K. I. P. A. Group To Hold Meeting At Centre

Member Newspapers To Submit Best Stories In Semi-Annual Contest

DECEMBER 2-3

The Centre College Cento, student publication of Centre College, will play host to the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association on December 2 and 3.

The eight Kentucky college newspapers which make up the membership of the group are expected to send approximately fifty delegates to the convention which considers the various problems of collegiate journalism.

Requests have been made to the eight Kentucky college newspapers to send representative stories from their publications to be entered in the semi-annual competition to decide the best news story, sport story, feature article, and editorial written by a Kentucky college journalist during the past six months.

The program will open Friday morning with registration at 10 o'clock. The afternoon will be given over to round table discussions by individual journalists and the banquet will be held Friday evening. The semi-annual business meeting will be held Saturday morning. Present officers are L. T. Ingelhart, editor of student publication at the University of Kentucky, president; Edward Eicher, Eastern, vice-president; and Lucille Basenback, Morehead, secretary.

The delegation from Eastern will be selected in the near future. Members of the association are: University of Kentucky, University of Louisville, Western State Teachers, Morehead State Teachers, Murray State Teachers, Centre College, Transylvania University and Eastern State Teachers.

The K. I. P. A. contest will be judged by the Cincinnati Enquirer and a well known journalist, Mr. Hub Logan, Kentucky editor of the Enquirer, representative of the Enquirer at this meeting.

Swimming Team Practices For Tough Season

Loss Of Senior Men Expected To Handicap Maroons

SCHEDULE GIVEN

Mr. McDonough, director of athletics, has high aspirations for the swimming team this year. He has planned the toughest schedule that the boys have ever had. Eastern's pool is the newest and finest in the state. Its grandstand will seat over 250 persons.

This season the Eastern tank will be the scene of contests with such schools as the University of Kentucky, Berea, Morehead, University of Tennessee, Maryville College, possibly University of Cincinnati and several West Virginia teams.

Besides these dual meets, there will be the state intercollegiate tank carnival. This interesting contest originated in Eastern's pool in 1936. The idea was conceived by swimmers of the University of Kentucky, and when they broached the subject to T. C. McDonough, he quickly gave his consent for the meet to be held here. Kentucky has no pool, but they have one of the finest tank records in the state, and no doubt they will be Eastern's toughest stand.

Eleven men received letters last year, four of them seniors. Hesser, Byar, McConnell, and Edwards received senior letters, while Dickman, Weaver, Warner, Roth, Hennessey, Whitehead, and Arbuckle received regular award letters.

This year several new men have been working with the team. George Evans, a nice distance man, is back with the team after a year's lay-off. Other additions are Brock, Elvey Roberts, Mills, Rose and Coleman Whitaker.

Bob Dickmon is acting coach of the team this year, and according to Mr. Dickman's remarks, we can expect a nice, smooth group of mermen.

Cooperative Concert Programs Listed; Urbanek Is First

Mr. C. D. Oldham, secretary of the Madison Cooperative Concert Association, announced that all membership cards for this season's concerts have been distributed to the members. The dates of the concerts are as follows: December 2—Carolyn Urbanek; February 17—Ezra Rachlin, and March 27—Dorothy Crawford.

"A reciprocal agreement is planned with the Frankfort Association," the secretary stated, "but this has not been confirmed." The Frankfort Association concerts are scheduled January 31—Lisa Farnova and March 10—Agnes Davis.

Violin Instructor To Present Concert Monday Evening

Thomas Stone, instructor in violin and concertmaster of the college orchestra, will give a violin recital in the Hiram Brock auditorium November 28, at 8:15 p. m.

Mr. Stone will play a program divided into five groups. The first group includes "Sonata in A Major" for the piano and violin. Miss Brown E. Telford will accompany the violinist.

The second group is for the violin alone: "Partita, No III," by Bach-Jochin.

The fourth is a romantic and classic group made up of "Air," Goldmark; "Romanza Andaluza," Sarasati, and "Rondon," Mozart-Kreiser.

"Fairylad," Burleigh; "Mouvements Perpetuels," Poulenc-Heifetz; "Sea Murmurs," Castelnuovo-Tedesco-Heifetz, and "Seville," Albeniz-Heifetz compose the last group which is modern.

The public is cordially invited to attend this recital.

