Gals' Sociology Classes Hear Males' Panel Talk

By PAT WERT

What's your opinion on boy girl relations? Do you think it's wise to go steady? Should a girl drink or smoke? What about this problem of petting? Is it wise to marry while in school? These questions and others were discussed by a group of the male sex on a panel discussion Friday, January 12, before one of Mrs. Case's special sociology classes.

Each boy had his topic to discuss and after the discussion was over, the panel was opened for questions by the class.

Joe Rich, Dry Ridge junior, had the job of controlling and guiding the discussion. The other boys were Keith Wiggins, Covington sophomore; Lou Daniels, Portsmouth, Ohio sophomore; Carl Martin, Pineville senior; Jim Dudding, Ironton, Ohio, junior; Louis Manning, Lynch senior; Bill Strong, Hazard junior; Jim Ruschell, Silver Grove junior, and Ed Lewicki, Yancy senior.

According to these boys, certain things are expected from the fairer sex.

Let's start with dress. Boys like their girls to dress for the occasion. A skirt and sweater are fine for the show or down town; but they'd like for you to change from your afternoon outfit. Another thing, never overdress for class or anywhere else for that matter.

As for drinking and smoking—some say definitely no and others say it's all right in its place. Smoke when sitting around in your room, but not while walking down the street.

On a date, "don't talk about another boy" seemed to be the main thing. As for going steady, they seemed to think if you were just starting in college it's wiser to get a good look at them all. Then if you find one you like, go steady if you want but be sure both of you understand what going steady means to the other. That is, just to have a date and enjoy the company or whether it's serious.

Now is it wis to marry while in school? Jim Ruschell, the married man on the discussion, listed himself as an example. Before marrying he was on probation, but after marrying he got 104 grade points in two semesters. It was also pointed out on this topic that good looks soon lose their appeal after marriage if the girl doesn't have other qualities.

This is just a brief summary, but to sum it all up, girls, boys like their girls to use moderation in everything.

Besides this discussion by our students, the girls themselves have had panels on these topics, plus getting along with their roommates, families, religion, dating, and the like. Also they heard a discussion on engagement and marriage last Monday evening, January 15. Dr. J. W. Gladden of U. K., Reverend W. E. Poore, pastor of the First Methodist church, recently spoke on the place of religion in education. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gary of Hopkinsville, and Gwendolyn Combes, Hazard freshman, also spoke.

In the past they heard Dr. John Romph, Lexington psychiatrist, speak on mental hygiene. Dr. Catherine Owens, Lexington physician, spoke in connection with the unit of study on marriage.

THINE MARCHES ON

January brings the brand new year, Semester ends, exams are here. If next semester's enrollment falls,

It's because the draft snatched all our males.

February lets up on strife. It brings to Eastern new pep in life.

For February's biggest thrill We all get down in Louisville. Then bravely into March we go, And like the wind we like to blow.

But over this we can't dismay For Spring's vacation is on its way.

April finds males within close reach Of spy glasses to view Burnam Beach.

With May another semester ends And the same routine again begins.

ROTC Elects Corps Sponsors

The ROTC Cadet Corps has elected seven Eastern co-eds as sponsors. Miss Rachel Johnson, Vanceburg senior, has been elected regimental sponsor.

Other sponsors and their designations are:

The thirteenth annual Military Ball at Walnut Hall Friday evening, the 9th of March, will feature Jimmy Featherstone and his orchestra from Chicago.

The orchestra itself will feature Miss Peggy Murdoch, vocalist, and Al Carter, drummer.

The Featherstone orchestra, whose most famous Tower record was "The Yo Yo Song" has had outstanding engagements at the Club Madrid in Louisville, the Plantation Club in Nashville, the O'Henry Ballroom, the Melody Mill Ballroom and the Bismark Hotel in Chicago and also at hotels and ballrooms in Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Memphis and Kansas City.

