LABOR HAS NO RIGHT TO STRIKE

How many of us are familiar with the statement that the late President, Calvin Coolidge, made during the Boston Police strike of 1919?

Even the most rabid red should have the honesty to admit that 'Labor has no right to strike against the public welfare,' is one of the basic truths of any group of people, Democratic or Totalitarian.

We are being treated now to one of the most disgusting abuses of the rights of the laboring class since those rights were first recognized. The flagrant, outrageous mis-use of authority by a single person has its classic personification in the corporate body of one Adolf Hitler. His chief imitator, and notoriously successful in his despotic copy-catting is John L. Lewis, of whom you may have heard a few words.

WHY
What possible excuse is there for a man of his calibre to dominate so ruthlessly an organization of honest workers? Why is he permitted to so completely control labor in his own inimitable manner? The laws of libel are too easily twisted by a clever shyster to make it safe to say that there is dishonesty within the ranks of the labor leaders; yet, there is definitely something rotten in the state of Denmark. Who are we to say that Lewis and his cronies are dishonest and work more for their own gains rather than the people who trust them . . . that there has never been an accounting of the union funds made available to the public, through the medium of the newspapers, where such things ought to be exposed?

CHAMPION?
We must be candid and unprejudiced, though. We must, as one of the teachers at Eastern pointed out, (albeit in reference to A. Hitler) and still be able to show our admiration for Lewis' genius in duping so many of the people for so long a time.

WHY ISN'T SOMETHING DONE?
The answer is going to be excruciatingly hard for some of us to take. The whole fault lies in the do-nothing, laissez-faire, ignorance-is-bless policy that the White House has pursued throughout the present crisis.

It is, in more ways than one, a tragedy, that few of us, who were born and bred to be honest Jeffersonian Democrats, will admit. We look to the President for leadership and we get nothing but words of honeyed sweetness, full of sound, fury, and bombast that only expose more with every utterance, the procrustean policies of the domestic policies of the present administration.

Nothing the Democratic party has done up till now will more alienate it from its members who had the misfortune to put their faith in a man who is nothing more than a politician and a demagogue.

WRHO Officers Installed in Burnam Hall

Patriotism Set As
Theme For Occasion

CANDLE SERVICE

The officers of the Sullivan Hall and Burnam Hall were installed on November 10, in an elaborate ceremony held in the lobby of Burnam Hall.

The program was planned with patriotism as its theme. Ann Scott Maher sang the "Star Spangled Banner" and "America, the Beautiful." Vivian Weber, past president of the Burnam Hall organization, explained in a short address to the women from both halls assembled there the primary functions of the organization. The devotion was presented by Nora Mason, and was followed by the singing of "God Bless America" by Betty Griffith.

The past presidents of the Burnam and Sullivan units, Vivian Weber and Emogene Lucas, respectively, gave to the incoming presidents, Susan Biesack and Dorothy Adams, their oaths of office. In the candlelight ceremony the newly installed heads accepted the oaths of their own supporting officers, House Council members, and members-at-large of the organization. When the candle of each girl was lighted, the group dissolved with the singing of Alma Mater.

President O'Donnell, Dr. Farris, and the women of the faculty and administrative staffs who reside in the dormitories were the guests of the evening.

This year's president of Burnam Hall expressed her wish that all will cooperative for a successful year for the Women's Residence Hall Organization.

Guardsmen To Sing In Chapel Thursday

"The Guardsmen," famous quartet whose rendition of old songs are revivals of the "gay nineties" style, are to appear in the chapel at Eastern on Thursday, November 27.

Twenty-three Schools Enter Drama Meet

Evening Performances
of Best Productions

DIME ADMISSION

B Groups Thursday;
B and A on Friday

SPECIAL AWARDS

Twenty-three schools have entered the eleventh annual high school dramatic festival sponsored by the Little Theatre Club and the faculty of Eastern to be held on the campus, Thursday and Friday, November 27 and 28.

EVENING PERFORMANCES
This year the class B schools will present their plays on the morning and afternoon of the first day and on the morning of the second day with the three best as selected by the judges on Thursday repeating their performances that evening, and the class A schools will perform on Friday afternoon with three of the plays being performed on Friday given that evening. Admission to all sessions of the plays, including the evening performances, will be ten cents.

An entrance fee of two dollars, paid by each school, covers the cost of meals for the cast and coach, make-up for the cast, general stage props, and lights for the plays.

The judges for the contest will be Miss Pearl Buchanan, head of the speech department, and Mr. Cyril Hager, director of the dramatic festival. At the close of each play, one of the judges will meet with the coach and the cast for the purpose of discussing the work of the performers.

AWARDS
A special trophy will be awarded to each cast rated "Exceptional" by the judges, and another trophy will be presented to each player rated that high during the contest.

Certificates of merit, either superior, excellent, or competent, depending on the ratings assigned by the judges, will be presented to each play, and an individual certificate of merit will be given each player rated "Superior" by the judges.

All awards, cast and individual, will be made known at the evening program, or, in the event of early departures, before the casts leave.

