earlier this summer.

The Schedule

The beginning of the 2010 schedule could be one of the most challenging in recent EKU history. The Colonels open the year with three straight tough road games at Missouri State (Sept. 2), at Louisville (Sept. 11) and at Chattanooga (Sept. 18). This will be the third straight year the Colonels kick off the season on a Thursday night.

"I don't think it matters that those games are on the road, but it matters who we are playing," Hood said. "I like the fact that we are playing FCS teams from other conferences that will be fighting for playoff positions, especially with the playoffs expanding [to 20 teams] this year. It's frosting on the cake to play a regional BCS team such as Louisville."

Eastern concludes its non-conference schedule at home on Oct. 2 against Kentucky State. This will be EKU's latest date for a home opener since 1964.

The following week, the Colonels begin OVC action at home against defending league champion Eastern Illinois (Oct. 9). EKU was the only OVC team to defeat the Panthers one year ago.

Following two straight road games at UT Martin (Oct. 16) and Southeast Missouri (Oct. 23), Eastern Kentucky returns to Roy Kidd Stadium for three of its last four games. Homecoming is set for Oct. 30 versus traditional rival Murray State (Oct. 30). The Colonels have won eight of the last nine meetings against the Racers with the lone setback coming in the 2004 Homecoming game.

On Nov. 6, Eastern hosts Jacksonville State. Since the Gamecocks joined the league in 2003, EKU (44) and JSU (42) have tallied the most victories against OVC opponents.

Finally, the Colonels wrap up the regular season at Tennessee Tech (Nov. 13) and back home against Austin Peay (Nov. 20). Eastern Kentucky does not play OVC foe Tennessee State this fall.

The NCAA Division I FCS playoffs, which expand from 16 to 20 teams this year, begin on Nov. 27 with four first-round games. There are now 10 conferences that earn automatic bids to the playoffs: Big Sky, Big South, Colonial, Mid-Eastern Athletic, Missouri Valley, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Southern and Southland. The FCS championship game is slated for Jan. 7, 2011 in Frisco, Texas.

History of the Colonel

Eastern Kentucky University athletic teams were known as the Maroons until 1966 and even survived one attempt to alter the school mascot to the Leopards.

In 1963, Eastern Kentucky University President Robert Martin was at a loss as to how he could create a physical "Maroon" to excite the audience. A man of vision and intelligence, Martin began searching for a mascot that would embody the glorious Bluegrass State.

He found it in the honorable Kentucky Colonel.

The military title of "Colonel" had begun being used as an honorary title in the state by the late 1800s and by 1931 the nowfamous Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels had been formed.

The finger-lickin' Colonel Harlan D. Sanders himself was inducted in 1935.

Like Minutemen of Massachusetts and Sooners of Oklahoma, the Kentucky breed of Colonel was a unique symbol of the state and so Martin selected it to accompany the school color as Eastern's mascot.

Further cementing the connection with Eastern was the fact that Centre College's mascot was already the Colonel and a faction of that school had occupied the Richmond campus before Eastern's founding.

EKU unveiled a new set of athletic logos in the spring of 2006 and followed by designing a new mascot that was ready for the 2006 football season.

◆ 2008 OVC Coach of the Year

◆ 2008 Eddie Robinson Award Finalist

The expectations for the Eastern Kentucky University football team always seem to be high and in 2008, first year head coach Dean Hood delivered as the Colonels claimed their 20th Ohio Valley Conference title. Now in his third year at Eastern, Hood and the rest of the Colonels hope the fall of 2010 ends with another trip to the NCAA FCS playoffs.

"It doesn't matter if you are coaching a game in Death Valley versus Clemson or here versus Morehead State," Hood said. "It's all the same. The kids are starting to understand that point and the culture we are trying to create at EKU. They can't play to the best of their athletic ability until they know exactly where they are supposed to be and what they are supposed to do on the field."

Hood, 46, took over EKU program in January 2008 after working at Wake Forest University for seven seasons. Under Hood's direction, the Wake Forest defense was known for creating turnovers and scoring touchdowns. The Demon Deacons forced 186 turnovers from 2001-07, more than two per game. In 2007, Wake Forest led the Atlantic Coast Conference with 35 turnovers forced on its way to going 9-4 and capturing the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

"Dean Hood is a wonderful blend of several characteristics we were looking for in a head coach," EKU Director of Athletics Mark Sandy said. "He's a great teacher, excellent recruiter, a person of high character, and someone who has been part of the EKU football heritage."

From 1994-98, Hood spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky under College Football Hall of Fame coach Roy Kidd. He served all five years as the secondary coach and the last two seasons as the defensive coordinator. In Hood's first stint at EKU, the Colonels captured two Ohio Valley Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Division I FCS playoffs three times.

"This was a big deal for me," Eastern Kentucky University President Dr. Doug Whitlock said. "I have been an Eastern football fan for almost 50 years; so I wanted us to find someone who would fit in with the community, had the kind of values that our football program has traditionally been built upon, and hopefully had been a part of the EKU football tradition. And, yes, we wanted someone who has been and will be a winner. Dean Hood fills all those particulars."

At Wake Forest, Hood and the rest of the Demon Deacons broke every program record imaginable in 2006 and set many other milestones. WFU won the ACC title for the first time since 1970 by shattering the program record with 11 victories. The Demon Deacons earned a berth in a BCS bowl game, taking on Louisville in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

Much of the credit for Wake Forest's 2006 league championship fell to the defense. The Demon Deacons allowed just 15.4 ppg to rank second in the ACC and 21st nationally. Against the run, Wake yielded just 105.8 yards per game to rank 21st nationally, the third lowest total in Wake Forest history. Against the pass, the Demon Deacons recorded 22 interceptions, second most in the nation. Hood's defenders earned All-ACC mention 14 times. That list includes four NFL draft picks – Calvin Pace, Montique Sharpe, Eric King and Josh Gattis.

Hood entered the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant at Fairmont (W.Va.) State College, where he worked with the defensive backs during the 1987 and 1988 seasons. The 1988 team won the WVIAC championship and led the nation with 31 interceptions. Hood then spent the 1989 campaign at Colgate University.

From 1990-93, Hood coached at Glenville (W.Va.) State College, the last three of which he served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. In 1993, Glenville finished 10-3 and advanced to the NAIA Division I championship game. Also that year, Hood's defense led the nation in scoring defense (9.2 ppg), passing defense (118.0 ypg), and total defense (223.0 ypg).

Hood moved to Ohio University for two years (1999-2000) where he met current Wake Forest head coach Jim Grobe. At Ohio, Hood was in charge of the defensive backs. That unit recorded 17 interceptions in 1999, the most in more than a decade. The following year, Ohio ranked 20th nationally in scoring defense (18.9 points per game) as the Bobcat defense was one of only five units in Division I-A that did not allow more than 30 points in a game throughout the entire season.

This is Hood's first head coaching position and he is just the third EKU head football coach in the last 44 years.

"Knowing first-hand what Coach Kidd built here, this is one of the best jobs in the country," Hood said. "I remember when I was here the first time thinking how many guys in the history of athletics are still coaching in a facility named after them. That is rare. It is exciting to be at the helm of this program."

"Dean is a tremendous role model for our student-athletes," Sandy said. "He has worked with two of the best people who have ever served as mentors for young men – Roy Kidd and Jim Grobe. I am sure our current players, recruits, and fans will be impressed."

Education: Ohio Wesleyan University, B.S. in biology, 1986
West Virginia University, M.S. in physical education, 1989

Collegiate playing career:

Ohio Wesleyan University, 1982-86, defensive back

- Three-time All-North Coast Athletic Conference selection
- Two-time team captain
- First team All-American as a senior
- Inducted into the OWU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001

Collegiate head coaching record: 13-10, third season Record at Eastern Kentucky: 13-10, third season Record against OVC teams: 12-4

Hood was a three-time All-North Coast Athletic Conference selection during his playing days at Ohio Wesleyan University. He was also named a first team All-American defensive back during his senior year and served as team captain his final two seasons. The native of Ashtabula, Ohio, was inducted into the OWU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

Hood graduated from Ohio Wesleyan in 1986 with a degree in biology. He went on to earn a master's in physical education from West Virginia University in 1989.

"We are very excited to be back," Hood said. "My wife is from here and we are happy to have our kids near her family. I am looking forward to the challenge of being Eastern's head coach. As you progress in this profession, you always think about doing things your own way. This is a chance to implement those thoughts."

Hood is married to the former Crystal Ramsey of Richmond, Ky. The couple has four children – two sons, Trey and Daven, and two daughters, Jada and Cordia.

What Others Are Saying About Dean Hood

"It doesn't get any better than Dean Hood. He is not only a great football coach, but just as good a person. He was invaluable to our success at Wake. He not only did a great job with our defense, but more importantly,was a great team member. Dean is totally unselfish and his whole concern is with the well-being of the players. He has the ability to get kids to be real good football players on the field and also to be great citizens off the field. We'll miss Dean, but I couldn't be happier for him." --Jim Grobe, Head Coach, Wake Forest University

"It was an honor to play for Coach Hood. I can't say enough good things about him. He is an unbelievable coach and a great person. As someone who played for him and who is now a coach, I can tell you how much he cares for and takes care of his players both on and off the field. He is a tireless worker and has a great family. EKU did a great job in hiring Dean Hood, he is a great fit."

--Bob Head, played three years for Coach Hood at EKU, 1994-96, DB

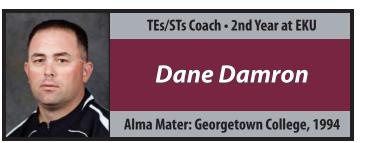

"Coach Hood is one of the best defensive minds in the game. He coached me and taught me about life. He is very enthusiastic and works hard. Coach Hood is a family guy who cares about his players and coaches."

--Tony Gibson, Assistant Head Coach/Secondary, University of Michigan

"Dean Hood is a good person and a solid football coach. He is really enthusiastic and works very hard at recruiting. I remember when he was here how encouraging he was to the guys on the sideline."

--Roy Kidd, Former Head Coach, Eastern Kentucky University, 1964-2002

Dane Damron rejoined the Eastern Kentucky coaching staff in January. He will serve as the special teams and tight ends coach for a second consecutive year in 2010.