Medical Schools List May Exam

Candidates for admission to medical school in the fall of 1952 are advised to take the Medical College Admission Test in May, it was announced today by Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the test for the Association of American Medical Colleges. These tests required of applicants by a number of leading medical colleges throughout the country will be given twice during the current calendar year. Candidates taking the May test, however, will be able to furnish scores to institutions in early fall, when many medical colleges begin the selection of their next entering class.

Candidates may take the MCAT on Saturday, May 12, 1951, or on Monday, November 5, 1951, at administrations to be held at more than 300 local centers in all parts of the country. The Association of American Medical Colleges recommends that candidates for admission to classes starting in the fall of 1952 take the May test.

The MCAT consist of tests of general scholastic ability, a test on understanding of modern society, and an achievement test in science. According to ETS, no special preparation other than a review of science subjects is necessary. All questions are of the objective type.

Application forms and a bulletin of information, which gives details of registration and administration, as well as sample questions, are available from pre-medical advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Completed applications must reach the ETS office by April 28 and October 22, respectively, for the May 12 and November 5 administrations.

KAPPA PI INITIATION

Alpha Alpha Psi Chapter of Kappa Pi, honorary Art Fraternity, has set Thursday, February 8, as the date for its initiation ceremony. All new members of the organization will be initiated at this meeting, scheduled for 8:00 p. m. in Room 202, Student Union Building.

By LAURA ELLIS

The votes have been counted and the honor offices have been given for the 1950-51 school year. Before the Christmas vacation began the student body of Eastern elected Joan Evans as Miss Eastern and "Duke" Faulkner and Marilyn Ward as Mr. and Miss Popularity respectively.

Miss Eastern is chosen on the basis of beauty, poise and charm as her main qualifications along with such characteristics as leadership, scholarship and personality. Joan Evans, according to the students of Eastern, was well able to fill these qualifications. Joan is a Home Ec major and just think, fellas, she is not only beautiful, but she can also cook. Can such a combination be beaten? Joan is a native of Barbourville, Ky. She is a mighty pretty girl with that naturally curly hair and those big gray eyes. Our Miss Eastern, who is a junior this year, represented the Home Ec Club in the 1949-50 Homecoming parade. She has attained the highest honor which can be given a woman student at Eastern. She will represent Eastern at the Mountain Laurel Festival held annually at Pineville.

Popular Duke

"Duke" Faulkner, who is much better known to all Easternites by the name of "Duke" rather than by his real name of Herman, is the popular (how else can I describe him?) Mr. Popularity of 1950-51. Both Mr. and Miss Popularity are chosen on their traits of personality above all. Mr. Popularity is the highest honor which can be given to a male student of Eastern. "Duke" is a graduate of Holmes High School of Covington in the class of '45. He has blonde hair and hazel eyes. He has a frame of 160 pounds and 5:11 of height. "Duke" is a Commerce major and is a member of Pi Omega Pi and Sigma Tau Pi, the Commerce clubs on the campus. When asked about hobbies, his answer was quote: "I sleep, eat, and breathe tennis," unquote. Something tells me he likes that sport. He says that he has two standbys which help him through the day. These are cigarettes and coffee. What could any of us do without them? "Duke" doesn't seem to have much to do with the girls around here. What do you say, Mr. Popularity, how about giving some girl a break? Congratulations to a swell senior guy from the Progress and School on becoming the one and only Mr. Popularity 1950-51.

Miss Popularity

I don't think Miss Popularity needs much introduction to you. In case you haven't heard, she is cute twenty-two year old Marilyn Ward from Harlan, Ky. She is 5:4½ and weighs 113. Because of her figure and poise she was selected as "Miss Posture" last year in a contest sponsored by WRA. This little blonde is an Elementary Education major. Her first two years of college were spent at Fort Hoys, Kansas State College. She came to Eastern as a junior in the fall of '49. She is president of the Modern Dance Club and was their representative for Homecoming Queen this year. She is also vice-president of the Junior Class and is a member of the Harlan County Club. When asked about hobbies she said she likes to write short stories but just can't seem to find the time around this busy place. She also likes to read novels, especially those of the "old South." You can always find her at basketball and football games. She is really a true Eastern fan. Congratulations, Marilyn, you deserved it!