Captain Ford To Attend Command And Staff School

Eastern Military Instructor Chosen For Excellent Record

SIGNAL HONOR

Information has been received at the R. O. T. C. unit at Eastern Teachers College to the effect that Captain William W. Ford, Field Artillery, has been selected to take the course at the Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Instruction begins in late August of 1939 and Captain Ford will be moved some time during the summer.

This is a signal honor for Captain Ford because the 225 officers selected to take the course are picked for excellence of record in past years. A course at the General Staff School is a prerequisite for selection to go to the Army War College, which is the highest school in the army.

Captain Ford, born in Virginia, entered the United States Military Academy from that state and graduated in 1920. His service in the army has taken him to such places as Hawaii and to various posts in the United States, such as El Paso, Tex., and Fort Bragg, N. C. He has been on duty at Eastern Teachers College about 3 years, which is only little short of the normal 4-year period of assignment by the War Department to this duty.

Medical Aptitude Test Given At Eastern Dec. 2

On December 2, at 4:00 p. m. the nationally accepted medical aptitude examination will be given at Eastern. This examination is generally approved at the leading medical schools as being one of the best methods available for determining the student's aptitude background in chemistry, physics, biology, and mathematics, and to some extent the native ability of the student.

The examination is to be given in the examination room of the library. Students desiring to take the test are urged to pay Dr. Hummell the fee of $1.00 as soon as possible.

Brown Is Selected As Captain Of ROTC Pistol Team

Matches Arranged With Many Large Universities

FORD IS COACH

At a meeting of the ROTC pistol team held on November 16th, Richard Brown was elected team captain for the current year. Brown, richly deserved the honor, having been the outstanding shooter on the team throughout the last season. He is a very steady type of shot, rarely having a bad day, with an average score well among the leaders in pistol shooting throughout the country.

Basic shooting instruction will be given to freshmen members of the ROTC beginning November 29th. On January 21st selections for the team will be made and intensive training of the selected squad will begin, in preparation for the season's matches. Matches are generally of the "postal" type, in which each team fires on the home range and the scores—certified by the army officer in charge—are exchanged by mail. The following postal matches have been scheduled during the period February 13th-March 25th: Utah, St. Bonaventure, Oklahoma, Michigan State, Cornell, Arkansas State, Iowa State, Purdue and Santa Clara.

The practice of firing two shoulder-to-shoulder matches against Xavier University will be continued. The Eastern team will go to Cincinnati for a match on February 18th, while the Xavier team will come here for a return match on March 4th.

Hold-over members from Eastern's last year's team, in addition to Brown, are Frank Wilcox, Charles Eades and Steve Rich. Captain W. W. Ford is coaching the team.

Maroons Turn From Gridiron To Hardwood To Continue Winning Streak; Rankin Cheerful

CONDUCTS CLINIC

Many Experienced Players Return For Practice

LARGE SQUAD

By JIMMY RODGERS
With the smoke of gridiron battles gradually giving way to clear skies, we again come to that exciting sport of the hardwood court.

For the past few seasons, Eastern has been blessed by a wealth of basketball material, athletes who have proven to be outstanding, not only locally, but also throughout the state. From my favorite perch in the bleachers, it looks as if Eastern will really go to town this season. This is rather obvious when one considers the fine players returning from last year's successful team, and the material coming up from last season's frosh squad. You may recall that the frosh squad lost but one game all season—and that by a small margin.

Just to show the doubters what we do have, let me scan the applicants for the varsity squad. At the pivot position we have Tussey, Shetler and Music. The former two are sophomores while Music is a student who played freshman ball several years back.

The guard positions are being contested for by such stars as Perry, Yeager, Mowat, Thurman, Combs, Limb, Hill and Morgan. With such sterling players to pick from, Maroon fans may be sure of two fine guards in the back court. Our guess is that Perry, Yeager and Thurman will have a slight advantage, but it will be a close race.

The question of what to use for forwards should not bother the coach, for he has some great material to fill the front court. Such men as McWhorter, King, Voshell, Luman, Hennessey, Abbey, Rice, Gott, Helton, and Wager are answers to a coach's prayer.

Last year, McWhorter was an outstanding offensive player and one needed an adding machine to keep up with his scoring. "Pinchy" King is a reliable and steady player under fire, and Voshell is another who will see plenty of action for his experience will be invaluable. He plays for the love of the game and is at his best with a well organized team.