Damron most recently served as Kentucky Christian's head football coach. He spent three years building the program at Kentucky Christian which culminated with the school's first-ever varsity football season in 2008.

"When you are a head coach at the collegiate or high school level, you have to know how to coach a little bit of everything," Hood said. "Dane has an extensive football background and we're excited to have him as a part of our staff."

Damron began his collegiate coaching career at Eastern Kentucky in 1995. He served two years as a graduate assistant and wide receivers coach under Roy Kidd. Damron earned his master's degree in sports administration from EKU in 1996.

Following a coaching stint at Morehead State, Damron moved to the high school ranks where he coached for nine years. From 2002-05, he was the head coach of Boyd County where he helped the Lions advance to the second round of the KHSAA playoffs three straight years.

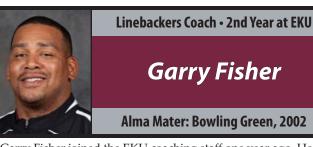

Damron played collegiate football at Georgetown College from 1990-94. The quarterback was a two-time NAIA All-American and led the Tigers to the 1991 NAIA national championship.

Damron and his wife Delisha have two children – Hanna (10) and Derek (6).

Garry Fisher joined the EKU coaching staff one year ago. He will serve as the linebackers coach in 2010.

Fisher, a native of Columbus, Ohio, spent the 2008 season as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Kentucky State.

"We're certainly very excited to have Garry on staff," Eastern Kentucky head coach Dean Hood said. "He came highly recommended and with his extensive defensive background, especially at the linebacker position, this seemed like the perfect fit for us."

Fisher was a four-year letterwinner at Bowling Green (1998-01) as an outside linebacker before transitioning into the Falcons coaching ranks in 2002. After serving two years as a defensive assistant at BGSU, Fisher moved to Utah where he served as an offensive assistant for the 2004 Mountain West Conference and 2005 Fiesta Bowl champions. At both of his first two coaching jobs, Fisher served under current Florida head coach Urban Meyer.

Following a one-year stint at Heidelberg College (2005) as the special teams coordinator, Fisher landed at Shenandoah University for two years (2006-07) as the defensive coordinator.

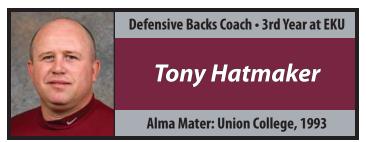

Fisher graduated from Bowling Green State University in 2002 with a degree in sociology. He then earned his master's degree in exercise and sport science from the University of Utah in 2006.

Fisher has two children – Amari (six) and Rece (four). He married the former Lucretia Hughes, who has one child – Tseday (seven), this summer.

Tony Hatmaker is in his third year on the Eastern Kentucky staff and is in charge of the Colonel defensive backs.

The secondary should be one of the stronger EKU defensive units in 2010 as three of four starters from 2009 return including all-conference corner back Jeremy Caldwell. The Colonels finished second in the OVC with 14 interceptions last fall.

"Tony is a tireless worker who pays attention to detail and coaches with a lot of energy and passion," head coach Dean Hood said. "We are excited about him being a part of our staff."

Hatmaker's résumé includes more than 10 years of collegiate coaching experience. From 2005-06, he served as the assistant head football coach at Southeastern Louisiana. Hatmaker coached the linebackers, offensive line, snappers, punter and kickers as well as served as the NFL liaison in his two years with the Lions. Two of the three starting linebackers came away with all-conference honors in 2005.

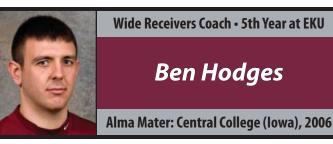

Hatmaker also spent six years on the staff at Southwest Baptist (Mo.) University. He was the defensive coordinator for five of those seasons and helped the Bearcats earn their first winning record in 10 seasons in 2001. Southwest Baptist then recorded a program-record 18 interceptions in 2002. While at Southwest Baptist, Hatmaker logged three seasons (1999-01) as the head softball coach as well.

The Kentucky native began his coaching career in 1992 at Union (Ky.) College after playing four years as an outside linebacker for the Bulldogs. Hatmaker was a four-year starter at Union and twice earned all-district honors. In addition to playing football, he was the starting catcher for the baseball team and helped the Bulldogs win their first championship since 1976.

Hatmaker and his wife, Laura, have two sons – Abe (3) and Tyler (1).

Ben Hodges is in his fifth year on the Colonel coaching staff and third year coaching the wide receivers.

"We felt like Ben was the best available person around to coach our wide receivers and he hasn't done anything at all to disappoint," head coach Dean Hood said. "He studies the game and wants to be a good football coach. I think he has a very bright future in the business."

Hodges will have the luxury of working with one of the deepest units on the team this fall. Veterans Ryan Aldrin, Evan Cromer and Shannon Davis bring plenty of experience to the outside. Sophomore Orlandus Harris burst onto the scene last year to post 31 receptions, third most on the team. Meanwhile, redshirt freshman Justin Williams could prove to be another young impact player in 2010.

In his first two years on staff as an offensive assistant, Hodges worked with the tight ends and also served as the video coordinator.

Hodges came to the Colonels from Central College in Iowa where he served as a student assistant for four seasons. While at Central, he helped the Dutch capture two Iowa Conference championships. In 2005, Central went 9-1 in the regular season to advance to the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Hodges spent much of his time at Central breaking down opponent film and putting together scouting reports. He was the scout team coordinator while assisting with the linebackers for three years and the offensive line for a season.

A 2006 summa cum laude graduate of Central College, Hodges earned his bachelor of arts degree in economics. He completed his master's degree in sports administration from EKU in December 2007.

Carson Jeffers is in his third year on the Eastern coaching staff and second season as the offensive line coach and director of operations.

The EKU offensive line will have an entirely new look in 2010 as Jeffers will have to replace three starters from the 2009 line-up.

"Carson came very highly recommended by a variety of people who have seen him coach several positions," Eastern head football coach Dean Hood said. "He has been on both sides of the ball as well as special teams. Carson is a great addition to our staff."

Jeffers has worked at five colleges throughout the South before arriving at EKU. For three years, Jeffers served on the coaching staff at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. The 2006 Wolfpack captured the Mississippi Junior College South Division title and went on to defeat Georgia Military College in the Golden Isle Bowl. In 2007, Jeffers was promoted from offensive line coach to co-offensive coordinator.

Jeffers was also the offensive coordinator at the University of Charleston (W.Va.) (2003), where he worked with Eastern Kentucky offensive coordinator Mike Springston, and Cumberland University (1998). For three-and-a-half years, Jeffers was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of the South (1999-02).

He began his collegiate coaching career in 1995 at his alma mater, Concord College. During his football career, Jeffers was honored as an all-conference player and a Dean's List student. He proceeded to earn his master's degree in education from Cumberland University in 2000.

Jeffers is married to the former Lauren Newton of Ripley, W.Va. The couple has a two-year old son – Kaden Blake Jeffers.

Former Colonel Jake Johnson is in his seventh season on the Eastern Kentucky coaching staff and sixth as the team's defensive line coach.

"I'm very impressed with Jake's command of things at such a young age," head coach Dean Hood said. "Players enjoy being around him and work hard for him."

Three of the four starters from 2009 are returning to the defensive line this fall including All-OVC standout Andrew Soucy. The senior led the Colonels with 9.5 tackles-for-loss and was second on the team with three sacks one year ago. Soucy also blocked a league-best five kicks during the season. The other two returning starters – senior Yameen Thomas and junior Emory Attig – combined for 13.5 tackles-for-loss in 2009.

After graduating from Eastern in 2002 with a bachelor of arts degree in geography with an emphasis in global studies, Johnson spent a year at Wingate University as an assistant coach. His duties there included serving as the Bulldogs' full-time tight ends coach and assistant offensive line coach, while also aiding in player recruitment and game-day planning. Johnson then returned to Eastern Kentucky in 2004 as a graduate assistant coach.

A three-year starting offensive lineman during his collegiate career, Johnson garnered All-Ohio Valley Conference accolades at center in 2001. That same year, Johnson served as the Colonels' offensive team captain and was named the squad's offensive lineman of the year.

Johnson earned four letters from 1997-2001 and was a freshman on the 1997 Colonel team which captured an OVC championship. He found success on and off the field at EKU, earning two spots on the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll and five Colonel Scholar awards.

Johnson married the former Kate Lyon, a four-year volleyball letterwinner at Eastern who was named team co-MVP in 2000, in the summer of 2007. The couple celebrated the birth of their first child, Samuel Lyon Johnson, this past March.

If anybody ever fit the description "life-long Colonel," it's John Revere. He played for the Colonels from 1972-75 before returning to his alma mater as a member of the coaching staff 14 years ago.

"John Revere, by far, has recruited more people in our twodeep to this program than any other coach," head coach Dean Hood said. "He is a knowledgeable person that can and has coached several different positions on the field."

Over the past decade, Revere has spent time coaching the wide receivers and running backs. This will be the sixth consecutive year he will be in charge of the running backs, a position which could be up for grabs this fall.

Eastern's leading rusher from 2009, C.J. Walker, graduated, leaving the ball handling duties up to numerous players including junior H.B. Banjoman, senior Aaron Bradley and senior Bruce Frieson. Bradley, who missed the entire 2009 season with a knee injury, was expected to compete with Walker for the starting spot last year.

Besides his coaching duties, Revere serves as a liaison for housing, meals and walk-on players.

Prior to returning to Eastern, Revere was an assistant coach at LaGrange (Ga.) High School from 1982 to 1996. There he coached six players that went on to NFL careers including Walt Harris (San Francisco 49ers), Tyrone Poole (Oakland Raiders), Quientin Mc-Cord (Atlanta Falcons), John Johnson (San Francisco 49ers), Tony Stargell (New York Jets) and Marty Carter (Detroit Lions).

Revere has also had a hand in developing several professional players while coaching at Eastern Kentucky. Alex Bannister, a wide receiver with the Super Bowl XL participant Seattle Seahawks, learned under Revere. Dialleo Burks, who also played for Revere at LaGrange High School, went on to play for the Dallas Desperados in the Arena League, while Corey Crume went on to play for the Saskatchewan Rough Riders in the Canadian Football League.

