Last year, Eastern Kentucky began the season with a veteran team. ECU had six starters returning, six student-athletes that were beginning their fourth season of play and a seventh with three years of experience in the program. At the start of the 2010 season, nine players total had at least two full seasons of play under their belt.

Unfortunately in college athletics the cycle that gives a team experience one season, often makes for a young team the next. That is where the Colonels find themselves at the start of the 2011 season.

This year's squad has only five players with two or more years of experience and only two of those have three years under their belt. Nine players have one year or less of experience, including five freshmen.

However, head coach Lori Duncan – in her 14th season at ECU – does not have a bare cupboard. Duncan will rebuild around 2010 Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year Ashley Edmond and senior Hannah Groudle.

Along with Edmond and Groudle, sophomore setter/outside hitter Robyn Hench is the only other returning starter from last season. Other returning players include defensive specialists Candice Biltz and senior Jill Henneman, middle blocker Toni Michalski, setter Jessica Mueller and outside hitter Marissa Tashenberg.

"Our mantra this spring and summer has been to be result oriented," said Duncan. "To be able to capture the tradition of the program we need to be willing to set the bar high, and have the work ethic and attitude to make sure we take care of that."

OUTSIDE HITTERS

Edmond will look to continue the success she enjoyed as a freshman. In addition to being named the 2010 Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year the Michigan City, Ind., native was also selected to the OVC All-Newcomer team. She led the team with 366 kills, 25 service aces and 420 points. She ranked seventh in the conference with 3.21 kills per set and sixth with 3.69 points per set. She finished third on the team with 45 blocks. Edmond recorded five double-doubles (kills-digs) and recorded a season-best of 20 kills twice – versus USC Upstate (Sept. 4) and Tennessee Tech (Sept. 17). She also finished with a season-high 21 digs against Tennessee Tech (Sept. 17).

Two newcomers will be asked to make up for departed senior, and All-OVC selection, Lauren Snyder. Newcomer Kelsey Kuehner transferred from Appalachian State. She redshirted last season, but as a freshman she played in 26 matches and started 14 times. She ranked fourth on the team with 165 kills (2.29 kps). She compiled double-digit kills in seven matches, including a season-best 15 against Tennessee Tech. Freshmen Alexis Plagens was an all-state selection in Ohio.

"I feel very strong about our outside hitting position," Duncan said. "I think those kids are our strongest overall players right now. Those three kids are doing a fabulous job. In terms of depth, this will be our strength."

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

Departed senior middle blocker Autumn Harms led the team with 78 blocks and was third with 244 kills last season, but Groudle has played a key role for the Colonels for three seasons. She is the team's top returning blocker from last season. Groudle was fourth on the team last season with 140 kills and third with 185 points while starting all 29 of the team's matches. She had a season-high 13 kills against Eastern Illinois (Oct. 29) and finished with a season-best five blocks at Appalachian State (Sept. 3).

There is little depth in the middle behind Groudle. Michalski is a junior but has been limited to just 21 matches her first two seasons due to injuries. At 6-foot-2 freshman Hannah Burkle adds height to the middle for the Colonels and is expected to contribute immediately.

"I think we'll be able to take a step forward from where we've been the last couple of years in terms of our middle blocking skill," said Duncan. "Hannah Groudle and Hannah Burkle are doing a nice job and are the front runners for solidifying the middle, but Toni will be in the mix."

RIGHT SIDE

Hench, Tashenberg and Michalski will see action on the right side. Hench was the team's primary setter last year but has the versatility to fill several areas on the court. Tashenberg played in 16 matches her freshman season. She posted a season-high 11 kills against USC Upstate (Sept. 4).

SETTERS

Hench led the team with 707 assists last season. She ranked 10th in the OVC with an average of 7.14 assists per set and was third on the team with 21 service aces. She finished fourth on the team with 36 blocks and fifth on the team with 123 points. Hench recorded six double-doubles (assists-digs). She recorded a season-best 57 assists against Tennessee-Martin (Oct. 8).

