"Y" Sponsoring Hayride

The YWCA and the YMCA are planning a hay-ride to the Penacale near Berea tomorrow, October 9. Y members will meet at 5:00 p. m. in front of the Student Union Building tomorrow afternoon. Trucks will be provided as transportation. Cost will be sixty cents a member.

On Sunday, October 3, the Y held their annual retreat at the First Settler's House near Boonesboro. It began at 7:00 a. m. and lasted until 7:00 p. m. Y members attending were Denyse Campbell, Dean Rubarts, Dolores Samson, Barbara Williamson, Joy McCreary, Ruth Patterson, Bert Bowling, Ruford Warren, Joanne Arnsperger, Dorothy Thomas, Jesse Keltner, Jan Treadway, Lois Samson, Margie Resnick, Jim Allender, Jerry Wright, Colleen Wethington and Shirley Pettit. Members were accompanied by Miss Willie Moss, William Stocker, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whitt, Dean Emma Y. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Love, and Mr. and Mrs. Bart Peak, director of the YMCA at the University of Kentucky. Mr. Peak was guest speaker.

Choir Rehearsing Messiah; Performance December 12

The first rehearsal for the twenty-third annual performance of the "Messiah," by Handel, was held on Monday night, October 4th in the Hiram Brock Auditorium at 7:00 o'clock. The chorus composed of Eastern students and Richmond and Madison County citizens will give the oratorio on Sunday evening, December 12. According to Mr. James E. VanPurse, acting head of the Music Department, there is still time to join the group in which approximately 250 voices will be blended. The next rehearsal will be held this coming Monday, October 11, at 7:00 in the auditorium.

MEMBERS ELECTED TO STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Council delegates from the individual classes were elected Wednesday, October 6, at class meetings. These delegates were nominated by committees, chosen by the class presidents, from their respective classes.

Senior representatives are Roger Stephens, Ronnie Smiley, Bonnie Baldwin, and Louise Gullady. Representing the junior class will be Pete Northcutt, Billy Roy Murphy, Betty Pack and Jane Deatherage. Joy Kitson, Mitzi Muller, Lou McNabb, and William Wilkins will be sophomore representatives. The freshman class chose Fred Blair, Melvin Smithers, Fannie Herndon, and Barbara Tinch.

The first Student Council meeting is to be held at 7 o'clock Monday evening, October 4, in room 101 of the Student Union Building. The executive board meets every Monday evening; the general meetings are to be held once a month.

Room 201 of the Student Building is to be the Student Council office, temporarily. It will be outfitted with the necessary supplies and equipment.

The Constitution of the Student Council provides that each student enrolled at Eastern shall pay twenty-five cents a semester for use by the Council as it deems necessary. This money is to be taken up this semester; therefore, the Council will draw to the extent of its needs from the college fund. Next semester the original Constitutional Provision will go into effect.

One of the many things that the Student Council hopes to do for the improvement of Eastern and her students is to obtain better student participation in assemblies.

DATES SET TO TAKE MILESTONE PICTURES

All Eastern students are urged to have their pictures taken for the Milestone since this is a pictorial record of Eastern's activities, according to Miss Peggy Kraus, co-editor. Notices will be in the post office box stating the exact time and place of each individual appointment.

The freshman and sophomore pictures will be taken from October 18 through October 21 in Room 101, Student Union Building. Junior pictures will be taken downtown at Stanifer's Studio beginning October 11. Senior pictures will be taken by Mr. Ru Bee at McGaughey's Studio beginning October 11.

It is important that each individual be at the designated place at the appointed time. If this isn't possible, contact one of the Milestone staff. The girls are asked to look their best, and the boys are asked to wear suits and ties.

Following an organizational meeting, Misses Edie Taylor and Peggy Kraus, editors of the Milestone, Eastern's annual, announced the following new staff members: in charge of Snap Shots, Virginia Durbin and Harry Stigall; Sports, Norma Tevis and Merrell Patrick; R. O. T. C., Jesse Keltner; Organizations, Betty Jane Rinesmith and Mary Jo Campbell; Seniors, Louise Gullady and Patti Poyma; Juniors, Marjorie Rasnick; Sophomores, Dorothy Grady; Freshmen, Jean Turner; Administration, Peggy Chandler; Paste-Up, Janice Treadway; Business Manager, Chester Raker and Typing, Sue Appleton.

All Aboard For Western Vs. Eastern Homecoming

KYMA, Eastern's pep club, has announced plans to charter a bus to Bowling Green for Western's Homecoming game against the Maroons November 6. Those interested in going are requested to contact a KYMA member before November 1.

Students trying out for membership in KYMA are already busy earning points for their letter working at the concession stand during games, decorating for the games, and making posters.

Pep rallies preceding both the Murray and Tennessee Tech games were also sponsored by KYMA.

First Community Concert To Star Vienna Academy Chorus

The first Community Concert of the year, featuring the Vienna Academy Chorus, will be held in Hiram Brock Auditorium on Monday, October 18, at 8:00 p. m.

