Injuries plagued the Colonels in 2010. Three starters were lost before the season reached its midway point. In addition, several others played through injuries and had to undergo surgery after the season ended. Seven position starters return from last season, plus the three Colonels that were starters before their seasons were cut short. The top two pitchers are back for 2011 as well.

"We expected to have a better year last year, but we couldn't overcome the injuries," head coach Jane Worthington said. "A broken leg, two broken wrists and a broken thumb were things we just couldn't foresee. I've never had that many injuries in 20 years of coaching."

The one constant throughout the 18-year history of the ECU softball program has been Worthington. The only coach in program history is back for her 19th season at the helm. The Colonels will be looking to give their coach her 500th career victory in 2011. Worthington enters the season with a 484-470 record. She led Eastern to Ohio Valley Conference championships and NCAA tournament appearances in 2002 and 2004.

"We have to get back to where we used to be," said Worthington. "We haven't done as well as we would like the last few years. Our goal is to get back to where we were."

INFIELD

The infield will be anchored at third base by fifth-year senior Shyenne Hussey. The three-time All-Ohio Valley Conference selection was one of the three players lost to injury a year ago. Hussey played five games in 2010. In 2009, Hussey batted .349 and hit six home runs. She drove in more than 40 runs as a freshman and a sophomore.

Raquel Howes started every game at shortstop in 2010 as a freshman. She hit .287, tied for the team lead with 22 RBIs and was second on the team with 23 runs scored. However, Howes will slide over to second in 2011. Freshman Christina Ciolek is expected step in at shortstop.

Nikki Bruce took over at second base and started 28 times after Larkyn Wood suffered a season ending injury. Bruce hit two home runs and drove in 10 runs. Wood started the first 19 games of the season. Bruce will split time between second and first base this season. Wood will make a permanent move to first base.

Freshman Shannon McQueen will also battle for playing time at first and can fill in for Hussey at third base when needed.

OUTFIELD

All three starters return in the outfield. In her first two seasons left fielder Diane Gallagher has earned All-OVC honors twice. Last season she batted .325, scored a team-best 25 runs and led the conference with a school record 34 stolen bases. Senior Cassi Gibson returns in center field for her final season. In 2010 Gibson hit .264 with 13 RBIs and 14 runs scored.

The job in right field will be up for grabs. Melissa Costa started 32 times in right field as a freshman last season but is still recovering from an injury. She finished third on the team with a .295 batting average. Juniors Christina Datko and Samm Daniels, along with freshmen Jessica Shartzter and Nicole Heitz will vie for playing time in right.

CATCHERS

Worthington has a big hole to fill behind the plate after the graduation of two-time All-OVC backstop Jena Handley. Handley led the team with a .333 batting average and tied for the team lead with 22 RBIs a year ago. Senior Ashley Dollins got off to a strong start in 2010 while splitting time with Handley behind the dish, but her season ended after 24 games due to an injury. Despite playing less than half the season, Dollins had a team-high three home runs to go along with a .279 batting average and 12 RBIs.

Freshman Cheyanne Pounds saw action in 13 games last year but was limited at the end of the season due to an injury.

PITCHERS

In the circle, three of five pitchers will be back in 2011, led by sophomore Kristin Perry. As a freshman Perry went 7-14 but she struck out 142 batters, in 124 and one-third innings, and had the lowest opponents' batting average in the OVC (.193). She did however issue 118 walks. Perry had the fifth most strikeouts and the 15th lowest ERA in the OVC last year. She ranked 58th in the nation with an average of eight strikeouts per seven innings and ranked 29th in the nation in hits allowed per seven innings (4.73). Perry pitched seven complete games, including three shutouts. She had seven or more strikeouts in a game 10 times.

"We have to avoid walks this season. One thing all our pitchers need to find is consistency," said Worthington. "We were up and down last year. If they can be consistent, then we'll be alright."

Seniors Stacye Toups and Noelani Esperas also return. Toups has 20 career wins and led the team with a 2.82 ERA in 2010. Esperas tossed a five-inning no-hitter in the final game of the 2010 season.

"This past fall gave us a chance to see what we have and they did a good job," Worthington said. "The bottom line is we have to get out there this spring and see how it is going to transfer."

Head Coach • 19th Season • Washington, Utah

Jane Worthington

Utah State, '82

2002 & 2004 OVC Coach of the Year

It was fitting that long-time head softball coach Jane Worthington's 400th win at Eastern Kentucky came as the Colonels advanced to the title contest of the 2006 conference championship, a game that Worthington has grown accustomed to competing in during her 18 years at the helm of the program.

Worthington has been committed to the success of Eastern Kentucky softball since she started in 1993, and as of late, the rewards have been coming fast and furious. The Washington, Utah native is entering her 19th year with the Colonels and has guided the squad to two OVC titles and two NCAA tournament appearances. The expectations remain high for the 2011 team as the squad looks to return to post-season play.