Heads Eastern High School Teams

ROY KING

Roy King, Former Eastern Athletic Star, Heads East High Grid Team

By JIM TODD

Roy King, former star Maroon tackle and head coach at Evarts High School, has been named by the coaches of the state as Head Coach of the All-East high school football team which will play the All-West team in the annual Shriner's charity football game in Lexington November 29.

The charity tilt, which is being held for the fourth consecutive year, is held by the Oleika Temple of Lexington to raise funds for the brace fund of the Shriners' Hospital for crippled children in Lexington.

Last year the East team won over the West 13 to 7. In the two years previous to last year the two teams fought to a deadlock, the scores being 0 to 0 and 7 to 7.

Coach King came to Eastern in 1934 from Hazel Green, where good basketball teams are perpetual. During his freshman year Coach Rome Rankin, who was just starting to build up his fine football teams of today, noticed Roy's size and adaptability. The fall of 1935 Roy played in the opening football game . . . the first he had ever seen!

During the remainder of his stay at Eastern he was a regular on both the football and the basketball teams and at one time or other was captain of both, and at the same time was an important cog in one of the best baseball teams the college has ever had to represent it.

King was Mr. Popularity during his senior year at Eastern, holding that title during 1937. Selected to help King on the coaching staff are three other outstanding coaches in Eastern Kentucky: Fayne Grone of Ashland, Cassius Hatcher of Pikeville, and Bain "Tiny" Jones of Mt. Sterling.

Poll Finds That Students Want College Men to Finish Education

BY STUDENT OPINION SURVEYS OF AMERICA

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 22—American student opinion maintains that college men should be allowed to complete their education before they are inducted into the army. Even if war should be declared and an expeditionary force sent out, Student Opinion Surveys of America discovers, nearly two-thirds of college men today say they would wait their turn in the draft rather than volunteer.

"Which of these statements most nearly expresses your view on the idea of deferring college students from the draft," interviewers asked a cross section of collegians in a poll taken cooperatively by college editors from Oregon to Florida. A panel of five answers was then presented to the interviewees. The statements follow, with the answers in percentages:

Defer them until their education is completed . . . 54%
Defer only those being trained in fields vital to defense—science, medicine . . . 24
Simply being a student is no grounds for deferment . . . 4
Make students subject to the draft between high school and college . . . 12
Something else . . . 5
Undecided . . . 1

Two weeks ago Student Opinion Surveys reported that at least half of U. S. college students were opposed to changing the neutrality law, that nearly eight out of every ten believed it was more important to supply the allies than to join the fight. This new sampling adds further evidence to the apparent fact that campus opinion has not reached interventionist stage! It is interesting to note that college women (57 per cent) are more eager than men (50 per cent) to have prospective draftees deferred until graduation. Most would wait.

Selecting a sample of college men in proportion to enrollments in the six geographical areas of the Census, the Surveys asked, "If the United States declared war and sent out an expeditionary force, would you volunteer or wait until you were drafted?" These were the results:

Would volunteer . . . 28%
Would wait for draft . . . 64
Undecided . . . 8
What students would actually do should the United States declare war, is of course a matter of speculation dependent on circumstances at the time. Neither are the above results to be interpreted as an indication that college men would stand idly by in case of a threatened invasion of this country.

Editor's Note: This survey is the first in a series which will appear in the Progress. The information is gathered from college campuses over the nation and is compiled by the Student Opinion Surveys of America, the college student's Gallup Poll.

Landslide Vote Puts Through $5.00 Fee

In one of the largest turnouts in the history of Eastern elections the student body voted through the Milestone flat fee of $5.00 for book, picture, and space on Wednesday, November 19, by a vote of 743 to 29.

Eighty percent of the students enrolled in the college participated in this election, held in the recreation room of the Student Union building, sponsored by the Milestone staff and supervised by the faculty.

Under this new plan, a flat fee of $5.00 will be paid at the business office when students register for the second semester. This fee will pay for space in the book, the book itself, and the individual pictures for the different classes.

Frank Flanagan, editor of the yearbook, announced after the votes had been counted that the staff would begin immediately on the makeup of the yearbook, which for the first time in the history of the publication will contain individual pictures of the whole student body.

FLANAGAN THANKFUL

Greatly gratified by the almost unanimous endorsement given the plan by the students, Flanagan said in appreciation, "I want to thank the student body for their splendid cooperation in this election. Speaking for myself and for the Milestone staff, I wish to say that we intend to publish a book that will be an asset to every student and one that each and every one of us will be proud of."

The yearbook editor also said that the making of the individual pictures of all students who plan to attend school second semester will start in the near future. The staff will notify all students as to when they will be expected to report to either the McGaughey or the Stanifer Studio for a sitting. The choice of the studio will rest entirely with the student.

CLUB POLICY

The club policy will be the same as last year with the exception that glossy pictures will be 25c apiece instead of 50c as in past years. There is also a possibility, said the editor, that the price of a page for clubs will be lower than last year.

With the adoption of the new policy, plans are being made by the staff for the new book which will be larger in every way than any other Milestone. The book will contain from 250 to 300 pages and will be 9 1/4 by 11 instead of 8 1/2 by 10 inches.