The Vienna Ensemble Chorus is making its second tour of the United States. The first tour was in 1953, when it toured seventy American cities.

The chorus consists of twelve female voices and twelve male voices, and is directed by Professor Ferdinand Grossman. Each member of the chorus also plays an instrument and usually accompanies during the songs of the rest of the ensemble.

The ensemble's program is varied. Sacred choral music drawn from composers Bach, Gallus, Lotti, Gabrieli, Mozart, and Gounod usually opens the programs. Following this, the members of the chorus dress in Austrian costumes to sing Austrian folksongs, Alpine yodeling songs, and popular rural tunes. The finale of the concert features songs of old Vienna, such as Brahms' "Liebesbieder," waltzes, Schubert's "Serenade," and songs of Johann Strauss.

Modern works are also included in the repertoire of the chorus. (Continued on Page Eight)

Nationally Known Coach To Be At Eastern Soon

by BEV WILSON

Eastern's Women's Recreation Association is to be the first organization in the state of Kentucky ever to sponsor a hockey clinic like the one to be held here, Saturday, October 9th. At the helm will be Miss Constance Applebee who first introduced this game to the United States in 1901. With her behind it, this sport has grown into a tremendous network of clubs and associations throughout the country.

Eastern is fortunate to have a part in the development, according to Miss Martha Williams, Physical Education instructor. The Dayton Ohio Hockey Club will also be here to aid in the coaching and demonstrations that will be a part of the program along with theory, techniques and discussion groups. This club is a member of (Continued on Page Eight)

How Many Of Us Are Proud Enough Of Eastern To Learn Our 'Alma Mater'?

Hmmmmmm da do la Alma Mater
Hmmlmmmm laaaaa de dooo of youth
Hmmlmmmm the skies doooo laaa deee
Hmmlmmmm de loooo daaaa de do thee
Hmmlmmmm deeeee laaaaa columns stand,
Alma Mater theeeeeeeee laaaa doooo!

If the song arrangement above looks familiar to you, it is probably because this is the way you have been singing our Alma Mater since you came to college. And whether you've been here three weeks or three years, it's time there were some changes made!

Yes, this is the way approximately three-fourths of the students at Eastern sing their own Alma Mater. And it is probably because no one knows it.

The Alma Mater should be "required singing" here. Everyone should know it by memory—the tune, if not the words.

There is no reason why we can't all learn it, because it is short and easy. The words to it really mean something. "Hail to thee our Alma Mater" has something in it that we all feel toward this school, even if we sometimes won't admit it. And this song means a lot more when it is sung if the people singing it know the next line.

How can we learn it? Perhaps some morning in assembly Mr. Van Peurse can hold one of his very good singing sessions, with the words to the Alma Mater flashed on the moving picture screen so everyone can see them and learn them. A few times practice would certainly help in learning both words and music.

Or perhaps some enterprising club could mimeograph the words to the song and give a copy to each student.

Or perhaps each student could simply learn the song himself. And then the next time the student body sings it together, perhaps it can be known that Eastern is a school to be proud of, and not one to mumble about!

Seniors Discuss What They Would Do If They Were Freshmen Once More

Have you heard about the freshman who asked the faculty member if he were a sophomore? Well, that presents a problem for all new students. There's one sure way to tell the difference between a freshman and a senior, though—that's the worn, haggard look that appears on the face of the senior who's trying to catch up on all the things he should have begun when he was a freshman.

When we were freshmen, we thought, "What are these people trying to do, joining all these clubs?" We thought we could use our spare time better than that. We sure did. We were bored stiff watching everyone else work and laugh themselves to distraction. Sure talking in the grill is fun, and partying with the gang is great, but honestly, there's more to it than that.

If we were only freshmen again, we'd enter more campus activities. Don't get us wrong. There's a difference between a "joiner" and a member. Pick the things you'd enjoy most and do a good job of them. Incidentally, we'd try a little studying, too. You'd be surprised how frightening it can be to suddenly wake up and see graduation staring you in the face and realize how little you do know. Low grades just don't look good on job applications! You'll be surprised how human faculty members can be, too, if you give them a chance. Sometimes they can even make noises like people.

Sure, we know you won't pay any attention to us, but we'll come back some homecoming to tell you "we told you so." As the old adage goes, "experience is a dear teacher, but fools will learn in no other school."

See Anything Strange About Burnam?

Empty? There's nothing but space.

Have you noticed the lobby of Burnam Hall lately? Last spring the college's infirmary was moved to Stateland Hall to make way for the repairs and remodeling on Sullivan Hall. All of Stateland's lobby furniture was moved to Burnam. Now that the repairs are completed, the "new look" in Burnam has regressed to that "old look" again. And consequently the daily visited lobby of Burnam looks extremely bare.

Some new replacements for the lobby could certainly be put to good use. Burnam is a nice place to play cards or just talk on the cold nights coming up, but how can we sit there without enough chairs and couches to go around?

The Progress Salutes ...

