Foundation Offers Senior Fellowships

Senior Men Are Eligible To Present Applications

The Danforth Foundation, an educational trust fund in St. Louis, Missouri, invites applications for the fourth class (1955) of Graduate Fellowships from the college senior men and recent graduates who are preparing themselves for a career of college teaching, and are planning to enter graduate school in September, 1955, for their first year of graduate study. The Foundation welcomes applicants from the areas of Natural and Biological Sciences, Social Sciences, Humanities and all fields of specialization to be found in the undergraduate college.

President O'Donnell has named Mrs. R. R. Richards as the liaison officer to nominate to the Danforth Foundation two or not to exceed three candidates for these fellowships. These appointments are fundamentally "a relationship of encouragement" throughout the years of graduate study, carrying a promise of financial aid within prescribed conditions as there may be need. The maximum annual grant for single Fellows is $1800, for married Fellows, $2400. Students with or without financial need are invited to apply. A Danforth Fellow is allowed to carry other scholarship appointment, such as Fulbright, Woodrow Wilson, G. E. B., etc., concurrently with his Danforth Fellowship, and applicants for these appointments are cordially invited to apply at the same time for a Danforth Fellowship. If a man receives the Danforth appointment, together with a Rhodes Scholarship, or Woodrow Wilson Fellowship, he becomes a Danforth Fellow without stipend, until these other relationships are completed. All Danforth Fellows will participate in the annual Danforth Foundation Conference on Teaching, to be held at Camp Minnowan in Michigan next September.

The qualifications of the candidates as listed in the announcement from the Foundation are: men of outstanding academic ability, personality congenial to the classroom, and integrity and character, including faith and commitment within the Christian tradition.

All applications, including the recommendations, must be completed by February 15, 1955. Any student wishing further information should get in touch with Mrs. Richards, our liaison officer.

Everyone, students, faculty, and alumni will be very busy this week in preparation for our two-day Homecoming next weekend. Many hours of hard work have been given that all may have an enjoyable weekend.

Alumni festivities will officially begin next Friday with the annual Homecoming Dance. The dance is semi-formal and will be held from 8:00-12:00 in the Walcott Hall. The candidates for Homecoming Queen will be presented to the unannounced judges in the Alumni Association at 10 o'clock. Tickets are $1.50 stag and may be ordered in advance or bought at the door.

The parade will leave the campus and follow Lancaster Avenue to Main Street for a tour of the downtown area. An alumni committee has also been asked to select a winning float.

All Alumni will go through the cafeteria line after meeting in the lobby of the Student Building (11:45) and eat together in the canteen room.

The preliminaries of the game will begin at 1:45. The clash on the gridiron between the Eastern Maroons and the University of Louisville's Cardinals will follow.

Reservations must be made in advance for the Annual Barbecue at 5:00 in the cafeteria. Tickets are $1.00 and the men of the faculty will serve.

Following the barbecue, a dessert party will be held in the Student Union Building lobby.

Much of the Alumni planning has been done by Owen Floyd Cammack, president of the Alumni Association and assistant superintendent of schools in Lexington, Ky. Also working on the Alumni planning committees for Homecoming are Ted Gilbert, president-elect of the Alumni Association and superintendent of Maysville schools; Rickman Powers, president of Northern Ky. Eastern Alumni Club and CPA of the Hickman-Williams Company, Cincinnati, Ohio; William C. SADIE HAWKIN'S DAY COMIN' FELLOWS START FAST RUNNIN'

Announcing the arrival of kick-a-poo joy juice, onion and turnip corsages, and Daisy Mae with Lil' Abner! It's Sadie Hawkins Day at Eastern on November 19. The junior class is simply rocking with ideas to start materializing at 10:00 in the Recreation Room which will be converted into the modern Dogpatch.

The entire week preceding the dance, victim tags will be on sale. For a boy to be dafed, he must bear one of these tags which shows that he has been captured. They may be purchased from the junior class dance committee for ten cents.

The admission fee is determined by how tall the boy is. The charge will be a penny an inch (poor gals that drag basketball players to the shin dig). All smooos will be admitted free.

Corsages made of garden vegetables may be purchased for the dance, but you must put your order in early. The posies for the boys will cost twenty-five cents each. Bert Bowling and Mary Elizabeth Johnson are taking orders.

Marrin' Sam will be around all evening with his 29 cents, 79 cents, or $1.29 wedding. The best costumed will be chosen by secret judges. There'll also be a little floor show.

Other highlights of the evening will be the selection of the prettiest girl and handsomest boy in Dogpatch who will be crowned king and queen. There'll be many other surprises during the evening so don't forget 9:00 on November 19, in the Recreation Room of the Student Union Building.

Members on the planning committee for Sadie Hawkins Day are Betty Pack, chairman, Bob Zweigart, Charles Harris, Ozzie Wofford, Joyce Patterson, Viola Benge, Bert Bowling, Wilma Brammel, and Mary Elizabeth Johnson.

NEWMAN FEDERATION ADOPTS CONSTITUTION

A constitution was adopted for the Kentucky Region of the Ohio Valley Province National Newman Club Federation at the First annual regional convention held at the University of Kentucky on October 30 and 31.

Officers for the region were elected: Vice-chairman William Hicky, University of Kentucky, and secretary-treasurer Mary Ann Rich, University of Louisville. Marylyn Mulvanity, Eastern State College, was elected previously and is now serving as regional chairman.

Eastern bid for the 1955 Regional Convention which will be held sometime between October 15 and November 30.

Members of the Eastern Newman Club attending the convention were Eastern's secretary, Betty Jane Rinesmith, senior; Jean Walton, junior; Catherine Nagle, sophomore; Geraldine Pense, Fred Scheffler, both freshmen; and Marylyn Mulvanity, junior, who is the Eastern Newman Club treasurer.

Big Sisters Organize; Name McElroy President.

The "Big Sisters" Club was reorganized Tuesday, October 26, after having been disbanded since the end of the first semester of last year.

Mary Lake McElroy is the new president. Other officers are Peggy Baker, vice-president; and Jane Varble, secretary and treasurer.

The purpose of the "Big Sisters" Club is to help the Freshman girls get acquainted with the campus and with other girls, and to be big sisters in general all through the year.

