Homecoming Features Parade And Coronation

PAINTING THE TOWN . . . Most original of the floats in the Homecoming parade was the "Tom Sawyer" creation of the Pike County Club, showing Tom with a bevy of beauties doing his painting.

MOST BEAUTIFUL . . . The Pulaski County Club's "Thumbelina" float, which was the winner in the "most beautiful" division of float competition, tours downtown Richmond during the Homecoming parade. Key feature of the float was a flower blossom that required two solid weeks of napkin stuffing.

HAIL THE QUEEN . . . Miss Brenda Woody, Columbia, is crowned Homecoming Queen by Dr. Russell I. Todd, member of the Eastern Board of Regents, in ceremonies before the Eastern-Western clash Saturday.

Thirty - Six Eastern Seniors Obtain Listing Among Who's Who In American Colleges

Faculty Committee Made Selections

Thirty-six seniors have been selected to membership in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Selections were made by a faculty committee and eligibility was based upon scholarship, extra curricular activities, and citizenship. In addition, the student had to have a 3.0 standing or better plus a minimum of 90 semester hours. A final requirement was one full year of residence plus being in residence at the present.

A national honor organization for outstanding students, Who's Who was founded in 1934 and is one of the most familiar honoraries in the nation. Membership to it is considered one of the highest and most coveted honors a student can attain.

Awarded Certificate
Each member is awarded a certificate of membership by the society, and his name and activities are listed in the "Blue Book," which is published annually.

Eastern students honored this year are: William Lee Bohanning, commerce major from Louisville; Douglas Ericker, a Milford, Ohio political science major; Mrs. Wanda H. Brown, English area student from Cox's Creek; Miss Lois DeMoss Campbell, a Westminister, Maryland, political science major; James Cartmell, industrial arts major from Carrollton; Mrs. Nancy Cornett, elementary education major from Manchester.

Miss Gloria Jeanne Elliott, commerce major from Springfield; Larry Elliot, industrial arts major from Manchester; Miss Ann Marie Fagan, biology and chemistry major, and Miss Helen Teresa Fagan, English major, both of Richmond; Miss Karen Wesley Flynn, art major from Irvine; Miss Beverly Jean Gillis, Lawrenceburg mathematics major.

Miss Peggy Ann Karem, history major from Coalwood; Miss Carolyn Sue Haag, Fern Creek elementary education major; Allen Jasper Hamon, chemistry major from Grayson; Miss Melinda Thornton Hines, Somerset art major; James Allen Houston, biology major from Cincinnati; Miss Sally Jane Johnson, Russell mathematics major.

More Listed
Miss Peggy Ann Karem, social science area student from Louisville; Miss Janice Elaine Keeton, English and French major from Monticello; Mrs. Freda Murphy Looney, English major from Richmond; Kenneth Robert Miller, political science major from Frankfort; Miss Neva June Montgomery, Scottsburg, Indiana music area student; Miss Mary Ann Nelson, English and history major from Gray; Miss Julie Joan Raehford, English major from Bellevue; Miss Ellen Gray Rice, English and history major from Lexington; Mrs. Julie Houston Schwier, Florence elementary education major; Miss Nancy Geraldine Sea, elementary education major from Sina; Miss Beverly Skaggs, Louisville elementary education major; Mrs. Kathleen McCallom Smith, English major from Richmond.

Mrs. Geraldine Wells Spurlin, Owingsville biology major; Martin G. Taylor, commerce major, and Miss Phyllis Tiry, elementary education major, both of Winchester; Miss Jo Nell Whitehouse, English major from Chaplin; George Wilcox, Richmond chemistry major; and Miss Roberta Virginia Wilkerson, Louisville mathematics major.

Four Eastern Students Nominated for Danforths

Three seniors and one Eastern graduate have been nominated for a Danforth Graduate Fellowship.

The nominees are Donald Campbell Dykes, a senior mathematics major; Gary McBee, a geography and geology major who graduated last spring; Tommy Wayne Noe, a senior physics major; and Robert James Parks, a senior social science major.

From Richmond, Dykes has served as president, vice-president, treasurer of the Math Club, and as secretary of Omicron Alpha Kappa and president of Kappa Delta Phi. He is listed in Who's Who.