On the recruiting front, Revere's tireless work along with his countless high school contacts have helped land numerous successful student-athletes at Eastern. Among Revere's standout recruits are Antwaun Molden, a third round pick of the Houston Texans in the 2008 draft, and Sean Dumford, a 2008 free agent signee with the Baltimore Ravens. Some of his other former recruits include Larry Turner, a seventh round selection of the St. Louis Rams in the 2004 draft, Terry Ennis, who inked a contract with the British Columbia Lions of the CFL and former Colonel linebacker Justen Rivers, the 2004 OVC Defensive Player of the Year.

Revere was a standout during his collegiate playing career, starting at flanker for four seasons under legendary EKU head coach Roy Kidd. During those four years, he hauled in 95 passes for 1,501 yards and 13 scores. He also rushed 53 times for 419 yards and two touchdowns. A dangerous punt and kickoff return man, Revere tallied 459 career yards on 65 punt returns while racking up 1,212 yards and a touchdown on 59 kick-off returns.

Revere was honored as a first team All-OVC selection during his junior season after earning second team all-league accolades during his sophomore campaign. A preseason first team AllOVC pick as a senior, he served as co-captain of the 1975 squad that posted an 8-2-1 record. Revere also played baseball while a student at EKU.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Eastern Kentucky in 1976, Revere went on to earn his master's degree from Troy State in 1992.

Revere is married to the former Brenda Daniel of Dayton, Ohio, and the couple has three children – J.R. (31), Courtney (26) and Ben (22). He also has a daughter, Janeece (33). Revere's son, Ben, was selected in the first round of the 2007 Major League Baseball draft by the Minnesota Twins.

Mike Springston, who has 10 years of head coaching experience, joined the Eastern Kentucky coaching staff as the offensive coordinator in the spring of 2008.

"Mike and I worked together in the early 1990s at Glenville State College under Rich Rodriguez," EKU head coach Dean Hood said. "Mike brings a very creative and innovative offensive system that is hard to stop. More importantly than that, he is a good teacher who cares about kids."

The EKU offense has the potential to be a tough act to stop in 2010 with sophomore quarterback T.J. Pryor leading the way. Pryor took over the signal calling duties midway through the year last season and led the Colonels to a second place finish in the OVC, which included an impressive 36-31 win at conference champion Eastern Illinois.

Springston was the head coach and athletics director at West Virginia Tech from 1999-02 before taking over as head coach at the University of Charleston (W.Va.) for two years. While the head coach at West Virginia Tech, Springston took a program that had won six games in 10 years and developed it into a contender. The 2002 Golden Bears ended their season 6-5 overall and tied for second in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC).

After four years at West Virginia Tech, Springston took on a new challenge by revitalizing the Charleston football program. The Golden Eagles had not fielded a football team since 1956, but Springston and his staff put together a competitive squad that earned three victories in 2004.

Springston's other collegiate coaching stints include offensive coordinator positions at Concord College (1992), Glenville State College (1991) and West Virginia Tech (1990). He also served two years as the head coach at Thornridge High (Dalton, Ill.) in 1994-95 and Linden McKinley High (Columbus, Ohio) in 1985-86.

Most recently, Springston served three years as a special education teacher at Parkland High School in Winston-Salem, N.C. There, he volunteered his time with the football team for two years.

Springston earned his bachelor's degree from West Virginia Tech in 1981.

Springston and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of three grown children – Chris Springston (32), Paul Tromp (32) and Lisa Tromp (29).

#24 Eastern Kentucky – 13 at Indiana – 19

Sept. 3, 2009 • Memorial Stadium (36,759)

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Eastern Kentucky quarterback T.J. Pryor's desperation pass to Orlandus Harris fell incomplete in the end zone as time expired, allowing host Indiana to escape with a 19-13 victory Thursday night at Memorial Stadium. This was the first ever meeting between the two schools.

The Colonels trailed 19-10 at the half before rallying with two chances to win late in the contest. On EKU's second possession of the second half, back-to-back big plays from Pryor set up a Colonel field goal to make the score, 19-13. First, Pryor scampered 36 yards on third down along the sidelines to extend the drive. The very next play, Pryor hit junior Shannon Davis for a 29-yard completion to put EKU in field goal range.

Eastern held Indiana to just one first down in the third quarter and proceeded to move into scoring range again early in the fourth. Two key pass plays from junior quarterback Cody Watts to fellow junior Evan Cromer put EKU inside IU's 20-yard line. The Colonels eventually reached the five-yard line, but proceeded to fumble the ball on 2nd-and-goal.

Eastern's defense held Indiana without a point two more times before giving the offense one more chance to win the game with 26 seconds to go. Pryor directed this drive and used two 20-yard pass plays to Cromer to move the ball to Indiana's 40-yard line with eight seconds left. On the final play of regulation, Pryor lofted the ball to the left corner of the end zone, but Harris was unable to come down with the pigskin.

Indiana moved up and down the field in the first half, tallying 262 offensive yards, to take the nine-point lead into the locker rooms. EKU's defense turned the tide in the second half, holding the Hoosiers to only 137 yards.

Two big plays set up Eastern's points in the first half. Watts found senior wide receiver Garnett Phelps for a 61-yard score midway through the first quarter to cut Indiana's lead to 9-7. Right before intermission, sophomore Jeremy Caldwell returned an IU punt 40 yards to the Hoosier 14-yard line. The Colonels couldn't convert the field position into a touchdown, but Logan O'Connor booted a 23-yard field goal to make the score, 19-10, at the half.

Tennessee Tech – 7 at #22 Eastern Kentucky – 17

Sept. 19, 2009 • Roy Kidd Stadium (10,600)

RICHMOND, Ky. – After Tennessee Tech scored on its first possession, the Eastern Kentucky football team held the Golden Eagles scoreless the rest of the game in a 17-7 victory Saturday night at Roy Kidd Stadium. The Colonel defense limited TTU to 204 total yards and returned an interception late in the third quarter for the go-ahead touchdown.

With Tennessee Tech leading 7-3, senior defensive back Andre Evans picked off a Lee Sweeney pass at the EKU 46-yard line and raced down the left sideline 54 yards untouched. Junior Logan O'Connor's point-after made it 10-7 in favor of the Colonels with 2:54 left in the period.

The EKU offense answered the call on its next possession. The Colonels marched 61 yards in six plays to stretch its lead to 10 points. After a pair of penalties put Eastern in a 2nd-and-16 hole, redshirt freshman T.J. Pryor connected with junior Shannon Davis over the middle for 45 yards to the TTU 22-yard line. Two plays later, another completion to Davis picked up nine more. Sophomore H.B. Banjoman polished off the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run with 13:36 remaining in the game

Pryor completed 12-of-19 pass attempts for 163 yards. Junior Cody Watts went 3-for-9 for 40 yards and threw one interception. Senior C.J. Walker led the ground game with 74 yards on 19 carries.

The Colonels struggled out of the gate. On its first three trips into Tennessee Tech territory, EKU turned the ball over twice, including an interception in the end zone, and failed to convert a 42-yard field goal attempt.

After forcing Eastern Kentucky to punt from its own 16-yard line, the Golden Eagles found pay dirt, driving 43 yards in four plays on their opening drive. On 3rd-and-10, Sweeney connected with Tim Benford for 42 yards to the EKU one-yard line. Following an offensive penalty, Hudson finished off the drive with a six-yard scoring run.

Eastern got on the board with 1:21 left in the second quarter when O'Connor converted a 36-yard field goal. Redshirt freshman Justin Bell set up the score by blocking a Tennessee Tech punt attempt at the 22-yard line.

After being forced to punt on its first possession, the Colonel offense found Tech territory on its next seven possessions leading to halftime. However, Eastern scored just three points.

*20 Eastern Kentucky – 23 at Murray State – 13 Sept. 26, 2009 • Roy Stewart Stadium (5,966)

MURRAY, Ky. – The Eastern Kentucky University football team forced three turnovers on the way to a 23-13 victory over Murray State Saturday evening at Roy Stewart Stadium. The No. 20 Colonels (2-1, 2-0 OVC) have now won eight of the last nine meetings against the Racers (1-3, 0-1).

Besides forcing three turnovers, EKU's defense held Murray State to 12 total yards rushing and compiled six sacks. Junior Jordan Dalrymple led Eastern with six tackles and two sacks. Redshirt freshman Justin Bell recorded his first two career interceptions, including a pivotal interception in the Colonel end zone in the third quarter.

Eastern never trailed in the game as senior C.J. Walker opened the scoring with a one-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter to make the score, 6-0. Walker finished the game with a team-high 17 carries for 66 yards and two touchdowns.

After the two teams exchanged field goals, Murray State's second turnover led to another Eastern Kentucky touchdown. Junior Marcus Williams picked off a batted Racer pass, giving the Colonel offense starting field position near midfield. Redshirt freshman quarterback T.J. Pryor quickly completed two big pass plays of 30 and 19 yards to move EKU inside the Murray State 10-yard line. Walker capped the drive with a two-yard scoring run.

EKU finally put the game out of reach early in the fourth quarter with a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive. Pryor completed all three pass attempts on the drive while going 11-for-14 overall (78.6 percent) for 174 yards through the air.

Oct. 3, 2009 • O'Brien Field (11,271)

CHARLESTON, III. – Eastern Kentucky rallied for an exciting 36-31 victory over host Eastern Illinois Saturday afternoon at O'Brien Field.

The battle for first place in the OVC was sloppy at times as there were nine turnovers, two blocked punts and a blocked field goal. Sophomore defensive back Jeremy Caldwell came away with two interceptions, including one four minutes into the fourth quarter that was returned for a score and put EKU ahead for good, 36-24.

Eastern Illinois put together one final push late in the game. The Panthers moved 91 yards, highlighted by a 44-yard touchdown strike from Jake Christensen to Kenny Whittaker, to creep back to within five points, 36-31, with five minutes left.

The Colonel offense was then able to milk four minutes off the clock thanks to T.J. Pryor hitting junior Cody Watts on 3rd-and-25 for 29 yards. EKU's defense finally finished the game when junior linebacker Antonio Fredrick recovered a Christensen fumble at midfield with six seconds left on the clock.

