Eastern Quintets Take Two Games From Eagle Cagers

Maroon Varsity Takes Morehead, 36-33, As Maroon Frosh Defeat Eaglets, 43-33, At Weaver Gymnasium

TAKE KIAC LEAD

A diversified offense, with all who participated scoring at least once from the field, allowed the Eastern Teachers College Maroons to overcome Morehead's one-man scoring machine and take the lead in the K. I. A. C. basketball race as the Rankinmen trounced the Eagles, 36 to 33, in Weaver gym Wednesday night.

Morehead's elongated center, Carter, alone kept the Eagles in the contest. He accounted for six field goals and five free throws for a total of 17 points, six more than Ray Fritts got to lead the Maroon attack.

The varsity victory made it a double for the night, as the Baby Maroons took a 43 to 33 victory from the Eaglets in the preliminary. The Eastern frosh were paced by Fulton, with 14 points, and Tussey and Perry with 11 each.

The victory gave the Eastern Maroons a record of three victories and one defeat for the season. They have bested Georgetown, Wesleyan and Morehead and lost to Transylvania in an upset Monday night in Lexington.

As the contest got under way Morehead drew first blood when Fair, forward, converted a free throw, but Fritts, Lester King and Roy King and Roy King again hit for field goals to give the Maroons an 8 to 1 lead. Carter scored a free throw and Roy King got another field goal to put the local teachers ahead by 10 to 2.

At this point Morehead staged a rally and knotted the count at 10 all. It was tied again at 11 all, Morehead took a 12 to 11 lead and Eastern regained it at 13 to 12. Lead switched again at 14-13 and again at 15-14. The Maroons ran up three more points to hold an 18-14 advantage at the half.

The Eagles scored two free throws at the start of the second half to narrow the Maroons' margin to two points, but the Easterners pulled away to a 26 to 16 lead and were never headed. The closest the score was after that time was the final score as Cassidy got a field goal and free throw in the final two minutes.

The Maroons will risk their K. I. A. C. lead Saturday night when they tackle the Centre College Colonels at Danville.

Harlan County's Eastern Club Holds Annual Banquet

Harlan County's Eastern Club held its annual banquet on December 18, 1937, in the Lewallen Hotel, Harlan, Ky. The program follows: "Alma Mater," stunt, Cyril Fields; "Eastern in the Service of the Commonwealth," Dr. H. L. Donovan; song, Mary Dorris; "This is Our World," Dr. L. G. Kenamer; stunt, Mrs. Fred Russell; "Athletics," Rome Rankin; reading, Ella Louise Billips; "Your Alumni Association," Sam Beckley; and "Resume of the Year's Activity," Fred E. Russell, president of the club for 1937. Others from Eastern at the banquet were Dr. Rumbold and Dr. Keith.

New officers elected at this meeting were: Raymond Herndon, president; Leota Kelley, vice-president, and Mattie Helton, secretary-treasurer.

The annual club dance was held at the Harlan County Club following the banquet.

One of the main projects of the Harlan County Eastern Club is the scholarship fund which was established at the beginning of the past year for the purpose of aiding worthy Harlan county students to attend Eastern.

DR. FERRELL NAMED EXCHANGE CLUB PRES.

Dr. D. T. Ferrell, instructor of education at Eastern, was elected president of the Richmond Exchange Club at the regular election meeting held Monday night, January 3. Dr. L. G. Kenamer, head of the geography department, was selected a member of the board of control.

Student Government

Mr. Ralph Maurer, Editor
The Eastern Progress
Richmond, Kentucky

My dear Mr. Maurer:

It is a pleasure to present my point of view regarding student government. I have always believed that student government when properly administered is a fine thing for a college. About seven or eight years ago, I urged the students to make a study of this subject. A student-faculty committee of eight people explored the subject for a year and submitted a plan and a constitution, which was adopted by a majority of 51 per cent. We felt that with no larger percentage of students supporting the plan, it would be a mistake to put it into practice at that time. Many of the students who were working on the plan did not think it would succeed unless about three-fourths of the students wanted it.

