I. R. C. CONFERENCE BEGINS TODAY

AIR TRAINING NOW OFFERED 2 YEAR MEN

Training Qualifying Candidates for Civil or Military Service Now Given by Government to College Men

LASTS THREE YEARS

College students who have completed at least two years of their college courses are now being accepted for training as flying cadets, according to recent information received by Major Gallaher. Flight training is given at Randolph Field, near San Antonio, Texas, at the world-famous "West Point of the Air." The long roll of distinguished aviators who have received their flying instruction at this school leaves little doubt of its world preeminence in this field. Lindbergh, Hegenberger, and hundreds of others are numbered among its graduates.

No political influence is necessary for appointment. The candidate simply makes application to the War Department, is sent to the nearest army flying field for physical examination, and upon successful completion of the latter is placed upon the eligible list awaiting a vacancy. When a vacancy occurs, the candidate is ordered to Randolph Field for training with the next class to enter. Classes enter on March 1, July 1, and October 15 of each year. The course of training lasts for twelve months, during which time the cadet receives over 300 hours of actual flying training under ideal conditions, besides thorough schooling in aviation engines, navigation, meteorology and associated subjects.

Upon successful completion of this course, the cadet is sent to a regular army air field, where during the next year he continues his training as a member of a tactical unit of the air corps. At the end of the second year the cadet is either offered a commission in the regular army, if vacancies exist, or its commissioned in the reserve and relieved from further active duty. While a member of the reserve, the officer, if he so requests, and if funds are available, to pay him, is ordered to active duty for two weeks during each year to keep his training up to date. In addition, he is offered the privilege of flying army airplanes at the nearest army field for a few hours each month.

Flying cadets are thus given a thorough education in aviation, which will qualify them for a permanent career in the regular army, if vacancies exist, or for a similar career in civil aviation, which is rapidly expanding.

During his service as flying cadet the student receives transportation at government expense to San Antonio, pay at the rate of $75.00 per month, plus free board, clothing and all other necessary items. Unparalleled facilities for athletics and recreation are provided.

Appointments are limited to unmarried male citizens who are between the ages of twenty and twenty-seven. Enrollment in the R. O. T. C. is not required, nor is previous military training of any kind. Further information may be secured from the office of the Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

STUDENTS ENJOY PROGRAM

Halloween festivities at Eastern constituted a progressive party held in the little gymnasium, Burnam club room, and Burnam recreation room. In order to take care of the large number of guests, the student body was divided into three groups which progressed from one section to another.

Gordon Nash's orchestra provided music for those who danced in the little gym. After games and contests which were held in the club room, each group refreshed itself with cider and raisin cookies served in the recreation room of Burnam Hall. The social committee was responsible for this party which has become an annual affair.

CANADIAN

C. DOUGLAS BOOTH

Major Booth, above, traveler, publicist, and lecturer, will address the conference of International Relations Clubs tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock in the University Building Auditorium on the subject "Great Britain's Foreign Policy in Light of the Present International Crisis"

STURM GIVEN MUSIC AWARD

Bellevue Freshman Recipient of Voice Scholarship Given by Musical Group

WON 3RD IN CONTEST

Miss Betty Sturm, Bellevue, has been awarded the voice scholarship offered by the Saturday Matinee Musicales. A freshman at Eastern and a member of the Madrigal Club, Miss Sturm has been studying voice for seven months but because of the recent illness of her instructor had discontinued her work.

Miss Sturm's name was chosen from an original list of twenty-five applicants for the scholarship. Miss Mary Murphy, voice instructor at Eastern, through careful consideration, narrowed the group of names to six and a committee composed of Professor Van Peursem, head of the Department of Music, Miss Telford and Miss Campbell chose Miss Sturm as recipient of the award.

Those six who were chosen from the original list of twenty-five for the final try-outs were Elizabeth Ammerman, Kathryn Dameron, Theodore Gilbert, James Hart, Betty Sturm, and Frank Wilcox. Incidentally, Miss Sturm placed third in the Y. M. C. A. amateur contest held in Hiram Brock Auditorium last Friday evening.

B. S. U. ACTIVE IN CONVENTION

Miss Rebekah Vallandingham of Eastern Elected Secretary of State Convention

PRESENT ONE-ACT PLAY

Eastern was represented by thirteen delegates at the Kentucky Baptist Union Convention at Bowling Green, October 23-25. The Eastern representatives made several contributions toward making the meeting a successful affair.