We aren't Robert Burns, so we don't have a mouse,
We have something better—her name is Peggy Kraus.
We can't control nature, so we can't give you the sun,
But Peggy's engaged to a "Ray," and that's point number one.
We didn't map the universe, so the city Louisville slipped in.
It's a great city and Peg's home town,
So that's where we begin.
We missed out on a lot of activities that we didn't plan at all, But Peggy didn't miss a thing, she started early this fall.
Some offices she's held and holds are honors to be seen:
State treasurer of the Westminster Fellowship, Co-editor of the "Milestone" and a member of Cwens
Aside from these she belongs to other clubs, like the Music Council and Sigma Lambda.
Right in line are Collegiate Pentacle, Kappa Delta Pi, and a love for the rhumba.
When the college made its curriculum, we weren't around,
But they gave us Peggy with a double major in history and French—something hardly to be found.
Ray's in London teaching but in June wedding bells will jingle.
And Peggy will begin to teach with this guy named Tingle.
We can't give you a perfect person, for she dislikes narrow-minded people;
But she likes to read, eat, and sleep, and her Beethoven she just loves.
Her secret dream at the present, is to live awhile in France,
And since practice teaching at Model, one of her virtues is gone—sense!
That's all about Peggy, and we hope that will do.
So we end by saying,
Peggy Kraus, we salute you!

CHEERFUL THOUGHTS

A college weekly carries the following item:
"Found: A roll of five-dollar bills. Will the owner please turn a line at the north entrance of my office."
Harvard man: "I have a friend I'd like you girls to meet."
Bryn Mawr girl: "What can he do?"
Wellesley girl: "How much money does he have?"
Radcliffe girl: "What does he read?"
Vassar girl: "Who are his family?"
Holyoke girl: "What church does he belong to?"
Eastern girl: "Where is he?"
A davenport held the twain:
Fair damsel and ardent swain:
He and she.
But then, a step upon the stair!
And father finds them sitting there:
He ..... and .....she.

Our Campus Oddities Really Do Prove Fact Stranger Than Fiction

Little things do mean a lot, and it's the little, unusual happenings that make our campus the wonderful, friendly—and slightly crazy—place that it is.

No one need be bored at Eastern! New things happen everyday. Have you noticed the new sights (other than the freshmen) on campus? It is these slightly odd, but different, things, old and new, that make Eastern the "stern, conservative, serious institution of learning" that it is.

Dog "Wolves"
For example, we are proud to announce that this year Eastern has the largest enrollment of dogs of any college in Kentucky. Led by their popular leader, Mozart, they are more than willing to escort any girl from Burnam to town and back again. In fact, it is hard to persuade them not to do so.

It is rumored that one of the Community Concerts will feature the dogs and the boys who yodel, or rather howl, duets on the porch of Burnam Hall. Possibly this concert will have a larger turnout than any other concert during the year.

"E" In Haircuts
Last year the fellows were all wearing flat-top hair-cuts. Now the fad seems to be to have a letter cut in the hair. We hear these letters were to spell out "Eastern" but probably putting a girl friend's initials in a boy's hair would mean more than exchanging class rings. Certainly the boy couldn't slip his haircut in his pocket when he tries to go out with another girl.

Speaking of fads, the latest one around the campus seems to be getting married and moving to Veterans' Village. If you can't seem to locate that cute boy or girl you sat next to in lit. class last year, it is probably because they are living in the village now, busily cleaning and painting. Downtown stores would probably report a record year for the sale of white ruffled curtains and inexpensive skillets. (Eastern's athletes aren't only good in sports, but they can cook, too! And it's a good thing—none of the girls can).

Embarrassing Incidents
Would any year be really under way if some girls—freshmen, naturally—didn't go in or out the boys' entrance to the grill! One of the most popular indoor sports lately has been watching new students make the mistake. And it's rumored that some freshman even made the mistake of sitting on one of the couches upstairs in the lobby of the Student Union Building!

Another odd thing on campus is the snappy saluting the ROTC boys give to the girls, while they are a little slower in putting their hand to their cap for their senior officers. The freshman boys practically look like peacocks, strutting around on Fridays in those uniforms.

The latest style, which isn't quite out yet, is for the boys to drag out the old racoon coat of Pop's for the football games. Some of the girls are coming out in mid-dy blouses, ropes of pearls, and shingled hair. If this keeps up, pretty soon the campus will look like a scene from the roaring twenties! Well, "twenty-three ski-doo!"

Faculty Broadcasting As Panel On 'Round Table'

Say, did you know that Eastern had a program of its very own on WEKY?
Well, it has, and the name of that program is "Eastern's Round-Table." It is broadcast every Sunday evening at 8:30 p. m. over WEKY, Richmond, Kentucky. A different type of program is presented each week. On October 17 the program will feature a panel of Eastern faculty members led by Mr. Glenn McLain, of the history department. The topic will be "World Affairs." Dr. R. El. Jagers, professor of education at Eastern, is producer and director of this series. Watch the Progress for a further information about these programs.

The Open-Minded Column...

What is the greatest improvement you have observed at Eastern since you have been here?

Jim Burch, Stamping Ground, Ky., Senior: "The women get prettier every year."