I am ready at any time to assist the students in studying the problem of student government. If the overwhelming majority want it, I shall be pleased to recommend to the faculty and the Board of Regents that it be adopted.

If a sufficient number of students are interested in this subject, I shall be glad to bring to the campus a president of a college where the plan is in operation and have him meet with the students and discuss this theme.

I know student government is a good thing where students will accept responsibility for seeing that it is properly administered. Participation in the government of a college is a fine experience for participation in other forms of government. We learn democracy by practicing democratic principles.

Cordially yours,
H. L. DONOVAN, President

Big Maroons Face Heavy Schedule In Next Two Weeks

Games With Centre, Berea, Wesleyan, Western, and Murray Carded

TWO-DAY TRIP

The Big Maroons' K. I. A. C. basketball schedule—one of the toughest in several seasons—will continue in full swing during the next two weeks. Victorious in four of their first five encounters, the Rankinmen will attempt to add Centre, Berea, Wesleyan, Western, and Murray to their list of victims.

The "Praying Colonels" of Centre College will furnish the opposition Saturday night, January 15, at the Centre gymnasium. Advance dope places the Maroons as favorite in the game; however, many Colonel fans claim that their 1938 edition is the best they have had for several years, and too they have the advantage of being hosts.

Following the Centre game the Maroons will encounter the Berea Mountaineers on the latter's floor Monday night, January 17. In all probability the Maroons have not forgotten the shellacking they received last year at the hands of Wright, Clark et al of the Mountaineers. Again, however, the Maroons appear as favorites due to several early defeats of the Bereamen.

The next home game will be on Saturday night, December 22, with the Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers—the team that almost did what Transylvania did do—and again if score dope and earlier victories be used Eastern will reign as favorite. In Combs and Gray, the Panthers will present a pair of the classiest goal shooters ever to appear on the local hardwood. It will be remembered that Combs and Gray were the boys that kept the Dittomen in the "rough-house fracas" at Winchester earlier this year.

On a two-day road trip January 28 and 29 the Maroons will play Ed Diddle's Western Hilltoppers and Carylie Cutchins' Murray Thoroughbreds, two of the outstanding quintets of the south. Victories over either of these two teams would mark the Maroons as one of the outstanding teams of Kentucky.

Coach Rankin has not announced his traveling squad but it is expected that the following will be carried on the trip: King, Luman, Fritts, Yeager, McWhorter, Davidson, Bryant, Wagers, L. King, Hennessey, Limb, Merlino. It is also possible that Leslie Voshell, star performer of the Frosh in 1936 and understudy to Woodrow Hinkle last year, will be gunning for a position beginning January 28. He was declared ineligible at the start of the season.

CURRICULUM CLASS OBSERVES SARDIS SCHOOL

The class in Curriculum, under Dr. Schlieb, observed the consolidated grade school at Sardis, Ky., Thursday, January 13. The observation tour consumed the entire day and furnished an excellent opportunity for contact and experience in school administration.

Register Associate Editor To Address Staff Members Monday

"College Journalism" will be the subject of an informal address by James A. Miller, associate editor of the Richmond Daily Register, at the regular bi-monthly meeting of the Progress staff, which will be held Monday afternoon, January 17, at 4:00 o'clock. All staff members are requested to be present.

Unique Orchestra In Campus Debut

Drum Major Organizes 12-Piece, All Girl Campus Band

BROCK SOLOIST

Once more, Eastern has a campus orchestra, but this one is really unique . . . an all-girl orchestra performing on the campus.

Kathryn Baggs, vivacious Eastern drum-major, has gathered a group of talented women students and is rapidly shaping them into a creditable dance orchestra.