Both Luman and Hennessey should click and will be there to bolster up the team when the sledding gets rough. We haven't the space to deal with the others but everyone looks like potential first string stuff. Just for the fun of it, we would pick Yeager, Perry, Shetler, McWhorter and King as the probable first team at this time, but weeks of practice may develop stars that will replace all the men we have mentioned.

While this year's team is not as experienced as it might be, we do not hesitate to predict that Eastern will have her most successful season. We may not win every game but we will take a majority of them, and every team we play will know that they have been in a fight.

The tentative schedule is as follows:

- Dec. 10—Alumni (Here).
- Jan. 7—Wesleyan (There).
- Jan. 11—Morehead (There).
- Jan. 14—Berea (There).
- Jan. 16—Western (There).
- Jan. 21—Transylvania (There).
- Jan. 28—Western (Here).
- Jan. 31—Wesleyan (Here).
- Feb. 3—Berea (Here).
- Feb. 8—Centre (There).
- Feb. 10—Morehead (Here).
- Feb. 14—Transylvania (Here).
- Feb. 18—Centre (Here).
- Feb. 23-25—K. I. A. C. Tournament (Here).

Mr. Thomas E. McDonough, director of athletics at Eastern, is to conduct a basketball clinic in several counties of the state under the auspices of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association. He has served in this capacity in ten different states for such outstanding teams as the Cleveland Rosenboms, Olson Swedes, New York Celtics, Alabama, Vanderbilt, Georgia Tech, and Marquette University. Mr. McDonough is also president of the Southern Section of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The purpose of the basketball clinic are to interpret game rules to high school coaches and officials and to standardize state-wide officiating. The clinics will be held at Murray on November 14; Princeton, November 15; Central City, November 16; Owensboro, November 17; Bowling Green, November 22; Hodgenville, November 23; Somerset, November 25; Barboursville, November 28; Lexington, November 29; Maysville, November 30; Covington, December 1; Hazard, December 5; Paintsville, December 6; Ashland, December 7; Carrollton, December 8, and in Louisville on a date not set definitely.

Rome Rankin

During this lull between the football and basketball season, we wish to pause and pay tribute to the man who has done much to spread the fame of Eastern throughout the state and nation.

Small Talk

One of the prime ambitions of any college student is to be a good conversationalist. Many students become so engrossed in college work that they lose sight of the importance of being able to talk well in any situation.

Many students are skilled in small talk, but they will too often be found wanting in the discussion of ideas of a more speculative nature.

There is the same difference to be found between small talk and serious conversation as there is between a plotless book and a masterpiece.

No set formula can be given to the person who wishes to become a good conversationalist. It is almost useless repetition to say that a well-read person is usually an interesting conversationalist.

Current events constitute the main of any general discussion. Students often become oblivious to an outside world when they enter college.

If there is an hour of leisure sometimes, it can be usefully spent in reading some of the recent novels, learning something of great operas, art, and drama, seeing some of the movies about which people talk.

Remember that the conversation of a student is the index to his personality.—R. C.

Start Now

Next year, the college and student body will be the proud possessor of one of the finest Student Union Buildings in the South.

Whenever one is not certain about a matter which is new and strange to one, it is well to look around and see what other people with similar problems have done and are doing.

Student Union and has full rights and privileges to the building. Furthermore, all the rules of the building are set down and enforced by the student body through a board of directors which they elect.

Would it not be the wise thing for students here at Eastern to look to the future and start this year on a Student Union which would be ready to assume its rightful responsibility next year?

Pro and Con

There has been so much discussion on the campus regarding the recent policy of the administration in requiring that the campus organizations submit a complete roll, a place of meeting, the time of starting and stopping the meeting, and then turn in the attendance record after each meeting.

Let us take each point mentioned above and discuss it from the standpoint of the administration. A definite time and place for each meeting had to be arranged for there were many conflicts and frequently two or more clubs tried to meet in the same place at the same time.

The officials further thought that if roll were called it would curb the practice of many students have of joining everything that they can and then not attending meetings.

Another of the stipulations is that all money and dues of the club be turned in at the business office and handled from there.

The final stipulation is that all clubs are required to apply for a charter which is good for one year.

