EASTERN ON AIR SUNDAY, 12:30 P. M.

Eastern will be officially on the air with its own radio program Sunday, November 22, when a series of programs directed by Dr. R. E. Jagers will get underway. The college program will be heard at 12:30 p. m. each Sunday on radio station WEKY.

A roundtable discussion directed by Dr. Jagers with students discussing "Improving Congressional Procedures and Practices" and a discussion of "Group Dynamics" by Glen Wilson and Victor Venetozzi, members of the English department, will comprise the first program.

An interview with the committee who came to investigate and evaluate Eastern, a discussion on juvenile delinquency, and a discussion on the Minimum Foundation Program for education in Kentucky will be presented in the near future. Also faculty members and campus organizations will have charge of various programs from time to time.

Kyama Club would like to take this opportunity to thank all students, Eastern's faculty, and citizens of Richmond who helped to make this past Homecoming "one of the greatest the campus has ever experienced."

It was really encouraging to witness such school interest and the club hopes that this is just the beginning spirit to promote more activities.

Kyama enjoyed working with each club as well as with each individual. Homecoming was the biggest ever, thanks to you.

KYMA Club President

T. Samuels Enters Drug Firm In Fla.

"It's the most difficult decision I ever made in my life," said Eastern's head football coach, Tom Samuels when asked how he felt about leaving Eastern.

Mr. Samuels' resignation to leave the coaching field at Eastern was accepted by The Board of Regents, Saturday, November 7, the day his team won the seventh annual consecutive Homecoming football game.

On December 1, Mr. Samuels will enter the drug business in Orlando, Florida, as a partner with R. B. Begley and B. E. Begley in a firm known as Angebleit Pharmacy, Inc. Mr. Samuels is a registered pharmacist.

A native of Richmond, Coach Samuels is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he starred in football. He was line coach at Eastern for 15 years, and in 1947, succeeded Rome Rankin as head coach.

Since 1945, Mr. Samuels has been a fulltime teacher of health education. He is chairman of the National Section on Community Health, vice-chairman of the college health section of the Southern Region, and vice-chairman of the Committee on Standards of Health and Physical Education in the colleges of Kentucky. He is a past secretary of the National College Health Section, and was one of 30 persons from the United States who met in Washington, D. C., several years ago to set up standards for under-graduate majors in health education. Mr. Samuels is one of the outstanding men of the nation in this field.

One game which will be with Stetson University at Deland, Florida, on November 28, remains on Eastern's football schedule.

Backfield coach, Glenn Presnell, will be acting head coach after December 1, announces President W. F. O'Donnell.

VETERANS REQUIRED TO PRESENT LETTER

Veterans attending school under Public Law 550 (Korean GI Bill) are required to get a letter of approval from the Veterans Administration and present this to the Registrars office. Each month the veteran should report for the preceding month. This is necessary before payment will be made by the Veterans Administration. Veterans who fail to sign on time may have to delay in getting their pay for month. This monthly report indicates that the student is attending regularly and is satisfactory in his work. Approval may be withheld for students who are irregular in attendance or who fail to do satisfactory work. In such cases the students cannot receive pay for the months involved. In cases where absences are necessary the veteran should report this fact to the Registrar.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS

At 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, November 25, classes will officially close for the Thanksgiving Holiday. Classwork will be resumed the following Monday morning, November 30, at 8 o'clock. We of the Progress staff take this opportunity to wish each of you an especially happy Thanksgiving Holiday this year.

Caught by the cameraman during rehearsal of "Our Town" presented in Hiram Brock Auditorium last evening were the starring families, the Gibbs and the Webbs. Included in the Gibbs family were Don Walters, Janet Harkleroad, Jim Burch, and Joan Scholle. Chester Greynolds, Jerry Taylor, Carlene Willoughby, and Howard Horne, were the Webb family. Tom Stone, Stage Manager, is looking on. In the lower picture are the Stage Manager, now the drug store clerk, preparing "sodas" for Emily Webb, Carlene Willoughby, and George Gibbs, Jim Burch.

Willoughby, Stone, Burch Star In First Campus Production

Curtain time for "Our Town," the first dramatic presentation of the year, was last night at 7:30 in Hiram Brock Auditorium.

Heading the cast of Thornton Wilder's three act play were Thomas Stone, faculty member, in the role of the stage manager freshman Carlene Willoughby as Emily, and junior Jim Burch as George.