According to Miss Baggs, the orchestra will feature the piano duet of Priscilla Merinbloom and Edythe Newkirk and the "hot drumming" of Kay McNutt. The reed section is composed of Doris Burgess and Minnie Woods on saxophone and Nell Butcher on clarinet. The string section introduces Mary Jo Leeds and Flora Kenamer on violin, Ruth Walker on cello and "Skippy" Culton on bass. Mary Thomas Phelps and Nancy Durham form an attractive trumpet duet and the vocalizing is furnished by that "mountain beauty, Ruth Brock.

Mr. Cecil Karrick and Junior Muncy are handling the special arrangements and Norbert Rechin is serving as Business Manager.

This talented aggregation played at the "Open House" held recently at Burnam Hall and received many compliments.

Neophytes To Present Series Of One-Act Plays As Examination For Little Theatre Club Membership

On Tuesday evening, January 18, at seven o'clock, the Neophytes of the Little Theater Club will present a series of performances constituting the most important portion of the preliminary "try-outs", and serving as an examination upon completion of the training period for all candidates who wish to become members of the organization. Seven complete one-act plays form the program for the evening and present a variety of entertainment: "His First Shave," a story of adolescent difficulties; "The Grand Cham's Diamond," mystery play; "Youth Must Be Served"; "Their Anniversary" concerning marital problems; "Orchids for Marie"; "A Critical Case"; and a genuine old-fashioned melodrama, "Curse You, Jack Dalton."

Four Faculty Members Attend A. A. A. S. Meet

Dr. Schlieb, Dr. Krick, Dr. Hummell, and Dr. Jenkins Represent Eastern Faculty

AT INDIANAPOLIS

Four members of the faculty of Eastern Teachers College attended the annual convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Science which met in Indianapolis during the holidays. Those in attendance were Dr. Anna A. Schlieb, Dr. Harriett V. Krick, Dr. A. D. Hummell, and Dr. Emerson Jenkins. Dr. Schlieb is a member of the executive board of the Kentucky Academy of Science and counsellor of the Kentucky Junior Academy of Science.

The exhibit which the Kentucky Junior Academy of Science had at the convention was given an excellent rating. It was assembled by the Bellevue High School Science Club, under the direction of Mr. Sebastian, instructor of science at Bellevue High School.

There are approximately twenty-five active science clubs in Kentucky affiliated with the Kentucky Junior Academy of Science. These clubs have been organized by Dr. Schlieb since she has been counsellor of the Junior Academy. Ten of these twenty-five clubs are in Madison County, two of which were represented at the Indianapolis convention.

Transy Hands Maroons First K. I. A. C. Loss

Improved Simon Quint Defeats Rankinmen 32-29 At Lexington

M'WHORTER HITS 18

The Transylvania Pioneers scored a surprising 32-29 victory over the Maroons Monday night in a contest loosely played from start to finish.

The much improved Transy quintet, which played the entire game without substitutions, began finding its scoring range in the second half to gain a lead that was never overcome by the Maroons.

McWhorter proved to be the shining light of the night. He accounted for 18 points to capture high scoring honors of the game. He hit from all angles during the first half to score 12 of the 15 points tallied by Eastern during the period.

The Maroons ran up an 8 to 2 lead soon after the game began, but Trover hit three field goals in succession for the Pioneers to knot the score, and when Luman failed to report upon entering the game, Trover made the charity toss to put the Pioneers out in front 9-5.

With less than 15 seconds to go in the first half the Pioneers were trailing again 15-13, but seconds before the gun, Rentz tossed one from the side, knotting the score as the half ended.

The Maroons seemed to be without life in the final half and failed to overcome the lead that was taken by Transylvania soon after the beginning of the period. Fritts was banished when the game was only ten minutes gone and Captain King and Bryant left the contest via the personal foul route during the second half.

Construction Of New $150,000 Men's Dormitory At Eastern Is Considered; Institution's Appropriation Increased

$2500 Spent On Improvement Of Buildings, Campus

Automatic Whistle Installed; Ground Rooms and Corridors Of Administration Building Redecorated

$1,500 TO E. T. S.