With Hench's versatility, she may see more action at right side if the Colonels develop enough depth at setter. Jessica Mueller played in five matches in 2010. The junior had four kills and 46 assists against SIU Edwardsville (Nov. 6). Freshman Abbey Cvelbar was a three-time all-state selection at Beaumont High School in Ohio.

"We've got quality depth at this position," Duncan said. "Abbey is doing a really good job. She's a true setter. Robyn and Jessica can take on multiple roles including setting and blocking. Robyn is so versatile. She's so essential to our group because she can hit and set. She was hitting so well last spring that we can utilize her in a hitting position."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS

At 5-foot-4, Abby O'Connor was the smallest player on the team last season, but her shoes might be the biggest to fill this season. As a senior O'Connor finished second in the OVC with an average of 5.66 digs per set on her way to being named to the All-OVC team for the second time. She ranked seventh in the nation in the same category. Her 645 digs in 2010 was the second most in school history in a single season. O'Connor finished her career in second place on ECU's career digs list with 1,977. That total places her seventh in Ohio Valley Conference history. During the 2010 season, O'Connor registered 10 or more digs in 28 of ECU's 29 matches. She had 20 or more digs 17 times and turned in six 30-plus dig performances.

Returners Biltz and Henneman, and freshman Dena Ott will be charged with filling the void left by O'Connor. Henneman played in 26 of the team's 29 matches a year ago. She finished sixth on the team with 94 digs. She recorded a season-high 13 digs at Tennessee State (Oct. 15). Biltz played in 18 matches and started twice. She recorded a season-high 13 digs twice, versus Pepperdine (Sept. 11) and at Southeast Missouri (Sept. 24). She served up three aces at Jacksonville State (Oct. 22). Ott earned all-state honorable mention honors while playing at the same high school as former Colonel standout Brittany Nobilio.

"Who wins the libero position will depend on who can consistently dig balls and who can consistently pass/serve throughout the next couple of weeks," Duncan said. "All three will play significant roles. One will be the libero but the other two will play when we need to sub for an outside hitter in the backcourt."

SCHEDULE

The Colonels will open the season on August 26 when they play two matches at the Pitt Panther Invitational in Pittsburgh. Eastern will take on Howard University before facing the host team later that evening. The Colonels will conclude the invitational with two matches the next day against Rhode Island and Duquesne.

The following weekend, Eastern will participate in the South Florida Invitational. The Colonels will face Bowling Green and South Florida on day one before wrapping up play against Bethune-Cookman and Maryland-Eastern Shore over the following two days.

The non-conference portion of the schedule concludes on at the 2011 Owls Classic hosted by Kennesaw State. ECU plays the home squad on the first day of play and then will do battle with Alabama-Birmingham and Troy the next day.

The Colonels' first home matches of the 2011 season will fall on Sept. 16 and Sept. 17. Austin Peay pays a visit to McBrayer Arena followed by Tennessee State. Rival Morehead State comes to Richmond on Nov. 1 and the home schedule concludes on Nov. 4 and Nov. 5 against Murray State and Southeast Missouri.

ECU will conclude the regular season on the road at Tennessee Tech and Jacksonville State on Nov. 11 and Nov. 12. The 2011 Ohio Valley Conference tournament is slated for Nov. 17-20.

Eastern Kentucky University, '84

2004 OVC Coach of the Year

The 2011 season will mark head coach Lori Duncan's 14th year at the helm of the Eastern Kentucky University volleyball program. Under her guidance, Eastern Kentucky captured a share of consecutive regular season titles in 2004 and 2005, winning the conference tournament in 2004 and earning the league's automatic berth to the NCAA tournament.

In 2006 the Colonels finished with a 17-14 mark and advanced to the Ohio Valley Conference tournament for the sixth straight time, despite competing without several key players due to various circumstances throughout the season. During the 2007 and 2008 seasons Duncan's teams were bitten hard by the injury bug. Several key players missed significant time, including two starters who missed the entire 2008 season.