Johnny Neverstitch, Cumberland, Ky., senior: "No Saturday classes."

Oris Glenn Johnson, Vallonia, Indiana, senior: "The greatest improvement that has been made on the campus of Eastern in my three years here has been remodeling of Sullivan Hall. It is truly a nice place to what it was before."

Betty Pack, Paintsville, Ky., junior: "There have been lots of improvements, especially in the school plant—new science building and dormitory repairs, but the most prominent is the new organization adopted last year—Student Council."

Bobby Gibbs, Hazard, Ky., senior: "Probably the biggest improvement that has been made on campus since I've been here is the new Science Building. Those new labs sure beat the ones in the old Roark basement."

Bobby Reach, Seco, Ky., junior: "The improving thing on this campus was the remodeling of Sullivan Hall."

Sue Collins, Deane, Ky., junior: "The improvement which I noticed was the reduced prices on sandwiches in the grill. Now we can see more movies."

Athalene Cornett, Hamilton, Ohio, junior: "Since I have been at Eastern, the biggest improvement that I think has been made is the installation of Student Government. It gives the students a chance to get better acquainted with the faculty and also gives the students a chance to take part in improving the campus."

Alice Burke, Pikeville, Ky., junior: "I feel that one of the most important improvements on Eastern's campus is newly developed Student Government System."

Peggy Shackelford, Parksville, Ky., senior: "To me, the installation of Student Government has been the biggest improvement on Eastern's campus."

Agriculture Department Adding New Equipment

A new tractor and several pieces of silo filling machinery have been added to the agriculture department's equipment, according to William R. Stocker, head of the agriculture department. Another tractor is being repaired for use later in the school year.

Mr. Stocker, faculty sponsor of the Agriculture Club, has also announced that the group will sponsor a fish fry this month, a float in the homecoming parade this fall, and a "Barn Dance" next spring. Tickets for the fish fry will be sold by all members of the club.

The Agriculture Club meets bi-weekly in the Weaver Health Building on Thursday night at 7:00 p. m. Any student majoring in agriculture is eligible for membership.

POTPOURRI IN PRINT

By TOM McELFRESH

Five new books with this and more are now available from the stacks of the Eastern Library.

Medical Dynamite

"Not As a Stranger." This new novel by Morton Thompson explodes some of the pretty half-truths about the gallantry of the men of medicine. The dirty laundry of medical school and practicing physicians is aired with brutal disregard for the myth of idealism that surrounds the sons of Hippocrates.

Lucas Marsh was one of those born doctors; he had the touch of healing, but he also had ideals about the sanctity of "medicine." In med school he saw the other side, and in practice he met the scum of his profession. The rest of the story is his compromise between the idealistic and the realistic view of practical healing.

Mr. Thompson's prose is biting; his characterizations are vivid; his insight is brilliant. "Not As A Stranger" stands as one of the best of modern novels.

Diplomat's Conflict

"Time and Time Again." Not since "Lost Horizon" has James Hilton presented a book that stands up to this latest of his works. The writing is dry but flowing, not flamboyant but charming. The story moves at a moderate rate and is quietly exciting.

Most of all the method of writing fits exactly the staid and reserved diplomat of whom it is a portrait. Charles Anderson is presented from his birth in the beginning of the twentieth century to his performance as British representative at a minor important conference between East and West in 1952.

The years between are the years of British history seen through the feelings of this man. Time and time again Anderson comes near to greatness and time and time again misses until circumstances throw him into the spotlight.

A charming novel about a thoroughly undistinguished man. The best of James Hilton.

Ohio River Folklore

"Shantyboat." Not a novel, but a diverting book. Harlan Hubbard describes the emotions that led him and his wife to live for six years on a shantyboat and to travel 1385 miles from Covington, Kentucky to New Orleans on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers.

The book is often interesting, but sometimes tedious. The descriptions of river life are colorful and the story of the voyage moves with the steady grasping pull of the river itself. Best of the book are the river people. These natives who call the rivers home are among the great citizenry of America.

A modern adventure—a lesser "Kon-Tiki"—a pleasant insight into river life.

Danville In 1909

"The Iron Baby Angel." A novel by Charles McDowell. The baby angel stood for years on the horse watering trough in Constitution Square in Danville, Kentucky. In 1909 Harold Hines, Jr. came from Chicago to visit his grandparents in Danville, and it was then that he first saw the iron baby angel. During that summer he also met some of Danville's prize characters—either one Richardson, the barber—John the Baptist, a bearded street corner prophet—and others.

The book is a novel, but many of the people and places of the Danville of 1909 are actual. Local

Meet The Faculty...

"Art is the expression of every human being. It is doing anything well." Dr. Fred P. Giles, head of the Art Department, made these statements during an interview conducted in his office recently.

Dr. Giles, a native of Fort Worth, Texas, holds an A. B. degree from North Texas State College in Denton, Texas, an M. A. degree and a Ph. D. degree from George Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee. While at Peabody, Dr. Giles was the recipient of the Algeron Sydney Sullivan Award, a distinction given only to those whose lives have been a "continuous expression of high qualities which ennoble and beautiful living." He also has a Bachelor of Music degree in music from the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago.