According to G. M. Brock, Business Manager, over $2,500.00 have been spent recently for the purpose of improving the buildings and grounds of Eastern's campus.

Perhaps the chief and most obvious improvement was the acquisition of a new whistle to signal the beginning and ending of class periods. This whistle is of the newest and most modern type and never varies more than ten seconds a month. It is entirely automatic and is regulated from a special clock in the home of the Superintendent of Grounds.

All the rooms and corridors on the ground floor of the Administration building are being repainted and redecorated, and new water fountains have been installed. The floors in Roark have also been refinished.

The stacks in the old portion of the library have been furnished with the latest lighting equipment and they now compare favorably with the lighting system in the new section.

The dining room in Burnam Hall has been finished and will open at the beginning of the next semester. All the tables, chairs and other appointments are new.

Mr. Brock also announced that the Home Economics department of the training school had been equipped with over $1,500.00 worth of equipment, all of which of the latest, most modern design.

Hart House Four To Open Series

Initial Performance To Be Presented Here Saturday, January 15

BAUME LISTED

The initial performance of the Fine Arts Series, under the sponsorship of the Madison County Cooperative Concert Association will be given on Saturday evening, January 15 at eight o'clock, in the Hiram Brock Auditorium.

The presentation that evening will be the Hart House String Quartet, which was postponed from the original date of January third.

The second artist on this series, Emily Baume, the noted French pianist, will appear on Monday evening, February twenty-first, while Wilbur Evans, baritone radio star, will be the feature attraction for the program on Wednesday evening, March thirtieth. These artists promise to be the best that the concert association has yet offered and everyone is particularly urged to attend.

DR. DONOVAN TO HAVE PART IN INAUGURAL

Dr. H. L. Donovan, president of Eastern Teachers College, will participate in the inauguration of Sidney Clarence Garrison as the fifth president of George Peabody College on February 3 and 4. Dr. Garrison has served as professor of educational psychology at Peabody for twenty years. During that period he has taught more than nine hundred persons who now serve in American colleges, and likely has instructed more members of college faculties than any other southern teacher. Dr. Donovan will speak at 3 o'clock on February 3 on the subject "Program for the Education of Southern Teachers."

EASTERN DEBATORS LOSE DECISION TO MOREHEAD

The Morehead State Teachers College negative team composed of Alton Payne and Vogel Clark won the decision Wednesday on the question "Resolved, That the National Labor Relations Board shall be empowered to enforce arbitration of all industrial disputes," over the Eastern affirmative team, which was represented by Bertel Sparks and John Sadd.

EDUCATION PROFESSOR GIVES LECTURE

Dr. Anna A. Schlieb, professor of education and psychology, presented an illustrated lecture on the famous Passion Play of Oberammergau before a group of interested spectators at Sardis, Ky., Sunday, December 19.

Eastern Allotted $320,000 Each Year For Next Two Years; Provide For Increase In Operation And Maintenance

PRESIDENT ELATED

With the passage of Governor Chandler's budget recommendations by the Kentucky General Assembly it is likely that Eastern will be able to construct a new $150,000 men's dormitory, it was announced this week.

Governor Chandler recommended that Eastern be allotted $320,000 each year for the next two years. This will enable the institution to have an increase for operation and maintenance and still provide $75,000 yearly for the construction of the new dormitory.

In a statement to the press this week President Donovan said:

"We are pleased to learn that Governor Chandler is recommending to the General Assembly for Eastern an appropriation of $320,000 for each of the next two years of the biennium. This will mean that we can construct the men's dormitory, which the college has so long needed. Seventy-five thousand dollars of the total appropriation for each year will be spent in the building of the new dormitory.

"The Governor has been good enough to increase our appropriation for operation and maintenance by approximately eighteen thousand dollars over what it was during the past year. This will enable us to replace some of our leaky roofs, to paint and repair some of our old buildings that have so long been neglected.