Since taking over the helm of the Colonels' program, Worthington has posted an impressive 484-470 overall mark and an even more striking 241-178 mark in Ohio Valley Conference play. She has led the Colonels to victory in nearly 60 percent of their conference games, and under Worthington's guidance, ECU has earned a spot in 15 of the 17 OVC tournaments since the event began in 1994. During the past nine seasons, Worthington's efforts in building the program were rewarded as the Colonels finished in the top three in the conference four times, won a pair of OVC championships and advanced to two NCAA tournaments.

The 2004 season, Worthington's best yet, saw the team capture the OVC title and make its second NCAA tournament appearance in three years. Worthington also guided the Colonels to a 42-win season, the most victories in program history, before earning her second OVC Coach of the Year award.

Two years prior, Eastern Kentucky earned the school's first-ever conference championship and Worthington was selected as the league's coach of the year.

Throughout her career, Worthington has produced several standout players as three Colonels have been named OVC Player of the Year and four players have earned Freshman of the Year recognition. Twenty-eight All-OVC first team players have come through the program and 27 players have been named to the league's second team.

Worthington has found success on the diamond with solid pitching and strong defense while testing her team early with a challenging non-conference schedule. Never one to shy away from tough competition, she regularly schedules games against nationally-ranked programs in order to prepare her squad for the demands of Ohio Valley Conference opponents.

Worthington maintains that the only way to improve is to play the best possible teams in the country. Her Eastern Kentucky squads have faced numerous nationally-ranked opponents, defeating No. 7 South Carolina in 1995 and facing top-ranked UCLA in the 2002 NCAA Regional. More recently, the Colonels fell in close games to No. 22 Washington and No. 15 Hawai'i in 2008, and 18th ranked Louisville in 2009.

In addition, Worthington has established a nation-wide recruiting base and continues to attract top players from the best high schools and junior college programs in the country.

Worthington, the only coach in the program's 18-year history, has built the program from the ground up, starting in her first year at ECU with the construction of Gertrude Hood Field. The Colonels' first season of competition, in the spring of 1993, Worthington led the team to an 11-26 record and the following year, the Colonels posted a 26-28 mark.

In just its third year, the program posted its first-ever winning season (31-29) and advanced to the finals of the conference tournament. Worthington led Eastern Kentucky to another winning season in 1998, ending with 38 wins, and reached a career milestone with her 200th victory in 2001. The Colonels competed in the national postseason, playing in both the 2002 and 2004 NCAA tournaments.

Prior to Eastern Kentucky, Worthington spent two years as an assistant coach at Miami (Ohio) and one year as an assistant at Livingston University in Alabama. She earned a master's degree in sports studies from Miami (Ohio) in 1991. Before entering the collegiate coaching ranks, Worthington taught junior high school in Idaho.

Worthington, a 1982 graduate of Utah State, helped the Aggies capture the 1981 national championship with a win over Cal-State Fullerton in the finals. Winning a championship as a player, Worthington knows what it takes to be a winner and has successfully instilled those beliefs in her players. As a result, a large number of her former players have followed her lead and entered the coaching profession.

A strong supporter in the growth of fast-pitch softball in Kentucky, Worthington has provided numerous opportunities for individuals to enhance their softball skills at clinics and camps. On a yearly basis, she hosts player development clinics and camps to help fast-pitch softball develop throughout the state. Worthington believes in giving all players the chance to increase their skills and attempts to keep costs low so that everyone interested can attend. In addition, she believes in devoting personal attention to each participant and as a result, tries to keep the number of participants low by scheduling multiple events. Worthington has instructed over 3,000 players at the Eastern Kentucky camps and clinics throughout the years and has helped raise the level of play in Kentucky and surrounding states. In 1996, Worthington was given the state's Citizen for Sports Equity Outstanding College Coach Award.

The Colonels' coach also stresses the importance of academics and expects her players to also excel in the classroom. She feels that a balance can be achieved, and with good management skills, her student-athletes can succeed in the classroom and on the playing field. Her close work with the Chad Bratzke Student-Athlete Academic Success Center has resulted in many past ECU softball players being recognized as Colonel Scholars. In 1999, Michelle Williams received the OVC Medal of Honor for the fourth time after graduating with a perfect 4.0 GPA. In 2002 Elise Burch became Eastern's first softball Academic All-American.

After graduation, Worthington's past players have entered the professional fields of law, criminal justice, education, business, aviation and coaching.

Eastern Kentucky head softball coach Jane Worthington did not have to look very far to find her assistant coach when she tabbed former Colonel catcher Megan Ink for the position eight years ago.

Now set to begin her ninth year on the EKU coaching staff, Ink's responsibilities include arranging team travel, working with the pitchers and catchers and assisting Worthington in all aspects of coaching. She has been instrumental in maintaining the program's strong recruiting ties to the west coast.

In eight seasons, Ink has helped the Colonels to four top-four finishes in the Ohio Valley Conference, including an OVC championship in 2004.

After a stellar two-year career behind the plate, Ink's transition to the Eastern Kentucky coaching staff was an easy one. An outstanding player in her own right, Ink also has the distinction of being part of both Colonel NCAA tournament appearances. She competed in the tournament as a player in 2002 and returned as a member of the coaching staff in 2004.