O'Donnell speaks To Eastern Group In Covington

Northern Kentucky,
Louisville, Ashland,
Letcher Clubs Select
New Officers for 1942

"A field of opportunity for other graduates of Eastern has been opened in this section through the splendid work and loyalty of members of the Northern Kentucky group," stated W. F. O'Donnell at a meeting of approximately one hundred members of the Northern Kentucky Club of the Eastern State Teachers College Alumni Association in Covington, Kentucky.

Superintendent Edgar Arnett of Erlanger presided over the luncheon that followed the meeting, and the election of officers for the following term was held. C. L. Acra was chosen president; Arthur Tipton, vice president; Miss Bessie White, corresponding secretary; Joe Hedges, secretary, and Oliver T. Wilson, treasurer.

LOUISVILLE CLUB
The Louisville Eastern Club held its first dinner meeting of the year at Canary Cottage in Louisville Friday evening, November 7. Officers elected were J. D. Turley, president; Miss Ann Stiglitz, vice president; Miss Katherine Holcomb, secretary; Miss Minnie Gibbs, treasurer.

ASHLAND CLUB
An Eastern Club for the Eastern Kentucky Education Association district was organized at Ashland on November 7 with Miss Olive Barrett, Freeburn, chosen president, and Miss Wilma Becknell, Ashland, secretary for the coming year.

LETCHER CLUB
The Letcher County Eastern Club held a luncheon meeting at Hazard in October during the meeting of the Upper Kentucky River Education Association. Chester Spears is president of the Eastern group; Ira Smith, vice president, and Miss Mary Elizabeth McAllister, secretary.

KYMA TO GIVE Football Boys
A Stag Dinner

December 6 Set As Date
For Big Affair Held
In the Main Diningroom

Kyma Club will sponsor a stag testimonial dinner for the football team on Tuesday, December 9, in the main dining room of the student union building.

This banquet, held in honor of Eastern's gridmen, coaches, and particularly the eight graduating seniors, will be served at 6:30 P. M. in the Keen Johnson Student Union Building by the girls of Kyma Club. Invitations have been sent out to Governor Johnson and party, Mr. McDonough, the faculty men, the football coaches, the four managers, the Kyma men, fifteen coaches who are former E men and are now coaching in the near-by vicinity, the six regents, the town ministers, the E men on the campus, and approximately twenty five townspeople.

Harold Hall, president of Kyma Club, will introduce the master of ceremonies, Mr. McDonough, head of the Physical Education Department of Eastern. Mr. McDonough, in turn, will introduce the guest speaker and also call on various others present to say a few words.

Invitations must be answered, stated Harold Hall, in order that Miss McIlvaine can plan how many to serve for the evening. Price of plates is printed on the invitations, and attendance is by invitation only. The Governor and his party, the guest speaker, and the football players will be guests of honor of the evening.

Martin's Ferry
Hears Rankin At Football Dinner

Rome Rankin, head football coach of Eastern, spoke at the Martin's Ferry Annual High School Football Banquet on Tuesday, November 18, at Martin's Ferry, Ohio.

Rankin was born and raised at Martin's Ferry, playing football there himself in his high school days. The Martin's Ferry team this year is mythical Hi Champ of Ohio, and so showed their former player a fine team.

Coach Returns to Speak
At His Alma Mater

Six hundred people attended this banquet. Coach Rankin was selected to speak in place of Paul Brown, Ohio State coach, who was originally scheduled but found it unable to come. Rankin follows in the footsteps of Rose Rosewell of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Bill Kern, Carnegie Tech coach, and Jock Sutherland, all of whom have been speaking at this banquet in the past years.

The event will be covered by the International News Service.

ROME RANKIN

A Voice Crying in the Wilderness

There is no student government at Eastern! The nearest approach is seen in the Men's Council that attempts to conduct the affairs of the men's dormitories. Under the leadership of Bill Barnett, it has become the most important single representative voice of the students on the campus. The only work of major importance that it has accomplished has been the settlement of the cafeteria situation. It is hard for the candid mind to think that this can truly be considered a victory for the student body, but, in a sense, it was, for it showed that students have enough interest to take action on matters concerning their own welfare. This is one of the basic principles of any democracy, however small.

The women's council has, from all appearances, been entirely unsuccessful, any attempts made by that group to better itself have been restrained effectively.

The individual classes are organized, but for what purposes, no one seems to know. The organizations as they stand now are entirely ineffectual. Their only virtues are that they foreshadow things to come, and they are the foundations for future class representation in any student government that should be founded.

In solution, let there be formed a committee on constitutional organization, whose duties it shall be to investigate and report on the need for, the desire for, and reasons for formation of a student government on this campus. The committee shall formulate some sort of workable constitution that shall be a clear and concise statement of the power and limitations of the student government to be set up.

When this has been done and at least the student of Eastern shall have collective and individual control of their own affairs, we may look forward to seeing on this campus an intellectual growth that can spring only from those freedoms that are the basis of the dignity of man.