Miss Rebekah Vallandingham, sophomore at Eastern, was elected secretary of the convention for the ensuing year. Other officers are R. H. Falwell, Louisville, president; William Lamkin, Lexington, formerly an Eastern student, vice-president, and David Mien, Georgetown, treasurer.

On Friday night Kelly Clore, Eastern senior, spoke to the assembly on the subject of "Judson." On Saturday night the Eastern group presented a play, "It Happened This Way," before the delegates from the other colleges of the state and other visitors and friends.

Other delegates from Eastern besides Miss Vallandingham and Mr. Clore were Dorothy Baker, Mildred Hoe, Virginia Ruth Arnold, Mrs. Clyde Breland, Margaret Durham, Beulah Clarke, Edmond Hesser, Harry Hatler, Chester Durham, Howard Shoemaker, and Jesse Johnson.

SWIMMERS!

Wanted: Freshmen swimmers. Each year in the Freshman-Varsity meet competition has been close.

To date, only three Freshmen swimming aspirants have turned out for the team.

If you are interested, come to the swimming pool and let the swimming coach decide as to your ability.

BAER FIRST IN CONCERTS

Distinguished American Baritone Opening Community Concert Series Next Week

ALSO NOTED ATHLETE

Frederic Baer, one of America's finest baritones, will appear here on Wednesday evening, November 18, at 8 o'clock at the Hiram Brock auditorium under the auspices of the Community Concert Association. His greatest claim to fame lies in his magnificent singing of Handel's "Messiah," Mendelssohn's "Elijah," and Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. He holds a remarkable record as an orchestra and choral soloist, having appeared on several occasions with the New York Symphony Orchestra, the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, the New York Oratorio Society, the Schola Cantorum, the Mendelssohn Glee Club, the Chaminade Club of Brooklyn, the Oratorio Society of Worcester, Mass., and at several eastern Music Festivals.

Not realizing that a musical career awaited him, Baer fitted himself for the business world; upon leaving school, he turned to accounting and became a certified public accountant with a good position in a New York firm of public accountants. However, his continued interest in music soon won for him recognition in the music field also, and after his debut in New York at Aeolian Hall in 1933, he gave up his business career and definitely turned to music.

In addition to his wide reputation as a leading American singer, Frederic Baer enjoys a New York state reputation as an amateur athlete. Running under the banner of the New York Athletic Club, he has won more than one hundred trophies in contests, including everything from the 100 yards to 440 yards. In 1916, when he was in the army sent to the border during the Villa episode, he won the "border championship" for 100 yards; and he still holds the "army record" for the 220 yard dash at the 23rd Regiment Armory, New York.

DEMOISEY IS P.E. CLUB HEAD

Physical Education Club Plans Active Program of Activities for Remainder of Year

M'DONOUGH IS SPONSOR

Paul Demoisey, senior, Walton, Ky., was elected to the presidency of the Physical Education Club at the organization's first meeting of the year. The club is composed of Eastern students who are majors or minors in health and physical education.

Other officers of the club for the year are Dora Boneta, vice-president; Bud Limb, secretary; Evelyn Long, treasurer, and T. E. McDonough, sponsor.

Forty-two members took part in the initial program of the year, which consisted of a business meeting and then the playing of such games as mixed volleyball, aerial dart, shuffle board, ring tennis, ping pong, and handball.

During the business session plans were made and dates were set for meetings throughout the year. It was decided to meet the second Thursday of each month. At each session there is to be a transaction of business, followed by the listed activities for the various months:

November, Social Games; December, Active Games; January, Country Dancing; February, Novelty or Stunt Night; March, Swimming Frolic; April, Picnic; and May, Campfire program.

The organization also plans to sponsor a formal dance sometime in March, two moving picture shows, a chapel program, Good Posture Day, and a swimming carnival.

LTC CHOOSES "LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN"

The Little Theatre Club of Eastern has chosen "The Late Christopher Bean" by Sidney Howard for its first production of the year. It will be presented in Hiram Brock Auditorium on January 19 under direction of Miss Pearl Buchanan.

"The Late Christopher Bean" had long runs both here in America and in the countries of Europe. Advance criticisms of the production indicate that it will be one of the high lights of the season's activities from the viewpoint of the students as well as the Little Theatre Club.

The members of the cast are as follows: Jack McCord, Jane Oase, Susan Gragg, Geraldine Allen, Hiram Brock, Norbert Rehtin, Margaret Steele Zaring and Charles Warner.