Awarded the physics award in his freshman year, Noe is a member of the Physics Club and Kappa Iota Epsilon. From Corbin, he is vice-president of Omicron Alpha Kappa.

Dr. Clyde L. Orr, associate dean in charge of graduate studies and liaison officer for the Danforth Fellowship on the campus, made the announcement of the nominees.

The four candidates were nominated by their major departments and selection was done by a faculty committee under the leadership of Dr. Orr.

Judged Upon
Nominees will be judged nationally on intellectual promise and personality, integrity, genuinity, and leadership. He is sports editor and head of circulation for the Progress.

The fellowships, offered by the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Missouri, are open to male college seniors or recent graduates preparing for a career of teaching, counseling, or administrative work at the college level.

Dr. Clyde L. Orr, associate dean in charge of graduate studies and liaison officer for the Danforth Fellowship on the campus, made the announcement of the nominees.

Highwaymen May Appear

The dream of having a popular folk singing group on campus may finally come true.

The Student Council, which has been working on the project all year, decided yesterday to secure the Highwaymen, a popular folk singing group for a concert on Dec. 9.

All that stands in the way is President Martin's final approval. He has already given tentative approval to the project.

Bob Vickers announced at the weekly Council meeting yesterday afternoon that he had contacted an agent in New York and that three groups were available for Dec. 8 and 9, the dates set for the concert by the Council.

Twenties Are Lucky For Queen Candidates

Misses Woody, Hendricks, Wells, Comprise Court

By JOY GRAHAM
Progress Clubs Editor

A queen and her court from wonderland are evidence that numbers in the twenties must be lucky.

Brenda Woody, Homecoming queen for 1963 carried the number 20 during Homecoming festivities. Her first attendant, Dianne Hendricks, was number 27 and her second attendant was number 28, Susie Wells.

Brenda is a senior biology major from Columbia, Ky. She spent her first two years of college at Lindsey Wilson where, at the same time Brenda was being crowned queen on Eastern's football field, her sister was retiring as homecoming queen.

Decorations
The queen was the representative of the Agriculture Club which used as its theme Peter Pan.

Among Attractions
Brenda, who was first runner up last year, was attired in work clothes helping a new roommate move into her room when she was notified of her title.

When Dianne Hendricks was called to the lobby of McGregor Hall at 12:10 Saturday afternoon she assumed her father was having trouble getting a ticket.

She paid no attention to Roger Smith, the president of KYMA, who was standing closer to her and asked that she change back into her formal.

Soph From Louisville
Dianne is a sophomore from Louisville with an area in physical education health and recreation.

Dianne also is a ROTC sponsor for the Counter Guerilla Raiders. She is also the social chairman for Kappa Delta Tau, the organization that she represented.

Susie Wells nearly missed Smith when he came to inform her that she, too, would wear a formal on the football field that afternoon as second attendant to the queen. Dressed in the suit she had planned to wear she was on her way to take her family to dinner.

A Freshman
Susie is a second semester freshman commerce major from Prestonsburg. Last year she attended Berea as a psychology major. At Berea she was secretary of her class.

She represented the Floyd County Club and rode on their float which portrayed "The Goose that Layed the Golden Egg."

Dr. Jarman Says Education Is An Investment In People

"Education is an investment in people, and unless you improve people, you can't do anything for any country," Dr. Burnice Jarman, President, Pikeville College, told Eastern students Wednesday during assembly.

Speaking on the subject, "The Future Belongs to the Best," Dr. Jarman said that people must be taught how to feel and believe as well as technological knowledge.

He emphasized that the future is determined in terms of mission, not missiles and that the side that cares the most, not necessarily the strongest, consistently emerges victorious in any dispute.

Three Tensions Given
According to Dr. Jarman the three tensions in the world that could gradually lead to a war that would end civilization are the exploding birth rate, the emerging peoples in Africa and Asia who long for material and physical possessions, and communism.

He said that people the world over, "desire a world without poverty, unemployment and war" and that "courage is not a commodity held by any one people or race."