Pryor, who made his first career start, totaled career highs in pass attempts (30), completions (19) and passing yardage (293) while tossing two touchdown passes. Harris tallied his first career 100-yard receiving game with five receptions for 120 yards. Fredrick and junior Jordan Dalrymple each recorded 10 stops to pace the defense.

Tennessee State – 20 at #16 Eastern Kentucky – 17 Oct. 10, 2009 • Roy Kidd Stadium (7,100)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Preston Brown's twoyard touchdown run with 1:34 left in the game gave Tennessee State a 20-17 win over No. 16 Eastern Kentucky Saturday night at Roy Kidd Stadium. The Tigers rushed for 159 yards on a Colonel defense that had not given up more than 100 yards on the ground all season.

gan with 5:48 left in the game. On 3rd-and-14, quarterback Calvin McNairl found Joseph Hills for 15 yards to the EKU 48-yard line. McNairl connected with Marquez Wilkens on the very next play for 29 yards to move the ball to the Eastern 19-yard line. The Tigers then put the ball in Preston Brown's hands on six straight plays. Brown picked up 12 yards on the first two carries to get to the seven-yard line. On 3rd-and-4, Brown picked up only two to set up a huge fourth down.

After a time out by both teams, Brown scored the game-winner from two yards out.

Eastern Kentucky moved to the TSU 37-yard line on its ensuing possession, but redshirt freshman T.J. Pryor's fourth down pass to junior Cody Watts fell incomplete with 16.9 seconds to play.

Eastern Kentucky out-gained Tennessee State, 311 to 283, but converted just 4-of-14 third downs and turned the ball over twice. Pryor tossed two interceptions while completing 16-of-27 pass attempts for 197 yards. Pryor ran for 23 yards and scored a touchdown on the ground. Senior C.J. Walker rushed for 73 yards on 17 carries and scored once.

The loss snapped a 10-game conference winning streak for the Colonels.

This was just Tennessee State's second ever win at Roy Kidd Stadium. The Colonels are 19-4 all-time against TSU and 11-2 at home versus the Tigers.

UT Martin – 25 at *23 Eastern Kentucky – 31

Oct. 17, 2009 • Roy Kidd Stadium (7,400)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Eastern Kentucky intercepted four passes on the way to a 31-25 win over UT Martin on Homecoming at Roy Kidd Stadium. Sophomores Jeremy Caldwell and Patrick McClellan both picked off two passes for the No. 23 Colonels.

Despite intercepting four passes through the first three quarters, EKU led by only eight added another touchdown with 3:47 to go to cut the deficit to five points, 24-19.

UT Martin then forced Eastern to punt with just under two minutes to go, but the Skyhawks muffed the return and gave the ball back to the Colonels. McClellan recovered the fumble for Eastern Kentucky at the UTM four-yard line.

Both teams tacked on late touchdowns to set the final score. Senior C.J. Walker scored from two yards out to stretch the lead to 31-19. Skyhawk quarterback Cade Thompson capped a seven-play, 58-yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown toss as the horn sounded.

Eastern Kentucky quarterback T.J. Pryor completed 19-of-33 passes for 235 yards and two touchdowns. Senior wide receiver Garnett Phelps caught seven passes for a career-best 118 yards.

UTM's Thompson finished 30-for-44 with four interceptions, three touchdown passes and 334 yards. The Skyhawks out-gained EKU 407-to-361 and held the ball for almost five more minutes than the Colonels. However, Eastern converted 50 percent on third downs and committed only one turnover, compared to five for UTM.

Eastern Kentucky improved to 20-0 all-time against UT Martin.

#20 Eastern Kentucky – 20 at Austin Peay – 24 0ct. 24, 2009 • Governors Stadium (3,118)

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. – Host Austin Peay ran for 263 yards and forced four turnovers on the way to upsetting No. 20 Eastern Kentucky 24-20 Saturday night. With the win, the Governors ended a 22-game losing streak to the Colonels. APSU running back Terrence Holt ran for a career-high 176 yards and two scores in the win. Holt tallied an 80-yard touchdown run in the first quarter before adding a 12-yard score in the third to give Austin Peay the lead for good.

Governor quarterback Jake Ryan found Adrian Miles behind the Colonel defense for a 45-yard touchdown pass early in the first quarter to put Austin Peay on the board first, 7-0. After EKU missed a 37-yard field goal attempt, the Governors struck again thanks to Holt's 80-yard run.

The Colonel offense finally came to life in the second quarter, scoring on all three possessions to retake the lead, 20-14. Quarterback T.J. Pryor's 15-yard touchdown run a minute into the quarter cut the deficit to 14-7. The first scoring drive was kept alive thanks to a 43-yard completion to junior Shannon Davis on a 3rd-and-14 play.

Pryor completed all four pass attempts for 60 yards on the ensuing drive before junior Bruce Frieson found the end zone with a one-yard touchdown run to even the score at 14-all. In the final two minutes of the half, Pryor moved EKU 62 yards for another score. Pryor completed two third-down passes before capping the drive with a one-yard touchdown rush to give the Colonels a 20-14 lead at the half.

A Holt 41-yard punt return in the third quarter set up Austin Peay's go-ahead score. Starting with excellent field position at the Eastern Kentucky 22-yard line, the Governors needed three plays to find the end zone. Holt ran in from 12 yards to put APSU ahead, 21-20.

Eastern Kentucky had a chance to regain the lead on its ensuing possession, but the Colonels fumbled at the Governors' one-yard line.

Austin Peay then added a 27-yard field goal with 2:04 left to extend the lead to 24-20. The Governors capitalized on a Pryor fumble following a sack at the EKU 27-yard line on the previous possession.

The Colonels' last drive ended with a Pryor pass was tipped and then intercepted by Zac Burkhart at the Austin Peay 41-yard line with 1:19 left.

Southeast Missouri – 6 at Eastern Kentucky – 20

Oct. 31, 2009 • Roy Kidd Stadium (3,300)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Eastern Kentucky University rushed for a season-high 183 yards in a 20-6 OVC victory over Southeast Missouri Saturday at Roy Kidd Stadium. Senior C.J. Walker rushed for 81 yards and scored twice for the Colonels.

Junior Bruce Frieson ran for 54 yards on 10 carries and scored a late touchdown for EKU.

Sophomore H.B. Banjoman added 33 yards on six carries. Redshirt freshman quarterback T.J. Pryor completed 16-of-22 passes for 156 yards.

The Colonel defense limited the Redhawks to 244 yards of total offense. SEMO finished 5-of-16 (31.2 percent) on third downs, but went for it six times on fourth down, converting three.

The Colonels took the opening kick-off and got on the board first. On 3rd-and-5 from the EKU 40-yard line, Pryor connected with junior Cody Watts for 22 yards. Facing 3rd-and-16 at the SEMO 44, Pryor picked up 15 yards on the ground. Needing one more yard, Eastern went for it on fourth down. Walker broke loose for 16 yards to the SEMO 13. Three plays later, facing another third down, Walker took it to the house from nine yards out with 8:54 remaining in the first quarter.

On its first possession of the second quarter, Eastern put together what would prove to be the winning drive. After the defense stopped the Redhawks on 4th-and-1, the offense took over at the SEMO 24-yard line. Walker picked up five yards on a pair of carries and then Pryor connected with junior Shannon Davis for 14 yards to the four-yard line. Three plays later, Walker scored his second touchdown, this time from a yard out.

The Redhawks engineered their only scoring drive of the game in the fourth quarter. On 3rd-and-4 from the EKU 32, Harris picked up 15 yards on the ground. On the next play, Scheible found Walter Peoples in the left corner from 17 yards out to cut the deficit to 13-6.

Southeast Missouri wouldn't get any closer. The Colonels chewed up the next four minutes by running the ball seven times. On 3rd-and-4, Banjoman carried for 22 yards to the SEMO 32 to keep the clock ticking. Eastern had a 4th-and-6 with the clock ticking down inside of 10 seconds, Pryor handed off to Frieson and the junior broke free on the left side for 28 yards to the end zone. O'Connor connected on the extra-point and the Colonels led 20-6 with 4.3 seconds showing on the clock.

Eastern Kentucky – 12 at Kentucky – 37

Nov. 7, 2009 • Commonwealth Stadium (67,053)

LEXINGTON, Ky. – Eastern Kentucky trailed by only four with less than three minutes left in the first half, but Kentucky scored a late first half touchdown to begin a run of 27 unanswered points on the way to a 37-12 victory over the Colonels Saturday at Commonwealth Stadium.

Eastern Kentucky trailed 10-0 before finally answering with its first extended drive of the game. On 3rd-and-2, T.J. Pryor found Orlandus Harris for 11 yards. On the next play, Pryor hooked up with Harris again, this time over the middle for 42 yards to the UK 11. The Colonels only picked up two more yards before being forced to attempt a field goal.

Junior Marcus Williams took the snap as the holder, but instead of putting the ball down for Logan O'Connor's field goal attempt, he raced untouched to the right corner from nine yards out to cut the lead to four. The point-after attempt failed and the Colonels trailed 10-6 with 2:44 on the clock in the second quarter.

Kentucky added one more scoring drive before intermission to make the score 17-6 at halftime.

UK opened the second half with another long drive. Deep in Eastern territory, Colonel cornerback Andre Evans nearly picked off a pass with nothing but clear sailing in front of him, but the senior couldn't hold on to the ball. A pick-six could have cut the deficit to 17-14 early in the third quarter. The EKU defense ultimately held Kentucky to a field goal attempt, which missed to the left.

On their next possession, the Wildcats pushed out to a 24-6 lead. After taking over at the 50 yard line, UK drove the distance in nine plays. A 14yard scoring pass from Newton to Maurice Grinter capped the drive with 2:28 left to play in the third quarter. Just over a minute later, an interception and one pass play extended the UK lead to 30-6. Newton connected with Chris Matthews from 18 yard out after Sam Maxwell picked off a pass by Pryor.

Western Carolina – 24 at Eastern Kentucky – 7

Nov. 14, 2009 • Roy Kidd Stadium (4,200)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Visiting Western Carolina capitalized on four Eastern Kentucky University turnovers to defeat the Colonels in non-conference football action Saturday afternoon at Roy Kidd Stadium, 24-7. The Colonels fall to 5-5 with the loss while the Catamounts snapped a three-game losing streak to improve to 2-8.