Repeating Bulb 'Gets' Fast Action

Dr. LaFuze, faculty member of the science department and sponsor of the photo club, has purchased a new light to be used in taking school pictures.

The new bulb, unlike a regular flash bulb, will burn for several thousand flashes. This eliminates the task of changing bulbs after each picture. The power comes from a battery unit of 510 volts, which is strong enough to shock a person. In an ordinary flash attachment, action is stopped at 1/50th of a second. With the new bulb 1/1000th of a second can be caught. This will stop action in any pictures ordinarily made on the campus.

Another outstanding feature of this light is the fact that it does not blind the person in front of the bulb. This will help in basketball games. The weight of the light is only three and one-half pounds and can easily be carried on the photographer's back.

This new equipment should be an asset in getting fast action pictures for our Milestone, Progress, and other uses.

GROUP OF NINETY FORM HARLAN COUNTY CLUB

Ninety students have recently organized a group honoring their home county in the new club's name. This organization, one of the largest on campus, is the Harlan County Club.

The club has held a picnic at Lake Reba. Approximately forty-five members were present. Plans are being made for more social events this semester. The group has also planned to enter a float and queen candidate in the Homecoming contests. Harlan County's candidate is Barbara Ball.

Officers for the organization are Ollie Jemley, president; Morris Gross, vice-president; Janet Hibbard, secretary; Diana Miller, treasurer; David Nesbit, reporter; and Margie Rasnick and Jo Cloud, social chairmen. Dr. L. G. Kennamer, Geography Department, is faculty advisor for the group.

MORE THAN 100 JOIN FUTURE TEACHERS' CLUB

The newly organized Future Teachers of America held its second meeting October 21. Over one hundred students attended.

The officers for the club elected to serve this year are Sue Covington, president; Bill Marshall, vice-president; Dorothy Thomas, secretary; and Jim Lane, treasurer. Dr. D. T. Ferrell, head of the Education Department, is faculty advisor for the group.

Theater Club Chooses "Male Animal", Thurber's College Comedy, As Opener

By CARL TOMLIN

Newsweek called "The Male Animal" when it hit Broadway in 1952, "The funniest comedy of the year". . . Also it described it as "a valid satire comment on a campus in the throes of homecoming week and preparation for the climatic football game, of love and marriage, and the attractive weakness of human nature."

The Theater Arts described "The Male Animal" as "Laughs with complete good nature at the foibles of faculty members and their families, at the philistinism of trustees who care more about football stadiums than scholarships, and at the absurdities of undergraduate courtships. But underlying the laughter is a serious theme, even more pertinent in 1952 than it was in 1940: academic freedom".

"The Male Animal", which has drawn excellent reviews wherever presented, will be given by the Little Theater Club on Monday evening, November 8, 8:00 o'clock, in Hiram Brock Auditorium. The play, which will open Eastern's 1954-55 season, was written by Elliott Nugent and James Thurber.

The story centers on Professor Tommy Turner, of a Midwestern university, who read one of Bartolomeo Vanzetti's pre-execution letters in his English class as an example of fine, simple writing and because of this his academic career is threatened. A member of the board of trustees thinks he is a Communist. At the same time, Professor Turner's marriage is threatened by an ex-all-American halfback.

Members of the cast are Jim Burch as Tommy Turner, the young English professor; Joan Scholle as Ellen Turner, Tommy's wife; Ann Hobbs as Cleo, the Turners' not-too-steady maid; Betty White as Patricia Stanley, Ellen's sister; Jim Baker as Wally Myers, a current all-American football player at Southern University; Bill Snow as Dean Damon, head of the English department at Southern University; Roger Alexander as Michael, student editor of the University's newspaper. Nick DeSantis portrays Joe Ferguson, the ex-all-American; Nellie Whalin is Blanche Damon, Dean Damon's talkative, but sweet wife; Chester Grey-nolds is Ed Keller, member of the board of trustees; Ruth Van Landingham plays Myrtle Keller, Ed's talkative and brash wife; Ralph Marcum is Nutsy, the cheerleader; and Larry James is the newspaper reporter.

Director of the play is Glenn Wilson, English department, who is being assisted by Larry James, the student director.

The production staff of the play includes Tom McElfresh, chairman of the lighting committee, assisted by Samuel Hamilton, Bill Dosch, and Mary Jo Isaacs; set construction committee, Jim Snow, chairman, with Karl Weddle, Lee Sanders, Clifford Smith, F. D. Elliston, Bobby Robinson and Jim Cheek; property committee, Ruth Patterson and Jim Cheek, co-chairmen, assisted by Doris McKinney and Martha Shahan; make-up committee, Carol Lang, chairman, with Billie Sue Click and Virginia Fugate; costumes, by Jerry Taylor, chairman, and Janet Harkleroad and Nancy Lee Bates; sound effects by Clifford Smith; publicity by Carl Tomlin, chairman, with Mary McCall and Douglas Robinson; box office and ticket sales under supervision of F. D. Elliston and Jerry Taylor, co-chairmen; programs by Pat Raker; prompter, Patricia Ann Downey.

Eastern Junior Elected To Club's State Office

Don Redford, a junior at Eastern from Horse Cave, Kentucky, was elected state secretary-treasurer at the conference of State International Relations Club which met at Cumberland College in Williamsburg, Saturday, October 23.

Eastern students attending the conference were Preston Hall, Vernon Calhoun, Ruth Patterson, Annette Engle, Patti Poyma, and Don Redford. Eastern's chapter of World Affairs will be host to the state convention next fall.

Future programs of the World Affairs Club include guest speakers Abdollar Foray, chief of the United Nations educational section, and Sgt. Harry Abel, recruiting officer of the U. S. Army in Richmond, who will show slides on Alaska. Eastern's debate team will be in charge of one program, and members of the World Affairs Club will present a panel discussion at the college assembly Wednesday morning, November 10.

Officers of World Affairs Club for this year are Pat Poyma, president; Preston Hall, vice president; Betty Gibson, secretary; and Hubert Rainey, treasurer.