Dr. Jarman then listed some areas of caution for the United States. He said that we must beware of an eco-

Gals, Get Your Man

In Al Capp's immortal comic strip, "Lil' Abner," November 16 is the day that all eligible bachelors chill to the bone when the "fair" maidens of Dogpatch pursue their mate. This is Sadie Hawkins' Day.

But Eastern, in conjunction with KYMA and the cheerleaders, has proclaimed next week as Sadie Hawkins' Week.

During the week, the girls will ask the boys out on dates—to the campus movie, meals, etc. and will foot the bill. To climax the weekend, on Friday, there will be a Sadie Hawkins' Race at 4 p.m. followed by a Sadie Hawkins' Dance in the cafeteria at 8 p.m.

The dance will require all students to dress in hillbilly costumes. The girls are to give their "catch" a "vegetable corsage" and pick the boys up at the dorm for the dance. Prizes will be awarded for the best costume.

Music will be provided by a well-known rock n' roll band of this area.

Church Music Conference Is Tomorrow

The Eastern Department of Music will hold a church music conference tomorrow in the Foster Music Building.

Guest clinician for the day-long program will be Miss Mildred Andrews of the University of Oklahoma.

Miss Andrews is an outstanding authority in the field of sacred music, and has conducted such conferences throughout the nation. She is widely recognized for her success as a teacher of organ.

She is the national chairman of the organ and church music committee of the Music Teachers National Association and has been national adviser of organ for the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Topics for discussion during the conference include: planning anthems, preludes, offertories, and postludes for the church year; hymn playing and anthem accompanying; teaching new hymns to the congregation; children's choirs; use of the electronic organ or whatever organ is available, and registering the organ for the church service.

A special feature will be an anthem-reading session which will enable registrants to review materials. In addition displays of choral and organ music will be available.

Miss Nancy Davis, instructor of music, is the conference director.

A luncheon will be held in the President's Room of the Keen Johnson Student Union Building for all those attending the conference.

Maid Of Cotton To Travel Around The World In '64

Memo to the 1964 Maid of Cotton: Get set for exciting travel.

A fabulous trip around the world with visits to such far-away places as Lebanon, India, Hong Kong, Japan, and Australia as well as historic cities of Europe awaits the new queen. A coast-to-coast swing across the United States, jet to Canada for appearances in major cities, and stop off in Honolulu for a sun-filled vacation are part of her reign.

For such a tour, the National Cotton Council furnishes a wardrobe of cotton fashions created by American designers.

Plans call for talks with top government officials and famous people everywhere—interviews by newspaper reporters, radio and television commentators.

Like 1959 Maid of Cotton Malinda Berry—the only other Maid to circle the globe for King Cotton—the eight months' journey will be "trimmed" with once-in-a-lifetime experiences.

Application Due Dec. 1
Besides the adventure, there will be a serious side to the mission. The queen will be creating interest in cotton as an essential agricultural commodity and as a high fashion fabric. Ten million people in the United States depend on cotton for their livelihood. Second, she will be featured in benefit fashion shows around the world.

Proceeds from these will help support orphanages and other worthwhile institutions long after the journey is over.

How does one become the 1964 Maid of Cotton? First, there are certain qualifications to meet: (1) born in a cotton-producing state, Kentucky is one; (2) never married; (3) between the ages of 19 and 25; and (4) at least five feet five and one-half inches tall. The next step is to write the National Cotton Council, 1918 North Parkway, Memphis 12, Tenn., for an application form. Fill this out carefully and return it with a photograph to the Council no later than midnight, December 1.

Twenty finalists, will get an expense-paid trip to Memphis for the finals in late December. During the two days, the candidates will be interviewed by a panel of seven judges. They will be looking for more than just beauty; they will be seeking someone with personality, intelligence, poise, and background.

If selected as Maid of Cotton, things will begin happening fast. Following her first press conference, the queen will take off for Dallas to appear before nationwide television audiences during the Cotton Bowl Festival of New Year's Day. From there, she will head for a month's stay in New York City. Late in January the official tour begins.

Prof's Attend Convention

Four members of Eastern's department of political science attended the 35th annual meeting of the Southern Political Science Association.

Mr. Se Jin Kim, instructor of political science; Dr. Frederic D. Ogden, head of political science department; Mr. Allen Ragan, assistant professor of political science; and Charles W. Van Cleave, assistant professor of political science, attended the meeting held last weekend in Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

Mr. Kim participated in a panel discussion of "The State of American Foreign Aid."