New Semester Coming Up

By CLYDE WHITE

In a few days the most dreaded part of every semester will be upon us. Yes, head for the hills, podner, the exams are coming! Special sympathy is to be given to the Freshmen, who have no idea on the many different exam techniques used by the instructors. Well, anyway, we must face it, even though many will probably wish for the pleasant atmosphere of Korea instead of the hectic examosphere which will be prevailing here at Eastern, at least for a few days.

Now for a pleasant thought. The first semester closes at 5:00 p. m. on Thursday, January 25. The sad fate of many will be decided when the final grades will be sent to the Registrar.

Anyone having the nerve to learn his grades may do so after 12:00 noon on Friday, January 26. A four-day pause will follow this great shock, before we start unfolding a new semester. Freshmen Registration for the Spring Semester will be from 8:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, Tuesday, January 30. Sophomores will register from 1:00 to 4:00 p. m., Tuesday, January 30. The Juniors and Seniors will register from 8:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, Wednesday, January 31. Late registration for all classifications will be held from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m., Wednesday, January 31.

Eastern's Mozart Returns From "Holiday" Jaunt

By PAT WERT

Mozart is back! After an exciting and trying Christmas vacation Mozart, the "campus cat," returned with Parks Rymer, his vacation-time custodian.

Of course I'm sure you all have heard about the disappearance of Mozart but I doubt if you've heard the whole story. Unable to have any one take care of him here during Christmas vacation, Evelyn Parks Rymer volunteered to take him to her home in Louisville, by train. (Incidentally this trip as far as anyone knows was Mozart's first train ride.)

In Louisville, Mozart was extremely homesick, refusing to eat his food for three days. Coaxing, hand feeding, and even the introduction of a friendly pekinese, Booper, offered no consolation. Finally, however, some friends were invited over and after that Mozart perked up. He was taken for strolls and properly fed with vitamins and the like. Everything was fine until Christmas Eve when he jumped the back fence and disappeared.

Parks Rymer upon discovering Mozart's disappearance conducted a long search to no avail. Distressed she called the Courier Journal. She told them she was afraid she would end in Mozart's doghouse if she returned to school without him, and asked what could be done. The Courier said it would help all it could. Meanwhile Mozart went strolling on his own and was found on a golf course by a man. The unidentified man took him home and fed him, and then took him to the Police Station. What a way for Mozart to spend Christmas Eve!—half the night in a Police Station! Then—since the Dog Pound was closed—he was taken to Mrs. Verhoff's, the founder of the Animal Rescue League, where she spent part of Christmas morning.

Finally at 7:30 that morning Parks Rymer came to get him after she had been notified by the man and the police of his whereabouts. From then on no more chances were taken. Mozart was allowed out only on a leash until his return to Richmond by car.

Mozart was an extremely happy dog on his return to Richmond, but also a very tired dog. Wednesday he cut all his classes but English to strut around proudly, pleased with all the publicity he had given Eastern. Thursday and Friday he did a little better. However, with a free weekend to rest up, regular attendance is now in order.

Milestone Staff At Work

By ELIZABETH DIEHL

Approximately fifty per cent of the work on the Milestone has been completed, according to Eleanor McConnell, Milestone editor. The material completed will be sent to the engraver Monday, January 22. The final deadline for all copy to be at the printer's is March 18.

Trying to extract the theme of this year's Milestone was useless; Miss McConnell and the Milestone staff have kept the theme closely guarded so that the cover and theme will be a surprise to the students. The cover, however, will retain the school colors, Maroon and White.

Scheduled to be given out to students on May 18, this year's Milestone will contain approximately 200 pages.

Students who registered in September have paid for the Milestone in their tuition expenses; incoming students will be able to buy the Milestone if they desire, for over 1,400 copies will be printed. Faculty members may also purchase the yearbook. The Milestone is sold at $6.50 a copy.