WCU took a slim 10-7 lead into halftime, but took advantage of two key Eastern Kentucky mistakes in the third quarter to stretch the lead to 24-7. Starting its second drive of the half at its own six-yard line, Eastern quarterback T.J. Pryor fumbled the exchange from center giving the Catamounts possession in the red zone. Western Carolna quarterback Zack Jaynes found Marquel Pittman for a seven-yard touchdown pass on the very next play to put the Catamounts ahead, 17-7.

Three minutes later, the Colonels misplayed a punt return allowing Western Carolina to regain possession at the EKU 21-yard line. Three plays later, Jaynes threw his third touchdown pass, this time a 13-yard strike to Chris Everett, to make the score, 24-7.

Eastern tried to respond on its next drive, but turned the ball over on downs at the Western Carolina 18-yard line. The Colonels faced a 4th-andone and elected to go for the first down only to see Walker get stuffed for a two yard loss.

Western Carolina piled together a season-high 335 yards of offense and converted 10-of-20 (50 percent) third downs. Meanwhile, EKU was held to 3-of-12 (25 percent) on third downs.

Jaynes paced the Western Carolina offense by going 24-for-34 for 232 passing yards. The sophomore equaled a career high with three touch-down passes. Pittman tallied a season-high nine receptions for 109 yards and two scores.

Pryor finished 18-of-38 (47.4 percent) passing for 174 yards and one interception. Wide receiver Orlandus Harris posted a career-high nine receptions for 88 yards.

Eastern Kentucky – 26 at *15 Jacksonville State – 34

Nov. 21, 2009 • Paul Snow Memorial Stadium (8,713)

JACKSONVILLE, Ala. – No. 15 Jacksonville State held off Eastern Kentucky in a shootout Saturday afternoon at Paul Snow Memorial Stadium, 34-26. The Colonels conclude the year 5-6 overall and 5-3 in the OVC.

Eastern Kentucky had a chance to tie the game on its final drive, but turned the ball over on downs at the Jacksonville State 24-yard line.

The Colonels ran for a season-high 233 yards in the loss. Senior C.J. Walker became the first player to tally 100 yards rushing against Jacksonville State in 2009 as he finished with a season-high 117 yards and a touchdown. Redshirt freshman quarterback T.J. Pryor added two touchdown passes to senior Garnett Phelps and junior Shannon Davis.

Gamecock quarterback Ryan Perrilloux ran for a score and threw for a touchdown against the Colonels. Perrilloux posted a career-high 115 yards rushing on just nine carries to go along with 191 yards passing.

The first half featured five lead changes before Jacksonville State took a 21-20 lead into intermission. Eastern ran for 190 yards in the first 20 minutes, including 88 yards from Walker.

The Gamecocks extended their lead to 31-20 early in the fourth quarter. Eastern Kentucky responded on its next drive to slice the deficit to 31-26. Pryor carried the Colonels by completing 3-of-4 passes for 66 yards. Walker capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run on 4th-and-goal. Jacksonville State couldn't put the game away on its next possession as the Gamecocks settled for a 23-yard field goal to go ahead, 34-26.

From there, the Colonels began their final drive from the 11-yard line with 3:22 remaining. Two big pass plays from Pryor to Phelps quickly helped Eastern move into Jacksonville State territory. A third-down conversion from Pryor to junior Cody Watts then put EKU on the Gamecock 33-yard line. However, facing 4th-and-2 on the 25-yard line with a minute remaining, Eastern Kentucky fumbled the exchange from center and Jacksonville State recovered the ball to seal the win.

The Ohio Valley Conference

Beth DeBauche OVC Commissioner

Kyle Schwartz Asst. Commissioner for Media Relations

Entering its 63rd year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference. For only the second time in a decade, the Conference expanded by adding Southern Illinois University Edwardsville as the league's 11th member in 2008. The move expanded the OVC's geographical footprint to the St. Louis market and marked the first change in membership since expanding to the state of Alabama (Jacksonville State, Samford) in 2003.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28. She is currently one of just five females to be the head of a Division I conference, and one of just eight to lead a Division I conference all-time. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961, Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

Through the past 62 years, 14 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 20 outright or shared football crowns, including both the 2007 and 2008 championships, as they compiled a 15-1 league record over that time period. Only one other Football Championship Subdivision school (UMass) has won more Conference titles than the Colonels.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them – Eastern Kentucky and Murray State – were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

EKU

Eastern Kentucky University possesses one of the richest traditions in all of college football, and the future appears to be just as bright as the past. Now in its second century of football, the current group of Colonels hopes to leave its mark in the EKU annals just as the first 100 teams put together 'A Century of Excellence.'

EKU football has come a long way since the first organized game was played in 1909 on Stateland Field, and much of the credit is given to Roy Kidd, an All-American quarterback at Eastern in 1953, who returned to his alma mater in 1963 and proceeded to build a national powerhouse.

Kidd's 39-year record at Eastern concluded in 2002 with 315 wins, 123 losses and eight ties, for a remarkable .716 winning percentage. He was twice chosen National I-AA Coach of the Year and was recently inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as well as the Ohio Valley Conference Hall of Fame.

The popularity of Eastern football grew so rapidly in the 1960s that Hanger Stadium, the home of the Maroons (the school's nickname later became Colonels) since 1936, was too small for the large enthusiastic crowds. Eastern paid "old" Hanger a fitting farewell in 1968 as it thrashed rival Morehead State, 35-7. A new era in EKU football began the following year when the Colonels moved to Hanger Field, a modern 20,000seat facility. Eastern christened its new playing field with a 29-10 drubbing of Austin Peay. In 1990, the stadium portion of the football complex was named in honor of Roy Kidd. The Colonels defeated the University of Central Florida that day, 24-12.

There have been many memorable moments in the rich heritage of Eastern football. One came in 1967 when EKU, the OVC champion, won the NCAA Mideast Regional championship by defeating Ball State, 27-13, in the Grantland Rice Bowl. Another occurred in 1954 when Eastern's third regular season undefeated team (the first was in 1940) made the school's first bowl appearance only to fall to the University of Omaha, 7-6, in the Tangerine Bowl.

Under the guidance of Coach Kidd on Dec. 18, 1982, EKU capped a perfect 13-0 season by defeating Delaware in the NCAA Division I-AA title game, 17-14, for the University's second national championship.

That victory marked Eastern's fourth-straight appearance in the Division I-AA championship game, having also won the title in 1979 while taking the runner-up trophies in both 1980 and 1981. Kidd's status among the coaching profession was well-known, but Eastern has had other successful coaches during its football history. Previous coaches include James Park (1909), Clyde Wilson (1910-11), Charles Keith (1912), Ben Bernard (1913-16), Clyde McCoy (1919-21), George Hembree (1922-28), Charles "Turkey" Hughes (1929-34), Rome Rankin (1935-42, 1945-46), Tom Samuels (1947-53), Glenn Presnell (1954-63), and Danny Hope (2003-07).

Dean Hood, the program's 13th head coach, took his current position in January 2008. The former Eastern Kentucky defensive coordinator had previously served five years (1994-98) as an assistant coach under Kidd. Just like Kidd and Hope, Hood has vowed to maintain the winning tradition that has become synonymous with Eastern football.

Under Hood's guidance in 2008, Eastern Kentucky captured its second consecutive Ohio Valley Conference crown, and 20th overall, after holding off UT Martin in the regular season finale in dramatic fashion thanks to a game-ending blocked field goal. EKU was among the national leaders in turnover margin (+14) in 2008 and capitalized by turning five turnovers into 24 points against UTM in the de facto OVC championship game.

Since the OVC was organized in 1948, Eastern has won 16 regular season titles outright (1954, '67, '68, '74, '76, '81, '82, '83, '84, '88, '91, '93, '94, '97, '07 and '08), shared four titles (1962, '86, '87 and '90) and to date ranks first in the conference all-time standings with a 295-114-7 record.

EKU football has produced 54 All-Americans and has had 40 players drafted into the professional ranks. Two of the best known former Eastern players

NCAA FCS History

The 2010 year marks the 33rd season for the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) (formerly Division I-AA) playoffs, and an expanded 20-team bracket will be used for the championship. More than 120 schools (including provisional members) play FCS football and more than half of those have been in the playoffs at least once. Only Georgia Southern (six), Youngstown State (four), Appalachian State (three) and two-time champs Eastern Kentucky, Marshall and Montana have won the title more than once.

The Football Championship Subdivision playoffs provides for a maximum field of 20 teams. Eight teams will play in the opening round with the winners joining the remaining 12 teams the following week in the round of 16. Ten conferences (Big South, Big Sky, Colonial Athletic, Mid-Eastern Athletic, Missouri Valley Football, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Southern and Southland) have been granted automatic qualification for the 2010 championship. The remaining 10 teams will be selected at-large by the FCS Football Committee.

The title game will be played at a new site (Frisco, Texas) and new date (Jan. 7, 2011) this year. Eight other sites have hosted the championship including Chattanooga, Tenn., which served as the host for the previous 13 championship contests.

Only four teams qualified for the NCAA FCS playoffs in the event's first three years. The field expanded for the 1981 championship (eight teams), the 1982 championship (12 teams) and the 1986 championship (16 teams). The championship format remained at 16 teams until this year.

Roy Kidd Stadium, Hanger Field and the Robert B. Begley Building, the home of Colonel football since 1969, is one of the most unique, architecturally-designed academic-athletics complexes in the nation.

Average attendance at football games has been around 10,000 fans this decade, highlighted by a crowd of 22,700 which watched the Colonels take on Western Kentucky in 2004 (the fifth-largest crowd in Roy Kidd Stadium history).

The stadium portion of the Begley Complex was named in honor of former head football coach Roy Kidd. The dedication took place on Sept. 8, 1990, when the Colonels defeated Central Florida, 24-12. Eastern opened the stadium in 1969 defeating Austin Peay, 29-10. Hanger Field was officially dedicated on Sept. 26, 1970 when the Colonels downed East Tennessee, 10-6. The field itself continues to bear the name Hanger Field.

The nine-story structure provides seating on its slanted roof for 16,000 football spectators while an additional 4,000 can be seated in bleachers across the field. Hanger Field underwent a transformation from natural grass to synthetic turf in the spring of 2009.