Milestone Photos Set

The group photographs of the following organizations will be taken in Brock Auditorium at the times and on the dates listed below.

This meeting will be the last chance for members to pay their dues.

National Officer Visits CWENS

Mrs. Sweeney, Cwens national president, will visit Eastern Cwens Monday and Tuesday. A tea will be given in her honor Monday night.

The Cwens will sponsor a dance after the Eastern-U. of L. basketball game December 4. The date for the Sweetheart dance, which is to be semi-formal, was set for February 14. Plans were also begun for the annual freshmen women's Christmas dinner which will be Monday, December 16.

Physical Fitness Stressed

Dr. Price Harrison Jr., Ed. D., Associate Professor of Health and Physical Education here at Eastern, presented a program Tuesday evening entitled, Elementary School Games and Activities. The program was held in the Model Laboratory school gym and a demonstration was given by one of the elementary school classes.

Dr. Harrison pointed out that we need physical education specialists in the elementary school because that is the place to begin physical fitness. He also said that with all of the recent emphasis on physical fitness, now is the time to do something about it.

Wesley Plans Conference

Lindsey Wilson College in Columbia, Kentucky will sponsor a fall conference for Methodist college students. Mynga Kenamer, Betty Alexander, Carolyn Haag, Joyce McQueen, Marietta Sealf and Rev. Jim Wilson will represent Eastern. Rev. Wilson is Eastern's Wesley Foundation Director.

Wesleyans are reminded that discussion groups are held for them each Monday evening from five until six.

Sigma Tau Pi to Initiate

New members of Sigma Tau Pi are requested to attend a meeting Monday at 4 p.m. in University 102. The meeting is for new members only and will concern their initiation. Attendance is mandatory.

SIDELINING THE MAROONS

with Jim Parks

Progress Sports Editor

Western Proved OVC Superiority

Western proved it is the best team in the OVC with its 29-6 thumping of Eastern. The Maroons, exhibiting the Homecoming spirit, battled their powerful arch-rivals like real champions in the first half and trailed only 7-0 at halftime.

The inspired Maroon defense held the Toppers for 27 minutes, 15 seconds before Western pushed over a score with 2:45 to go in the half. What was most outstanding about the Maroon defense was that it had its back to the goal line most of the time. In the initial half, Western took over in the ball three times deep in Eastern territory (on the 10, 15, and 32), but scored only once.

In the second half the locals just ran out of gas. They were tired—not because of poor conditioning but because injuries limited the number of substitutes. We thought the Eastern defense showed outstanding spirit, teamwork, and determination in the first half before it became physically exhausted.

Western lived up to advance notices. It held Eastern to 10 yards total offense in the first half. Western, in contrast, had 88. Both squads blocked and tackled so savagely that several observers commented that it was the hardest hitting contest they ever saw.

The second half was a different story. Western penetrated the tired Maroon defense for three touchdowns with more opposition coming from the officials' penalties, than from the exhausted Maroons.

The Hilltoppers should go all the way now with only Morehead and Murray left to play. We don't think the Toppers will get overconfident and get caught napping now, and this would be the only way either the Thoroughbred or the Eagles could defeat the Toppers.

LOBO SETS PUNTING MARK
Dave Lobo, Eastern's punter deluxe, didn't punt well last Saturday, but he broke two Eastern records anyway. The freshman halfback from Dayton, Ohio kicked nine times for 293 yards to set a new standard for the most times punted and the most punting yardage in one game.

Cone Blackwelder, who punted eight times for 263 yards against Tennessee Tech in 1960, held the old mark.

Lobo has punted 33 times this season for 1333 yards and an average of 40.4 per foot. Prior to the Western encounter Lobo had a 22.3 yard average which was good for third place in the nation among college punters.

Lobo with 33 boots at present should break the season record of 41 punts also set by Blackwelder in 1960.

GRIM TIES RECORD
By intercepting two Sharon Miller passes against Western, Dave Grim, burly Maroon linebacker, not only stopped two Western scoring threats but also equaled the individual pass interception record.