THE STATE OF THINGS

by NATALIE MURRAY

BOIDS

Lexington has become infested with starlings. One sorority house especially has received over and above its quota of feathered friends. As one of the sisters put it, "Now we know ours is the best sorority at school. Why? Because fifty thousand birds can't be wrong!"

SHE'S OUT AGAIN

Sadie's out again. At Murray State Teachers College The Day was observed with all the trimmings. The students elected a Daisy Mae and Lil Abner and crowned them king and queen of Sadie Hawkins' Day.

THE THOROUGHBREDS

Another name could be the Old Gray Mare.

THE ARMY? THE NAVY?

Centre College women are peeved. They have recently been denied the right to travel alone except under unusual circumstances. That is, the school restricted their week-end visits with one explanation that it was unsafe for a woman to travel alone in a public vehicle because of the soldiers and sailors at large. The school paper editorially retorted that the same men rode trains and buses before they were drafted; therefore, does wearing a U. S. uniform make them social outcasts?

FAMILY PORTRAIT

Transy's Stagecrafters gave "Family Portrait" November 13 and 14.

U. OF L.

The University of Louisville student body is agitating for representation on the Faculty Council. The editorial page of the Cardinal quoted a member of the faculty as saying, "The methods of the dictators are nothing more than the methods of the American universities applied on a larger scale to a political machine."

REALISTIC JAIL DRAMA

U. of L. presented an all-girl drama, "Women's Ward," which had for a setting a jail. A feature writer on the Cardinal staff commented, discussing the play, "It is not surprising when you walk onto the stage and think you have stumbled into the Louisville hoosegow." Wonder why he's so familiar with aforementioned clink?

BUNDLES FOR BRITAIN

Appalachian State Teachers College, through its International Relations Club, is launching a Bundles for Britain drive. The same schools has added Pearson and Allen's "Washington Merry-Go-Round" to their school paper.

FROM CENTRE

"There goes the general with that buck private again." "Who is that lad—a millionaire's son of a band leader?" "Nope. He's the guy who's mother sends him a chocolate cake every Thursday."

COULD BE

From the Georgetownian comes these lines: Credit for the most novel idea of the week goes to roomies Margaret Lucas and Martha Martin. Their crowning decoration for the room is twin posters at the head of the beds reading "I owe Martha" and "I owe Margaret" respectively. It's full, but accurate.

TRANSLATION (FROM THE LATIN)

Verse
"O Sible, si ergo,
Fortibus es in ero
Nobile, deus trux
Vadis enim, causan dux."
Translated
"Oh, see Billy, see'er go—
Forty buses in a row,
No, Billy, dey is trucks,
Vot is em? Cows and ducks."

FROM THE APPALACHIAN

"Aha!" she cried as she wunk her glass eye: "It's been a dirty week!"

QUOTING THE RECORD . . .

AND WE AGREE
Tomorrow is Thanksgiving. No bombs drop from the skies over the United States. No night are spent in damp, underground shelters. No dictator keeps young Americans from dancing. Darkness does not shut out study. The sound of an airplane does not represent horror and death.

There is still laughter in America. There is still freedom of speech, of the press, of religions. America is the watchful guardian of the world's culture and learning. Let us be thankful that America stands whole—and stands ready.

RAVING

Once upon a day so dreary,
While I pondered, sad and weary,
Haunted by the memories of a
Million days before—
While I sat there, softly singing
Suddenly I heard a tingling,
No, a door bell loudly ringing,
"Ringing at my father's door."
"Tis some visitor," I murmured,
"Ringing at my father's door—
Only this and nothing more."

Ah, distinctly I recall,
It was in the early fall—
When we walked among the leaves
And talked of love, in days before
Though those days are gone forever
In my heart he'll leave me never,
Though he's lost and gone forever,
He's still my own Elmore.
Only mine forever more.

They said he would never leave me
But now, memories only grieve me—
When I think of moonlit lights
And lovely walks along the shore,
How was I to know the sorrow

Vive la Revolution

CLAMORAMA

November is election time and since all offices have candidates we of the Revolution herewith state our intention to "run for the city limits."

Here is our platform, the chief plank of which is the Bored of Education. Those on the ticket are Major Offense, General Nuisance, and Col. Consumption.

We have a slogan but the Hays' Office doesn't appreciate it. Our salute (taught to members only) is followed by three quick strides to the nearest door, window, or other means of egress, the speed dependent upon the other people in the room.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERS . . .
1—B able to make exit in absence of doors, windows, or anything else.

2—All members must wear union suits.
3—No member is allowed to dunk above the elbow; this is to insure the cultural value of the movement.

RESOLVED . . . (Aims and Purposes) . . .
1—Make city limits less limiting.
2—Take the bored out of education.

3—If we cannot accomplish the second we will make it a 36-hour day so we can do all that is expected of us . . . and otherwise.
4—Locate Thanksgiving, it seems to have been lost somewhere, and reserve suitable number of days for celebration of same.

Anyone wishing to pursue a study of the Revolution in its hatchery may enroll at Albino (Ab)normal Teachers College, but this institution requires a minimum of forty grade points each semester and as you can see, this requires an enormous amount of leaning. Pardon us, learning.