"The Board of Regents, the faculty and the students are grateful for the interest which Governor Chandler has manifested in helping Eastern to meet her financial problems."

Buchanan Addresses Speech Association Group In New York

"What Should Be the Objectives of a Teacher's College Course in Interpretation," was the subject of an address given by Miss Pearl Buchanan, instructor of English, at the National Association of Teachers of Speech convention on Wednesday afternoon, December 29, at the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York. The annual convention was in session from December 29 to January 1, inclusive.

"The course in interpretation in a teacher's college should have the same objectives as in any other type of college, but should add to them the professional viewpoint not necessary, possibly not desirable, in other schools," said Miss Buchanan. She added, "the ultimate aim of such a course, in any school, is the development of the individual, the enrichment of his personality."

Miss Buchanan is one of the committee of the Southern Association of Teachers of Speech.

Editor Sets Milestone Picture, Space Deadline

February 15 has been set as the deadline for seniors to have photographs made or to purchase space in the 1938 publication of the Milestone, James Hart, editor, announced today. The deadline for students others than seniors has been set at March 1.

Prices for yearbook space are as follows: Seniors $4.00, juniors $2.00, sophomores $1.50, and freshmen $1.00. Representatives for the collection of fees are Elizabeth Robertson and Russell Childs, senior class; Elizabeth Campbell and Dale Morgau, junior class; Sue Toadvine and Harry Bryant, sophomore class, and Eldora Chamberlain and Robert Baggs, freshman class.

Milestone Writing Contest Deadline Is Announced

The story writing contest sponsored by the Milestone to select the best 1200 word articles of satire, sports and fiction will close Friday, January 21, Charles Billerman, Advertising Manager, announced today. Students whose contributions are adjudged best will be given a one dollar prize and his picture, together with his article, will appear in a new and novel section of the Milestone. There will also be a prize for the best poetry submitted.

Chronic Suspicion of Ideal Girl Found True; Brunettes With Brown Eyes Chosen

By JOHNNY JOHNSON
Heralding Eastern's mythical ideal girl for 1938-39! Her name is June, which signifies the warmth of balmy summer days. She is a brunette with nice brown eyes that speak the knowledge of the ages; they are deep pools of discretion, set fairly wide apart and gleaming with the presence of a modernistic, brainy outlook on life.

her own horse, opens her doors, cleans her own teeth, takes herself seriously in manner of dress. For she must be able to shape a burly sack about her good figure and gaze in the mirror at a Cinderella transformed. For in the opinion of the men of Eastern, a lady who waits to be waited upon either isn't a lady, or prefers to remain waiting until the timely wrinkles of age make an old woman out of her splendid youth.

She definitely doesn't indulge in one atom of strong drink, but she may smoke an occasional cigarette if she chooses, but never in public; however, if she does, nothing will be acclaimed, despite her inattention toward the more womanly arts.

The average male expects her to be as charming and congenial at all times as it is humanly possible, without the "maybe life isn't worth living at times, but what else can I do with it" outlook. Since she should be athletically inclined, dancing merrily along without stepping on the feet he stands on during a swing fox trot, she is not the corn fed of ages gone by, who can toss a fifty pound shot sixty feet in the atmosphere, thereby breaking every fragment of furniture in the well furnished dining room, for strangely enough June isn't a school "marm" at all, but hangs on the vine-covered barrier waiting for Mr. Average Man to come home from his job teaching tiny tots to add two and two. Eastern men do not prefer athletes and career women.

Now June isn't demure, nor is she frank; she chooses the middle road. She loves her little boy a lot and not a lot of boys a little. Although she is friendly to his friends and her own, she must never, never shower her affections to the four winds with the catch of catch can attitude, for a girl who is all wrapped up in herself is seldom a prize package.