R. O. T. C. PLANS PISTOL TEAM

Captains Ford and Link, Both Experts, To Act As Coaches

CONSIST OF FIVE MEN

It was announced today by Major Gallaher that in the near future Eastern's R.O.T.C. will have a pistol team. The school has agreed to buy the pistols and furnish certain other materials. Captains Ford and Link, both expert pistol shots, are to coach the team. At present, Captain Ford is trying to find a place suitable for a pistol range. Due to their excessive cost, an indoor range cannot be built at Eastern this year. As soon as a suitable practice place is found, the captain will call for volunteers for the team. Inasmuch as a team consists of but 5 men, it will probably be necessary to form several teams.

The course in Material has been finished and final grades in this subject were issued after a comprehensive writ had been given. The next unit to be taken up is Elementary Gunnery. Here, for the first time, the students will get "the feel of cold steel." The first subject in the unit is duties and posts of the canoneers. Major Gallaher is in charge of class work at this time.

An examination for student convoy drivers was given and over 20 men reported. As yet, it has not been announced how many students passed the test.

A large group of R.O.T.C. members attended the Transylvania game in uniform and made up a large part of the Eastern crowd. A parade is held every Saturday morning from 10-11 o'clock on the field and Major Gallaher is the reviewing officer.

N. C. P. MEET IS SUCCESS

Creech and Maurer Represent Progress at National Press Convention

HELD IN LOUISVILLE

The Associated Collegiate Press convention, held at the Brown hotel, Louisville, October 29-31, inclusive, with the University of Louisville as convention host, was the most successful collegiate press meet ever conducted, according to the executives of the organization.

The convention program was headed by such noteworthy journalists as Herbert Agar, author, Pulitzer prize winner and associate editor of The Courier-Journal, who addressed the delegates on the subject, "If I were a College Editor;" Thurman "Dusty" Miller, publisher, Wilmington, O., News-Journal, and John B. Kennedy, NBC radio commentator and former associate editor of Collier's. Also a number of other outstanding addresses were given by college journalists and newspaper executives.

Approximately four hundred delegates, representing one hundred and sixty colleges and universities from thirty-five states, registered during the three-day meet. A number of Kentucky delegates, representing the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association, which met in conjunction with the national press organization, were present. James P. Hanratty, editor of the Centre College Cento and president of the Kentucky association, delivered the welcome address for that body.

Morris Creech, editor, and Ralph Maurer of the Progress, were Eastern's representatives.

Northern Kentucky Club Planning Radio Program

Plan Private Dance for Members; Also Christmas Party

ARRANGE MILESTONE PICTURE

Plans for a radio program, to be given in the near future, were made when the Northern Kentucky Club met last Monday night. Norbert Rehtin, president of the club, explained that the club had been asked to participate in one of the broadcasts given by the college and a program committee was named.

Miss Lucile Derrick, sponsor of the club, explained to new members the meaning and use of the club's insignia and further plans were made for a Christmas party in Cincinnati.

A party and dance, for members only, will be given by the club in the near future at the small gym. A new social committee, for the month of November, was appointed and plans for this party will be in their hands.

CHINAMAN

DR. Y. G. CHEN

Dr. Chen Yu Gwan, above, president of the University of Nanking, Nanking, China, is one of the outstanding speakers who is scheduled to address the conference of International Relations Clubs today and tomorrow. Dr. Chen Yu Gwan speaks tonight at the dinner meeting of the conference in Burnam Hall on the subject "The China of Today and Tomorrow."

GLEE CLUBS SING MONDAY

Musical Groups Will Be Heard in Chapel in First Program of Year

MEN HAVE SURPRISE

Eastern's two glee clubs will be heard at the regular chapel hour Monday, November 16. The Madrigal Club will be under direction of Miss Mary Murphy, voice instructor, while the Men's Glee Club will be directed by Professor Van Peursem, head of the Department of Music.

The Madrigal Club will sing the following numbers: "Comin' Thro' the Rye" by Robert Burns and arranged by Gerald Gray; "Wi-Um, a Pueblo Lullaby," by Thurlow Llew-rance; "Salutation," by Samuel Richards Gaines, and "Summer is A-Coming in," by John of Fornsete (English 13th Century).

The Men's Glee Club besides offering a special surprise number will sing the following selections: "Dedication" (Widung) by Robert Franz; "Winter Song" by Frederic Field Bullard; "Short'nin' Bread" by Jacques Wolfe; "A Chip off the Old Block," music by W. H. Squire, words by Harold Simpson; "I Ain't Gwine Study War No more," a negro spiritual.

