BOB VICKERS

Keith And Vickers Head Soph Honoraries KIE President Keeps Busy Doing Everything CWENS President Wants To Be Best Teacher Ever

By RONNIE WOLFE Editor in Chief
"My greatest weakness seems to be that I can't always be on time." This modest statement came from Kappa Iota Epsilon's talented and versatile president, Bob Vickers.

However, this nineteen year old sophomore actually has no reason to be modest. Majoring in math, physics, and chemistry, Bob plans to go to graduate school after he leaves Eastern. "After that," he says, "I really don't know."

As if a triple major weren't enough to occupy his time, this ambitious troubleshooter manages other hobbies and interests as well. His colorful collection of butterflies and rocks reveal many hours of time and effort. Not only does he collect them, but a brief description of their characteristics and peculiarities is also one of his specialties.

Heads Sophomore Honorary
Besides heading the sophomore honorary, Bob is also a member of the Baptist Student Union where he sings in the choir. Is this enough? Not for rowdy Robert. What time he has left, he spends drilling with the Pershing Rifles crack drill team and singing with the Maroonettes, a singing group which has recently been formed on campus. And then, at the end of a busy week, Bob manages to sing in the church choir.

And now you ask, just who is responsible for this six foot four inch hunk of dynamite. Well, as Bob puts it, you can give most of the credit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vickers. Mr. Vickers is Director of the College Community Relations. Bob has an older brother, John Jr. who is a senior at Furman University, a younger brother David, and a younger sister, Irma Frances.

With his older brother at Furman, one would think that Bob would have considered going away to school too. "I came to Eastern because I was impressed with the faculty in my departments," he said. "In fact, I was impressed with all of them."

Like any other college student, Bob has his likes and dislikes. "My greatest pet peeve is people who pester me while I am asleep," he said. As for his likes, he has many more of them. "I like to eat best of all," he said. "And I also like basketball."

Bob Has Favorites
Bob's favorite actor and actress are Charleston Heston and Shirley Jones. He chose basketball as his favorite sport and shrimp and french fries as his favorite food. "Red is the best color," he says. "But that all depends on who's wearing it." and for music, he prefers a little of all kinds except country and western.

Bob's busy life started years ago. Originally, he attended Franklin County high school, but he moved to Richmond to graduate from Model high school here. A long list of honors left high school with him, some of which were Mr. Popularity, Most Outstanding Junior and drum major.

Besides his modesty, another outstanding characteristic of this tall, dark, and handsome lad is his outlook on life and his summation of the past. "If I could have one wish," he said, "I would wish for the greatest happiness in school and in later life as well. I've been lucky thus far," he continued, "I've had most of the things that I ever wanted badly, but have been disappointed at times too."

The Future Is Planned
The future? Although he pleads the fifth amendment on girls, four children and a home in Kentucky or North Carolina shine brightest in Bob's plans. More immediate than that however, are his plans for KIE. "We're planning several things for our organization," he said, "but in general, we want to serve the campus as best we can."

All this in only nineteen short years. The future is indeed bright for this campus leader and with so many qualifications and so much experience, it's for sure that although he may not always get to his destinations on time now, when time comes for the rewards for success in life, he should be first in line.

By GERALD MAERZ Progress Staff Writer
The President of Cwens this year is Beverly Keith, an attractive elementary education major from Corbin, Ky. She aspires to be "the best teacher Eastern has ever made."

Beverly, who plans to teach in the primary grades, is also active in the Y.W.C.A. Her special interests include people, dancing, basketball, and football.

In high school, Beverly presided over the local chapter of the Beta Club. Among other honors, she received the D.A. R. Good Citizen Award, and the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award. She served as senior class secretary, and was voted in the Senior Superlatives in Corbin's yearbook as Hardest Worker. These not only help explain why she was elected Cwens President, but also why she was cited for her outstanding contributions to Sullivan Hall as a resident and as a member of the House Council.

Cwens is an Anglo-Saxon word meaning queen, or lady, and Beverly states that "all our members are just that". There are presently 26 members in the organization.