Sullivan Receives T. V. On Experimental Basis

A 21 inch Westinghouse television was installed in Sullivan Hall Friday, October 22, on an experimental basis, according to A. L. Whitt, faculty resident of the dormitory.

The set was purchased at the permission of G. M. Brock, business agent, and installed in Sullivan to be observed as to the effects on study habits, management problems, and mechanical reception. Television installations in the other dormitories may depend on the success of this experiment.

THE YM AND YW ARE SPONSORING PROGRAMS WE NEED—OTHER CLUBS COULD DO THE SAME!

What is predestination? Why do some churches baptize infants? What is meant by "the Holy Catholic church?" These are just a few of the questions that have been answered in programs on the different religions which are being sponsored by the YWCA and YMCA. These programs are held each Thursday night at 6:00 in the Little Theater.

Because Eastern is a state school, there are no religious courses in our curriculum. And because of this many of us are developing mentally along the lines of the science and the arts, and are not developing along in the knowledge of religious faith.

The programs which the "Y" sponsors are doing something about this situation. At each program, a pastor briefly describes his church's doctrine and then answers questions from the audience. So far, Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist ministers have spoken at the meetings. Future programs will include Episcopal, Jewish, Christian, Catholic, Lutheran, Christian Science representatives.

Many students who have heard the discussions have been very surprised to learn how little they know about others' faith. Many students who have heard them are surprised to realize how little they know about their own faith.

These programs are a great opportunity to gain knowledge about something which is more important than any class, club, or activity. Perhaps this will be the beginning of many other such programs. Eastern, as well as any other school, can use such programs to enrich and enlarge the spiritual life of its students.

A GIANT IS AWAKENING ON EASTERN'S CAMPUS—AND IT'S TIME FOR EVERYBODY TO REALIZE IT!

"Were you at the wonderful assembly that combined a pep rally and dance band concert?" "Have you heard that this year's Homecoming is really going to be greater than any past celebration?" "Wasn't the Hallowe'en Party great?" "Weren't the political campaigns fun?" "You know we really have a winning team!"

These bits of conversation gathered at random from the students certainly show that the statement, "a giant is awakening," is taking new significance here. For truly Eastern seems to be coming alive with a new spirit.

This arousing has not been a completely spontaneous thing. As many of the students realize from personal experience it has taken work, and "congratulations" should be handed to those who are striving to make today's Eastern better than it ever was in "the good old days."

A "congratulation" to the cheerleaders who have efficiently organized both themselves and great pep sessions. Their effort to really be leaders in the field of school spirit is marvelous. Their organization and effort are bringing about these walking signs.

Another "congrat" to the fellows in the dance "combos" who have given freely of their time and talent to entertain and spark enthusiasm. Not many students could contribute to this new movement in this commendable way, though many want to add their part. The "rousing spirit" is created when those who can contribute will do so.

"Congratulations are also in order for the "Y" and the World Affairs Clubs which are sponsoring most interesting programs, not only for themselves, but for the entire student body. The political campaigns certainly gave the campus a roaring lift. The "Y" devotions are accomplishing the same thing for the individual's intellect.

Our football team and coaches rate a big "congratulation" from each member of the student body. They are certainly building a record for the "Maroons" that any future team will really have to hustle to uphold. A winning team is an alarm clock for school spirit, but a wide-awake spirit can be the same for the team. Let's stay behind our team all the way.

Sure, there are still rough spots and niches that could be filled with student activities. With over 1,500 potential student spectators, why couldn't Eastern have a student section that would give a card show during the games? Why not? Sure our Student Association is weak, but what infant isn't? If it were nourished on student suggestions given in open forum meetings, it would grow. Why not?

The spirit of Eastern is awakening, stretching, and growing. Let's keep this growth going!

The Progress Salutes

If any Dad had a right to be proud at last week's "Dad's Game," it was certainly Don Daly's Dad. Don has done a tremendous job as left halfback for the Eastern Maroons this year, and is now ranked second in the OVC. Now as the excitement increases with the nearing of the big Homecoming Game, Eastern fans are again looking for more of Don's fast foot work.

The city of Covington can proudly claim Don as her own since he was born there and has lived there for twenty-one years. Handsome, well-liked, blond hair, blue eyes—all describe this 5'10", 190 pound senior Physical Education major.

Don is one of the most important members of the track team and is a member of the "E" Club. He was also a star in football and track while in high school at Holmes.

Following graduation this spring, Don plans to receive his commission in the Marines. After these two years he wants to coach.

Don, one of the great Eastern Maroons, we proudly salute.

THE GHOST WRITER . . .

Here's the ghost writer, haunting you again. And is there ever news on the campus this time. But don't take our word for it—read it for yourself.

Have you seen the "sparkler" on Cynthia Jones's left hand?

And speaking of rings—Jim Burch is wearing a class ring on his little finger.

I see more and more of Harold Fraley and Barbara Relliford together—what happened to the redhead, Harold?

Looks like Christmas bells and wedding bells will be ringing at the same time for Sherman Creechmore and Jo Anna Durham.

It's been suggested that Barbara Ball has a secret crush. . . wonder who the lucky boy is?

It's rumored that Joyce Blevins went to Earlham, Indiana for a Homecoming weekend. Must be something behind this!

Betty Jean McLocklin and Jo Ann Dawson certainly receive a lot of mail from two of "Uncle Sam's nephews"—namely, Jim and Frank.

Say, Jim Floyd—who's that girl you've been dating lately?

Did you see Charlie Hammonds this last weekend?

Janet Campbell seems to be feeling lonesome lately. Wonder who the next one will be?

According to Jerry Taylor, Billy Roy Murphy and Ronnie Sherrard were as sweet as sugar one day two weeks ago.

Wonder why David Senn gets big round eyes every time a black '59 Chevrolet goes charging around the campus? It's not the car, that's for sure. Could it be that it belongs to a little gal named Dot?

Little Homecoming Has Grown Up Since Its Birth Way Back In 1927

By RUTH PATTERSON

Yes, Homecoming was fun 'way back then, too. "Then happens to be November 12, 1927—the first Homecoming Eastern ever had! Who were the opponents in the game? You can probably guess—Louisville, of course. So, Homecoming repeats itself again.