Previously, three players have intercepted two passes in one game. Roy Kidd, now Eastern's backfield coach, swiped two against Louisville in 1953. The following year, Ernie Riggs stole two from Youngstown, and Ritchie Emmons, a senior halfback, intercepted two against Louisville as a sophomore in 1961.

Grim grabbed one Miller pass in the first period on the Maroon eight and another in the third stanza on the goal line to halt two Topper drives.

Maroons Are In Cookville Tomorrow Night Meet Tennessee Tech In OVC Contest

Six Straight Losses Sets A New Record

Eastern's Maroons, currently in the throes of the school's longest losing streak, go after their second win of the year tomorrow night against Ohio Valley Conference foe, Tennessee Tech.

The Maroons haven't won since their season opener against Austin Peay (14-0), and have dropped six straight games, a school record.

The previous record of five consecutive losses was started with the last game of the 1933 season when Louisville downed Eastern 13-7. The Maroons then dropped the first four games of the '34 campaign to Miami, Ohio, Transylvania, Union, and Georgetown. Earlier in 1931, Eastern also lost five straight games.

Coach Glenn Presnell, commenting on his team's 29-6 Homecoming loss to rival Western Kentucky, said, "We played good ball in the first half, but Western just wore us down. Having to play as many players a full 60 minutes as we did, and being out-weighted man-to-man, we just couldn't hold on."

"When you look at the statistics, we gained as much yardage (158 yards) as just about any team has against Western, but couldn't score," he remarked.

Tennessee Tech will be out to avenge a 21-0 loss to Eastern last year in the Maroons' Homecoming.

The Golden Eagles are currently in sixth place in the OVC with a 1-3 record, one-half game ahead of the Maroons (1-4). On the season, however, Tech is 4-3, compared to Eastern's 1-6.

Larry Marmie held on to his rushing lead against Western, and now has 263 yards, good for eighth place in the conference standings. His 438 total offensive yards hold the same place in loop statistics.

Dave Lobo, freshman halfback, suffered a 3.2 yard per kick drop in his punting average, and will probably fall from the NCAA leaders for the first time this year. His average fell from 43.2 to 40.4. He was fourth in the nation last week.

Mike Smith, freshman halfback, took over the pass reception lead from Fred Malins, with five grabs during the Western clash. He has now caught 10 aerials for 122 yards. Malins has seven for 78 yards and two touchdowns.

Tennessee Tech's statistical leader is quarterback Jimmy Ragland, who ranks third in OVC total offense figures with 930 yards, and fourth in passing with 49 completions and 753 yards. The Eagles' leading rusher is Ron Reeves with 400 yards in 99 carries.

Western Thumps Maroons 29-6

Eastern fought gallantly before an estimated 8,000 Homecoming fans here last Saturday but went down in defeat at the hands of powerful Western 29-6.

In losing, the Maroons set a school record for consecutive losses. The loss was the sixth in a row for Eastern. Western, in contrast, set a school record of 10 straight wins without a defeat.

The first half was played mostly in Maroon territory, but Western was able to push across only one score in the first half against a staunch Eastern defense.

Pat Counts' 52 yard punt return to the Eastern 10 set up the score. Sharon Miller, the Topper signal caller, took the ball over three plays later from the four to rally with 2:45 left in the half. Sam Clark's conversion gave Western a 7-0 advantage.

Burt Scores
Western came back strong in the second half, taking the kickoff and driving 59 yards in six plays to score. John Burt ran the final six yards for the touchdown. Clark missed the conversion and Western led 13-0.

The Toppers struck again early in the final period after Bob Westermoreland recovered a fumble on the Eastern 21. Six plays later Miller carried it over from the one and then threw to Elmer Murray for a two point conversion.

With 9:05 to go in the game Clark climaxed a 45 yard march with a four yard jaunt. Miller passed to Charles Webb for two to end Western scoring.

Eastern scored with 5:31 to go on a 20 yard pass from quarterback Gene Van Hoese to end Buddy Pfandt climaxing a 71 yard-12 play drive.

Defense Tough
Western's defense stunned Eastern in the first half allowing only 10 yards rushing. Eastern's defense held the Hilltoppers to 88 yards on the ground and stopped the Toppers twice inside the 10.