FROSH HEAR MRS. BARNHILL

Challenges First Year Students to Apply Themselves and Make Scholastic Record

TRANSACT BUSINESS

In the freshman class meeting of November 2, Mrs. Barnhill, sponsor of the class, spoke for a few minutes to the members on the subject, "The Aims of the Freshman Class." Beside this talk, routine business as transacted and a number of announcements made.

Mrs. Barnhill pointed out the fact that the freshmen should leave a high scholarship record at Eastern and that a large percentage of freshmen should be on the honor roll. "You should spend your time adequately and your goal should be to do your best," she said. "Much can be accomplished through use of our library."

Several committees were appointed. A social committee was named and a dance was discussed but no date definitely decided upon. A program committee, consisting of Art Klien, Helen Anthony, and Bob Dickman was appointed, and the preparation of chapel program discussed. Priscilla Merentrom, Frank Cooper and Virginia Dotson were named to the activity records committee.

A representative from the Milestone staff made an announcement concerning the part the freshmen will take in getting on this year's annual and two members of the class, Earl Lang and Clyde Lewis, were appointed as freshmen representatives. Miss Orville Byrne was selected as press reporter for the class.

HEY, FANS!

There will be a novelty pep rally on the practice football field at 10:00 o'clock tonight. Every student who wants the Maroons to defeat the Hilltoppers should be present.

JONES, BOOTH AND CHEN TO ADDRESS BODY

Thirty-five Ohio Valley Colleges and Universities Send 150 Delegates to Eastern for Meet

AFFAIRS CLUB IS HOST

By JACK McCORD

The address of Miss Amy Hemingway Jones, of the Carnegie Endowment, in Hiram Brock auditorium this morning officially opened the Ohio Valley Conference of International Relations Clubs, assembling today for a two-day meeting on the Eastern campus as guest of the World Affairs Club.

Dr. H. L. Donovan welcomed the delegates to the college and Miss Mary Engle of Berea College responded. Gano Cawood, Eastern student who is president of the Ohio Valley Conference, presided and introduced the speakers.

With Miss Jones' talk and the registration of delegates in the lobby of the Administration building from 9 to 12 this morning, the program of the annual conference gets under way. This convention brings to Eastern representatives from over thirty colleges and universities throughout the states of Ohio, West Virginia, and Kentucky. Approximately 150 people are expected.

Two other speakers of worldwide renown are to take part in the program. Dr. Y. G. Chen, president of the University of Nanking, China, and recognized authority on the Far East, speaks tonight at 6:15 on "The China of Today and Tomorrow." His speech comes after the dinner in the Burnam Hall Recreation Room.

The Saturday morning session will feature the address of Major C. D. Booth, Canadian traveler, publicist, and lecturer, entitled "Great Britain's Foreign Policy in Light of Present International Crisis." Dr. Booth will be heard from the auditorium of University building at 10:30 a. m.

Major C. Douglas Booth is considered one of the best authorities on Balkan affairs, having for seven years devoted himself to the study of Central European, Mediterranean, and Balkan problems. During the war he held the rank of Major in His Majesty's forces. A Canadian by birth, Dr. Booth has conducted courses in many of the leading universities of this country.

The remainder of the program is made up of student round-table discussions, general and business meetings, and social affairs. At 4:30 p. m. today the World Affairs Club is holding open house in the John Grant Crabbe library for its guests.

Three groups of round-table discussions are scheduled, at 10 o'clock and at 2 o'clock on Friday and at 9 a. m. on Saturday. These hinge on pertinent and varied subjects in keeping with the purpose of the International Relations Clubs, "the understanding and betterment of international affairs." They are led by students from visiting colleges and universities.

Two general meetings, the first at 3:15 Friday afternoon and the other at 11:45 Saturday morning, will be held in the University building. After the latter of these the convention will adjourn with a luncheon in the Recreation Room.

ELEMENTARY COUNCIL STARTS YEAR'S WORK

Names Louise Young President; Eloise Balz, Vice-President; Nancy Covington, Secretary

HANSEN AND TYNG ENTERTAIN

The first meeting of the Elementary Council was held in Cammack building on Monday, October 19. This meeting was called for the purpose of appointing a nominating committee for organization. This committee selected members from the Council to be voted on for officers.

It was decided that on Wednesday, October 28, a special meeting would be called. The purpose of this meeting was to vote for officers. The Nominating Committee presented the nominees and the Council voted. The results were—Miss Louise Young, president; Miss Nancy Covington, secretary and treasurer; Miss Eloise Balz, vice-president.