Mobilization Felt Here

By TOMMY SMITH

Students of Eastern are beginning to feel the ever pressing "draft." According to Mr. Melvin E. Mattox, Registrar, a number of male students have withdrawn from the college and have enlisted in the armed services.

Mr. Mattox yesterday said: "Many men have enlisted in order to obtain their choice of service rather than await draft notices." The office of the Registrar reveals that about 60 students have withdrawn since January 3, and that 15 students have been accepted in service. The remaining 45 students are trying to get in the service of their choice.

Students who enter after having attended 75 per cent of the semester are entitled to credit by the following rule:

"Students who volunteer for service in the armed forces of the United States and students who are called for service in the armed forces of the United States under the provisions of the Selective Service Act, will be given credit provided the following conditions are met:

1. The student must present to the Registrar's office satisfactory evidence that he has been accepted and ordered to report to duty.

2. The student must have been in regular attendance for at least 75 per cent of the term or semester.

3. The student must be making passing grades in the courses for which credit will be given.

"Final examinations will be required in all courses in which the student has a standing of 'D,' but the student will not be required to take final examinations in courses in which his standing is 'C' or higher. Examination dates will be set by the Dean's office, and members of the faculty will be given advance notice of such examinations. A student may elect to drop, without credit, courses in which his standing is 'D' or lower at the time of his withdrawal."

Progress Polls "Going Steady"

By ELIZABETH DIEHL

In our most recent Gallop (you spell that with an "O," fellow Easterner) Poll on "Is Going Steady Wise?" the following students were quite "hep" on the subject:

Karl Kepler, Covington junior: "Going steady is unwise because kids on campus see too much of each other without going steady—but there's nothing else to do."

Margie Graden, Silver Grove freshman: "It is wise if the student is emotionally mature and fully aware of the responsibilities of going steady."

Laquata Walters, Harlan junior: "At Eastern it is the wisest thing for students to go steady as a few dates with a boy stamps you as his private property. Thereafter, every other boy keeps 'hands off.'"

James Rankin, Covington senior: "I think going steady on the campus is unwise, because it limits dating strictly to the campus, and eliminates all dating at home or otherwise."

BASKETBALL QUEEN CANDIDATES—These five lassies are currently competing for the title of Eastern's "Queen of Basketball" in a contest sponsored by the Varsity E Club. By ARGUS

Wedding bells and engagement rings seemed to have been quite the fad during Christmas vacation, so congratulations to all. And, by the way, we can all breathe a sigh of relief since our couple who eloped, Doris Lane and Paul Wilson, have returned.

Argus understands that Sociology Class had quite an interesting and surprising discussion the other day. The surprise was Jim Duding. With ideals like that, Jim, isn't it about time that you got your wings up out of the dust and brushed them off. Argus is on the trail of the girl that shattered Moose's manly ego by kissing him with her eyes open.

One of our basketball players has a growing fan club, and I understand that Katherine Slatery has joined the ranks of "Baechtold's Babes."

I would like to inform Paul Stratton that since the addition of his new Ford his chances of becoming number one man of Eastern's campus have greatly improved. So why switch to U. K.?

Looks like Frank Leahy had better take a course in Salesmanship so that he can present a more persuasive argument to Begley's Manager the next time he wants to date their clerk on company time.

Congratulations to Papa and Mama Bond on their new arrival, little Joe.

Can't you see Margy Gover at the ripe old age of 80 still trying to decide whether to marry Buddy Street or Jerry Johns. Better be careful, honey, they may both decide to become confirmed bachelors.

Sadie Hawkins Day is over but I understand Shirley LeFevers finally caught Nick Tsangos. But from the looks of things Nick got his second wind.

For any of you females who have been wanting to go away to a girls' school, just stick around for, if the draft keeps up, you won't have to leave to fulfill your ambition.

FLASH: For you girls looking for the perfect man, we now have one available—Nick Semak.