Other members of the cast included: Joan Scholle as Mrs. Gibbs; Jerry Taylor as Mrs. Webb; Janet Harkleroad as Rebecca; Shirley Peters as Mrs. Soames; Doris Wilmer as First Dead Woman and extra; Ada Ruth Taulbee as Second Dead Woman and extra; Elizabeth McDonald as Woman in Balcony and extra; Alicia McCord as Lady in Box and extra; Don Walters as Dr. Gibbs; Chester Greynolds as Mr. Webb; Roger Stephens as Simons Stimson; Jim Snow as Harvie Newsom; F. D. Ellison as Constable Warren and First Dead Man; Charles Fair as Professor Willard and extra; John Mayer as Joe Stoddard, Thom McElfresh as Sam Craig; Carl Tomlin as Man in Auditorium and extra; John Zimmerman as Baseball Player and Ass't Stage Manager; Jim Frommel as Baseball Player and Ass't Stage Manager; David Jett as Wally Webb; Marshall Saufly, David Jett and Janet Harkleroad, students from Model High, appeared in the play also.

In the first act the history of the town, Grover's Corners, N. H., is outlined and something of the characters of its citizens. Then the audience is carried into the houses of the Gibbs and Webb families, substantial homes containing substantial folks. Arriving at breakfast time, you are carried through one entire day in the lives of these "good" people.

The second act concerns the love affair between young George Gibbs and little Emily Webb, and this culminates in a moving wedding scene, containing all those elements of poignant sorrow and abundant happiness that makes for solemnity and impressiveness.

During the third act the action moves to a cemetery on a hill, where many of the townspeople, the audience has come to know, are patiently and smilingly awaiting not "judgment" but greater understanding. Into their midst is led the bride, a little timid at first, a little wistful to go back to life, to live again with her memories. But she is shown how impossible and how futile it is to return. The past cannot be re-lived. Living people, occupied with their petty occupations and small thoughts, know little of true joy or happiness. Truth is to be found only in the future.

Ushers for the play were Wanda Smyth, chairman, Mitzl Mueller, Betty Pack, Shirley Tinstman, Peggy Hendrix, and "Boots" Whitaker. Tickets, priced at 60c for students and 75c for adults, were on sale Thursday in the recreation room, SUB.

Thankful Spirit Of Pilgrims Not Known To World Today

When the Pilgrims first landed in the "new" country, they returned thanks to God for protection. After the first crop had been harvested, the settlers went into the forest and shot wild fowl (which is possibly the origin of our traditional turkey dinners) and prepared a feast; they then united with the Indians and had a banquet royal-enough for a king. This was a special time for prayer and thanksgiving. Thanksgiving Day was observed unofficially until the time of Abraham Lincoln in 1864 when he issued a proclamation that this day would be proclaimed as a national holiday on the last Thursday in November.

In this day and age, are we permitting the true meaning of Thanksgiving Day to slip us by?

Thanksgiving Day is a time to magnify the blessings we have received. This is a time of thankfulness of what we have. We, as college students, should realize our duties to God, our parents, and the world around us. We should learn to look at "the sunny side of life" by playing the game of always being glad.

Surely in our lives, there is one day out of each year that we can pause and give thanks to our God; thanks for the things we already have instead of what we are trying to get; and thanks for the immaterial blessings—health, happiness and success. In every walk of life, a person can find these treasures by appreciating what he already possesses and omitting the seeking of his many desires.

On this Thanksgiving Day, Eastern students, let's pause for just a single minute and say, "I thank God for—"

YW - YM Should Have 'Pat On Back'

Several Saturday nights ago, the YW-YMCA sponsored a hayride for all student members. The evening was on a typical "suitcases" weekend. The occasion was for all participants to enjoy themselves.

The YW-YM should certainly have a "pat on the back." This is one of the very few campus organizations that doesn't "eater" to suitcases. The Y realized that an organization should have as its main purpose the interests of the more active members, who are, in most cases, the students who don't leave campus weekly.

Could the Progress, as another campus group, suggest that other organizations try to please the members on campus, not the traveling students?

We can only be more tightly knitted together when we, as a complete college, forget the suitcases—let them go, if they want; many times it is absolutely necessary—and concentrate campus activities on the dates that will please the weekend population. This, in all probability, would include just a few less attendance than if the event were held on a week night.

Best Wishes For Future, Coach

Coach Tom Samuels's resignation as head football coach and health instructor was heard as a complete surprise to the majority of the campus population. The Board of Regents accepted Mr. Samuels request on the same day that his coached team won Eastern's seventh consecutive annual Homecoming football game.

Mr. Samuels is leaving Eastern after seven years as head football coach. His new position will be in Orlando, Florida, as a partner with R. B. Begley and Byron Begley in a firm known as Angebielt Pharmacy, Inc.