FACTS ABOUT ALBINO:

Enrollment . . . 240 souls, 32 heels.
Head of Aesthetics Dept. Art Gumm.
Dean of Men . . . Bobby Pin.
Discipline Committee (of Head). Ruth Less.
Physician . . . Dr. Esau Bones.
Cafeteria Director . . . Caffee Hag.
Knight Watchman . . . Old Joe.
Assistant . . . noniyyer bismuth.
Campus Queen . . . Virginia Dare.

POLICIES:

1—Any student caught coming in before 2 a. m. will be severely punished.
2—All members of the faculty must laugh at students' jokes and not at the students.

Reporter Finds Young Collegians Fast on the Way to Lasting Success

Yes, the orchestra this year is definitely in the groove and they haven't begun to hit their stride yet. It takes long arduous hours of gruelling practice to make an orchestra sound smooth . . . to make their sound as a smooth integrated whole, and that is what this orchestra is working toward. Under the dynamic leadership of George Hicks, this year's orchestra is not going to be satisfied with just sounding "good;" it is not going to be satisfied with being just an ordinary run-of-the-mill college orchestra; it is working toward bigger goals.

George says the policy of the band this year is going to be "smooth, sophisticated music and an entertaining evening." He plans to present something new, like skits and novelty numbers at every dance. There will definitely be no gut-bucket jive.

The personnel of the orchestra consists of some experienced and capable musicians. All of them have had previous experience in other orchestras and bands. George is especially proud of his brass section. His two Roys complement each other; Roy Russell, whom most of you probably heard, playing the hot licks, and Roy Dawn, who plays as sweet as you have ever heard, make up the trumpet section; playing the slip-horn and crooning a mean tune comes all bound up in the person of Delmas Flanery.

Then on the drums there is Joe Owens, who started early in life by kicking the slats of his cradle when he heard a bit of music. Joe has years of experience; listen for him.

Jack Walker, Jack Parrish, Russell Bridges, and Scotty Hudson from State, make up the sax section. Scotty can really ride that saxophone one moment and as suddenly change over to sweet. Lillard Luttrell tickles those keys to death and George himself slaps the bass.

They have a library of around two hundred tunes, both old and new favorites. There is of course the classical "Stardust," and new tunes on the hit parade like "Chattanooga Cho-Choo," just to mention two.

I really think we should be proud of having such an up and coming orchestra on our campus, and I say, "More power to you."

That would come with each tomorrow.

And the happiness you borrow Is a ghost to be remembered Of the Bebonair Elmore— Only this and nothing more.

As the door bell kept on ringing, I kept singing, louder singing, Surely mother or the maid would see

Who waited at our door. Suddenly I started thinking, Sat the coke that I was drinking On the table in an inkling, And ran over to the door. As it opened I stood staring, Simply rooted to the floor.

All I uttered was—"Elmore!"

For five years now we have tarried Yes, of course, I'm happily married—

And the children keep me busy Picking things up off the floor. But, of course, I never mind it. 'Cause in happiness I find it is The little things of life that make Me love life more and more— And I'm awfully happy now, Because, you see— I got Elmore!!

TSK! TSK! DEPT.
We probably received this tip before any other member of the Progress staff but we don't believe we'll get any credit for it. Anyway it's a case of "third finger, left hand" for Belle Gish and Howard Hundemert. They probably became a twosome yesterday (Fri. 21st).

Note to Jack Faries: If we had said 75c, would you have made it 50c?

Note to Connie Trusty: The trivial remark that you went to such lengths to "personally" remove from this column last week was not news. By doing so, you simply made a poor column a little better. Thanks. . . .

Louie Gerow would have saved money by going to school at State. He spends every weekend there anyway.

Jim Logsdon and Hattie Nesbitt—a record breaking duo.

"Smooch" Parsons, tearing her hair (and it might help) because she hasn't heard from Bob Horelander recently!

Note to M. F.: Those big brown eyes are still "on the ball." Incidentally, who cares?

Kitty Burnam's "Coffee Royal" trick never fails to amaze the yokel talent.

Ask Helen Horelander (speaking of tricks) to show you the one that's done with a scarf. It's a killer!!

. . . So Buddy Fitzpatrick met J. T. at a small town near Prestonsburg and told her that a certain person was engaged! (Continued next issue.)

We personally hope that there is no doubt as to when Fred Darling and Cliff Tinnell graduate. They go steady you know.

AS WE HEAR IT DEPT.

Rumor has it that Eastern's football season may not be over. It seems that there is a ball game played at El Paso, Texas, on New York's Day and we may. . . .

The Men's Dormitory Council will in all probability break into the social upper crust by tossing (get this) a Faculty tea. Feature, if you, can Bill Barnett and Bob Yeager pouring the orange Pekoe. . . . my, my, fellers!

This column may be long or it may be short. It depends entirely upon the gods of chance and how many people have an opportunity to read the proof. However, since we've always considered it a good policy to stay out of Hot Spots we believe it best that we stop here. See you next issue . . . we imagine.