The majority of the students believe that it is very well to schedule a place and a starting time for each meeting and post it on the bulletin boards.

If Eastern is to have extra curricular and not compulsory campus organizations it should be left to the individual clubs to determine whether any member is inactive or should be dismissed because of indifference.

Of course, if the board of regents specify that all money of organizations indirectly connected with the school are to be handled through the business office, there is nothing that can be done about it.

Finally, by making each club apply for a charter from year to year, an additional undesirable check is put on the true purpose of the extra curricular activities.

We fully realize that the present set of rules is merely a survey on the campus organizations, but we hope that they will not progress until they reach a point where they hinder or block the true spirit and purposes of the extra-curricular activities.

Shawn & Company Scheduled For Third Appearance

Dancers Are Brought Back By Special Requests Of Students

HERE DECEMBER 15

Ted Shawn, international famous dancer, and his eight men dancers, who are appearing at the Hiram Brock Auditorium, December 15, under the auspices of the Eastern Physical Education Club.

This is the same company which successfully toured the United States from coast to coast and Canada and which won wide acclaim in London during the Jubilee of George V.

During his third year of college at the University of Denver, Shawn was stricken with diphtheria and after leaving the hospital was for months paralyzed from the hips down.

In 1912 he established a school of dancing in Los Angeles; in 1914 he toured with his own concert group from coast to coast.

Until four years ago, his companies have been both women and men, but for many years he had entertained the idea of having an all-male ensemble.

The young men who form Shawn's company come from all parts of the United States. All are college men and athletes.

The company will give an American saga in four acts, "O Libertad." The New York Times criticized this performance as, "As expert and ensemble as has been seen in many a day."

President Of DePauw Addresses Assembly On "With Open Eyes"

"Humanity has the green light, the go-ahead signal," said Dr. Clyde E. Wildman, assembly speaker at Eastern Teachers College on Thursday, November 17, asserting his faith in the ability of the human race to reach a millennium where there will be no more wars or oppressions, in spite of the dark outlook at present. Dr. Wildman is president of DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind., and his subject was "With Open Eye."

The one great purpose of education is to teach people to think and true thinking must be based upon true knowledge, he said. "The most dangerous thing in the world is the thinking of the uninformed," he declared, stressing the need for "feeding an open mind with an open eye."

Crossfield Predicts World War Within Ten Years Under Hitler

Another world war within the next ten years if Hitler's program of aggression is carried out was predicted by Dr. R. H. Crossfield, president of Transylvania University, in the second of a series of talks which he is giving at Eastern College.

In this talk on "Hitler's Journey and the Goosestep," Dr. Crossfield gives the goosestep as the symbol of Hitler's plan of progress through war. He traced the rise of the German dictator from his birth to his position as perhaps the most powerful man in the world today.

Denouncing dictatorship as "the beast let loose," Dr. Crossfield urged his hearers to stand against the dictators and keep always before them the principles of freedom and democracy.

North Central Kentucky Club Holds Meeting

The North Central Kentucky Club held its regular meeting and elected the following officers for the year: President, John Suter; vice president, J. C. Wash; secretary, Helen Gaines, and treasurer, Jane Mills.

Interesting activities were planned by the club for the year. Mr. R. A. Edwards, sponsor of the club, made interesting suggestions for outings which will probably be taken in the near future.

Home Ec. Club Has Initiation Dinner Party

The Home Economics Club held its annual formal initiation banquet at the Hotel Glyndon, November 8. After the dinner, the freshmen were initiated into the club by the regular formal candle-light service with Miss Ruth Lynch, president, presiding.

The guests of honor at the occasion were Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Donovan, Miss Mary K. Burrier, Miss Alma Regenstein, Miss Edna White, Miss Dorothy Dorris, soloist, and Miss Dorothy Baxter, accompanist.

The bright pupil looked long and thoughtfully at the second examination question which read: "State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States in any one year." Then his brain cleared and he wrote: "1942—None."