During the spare hours of summer months, Coach Samuels has always eagerly traded his book of pigskin rules for his equally loved book of formulas on how to prepare prescriptions. This instructor is nationally recognized as one of the outstanding men in this field.

Any member of his classes could quickly recognize Coach's sincere interest and his keen knowledge concerning this question of health.

Eastern will miss Tom Samuels but certainly we realize this promotion "is a chance of a life time." It has been a privilege to have been a student in his classroom, a player on his football squad, or a member of the same faculty body. We feel that his leaving will be a great loss to our campus.

To you, Mr. Samuels, we wish the best of luck in future success, and can only say it was Eastern's honor in having you to include among its list of "greatest."

CHEERFUL THOUGHTS

(From other publications)
"So now you and your son are carrying on the business together?"

Mr. Durham: "Not exactly, I run the business and Ernie does the carrying on."

Employer to beautiful blonde who has filled in job application: "Miss Jones, under 'Experience' could you be a little more specific than just 'Oh Boy!'?"

A student went over to the health service. "Doc," he said, "I feel so bad that I often think of killing myself."

"Now, now," soothed the doctor, "you just leave that to us."

Blonde—Do you know the secret of real popularity?

Brunette—Yes, but mamma said not to.

A Peek in the Closet

By DEAN FASHION

Boxes, boxes, boxes, how we hate to wag them around when we are shopping, but when we have something in them that makes for a perfect bedtime atmosphere it isn't so bad. At bedtime "to sleep, perchance to dream..." you'll want a pair of warm "pjs" or a night-shirt. Adapted from the Victorian era is the nightshirt! This is a gay and happy version designed for a chilly dormitory, for a drafty country house. Made of fireman's red cotton flannel. It buttons down the front, and note the authentic side vents. Almost everyone would look like a demure angel in this cunning fashion. A girl of fashion will select these practical as well as beautiful "pjs."

Companion to the nightshirt is the Tartan robe. It, too, is made of cotton flannel and buttons down the front. Sleeves are regular-cut, back is full and graceful. It is so pretty you might be tempted to wear it as a duster! Team it with the nightshirt and you'll be a pretty and cosy girl all winter long. The black and red checks make it so sweet.

Slumber Sue

Sleepytime polkas by Slumber Sue will make a dream girl of you. Ruffled one-piece "pjs" with double scalloped embroidery, drop seat, elasticized at wrist and ankle, and tie front. Together with matching cap and booties, this is a fetching bedtime costume.

For your hours before bedtime (chatting on the phone or reading) and for happy sleeping, too, you'll like a red flannel nightie with a snowflake design. There is an extra touch added by the little peter pan collar and cuffs on the long sleeves. A pair of booties comes with the knee length night-shirt.

Cat-Napping "Pjs"

For cat-napping and easy hours

around the dorm there is nothing better than cotton knit pajamas. The top slips over the head, and the waist has elastic to make the bottoms fit nicely, and cuffs are snug at ankles. Exciting, they are in solid flamingo bottoms, and shirt in flamingo and blue stripes. Also, for relaxing time your favorite outfit might be a pair of cotton and acetate "pjs" that are comfortable and attractive. Top has a solid-color surplice neckline, cuffs and waist line. Bottoms have elastic at waist, light-fitting cuffs at ankle. Becoming you'll look in a white-flecked melon or blue or green flecks on yellow.

Boxy Jackets

Pleasant dreams on chilly nights to come... in cotton flannel "pjs" with rose buds sprinkled over a maize, blue or pink background. Boxy jacket top is edged with white piping at rounded collar and cuffs of long sleeves; piping also runs down the front closing. There is even a pocket for you hankie.

As one can see it's flannels for sleeping and lounging—home or dorm.

Radio Station WEKY Serves City, County, And Campus

by Mary Jo Campbell

"This is station WEKY, 1340 on your dial, Richmond, Kentucky."

"WEKY is intended to serve Richmond, Madison County, and Eastern Kentucky State College," says O. C. Halyard, director of Richmond's new radio station. "We are interested in Eastern and we want Eastern to be interested in us. Our name, WEKY, means 'Eastern Kentucky' and we try to serve everyone in this immediate area."

WEKY has proved their interest in Eastern by broadcasting the Eastern football game, by letting Eastern have its own program on Sunday afternoons, and, incidentally, by playing many requests from Eastern students on their "disk-jockey" music programs. And Eastern is proving its interest in WEKY by listening to many of its programs every day.