The students really did a fine job when they elected Joan Evans, Duke Faulkner, and Marilyn Ward as Miss Eastern, Mr. Popularity, and Miss Popularity, from such an imposing list of candidates.

And as usual after Christmas vacation, the out-of-town girls are wondering who took care of the Basketball Team while they were away. And while we're on the subject of basketball, it seems like Ann Gover just can't leave those basketball players alone. Now it is —! What does Speedy have to say about this, Ann?

Jackie Ritter and Jim Dudding really seemed to be enjoying themselves as they danced from the campus to town. The plaid umbrella they carried was just the finishing touch.

Say, Leroy are you getting in shape for the big pool tournament coming up this spring. Better watch your special cue stick or some aspirant may sabotage it. Seems like the way to a man's heart now-a-days is with a pair of hand-made argyles, or, at least some of our co-eds think so.

Looks like there will be more cramming and less loving for the next few days. Even, with my thousand eyes, I'll have to study as much as the rest of you. ARGUS

GRAMMAR LESSON

You see a beautiful girl walking down the street. You walk across the street, changing to the verbal, and then become dative.

If she isn't objective, you become plural—you walk home together.

Her brother is an indefinite article, and her mother is accusative and becomes imperative. You talk about the future, and she changes the subject.

Her father becomes present, and you become past tense.

QUICK DASH

Teacher: "Punctuate this sentence: Miss Jones, the beautiful young girl, walked down the street."

Student: "I'd make a dash after Miss Jones."

Two new buildings were dedicated at the University of Kentucky during December. The mammoth Memorial Coliseum, which seats 15,000 and cost over $4,000,000, was dedicated as a house of sports. The main entrances of the Coliseum are on Euclid avenue, near Limestone. The other new building to be dedicated by U. K. was the new $775,000 Service Building, which houses the U. K. Division of Maintenance and Operations. It is located on S. Limestone street. —THE KY. KERNEL, University of Kentucky.

Dr. John W. Taylor, the retiring president of the University of Louisville, said in his final report to the trustees, that the university will need $13,700,000 for more buildings and facilities in the next ten years. Dr. Taylor, who has been appointed deputy director-general of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in Paris, also said that U. L. should admit negroes to the graduate and professional schools. —THE CARDINAL, University of Louisville.

Mr. Ralph Kilgore, business manager for Pikeville College, announced recently that the building formerly used for the Music Department will be transformed into a Student Union Building. The Music Dept. has moved into new quarters. —THE RECORD, Pikeville College, Pikeville, Ky.

Transylvania College has been selected by the General Education Board of New York City to participate in its new program of one-year scholarships awarded to graduating students. The amounts are among the highest granted to those preparing for masters' degrees. They include, in addition to full tuition, a subsistence stipend of $1,125 and all traveling expenses. —THE CRIMSON RAMELER, Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky.

A new Chevrolet bus, with a seating capacity of 48, has been purchased for the students at Nazareth College. The bus is blue with white trimming, and has NAZARETH printed in white letters on both sides, with the Nazareth pennant below. This will further increase the outside activities of the students. —THE NAZARETH NOTANDA, Nazareth College, Nazareth, Ky.

The national convention of Sigma Pi Sigma, national physics honor society, was held at Berea during the Christmas holidays. About 150 delegates from all over the nation will hold discussions and plan the future of the society. —THE WALLPAPER, Berea College, Berea, Ky.

Mr. Graves quit school to conduct his campaign, but plans to continue his education during legislative sessions. —THE STATE NEWS, Michigan State College, E. Lansing, Michigan.

What Is It— "The Thing"

By BOB ESTEP

During the last several weeks a question has been brought before the people of America that even our most learned philosophers have been unable to answer. In an effort to arrive at some feasible solution to this phenomena, we conducted a survey among the students at Eastern with the most gratifying results. Here are the results:

Betty Jane Smith, a junior from LaGrange, says "I think 'The Thing' is the echoing chimes of the Student Union Building clock."