Her face is slightly oval, leaning toward the heart-shaped variety; left unadorned with the painted-china-doll look that is so evident in the pretty young things of today. Her teeth are white and even. The mouth, natural in curvature, breaking into a humorous smile cleanly on occasion, without the forced look. She has no dimples, and the complexion has the robust beauty of a snow rose fresh-bloomed. The eyebrows suit the facial contours, minus the plucked look and the eyebrow pencil. Her crowning glory lies in natural waves, unadulterated by a string even if she stands bareheaded on the foredeck of a schooner in a southern typhoon. She sticks these locks into one of those things women call "hats." But it is marked with: size 22. But she is not big-headed at all; women's hats just come like that—huge, I mean.

The neck is slim and firmly rounded, holding the head erect and the shoulders straight. The bust measures 34 inches; the waist is 26, the hips are 36; and the thighs at 18 inches taper into calves of 12, and the calves taper into ankles of 8 and the ankles spread into feet that wear No. 6 shoes.

June stands 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighs 115 pounds. She eats all she wants at all times and never worries about her weight because it always stays the same. And now you have Eastern's No. 1 lady according to the specifications handed down by the men at Memorial Hall, Hanger Stadium, and out in town. Of course we could go on forever and tell of June's beauty, but no man wants a perfect woman, so we shall break it up with this parting shot: A pessimist is a man who tells the truth prematurely.

Outstanding Seniors Selected at Eastern State

The members of the senior class at Eastern shown above have been elected to appear in "The American College Year Book" for 1938. "The American College Year Book" is a Who's Who of outstanding college students in the United States. Persons who are elected to appear in this book must be outstanding in some phase of college activity. Then seniors pictured above were selected for scholarship, service, popularity, athletic ability, and other desirable qualities. Activities Of Student Relationship Council Reviewed And Outlined
By EDDIE EICHER
The Student Relationship Council, one of the most active student groups on the campus, was formed during the first semester of 1936.

Through intensive study of college policies which are not clear to the average student, the council endeavors to bring about a better understanding between students and faculty members.

At the beginning of this semester, eleven new members were taken in, by invitation, to fill vacancies. Of the original council, five seniors remain. They are Gerry Allen, Otwell Rankin, Ed McConnell, Newman Sharp, and Norbert Rechlin. The new members are Jane Case, Ruth Catlett, Naomi Gritton, Alma Graham, Jane Buckley, Frances Cocanougher, Rebekah Vallandingham, Donovan Cooper, Jack Bailey, John Kalb, and Elmer Douglas. Mrs. Emma Y. Case, dean of women, is the sponsor of this select group.

Otwell Rankin was elected president of this organization at their first meeting last November. Other officers are Elmer Douglas, vice-president; Gerry Allen, secretary; Frances Cocanougher, treasurer; and Rebekah Vallandingham, reporter.

To date, the council has sponsored a tea dance and a Mother's Day program, both of which were successful. They will be continued as annual features.

A formal dinner was held just before the Christmas holidays, and Dr. and Mrs. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, and Miss Wingo were guests of honor. Dr. Donovan led a round-table discussion of problems of the student and the college. This discussion will help council members explain to the average student things which he may not know concerning the program of activities that makes Eastern a school of high rank and a school for the development of student's physical, social and spiritual life.

At the present time, the council is conducting an intensive study of student government and they will sponsor a chapel program in the near future.

The annual Alumni-Varsity basketball game was played on the floor of the Weaver Health Building Saturday evening, December 11, 1937. The Alumni were defeated by a score of 55 to 29. Those of us who saw the game know that the score does not indicate that the Alumni team failed to do a good piece of work. The opposition was stronger this year than it has ever been before. If the Varsity perform throughout the season as they did on this opening night, they will make an excellent record this year.