"Fifty to one hundred alumni expected to be here for Homecoming!" Thus read the starting headlines of the Progress in its first homecoming issue. Oh, if they could only read the headlines now, what would they think! But it was fun then.

President Donovan declared the day as an official "Homecoming Day for the Alumni." The weekend activities were sponsored by the Alumni Association, and all old graduates and former students were invited.

On Homecoming Day twenty-seven years ago, the main attraction seems to have been the playing of the Exchange Club's band. And, although there were no floats moving down Lancaster Avenue, and no queen to reign over the activities, there was an alumni dance and banquet in the basement of Burnam Hall Saturday night. Wanda Vineyard seems to spend four nights a week in the dorm. Oh, well, who can blame her for going home to Jackie?

Is a certain little chemistry major named Thornton falling for a certain girl, or is he not?

"Opportunities for future elementary teachers are greater today than ever before, because of the large increase in demand. At secondary level, there, too, is a shortage of science and mathematics, with a predominance of Social Science and physical education." Dr. Coates, Director of the Training School and Principal of Model High School, made these statements in an interview recently in his office.

Dr. Coates, a native of Princeton, Kentucky, received his Bachelor's degree at Eastern in 1927, his Master's Degree at Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee, in 1931, and his Ph. D. degree from Colorado College of Education in 1939.

He taught two years in Garrard County and one year at Shelbyville schools before coming to Eastern. Also, he served in World War II in 1943-1946, between his teaching years at Eastern.

Asked about the difference between high school and college students, Dr. Coates said, "High school students maintain the enthusiasm and curiosity of youth. At college level, this seems to get lost in the shuffle."

Dr. Coates feels he has an advantage over the other professors since he works with students of all levels—from the first graders to students working for a Master's degree.

Gardening Expert

Dr. Coates' favorite hobby is gardening. He modestly adds that he is an expert at it, and is sometimes asked for advice from the county agent. He also has his own workshop, but is hardly as good at woodworking as he is at gardening. He loves to play bridge.

Dr. Coates has been a critic teacher, an industrial arts teacher, and an education teacher.

Besides being very much interested in current campus events he is also a member of the State Textbook Commission.

Asked how long he has been at Eastern, he replies, "Eastern and I are the same age."

This man, whose life-long profession has been serving others first and himself last, teaches for the same reason an artist paints or a poet writes—"for the joy of doing."

What's Your Opinion?

By JANET HARKLEROAD

What do you think of the new system of selecting a Homecoming queen—that is, judging them mainly at the dance?

Cindy Day, sophomore: "I think the system being used this year for judging the candidates for Homecoming queen will be much better. The candidates do not act naturally when they know they are being watched, as they previously did."

Billy Roy Murphy, junior: "Personality will be emphasized as beauty this way, and personally, that's the way it should be—to me, a sweet disposition means as much as looks. Besides, larger contests conducted elsewhere are done that way, so it must be the better way."

Bob Hatfield, junior: "No comment."

Fay B. Roundtree, senior: "I am very much in favor of the new system. It will give the judges an opportunity to see the candidates in a phase of their social life, such as dancing and mixing with the other students. This way, the judges will be able to observe the gracefulness, beauty, and personalities of the girls chosen as candidates."

Jim Cattlett, sophomore: "I think this new way is the best. The judges will have a chance to pick out the best girl through not only looks but also poise, charm, and personality."

Shelby Crowe, freshman: "I think the new system is very good. The judges will have a chance to see the girls as they really are in personality, poise, and beauty."

"Pete" Northcutt, junior: "Personality and poise are just as important in selecting a queen as good looks, so I think the new method will prove to be even better for the girls."

Joan Dawson, sophomore: "I think the judges will be able to learn more about the girls other than just getting a glance at them walking across a stage or on a float."

Beverly Wilson, senior: "I believe this method is much better than the other because it offers an opportunity for the judges to see the girls in various situations. To be a queen should symbolize quality as well as poise and beauty, and although I question them judging the girls on the floats, it seems that in the total of it all, the various characteristics of the candidates may be better known."

PIGSKIN REVIEW

By DON FELTNER

"Go West, young man, and seek your fortune." These famous words became a reality again tomorrow, for tomorrow the Maroons will be in Bowling Green to seek their fortune against the Western Hilltoppers in the state's oldest rivalry and a game that would give the Maroons the championship of the Ohio Valley Conference, should they take their arch-rival on one.

The hotly-contested Eastern-Western series dates way back to 1914, when the two teams played two games, Eastern winning the first one 36-6 and Western taking the second 18-0. Since then the Hilltoppers have won 18 games and the Maroons have taken only six, giving the lads from the opposite end of the state a 19-7 lead in the series. In '52 the Hilltoppers humiliated the Maroons 48-6 at Bowling Green and last year the Maroons gained revenge by taking a 13-7 decision from the charges of Coach Jack Clayton. Although the margin of defeat last year, was only six points, let's take a quick glance at the game statistics and see if the Maroon victory was a fluke.

First, in the matter of first downs, Eastern had 18 while the Toppers had but 4. Eastern gained 289 yards on the ground, Western 48. The Maroons' total offense was 344 yards, Western's 80 yards. Let's give a quick look at some individual statistics now. Whitey Sanders was Western's leading rusher with a total of 49 yards in six attempts. Three backs who ran the ball are now on the '54 version of the Hilltoppers in fullback Millard Shirley, quarterback Jerry Nassano and right halfback Jim Gunnell. Shirley last year gained 7 yards in 3 tries, Nassano failed to gain in one attempt and Gunnell carried 3 times for 10 yards. All three boys are starters on this year's team.

Eastern's Chuck Bell was the hardest running back on the field as the little Pineville, Ky., speedster gained 102 yards in twelve thrusts at the line and played an outstanding defensive game. Jack Bond, who has graduated since, gained 70 yards and Bob Muller accounted for 46 yards. If any of you remember, it was Muller's gains on the delayed buck plays that kept Western's defense honest and expecting anything.

Roy Kidd gained thirty yards, threw a touchdown pass, and scored a touchdown, and Bill Bradford picked up 30 yards on the ground. Both Kidd and Bradford are currently assisting Coach Presnell with the coaching duties of the Maroon backfield. Ed Miracle and Don Daly gained 23 and 13 yards, respectively, to round out the individual statistics in last year's Maroon victory—Nope, no fluke!