With a mostly healthy team in 2009, Duncan had the Colonels back where they belong, competing for the OVC championship. ECU more than doubled its number of conference victories from 2008. Duncan led the Colonels to four straight victories, including three wins in three days, to cap the regular season making sixth seeded Eastern Kentucky the hottest team entering the conference tournament. Eastern won six of its last eight regular season matches.

The 2010 Colonel squad tied for fourth place in the OVC – ECU's highest finish in the league standings since 2006. Duncan led her squad to the OVC tournament for the second straight year.

Under Duncan's tutelage last season, Ashley Edmond was selected as the 2010 Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year and chosen to the Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer team. She led the team with 366 kills, 25 service aces and 420 points. The freshman ranked seventh in the OVC with 3.21 kills per set and sixth with 3.69 points per set.

The 2004 OVC Coach of the Year recorded three straight 20-plus win seasons at ECU after inheriting a team featuring all walk-ons in her first season (1998). During her tenure, Duncan has brought new life to a volleyball program that had previously won numerous Ohio Valley Conference championships and has returned it to prominence.

Eastern Kentucky advanced to the title game of the OVC tournament in both 2004 and 2005, winning the crown in 2004 for the first time since 1990 and making the program's first NCAA tournament appearance in two decades. That same year, Duncan led the Colonels to a school-record 15 conference wins and followed that with 14 conference wins the following season.

In 13 years on the sidelines for the Colonels, Duncan's players have earned numerous league and national accolades. In 2005, Liz Guard was named to the AVCA Division I All-Midwest Region team and was honored as an AVCA honorable mention All-American. In 2007 Brittany Nobilio earned her third OVC Defensive Player of Year award, was selected first team All-OVC and honorable mention all-region. Nobilio concluded her career as the NCAA record holder for digs per set and third on the NCAA's all-time career digs list. Duncan's players have earned All-Ohio Valley Conference honors 19 times and have earned spots on the All-Freshman/Newcomer teams nine times.

As just the second coach in the history of Eastern Kentucky volleyball, as well as a former all-conference player for the Colonels, Duncan has a deep understanding of the university. No stranger to Richmond, Duncan began her collegiate playing career at Eastern in 1980 under the guidance of former Colonel Head Coach Geri Polvino and played an intricate role on three straight OVC Championship teams and one NCAA tournament team.

During her four-year collegiate career, Duncan was a key player for three of ECU's seven-consecutive Ohio Valley Conference championship teams. While at Eastern, Duncan was a four-time All-OVC selection (1980-83), an OVC all-tournament team honoree (1983) and an AIAW All-Region choice in 1980 as an outside hitter. She was also chosen as ECU's Female Athlete of the Year in 1984 and won team awards for Best All-Around Player and Best Defensive Player following her senior campaign. Duncan still sits third among all Eastern players with a .271 career hitting percentage.

"To be back at my alma mater doing something I love is just fantastic," Duncan said. "Few people can know what it's like to come back and lead a program you once played for."

Duncan's collegiate coaching career began at Penn State-McKeesport where she led both the men's and women's volleyball teams for five years. She then spent five seasons as the head coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (1993-97). Duncan has also gained coaching experience at the Junior Olympic level, leading teams to the East Coast championship during three years. At the junior level, she coached 10 athletes who furthered their education at such Division I schools as Penn State, Ohio State, Arkansas, North Carolina State, Kent State, Loyola (Md.) and ECU. In 1995-96, her Nike Steel City Juniors were ranked 25th in the nation.

Duncan received her bachelor of science in recreation and park administration with a minor in physical education from ECU in 1984. She later completed two master's degrees at Eastern Kentucky, for physical education in 1986 and for student personnel services in 1987.

Second Season • Willoughby, Ohio

Former Eastern Kentucky University All-American Liz (Guard) Sellers returned to her alma mater as the assistant volleyball coach in August 2010. Sellers led the Colonels to back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference regular season championships in 2004 and 2005. She helped the team advance to the NCAA tournament in 2004 and garnered honorable mention All-America honors as a senior in 2005.