Membership criteria for Cwens, a sophomore women's honorary, is based on the freshmen women's records. This includes not only their scholastic average, which must be 2.0 or better, but also campus activities, leadership ability, and school spirit. One of the aims of the club is to promote scholarship and leadership in the freshman class.

Candidates for membership are tapped in the spring of their freshman year, but aren't actually active members until the sophomore year. Although membership isn't extended beyond the second year, Beverly states this general principle, "Once a Cwens, always a Cwens."

The Eastern chapter became active in 1948, under the sponsorship of Emma Y. Case.

The Cwens projects Beverly named included helping with freshman registration, serving as guides for certain activities, such as Band Day, making up a Thanksgiving Basket for an underprivileged family, giving a party during the Thanksgiving - Christmas season for underprivileged children, and many others. The motto of the club, as Beverly stated it, is "We are always ready to serve faculty and students."

Beverly, as well as all Cwens, is disturbed by the fact that the organization isn't better known, and membership sought after more on Eastern's campus. As she expressively says, "Cwens has come to mean so much to me, I want everyone to know about it, and what it stands for."

DR. HAROLD INGRAM

BSU Beckons
Dr. Harold Inghram, director of the Service division of the Baptist Sunday School, Nashville, will speak at Vespers Tuesday and Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Baptist Student Center, 325 South Second Street.

Dr. Inghram is a graduate of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, and received the honorary Doctorate of Christian Education degree from Stetson University, Deland, Florida. He will be in Richmond to conduct a series of services at evening next week at 7:45 p.m. He will also speak at 10 a.m., Monday through Friday, at the church.

A. Ray Baker, professor in the School of Church Music of New Orleans Baptist Seminary, will present special music at Vespers on Wednesday evening. He will be on campus to counsel with students interested in church-related vocations.

Carolyn King, a sophomore from Whitley City, will speak on Monday evening at Vespers. She serves as music chairman of the BSU.

Dwight K. Lyons, director of Baptist student activities, will a discussion group Friday from 8-7 p.m. at the Center. The discussion group will consider Robert W. Spike's book, "To Be A Man." All students are invited to participate.

BSUers have elected Anna Grace Combs to represent them in the Homecoming activities. Anna Grace is a senior from Lorette, Ky.

Sixty students attended the BSU Circus party last Saturday evening. Prizes were awarded for circus costumes to Sharon Venter, funniest; Anna Grace Combs, prettiest; Terri Groves and Dick Morris, best dressed couple.

Pi Omega Pi Meets
Pi Omega Pi held its second regular meeting of the school year on Tuesday, October 9.

The program for this meeting was a panel discussion on student teaching. The panel was composed of: Bob Becker, a former Eastern graduate; Mr. Edsel Mounts, a member of the Eastern faculty, and Barbara French, the daughter of a faculty member.

Problems that occur in student teaching were discussed. Miss French told what high school students liked and disliked about student teachers.

A short business meeting was held after the program.

The initiation and pledge services for new members was set for November 13, with a dinner meeting at Boone Tavern in Berea.

Wesley Club Meets
Dr. Parkhurst was the guest speaker of Wesley Foundation on Monday, October 15. He spoke to the group about Pi Tau Chi. Wesley elected Miss Diana Davis as a candidate for Homecoming Queen.

On October 19, 20, and 21, five officers of the Wesley Foundation will attend the Kentucky Methodist Student Movement Conference at Sue Bennett College in London, Kentucky. The five officers are: Miss Carolyn Haag, Miss Bonnie Edwards, Miss Joyce Fleckiger, Miss Marjetta Scalf, and Miss Ethel Shields. Mrs. Morris Swafford, director of the Wesley Foundation, will also attend the conference.

Franklin County Flairs
The Franklin County Club is now in full swing. The big issue of their meeting Tuesday afternoon was the homecoming parade. Carolyn Brock, chairman of the homecoming float committee, gave a report on how much a float would cost. The country and theme to be used was discussed, and the final decision was left to the committee. Billy Jones was appointed to create the design of the theme.