Florence Nightingale Club Organized On Campus; Tea Given

Miss Edna A. White, college nurse, is the sponsor of a new campus club. This organization is called the Florence Nightingale Club and has as its officers Jessica Floyd, president; Evelyn Hume, vice-president, and Frances Jagers, secretary. Begley Drug is Modernized

Above is a picture of the newly decorated interior of the Begley Drug Company's store, since its opening in Richmond one of the most popular and now the most modern since its extensive remodeling program has been completed. Installation of a 20-foot luncheonette fountain, complete redecoration of the fixtures, laying of new linoleum, redecoration of the prescription department, installation of new circulating heating system have greatly increased the appearance of the store. In addition to a new ten-foot Grant counter upon which a complete line of sundries and electrical supplies will be handled, a new Swift Ice Cream back bar and a new liquid carbonic fountain with rust colored leather stools have enhanced efficiency of the store.

During Begley's five years in Richmond they have enjoyed an unusually good prescription and drug business and have had one of the most popular soda fountain and luncheonette services in town. Their connection with the Walgreen Company enables them to have the buying power of one of the largest drug store organizations in the United States.—adv.

Maroons End Season in Blaze of Glory

Eastern Outclasses Indiana State In Homecoming Tilt

Seven Seniors Play Last Home Game Before Capacity Crowd

EASY GAME

Before a capacity homecoming crowd in Hanger Stadium last Saturday, the Big Reds of Eastern outclassed and outplayed the Sycamores from Indiana State Teachers College to a score of 36-7.

The Maroons struck twice each in the first, third and fourth periods while the Sycamores counted in the second quarter after a bad pass by the Eastern center, which was recovered by Indiana on the Eastern eight.

Seven seniors made their final home appearance in the game. They were Feinstein, Hill, Hagood, Elder, Luman, Lydey and Merlino.

Long runs and passes accounted for five of Eastern's six markers, the other came on an eight yard smash after a pass had placed the ball near the goal. None of the Eastern's tries for extra points were good.

After the visitors had received and were forced to punt early in the first quarter, a pass which started on the Indiana 33 was good for the first score. "Spider" Thurman, Eastern's sophomore sensation, dropped back and tossed to Yeager who took the ball on the Indiana 10 and raced over the goal.

The only real threat of the game occurred in the second period when Coach Rome Rankin sent his second team into the game.

After Luman had intercepted a pass on his own 25, a bad pass from center was recovered by the Sycamores on the Maroon eight yard line. Hamilton, of the Sycamores, hit the line for three and then Faubion smashed into the center of the line for the score. Wey place-kicked the extra point and the half ended with Eastern leading by 12-7.

In the second half, Thurman dashed 49 yards for another Maroon marker, and Eastern went ahead 18-7, the try for the extra point failing again.

Just two more plays and Thurman passed to Ordick who scampered over for the fourth marker to give Eastern a 24-7 lead.

The fourth quarter found the ball on the Indiana 30. After two tries at the line and one incomplete pass, Thurman finally tossed to Scott and the Big Maroons scored their fifth marker.

The final score by the Maroons was set up when Elder intercepted Vogel's pass on the Indiana 40. Thurman tossed one to Gordon, who went down the hard way on the eight yard line. Luman on the first play, crashed through center and went over standing up for the final marker of the day.

Eastern gained 351 yards from rushing to 132 for Indiana State. The Maroons made 117 yards on passes while the visitors got 109. Eastern was penalized 57 yards and Indiana 61. The Maroons tried 19 passes and completed 8 while Indiana State attempted 32 and completed 11. Five Indiana passes were intercepted by Eastern and one Eastern toss went to a big lanky Sycamore. Each team fumbled five times, Indiana recovering six and Eastern four. Both teams were even on the first downs, each getting nine.

Eastern Cheers As Maroons End Their Most Successful Season

By CLYDE LEWIS

Pictured above are the Eastern cheer leaders who typify the elation of the school over the very successful football season just concluded.

When Eastern beat the Bulldogs at Barbourville last Saturday the Maroons wound up one of the most successful seasons that an Eastern gridiron aggregation has come through in many a long year of blasted hopes and lost bets.

Last year, after the squad had taken rather severe lacerations from both of the formidable rivals, Morehead and Western, the football fans in these parts were inclined to shake their heads and button up their overcoats whenever the subject of football at Eastern was mentioned.

Then came spring practice and a few of us watched a new crop of freshmen going through their paces. We watched, especially, a quiet fellow, named Thurman, who threw passes ticketed for keeps with the nonchalance of a freshman counting out pennies for a show, and who used his head for something other than to keep his helmet from rubbing shoulder blisters. We watched a little power house named Ordick, and a hard running Scotchman named Mowat. We saw a lot of other things, and found them good, but we had learned from other years, and so while we grinned a little, inclined not to express ourselves.