Now, back to the present after glancing into the past and reminiscing a bit. The Toppers will be the toughest foe the Maroons will meet this season. We don't believe in comparative scores, but we'll compare, just for fun, the teams both Eastern and Western have met. Western defeated Middle Tennessee 7-6; Eastern won over the same ball club 26-0, so by that score, the Maroons would be a 25-point favorite over the Hilltoppers. Now, just a couple of weeks ago, Western licked Tennessee Tech 32-12 at Cookeville, Tenn. The Maroons squeezed by this same team 144-7 just two weeks earlier at Hanger Stadium, so by this score the Hilltoppers would be a 13 point favorite. The only score that makes sense when we compare them is the Morehead scores of the two teams. Both Western and Eastern played the Eagles at Morehead, Western winning 19-13 and the Maroons winning by a 12-8 count.

Many of you, who witnessed Eastern's hard-fought tie with Toledo last Saturday night, probably have said or thought that the Ohio team had one of the hardest running fullbacks you have ever seen. If you did think that, you are absolutely correct. Mel Triplett, the big 210-pound colored fullback, is one of the most sought after college players in the country by the professional clubs.

This corner would like to recognize three gentlemen who have played a big part in Eastern's success on the gridiron this fall. If you haven't already guessed whom we're speaking of, they are Roy Kidd, Carl Oakley and Bill Bradford, assistant Maroon mentors this fall. These boys have done a splendid job in assisting Coaches Presnell and Darling with their duties and have been invaluable to the Maroons by their accurate scouting reports. Nice going, boys!

November 1 was the official opening day of practice for Paul McBrayer's cage team. Word from the athletic office has it that the big Irishman is expecting a much improved squad this year. Included among the 24 boys who reported are 13 varsity members and 11 frosh. Seven lettermen return to make up the bulk of this year's team. Jack Adams, Bill Baxter, Ronnie Pellegrino, J. D. Brock, Jim Mitchell, Jim Floyd and Dick Culbertson, who lettered in '51 and '52, are the lettermen who are expected to carry the big load in '54-'55.

Surely, by now, you all know that tomorrow's game at Bowling Green is the "big one" for "Big E." So, let's all of us get to Western in one way or another, to give the Maroons our support—that is, our complete support, for the first time this season. See you in Bowling Green!

A complete coverage of the Maroon cage team will appear in the next edition.

P. E. Majors; Minors Planning Play Night

The Health, Physical Education and Recreation Club, formed by all P. E. majors or minors from sophomores to seniors, plans its first event of the year! Monday, November 25 will be the date for a club play night. This means that the gym will be open tentatively from 7:00 to 9:30 to every boy and girl majoring or minoring in P. E. There will be games and contests during the first part of the evening. The night will end with a mixed swimming splash party. There are a lot of students in this area, so come over and get acquainted.

This club was formed last year and one of its primary sponsored events is the co-ed play nights. The next one will be given for the entire student body.

This party on the 25th is not exclusive to members of the P. E. Club. Any physical education major or minor is eligible to attend.

Eleven's 'nuff

ESC Win String Stopped At Eleven By Strong "Rockets" From Toledo

A slight case of "fumblyitis" on the part of the Maroons together with Toledo's "Big Three," in Mel Triplett, Don Wright, and Dick Basich, are the main reasons Eastern had to gladly settle with a tie. The trio of hard running Ohio backs accounted for 280 of the Rockets' 327 dashing yards.

Toledo scored the first time they got hold of the ball. On the first play from scrimmage, Wright scooted 49 yards to the Eastern 8 yard marker before being caught from behind. Three plays later, Dick Basich, Rocket right half, went over from the 4 to put the visiting Ohioans into a quick lead. After right tackle Dan Farbrother's kick was true, the Rockets held a 7-0 lead with 10:18 remaining in the initial period.

The Maroons came back and tied it up with 5:52 to go in the first canto when quarterback Jim Hanlon threw a perfect lead pass to fleet-footed "Dutch" Greene for 41 yards and the score, climaxing a drive that started from the Maroons' own 48. Ernie Rigrish's kick was between the uprights and the Maroon followers breathed a deep sigh of relief.

The Rockets retaliated late in the second period to go ahead as they drove 63 yards in 10 plays to tally, with Don Wright skirting left end for the 10 final yards. Farbrother's kick was wide and the score read 12-7, Toledo.

After the ensuing kickoff, Dick Basich recovered a fumble on Eastern's 33 yard line. With only seconds remaining in the half, Nowak, Toledo signal-caller, tossed to Basich, who pulled the aerial in on the Maroon 3 yard marker. With two seconds left in the half, Nowak threw incomplete to Basich and the halftime score read 13-7, with the Rockets from the University of Toledo completely dominating play throughout the first half.

It was a spirited bunch of Maroons who took the field in the second half and tied the ball game up. During this second half, Jerry Johns, Maroon guard, gave an outstanding performance as the 207 lb. senior was in on nearly every tackle and blocking to near-perfection.

With 1:25 left in the third period, the Maroons drove 65 yards in 11 plays to score and tie the game at 13-13. Hanlon tossed to frosh end Tom Schulte for the final 9 yards and the score. Rigrish's all-important kick was blocked and it was a "brand new" ball game.

The closest to Toledo's goal line the Maroons were able to advance in the fourth quarter was the 31, but another fumble gave the Rockets possession of the ball. Toledo drove from that point to Eastern's 15 before the Maroon's disturbed forward wall held.

With less than a minute to go in the game, Eastern's chances of victory were darkened as Wright intercepted a Hanlon aerial on his own 45 and got back to the Eastern 43. Nowak passed to Basich for 4 yards and a pair of Nowak tosses fell incomplete. Basich failed to gain as the time ran out and both teams had to settle with a tie.

Statistics in Favor of Toledo

Toledo's 327 rushing yards was by far the most yardage an Eastern opponent has garnered this season. Previously, John Carroll held the high mark, with only 134 yards via the rushing department. The Maroons gained 136 yards on the ground, their second lowest of the year. The 166 yards gained by Maroon passes was the high of the season in that department, which was about the only consolation Eastern can boast, except the fact that they played as hard throughout the game as they have all season.