The Willoughby, Ohio native was a three-time first team All-OVC selection during her four-year career at ECU. In addition to earning All-America honors following her senior season, Sellers was also selected to the All-Midwest Region first team. She averaged 4.22 kills and 1.12 blocks per set in 2005. She finished second in the OVC for hitting percentage (.341). She also ranked third in the league in kills and blocks per set. As a junior she contributed 3.90 kills and 1.23 blocks per set, leading the OVC in hitting percentage (.387) and blocks per set.

"I'm excited to have Liz back in our program," said head coach Lori Duncan. "Her experiences as a successful student-athlete and coach will be a great addition to our staff. As a former Colonel, Liz has a strong connection to this program. She's familiar with the history and tradition of ECU volleyball and will work diligently to continue that tradition."

"I'm honored and proud to be a part of ECU volleyball again," Sellers said. "I learned so much from coach Duncan and this program as a student-athlete here, and now I truly look forward to giving back to it."

Dr. Geri Polvino (inducted 2006)

Retired Eastern Kentucky volleyball coach Geri Polvino, who started the Colonels' volleyball program in 1966 and led the team through the 1997 season, was selected as a member of the inaugural class of the EKV Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2005, became the first volleyball coach inducted into the Ohio Valley Conference Hall of Fame.

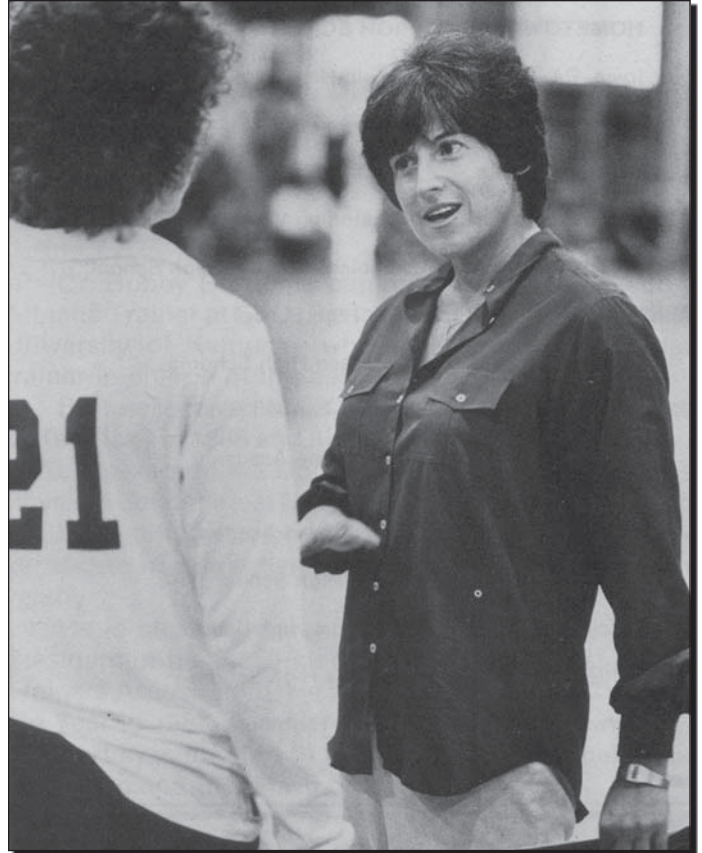

In her 32 years with the EKV volleyball team, Polvino compiled a 627-439 record while leading the Colonels to nine regular season conference championships and eight league tournament titles. During her tenure, she earned a league-record eight OVC Coach of the Year awards and pioneered the National Invitational Volleyball Championships.

Prior to joining the Ohio Valley Conference, Polvino led the Colonels to three straight KWIC (Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference) state titles from 1971 to 1973 and gained national exposure after winning the 1971 AIAW Region II Championship. In a six-year span, Eastern won four AIAW Region II titles and advanced to the national tournament each of those years. In 1975, the Colonels made their best showing with a 14th place at the AIAW National Championships.

In addition to her work at Eastern, Polvino served as president of the National Association for Girls and Women in Sports Coaches Academy and chaired the CWS Volleyball Rules Committee.