WEKY goes on the air each morning at 6:00 and signs off at midnight. They are affiliated with the Mutual Broadcasting Network, from which they get mystery, comedy, and news commentator programs. WEKY is 1340 on the radio dial.

Mr. Halyard announces that WEKY will broadcast all of Eastern's home and road basketball games, as well as any high school games they can work in without interfering with Eastern's games. The tournaments which Eastern's team plays in will also be broadcast.

WEKY's weekday programs include popular music programs such as "Morning Melodies" from 7 to 9 a. m., "Melody Matinee" from 1 to 3 p. m., "One Night Stand" from 9:15 to 9:30 p. m., "Dancing Party" from 9:30 to 10:00 p. m., and "Music 'Til Midnight" from 10:15 to midnight.

WEKY features news programs of local and national interest 21 times daily. To promote local news, WEKY offers $1 each day to the person who phones in the best news tip of the day, and, at the end of each week, they give $5 to the person whose news tip is the best of the week.

Other programs of interest to Eastern listeners during the week are the sports news programs, the "Man on the Street" program at 12:30 daily, when people downtown are interviewed over the air, and "A Date With Dottie" which features women's news of local interest. Dottie Kahne, who broadcasts this program, will be happy to interview representatives of any Eastern clubs or organizations who might have something of interest to Madison County listeners, Mr. Halyard says.

On Sundays, church services from downtown are on the air in the morning. From 1:00 to 2:30 p. m. on Sunday, musical programs such as "Music of Manhattan," "The Hour of Charm," and the "Wayne King Show" are on the air. Then, for the rest of the afternoon, mystery programs are presented, giving the listener a weird Sunday afternoon of listening.

Mr. Halyard says WEKY wants, besides the Round-Table Discussion Groups, programs from the music, dramatics, and other departments. "Anything good that Eastern has to offer, we would like to have on the air," Mr. Halyard says.

"ARNOLD"

Schaeff's Smoke Screen

Hello again, you bunch of goons, how've you been since last issue? There's been so much happenin' in the past two weeks that I don't know where to start.

Oh, yes, I have a problem. Mr. Keene said in journalism class last week that he noticed the janitor sweeping up trash in the grill and the students littering it up behind him. To litter or not to litter—that is the problem. One side brought out to litter, because it creates employment for janitors. The other side did not want to litter, because they wanted to cut down on expenses.

If your mind is littered up at this point, then I'd better tell you the moral of this story—watch where you litter.

Speaking of littering, all you ("youse" to youse Northerners) who want to clean up on something, there's still an opening at WEKY for a janitor. Just think you're swish swish might be heard for miles around. Whattan Honor!

This is for you students who think our teachers aren't "gone cats." At the Homecoming Swing the Saturday before last Mr. V. climbed into the drummer's seat and played like Gene Krupa, and two nights before there was a bunny hop going on in a house on Lancaster Ave.

Sigma Lambda was having their float party and they decided to teach Dr. Murbach how to bunny hop. She was a very brilliant student, and she soon out-did everyone with her foreign twist. Let's give them both an "A" for student interest this semester.

Awright, gals, now's your chance—tonight's the big Sadie Hawkins Day Dance and Old Man Mose (Dean Keith) predicts that many of his Dogpatchers will resort to kickapoo joy juice, if they are not asked to go to the big affair. Don't think you're a Moonbeam McSwine; get on the line and call Beckham and ask for a boy—any boy.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving and I suppose a lot of students have a lot of things to be thankful for—to the school, Thanks for giving us a vacation; to our parents, Thanks for giving us a check book; and to that certain person of the opposite sex, Thanks for giving us a break. Really there are a lot of things to be thankful for besides turkey (No, bub, I don't mean chickens—you think of them all year 'round). Begin 'hinkin' about the things you take for granted, and I'm sure this will be one of the best Turkey Days you've ever had.

Last Friday at the noon meal in the cafeteria, I became more and more homesick by the minute as I munched away. As I looked at the paper plates, cups, and utensils; I tried to figure out if this were Mom's night out to the bingo and she didn't want to wash the dishes, or was she trying to bring back memories of last summer by springing an old-fashioned picnic on me.

Suddenly I was awakened from my dream by a music major singing ("Clear Cool Water"). Then I realized why I was eating off of these paper thingamajigs . . . no hot water.

Junior Miss

JUNIOR MISS title of this issue is placed along side the other many honors given to Georgia Williams. Her willingness to always help fellow students and her interest in any campus project has made Georgia one of Eastern's leading citizens.

'KAMPUS KATS'

Hi there guys and dolls—here we go again.