HOT SPOTS Morehead Bouquet

by HELEN ASHCRAFT

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

We hand it to Morehead for the best hospitality of the season. Even though they were getting the worst licking of their lives, there was no griping, no fighting (as those of you who saw last year's game here may remember) and all in all, they were the perfect hosts. Their band played our Alma Mater and school song in Eastern's honor. Some of the girls even went so far as to take the Eastern girls through their dormitory. This was certainly some comparison with Western where, every time Eastern made a touchdown, we were nearly thrown from the stadium. This may also be compared with the hospitality we showed Morehead here last year. We have manners . . . we just need to use them.

OH BOY!

Here it is Thanksgiving. And we have one day sans classes to be thankful for. I admire the courage of those of you who ride on a bus home and back (remember, all in the same day) for a home cooked turkey, and dressing, and cranberries, and pumpkin pie, and, oh heavens, this is killing me. Well, anyway, you who are lucky enough to see the home fires burning, think about the rest of us trudging over to the cafeteria or to Cousin Jo's for variety. Maybe the people who decided this one-day Thanksgiving stuff thought we were old enough to eat our Thanksgiving dinner away from home. Maybe.

OUR LOSS

It seems like Eastern always loses the persons who are liked best. This time it is Alice Burke, who will be missed terribly by a lot of people besides boy-friend, Paul Houchell. Alice Grey was one of the most popular and best all around girls on the campus and her place will be waiting for her whenever she can come back.

HERE IT IS

From now on, this column will have absolutely no slams about Mac Starkey, our friend, in it. He is a fine boy and what an addition to Eastern. . . . (We hope you're reading this, Starkey). Buster Maggard and Ann Gately are being seen more and more frequently together. . . . Dick Allen and Flo Crook just simply love to walk, or at least, that is what we've heard. . . . Tom Combs has resigned from the Dateless Wonder Club in honor of Jayne Jones. . . . That leaves Ben Sanders holding the club's offices by himself. . . . Don't quote me, but there is a rumor that Bill Sullivan's heart really isn't on this campus. . . . Horiander and Garrett are the most patriotic girls here. . . . Anyway, they really love their country's defenders. This weekend saw a happy crowd in Prestonsburg as the guests of Buddy Fitzpatrick. . . . It also saw a happy crowd in Cincinnati at the St. X. Military Ball. . . . The ROTC boys made a wonderful cheering section at Morehead. . . . They should be en masse at all the games. . . . Jack Holt and Emogene Lucas have been having their little ups and downs but they seem to be getting along nicely now. Just ask Mae Fawbush if she ever had a grander weekend than the last one. . . . Walter Kleinstuber is now going under the name of "Swoop." . . . It must have been something about the St. X. dance. . . . Cotton Bowling and Roy Kidd have turned grey right in front of our eyes. . . . By the way, Cotton and Alice Kopenhoefer really make a cute couple. Ann Allen is out of this world these days. . . . The reason is blonde and blue eyed and lives in her own home town.

A Western Trophy

This year's game between Western and Eastern was one of the best of the 1941 college football season. Every moment of it was packed with thrills and good play. The spectators of both sides thoroughly enjoyed the contest, some laughing, some crying at the outcome.

The thought occurred to us, why not make this a yearly event and set up some sort of a trophy to be presented to the winning team each year. Eastern and Western always draw a good crowd and play a good game. This would add to the spirit of the occasion and set up a traditional emblem to be fought for.

We would like to see Western on Eastern's schedule every year; we would like to see a trophy purchased by both schools and given to the winner each season. We hope our wishes are realized

All Mice; No Music

There will be no cooperative concerts this year. Why? The answer is quite simple. There were not enough people who were interested in good music to continue them. What a drastic state of affairs.

We hesitate to place the blame for such stupidity on any one group of people. However, we did notice that the students themselves attended the concerts in large numbers. We cannot speak as well for the faculty and townspeople.

Music is good for the soul. We need souls now. We need good music. All of us can't go to Lexington and Cincinnati to the better programs; Richmond is too small to bring them here unless we all stand united to support them. Something ought to be done to give this college town the right musical opportunities this winter

Victory Over Morehead Assures Eastern of Having Best Kentucky Football Record

Bert Smith Takes Top State Honors For Most Scoring

Playing one of their best games of the season, the Big Maroons of Eastern defeated the Morehead Eagles, 33-13, and ended the season with a record of seven wins and one loss to clinch the KMAC championship against all opposition for the second straight year.

Morehead, by virtue of her "hard felt" defeat, dropped to sixth place along with Centre and Transy. Centre was outclassed by Georgia, and Transy remained idle along with Georgetown who retained second place.

Murray made the biggest jump by turning back the Middle Tennessee Teachers 34-6 to take over third place from Western and Louisville who were defeated by Howard College and Vanderbilt.

This week's games will have no effect on the leader as Eastern is the champ. All of the teams have finished their schedules except Georgetown who plays Transy on Thanksgiving, and Murray who meets Western in their annual grudge battle. The outcome of games will determine the runner-up to Eastern as well as determine the final standings of the KMAC conference itself.