This fall we noted a number of things, among them a spirited student body that was backing the team win or lose. We saw a new sophomore backfield running like an express train five hours late, with Kemp, the big hard charging fullback, and we saw a line bulwarked by Locknane and Morgan with Yeager and Hill on the wings. Now we were inclined to talk a little. We predicted a good year if—but that was as far as we were prepared to go.

As the season progressed we were more and more elated. The team started well against Georgetown. The line charged low and hard and there was some pretty fair blocking. Thurman called his signals carefully, sending Kemp over guard and off tackle for most of the gains. There was still plenty to be ironed out in the long seasons in back of the library, but the boys had made a good start.

The next week against Transylvania things were not so well. Eastern fans had been looking for something of a pushover, and so the 7-0 win, eked out on a pass in the second quarter, was a surprise that threw a shadow on the games to come. The game was hard fought on both sides, but the Maroons showed badly on blocking, especially in taking out the secondary.

On October 8, the Rankinmen traveled to Johnson City, Tenn., where they soundly trounced the East Tennessee Teachers 19-0. This time the boys really began clicking for the first time of the season. Thurman came up with a couple of long runs that we had been waiting for, and Carl Kemp was still good for yardage through the line. The squad came out of the game in good shape, but Coach Rankin was still a little dissatisfied with the blocking.

The next game against Central Normal of Indiana proved to be the easiest of the season. The Hoosiers were plainly outclassed and could not even provide a contest, especially because of their lack of reserves.

Came Morehead, with bands playing and the flags waving; game of the squealing pig and the traditional hog rifle. From the opening kickoff, we knew we were looking at a football game. In spite of top heavy pre-game dope favoring the blue and gold, four determined Morehead marches into Eastern territory were turned back by an inspired Big Red forward wall, and each time Thurman kicked out of danger with his shoulder blades rubbing splinters from the goal posts. All afternoon the struggle lasted and when it was over the Rankinmen still were one of the unbeaten teams in the nation.

As events proved, the battle with Morehead was costly. The Maroons went into the Western game without Kemp, who had suffered a couple of badly bruised ribs the week before. Also, Hill was still feeling the effects of a bad cold, and Yeager hurt his arm in the first quarter. Western showed a backfield blocking with the precision of clockwork over the tackles on reverses and bucks that took advantage of the weakened wings.

Against Indiana State the Maroons were dealing with an easier foe. Despite a new razzle-dazzle offense Eastern was able to win easily over a lighter team that had not had enough drill on fundamentals. All in all, it was a glorious homecoming, full of color for the old grads who were playing the game in the stands.

The last game of the season was played in a sea of mud, but Eastern's superior team did not let that stop them from soundly trouncing the Union Bulldogs to the count of 24-0. Seven seniors played their final game for the alma mater. They were Hagood, Hill, Lydey, Elder, Feinstein, Merlino and Luman. And now with the football season put away, just watch those Maroons go on to the hardwood court and continue their winning ways.

Claude Howard Is President Of New Industrial Club

A group of students, majors and minors in Industrial Arts met on Tuesday, November 15, to form an Industrial Arts Club.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Whalen, who is to be the faculty sponsor for the new club. About twenty-five men were present at this first meeting.

They elected the following officers for 1938-39: Claude Howard, president; Ernest Snyder, vice president, and Woodrow Luman, secretary and treasurer. A committee was appointed to draw up the constitution and by-laws for the club and time for the club to meet.

According to statements made by Mr. Whalen the club will be very beneficial to all students interested in Industrial Arts.

At the meetings the club will discuss and work out projects and plans for Industrial Art work.

Sports INSIGHT

These days are something of heaven for the football player who can look at the practice field and smile. No more chaffing pads, smelly lockers, or daily drubbings. The afternoon is a glorious time of day when one can loaf about the campus, firmly convinced that life is good. But this is only the first week after the season. Wait until the basketballers begin their stuff, when gridiron popularity means a gadget for making waffles, when the coeds prefer striped shorts to moleskins, and the pros begin to ask questions about various peculiar subjects, including, "where was Mr. So-and-so when my class met Saturday. When the leaves are all gone, and the world is bleak, and all a guy can do is wait for spring—so he can start griping again.