As one of the sport's most respected authorities, she gained worldwide recognition when she became the first certified female instructor in the International Volleyball Federation. Polvino traveled the globe as she worked as a clinic instructor both in the United States and abroad.

Throughout the years, she served on the National Invitational Volleyball Championships Board of Directors and on the selection committee for the U.S. Volleyball Association's Men's All-American Team. Polvino was a voting member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association's weekly Top 25 poll and three times, served as the campus director of the IVBF International Coaches Course, attracting more than 200 coaches from around the world to the EKV campus.

"Because my volleyball experience at Eastern Kentucky was remarkable, I decided to pursue coaching as a profession. Dr. P taught us the value of TEAMWORK, LOYALTY, INTEGRITY and DISCIPLINE. She will always exemplify what makes EKV and our volleyball program extraordinary."

– Head Coach Lori Duncan

On December 14, 2005, Eastern Kentucky University announced the creation of an Athletics Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame's mission is to commemorate and honor student-athletes, other individuals and teams whose accomplishments have contributed to the esteemed tradition of Colonel Athletics and whose character has reflected positively on the University.

An extraordinary group of individuals, previously recognized by the University during the 1974 Centennial Athletic Awards Banquet, were inducted into the Hall of Fame on Nov. 3, 2006. This group of 25 is called The Founders. They were joined by an inaugural class of 13 members to make up the 2006 inductees.

Former head volleyball coach Dr. Geri Polvino was a member of the inaugural class in 2006. The 2010 class included the first two volleyball student-athletes to be inducted. Angela Boykins and Deanne Madden-Scanlon were inducted during ceremonies at the historic Keen Johnson Building on Oct. 8, 2010.

Colonels In The ECU Athletics Hall Of Fame

Angela Boykins (1983-86)

Angela Boykins lettered four seasons (1983-86) for coach Geri Polvino's volleyball team and was a driving force on all four Colonel squads as a middle hitter. She was a three-time All-Ohio Valley Conference first-team selection and she also was a three-time OVC All-Tournament team choice. Boykins was the 1985 and the 1986 OVC Co-Player of the Year and was named to the 1986 American Volleyball Coaches Association All-Region team.

She helped lead Eastern to the OVC tournament championship each of her four seasons with the Colonels and OVC regular season titles in 1984, 1985 and 1986. She is ranked fourth in the Eastern record book for career kills (1,497), career block assists (457) and career block solos (162).

Deanne Madden-Scanlon (1979-82)

Deanne Madden-Scanlon played four seasons and was a two-year starter for coach Geri Polvino from 1979-82. Chosen the ECU Female Athlete of the Year in 1982-83 and picked on the 1982 Ohio Valley Conference All-Tournament team, she was a member of Eastern's OVC tournament championship teams in 1981 and 1982 when the Lady Colonels finished those years with overall records of 36-11 and 34-15, respectively.

She is listed in the ECU record book with the sixth (.306, 1981) and seventh (.306, 1982) all-time best hitting percentages in a single season. She also has the top two seasons for single season block solos with 77 in 1982 and 73 in 1981, and she is listed with the third best single season total for block assists with 186 in 1981. Madden-Scanlon is also among the career leaders for Eastern in hitting percentage (.306, second all-time), block solos (150, fifth) and block assists (307, eighth).

Following graduation from Eastern in 1983, Madden-Scanlon, a native of Zanesville, OH, played on the U.S. Women's National Team and later spent a full decade as a player in the United States Volleyball Association, twice earning All-American honors.

Madden-Scanlon also played on a Women's Senior Division team that was national runnerup in 1993. She has spent the last 16 years as head coach of Grand Valley State University in Allendale, Mich., where she has compiled an impressive overall mark of 403-115. She has led the Lakers to 10 straight appearances in the NCAA Division II post-season tournament, highlighted by the 2005 team that went 32-6 and won the national championship. Madden-Scanlon was chosen AVCA National Coach of the Year following that season. She is married to Jim Scanlon who played baseball at Eastern. They have two children and reside in Jenison, Mich.