"Megan has done a fantastic job since coming on board, especially in terms of improving our pitching," Worthington said. "She knew my style of coaching as a player and has adapted very easily to coaching. Megan is a true asset to this program."

The All-OVC second team honoree started 96 of 98 games behind the plate for the Colonels while making just three errors in her two-year career. She posted a career-high batting average of .246 and helped lead Eastern Kentucky to its first-ever NCAA tournament in 2002.

Prior to Eastern Kentucky, Ink spent her first two collegiate seasons at San Jose City College. While at SJCC, Ink was named to the all-conference first team and to the All-Northern California Team. In addition, she was named the team's MVP following her sophomore year.

Ink has been heavily involved in conducting clinics and camps throughout the state of Kentucky.

The San Jose, Calif., native earned her bachelor's degree in correctional and juvenile justice studies from Eastern Kentucky in 2002. She earned a master's degree in sports administration from Eastern Kentucky in December of 2006. In the summer of 2007, the former Megan Mills married Brian Ink.

On December 14, 2005, Eastern Kentucky University announced the creation of an Athletics Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame's mission is to commemorate and honor student-athletes, other individuals and teams whose accomplishments have contributed to the esteemed tradition of Colonel Athletics and whose character has reflected positively on the University.

An extraordinary group of individuals, previously recognized by the University during the 1974 Centennial Athletic Awards Banquet, were inducted into the Hall of Fame on Nov. 3, 2006. This group of 25 is called The Founders. They were joined by an inaugural class of 13 members to make up the 2006 inductees.

A former Colonel softball player has been included in three of the first five Hall of Fame inductions. In 2008, Jonelle Csora-Clark became the first EKU softball player to be inducted into the Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2009 Kim Sarrazin-Blouin joined and in 2010 Jamie Parker Welt was inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Colonels In The EKV Athletics Hall Of Fame

Jonelle Csora-Clark (2000-03, Pitcher, Massillon, Ohio)

The most decorated pitcher in EKV softball history, Jonelle Csora-Clark was a three-time all-conference selection and holds several program records. Csora earned Ohio Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year honors following her junior and senior seasons.

As a junior, she also earned OVC Tournament MVP recognition while leading the Colonels to the league championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Massillon, Ohio native earned all-conference and all-tournament honors in 2001, 2002, and 2003 and all-region second team honors in 2002. She tossed two seven-inning no-hitters and a six-inning no-hitter during her senior season.

Csora holds EKV's career pitching records for games played (144), games started (105), complete games (75), wins (72), consecutive wins (9), innings pitched (740.2), earned run average (1.74), shutouts (30), strikeouts (754), and opponent batting average (.194).

The astounding numbers also account for program single-season records in complete games (28), wins (25), earned run average (0.97), shutouts (11), strikeouts (273), and opponent batting average (.166). Csora also holds the record for most strikeouts in a game (15).

She recently married former EKV assistant football coach Shawn Clark.

Kim Sarrazin-Blouin (1997-00, Catcher, St.-Eustache, Quebec)

Kim Sarrazin played four years for coach Jane Worthington and was a three-time All-Ohio Valley Conference choice, while making honorable mention all-conference recognition her freshman season.

While compiling a .353 career batting average during her four seasons at EKV, Sarrazin finished among the league leaders in the OVC in six different categories her senior season, including batting average (.298) and runs batted in (29). She was also honored in 2000 as the OVC Player of the Year.

Sarrazin's name is all over the EKV record book, holding Eastern career marks for hits (235), doubles (46) and consecutive games with a hit (21), and EKV single-season records for most base stealers caught (24), batting average (.420) and triples (six). She was also a two-time OVC All-Tournament team selection and won the OVC Academic Medal of Honor in 1996-97 as a freshman.

She continued her softball career after college by starting for both the Canadian National Team that placed ninth at the 2002 World Championships and for the 2004 Canadian Olympic Team that finished fifth at the Olympic Games in Athens, Greece. She is married to Patrick Blouin and they have one son, William.

Jamie Parker Welt (1994-96, Pitcher/Infielder, Bellflower, Calif.)

Jamie Parker was a pitcher, designated hitter and infielder for three seasons for coach Jane Worthington's EKV softball team.

She was a three-time All-Ohio Valley Conference choice for the Colonels in 1994, 1995 and 1996 and still holds single season records for most hits (84) and most at bats (205). She also holds career records at Eastern for best batting average (.392) and on-base percentage (.450).

As a sophomore in 1994, Parker led the team in batting with her .363 average which included four home runs and 27 RBIs. She also pitched in 37 games that season, recording 12 wins with an ERA of 2.50. In 1995, as a junior, she again led the team in batting with her .410 average, four homers and 40 RBIs. As a senior in 1996, Parker was Eastern's top slugger, hitting .399 with three home runs and 14 RBIs. She also appeared in 27 games in '96 for the Colonels as a pitcher, collecting 10 victories, recording a miniscule 1.67 ERA.
