BEWARE OF CAMPUS DRIVERS

Boys and girls of college age are supposedly endowed with common sense. They should be capable of differentiat ing between the foolish and the sensible. A day on the cam pus and one begins to doubt the foregoing. To begin with the campus has more than its share of cars, naturally driving congestion follows. This in itself is a problem without that was responsible for getting up adding to it the number of crazy speed merchants who careen through the campus with reckless abandon, endangering thee lives of the lower grade students as well as those of their fellow classmates.

Most of the congestion is caused by those drivers who insist on parking in front of the Training School in the re- all participating did execptionally stricted zones. The aftermath is that parents picking their children up or letting them out must double park to do so. But tell me, what did the person The necessity for these tots to go on the street to enter or leave the parent's car makes them likely prey for some of these menaces behind wheels. Think of it this way. A car is a wonderful invention, an almost indespensible convenience and a true enjoyment. But at the same time, in the hands of a "moron" it is a deadly murder weapon and a source of great sorrow. If we realize the plus and minus possibilities ple with Keith Brooks, debate of it, it will help us to operate it with full regard for our lives and the lives of others.

REORGANIZATION NEEDED

A recent action by Congress imposed strict limitations on President Eisenhower's powers to reorganize the govern ment. They very graciously extended his reorganization powers for two more years, but, at the same time, also made it much easier for them to kill a reorganization plan. The new amendments effective April 1, require only a simple majority, 25 senators or 110 representatives, to kill a plan.

The republicans came out in favor of the amendment just mentioned while the Democrats were solidly behind President Eisenhower. This may seem paradoxical until it is remembered that this is in line with the action taken when the Republicans tried to decrease President Truman's reor-

MISSIONARY TELLS OF WORK IN THAILAND

Miss Mary Frances Gould, a native of Covington, Ky., has returned to America, after having spent four and a half years in the Oriental Mission field. Miss Gould, a graduate of Eastern in 1937, also holds a Master's degree in educational psychology from the University of Cincinnai.

In 1948 she accepted the call to the foreign mission field and spent two years in Canton, China. When the Communists moved down upon China she was forced to leave, having no choice but to travel south to Macau. From there she was sent to Bangkok, Siam, a small country of about five million people, which lies missionary work with the natives of . Thailand or Siam. When questioned as to what was the greatest opposition to overcome in working as a missionary with the Siamese, she answered: "Buddhism!" All natives are born into the Buddhist religion and to accept Christanity means political and social ostracism. Miss Gould says that one of her most exciting moments came when her mission group was caught in the cross-fire between Siam's Army and Navy, who are continually at odds as to who will govern the citizenry.

After having made a trip around the world by plane, train, and ship, Miss Gould will spend a year's leave in America after which she will return to her chosen home in Thailand.

PITZER HAS ARTICLE IN SCHOOL JOURNAL

Appearing in the February edition of "Kentucky School Journal," published by the Kentucky Education Association, is an article by Fielder A. Pitzer, social science teacher in the Maysville Senior High School.

Titled, "The Status of Geography in the Secondary Schools of Kentucky," the piece speaks of the need for the geography and how evident the need is. It also mentions the teacher and the pupil and their plight in the course. In the closing paragraph Mr. Pitzer writes, "If the secondary school's function is to provide a series of experiences necessary. to successful living, then geography must be a part of As citizens of function. world, the secondary schools must prepare our children to meet this challenge."

A native of Virginia, Mr. Pitzer graduated from Eastern in 1949, receiving his B. A. degree, and is now working toward his M. A. degree. He served approximately 34 months in the United States Army.

CRIPPLED MAROON CAGERS DEFEATED BY NOTRE DAME 72-57

Bingham Leads Attack With 20

Playing a strong, full-strength Notre Dame team in the second game of the NCAA tournament maries at the Allen Coun-preliminaries at the Allen County Memorial gymnasium in Fort Wayne, Indiana, last night, the crippled Maroons went down in defeat, 72-57.

Minus Bill Bales, top play-maker, and Elmer Tolson, top point-maker, Eastern was unable to keep up with the Fighting Irish. Both Bales and Tolson are four year men, and, therefore ineligible to play under NCAA rules. Jim Bingliam and Roger Geyer, playing play under NCAA rules. Jim Bingliam and Roger Geyer, playing their final game for Eastern, scored 20 and seven points, respectively. Davis got 11, while Holbrook threw in 10 markers for the Maroons, Bertrand was high point man for the Irish with 22, kosential garnered 17 points. In the first game of the night DePaul outlasted a fighting and stubborn Miami of Ohio team 74-72.

DePant and Notre Dame will move on to the NCAA Regional at Chicago stadium Friday and Saturday, March 13-14. On Friday BeFaul will play Indiana, Big Ten champion, and Notre Dame will face Pennsylvania, Ivy league titlist. The winners on Friday will play Saturday, with the eventual victorious qualifying for the NCAA finals, at Kansas City, March 17-18.

The "Big Irishman's" starting line-up are all seniors and only three of them were eligible for the Notre Dame game at Fort Wayne, Four-year-men Bill Bales and Elmer Tolson cannot play under NCAA rules.

Eastern has won 17 games and lost eight this season. In most cases it was their own doings that proved their undoing. In a number of games Eastern seemed unable to control a primitive urge to cloud opposing players. This, if you ge caught, usually results in personal fouls, which doesn't usually result in victories. A good example of this is the Dayton game. Eastern outscored the Flyers by 5 field goals, ournament being staged five The McBrayermen pulled to yet lost by 5 points. fair sized crowd of Richmond citizens was on hand to greet the Eastern Maroons, run-ners-up in the OVC tournament, they arrived by bus here early Sunday afternoon.

Cars met the bus at the northerr entrance to Richmond and a motorcade was formed. A city police cruiser and a fire truck led it to the courthouse.

Approximately 100 people gathered before the courthouse steps where members of the team were introduced by Mayor William K. Ritter. Dr. W. F. O'Donnell, Eastern president, spoke briefly and praised the team for doing its best in the tournament, won by Western.

James Linford, president of Richmond Board of Trade, opened the ceremonies with a brief address, followed by a few words by Mayor Ritter.

Don Bales, team manager, held aloft the runner-up trophy which will be added to the collection on the Eastern campus.