The Colonels have found Kidd Stadium to their liking during its 41-year history. Entering the 2010 season, Eastern has won 191, lost 42, and tied 1 (.818 winning percentage), and had a home undefeated streak of 36 games which began on Sept. 23, 1978, and was brought to a halt Nov. 27, 1983. EKU also ran off 27-straight wins at Hanger Field from 1985-89 and had a Roy Kidd Stadium OVC consecutive game winning streak of 22 games dating back to 1977 broken in 1984 and another 20-game OVC win streak stopped in 1990.

The single-level pressbox, which towers 94 feet above the playing field, has working space for 87 media representatives, including private coaching booths, radio booths and film areas. A new full-color video scoreboard was unveiled for the stadium in 1999.

Facilities inside the stadium include offices for the athletics staff, locker rooms, media interview room and a modern training room. The structure also has 10 racquetball courts, two basketball courts, a gymnastics area, two cardiovascular rooms and classroom space to serve 2,000 students simultaneously.

Eastern Kentucky defeated Austin Peay in the inaugural game at then Hanger Field, 29-10, on Oct. 4, 1969.

Championship Seasons

COLONELS

There have been many successful years of Eastern Kentucky football, but a few truly stand out as memorable and historic seasons.

Hall of Fame coach Roy Kidd took over an EKU program in the 1960s in need of a spark. In just his fourth season at the helm, the Colonels won the 1967 NCAA Mideast Region championship. A decade later, Kidd led Eastern to four straight national championship game appearances while capturing the 1979 and 1982 national crowns. In those four years, Eastern compiled a 46-7 record, was continually ranked No. 1 in the nation, finishing at the top spot in the country in both the 1981 and 1982 seasons.

Those championship seasons also set in motion a string of 17 Division I FCS playoff appearances during the next 19 seasons for the Colonels that three times – 1986, 1988 and 1991 – ended just short of national title games with close semifinal round losses.

Today's Colonels, now led by third-year head coach Dean Hood, hope to make some history of their own in 2010 and build upon the successes of past EKU championship squads.

1967 Mideast Region Champions

In the 10 years prior to 1967, Eastern Kentucky had managed only two winning seasons. However, Coach Kidd and the Colonels tallied a respectful 7-3 record in 1966, setting the stage for the first EKU championship team.

"This team got the championship tradition started at Eastern," said Kidd, who coached the Colonels to 315 victories in 39 years, won 16 OVC titles, two national I-AA crowns and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003. "They have always been and will always be one of my favorite teams."

Things started out on a sour note that season when the Colonels opened their 10-game schedule with a 16-0 loss to a tough University of Dayton team on the road in a contest that saw EKU held to just 34 yards rushing, while the Flyers piled up 231 yards on the ground.

This was the last game that the Colonels would lose that year.

"The success for this program really began with the groups ahead of us. Guys like (quarterback) Larry Marmie and (middle guard) Ron DaVingo ... we learned a lot from them. Coach Kidd had the vision and we all bought into it."

- Jim Guice, Grantland Rice Bowl MVP -

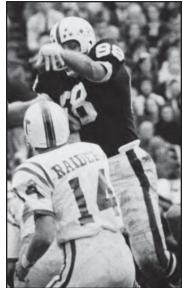

The second game of the year was a 35-7 decision for the Colonels over OVC rival East Tennessee that produced the emergence of freshman tailback Jack McCoy. He finished the game with 74 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Sophomore quarterback Tim Speaks, subbing for an injured Jim Guice, directed the Colonels to a 37-0 win over Austin Peay in the third game. The EKU defensive unit, known as the 'Headhunters,' lived up to their moniker by shutting out the Bucs as tri-captain Chuck Siemon and all-conference linebacker Ron Reed combined for 16 tackles and 20 assists in the win.

Eastern's quality depth at quarterback again proved to be too much for opponent number four that season as Speaks started at signal-caller for the Colonels, while first team All-OVC and All-American candidate Guice was used in passing situations only, as Eastern edged Middle Tennessee, 14-7. Eastern's last non-conference game came the following week when 15 records fell for the Colonels in a 55-0 trouncing of Northwood (Mich.) College. Guice was 17-of-30 in this game for 260 yards and four touchdown tosses.

The stage was set for the game of the year for who else but cross-state rival Western Kentucky who was visiting EKU for what would turn out to be its last appearance at the antiquated Hanger Stadium that stood in the middle of campus.

Every seat in the stadium was filled and many spectators stood on the hillside in the east end zone to form the record-setting 15,000 crowd in attendance that sunny Saturday afternoon.

One of the most memorable

Co-captain defensive end Chuck Siemon earned All-OVC honors in 1967.

goal-line stands in Eastern history occurred in this game as the Headhunters stopped Western's All-American tailback Dickie Moore six out of seven times from the just outside the one-yard line, before Moore finally punched it in on the eighth try for a touchdown.

Eastern countered this score when fullback Bob Beck's 10-yard touchdown run was followed by Guice's two-point conversion run for the tying points, 14-14. A late would-be game-winning touchdown pass from Guice to Don Buehler was overthrown by inches as the game ended in a tie.

Three more easy victories and a tie with Morehead State in the regular season finale left Eastern with a 7-1-2 record. The Colonels were then chosen to make the University's second bowl appearance against Indiana Collegiate Conference champion Ball State University in the Grantland Rice Bowl in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

This bowl game was being held to decide the NCAA Mideast Regional Championship, which included a 10-state and 100 team area, one of four such college division championships set up by the NCAA that year.

Eastern went into the game shorthanded as the NCAA would not allow freshmen to play, which kept running backs McCoy and fullback Butch Evans on the sidelines. Kidd countered this ruling by moving All-American receiver Aaron Marsh to tailback.

This move paid off as Marsh made a huge contribution in the first half, picking up 46 yards on the ground, grabbing three passes and totaling 39 yards on two punt returns, before being forced from the game with a back injury.

After the Colonels were leading 13-7 at the break, it was time for one of the biggest plays in Colonel football history when All-American nose guard Teddy Taylor burst through the line, stole the ball from Cardinal quarterback Doc Heath and ran 39 yards for a score that put Eastern up, 20-7.

Ball State, ranked fifth in the nation heading into the Grantland Rice Bowl, responded by reaching EKU's nine yard-line before the Colonel defense stiffened and stopped the Cardinals' drive. The next few minutes was vintage Guice. He sliced and diced the Ball State defense, hitting six straight passes for 64 of the 91 yards in the drive, and culminated the back-breaking sequence of events with a 28-yard scoring pass to Ted Holcomb that provided the Colonels with an insurmountable 27-7 lead.

In the jubilant EKU locker room following the 27-13 victory over Ball State, the tri-captains for the '67 Colonels – Harry Lenz, Siemon and Marsh – presented the game ball to their elated coach, Roy Kidd, signifying his first championship season at Eastern.

"Coach, you are the best coach in the OVC, the Mideast Region and anywhere else that anybody plays football," Lenz said.

In addition to Guice, Marsh and Holcomb's heroics and the overall play of the Headhunters in the Bowl victory, John Tazel concluded his fabulous EKU career with a remarkable performance that included 11 pass receptions for 127 yards and a touchdown.

"Ball State was a very good team," Kidd said. "The thing that bothered me the most was their size. They were not only one of the biggest, but also one of the quickest teams we had ever faced."

Guice, who was chosen MVP of the game, set a Grantland Rice Bowl record for passing percentage (15-of-19, .788), throwing for 136 yards and two scores.

"When you talk about what got it all started for the tremendous success this program has enjoyed for the past 40 years, you have to start here with this 1967 Eastern team," former EKU head football coach Danny Hope said.

1979 National Champions

Eastern's entry in national football prominence began ominously during spring break in 1979 when Colonel offensive lineman Don McKinnon tragically lost his life quickly with a bout with meningitis on March 11, 1979. EKU's football family responded to this unpredictable loss to its football family by wearing McKinnon's No. 68 on their helmets and by having the No. 68 painted in the corner of each end zone at Hanger Stadium for the 1979 year.

The 1979 season began on the heels of an 8-2 1978 campaign when EKU opened the season at NCAA Division I-A opponent Kent State. A goal line stand late in the game gave Eastern a hard-fought 17-14 win over the Golden Flashes and signaled to the football world that this '79 team could indeed be something special.

"That 1979 team was a group of kids that never gave up ... If you believe in destiny, I believe that team was destined to be winners from the very first game of that season."

- Roy Kidd, former EKU head coach -

Eastern won four of its next five contests, defeating Troy State, Austin Peay, Middle Tennessee and Division I-A Cal-State Fullerton, losing only to East Tennessee, 27-20. This quick start propelled the Colonels to a 5-1 record and a No. 1 national ranking coming into EKU's annual Homecoming battle with arch-rival Western Kentucky.

The 54th renewal of the state's oldest football rivalry on Oct. 20, 1979, between Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky lived up to its billing. The game produced the biggest crowd in Roy Kidd Stadium history as 25,300 football fans filled every inch of stadium, bleacher and hillside seating available on a beautiful 75-degree sunny afternoon.

Fifty-nine minutes into the contest the scoreboard read Eastern 8, Western 6 with the difference being a two-point conversion pass from EKU quarterback Bill Hughes to tight end Cris Curtis. However, the Hilltoppers were driving and obviously setting up what the Red and White faithful surely figured would be a game-winning field goal.

All-OVC fullback Dale Patton ran for 121 yards to help the Colonels capture their first national championship, a 30-7 victory over Lehigh in 1979.

With just seconds remaining, Western lined up for the 18-yard chip-shot boot that would give the 'Toppers the victory. However, senior All-Ohio Valley Conference defensive back Danny Martin had other ideas as he broke through the line and blocked the kick, preserving the two-point victory.

Elation was short-lived, however. The emotional victory took its toll as the Colonels traveled to Murray State the next weekend for an ABC televised contest that ended with the Colonels on the short end of a 24-7 Racer victory.

Eastern rebounded with three straight impressive victories — 35-0 over Tennessee Tech, 27-21 over No. 2 ranked Jackson State and 34-7 over conference rival Morehead State. These three wins, coupled with Grambling's loss to Southern, caught the I-AA football committee's attention and Eastern entered the four-team playoff for the national championship as an at-large representative.