Of the four nominees, Pat Bogie was elected to represent Franklin County on the float. A winner's feast is being planned for all members and their dates as soon after homecoming as possible.

In other business: Gene Cammuse was appointed club photographer, and Sammy Swain and Wendell McCourt were placed in charge of the Intramural Bowling League.

In addition to Dr. Orr and Mr. Vickers, Mrs. Robert Martin was also present as a sponsor.

The Franklin County Club will meet again Tuesday, October 15, in room 101 in the University Building.

Collegiate Club Calls
Mr. Jack Voige of Fort Thomas, Kentucky, will speak Monday at 7:30 p.m. on "Drug and Narcotics Control." The meeting will be held in Science 310.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

Floyd Countains Elec.
The Floyd County Club has elected these new officers: Bill Francis, president; Steve Dotson, vice-president; Judy Howard, secretary; Sandy Clink, treasurer; and Shirley Harmon, publicity chairman.

Currently, the club has over thirty members. All present, past, and future Floyd Countains are urged to attend the meetings.

The BARS Hear
The BARS, Eastern Amateur

October 23, at 7:30 p.m. All persons interested in amateur radio and would like to learn code for Radio Society, will meet Tuesday a license are invited. Code practices and other interesting activities are held weekly.

Cage Drills Began Monday;
 26 Prospects Meet Baechtold

Coach Jim Baechtold welcomed 26 basketball prospects, half of them freshmen, Monday as the cage drills opened at Eastern. This will be Baechtold's first Eastern Kentucky team. The former Eastern All-American and experienced star assumed duties as acting head coach at mid-season last year, following the surprise resignation of Paul McBrayer, and guided the Maroons to a 6-3 record and a three-way share of second place in the OVC.

Three starters from the 1961-62 squad that posted an 11-6 record will be included among six varsity lettermen. Four sophomores, only two up from last season's weak freshman squad, will be included on the squad. Two second-year men, awaiting their first varsity season, are transfers.

Leading returnees include 6-7 Ron Pickett, Frankfort center, 6-5 Jim Werk, Camden, Ohio, forward, and 6-1 Rupert Stephens, Russell Springs guard, all starters last year who will play their final season. Werk was the Maroons' leading scorer with a 17.2 average, while Pickett had a 13.5 scoring average and a 9.5 rebound mark per game last year. Stephens, peppery little guard, averaged 6.6 in scoring as a junior.

Other lettermen back include son this year.

6-5 senior forward Russell Mueller, Erlanger, who brings an 8.1 scoring average with him into his final year, 6-3 Kay Morris, Monticello, 6-3 Herman Smith, Maysville.

Lemos Top Sophomore

Top sophomore on the squad will be Les Lemos, a highly-regarded 6-4 guard from California, Ky. A transfer from Wichita, Lemos, red-shirted last year, may become one of the outstanding guards in Eastern basketball history.

The all-state basketball and football star at Campbell County is in line for a starting berth as Baechtold is sky-high on this youngster.

Non-monogram winners Orville Hamilton, 6-6 from Paintsville, and Robert Tolian, 6-8 from Cedar Lake, Ind., are expected to give the center position more depth than the Maroons have enjoyed in at least a decade.

Both were red-shirted last year. Hamilton because of a knee operation and Tolian, a transfer student who was ineligible.

Other sophomores on the varsity squad include Dennis Bradley, 6-6 Lexington Lafayette product who, behind Lemos, is the next top prospect among the sophomores, 6-6 Julius Fey, Cincinnati, and Noble Young, 6-2 Lindsey Wilson transfer from Junction City. Bradley and Fey are the only graduates of last year's freshman team.

Twenty-one Games Carded

Twenty-one games are on tap for the Eastern varsity while Coach Larry Parks' freshman squad have 19 tilts lined up.

Included on the varsity schedule are non-conference tilts with Miami of Ohio, defending NIT champ, Dayton, Toledo, Wittenberg, a pair with the University of Louisville, and three games at the Gulf-South Classic, in Shreveport, La. The Maroons open the Christmas tournament by meeting Texas Christian University.

Home and away contests are slated for the six OVC foes.