One Of Eastern's Early Graduates

Harry Lincoln Davis came to Eastern from Ashland, Boyd County, Kentucky, a few months after the opening of the school in 1907, and was graduated in 1909. He left Kentucky in 1910 and went to Boerne, Texas, where he taught three years and then engaged in business. He is now president of H. L. Davis & Company, a director of the Boerne State Bank, secretary-treasurer of the Boerne National Farm Loan Association, and senior member of the firm of Davis & Houston Realty Company, the latter firm having offices in San Antonio, Boerne, Johnson City, and Bandera, Texas. He is a director of the San Antonio Real Estate Board and chairman of the finance committee of this board. H. L. DAVIS

Kentucky State Normal School in the Eastern District Richmond

This will certify that H. L. Davis has met the requirements laid down by the Normal Executive Council for the Elementary Normal Course. He is the first, according to the act of the General Assembly of Kentucky creating the State Normal Schools (see act of 1906 Chap. 102), entitled to teach the common school branches and in addition Higher Arithmetic, Elementary Algebra, Rhetoric, Literature, Elementary Physics, Elementary Botany, and General History in the public schools of Kentucky for a period of two (2) years from July 26, 1907.

Fred A. Vaughan Secretary of the Board of Regents for the Regents

President of the School

The facsimile above is of the certificate which was granted Mr. Davis in 1907. It was one of the first (probably the first) certificates granted by Eastern. It is supposed to have been written by Professor I. H. Booth, then penmanship instructor.

Positions Reported

Three Eastern alumni have teaching positions in the Jackson City School. They are: BESSIE L. WRIGHT (class of 1937), second grade and critic teacher for Lees

College; JESSIE McPHERSON (class of 1937), third and fourth grades; and REVA STAMPER (class of 1937), sixth grade and critic teacher for Lees College.

Sports Writer Praises Work Of Baby Maroons

Slaughter Georgetown And Wesleyan; Lose By Nose To Transy

PERRY, FULTON STAR

By MILTON FEINSTEIN

The Baby Maroons are off to a flying start in the current hardwood season. Under the tutelage of Coach George Hembree and Woodrow Hinkle, the yearlings are rapidly molding into a fine quint and show promise of becoming one of the best freshman teams ever to represent Eastern.

SLAUGHTER CUBS

The Little Maroons blasted the Georgetown Freshmen 63-15, Elmer Fulton, former Washington High School star, scored 17 points for the yearlings. Some sort of record was set, as each member of the squad played during the game and each member scored. The entire squad looked good, especially Perry, the sparkplug of the outfit and Tussey, the most improved individual on the squad.

ADD WESLEYAN FROSH

The Frosh kept their scoring eye and took the Wesleyan freshmen in stride by 55-35. Fulton again was high scorer with 25 points. Tussey accounted for 9 and played a bang-up floor game. "Peck" Perry was injured early in the fray and saw but little service during the remainder of the contest. Abney, Gott, and Helton also played consistent ball.

NIPPED BY TRANSY

The first defeat of the season came at the hands of the Transy yearlings Monday night, January 10, at Lexington. The Young Simonites were victors 32-30. The most outstanding feature of the listless battle was the noticeable absence of Perry. Though he was capably replaced by Swindler, the Frosh could not function with their former precision and missed many scoring opportunities. Fulton again led the scoring, gathering 14 points but losing numerous chances to cash in more.

The reserves are largely responsible for the teams success so far and no little credit is due Nurrell, Gabbard, Harris, Lewis, Dunn, and Hendren who are showing constant signs of improvement. "Jumping" George Ordich is doing a classy job as Frosh manager.

Rankinmen Open Season With Win

The Eastern Maroons opened their K. I. A. C. basketball schedule with a 45-29 victory over Coach Bob Evans' Georgetown Tigers at the latter's floor Tuesday, December 14.

Led by Captain Roy King, who scored eight field goals on ten attempts at the basket in the first quarter of play, the Maroons toyed with the Tigers throughout most of the fray. Coach Rankin's starting lineup, which consisted of Luman and McWhorter at forwards, Fritts at center and Yeager and King at guards, presented one of the fastest and most aggressive teams to represent the Maroons during the Rankin regime.