On Thursday, October 29, Miss Hansen and Mrs. Tyng were joint hostesses at a tea given for the Elementary Council in the Recreation room of Burnam Hall. The Recreation room was arranged attractively with many beautiful flowers.

Miss Hansen and Mrs. Tyng were assisted by the girls of the Home Economic Department.

Yea, Maroons

Last Saturday on Thomas Field, Lexington, the Eastern Maroons handed the Transylvania Pioneers their first defeat at the hands of an Eastern aggregation in sixteen years.

Two Saturday before, at Georgetown, the Maroons had battled a vicious, threatening Tiger and had left the scene of struggle the victor. The going was far from easy.

And that is not all. Today's papers carry stories and tables showing that Eastern ranks first in the state of Kentucky in the number of games won and lost, six being chalked up a credits, one as a debit.

To Coaches Rome Rankin and Tom Samuels goes a lot of the credit for developing a team which can command recognition in gridiron circles instead of provoking laughter and amusement on the part of football fans when the name of "Eastern" or "Maroons" is mentioned.

is not an inviting job. Yet that is the task of the football coach; he must tackle his job with determination that only success can give. In order to avoid injury in the will come to his aid in developing a creditable club.

Tomorrow we meet Western. Tomorrow we hope to take Western. The Hilltoppers have no record of which they can boast, yet they have made a good showing against some of the strongest football teams in this section of the country.

Eastern Honored

Eastern is honored in acting as host to the annual Conference of the Ohio Valley International Relations Clubs on the campus today and tomorrow.

The meeting will mean much to Eastern. We will have the opportunity to meet students from other educational institutions and be brought into a better understanding of common problems and attitudes on certain current affairs.

The head of International Clubs' work in the United States, Miss Amy Heminway Jones will be another of the distinguished visitors.

We hope that every student will take advantage of the opportunity which the World Affairs Club of Eastern has extended to the student body in inviting attendance at the meetings, especially those addressed by the three outstanding person just mentioned.

GLEANINGS

By radio speeches, chapel address, and printed articles we have been able to enjoy with Dr. Donovan a few of his experiences in the various countries of Europe.

Donovan. We wonder if it would not be possible for Dr. Donovan to publish a book on his experiences and impressions of Europe? Surely every student, alumnus, faculty member, and friend of the college and of Dr. Donovan personally would welcome the opportunity to purchase such a book.

The Progress wishes Gib Prather a rapid recovery from his operation. Gib, if you didn't know, was editor of this paper during 1934-35. Recently he and his appendix had a misunderstanding and had to be separated.

Noticed at the Eastern-Transy game: That Eastern had about as many supporters at the game as did Transy and that the cheering was equally effective.

That the Eastern band compared favorably with Transy's well known musical organization which contains several national high school champions.

That if every one were as interested in the progress the team was making up the field as President Donovan, we could dispense with all the pep talks.

That if the team hasn't improved some on stopping the opposition's ball carriers, we'll have a tough time with the Hilltoppers tomorrow.

That ankle injuries seemed to be in vogue. Killen, Hill, and King were forced from the game because of injuries to the lower limbs.

That Coach Rankin does not respect anybody's jinx. After smacking the Bengal in the face in the Bengals' lair, he proceeds to insult the Pioneer in his own back yard.

Now that the election is over and all the freak wagers have been settled, it is due time to relate an incident that happened in the rear of Memorial Hall election night.

It seems as if the hero of this yarn had been celebrating the results of the election and had bent his elbow about twice too often.

Considering the fact that October is the "golden" month of the year, one would think students would have spent very little time in the library, or, for that matter, very little time reading books anywhere.

In certain fields the number of books used during the month was practically the same as last year. In others the increase is astonishing.

For instance, almost ten times as many periodicals were issued this year as were issued last. This October's total was 5,261; last's was only 609. Could it be possible that the election was the cause for the increase?

But let us take a look at the cir-ulation in other fields. There is the travel—last year 781 books were issued; this, 1,074. Are the students more desirous to learn about foreign countries, or has their imagination been fired by observations from a "Traveler Abroad?"

The circulation of history books was doubled. Do you suppose we are attempting to better present conditions by looking to the past for guidance?

As for the fiction, there was an increase of some 400 over last year's 786. Evidently many of the readers included in this number have not been interested in "Anthony Adverse." Since "Gone With the Wind," with its 1,200 pages has become so popular, will the fiction circulation decrease this month?