Record Set In X-Country Win

Ernie Dalton's cross-country Maroons posted their second win of the year Saturday and Larry Whalen set a school three mile record, as the harriers trounced Berea 20-47.

Eastern had the top three place in Whalen, Mike Felts and Ben Price, Earl Price, Ernie Brown and Charlie Sningedecker took sixth, seventh, and eighth in that order.

Whalen's new record, over a three mile course, is 15:30.9.

Eastern runs Mechead here Wednesday at 3:30.

Moonshiners Lead
 Women's Bowling

By PAM OLIVER
 Women's Sports Writer

The Women's Intramural Bowling League Sept. 27 with 20 teams participating.

Results of the first week were as follows:

The Moonshiners and Aces tied for first place with a record of two wins and no losses.

The high team games were the Dynamos' 869, B-C 838 and the Moonshiners' 799 pin total.

The high individual game was a tie between Jean Dotson and Sara Kays, each with a 168.

The high series bowled by individuals was Betsy Merrian's 320, and Sara Kays' 312.

Results of last week's bowling were as follows:

The Moonshiners in first place with a 5-0 worksheet, the Aces and Lane Dames in second, both with 4-1 records.

The B-C Girls bowled the high series with a total of 1200 pins, with the Dynamos running a close second with a 1194, and the Aces third with a total of 1125 pins.

High team games were: Handicaps with 493, Dynamos with 485, and B-C Girls with 426 pins.

High individual series was Jean Dotson 419, Cheryl Teeney 410, and Betsy Merrian 406.

Carol Hollon bowled a high game of 171, and Jamie Todd and Carolyn Hicks each bowled a 162.

The Teams compete each Thursday from 4-6 at Maroon Lanes.

Volleyball intramurals began Oct. 3. The teams play from 5-6 on Monday and Wednesday.

Schedules of the games have been placed at various points in the girls' dorms and teams are urged to take notice of these schedules and be on time for their games.

Tennis intramurals will begin Monday. Any girls interested in playing tennis should contact Miss Kirkpatrick in the Health Building for details.

Pall Mall Presents - GIRL WATCHER'S GUIDE

WHITE-COATED LAB-LOON

CAMPUS TYPE III

Don't let this girl's costume fool you. She's not really a mad scientist. She's a girl—a real, live girl. It's just that she has to prove something—to herself and to her family.

She has to prove that she has a brain and that, if she ever has to compete with men on their own terms, she can do it—and win. But she really doesn't want to compete with men. In her heart she wants to attract men and eventually, marry one. The girl watcher should not let this situation disturb him, however.

If the girl is watchable, she should be watched, no matter what her motives or ambitions may be. The same thing is true of a cigarette. If it's smokeable, it should be smoked—and Pall Mall is the most smokeable of all!

Pall Mall's natural mildness is so good to your taste!

So smooth, so satisfying, so downright smokeable!

Homecoming Rules

to see that these rules are enforced.
8. Each club must post a $10 promissory note with the Student Council Treasurer, Don Showalter, before entering the warehouses to work on the floats. If any of the above rules are violated, this $10 fee will be forfeited, and the club will be asked to remove their float from the warehouse. However, if the rules are carried out, the $10 fee will be returned.
A copy of these rules will be posted in all warehouses.
In addition to re-establishing the homecoming rules, the Council approved six faculty members for possible selection as faculty advisors to the Council. The list was taken to President Martin for discussion and his approval.
Those selected were: Dr. Rhodes of the English department; Mr. Franklin of the math department; Mr. Larence of the biology department; Mr. Kuhn of the physical education department; Miss Allison, Assistant Dean of Women; and Dr. Ambrose, College Registrar.
The Council will attempt to select two of these people for their advisors.
The Council also decided on a new meeting time. This time was based on a survey of all Council members taken by a committee headed by Bob Jury. The new meeting time was set at 7:30 P.M. Thursdays. The committee found that at this time more of the Council members could be present.