Professor of literature to a class anxious to leave for the football game: "Just one moment, gentlemen, I have a few more pearls to cast."

Orchids this time to the squad in winding up a real season Saturday when they smeared Union. We have it this time from the little bird that Eastern is scheduling some real football outfits next year as a part of the anticipation of another great year. Don't study this for a test, but just in case it is correct, remember the source of the information. Included on the proposed card is Murray, Western, Morehead, Kansas State Teachers, Marshall and Wisconsin Teachers.

Cheer of the Scotchman at a football game: "Get that quarterback!"

To anyone interested in tap dancing it would be advantageous to contact Mr. Ora Tussey, expert, at the seven, three, and four and a half break away. Mr. Tussey can be reached at Memorial Hall most any time during the day and most of the night. Prices for lessons are extremely reasonable.

In the last issue we were, perhaps, a little harsh in attacking Mr. King Lowman of the Morehead Trail Blazer. Some one has suggested that according to us, Lowman wouldn't know a football from a watermelon with a sun tan. Perhaps we shouldn't have said anything at all. If this be true, we are sorry about what we said. We are sorry that Mr. Lowman doesn't know a football from a watermelon with a sun tan.

Y. M. C. A. Intra Mural Program Going Strong

Kenton, Pulaski, And Jackson Are League Leaders

FINALS SOON

The intra-mural program, under the leadership of Jim Stayton and Rusty Wicklund is being carried along in great style. Much interest has been created, not mentioning the friendly rivalry that has developed among the players to make it their business to win.

In the basketball tournament, Kenton county is leading in the National League due to the sparkling performance of Cliff Ferrill and Bob Dickman in their surprising upset of the Boone county team. In the American League, Jackson and Pulaski county stand in a deadlock.

The finals between the leaders of the two leagues will offer a very fine brand of basketball and students are urged to turn out and support their favorite team.

Eastern Leads State Race At Season's End

Eastern Teachers College, with a bit of help from Western, headed the standings of Kentucky collegiate football teams today, with the season virtually complete.

When Western Teachers upset Murray 21 to 7 Saturday, they dropped the Thoroughbreds from first to fifth place, and Eastern, subduing Union College 24 to 0, immediately took possession of top rank.

Four K. I. A. C. games Saturday completed the 1938 schedules for all but two of the commonwealth's teams.

The standings:

Team:	W.	L.	T.	Pts.	Op.
Eastern	6	1	1	159	39
Morehead	5	1	1	270	14

Eastern Plows Mud And Union To Win 24-0

Carl Kemp Accounts For All 4 Scores On Slippery Field

FINAL GAME

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., Nov. 23—Ending their 1938 season in a blaze of glory with only one defeat and one tie the Maroons Saturday rolled to an easy victory over Union College at Barbourville to a tune of 24 to 0.

Paying in a quagmire and with water on the field sloshing at their shoe tops, Eastern offense did not begin to click until midway of the second period when Kemp, hard-driving fullback, slashed through the Union defense twice in the second quarter to score on straight power drives.

Over 2000 ardent fans braved the wrath of Jupiter Pluvius to see the Union team crumple before the vicious running attack of the Maroons who refused to be daunted by the condition of the field.

Eastern's third marker came in the third period when Farmer, attempting to punt for Union, fumbled and Eastern recovered on the two-yard line. One play at the center of the line failed to gain but on the next attempt Kemp, who scored all of the touchdowns for the Maroons, drove over tackle for the score.

Again in the fourth quarter Union took to the air in a desperate attempt to score and one of their passes was intercepted on their own 10 yard line. Again Quarterback Thurman, who played outstanding ball for Eastern during the contest, called upon the powerful Kemp and after three attempts Kemp took it over from the three yard line for the final tally of the afternoon.

Eastern rolled up a total of 15 first downs while Union was able to garner but 5. Stafura, Union ace sprinter, brought the stands to their feet in the late stages of the game when he dashed 60 yards through the Eastern defense before being tackled deep in Eastern territory.

Seven seniors, playing their last game for the Maroons, played during the contest. Co-captains Hagood and Hill, Lydey, Feinstein, Luman, Merlino and Elder.

During the 1938 season the Maroons won seven games, tied one, and lost once to a powerful Hill-topper eleven from Western.