EKU made the most of its invitation, hosting the game and ABC television in what was called by one veteran network announcer as "the most exciting football game I have ever seen." The Colonels were pitted against No. 1 ranked Nevada-Reno and its outstanding tailback Frank Hawkins in the opening round game.

Once again, much like in the Western Kentucky contest played earlier that season at EKU, it seemed as though a last-minute kick was going to send Eastern to defeat. With Nevada-Reno having reeled off 20 straight points to tie the score at 23-all with 39 seconds left, All-American noseguard Joe Richard took a page out of Danny Martin's 'kick-blocking book' and stormed through the line to block the extra point, leaving the score knotted at 23, keeping EKU's national title dreams alive.

In the first overtime period, both teams scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point. In the second overtime, Eastern's defense stiffened and held the Wolfpack scoreless on its possession.

After moving the ball to the one-yard line, Kidd called on the reliable David Flores who booted the winning 17-yard field goal that gave the Colonels the 33-30 victory and sent Eastern packing to Orlando, Fla., for an appearance at the Citrus Bowl Stadium and a match-up with the nation's best I-AA defense — the Engineers of Lehigh University in the national championship game.

Championship Seasons

COLONELS

"That 1979 team was a group of kids that never gave up," Kidd said. "They kept getting better and better as the year wore on and kept plugging until they reached their goal of winning it all. If you believe in destiny, I believe that team was destined to be winners from the very first game of that season."

Eastern literally ran all over the vaunted Lehigh defense, totaling 288 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns. All-OVC fullback Dale Patton and tailback Alvin Miller led the way with 121 and 81 yards, respectively, on the ground. Miller was named MVP of the national championship game, as he totaled 144 allpurpose yards in the Colonels' dominating 30-7 win.

The jubilant EKU locker room underneath the massive Citrus Bowl stadium was filled with tears of joy and tears of remembrance as Don MacKinnon's mother and sister made their way through a host of well-wishers, members of the media and Colonel players and coaches to where Coach Kidd stood with the coveted national championship game ball.

As Don's mother, Elizabeth MacKinnon, accepted the game ball, thoughts went back to the goal-line stand in the season opening victory against Kent State, to Danny Martin's blocked field goal against Western Kentucky, to Joe Richards' blocked extra point against Nevada-Reno and to other "big-time" plays that kept the dream alive.

"I really think his [Don MacKinnon] memory was an inspiration to this team," Martin said, whose No. 7 jersey will long be remembered as always being around the football and making big play after big play. "I know that sometimes when I was down and things weren't going well, I'd find myself thinking about him."

Miller echoed the thoughts of his teammate.

"I gave my best for Don and so did everybody else," said the always affable Miller.

"We were really a close bunch of guys in '79 that had a lot of fun playing football together," Hope remembered. "I believe as I look back on our football history this team might have been extra special for the University because this was the first time that they got to take Cinderella to the Ball. There's always a lot of memories and pride felt when you talk about that first national championship team."

Linebacker Alex Dominguez led EKU in tackles in 1980 and 1982.

As EKU was returning to the hotel after the game, the marquee at the team's headquarters in Orlando told the story of a very exciting 1979 football season –

"Congratulations! Eastern Kentucky No. 1 National Champs."

1980 National Finalists

Thirty-three lettermen returned for Kidd as the Colonels tried to defend their national crown in 1980. The season began with a shockingly close 24-21 come-from-behind victory over Kentucky State and, seven games into the season, Eastern stood with a 5-2 overall record and 2-2 conference mark. Much like the year before, it was time to make a statement, and the Colonels did just that, reeling off four straight wins over Murray State, Tennessee Tech, Division I-A East Carolina and Morehead State to secure its second straight at-large bid into the four-team I-AA playoff field.

Instead of opening at the friendly confines of Eastern's Hanger Field, the I-AA committee sent the Colonels to Bethlehem, Pa., for a rematch of the 1979 national championship contest to do battle with the then-ranked No. 1 Lehigh Engineers. In a tight contest, Colonel tailback Anthony Braxton's 40-yard run down the near sideline gave EKU the boost it needed in a 23-20 upset victory.

This set up a second straight national championship game this time in Sacramento, Calif., in the Camellia Bowl versus the Boise State University Broncos. A long touchdown pass from quarterback Chris Isaac to split end David Booze gave Eastern the 29-24 lead with just 55 seconds left until a second consecutive national title.

Boise State, however, methodically advanced the ball downfield and faced a fourth and goal from the Colonels' 16-yard line. Bronco quarterback Joe Aliotti was able to elude the Colonel pass rush and found an open receiver in the end zone for the gamewinning touchdown. The 31-29 final verdict was gut-wrenching and difficult to accept on the foggy, drizzly California day as the 1980 Colonels had to settle for the national runner-up trophy.

1981 National Finalists

Kidd, who was honored at the conclusion of the 1980 season as the Chevrolet and ABC Sports I-AA National Coach of the Year, welcomed back 36 lettermen for the 1981 season as EKU went 10-1 through regular season play with the only blemish coming at Division I-A Navy.

Following the loss to the Midshipmen in the third game of the year, sophomore tailback Terence Thompson's effort against the University of Akron started the Colonels on a 10-game winning streak that would send EKU into the national title contest with a 12-1 record. On that day in September, Thompson rushed for a then-school record 293 yards and tied another school mark in that same game as he found paydirt four times on runs of 18, 66, 78 and 93 yards.

Eastern's 19-11 victory at Hanger Field over Western Kentucky gave the Colonels sole possession of first place in the OVC. That win was preserved when defensive tackle Randy Taylor sacked Hilltopper quarterback Ralph Antone late in the game. Two weeks later, EKU clinched its seventh conference crown and first since 1976 when the Colonels demolished Tennessee Tech, 63-20.

In the first round of the playoffs which had expanded that year to three rounds, EKU hosted Tubby Raymond's Delaware Blue Hens in a shootout. Colonel quarterback Chris Isaac hit flanker Ranard McPhaul on a 32-yard scoring pass midway through the final quarter to give Eastern the lead. Later, defensive back Gus Parks ended any Delaware hopes of springing the upset with an interception as EKU held on for a 35-28 victory, sending Eastern into a rematch of the 1980 national title game with a semifinal contest at Boise, Idaho, against the BSU Broncos.

On a windy, snowswept lake-blue color Astroturf field before 22,000 rabid Bronco fans, Eastern avenged its devastating loss the year before to BSU by handing Boise State a 23-17 defeat on the strength of three Jamie Lovett barefoot-kicked field goals.

For the third straight year, Eastern found itself in the national championship game, this time in Wichita Falls, Texas, in a Pioneer Bowl appearance against Idaho State. Bengal quarterback

Mike Machurek's accurate touch was too much for the Colonel defense as he completed 29-of-44 passes for 330 yards and four scores as Idaho State won the national crown with a 34-23 decision over the Colonels.

A remarkable season that was highlighted among other exciting plays by flanker Jerry Parrish's 87-yard run on a reverse for a score in Eastern's 14-3 win over Dayton; senior roverback and 1999 College Football Hall of Fame inductee George Floyd's game-saving interception in a 24-20 defeat of Murray State, one of a school-record 10 interceptions that season; and the emergence of "The Bruise Brothers" at linebacker – junior Alex Dominguez and sophomore David Hill – had come to its conclusion with Eastern finishing the year ranked No. 1 in the nation with a final 12-2 overall record. "You really can't be sad about this season," recalled EKU offensive line coach Tom Jones. "You've got to realize not everyone gets to the finals ... especially three years in a row."

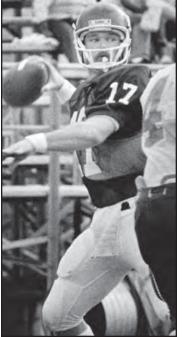

1982 National Champions

The string of four straight national championship game appearances would end in 1982 during the most magical of seasons which culminated in an undefeated 13-0 record, a No. 1 national ranking and the school's second national football crown.

The '82 year began with a nail-biter at Orangeburg, S.C., against South Carolina State. Eastern was trailing 19-17 late in the game when defensive end Allen Young blocked a Bulldog punt, setting up Lovett's game-winning 39-yard field goal.

"You really can't be sad about this season [1981]. You've got to realize that not everyone gets to the finals ... especially three years in a row."

– Tom Jones, former EKU offensive line coach –

Quarterback Tuck Woolum threw for 1,923 yards and 14 touchdowns in the undefeated 1982 season.

"We tried to keep the ball in the middle of the goal posts," Kidd said. "We noticed that the ones he had missed were from the hashmarks."

Before the game-winning kick, Lovett groomed his spot to attempt the field goal by pulling the tall grass from the turf, leveling a smoother surface in which to kick. His quick work brought the needed result as his field goal fluttered through the uprights to start the Colonels on their undefeated year.

This win featured quarterback Tuck Woolum in his first start for the Colonels and he responded with a 14-of-28 afternoon passing for 209 yards, including a 70-yard strike to tight end Tron Armstrong.

In the fifth game of the year, a 35-10 win over Middle Tennessee, split end Steve Bird was named OVC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Blue Raiders which included six receptions for 127 yards and two touchdowns. Tailback Eddie Hairston aided the cause by rushing for 155 yards and a score as the Colonels solidified their No. 1 ranking and set up the daunting task ahead of going to Bowling Green and doing battle with Western Kentucky.

For the first time since 1968 when Eastern defeated Western 16-7 in the dedication game of the Hilltoppers' L.T. Smith Stadium, the Colonels came away with a victory. A Woolum-to-Bird 49yard touchdown pass got the scoring underway for EKU, as Terrence Thompson returned from or much for four scores and 142 yards in the 25 21 an ankle injury to rush for four scores and 143 yards in the 35-21 Colonel win.

The Eastern defense, led by Taylor, Dominguez, Hill, noseguard Mike McShane, Parks and defensive back Anthony Jones shut down the Western attack that afternoon with the win running the Colonels' record to 6-0.

And then it was time for "The Game" – the contest that is still talked about and etched in the memory banks of all diehard Colonel fans.

Murray State was the opponent, a national TV audience watched on the SuperStation TBS and 18,100 fans were in attendance on a beautiful October night.

To win this game and keep its record unblemished for the year, Eastern had to mount a 16-play, 73-yard drive that featured an unheard-of three fourth-down conversions, including one fourthdown run by fullback Nicky Yeast that netted eight inches on a fourth and six-inch situation.