Certainly was a big crowd at Louisville last week—bet half of Eastern was there . . . and people talk about no school spirit!

There were a lot of old, new, and strange couples seen at Homecoming. Dean Ruparts' old flame, R. Evans was here.—Hannah Ketzner was back to see Jamie. Jess Reed had an "import" from U. of K.—hope things are going to get straightened out for those two soon. Dolores Samson and George McKinney looked like they were having a good time. . . Ann Hardin and Bill Parks must have enjoyed Homecoming . . . one look at Ann sort of cinches the idea.

WEKY is kept awful busy, especially by Ronnie Sherrard—Must be awful nice for Mary Elizabeth Johnson since John Sullivan works there. If I'm not careful "Music to Midnight" is going to put me out of business.

I hear Harry Stigall and Jerry Wright have their room decorated with pumpkin pie—I always eat mine. Have you seen Frank and his fish?—that boy is awful proud of it. But who now has that picture on her dresser, Frank? Wonder how Mary Jo Isaac liked her trip to Chicago. Bet she had a gay old time.

There are two awfully good-looking boys around campus by the names of Bob Dezarn and Tom (Bottle) Howell. These two are unattached males. Come on girls, Let's give them a chance!

Noticed Charles Hughes and Jan Campbell are still getting along. Roy Kidd and Carol Melburg seem to be together like salt and pepper. Another old couple is Charlie True and Toby Wells. These folks must be setting examples for the above mentioned new couples—Pretty good examples I'd say.—If you all don't think these are enough good examples, I'll give you Vernon and Dece as another one. Wonder how many of these couples will wind up like Don and Barbara Augsback and daughter.

Dedications. "Music, Music, Music" to those boys that went to the Homecoming dances stag.

"Don't Forget to Write" to the girls with steadies away from Eastern.

"I Only Have Eyes for You" to Suzy Ramey and "Words."

"Collegiate" to all the Eastern students from WEKY.

Dean, Artist, 'Young Man With A Horn' All Gatwood

By MARY ELIZABETH JOHNSON

"I definitely favor more week-end activities that are not too formal in character." Professor Dwight Dean Gatwood, instructor of the Art Department, expressed this idea as one improvement for our campus. "A student government would also be a very good addition for Eastern." Mr. Gatwood's participation in many student activities, which has been highly commended by faculty and students, enables him to understand the group and the individual students.

Having lived in a college atmosphere almost all his life while his mother taught music and his father taught art, it is not surprising to find that Mr. Gatwood likes music and art equally well. He misses music while he is working with art, but doesn't like to get "bogged down" in music. He made his debut into the musical world early in grade school by performing in a first public appearance and a terrible case of stage fright on the same night. Recognition in the realm of art came with a scholarship to the Dayton Art Institute a few years later.

Mr. Gatwood and his "horn"

He received his B. S. and M. A. degrees from peabody and has done graduate work at Ohio State and New York University. With his college freshman year came dance jobs with the Vanderbilt Commodores. Mr. Gatwood feels that one of his claims to fame was playing with this band while Dinah Shore was vocalist.

Being the first University of Alabama faculty member to be drafted during World War II, and being given the name "Dean" are his other rights to riches. While teaching at the University of Alabama he received requests for favors and applications for teaching positions because "Dean" was mistaken to be his position with the University and not his first name.

Professor Gatwood is interested in current affairs. He thinks the recent education amendment to the State Constitution which was passed is a step toward progress. He feels that when a constitution becomes an obstacle in the way of improvement then it should be amended. Salary limitations according to Mr. Gatwood are one of these limitations.

Enjoys Dance Jobs

He likes movies (but never has much time to see them), he likes to jinker and fix things around the house (right Mrs. Gatwood!), and—believe it or not—he really enjoys doing dance jobs. He phrased it, "Just for the kicks that I get out of it." With the "Dean" in on the job there are usually lots of kicks. During one job when the drummer took a ride, a short ad lib solo, the rythmn sounded very much like a machine gun. Mr. Gat-wood took up his horn with which he patomed shooting the band members. This nearly stopped the show.

Mr. Gatwood came to Eastern six years ago from the University of Alabama which had approximately 65,000 students enrolled. However Mr. Gatwood feels that Eastern is a good size for the students and the friendliness of the students toward the faculty and other students is another of her good points.

Mr. and Mrs. Gatwood have three children, two boys and a baby girl. They have similar interests and are a perfect example that going steady can work, since they were "steadies" for all four years of their college careers.