JAMES N. RIDDELL
James N. Riddell has been selected as the first Cadet of the Week for the 1962-63 school year. He is majoring in commerce at the University of Kentucky. Jim is a sophomore and a graduate of Harrison County High School. He is a member of the Fencing Rifles and the Color Guard. Last year he participated in the Regimental Drill meet at Lockborne Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio. Runner-up for this week's honor was David B. Spratt, a sophomore from Hodgenville who is also from the Second Battalion.

Kentuckians Have "Common Sense", Morton

Senator Morton said "We should draw the line where we are prepared to make action. Our words should not be greater than our deeds. We must avoid downhill diplomacy and start on the step where we are prepared to stand because concession is a sign of weakness. We must have respect and prestige instead of popularity."
Several questions were asked Senator Morton by the Progress staff members in an interview at her assembly. When asked what he hoped to do for Kentucky if he were re-elected he replied, "I'm terribly interested in the river development—I think that in Kentucky we must have the full development of our water potential. Secondly, I want to see the highway program through to its completion."
In the Supreme Court's decision concerning prayer in schools he said that the most important part is in the footnote. "The Supreme Court did not say that you couldn't pray in school; it only said that you could not direct the schools to say a certain prayer." When he was asked about the integration incident in Mississippi the Senator answered, "Of course, I deplore what went on in Mississippi. The situation itself was most unfortunate. I don't think that I can intelligently respond at the present in a critical manner. Until we know the facts it would be difficult to criticize what was done."
A Reduction in Taxes?
On the question of a tax reduction, the Senator answered, "I think we are going to have to be very careful. I'm not enthusiastic about an across-the-board tax revision. I think we do need an omnibus tax revision bill; our taxes have grown topsy—The difficulty in closing some of the loopholes is big in the 92 per cent income bracket. I think if you lowered the higher bracket you would have more for investment. I think we need a complete overhaul."
In His Final Answer
Senator Morton believes that the President has the tools to meet the challenge in the Trade Expansion Plan. "It gives him the power to retaliate against people who lower tariffs against us. I think it will be a good weapon of bargaining. The basic question is now how it will be negotiated and administered. I think that we have to be more vigorous in seeing that these measures are not used against us."
In closing his address to the faculty and student body, Senator Morton pointed out that the Kentucky campaign has the eyes of the nation on it and the people will vote for or against a "stamp of approval for a shift of responsibility to Washington and an image of downhill diplomacy" when they vote in the November election.
"I also want to see us do something in the field of education. I am in favor of a federal program of funds for school construction which will avoid any possible federalization of the teaching program," he concluded.

Navy Lands For 2 Days

The Aviation Information Team from the Naval Air Reserve Training Unit, Memphis, Tennessee, will be on Eastern's campus Wednesday and Thursday, to interview college men who are interested in the Navy's Aviation Officer Training program.
Three programs are now available to qualified college men between the ages of 18-26. Students who have completed two years of college and are unmarried may apply for the Naval Aviation Cadet program. Successful candidates are commissioned and designated Ensigns and Naval Aviators at the completion of 18 months of flight training.
For the college graduate or those who will be soon completing their college education, either married or single, the Navy offers an opportunity to apply for pilot training through the Aviation Officer Candidate Program, or for specialty training in one of many fields, i.e., Bombardier, navigator, etc., as an Aviation Officer Candidate-1355 (non-pilot). Under these programs, candidates will receive a commission as Ensign in the U.S. Naval Reserve after only 16 weeks at the Naval School of Pre-Flight at Pensacola, Florida. Male college students who are interested in the Naval Aviation Officer Training programs are invited to contact Commander R. H. Adams, USNR who will be happy to answer questions, explain the programs available and administer written tests without any obligation whatsoever.

Alumni News Medical Military Teaching Graduates Are Reported

The Alumni Office has reported on various Eastern graduates this week from all over the United States. Former students in the medical, teaching, and military professions have begun or are beginning careers in their various fields.
Jerry Sutkamp, '59, is in his senior year at the University of Louisville Medical School. He has been elected president of his class for the third time this year. Mr. and Mrs. Sutkamp have a new address, 627 South Preston, Louisville 2. They have a son, Richard, six months old.