Physical Ed. Club To Sponsor Program

The Physical Education Club under the direction of R. D. Lacey, student instructor, will sponsor a boxing and wrestling show in the Weaver Health Building Tuesday, January 18. The card is composed of five three-round boxing bouts and a grunt and groin match.

Many of the contestants of the show are also planning to enter in the Golden Gloves tournament at Lexington. Those who already entered in the great amateur roundup are Hill, Stacey, Lominac, Bradley, Vandermark, Downing, and Bentley.

Ten cents admission will be charged by the Physical Education Club for the program. The Club will use all receipts for the purchase of equipment.

- The card: Francis vs. Downing (weight 135). Bradley vs. Gillispie (weight 160). Scott vs. Sudd (weight 170). Bentley vs. Vandermark (weight 160). Lominac vs. Hughes (weight 148). Creech vs. Shoniker (weight 155) wrestling.

Sports Insight

By RAYMOND STIVERS

With the basketball season back in full swing again we are in for a lot of thrills and some disappointment. The disappointments (or one at least) has already happened . . . Monday night—Transy 32, Eastern 29. Just doesn't look right, does it? Well, it will happen to the best of families.

Even with that loss we will forget the Transy affair (until later) and remember that the Maroons recorded a victory over the Morehead Eagles Wednesday night. No, we can't have the "Hawg Rifle" yet, because field goals and foul shots do not make touchdowns and extra points, etc., but look out, Eagles, we are showing you how a Maroon aggregation manipulates when they get started. Shall we say that Wednesday's victory was another shell for the rifle?

SOME 1937 HIGHLIGHTS

Don Budge, tennis star, rated the outstanding male athlete in the United States. . . Joe Louis failing to land a single knock-down punch against either Bob Pastor or Tommy Farr. . . Upsets sprung by Sammy Baugh and the Washington Redskins in pro football. . . New York Giants' comeback in late season to win the National League pennant. . . Pittsburgh being declared college football champions. . . War Admiral's racing. . . Pittsburgh voting itself out of Rose Bowl. . . Carl Hubbell, belted out of the box seven times in a row after stretching winning streak to 24 games in a row. . . Captain George Eyston driving his "Thunderbolt" 311.42 miles per hour to set a new land speed record. . . Charles Gehring chosen the most valuable player in the American League.

SHORTS FROM HERE AND THERE

Ray Acker and Keith Remsport, both ends, and Joe Gray, center, have been elected tri-captains of the Southern Methodist football team. . . It may soon be a question as to how many captains to elect and not how many letters to award.

It is said that no single sport today is so much in the control of one man as the fight game under Mike Jacobs.

Only a couple of years ago Stub Allison was looking hard for a job. Now he is sitting on top of the world as a Rose Bowl winner. That is some of the fortune of football coaching.

WOULD YOU BELIEVE IT?

One of our Eastern students arose from his table in a fashionable dining room, in Lexington, Monday after the Transy game and walked toward the door, but just as he passed the house detective a silver sugar bowl dropped from his coat. . . His remark: "The ruffians. Who threw that?"

People who carry glass bottles should not set on stone benches.

Athletic Official To Be Guest Speaker Here

Bernie Shively, well known official of sports events in this section, will speak on an unannounced subject to the combined Physical Education and "E" Clubs Thursday evening, January 20, at 7 o'clock, at the Weaver Health Building.

Shively was an all-American tackle at Illinois, and was an all-Big-Ten wrestling champion during his college days.

He holds a Master's degree in Physical Education and teaches this subject at the University of Kentucky. At present he is head of the University High athletic department.

Rankin Forced To Drop Net Practice

The Eastern Maroons' chances for a top standing in the K. I. A. C. basketball circle has been considerably lessened by the absence of Otwell Rankin, alternate captain and stellar guard, who was forced to drop practice shortly after the Eastern-Alumni game December 11. The recurrence of an injury received late last season was given as the reason for Rankin's failure to stay with the squad. His position is being filled by Carl Yeager, elongated junior, who was recently declared eligible for K. I. A. C. competition.