Toledo's Don Wright gained a net 125 yards, Dick Basich, picked up 81 yards, and big Mel Triplett garnered 74 yards by the rushing method. Horace Harper was the leading ground-gainer for the Maroons as he picked up 37 yards in 5 tries. Don Daly was defended again and picked up only 31 yards in 10 attempts.

MOREHEAD VICTIMIZED

Morehead's scrapping Eagles, the cellar-dwellers of the OVC, fought the powerful Maroons right down to the wire, before losing to the undefeated Maroons by a 12-8 score before a capacity crowd of approximately 4,000 screaming fans at Jayne Memorial Stadium in Morehead.

The packed stadium watched in surprise wonder as the little, unadorned Eagles of Coach "Shorty" Jamerson came fighting back, after the conference leading Maroons had tallied two touchdowns, to outscrap and almost outscore the Maroons the last two and a half quarters of the contest.

The first Eastern score came midway in the second period when freshman end Tom Schulte burst through Morehead's line to block a punt on the Morehead 41 yard marker. The ball bounded back to the 25, before Schulte caught up with the loose ball and fell on it. Eight plays later, quarterback Jim Hanlon, on an optional to the right, cut inside the defensive end, to score. Ernie Rigrish's extra-point kick was wide and the Maroons led 6-0, with about 8½ minutes remaining in the first half.

Eastern scored again late in the second period when Hanlon, receiving nice protection, faded back, and hit Tom Schulte in the end zone for the second Maroon touchdown, the pass play covering 35 yards. Don Hortman's kick was wide and the Maroons led 12-0.

Two minutes later, Morehead's Ed Wells, 155 lb. halfback brought the Morehead alumni and followers to their feet as the diminutive scatback turned an Eastern threat into a Morehead score by intercepting a Hanlon aerial and scampering 77 yards, outrunning Eastern's secondary, to score. Hart's try for point was no good and the Eagles had closed the gap to 12-6.

Morehead took the second half kickoff and drove to Eastern's 37 in 6 plays, the drive being sparked by Rondall Hart's fourth down, fake punt, 15 yard jaunt. Jerry Boyd, sophomore center, ended this threat as the 200 lb. center intercepted an Adkins' pass on the 25 and got back to the 30. The Maroons immediately put on a determined drive from this point and drove 65 yards in 13 plays to have this threat fizzle out on the 15 as Morehead's forward wall held and took over.

Morehead ended the afternoon's scoring as, on fourth down, Eastern's Horace Harper dropped back to punt; the ball being on the 18 yard marker. The snap from center was low and the ball rolled into the end zone. Harper raced back, picked the pigskin up and tried to run out, but, in doing so, his knee touched the turf and the Eagles were credited with a safety. The safety, however, was to Eastern's advantage, because if Harper had gotten out of the end zone, Morehead would have been in an excellent position to score a touchdown and tie the game up at 12-12. The score read 12-8, with the Maroons still in the lead.

PRESNELL SEEKS 1st WIN OVER 'TOPPERS AT BOWLING GREEN

When the Eastern Maroons meet the Western Hilltoppers tomorrow, Coach Glenn Presnell will be seeking his initial grid victory over the Hilltoppers at Bowling Green since the popular mentor joined Eastern's coaching staff in 1947.

In '47, the Maroons whitewashed the 'Toppers 27-0 at Richmond. Since that time the two teams have met six times, three in Richmond and three in Bowling Green. In '48, '50, and '52 Western won their host games by scores of 14-13 in '48 and '50, and in 1952 the Hilltoppers trounced the Maroons by a 48-6 count at Western Stadium. In '49, '51 and '53 the Maroons took their Hanger Stadium homecomings by scores of 20-7, 31-7 and 13-7, respectively.

If Presnell is successful in gaining that initial win at Bowling Green, he will also have been successful in capturing the Ohio Valley Conference championship in his first year at the helm of the Maroons. A win for the Hilltoppers would leave only Murray to defeat in order for the charges of Coach Jack Clayton to gain the championship of the loop.

Never before in the ancient rivalry between these two teams have both been able to send into this traditional meeting such powerful teams boasting such outstanding records. Eastern has not been beaten in the last 12 games, while the Hilltoppers have not been whipped since the Maroons handed them a 13-7 defeat last Nov. 7. Since that time the Hilltoppers have run over nine opponents in a row. Seven wins have been scored this season without a loss to equal a Western record of seven straight wins which has stood since 1928.

A heavy snowfall that fell around the state Tuesday has limited the Maroons' practice sessions to indoor drills this week as they prepare for their traditional battle with the 'Toppers.

Starting lineup Eastern:

CARDS HERE NEXT WEEK FOR HOMECOMING

The University of Louisville Cards are here next week to ring down the curtain on Eastern's great 1954 grid season in main attraction of the Maroons' homecoming celebration.

The Maroons, enjoying one of their greatest seasons, will shoot the works next Saturday, come 2 p. m. against the Cardinals of Coach Frank Camp in hopes of sending the alumni home with the high enthusiasm they bring to the 2 p. m. kickoff.

Some 4,500 fans are expected to gather at Hanger Stadium to witness the Maroons' finale of the '54 campaign and to pay tribute to Glenn Presnell who, in his first year at the helm of the Maroons, has guided them to this great season and possibly a bowl bid, should the Hilltoppers cooperate in tomorrow's tilt.

Against the Cardinals, the Maroons will be attempting to break the deadlock in the series between the two institutions. In 13 previous encounters the series stands at six wins apiece and a tie. The Cards, in the meantime, will be seeking to avenge the 20-13 setback the Maroons handed them last year at Parkway Field. The gridders of

CHEERFUL THOUGHTS

At a prayer meeting in the backwoods country, testimonies were required and an extremely old woman finally tottered to her feet. "I want to tell this whole company," she quavered, "that I have the rheumatiz in my back, and the rheumatiz in my legs, and the rheumatiz in my arms, but I have been upheld by the beautiful Bible verse that says, 'Grin and bear it!'"