Bobby Jones, a junior from Berea, thinks "The Thing is the Perfect Bridge Partner." Bob agrees with the learned philosophers in the respect that "The Thing" is just as hard to find as it is to explain.

Jim Johnson, a junior from Hazard, thinks "The Thing is being able to find a girl on the campus that doesn't have to be in the dormitory at that 'well-known' hour." We are inclined to agree with Jim since a man of his experience should know about these "things."

Annette Engle, a sophomore from Gatlinf, said, "I believe The Thing is the draft law, because it is apt to sweep my 'Dream Man' away in its current."

If anyone has any information as to what "The Thing" really is, we would appreciate hearing from him or her. Send your explanations of "The Thing" to THE PROGRESS.

Easternology

Back in the days of old when knights were all the rage, a knight was riding through a woods in a blinding snowstorm; and he struck his head on a tree. The blow knocked him out and he lay in the snow for several hours until a St. Bernard dog came to him and carried him to an inn. The dog knocked on the in door, explained the situation to the innkeeper and asked him to put the knight up. The innkeeper said "I couldn't turn a knight away on a dog like this."

- A is for the Apple polishers Who boast of their feats,
- B is for Bookworms Who deaden their suites,
- C is for Card players Who take life with ease,
- D is for Day Dreamers Who do as they please,
- F is for Fellows Who don't know just how, And I mean I'll do it later, The heck with it now!

BIG DECISION

Sophomore: "What'll we do?" Senior: "I'll spin a coin. If it's heads, we go to the movies; if it's tails, we go to the dance; and if it stands on edge we'll study."

Varsity E Club To Crown Queen

In a contest sponsored by the Varsity E Club the following girls are eligible candidates for "Basketball Queen": Mattie Gardner, Marilyn Ward, Elizabeth "Sis" Parks, Betty Wright, and Jennie Chattin. These were chosen by a popular poll held in the Rec Room of the S. U. B.

Mattie Gardner is a senior and a commerce major. She hails from Elizabethtown. Mattie has been quite active on our campus since she came here in the fall of '47. She recently was named to Who's Who.

From Harlan comes elementary education major Marilyn Ward. Very recently Marilyn was elected Miss Popularity.

Another elementary education major and a product of Richmond is Elizabeth Parks. We call her "Sis." She was in the race for Basketball Queen last year and from what we hear she ran a good race.

Betty Wright, home ec major, comes from Somerset. This is Betty's third year at Eastern.

And, last but not least, is one of our majorettes from Ashland, Jennie Chattin. Jennie is a freshman with a major in physical education.

In the final contest each vote is a penny. Thus, the winner is the girl who turns up with the most money at the deadline date.

The Basketball Queen will take her throne at the last home game February 14. At that time, the Eastern Maroons will meet the Evansville Purple Aces. The particulars of the crowning program are not yet available.

This activity is sponsored annually by the Eastern Varsity E Club. Keep up the good work boys.

Intramural Plans Are Announced

Intramural Director, Mr. Fred Darling announces that intramural basketball will get underway at the start of the coming semester. Following regular season play, a tournament will be held to determine the college champions.

Students interested in forming a team are urged to contact Mr. Darling.

E Club Designates 'Parents' Day'

"Parents' Day 1951" will be held on February 3, beginning with a dinner given for the parents of the basketball players. This dinner, as well as the day, is to be sponsored by the Varsity E Club.

The custom of having a "Dad's Day" during the football season has become such a tradition here at Eastern that it seemed a good idea to start a "Parents' Day." The E Club plans to make this an annual affair.

After the dinner, which is to be given in the cafeteria of the S. U. B., the parents will be guests of the E Club at the Eastern-Western basketball game. They will be introduced at the game.

Louis Manning, president of the E Club, will be the presiding officer at the dinner. Louis, who is one of our football players, is a senior from Lynch.

ATHLETES TO SERVICES

Footballers Charles Adams, Buddy Wallin and Francis Lenehan have left the college to enter the armed services. Ray Fritz, promising basketball player, has also departed.