The Maroons ran out of steam in the second half and succumbed to the strong Western attack led by Miller, Jim and John Burt, and Clark.

Neither team completed a pass in the first half as both stuck almost exclusively to the ground. Only four passes, three by the locals and one by Western, were attempted before intermission.

The second half, however, saw 22 Eastern and 11 Western aerials being thrown. The

Harriers At Kentucky State Tomorrow; Have Lost Three Meets By Five Points

Eastern's harriers, posting some of the best times in school history, journey to Kentucky State tomorrow for the last dual meet of the season. The Maroon runners, who have compiled a 2-4 record, running against some of the state's top competition, have lost three meets by a total of five points.

Leading Team
Paced by Jim Beasley, Jeffersonville, Ind., Larry Whalen, Euclid, Ohio, and Art Arnold, Danville, the charges of coach Ernie Dalton, are preparing for the University of Cincinnati Invitational Nov. 16, and the Ohio Valley Conference cross-country meet in Cookeville, Tenn., Nov. 23.

Bucs, Raiders Keep OVC Hopes Alive

East Tennessee and Middle Tennessee kept their OVC hopes alive last weekend with wins over two conference elephants.

The Buccaneers, 4-1 in the loop, topped Morehead 22-9 and the Blue Raiders, 3-1, blanketed cellar dwelling Austin Peay 27-0.

Tomorrow, East Tennessee defeats the Governors and Middle Tennessee visits Murray in the top attractions. Western, the loop leader with a 5-0 slate, plays host to Morehead. Eastern vies with Tennessee Tech in Cookeville in the only other league action.

Toppers' Still Lead
Western protected its lead with a 29-6 thumping of Eastern. The Hilltoppers can ensure themselves of at least a share of the conference crown with a win tomorrow.

Morehead, 2-3, doesn't have a chance to win the OVC crown, but it can spoil Western's hopes of holding an outright claim with a victory. Murray, with only a mathematical chance to tie, will have the same opportunity on Nov. 23, at Bowling Green. A Western win tomorrow would boost its record to 6-0 in the conference with only one more game to play. East Tennessee and Middle Tennessee both have one loss and would have to finish the season undefeated in the loop to tie Western.

One Must Lose
Both teams cannot remain undefeated from here on out, however. The Bucs meet the Raiders in Murfreesboro Nov. 16, and in case Western loses a game, the winner will tie the Toppers, provided it wins all its other league games.

In other contests last week, Murray squeezed by Arkansas State 34-33 on a last minute touchdown and a two-point conversion, and Tennessee Tech nipped Louisiana Tech 21-19 in outside action.

Pen Pals Are Leading Mostly Misses League

This week in the Mostly Misses league the Pin Pals are in first place with a team average of 339 and a record of 10-2. The Pin Pals are Emma Banks, Shelby Wright, and Wendy Fredrick.

The Golf-Offs, Gloria Gray, Mary Green, Judy Hall, are in second place with a team average of 390 and nine wins and three losses. The Greenhorns are in third place with a 9-3 record and a team average of 350.

The Greenhorns are Irene Miller, Vaughn Napier, and Eddie Carol Hunt. The V.I.P.'s are in fourth place.

The high individual games were bowled by Tommie Walden, 174; Pat Keller, 173; and Virginia Bowling, 159. The high series games were bowled by Tommie Walden with a total of 428 pins for three games; Eddie Carol Hunt, 408 pins, and Judy Hall and Pat Keller, both with a total of 408 pins.

Panthers Lead I-M Bowling

In American Intramural League the Panthers lead with a 11-1 record compared to the second place Beavers' 8-4. There is a three-way tie for third place with Bombers, Braves No. 1, and Braves No. 2 a game behind the Beavers.

The Bombers had the high game of 520 and high series of 1405.

In the individual event, Ed Harris had a 518 series, Jim Vallandingham 503, and David Youmans 495. Ed Harris also had high game of 216, and Bob Walter was second with 197. Hubert Webb has the league high average with 154.

In the National "A" League the Bulldogs, 8-4, have a slim one game lead over the Third and Martins. Skydivers, Losers, and Hounds.

The Rebels had high game and high series with a 533 game and 1372 series.