Soph: "Have your hair cut?"
Frosh: "No, I just washed it and it shrank."

Dean of women: "Did you read the letter sent you?"

Coed: "Yes, ma'am. I read it inside and out. On the inside it said, 'You are requested to leave college,' and on the outside it said, 'Return in five days.' So here I am."

Belknap Campus have won twice this season, while dropping five tilts (at press time.)

Frank Camp's athletes got off to a shaky start as they lost their first four games to Murray, Wayne, Florida State and Dayton before recuperating long enough to defeat Evansville and Centre, only to be knocked off by Western last Saturday at Bowling Green. Tomorrow U. of L. plays host to Morehead in their homecoming attraction and next week ends the season here at Richmond.

Ten seniors will be playing for the last time on the gridiron at Hanger Stadium against the Cardinals. Tackles Frank Nassida and Carl Bays, guards Tom Sammons and Jerry Johns, end Fred Winscher, quarterback Jim Hanlon, halfbacks Ed Miracle, Don Daly, Dutch Greene and fullback Bob Muller—all will be participating for the final time before the home folks.

A Look At Homecoming — Morning
BEFORE THE PARADE AND THE PARTIES . . .

By DORIS WILMER

Even the very sunlight seems to feel the impending excitement in the cool, crisp morning air as it shimmers and dances through the russet and gold leaves on the campus. The caravans of cars filled with old grads converging on Eastern proclaim to the world that the great day is here—Homecoming, 1954.

In the past weeks, the expectation for this great day has been building up.

Groups and clubs have performed the difficult tasks of choosing the prettiest girls from their ranks as their candidates for Homecoming Queen.

The float committee members have been searching their tired brains for the design of what they hope will be the prize winning float. The coveted building spaces has been allotted, and trucks and convertibles have been pressed into service. Scratched and sore fingers have stuffed thousands of napkins into the seemingly endless rolls of chicken wire.

Classes have been almost forgotten amid the talk of the dances, the floats and the game. Plans have been made cancelled, and remade. Last night's wrinkled party dresses have forfeited the right to hang on the doors to the freshly pressed formals of the candidates for queen.

But now, the campus is beginning to wake up. Here come a few, loyal club members scurrying to put the finishing touches on a float before the parade. The early visitors are beginning to arrive. Homecoming Day, the climax of weeks of work and excitement, is beginning. This, after all is the day we are going to beat Louisville.

CONTRACTS FOR FREE

Want to know more about denominations—and how they differ from your own? The "Y" offers the answer in their open forum devotions led by prominent local ministers held each Thursday evening at 8:30 in the Little Theater.

MUSIC IN THE NIGHT

Music for dancing and listening was given by a volunteer combo in the recreation room of the Student Union Building, Wednesday, October 26. The styles and moods varied from the sweet sentimental to the Dixie land jazz. Many students enjoyed the meet. This type of gathering could add much to the spirit of the student body.

MUSIC FOR OUR ALMA MATER

Our school songs are to be found in various publications scattered over our campus, but for those of you who have lost your Freshman Handbooks can't remember that time when you learned the Marooner's melodies, here are the words of two of Eastern's school songs so that no one need be caught napping at the next game.

Yea, Eastern!

Yea, Eastern let's win this fight
Rally Maroon and White
We've got the spirit;
You've got the speed.
These two with grit are all that we need.

So carry and pass that ball;
Show them our boys beat all;
Show them we're right with main and might;
The way to win is fight, fight, fight.

Hall, Hall, Eastern Maroons
Hall, Hall, Eastern Maroons
You're the pride of dear old Alma Mater,
Hall, Hall, Eastern Maroons,
For thee we give three rousing cheers,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hall, Hall, Eastern Maroons,
Loyal to thee we stand,
Ever fight for the right,
We'll make our school the best one in the land.

YOUTH GROUPS UNITE FOR HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Westminster Fellowship-Wesley Foundation Halloween party was held Thursday night, October 28, in the recreation room of the Presbyterian Church.

The room was decorated with orange and black crepe paper, pumpkins, and fodder. Ghost guides were present to direct guests through the "House of Horrors", and a fortune teller revealed the future. The Reverend Oliver Carmichael, minister of First Presbyterian Church, told a ghost story which "chilled the spines" of his listeners. A scavenger hunt, Halloween games, and the traditional apple bobbing were also included.

After the entertainment, doughnuts and apple cider were served.

Barbara White Pledged To Alpha Delta Kappa

Barabara E. White, Terre Haute, Indiana, was pledged to Alpha Delta Kappa, honor sorority at Indiana University, Sunday, October 25th, at the South Eastern Center in Jeffersonville, Indiana.

This sorority requires that pledges hold a 2 point standing for their first 40 hours' work. According to Miss White, who is a transfer student now studying here, Alpha Delta Kappa stands for knowledge, ambition, and mission.

A Second Look — Evening
AFTER THE BALL AND THE BALL GAME . . .

BY TOM McELFRESH

I came across the campus just as the blood-disk sun was sinking behind the far horizon. Its last rays gilded with fiery bronze the gleaming white clock tower. The wind was clean and sharply edged from the north.

The finish—the end of another Homecoming. The deserted, sadly bedraggled floats stood forlornly pensive in the gathering dusk. Streamers and bunting flapped absently in the wind.

Here and there in the trampled sodlay a crumpled trodden chrysanthemum—its ribbon trailing away in the mud.

There had been rain the night before, but Saturday blossomed cold and clear—a winter flower with bright sun crossing the empty sky.

And there it was. "Fly the flags for the big parade. Beat the drums for the team. Unshackle the spirit from inhibition and lift the voices of Alma Mater acclaim.

"Three cheers for the Maroons and spare the week-end work, for all of today is fun. Old Miss E's conquering sons and daughters are home from the wars—home for a day of looking back at their personal good old days."

Over For 1954

Over. Completed. Done. The end. Homecoming, 1954. nosing around a pile of dank napkins from a float. Someone had dropped a candy bar. He barked once and continued the exploration.

Through my trenchcoat the wind was only cool and calm—a breath of existence blowing through the deserted campus. Everyone was gone.

The alumni had taken away the last of the looking back. The students had taken the gaiety and the last throaty yell for the team.