Popular Professor

"A thin, artistic, darkly featured man in tweed top coat, enjoying a pipe is the first impression of the art instructor," according to one of Eastern's seniors, "But when you get to know him he is a sparkling personality with a very crisp sense of humor and one of the most understanding instructors on this campus."

The Open-Mind Column

Lenore Cahoon, freshman: "I guess Ill be most thankful for my friends and family but I'm very thankful for a most welcome vacation."

Peggy Anderson, junior: "I'm thanful that the mad rush of Homecoming is over, even though it was fun."

Joe Osborne, sophomore: "I sure will be glad to get away from my roommates for awhile. And believe me, that's something anyone would appreciate, if they had my roommates."

Gordon Fleck, graduate: "I'll be most thankful for a good home-cooked meal, a vacation, and the sunny North."

Russell Lachem, freshman: "I'll be home and with the family. That is a plenty."

Pat Bell, junior: "We get five days leave, don't we? I'm thankful believe me."

First Home Game Dec. 1; Middle Tenn.

Eastern's 1953-54 Maroons . . . Big, young, eager, willing, but green. With a schedule reading like a Who's-Who in big time basketball, Eastern's long schedule will appear twice as long for these Young'uns. But along with Head Coach Paul McBrayer we have all the faith in the world in this team that is under the process of rebuilding. All any Eastern fan can ask of such a green squad is that they never lack hustle and spirit. They are two things all McBrayer coached squads never lack. Reading from left to right, front row: George Francis, Bob Disponett, Bobby Whitaker, Paul Collins. Second row: Coach Paul McBrayer, Paul Haney, Bob Mulcahy, Tom Holbrook, Jack Adams, Ronald Pellegrinon. Third row: Roy Allison, Alan Doherty, Jim Floyd, Larty Lovington, Harold Fraley, Billy Baxter.

Maroons Face Rebuilding Job

Confronted with a giant-sized rebuilding job after the loss of all five regulars and the two front line replacements from last year's team that won the Ohio Valley Conference championship and went on to the NCAA Tournament, Coach Paul McBrayer has his charges going through rough scrimmages daily, preparing for the grueling schedule ahead.

And, with the opening game only a little more than a week away, Jack Adams, 6-4 sophomore forward, appears to be the only member of the squad assured of a starting assignment. According to statistics on the Maroons' daily scrimmages, Adams is hitting 42% of his shots and is leading the squad in rebounding, both offensive and defensive.

Coach McBrayer has expressed disappointment in the play of some of the boys he had been counting on, but feels that by next week those who really want to play will have proved it.

Up to the present time the regular first string lineup has had seniors Bob Mulcahy (6-2) and Tom Holbrook (6-1) at guards; 6-9 Larry Lovington, a junior, at center; Jack Adams and Alan Doherty, a 6-6 sophomore at forwards.

Statistics kept daily show that Mulcahy leads the team in scoring and is hitting at a 41% clip. Holbrook has the highest shooting percentage, a neat 48%.

Lovington was counted on last year to give the Maroons much-needed strength at the key center position but was never able to get in top physical condition. Doherty was a standout on the freshman team in rebounding.

Roy Allison, a 6-4 junior who has been around for a couple of years but plagued with injuries most of that time, has shown the greatest improvement of any one on the squad and is making a strong bid for a starting assignment at forward, along with Billy Baxter, a 6-6 junior who is a newcomer to the squad. Baxter is a graduate of Campbellsville Junior College and enrolled at Eastern in September.

Jim Floyd, 6-8 junior who looked good in spring practice and was expected to start at center this fall, has been a great disappointment and Coach McBrayer says that unless there is a great improvement in the play of Floyd and Lovington during the next week, Doherty will be moved to center and replaced at forward by Allison.

Ronnie Pellegrinon, a 5-10 sophomore guard and the shortest man on the squad, is in strong contention for one of the guard positions, and Mulcahy and Holbrook have additional worries in the person of a freshman, 6-5 Grady Wallace, of Betsy Layne. At the present time Wallace is handicapped by an ankle injury but has shown lots of promise and it is safe to say that before the season is over, he will be a starter.

Other freshmen that have looked good in practice and show possibilities of playing some varsity ball this year are J. D. Brock, 6-4 forward product of Lily High School; Jimmy Mitchell, 6-1 guard of Lexington; and Nick Tepavich, a 6-4 forward from Midland, Pa. All three boys are good prospects and would add considerable speed which the present lineup lacks.

"It certainly is not my desire to replace the terrific shooting ability of Holbrook and Mulcahy but both boys will have to show a lot more aggressiveness if they are to keep their jobs," Coach McBrayer stated. Holbrook and Mulcahy are the only lettermen on the squad and were counted on heavily to carry the load for the Maroons this year against another major schedule.