Dr. Giles came to Eastern in 1940 and has been Art Department head ever since. Preceding this he was Art Department head in Texas Women's College in Meridian, Texas. He has also held a three-year fellowship teaching at George Peabody College.

He has taught English at Weatherford, Texas, and while there he met his wife, who was then a professor in the English Department. "She has been the head (of the home) ever since," Dr. Giles says.

Extensive Travel

Dr. Giles has traveled a great deal. He has spent some time in Europe and has been in thirty-two of the forty-eight states. All of this was pleasure traveling except for some landscape study in France. His interesting art appreciation courses he attributes to this extensive traveling.

Asked about the chances for art in the Kentucky schools, Dr. Giles said, "Chances are 100 per cent better today than before. People in general are seeing art as a part of their curriculum." These statements have been proved at Eastern by the 400 students in art classes this semester.

Dr. Giles' favorite phases of art are equalizes, because all phases, he says, are important. He has taught every subject in art at least once during his teaching here.

Music A Hobby

His second hobby is music. Wherever there is a piano, there Dr. Giles may be found playing almost any type of music. Other hobbies include gardening and redoing antiques.

An interest that has continued through Dr. Giles' career is baseball, and, although very engrossed in his art work, he still has had color and pleasant humor balanced in another era setting. Not the funniest book ever written, but laughable in its own way.

Misguided Tour

"Forty-Plus and Fancy Free." Nearly twenty years ago Emily Kimbrough toured Europe with Cornelia Otis Skinner and brought back Our Hearts Were Young Gay. Now she goes back to pick up the things she missed before. Her style is the easy, free-swinging, scatter-brained style that characterized the earlier book. Her descriptions of the out of the way places in Europe are sometimes hilarious.

The best incidents are the dealings with an Italian family in a Venice typewriter shop, and her impressions of the pomp and pageantry involved in the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth of England.

time for current campus events, such as being sponsor of the Art Club and senior class sponsor in previous years.

Dr. and Mrs. Giles have two sons, Frederick and Henry Wade. Frederick is a freshman agriculture major at Eastern this year.

A teacher of any type of art, an extensive traveler, an accomplished pianist—these are only a few of the characteristics of Dr. Giles, a true adherer to the motto, "Keep the World Beautiful."

THANKS DOC!

According to Dr. Litkenhous' "Difference by Score Ratings" of last week, the Maroons had a rating of 76.4. To make that statement mean anything, we'll have to do a little comparing. First, we'll explain that Eastern is classified as a small college, but its rating is higher than a goodly number of colleges classified as "major." For instance, Tulane, a member of the SEC, had a rating of 74.1, so Eastern would be rated two points over the Green Wave. Some of the other ratings among major colleges include: North Carolina State, 59.7; Holy Cross, 73.3; Harvard, 73.8; Yale, 73.6; Indiana, 77.9; Kansas, 82.4; and Mississippi State, 89.7. Indiana would be a point and a half favored over the Maroons while Kansas would be 6 points, and Miss. State, 13 points.

"real good" game. Many will disagree, as I said, but, since the two teams do not play each other, we'll never know any way other than by the "Doc." "The Maestro (meaning Lit.) has a very high percentage and he's never far wrong. He picked the Maroons to beat Murray by 17 points while the other dopsters were giving 7 points at the most. Eastern won by 19 points. Take it from there.

Kentucky By Twelve

The University of Kentucky, according to Litkenhous, is rated over Eastern by only 12 points. Many people would disagree wholeheartedly with the expert dopster. Of course, the state university gets the pick of the crop around the state, but Glenn Presnell has developed into his boys such a strong desire to win, that, personally, we think it would be a

Maroons Continue To Roll

Since our last edition, the Maroons have rolled past two conference opponents and now hold undisputed possession of first place in the OVC. Neither Middle Tennessee nor Murray could stop Eastern's powerful rushing attack, led by Don Daly, Chuck Bell, Bob Muller, and Jim Hanlon, as the Maroons racked up a net 307 yards against the Tennesseans and 311 against the Thoroughbreds. Although Murray had the least rushing yards against the Maroons in the three games played so far, the Thoroughbreds were the first team to cross the goal line against Glenn Presnell's gridders. Murray could muster only 54 net yards on the ground while John Carroll and Middle Tennessee were getting 134 and 126, respectively. The Maroons' defense deserves all the praise in the world for their outstanding performances. Karl Bays and Frank Nassida have proved in each game that they are the best in the conference. Jerry Johns should be highly praised for his performances. Before last week's game with Murray, Jerry received an arm injury in practice and Presnell, Darling, and trainer Jack Daniels were all sure that the big senior guard would be sidelined. Jerry played the game and was one of the most aggressive men on the field, displaying vicious tackling and excellent blocking. Guard Tom Sammons and center Jerry Boyd were both listed as doubtful starters for the Murray tilt as both boys received injuries in the Middle Tennessee game, but they played and did their usual bang-up job. Fred Winscher and Tom Schulte snagged an aerial each on two beautiful catches and did an excellent job the entire night.