In a highlight-reel type game, it was once again the combination of Bird and Woolum that eventually put the game in the "W" column for the Colonels. This time, their six-yard touchdown hook-up with 14 seconds left gave Eastern a 21-20 lead. The students were so involved that twice they rushed on to the field with excitement, once when Bird's score had tied the game at 20-all and once when Lovett's extra point gave Eastern the lead.

After Eastern was assessed 27 yards in penalties for the fans rushing onto the field, Lovett had to kick off from the 13-yard line, setting up the Racers near midfield after the return. Not until Anthony Jones made an interception near the goal line did EKU pull off one of the most memorable wins in school history.

"We had lost our starting middle guard [McShane] and had an offensive tackle [Mark Willoughby] playing defensive tackle," Kidd said in support of his team's defensive effort.

After EKU clinched the OVC championship with a 34-17 win over Tennessee Tech and rounded out the regular season with a 20-3 defeat of rival Morehead State, Eastern was set to enter the I-AA playoffs with a spotless 10-0 record.

In the opening game of the playoffs, the Colonels gave coach Roy Kidd the best birthday present they could when they defeated coach Dennis Erickson's Idaho Vandals, 38-30, on a warm December 4th night at Hanger Field. Offensively, Bird highlighted the playoff win with seven receptions for 154 yards and two touchdowns, including one catch of 48 yards where his body was fully extended parallel to the ground to haul in the slightly overthrown Woolum pass.

"This was the best game I've ever seen any individual have," said Kidd as he talked about the All-American receiver Bird who hails from Kidd's hometown of Corbin. The game was sealed when Jones made an interception with 38 seconds remaining to end the last Vandal scoring attempt.

The second round of the playoffs found Eastern hosting the big, fast, talented Tennessee State Tigers who featured arguably one of the best teams to ever play at Hanger Field with players like defensive end Richard Dent, running back James Hunter and fullback Larry Kinnebrew on the roster.

Somehow, with zeros showing on the clock at the end of the fourth quarter, Eastern had escaped with a 13-7 victory. Longtime TSU coach John Merritt had boldly predicted at the two team's combined banquet the night before the game that "we were going to cage the bird." And TSU was able to do that, but yet failed to put but seven points on the board, as EKU won its 12th straight game of the season and its 31st consecutive home game.

The Delaware Blue Hens were now all that stood between EKU and a second national title. The venue – Wichita Falls, Texas and a second straight appearance in the I-AA Pioneer Bowl.

In the title game, Parks blocked his sixth kick of the season, this one a Delaware field goal attempt which was scooped up by defensive end Richard Bell who romped 77 yards for a touchdown as EKU ran out to a 17-0 lead over the Blue Hens. Although Delaware scored 14 fourth-quarter points, the Colonel defense held firm and Eastern had its second national football title.

"Tuck became a super player and was a real leader that year," Kidd said. "And our defense played its best two games of the year in the playoffs against Tennessee State and Delaware."

In those final two games, Eastern held the nation's top two scoring teams to a combined total of just 21 points.

"The 1982 season was simply amazing," Bird said, who signed with the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals upon graduation. "Everybody on that team brought something to the table and we all believed in each other. We went into that huddle. There was no funny business. We each had a job to do and we went out and did it and I'm talking about all 11 guys on every play.

"Tuck was great and he deserved to be the captain," continued Bird. "He was always there for everybody, both on and off the field. Everybody loved him and he just kept proving people wrong with the way he played. I've been around a lot of teams and that was a unique bunch of seniors that refused to lose."

Four years ... 53 games ... 46 wins ... four straight national championship games ... two national titles ... numerous weeks of being ranked No. 1 during those four seasons ... two conference championships ... the 1982 season culminating with a perfect 13-0 record ... first OVC team to win 13 games and one of the first in the history of college football to reach that win total in one season.

Can we say the word DYNASTY?

COLONELS

George Floyd (inducted 1999)

George Floyd, former defensive back for Eastern Kentucky University from 1978-81, was among the 1999 Divisional Class of Inductees for the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Induction ceremonies were held in South Bend, Ind.

"We're very happy George was chosen for such a high honor," former EKU head football coach Roy Kidd said, who joined Floyd in the Hall in August 2003. "I know one thing, that young man could play the game of football. And one of the things I liked best about George was that he didn't mind hitting people. He was always around the football and was certainly a big reason for our success those four years he played for us."

Floyd was a member of Eastern's first I-AA national championship team (1979) and played for two other Colonel teams (1980, 1981) that went to the national championship game before losing. He was a first-team All-American those last two years he played for EKU.

The defensive back was a four-year starter and served as the team co-captain in 1981. Floyd was selected as the 1980 Ohio Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year after recording five interceptions, one of which he returned 100 yards for a touchdown. While at Eastern, Floyd set several school records, two of which still stand – career interceptions (22) and career interception return yardage (328).

"We are proud of the Divisional Hall of Fame program, now in its fifth year, which continues to positively impact college football by honoring players and coaches from the divisional level with the ultimate honor, induction into the College Football Hall of Fame," stated Chairman of the National Football Foundation, Jon F. Hanson.

Floyd played four years (1983-86) of professional football for the National Football League's New York Jets. He is currently an assistant principal at Boone County High School in Florence, Ky.

Included in the 1999 Divisional Hall of Fame Class were George Bork, quarterback, Northern Illinois (1960-63); Randy Trautman, defensive tackle, Boise State (1961-64); Willie Gallimore, halfback, Florida A&M (1953-56); Jim LeClair, defensive tackle, North Dakota (1970-71); Teel Bruner, defensive back, Centre College (1982-85); and Floyd.

Coaches in the '99 Hall of Fame Class were Billy Nicks, Morris Brown (1930-42) and Prairie View A&M (1945-47, '52-65) and James Sochor, California-Davis (1970-89).

Roy Kidd (inducted 2003)

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame inducted legendary former Eastern Kentucky football coach Roy Kidd into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003.

Kidd, who retired from his coaching duties at EKU, his alma mater, after the 2002 football season as the sixth all-time winningest coach in NCAA Division I or I-AA football history, coached the Colonels for 39 years, compiling a 315-123-8 (.715) overall record.

During his tenure at Eastern from 1964-2002, he led the Colonels to 16 Ohio Valley Conference titles and made a record 17 NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances. EKU appeared in four consecutive NCAA Division I-AA national championship contests, winning the 1979 and 1982 national titles.

A two-time Division I-AA National Coach of the Year and 10time OVC Coach of the Year, Kidd has the third most victories at a single school among all divisions in NCAA history. In 39 seasons, his teams recorded 37 non-losing seasons, including a streak of 25 consecutive seasons with a winning record.

Kidd, who has coached 41 players who have gone on to sign with National Football League teams, 55 All-Americans and 202 first team All-OVC selections, is a member of the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame and has had the EKU football stadium named in his honor.

A past president of the American Football Coaches Association, Kidd has been a two-time Lexington Herald Sportsman of the Year.

The Kentucky High School Athletic Association's highest football award each season, given to the best high school football player in the state of Kentucky, is named the Roy Kidd Award. Beginning with the 2003 season, the OVC Coach of the Year award was named the Roy Kidd OVC Coach of the Year Award.

Kidd was inducted into the Ohio Valley Conference Hall of Fame on May 30, 2003, at the league's Honors Luncheon held in Nashville, Tenn.

100 Years of Football

The Eastern Kentucky University Department of Athletics celebrated 100 Years of Football: A Century of Excellence in the fall of 2009. The All-Century Football Team was unveiled at a luncheon on Oct. 16, 2009, a day prior to the Homecoming game against UT Martin.

The All-Century Football Team is made up of the following positions: running back (2), wide receiver (2), quarterback (1), tight end (1), punter (1), placekicker (1), linebacker (3), defensive back (4), defensive line (4) and offensive line (5).

To earn consideration for the All-Century Team, players must have met at least one of the following criteria: first or second team All-OVC honors, enshrinement in the EKU Athletics Hall of Fame, or All-American honors. Colonel fans helped determine the All-Century Team by casting their votes on-line in late August and early September at www.EKUSports.com.

The All-Century logo was designed by former EKU running back Markus Thomas.

EKU Athletics Hall of Fame

On Dec. 14, 2005, Eastern Kentucky University announced the creation of an Athletics Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame's mission is to commemorate and honor student-athletes, other individuals and teams whose accomplishments have contributed to the esteemed tradition of Colonel Athletics and whose character has reflected positively on the University.

The inaugural class of the EKU Athletics Hall of Fame, featuring 38 distinguished individuals, was inducted during an evening ceremony on Nov. 3, 2006, in the Keen Johnson Ballroom. Almost 300 people attended the induction ceremony. The honorees were also recognized prior to EKU's home football game against Murray State the following day.

The inaugural class was comprised of The Founders, a group of 25 who were previously honored at the 1974 Centennial Athletics Awards Banquet, and 13 members who were chosen by a selection committee.

The Department of Athletics accepts nominations for the Hall of Fame on a rolling basis. Nominations must be received by March 1 to be considered for that year's class.

This year's induction ceremony will be held on Friday, Oct. 8 with the inductees also honored the next day at the home football game against Eastern Illinois.

Including the 2010 induction class, there are 26 football players enshrined in the EKU Athletics Hall of Fame – Steve Bird, Chad Bratzke, Jimmie Brooks, Charles Bryant, Wally Chambers, Danny Copeland, Don Daly, Fred Darling, George Floyd, Jim Guice, Myron Guyton, Fred Harvery, John Jackson, Aaron Jones, Roy Kidd, Roy King, Aaron Marsh, Buddy Pfaadt, Charles Shuster, Everett Talbert, Teddy Taylor, Markus Thomas, J.W. "Spider" Thurman, Cliff Tinnell, Fred Troike and Tuck Woolum.

Please visit www.EKUSports.com for more details or a nomination form.

All-Time Roster

Editor's Note

The following list was compiled from various sources during the spring of 2007. Although all cau-tions were taken to avoid errors, we do realize that names were we do realize that names were most likely omitted due to the im-mensity of the task. Rosters were missing from the 1909-36 seasons along with some rosters from the 1940s and 1950s. Redshirt years were not included. If you have additions, or find errors in the list, please contact the Athletic Public Relations office.