Jerry Smith rolled the high game with 244 and high series with 550. The 244 game made him the winner of the "Bowler of the Week" trophy.

Tommy has the league's high average with 152.

In the National B League the Cougars are ahead with a 10-2 slate. The College Mugs are second with nine wins and three losses. The Tarpins and Beavers both 7-5 are tied for third.

Butch Coleman had high game with 197 and John Mullins bowled the high series, a 520. Mike Cobb has the league high average with 168. Jim Taylor is close behind with 165.

Berea Whips WRA Hockey Team 4-1

Berea College defeated the Maroonettes field hockey squad in their season opener 4-1 last Tuesday.

The Maroonettes "B" squad lost in the preliminary contest 3-0.

In the varsity game, Berea's Barbara Jones scored twice in the first half before Eastern's Pam Oliver drove hard for a goal to make the score 2-1.

Berea scored again before halftime and once in the shortened second half while holding Eastern scoreless for the final 4-1 tally.

Carol Fielder scored all three of Berea's goals in the "B" game, one in the first half and two in the final half.

Extramural schedule for the remainder of the season is as follows:

Nov. 8	Berea	Home
Nov. 12	Centre	Danville
Nov. 16	Kentucky	Lexington

Home games will be played at Turkey Hughes Baseball Field at 4:30.

Decidedly, 1962 Kentucky Derby winner, was the top money winner during Monmouth Park's 1963 season. He earned $72,345.

I-M Volleyball Playoffs Begin

The intramural volleyball championship playoffs begin Monday night.

The preliminary round robin play was completed last Monday night.

The teams were divided into three six-team leagues according to their won-lost records.

The schedule for the tournaments will be placed on bulletin boards in all the mens dorms and on other prominent bulletin boards on campus.

 Offers Grants

The East-West Center in Honolulu is again offering one-hundred scholarships for graduate study, at the University of Hawaii which include field study in Asia for those who qualify.

Valued at about $8500, these scholarships are for a two-year period beginning in September 1964. Full tuition, living expenses, plus round-trip transportation from the student's home and a small personal allowance, are provided.

American students will join students from Asia and the Pacific Area for intercultural exchange in East-West Center Residence Halls, and in classes and campus activities of the University of Hawaii.

The Center was established by Act of Congress to promote better understanding among the peoples of Asia, Pacific Islands and the United States. In addition to the student scholarships, the Center has a technical training arm and an advanced research program.

Students eligible for scholarship consideration must have a high scholarship standing, a deep interest in Asian affairs and plan to study an Asian language.

Full information may be obtained by writing the Director of Student Selection, East-West Center, University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822.

MILITARY REUNION . . . Col. and Mrs. Alden O. Hatch were presented a gift by members of the R. O. T. C. graduating class of 1953-56 at a homecoming reunion at their home on Kent Drive Friday evening. Jack Adams, assistant basketball coach, center, made the presentation. Thirty-six persons attended the buffet dinner given by the retired army colonel, who served as professor of military science from 1953-56, and his wife.

Teacher Exams Given In Feb.

The National Teacher Examinations, prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, will be given at more than 300 testing centers throughout the United States on Saturday, February 15, 1964.

Scores on the National Teacher Examinations are used by many large school districts for employing new teachers; and by several states for granting teaching certificates or licenses. Lists of school systems which use the examinations are being distributed by Educational Testing Service to college education teachers.

At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the common examinations, which include tests in professional information, general culture, English expression and non-verbal reasoning, as well as one or two of thirteen optional examinations designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter to be taught.

A Bulletin of Information, containing an application and describing registration procedures, may be obtained from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J. Completed applications, accompanied by examination fees, will be accepted by the service beginning today. Registration closes January 17, 1964.

Seven Students Attend Business Symposium

Seven Eastern students and three adult representatives were among the approximately 350 delegates attending a College-Business Symposium Monday in Louisville.

Thirty-two Kentucky colleges and universities were represented at the symposium, which is the largest of its sort to be held.

Top-ranking economists and businessmen gave talks and led the discussions between themselves and the students. Walter F. Carey, Birmingham, Mich., president of Automobile Carriers Inc. and vice-president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, acted as moderator.