By the way, have you taken a look at the new books in the library lately? Recent additions are Margaret Mitchell's "Gone with the Wind," and "Around the World in Eleven Years," by Patience, Richard, and John Abbe.

A. A. U. W. MEETING
The Richmond branch of the American Association of University Women held its regular monthly dinner meeting at Hotel Glyndon Thursday evening, Nov. 5.

The guest speaker was Dr. Herbert Ryland, head of the Romance language department of the University of Kentucky. He made a trip to Spain this past summer to see the revolution, expecting it to be of the Mexican variety. He had a rude awakening.

He arrived in Madrid July 1—and that very night saw shooting in the streets. After ten days of this he decided that Salivas, a village on the Bay of Biscay, would be safer than Madrid. In this, he was mistaken, for it was the very center of some of the most severe fighting and bombarding.

Four times, upon notification that a ship was at anchor, he went with a military escort to the port only to find the ship had sailed. Finally, on Aug. 22 he went to the port of Gyon in this town he found everything free—hotel, food and street cars. Five days later the Cuban consul, who had charge of American affairs, succeeded in placing him on a German torpedo boat which landed him on the nearest French coast.

Dr. Ryland gave a brief resume of the governmental changes and political alignments since the days of Alphonse. Whatever the outcome of the present civil war, he feels that it will take years for the economic life of Spain to achieve a sound and satisfactory basis.

CONCERT SERIES OPENS NOVEMBER 13
Frederick Baer, distinguished American baritone, will open the Community Concert Series next Wednesday, Nov. 18, at 8:00 p. m. at Hiram Brock auditorium. All members are urged to be there.

Dr. Anna Schlieb, Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson, Miss Mayme Cooper and Miss Nancy Myers were in Lexington Saturday, October 31.

Miss Mabel White spent the last week-end at her home in Middleboro.

Misses Vivian and Katherine Holcomb were at their home in Nicholasville the past week-end.

Mrs. Emma Y. Case attended the State Association of Deans of Women at the University of Kentucky.

Miss Thelma Robbins was at her home in Brodhead the week-end of October 31.

AUTUMN SERENADE
Far, far more beautiful live these days
Where dead leaves mellow the sob of brooks,
When Autumn winds thin the unblown haze,
Far more poignant than deathlessness of books.
Sing with the winds, you who are young!
And boast of red blood beneath an Autumn sky:
Sing, you who have heart and a flippancy tongue
And you who boast more wisdom than I!

Sing of the wind flung spray of leaves,
Sing of late fall greens, vehement colors crying,
For down toward dust Autumn weaves
Away from men and wild foot-balls flying!

For hushed will be your musicians on the hill—
And winds in strange chornic agitation,
Of the moody trees will at last be still—
Words of wind will be a dry cremation.

Your ways will be pronged with quiescent rust,
Quenched those fires of revelry in veins of blood
And compelling, the encompassing arms of dust,
Imperious the silence of wisdom in solitude.

You all will join communion with the rose,
Closed with slumber scrolls of all your years.
Yours will be the meager fate of those
Who sowed that laughter and reaped these tears.

Silence will stalk in possession of those halls
Where sheared fall the leaves light trembling hands,
Yearly vines engraving unread wisdom on your walls
Will return across the empty Sunday quiet lands.

To those who seeking, neither asked nor bowed,
Nor sought for ome near wisdom still propound,
Winds will etch hidden words within a cloud,
Drag unlamenting death across the ground.

By I. C. EVERYTHING
As the mid-semester examinations approach, action on the campus is falling off, but still some are carrying on. Mr. I. C. Everything was caught on the night watchman in order to convince him that he was carrying on for the dear old Progress.

ALLEN McMANUS seems to have outdistanced the rest of the field for MILDRED HOE's favor. DICK SMITH and his car have finally won NAYDIENE RAINEY from her other admirers. FRED DELAP and BOBBY STOVALL find each other's company very pleasing. DICK EVANS has entered the competition to entertain JULIA WILLIAMS when RONALD SHARP goes back to Lexington. LEONARD STAFFORD thinks "it can't happen here." He goes out of town and leaves BOB RUBY in charge of BONNIE while he is away. BILL HAGOOD knows that he can trust DAN DENNY so he doesn't worry when JANE DURRITT goes out with DAN.