Don Daly turned in one of the most outstanding individual performances we've ever witnessed at Hanger Stadium. The blonde bombshell exploded time and again for gains and repeatedly drove additional yards with Murray tacklers hanging all over him. Don gained a net 154 yards rushing alone, some 100 yards more than Murray gained the entire night. In three games this season, Daly has gained 286 yards in 34 carries for an average of 8.4 yards per attempt.

Bob Muller received an excellent ovation when he came out of the game Friday night after playing one of his best games of his career. Bob picked up 81 yards in 11 rushing attempts.

School Spirit Improved

It must be something they put in their food in the state of Tennessee to make the student body have such terrific school spirit. Last year, at Cookeville, and this year, at Murfreesboro, Tenn., the student body displayed some of the finest spirit and loyalty to their respective teams we've ever seen. Bob Zweigart lived things up somewhat at the Murray game and that we are encouraging. The Maroons, have, potentially, one of the finest teams ever fielded at Eastern and could enjoy their greatest season, so let's get behind our athletes who are representing our school and give them the support they deserve.

THOROUGHBREDS ARE THIRD VICTIM

The Eastern Maroons last Friday night took over undisputed possession of first place in the Ohio Valley Conference as the Murray Thoroughbreds became the third consecutive victim of the Maroons by a 25-6 count before a good rainy-night crowd at Hanger Stadium.

Senior halfbacks Don Daly and Ed Miracle tallied two touchdowns each to lead the Maroons to their second conference win of the campaign over a good Murray ball club that fought right down to the wire. The score does not indicate the closeness of the game, for the most part, as two scores came as a result of the Thoroughbreds' fourth down gambles in the last five minutes of the contest.

The Thoroughbreds, whose fine running backs had performed so well in their two previous games, took to the air in an attempt to match the Maroons' powerful running attack. Murray completed 12 of 23 aerials for 166 yards and one touchdown, but the Maroons' strong forward wall held the Thoroughbred ball carriers to a net 54 yards rushing and that was the story. Eastern, in the meantime, racked up 311 yards on the ground and attempted only three passes, completing two of those for 37 yards.

The Maroons scored the first time they had the pigskin. After Fred Winscher recovered the opening kickoff on his own 20, the Maroon halfback Don Daly turned in one of the finest individual performances ever witnessed at Hanger Stadium last Friday night as the Covington, Ky., senior scored two touchdowns and gained a net 154 yards on the ground to lead the Maroons to a 25-6 victory. Coach Glenn Presnell commented on the well-liked Daly, "Don is one of the hardest running backs that I have ever coached and that includes some pretty good men. Harry Hopp and Vike Francis, who played with Nebraska's Rose Bowl team of 1940 were both tremendously hard runners, but neither ran harder than Daly."

Maroons drove 80 yards in 10 plays with Don Daly plunging over from the 5 for his first touchdown of the evening. Murray was offside on two extra-point attempts, and, on the third try, Jim Hanlon raised up and tossed to Bob Muller in the end zone, but Bob failed to hold onto the ball. Eastern led 6-0 early in the first period.

Late in the first period, Karl Bays, Maroon tackle, recovered a Thoroughbred fumble on the Murray 48. Four rushing attempts netted 12 yards and the Maroons were in possession on Murray's 36 as the first period ended.

Daly opened the second period by getting 11 to the 25, from which point, Ed Miracle got loose and outraced Murray's defenders for 25 yards and the score. Ernie Rigrish booted the point after, and the Maroons led 13-0 early in the second quarter.

Murray drove 41 yards after the following kickoff and advanced to the Maroon's 29 yard line, but Jerry Boyd, sophomore center, intercepted an aerial on his own 15 to end the threat. The Maroons drove to the midfield stripe but a 15 yard penalty, together with a nine yard scrimmage loss, moved the ball back to Eastern's 25 where Horace Harper punted 39 yards to Murray's 36, Cain returning to the 44. Murray drove to Eastern's 18, but Ralph Consiglio ended this second, second period threat as the freshman guard recovered a fumble on the 21. Four plays later, Murray's Chamness recovered an Eastern fumble on the Maroon's 34. After two rushing plays netted only 2 yards, Bub Holt, Thoroughbred quarterback, faded back to pass, was caught, ran back to the line of scrimmage, jumped and threw a wobbly pass toward the goal line. Don Heine, Murray right end, caught the ball and stumbled over for the touchdown, to become the first player to score against the Maroons this season. The extra point attempt was blocked and Eastern now led by 13-6 as the first half ended.

Murray took the second half kickoff and marched from their own 30 to Eastern's 10 yard line in 17 plays and 8½ minutes but was stopped short by the Maroons' determined defense. The Maroons kept the ball the remainder of the third period as they drove to Murray's 20 in 8 plays. Miracle failed to hold onto a pitchout and the slippery pigskin bounded back to the 39 yard line for a 19 yard loss. Hanlon passed to Winscher for 9 as the quarter ended with Eastern leading by the halftime score of 13-6.