The standings against all opposition:

Team	W.	L.	Pts.	O.P.	Pct.
Eastern	7	1	206	47	.875
Georgetown	7	1	79	152	.714
Murray	4	3	135	86	.671
Louisville	4	4	137	128	.500
Western	4	5	128	162	.444
Morehead	3	4	169	75	.328
Centre	3	4	113	149	.428
Transy	3	4	107	132	.428

During a successful season of seven wins and one loss, the Eastern offensive machine amassed a total of 206 points to lead the state teams in points scored against all opposition.

This year the honor of state scoring champion goes to Bert Smith who scored a total of 11 touchdowns for 66 points. Following Smith closely was Chuck Schuster, the highest scorer in the state last year, whose season's total amounted to 60 points through 7 touchdowns and 18 extra points. Chuck finishing second to Smith also finished second in the state for the season.

Points and scorers are:

	T.D.	E.P.	T.P.
Smith	11	0	66
Schuster	7	18	61
Siphers	5	1	31
Neal	3	0	18
Bennedett	2	0	12
Flanagan	1	0	6
Rasnick	1	0	6
Melcarek	1	0	6

ILLINOIS SMOTHERED BY MAROONS

Eastern Seniors Play Last Contest In Hanger Stadium

GOOD BLOCKING

In their last home game of the 1941 season, the Big Reds rang up their highest total of the year in defeating the Illinois Normal Red Birds, 54-0, in a game featured by the playing of the seniors and the substitutes.

On the third play from scrimmage for Eastern, Joe Bill Siphers broke loose through tackle for 74 yards to start the scoring machine rolling and from that time on the outcome seemed determined.

It was a touchdown parade for the Maroons. Bert Smith accomplished the feat of scoring four touchdowns to lead the parade, and Chuck Schuster kicked five straight extra points before a miss.

Eastern counted in every quarter and climaxed the scoring with 19 points in the fourth being led by Bob Neal who scored two and Melcarek, a freshman who scored the first touchdown of his college career. He tugged the ball over after passing about 45 yards to Schuster on one of the best plays of the game.

It was a brilliant farewell by all the seniors each of whom played their usual outstanding and dependable game. Pointing for Morehead, Coach Rankin substituted freely and thus enabled his veterans to get some rest as well as give to the subs a little experience.

The blocking of the linemen seemed to work to a perfection and enabled the backs to break away for long gains. Many of the fans left the stadium wondering how such a great team could have suffered defeat.

Kyma Orders Sweaters

Kyma Club recently placed an order through the Physical Education Department for 16 sweaters to be presented upon their arrival to last year's new members.

Each sweater will have on it Kyma's emblem and will proffer to him the responsibilities and privileges of a Kyma member.

Eastern's Managers

These are the boys that do the menial things for the team and have done a great deal to help our boys keep in the win column.

Eastern Takes Eagles Easily

Hawg Rifle Kept By 32-13 Score

Before a crowd expecting a close and hard-fought game, the Eastern Maroons smashed over the Eagles of Morehead with ease by a score of 31-13 and assured Eastern of at least another year's possession of the "hawk rifle."

Morehead threatened soon after the opening whistle, Smith fumbling for Eastern and Van Hoose recovering for Morehead on Eastern's 19. After one first down for the Eagles, the Big Red line stopped the drive on the two-yard line.

The Maroons then saged one of the greatest drives of the day when they took the ball on their own 20 and smashed 80 yards for a touchdown, Siphers taking a short pass from Smith to go over. Schuster's extra point try was wide.

In the second period, Bert Smith broke loose in a sensational dash off tackle and ran 75 yards for a score. Schuster converted successfully.

The Maroons scored again when Schuster picked up a blocked Morehead punt and ran 28 yards for the tally.

In the second half Smith took a Morehead punt on the Eagles 38 and ran through the entire field for the fourth touchdown. Schuster missed the extra point try.

Siphers passed to Eastern's great end, Schuster, for 39 yards and another score near the end of the third quarter. The kick for the extra point was good.

In the final quarter, Morehead battled successfully against second-stringers and made two touchdowns.

Bert Smith was a thorn in Morehead's side all afternoon, breaking loose time and again for big gains. He was little short of sensational in his long runs.

Chuck Schuster, high-scoring Eastern end, closed his gridiron career in a splendid manner, while another little workhorse, Cliff Tinnell, guard, ended up in his typical fighting manner.

Fred Darling, hampered by an injury, was through the Morehead line often to break up Eagle plays.

Kenneth Perry, senior guard, received a broken leg in the rough battle, but not before he had done his share of the playing.

Ralph Darling played his great, consistent ball at tackle, doing his part as well as ever.

Frank Flanagan, a senior reserve back, was in the game for but a short time as he received an injury and was forced out of the battle.