A few questions that we would like to have the answers to:
What does BILL CARRIER do while CECIL KARRICK enjoys MILDRED RICHARDSON's company? Have CHARLES FARRIS and CAROLY... STIDHAM finally made up? What would HENRY LEE do if he couldn't go to New Castle every week end? Does MILDRED COLEY prefer JIMMY WHITE's model A to DURR's model T, and where does RODOLPH CRAIG come in? Who were the three girls that BILL LOMINAC went to the show with Saturday nite. Is KELLY CLORE still running around the library and singing "It's love again"? It might be since LUCY TEATER was on the campus this week end. Why is RAY STIVERS so interested in blondes, and which one?

BILL McMILLAN and ADA DAUGHERTY seem to have developed a liking for each other. KATHERINE MIRACLE enjoyed HERSCHEL ROBERTS' visit last week end. OTWELL RANKIN was very happy that KATHERINE PRATHER was on a visit.
JESSIE RIVARD spends most of her time worrying about JOHNNY KILLEN's football injury. HERSCHEL OWENS and ELIZABETH NIEKIRK seem to be doing very nicely. BOB HATTON is consoling himself with PAULINE JASPER since he can't get anywhere with VIVIAN BALLARD. CLINTON STANLEY and ALLEN OHLER are doing well together. JACK McCORD and MARY DORRIS, BAR-

NEY WILSON and MARGARET WILLOUGHBY saw the Eastern-Transy football game together.
JOHN (Hot Air) ELDER says he is still giving ELIZABETH COLLINS a break and that she has a swell car. FRANK HORN and EVELYN LONG, WOODY LYDEY and GARNET MCGINNIS have gotten together at last.

By VERNON DAVIS
Below is a list of answers received as result of a vocabulary test given in a freshman course in psychology. This test was given by Dr. Cuff—probably at the University of Arkansas—things like this could not happen on our own campus:
Q. What are incentives? A. The mental disorder known as dementia praecox.
Q. What is competition? A. Competition is the important studies. Incentives uses animals, adults and children.
These definitions will probably show the familiarity of college students with the twenty thousand most frequently used words as tabulated by Thorndike:
Motation—A problem.
Kernel—A dog house.
Eventide—An equal wave of water.
Silhouette—A dagger.
Avowel—A proposal of marriage.
Leprosy—A wild animal.
Exemption—Passed without test.
Meander—To plunder.
Hermitage—Bleeding at mouth.
Auspices—Many spics.

POEM OF THE WEEK:
We shall do much in the years to come
But what have we done today?
We shall give our gold in princely sum,
But what did we give today?
We shall lift the heart and dry the tear,
We shall plant a hope in place of fear,
We shall speak the words of love and cheer,
But what did we speak of today?

Smart Young Secretary: Oh, so you want to see the boss, do you? Well, listen, sweet thing, don't try to get fresh with him; he's mine, see?
Visitor: Oh, don't mind me, dearie. I'm only his wife.

EASTERN RISKS STATE LEAD TOMORROW

Maroons, Without Services of Killen, Meet Powerful Hilltoppers on Staneland Field at 2:30

BANKING ON RED LUND

By RALPH MAURER
"Eastern against Western," that annual gridiron classic that Kentucky football fans anxiously await from fall to fall, will be staged on Staneland field tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Pre-game indications point to a tough encounter with possibly the Hilltoppers having a slight edge. This, however, may not be the case, as both teams played outstanding ball last Saturday, Eastern defeating Transylvania 13-6—a feat accomplished once in 17 years—and Western playing bang-up ball against a superior Howard College eleven.

With "Kewpie" Killen on crutches as a result of a leg injury received in the Transy tilt, Snyder out for the remainder of the season and a number of minor injuries, Eastern will depend on "Red" Lund, aerial artist, who has shown top form in the last several games, and the noticeably improved forward wall to match the threats of Swede Anderson's boys.

Coaches Rankin and Samuels have put the squad thru a tough week of preparation and the entire team has responded by showing great form in scrimmage. "This is the game we've been waiting for," the boys claim.

Western, playing the hardest schedule in the team's history, has had only average success, winning three and losing the same number, but followers of the Hilltoppers say that with their weight advantage and experience they will pull the "Minnesota over Iowa" trick on the Rankinmen after losing to Howard by a count of 14-6.

The Bowling Green team will arrive in Richmond a few hours before game time from Danville, where they have made reservations to spend Friday night. The Maroons will go thru a light practice session this afternoon as a final tapering off for the contest.

The weather man has promised ideal weather for the encounter and early ticket sales indicate a large turnout. A number of Hilltopper fans are expected to be on hand.