The veteran coach added, "I am not at all satisfied with the play of Lovington and Floyd and feel that every opportunity has been given them, but we are certainly not going to have them in there unless they show a much stronger desire to play. I am starting the rebuilding of the team and it suits me just as well to start with freshmen."

The Maroon "B" team opened its season against the Georgetown College "B" squad on November 19 at Georgetown. A return game will be played here on December 4 at 7:30. The remainder of the "B" schedule has not been announced.

Good Season Is Coach Samuel's Last

Final Game With Stetson

At Eastern football without Tom Samuels is like morning coffee without doughnuts. But after twenty one years of drugging football opponents, head coach Samuels has decided to call it quits to retire into a drug concern down in the deep south, Florida. Behind him he leaves perhaps his greatest year and finest team. With a 7-2 record going into their last game the Maroons are trying to finish out the season with a final win over Stetson as a going away gift for Uncle Tom.

It was after the Western game that a special meeting was called for all the players, many thought that Eastern had received a Bowl bid, but a great deal of the joy in beating Western was dampened when Samuels announced his retirement. A good example of his spirit and character, was the continuous stand he took for his boys from the side lines a couple keyed up players let loose. Finding someone to fill his shoes will be no easy job.

Eastern 13 Western 7

Friday night—The Homecoming Dance; Saturday morning—The homecoming parade; Saturday afternoon—a year of waiting and dreaming come true, Western was BEATEN... and so went Homecoming. Roy Kidd scoring one touchdown and passing for another, the ever strengthening, Maroons racked up their sixth win.

Eastern 20 U. of Louisville 13

It's that Corbin Kid again, Roy Kidd leading the Maroons into the win column. Undoubtedly the most valuable player on the squad, Kidd threw three touchdown passes for all the Maroon scoring. His two tosses to Bill Bradford gave Bradford a 4 point lead over Bond in Maroon scoring. His third toss to Sonny White was completed only by a sensational catch by White as he was falling.

Eastern Mermen Make Big Plans

Eastern's comparatively new swimming team is laying plans for the biggest swimming season ever at Eastern. The team will swim a heavy schedule which will include Berea, the University of Louisville, Tennessee Tech, the University of Kentucky and the University of Tennessee which are returners from last year's schedule. Coaches Jess Reed, Gordon Fleck, and Hugh Brooks hope to add a number of other top schools to this list for a really potent schedule.

Prospects for the team itself look good. There are five returning lettermen in Hugh Brooks, Jess Reed, Gene Tompkins, Bob Snavely, and "Jake" Rutledge, plus some others who were improving rapidly at the close of last season. A great loss was inflicted by the graduation of such stars as Johnny Nolan, Bill Vandl, Bobby Elder, Gordon Fleck and Don Combs, but it is hoped that this loss may be compensated for by the addition of such new members as Richard Fleck from Berwin, Illinois, a Freshman who swims all strokes extraordinarily well; John Dietz from Louisville, who swims a good freestyle; Tom Campbell, a Freshman from Richmond, who is good in freestyle and backstroke; and Ronald Koffman, a Sophomore from Richmond who looks great as a sprint freestyler.

The team looks strong in every department except breaststroke. Sprinters, distance men, and backstrokers are good and have a good deal of depth, and the team remains in the good hands of trainer Nick DeSantis who, incidentally, is a lousy swimmer, but a heck of a fine worker and trainer.

There is plenty of room for new members on the swimming team, and tryouts will be announced very soon. If you can swim at all, and are interested in learning to swim better and becoming a member of the swim team, then see Hugh Brooks, Gordon Fleck, Jess Reed, or Nick DeSantis for further information, and watch for tryout dates.

Bradford Leads In Grid Scoring

Thanks to a pair of touchdown tosses by quarterback, Roy Kidd, Bill Bradford leads Jack Bond for the first time this year. Going into the final game of this very fine season, Bradford holds a 4 point edge in the scoring race. Roy Kidd and Larry North have pulled into a tie with Chuck Bell for the third position. Bell, who moves like an L. and N. freight train, has been running the ball all over the place except into the end zone. It's a close race between Bell and Bradford for the total offensive leadership.