Varsity Now Commands Coveted OVC Lead

Heading into the home stretch of the current season with an outstanding record of 12 wins and four losses against the toughest competition available, Eastern's Maroons are hoping their next seven will bring them luck.

A good showing in the remaining seven games could give the Maroons a trip east—with a little consideration from the moguls in New York City.

Coach Paul McBrayer's hard working crew was really rolling last Wednesday night in crushing Marshall's Thundering Herd 87-61. The varsity cagers were running hard, shooting exceptionally well, fighting for the rebounds and playing alert defensive ball. All that goes for top-notch basketball.

At Dayton
Next Wednesday night, the Maroons face a severe encounter by tangling with the highly improved Dayton Flyers at Dayton, Ohio. Led by big Don Meineke and Leland Norris, Dayton dumped the University of Louisville last Wednesday evening. The Flyers, seeking revenge for an early season defeat here, will be plenty tough on their home court.

The Dayton game will be Eastern's final non-conference tilt on the regular schedule. On January 27, the McBrayermen will be host to the rugged Murray Thoroughbreds who are still fighting mad over that 60-59 defeated handed them by the Maroons. This setback knocked the Breds from the ranks of the undefeated.

On January 31, Eastern travels to Morehead for another tough test. Then on February 3 comes that annual battle with the Western Hilltoppers. This game has been designated as "Basketball Homecoming" and "Parents' Night." Several hundred members of the alumni plan to attend this classic and the Varsity E Club has made plans to entertain the parents of the Maroon cagers.

STRICTLY AMERICAN

Three tourists were stnding on a street corner in North Africa. They were an Englishman, an Arabian, and an American. Just then a beautiful girl walked by. The Englishman said, "By jove!" The Arabian said, "By the prophet!" The American just shifted his chewing gum and said, "By tomorrow night!"

NOW LISTEN—At a timeout session, Coach Paul McBrayer gives the Maroons a "briefing!" In the group are Jim Baechtold, Elmer Tolson, Jim Bingham (No. 14), Coach McBrayer and Carl Eagle. Joe Harper is also in the group. Camera shows only Harper's left leg.

Sports Extra

Most of the Maroon basketballers are still talking about the big Christmas party given in their honor by Dr. and Mrs. Shelby Carr of Richmond. A squad of 15 enjoyed a fine dinner. President and Mrs. O'Donnell were honored guests. Following the dinner, a dancing session was held at the Madison Country Club. The party ended at the cagers' usual bedtime—10 p. m. . . . Coach Tom Scott, head basketball mentor at the University of North Carolina, was interviewed on a Pikeville radio program and was asked, "What did you think of the Eastern-North Carolina State game you scouted in Raleigh, N. C.?" Scott replied, "Eastern was robbed!" . . . One of Eastern's most ardent basketball fans is Mr. Mark Johnson of Lexington. "Uncle Mark" is usually accompanying the Maroons on the road trips. Dr. and Mrs. Carr have also trekked with Maroon and White several times thus far this season . . . A certain college basketball star from a state college (not Eastern) was being lured to a larger school—until—the player's coach told the other coach to keep his hands off unless he wanted a newspaper war to start. Said player is still with his original team and playing very good basketball.

They call this basketball . . . Penn State defeated Bucknell 25-15 in a game recently. There was no score for the first 16 minutes and the halftime intermission saw only a 5-3 score. Maybe it was too smoky there . . . How about a post-season tournament matching the top five or six teams in Kentucky against the best in the nation. This tourney could be held in Lexington—if a certain gent in a "brown suit" would permit! All of the competing teams could make money and Blue Grass basketball fans would see some real competitive ball in Lexington—for a change.

The Western game here on February 3 has been designated as "Basketball Homecoming" by the Alumni and "Parents' Game" by the Varsity E Club!

CHANGE HERE

Our Health Building, built in 1929, and having its first class in 1931, is well equipped with lockers and fine equipment. Only 19 years ago, students had to bring their own suits and shoes and dress in the room which is now our swimming pool.