A Hanlon to Winscher pass failed and Hanlon, attempting to pass, lost 7 back to the 37 as Murray took over. Three plays later Murray's Cannady fumbled on his own 48 with Dutch Greene recovering for the Maroons. Eastern, on 8 running plays, moved to Murray's three yard line, with first and goal. Daly got 2 to the 1. Greene failed to gain and Daly got to the one foot line. Ernie Rigrish, on an off-tackle slant, was stopped short and Murray took over after a gallant goal line stand. Elliott got 3 through the middle. A pair of Holt to Heine passes were incomplete and Murray, on fourth and 7, on their own 4 yard marker, decided to gamble as Holt passed incomplete to give the Maroons the ball on their own four. On the first play, Don Daly plunged over for the score. Rigrish's kick was blocked and the Maroons now led by 19-6.

With four minutes remaining in the contest, three Holt aerials fell incomplete and on fourth down, Elliott faded back to pass and was caught back all the way to the 10 yard line. Daly got 2 to the 8, and Ed Miracle scored his second touchdown of the evening as he skirted left end for the remaining 8 yards. The point after failed and Eastern was ahead by 25-6. Phillips lost one and then passed to Sparks for 10 to the 35 as the game ended. The win was Eastern's eighth in a row and third in a row this season.

MAROONS SEEK FOURTH WIN TONIGHT AGAINST EAGLES

The Eastern Maroons, currently leading the Ohio Valley Conference, will be seeking their fourth consecutive victory tonight when they play host to a strong Tennessee Tech eleven. Kickoff time at Hanger Stadium is 8 p. m., CST.

Last Friday night, the Maroons displayed for the third time in as many games, a powerful running attack and determined defense as they made Murray their third victim of the current campaign by a 25-6 count at Richmond. Don Daly and company rushed for a net 311 yards and the Maroons' forward wall held the Thoroughbreds to a net 54 yards on the ground. Daly, personally accounted for 154 net yards rushing and scored two touchdowns while the Maroons' entire line displayed determination and stamina in holding Murray's fast backs intact.

Tennessee Tech, fresh from their 32-2 drubbing of Morehead, will be seeking their third consecutive victory over Eastern in as many years when the Eagles invade Richmond tonight. Last year, Tech handed the Maroons one of their two losses sustained all season by a 7-0 count at Cookeville, and, in 1952, the Eagles won by a 27-14 score at Richmond.

The victory over Morehead was the Tennesseans' initial win of the campaign as Florence State and Murray both were victorious over the Eagles. However, scouting reports of the Morehead game indicate that Tennessee Tech has a powerful ball club and they looked better in their win over Morehead than any team Eastern has faced this year. Their "T" formation attack is led by Jack VanHooser, an excellent passer and fine runner who will give the Maroons trouble. The big man in the Tech forward wall will be Jerry Daniels, last year an all-conference tackle, who does an excellent job of bolstering Tech's big line.

This important conference game will be the "big one" for both teams. Should Tech lose, their chances for a second straight conference crown would practically be eliminated since the defending champs have already dropped one loop setback. Should the Maroons win, only two teams, in Morehead and "those Hilltoppers" will stand in their way for the title.

Coach Presnell will probably stick with the same combination that started the Murray game last week. The Maroons will field an all-senior backfield with Jim Hanlon leading the "T" attack. At left half will be Don Daly, the club's leading ground gainer, while Ed Miracle will probably start at right half. Bob Muller, 205 lb. bull-dozer, will hold down the full-back post. Freshman Tom Schulte and senior Fred Winscher will open at the ends, while Frank Nassida and Karl Bays, both seniors, will be the tackles. Another pair of seniors in Jerry Johns and Tom Sammons, will hold down the guard slots, while sophomore Jerry Boyd will start at center.

Eastern will outweigh Tech's forward wall by some 8 pounds to the man; the Maroons' line averaging a hefty 206 pounds as compared to Tech's 198 lb. average. Eastern's backs will be 7 pounds to the man heavier, averaging 180 pounds while Tennessee Tech will field a backfield that averages 173 pounds per man.

Coach Presnell named halfback Ed Miracle and guard Jerry Johns to act as co-captains for tonight's battle.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE RAIDERS SURPRISED 26 - 0

Jim Hanlon, senior quarterback from Ghent, Ky., scored two touchdowns to lead the Eastern Maroons to a 26-0 victory over Middle Tennessee in the initial conference tilt of the season.

The Maroons' first score came midway in the first period when senior halfback Don Daly intercepted an aerial on his own 27. Horace Harper, sophomore half-back, on a pitchout from Hanlon, got 20 to the 47. Hanlon, on an optional play, picked up 9 more and moved the ball to the enemy 44. Daly, displaying power and speed, raced to the 21, from which point Hanlon faked to the left and went all the way for the score. Ernie Rigrish kicked the point and the Maroons led by 7-0.