They were only gone to supper, but the campus looked so dead and sad—alone with only remembrance of things gone with the spirit of Eastern. As though a million years had passed and the campus still stood alone—so terribly alone.

I felt only for once and for a moment that loneliness after the ball and the ball game. Then came the yell. "Hey, wait for me."

She was late as usual. She came tearing down the steps and out of the dormitory.

A voice—a student voice—one of the lot of us. But as long as there are those voices and life—the campus will live past the dead hour of after-Homecoming to cheer the people who are at Eastern. We the people—we the students—we are Eastern.

Maroonettes Hold Big Blues In 2-2 Hockey Game At U. K.

Inspired by the excellent coaching presented by Miss Applebee at the clinic, as well as the usual spirit of rivalry that exists between these long time opponents, the girls were in very good condition for the first contest. Last year the crown of victory was brought home to Eastern and the U. K. team was as anxious to regain the title as we were to keep it.

The first half was very fast and each team seemed to put every skill into the activity. Eastern proved to be better at offense during this period and most of the game was played below the 50 yard line with U. K. defending. Several times we had open shots at the goal, but because of rough ground and then too, some misjudgment the ball was knocked out at the end zone, which resulted in a 25 yard bully. As a result of this, there were no goals during this period.

The beginning of the second half presented a different story, however, and it was Eastern on the defense. The first goal was shot and soon afterwards there was another, making the score 2-0 in favor of the Blue team. Only about 13 minutes of playing time left and the Maroonettes were determined not to go down in defeat.

With new spirit the team tore through the U. K. defense and as a result of a pass from Carol Kidd, Bev Wilson scored with an easy push shot. Soon afterwards Katherine Johnson drove, from her left half-back position, a hard pass to Dot Clark the left wing. Dot made a beautiful shot with a hard drive from a sharp angle, thus bringing the score to a 2-2 tie. With only a few minutes to go both teams were playing with all they had on the defense as well as offense, but every one seemed quite tired out by the time the whistle blew for the end of the game.

This was one of the best contests I have ever seen two college teams participate in. It was an open game with good passing and fine teamwork. Afterwards we were served refreshments and relaxed for awhile in the W. R. A. lounge at the University. The only thing that could have made us happier was another goal, but that will wait till next year. We have two games to go—Berea and the University of Cincinnati. All of us are out for a perfect season, so back us up, Eastern!

Second Tilt Ends In 5-5 Tie For Girls

BEREA-EASTERN FIGHT NIP AND TUCK BATTLE

From the outstanding exhibition in Lexington the Maroon Hockey team traveled to Berea only to meet with a terrific upset. There is a great difference in area of the fields as Berea's yardage is close to 25 yards less than Eastern's field.

In the first five minutes of play the hard fighting and high spirited

Bereans chalked up a score of two. Eastern's regular players came into the game soon afterwards and with deep determination began to drive the ball deeper in their scoring zone. From then it was practically a nip and tuck battle. Berea scored; then Eastern came through with three, making the game a tie. Early in the second half Bev Wilson scored her 4th goal with a short scoop and then Dot Quisenberry tallied another for a score of five to three with the Maroonettes on top. Near the end, however, Berea broke through our defense again to bring the final score up to a tie of five to five.

The forward line worked well together, and among the backs, Ruby Benton played a very fine game. She followed closely behind her wing and was quick on returning to her defensive position when the front line carried the ball.

Eastern played Model High School in a practice game this season. Model's Girls Athletic Association team is formed of players from the 9th through the 12th grades. They gave the W. R. A. a good contest.

The hockey team has a lot of work to do before the University of Cincinnati comes down for our final game of the season. Cincinnati's team is one of the roughest schedule. However, the hockey coach, Marty Williams, feels Eastern's team will be a good match if the student body will back their team.

What cigarette do college students go for? According to the latest, biggest coast-to-coast survey, students prefer Luckies to all other brands. And once again, the No. 1 reason is better taste. Of course Luckies taste better. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. Try a pack. Maybe you'll be as fortunate as the student in the Doodle to the right, titled: Lucky smoker . . . faulty cigarette vending machine. Even if you're not, you'll enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.

Students To Give Cantata In Premiere Performance

The performance of Dr. John Jacob Niles' Christmas cantata, "Mary the Rose," will be presented by the Music Department and the Modern Dance Club of Eastern State College in Hiram Brock Auditorium during the second week in December.

This work represents a new departure in oratoric writing, in that it employs dancers as well as singers and orchestra. The masks and pageants of pre-Shakespearean England, which were given in churches or church-yards, involved singing, such orchestra as was available, speakers and a group of pantomimic dancers. The importance of the dance in early religious works is suggested by the fact that the word "carol" (which, to us, means a song) derives from the Greek and originally meant "dancing in a circle" to the music of the singing voice.

In writing "Mary the Rose", Dr. Niles took all these things into account, and decided to use the modern ballet in interpreting the story of the Nativity. In this work, the singers and the orchestra tell the story in their way, and the dancers tell it in theirs. The two are related to one another in so far as they are telling precisely the same story, their operations overlapping one another quite uniquely.

"Mary the Rose" was written and orchestrated in less than a year, and has been in rehearsal since the beginning of the fall term at Richmond. The entire idea shows the impact of television on the modern composer, for—as every television producer knows—a static chorus of singers makes poor visual material. With the possibility of adding the dance to the music and the motion of the orchestra, backed up by the text as sung by the singers, a new set of results can be achieved.

The lyrics are a tightly knit poem celebrating the Birth of Christ, approaching the subject from the humble level of the shepherds. Those who have listened to rehearsals of "Mary the Rose" have concluded that the effectiveness of this work derives in large measure from the contrast between the humility of this approach and the loftiness of the music.

The entire production is directed by James Van Peursem, head of the Music Department of Eastern, to whom "Mary the Rose" is dedicated. The soprano soloist is Miss Constance Conklin, a member of the vocal department, and the dancers are under the direction of Miss Martha Willoughby.

The score runs to 42 large manuscript pages, and there are 526 measures of orchestral accompaniment. It is scored for woodwinds, horns in F, brasses, celesta, harp, percussions and strings.