The lineups and summary:

Morehead (13)	(32) Eastern
Caudill	LE.....Schuster
Smith	LT.....R. Darling
Walters	LG.....Perry
Adams	C.....Haas
Zachem	RG.....Tinnell
Gandolfi	RT.....F. Darling
Van Hoose	RE.....Maggard
Justice	QB.....Keuhn
Workman	LH.....Siphers
Howerton	RH.....Smith
Salvato	FB.....Bennedett

Score by periods:

Morehead	0	0	0	13-13
Eastern	6	13	13	0-32

Eastern scoring: Touchdowns—Schuster 2, Smith 2, Siphers. Points after touchdown—Schuster 2 (placements).

Morehead scoring: Touchdowns—Caudill and Workman. Point after touchdown—Zachem (placement).

Intramural Basketball Tourney Begins Monday

Monday afternoon, November 24, will mark the beginning of this year's Intramural Basketball Tournament for the men students at Eastern.

All week rules have been posted and this morning entries were made and the teams paired by counties and states for the tournament.

Every year this tourney creates a lot of interest and competitive spirit among the entries which are made. It is a means by which men who played basketball in high school and who aren't college material can continue to have the fun of tournament competition. Varsity men or last year's freshman lettermen are not eligible.

Provided as many as six teams enter, the entries will be divided into two leagues and the winners of the leagues will meet each other in a series of three games to decide the winner. Last year's championship battle was played as a preliminary to one of the varsity games and was a well played game.

Align yourself with a team and provide yourself with a good bit of exercise and help make this year's tournament a success.

Perry Suffers Broken Leg In Morehead Game

Kenneth Perry, Eastern's star guard, who played his last college football game against Morehead last Saturday, suffered a broken leg during the second period of the game.

Perry, who said that he had played football for eight years without suffering an injury until he broke his hand about six weeks ago, is convalescing on the campus.

NEWSOME-BARTLEY

The wedding of Miss Clara Marie Newsome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Newsome of Biscuit, and Mr. George Patton Bartley, son of Mrs. G. C. Ratliff of Pikeville, was solemnized on May 19, 1941, at Kingsport, Tennessee.

Mrs. Bartley is a former student of Eastern Teachers College. Mr. Bartley attended Pikeville Junior College. The couple are now making their home in Detroit, Michigan.

BOWLING-LUCAS

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Bowling of Harlan announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Cecile, to Mr. Arthur Lucas of Baltimore, Maryland.

Miss Bowling has just finished her work at Eastern where she has been active in campus activities. Mr. Lucas, formerly of Beattyville, Ky., also attended Eastern Teachers College.

TREMAYNE-BROWN

Lieutenant Richard Lee Brown, who was graduated from Eastern in 1940, was married to Miss Elizabeth Tremayne of Shreveport, La., November 3. The wedding took place at the bride's home in Shreveport.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Brown left immediately after the ceremony for Stockton, California, where Lieutenant Brown is stationed.

Fred Marcum, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Marcum of Manchester, Ky., a former student of Eastern Teachers College is now at the Oklahoma Air College, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he has started Army Aviation Cadet primary pilot training.

Following the Morehead game, LeMonne Miller, Martha Jane Thompson, Flo Cook, Neva Cooper, Dick Allen, Bud Petty and Bill Sullivan visited in Prestonsburg at the home of Buddy Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. Harry Blanton and Ethel were visitors in Richmond over the week-end.

Cleo McGuire and Betty Herr spent the week-end in Grayson, Ky., after attending the Morehead game.

Harlan Club Elects Farley As President

Harlan County Club, with Dr. Kennamer as its sponsor, claims the seventy-one students from Harlan County as its members.

At its first meeting of the year, the following officers were elected: Gene Clark Farley, a senior from Tway, was chosen as president of the club; Rodney Whitaker, of Cumberland, a junior, was named vice president; Helen Louellen, a junior from Harlan City, was elected secretary, and Theda Dunavent, senior, of Loyall, was chosen treasurer. Fostenis Vanover, a junior from Evarts, was made club reporter.

Recently the Harlan County Club was selected by Dr. W. C. Jones to be the first of a series of clubs to sponsor the weekly Thursday evening teas in Walnut Hall. A large number of students and faculty members were present during the evening and were entertained by the pianist, Dr. F. P. Giles.

The president announced that there would be no meeting of the club on November 20 because the meeting was postponed until December 3.

Samuels Elected Head of 4-H Club

Purpose of Group To Unite Former Members on Campus

At their third meeting, held in the little gym Wednesday, October 29, the Eastern 4-H Club elected Mary Samuels as their first president.

A social club, the new organization's chief objective will be to bring former 4-H Club members together at Eastern. Miss Gertrude Hood of the Physical Education Department will serve as sponsor, with Maurice Drake, assistant county agent, Mr. J. Lester Miller, county agent, and Mrs. Robert Collis, home demonstration agent, as ex-officio members.

Other officers elected at the meeting were Virginia Bowles, vice president; Wilma Chestnut, secretary; Bob Grant, sergeant-at-arms, and Bobbie Bush and Jim Crowe as publicity managers.

The plans for the club at the present are rather indefinite, according to members, but it hopes to meet in the little gym where folk games will be played. It also has extended an invitation to the University of Kentucky club to assist in the installation of officers at the next meeting.