Eastern Scoring to Date

Bill Bradford	6	0	36
Jack Bond	5	1	32
Chuck Bell	3	0	18
Larry North	3	0	18
Roy Kidd	3	0	18
Don Daly	2	1	13
Sonny White	2	0	12
Bob Mueller	2	0	12
Ox Oakley	0	8	8
Charles True	1	0	6
Paul Greene	1	0	6
Bob Hatfield	1	0	6

NEWS from our ALUMNI

IN THE Service

Sgt. Robert A. (Hop) Evans writes from Korea wanting to pay his alumni dues and receive the Progress. He is Chief Clerk in Division Engineer Supply and has been in Korea since April. Sgt. William Stubblefield is stationed close enough that those two grads of '51 get to see each other frequently. "Hop" writes, "it sure is good to see someone that you know and especially someone that I went through Eastern with."

He has married a girl from Dayton, Ohio, since leaving Eastern and she is living with her parents in Alexandria, Va. while he is in Korea. Hop says he would like to hear from his friends. His address is RA 15482784, H. & S. Co., 65th E. C. B., APO 25, PM, San Francisco, Calif.

2nd Lt. Robert L. Elder was on the campus recently. He was on leave while being transferred from Fort Sill, Okla. to Fort Benning, Ga. Lt. Elder says he likes the Army and gives us his new address: "C" Battery, 198th F. A. Bn., Ft. Benning, Ga. He was a graduate in the June class this year.

After graduation this year, Elmer Tolson entered the Army as 2nd Lieutenant. He has completed his basic officers course at Fort Sill, Okla., and is stationed there permanently. He writes in for the Progress and a schedule of the football and basketball games this year.

Lt. and Mrs. Tolson and their two daughters, Pamela Jo and Rebecca Lynn, are now living at 2338 Bell Avenue, Lawton, Oklahoma.

Frank G. Matthews, a graduate in this year's class is now a 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corp and is stationed at Camp Goettge, Va., where he is taking his basic training. His address is 3 PLT "C" Co., Camp Goettge, MCS, Quantico, Va.

John M. Holland, 1st Lt. USAF, has been assigned as medical officer, 283rd Medical Group, Olmsted Air Force Base, Middletown, Pa. He had formerly been stationed at Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort San Houston, Texas. Prior to his entry into the Air Force on September 5, Lt. Holland served as intern at St. Joseph Infirmary, Louisville.

He received his bachelor of science degree from Eastern in 1949 and his medical degree from the University of Louisville Medical School in 1952.

Lt. Holland is married to the former Mary Louise Bourne also a graduate of Eastern in the class of '49. They have a son, John David.

In a change of address for Lt. D. Billingsley, '50, we were led to believe he was out of the service and we wish to make this correction through the Progress. In a recent letter from Lt. Billingsley he states he plans to make a career out of the Army and is on orders to the Far East Command, Japan, for an assignment overseas as a Purchasing and Contracting Officer for the Quartermaster Corps. His reporting date to Fort Lewis, Wash., is December 14 and at present he is spending a thirty day leave with his family at 1521 1/2 East Cumberland Ave. Middlesboro, Ky.

Deaths

Prof. Chester R. Alexander, '29 of Georgetown College, found the body of his 16-year-old son, Raeburn Hall, lying in a street about 50 feet from his home on October 22 as he returned home from the college. An autopsy conducted failed to disclose the cause of death.

Tire marks near the body indicated the youth might have been a hit-and-run victim. The only visible injuries were a bruised left ear and abrasions of the chin. Four doctors who conducted the autopsy said there was no evidence he was struck by a car. They said they would be unable to give a final opinion until microscopic examination of tissues is made.

In addition to his father, the boy is survived by his mother, Mrs. Thelma Readnow Alexander; two brothers, Tracy Alexander, with the Air Force in Germany, and Larry Alexander, Georgetown.

Prof. Alexander is in the Chemistry Department at Georgetown College. After graduating from Eastern he received his M. S. degree at the University of Tennessee and attended the University of Chicago.

Gregory Appointed Head

James P. Gregory, Jr. of Richmond, Ky., has been appointed to head the technical processes department of the Aurora, Illinois Public Library. He took up his new duties October 1.

Mr. Gregory graduated from Eastern with distinction in 1944. He received his Master's degree in education from the University of North Carolina, and went on to receive a Master's degree in library science from Columbia University, New York City. He has served on the teaching staff of the University of Kentucky at Lexington, and Tulane University, New Orleans, La. He held a similar position in the Ft. Wayne, Ind. Public Library before going to Aurora.

'CYMBALS' APPEARS IN ANNUAL ANTHOLOGY

Miss Wanda Smyth's poem "Cymbals," has recently been accepted for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry. The Progress submitted the work of Miss Smyth, who is a senior from College Hill, in the tenth annual National Poetry Association.

Selections were made from thousands of poems submitted. We heartily congratulate the student on this honor."