Eastern threatened late in the second quarter when they drove 56 yards in 13 plays, only to lose the ball on downs on the Blue Raiders' 20. The half-time score remained at 7-0, with the Maroons leading.

Two minutes after the second half kickoff, Jim Hanlon took a punt on his own 43 and raced 57 yards for his second touchdown of the evening. Rigrish's extra-point attempt was wide and the score now read, Eastern, 13; Middle Tenn. 0.

Three plays following the next kickoff, Hanlon continued to shine as he intercepted a pass on his own 33. Eight plays later, Bob Muller, senior fullback from Amityville, N. Y., bulled over from the two for the score to put the Maroons ahead by 19-0, after Don Hortman's extra point attempt failed.

Middle Tennessee threatened late in the third period as they moved the ball from their own 18 to Eastern's 19 yard line. However, a 15 yard penalty, plus a 9 yard scrimmage loss moved the ball back to the 44 to end the opponents' only serious threat.

Early in the final canto, freshman guard, Ralph Consiglio, snagged an enemy aerial on the Blue Raiders' 27. Harper got to the 17 and Jack Rodgers, frosh signal-caller, moved the pigskin to the 15 on a keep. Rodgers passed to Rigrish for 14 yards to the one, and, on the next play, Rodgers went over for the score. Rigrish's boot was true and the final score read 26-0, with the Maroons passthe season and winning their second in a row this season.

The Maroons' entire line was outstanding as they charged hard to repeatedly throw the opponents' ball carriers for losses. Karl Bays and Frank Nassida continued to prove to be a pair of the best tackles in the conference. Jerry Boyd displayed outstanding ability as he played an aggressive hard game. Guards Jerry Johns and Tom Sammons and ends Fred Winscher and Tom Schulte did a bang-up job to round out the regular linemen.

Chuck Bell again turned in an excellent performance as the little junior speedster accounted for 63 net yards in 8 carries with the pigskin. Don Daly was the leading rusher with 78 yards in 10 attempts while fullback Bob Muller picked up 46 yards in 8 carries.

Infirmiry Moved Back To Old Location; New Nurse On Staff

Eastern's infirmiry, which was moved to Stateland Hall last year when the remodeling of Sullivan Hall began, is now back in its original location in the basement of Sullivan.

Infirmiry Service

The Richmond doctor who serves the campus through the infirmiry is Dr. Hugh Mahaffey. The infirmiry is open Monday through Friday from 9:00 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. and from 1:00 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. Saturday hours are from 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. The infirmiry is closed on Saturday afternoons and Sundays.

Along with Sullivan Hall, the infirmiry also underwent a remodeling job. It has been completely painted and the floors have been resanded.

Infirmiry Staff

The new nurse is Mrs. Herbert Vescio, from Long Beach, California. She is a Registered Nurse, and attended Saint Vincents College of Nursing in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Vescio spent one year as a nurse in a hospital in Long Beach and one year on private duty in Norfolk, Virginia. She was at the Gibson Hospital in Richmond for six months before coming to Eastern as nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Vescio live in Veterans' Village and have been married not quite two months. Mr. Vescio was discharged from the Navy Air Corps in November of last year and is now a freshman at Eastern, majoring in electrical engineering.

Mrs. Anna L. Gatewood is the practical nurse serving the infirmiry. She has been at Eastern for several years and is a native of Richmond. Her residence is at 344 Woodland Avenue.

THE GHOST WRITER

Good afternoon—this is Station B-O-O, the Ghost Writer reporting on the latest "links" of news around and about Eastern. . .

Ron Pelligrino seems to be playing the field this fall. Take your turn, girls. Bob Tissue, Larry Lovington, Ronald Coffman, John Sullivan, Jimmy Caudill, Don Horton and "Creekmore," however, seem to be satisfied with one.

Carlene Babb is still sporting that big class ring. Too bad, Boys! "Boots" and Doug are going as strong as ever.

You'd never know Charlie White had gone to U. K.—Seems he's here quite a bit. Right, Ginny?

From what we can "link" together. . . Eastern girls were well represented at Cedar Point this summer. That beach must have been the greatest! The boys weren't bad either; just ask Joyce B., Jeannene F., Sandy S., Alton Lindon, Jean Walton, Jo Ann D., or Bonnie Baldwin. Other girls, who left their steadies at home, were Jean Osborne, Theresa C., Beverly Earlywine and Carol M. Kidd.

3. Is Marilyn Mulvanity related to Marilyn Monroe?
4. What color is Carl Bay's red hair?
5. Does Don Daly walk to school or carry his lunch?

Now for our dedications: We like to pass these along to you all:

1. "Haven't got a Worry," to all the "A" students.
2. "Have you Heard," to Mrs. Hagan.
3. "I'm Hurtin'," to all the girls trying out for Modern Dance Club.
4. "I Get so Lonely," to Peggy Chandler.
5. "Way up in North Carolina," to Harold Fraley.
6. "This Must be the Place," to all the Freshmen.
7. "I Don't Hurt Anymore," to P. T. and D. B.

This is the Ghost Writer signing off for this time. Haunting to hear from you soon.