EASTERN ON WSM NOV. 20

Twenty-five Students and Faculty Members Take Part in "College Of Air" Series

IS ANNUAL EVENT

On November 20, a program of dramatics and music, based on the songs of Stephen Collins Foster, will be presented by Eastern Kentucky Teachers College over station WSM, Nashville, Tenn. The program, known as the Teachers College of the Air Series, is sponsored by George Peabody College. It begins at 10:15 a. m. and continues for half an hour.

Approximately twenty-five Eastern people, as guests of Peabody College, will take part in this event. They will be accompanied to Nashville by members of the faculty. However, all speaking and singing parts will be taken by the students themselves.

The songs that will be used on the program are: "Open Thy Lattice, Love," "Old Uncle Ned," "Massa in the Cold, Cold Ground," "Old Black Joe," "Oh, Susanna," "Old Folks at Home," and "My Old Kentucky Home." The background and story of "My Old Kentucky Home," will be given in dramatic form.

Eastern has been broadcasting programs on interesting subjects for three years.

Commerce Club Is Inviting Members

Sigma Tau Pi held its regular meeting Thursday night, October 29, in the Administration Building. Tom Scott, president of the organization, presided. At this meeting seventeen names handed in for member invitation into the club were voted upon for membership. The list included the following students:

- Elizabeth Arnold, Falmouth; Oral Baker, Spruce Pine, N. C.; Charles Neale, Irvine, Ky.; Woodrow Hinkle, Paris, Ky.; Alfred Limb, Salt Lake City, Utah; Paul McGinnis, Louisville, Ky.; J. C. Wash, Eminence, Ky.; Norma McCullon, Richmond, Ky.; Lois Clark, Richmond, Ky.; Layton Howerton, Pikeville, Ky.; Rickman Powers, Verona, Ky.; Russell Childs, Falmouth, Ky.; Virginia Bohn, Newport, Ky.; Rebekah Vallandingham, Owenton, Ky., and Lois Eich, Bellevue, Ky.

SCHNABL DIRECTS BAND

Henri Schnabl, director of bands at Eastern, has just returned from Athens, Ohio, where he conducted the All-Southeastern Ohio high school band in a concert at Ohio University held in connection with the Ohio Music Education Association, affiliated with the South-eastern Ohio Education Association.

PIONEER JINX BROKEN WITH 13-6 DEFEAT

Maroons Display Superior Brand of Football in Breaking Transy's 15 Year Old String of Victories

PIONEERS TAB IN LAST

By BILL LOMINAC

Flashing a brilliant running and passing attack along with a stone-wall defense, the Eastern Maroons, with comparative ease, defeated Transy's Pioneers by a score of 13 to 6 on Thomas Field last Saturday.

A fumble on the opening kickoff enabled the Maroons to spell victory over the outclassed Pioneers. The fumble, by Hutsell, was recovered by Eastern on Transy's 22-yard stripe.

Killen went around his own right end for a first down on Transy's 12-yard line. A trick play failed to gain and made it second down and ten. Caldwell then faded back and passed to Yeager for a first down on the one-yard line. Hill then plunged the center of the line for the first score of the game. Cummings try for extra point was wide.

Eastern utilized an aerial attack to score again in the second period. A long pass from Lund which was caught by Wallace on the 25-yard stripe was good for six more points. This time Cummings' placement was good.

The Pioneers' lone score came in the waning minutes of the game, when failing to plunge the Eastern line with any success, the Transy team resorted to the air. Snagging a pass from a Transy back, Napier, Transy end and all S. I. A. A. man last year, sidestepped would-be Maroon tacklers before being stopped on the 10-yard line.

Another pass to Lingenfelter put the ball on Eastern's one-foot line. Murphy then fumbled the ball on an attempt thru the center of the line, but recovered over the line for the touchdown. Danheiser's try for point was wide.

Coach Rome Rankin's outfit displayed a type of game vastly superior to that of the Pioneers, and therein lies the story of the first Maroon victory in sixteen gridiron encounters with Transy.

NEOPHYTES IN TRAINING

Neophytes of the Little Theatre Club met Tuesday evening, November 3, at 6:30 in the auditorium and were instructed in the use of "old age" make-up. This was a part of the course of instruction the neophytes are required to take in order to become full-fledged members of the club.

In previous meetings new members have learned to apply "young" and "middle age" make-up. The neophytes are also required to take part in a one-act play to demonstrate to the officials of the L. T. C. their abilities to perform.

All training is under the direction of Miss Pearl Buchanan.