Students Choose Topics
 Members of the panel and the topics they discussed, chosen by the participating students in an advance poll, were:

H. Prentice Browning, Indianapolis, president of American Fletcher National Bank and Trust Company, "Balanced Budget."

William J. Korsvik, Chicago, vice-president of First National Bank of Chicago, "Unemployment and Technology" and "The European Common Market."

Grant McDonald, Lexington, vice-president of Square D Company and regional vice-president of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, "Economic Growth."

Acting as master of ceremonies at the noon luncheon was Kentucky Chamber of Commerce president C. Hunter Green.

Program Includes Questions
 The day's program included talks by Browning, Korsvik and McDonald in the morning, and questions from the floor by the assembled students. Questions such as, "Are labor unions forcing management and industry to automate?" kept the panelists busy.

Attending from Eastern were Mary Jane Arnold, president of Pi Omega Pi, business teachers' honorary; Ronny Elliott, former senior class president; Mary Ann Nelson, Progress editor; Robert Pulsford, president of Sigma Tau Pi, honorary business fraternity; John Riggins, junior class president; William A. Smith, president of the Accounting Society, honorary accounting organizations; and Toddy M. Ward, highest ranking senior in business this year.

Sponsoring the group was Mr. Robert B. Begley, president of The Begley Drug Company, and faculty members attending were Dr. Joseph H. Young, head of the Department of Business, and Richard Chrisman, associate professor of economics.

I WAS A TEEN-AGE SLIDE RULE

In a recent learned journal (Playboy) the distinguished board chairman (Ralph "Hot Lips" Sigafos) of one of our most important American industrial corporations (the Ari Mechanical Dog Co.) wrote a trenchant article in which he pinpointed our single most serious national problem: the lack of culture among science graduates.

Let me hasten to state that Mr. Sigafos's article was in no sense derogatory. He said emphatically that the science graduate, what with his grueling curriculum in physics, math, and chemistry, can hardly be expected to find time to study the arts too. What distresses Mr. Sigafos—and, indeed, all of us—is the lopsided result of today's science courses: graduates who can build a skyscraper but can't compose a concerto; who know Newton's Third Law but not Beethoven's Fourth Symphony; who are familiar with Fraunhofer's lines but not with Shelley.

Mr. Sigafos can find no solution to this lamentable imbalance. I, however, believe there is—and a very simple one. It is this: if students of science don't have time to come to the arts, then the arts must come to students of science.

For example, it would be a very easy thing to teach poetry and music right along with physics. Students, instead of being called upon merely to recite, would instead be required to rhyme their answers and set them to familiar tunes—like, for instance, the stirring Colonel Bogey March. Thus recitations would not only be chock-a-block with important facts but would, at the same time, expose the students to the aesthetic delights of great poetry and music. Here, try it yourself. You all know The Colonel Bogey March. Come, sing along with me:

Physics
 Is what we learn in class.
 Einstein
 Said energy is mass.
 Newton
 Is high-falutin'
 And Pascal's a rascal. So's Boyle.

Do you see how much more broadening, how much more uplifting it is to learn physics this way? Of course you do. What? You want another chorus? By all means!

Leyden
 He made the Leyden jar,
 Trolley
 He made the Trolley car,
 Curie
 Rode in a surrey
 And Diesel's a weasel. So's Boyle.

Once the student has mastered The Colonel Bogey March, he can go on to more complicated melodies like Death and Transfiguration, Sixteen Tons, and Boo-Hoo.

And when the student, loaded not only with science but with culture, leaves his classroom and lights his Marlboro Cigarette, how much more he will enjoy that filter, that flavor, that pack or box! Because there will no longer be a little voice within him repeating that he is culturally a dot. He will know—know joyously—that he is a complete man, a fulfilled man, and he will bask and revel in the pleasure of his Marlboro as a colt rolls in new grass—exultant and triumphant—a truly educated human person—a credit to his college, to himself, and to his tobaccoist!

We, the makers of Marlboros and sponsors of this column, urge you not to roll coal—use in the grass if you are carrying a soft pack of Marlboros in your pocket. If, however, you are carrying the crush-proof box and weigh less than 200 pounds, you may safely sling yourself about.
