COOPER WARNS ABOUT MAJORS

Dean Discusses Entire Question and Advises Procedure on Subject

MUST HAVE 24 HOURS

A word as to majors and minors offered by candidates for a degree and to preparation for departmental teaching in the elementary school.

The catalog says, p. 75, that the candidate for a degree must present a major of at least twenty-four and not more than thirty-four hours and a first and second minor of eighteen and twelve hours respectively. The application of this requirement has revealed considerable confusion as to what constitutes a major.

Not infrequently the student seems to assume that just any twenty-four hours in a field or even in a group of more or less similar fields assigned to a group called a department constitute a major. Such is by no means the case. Reference to the catalog of 1925, p. 45, would serve the student in the clarification of his ideas on this point. That catalog says:

"Candidates for a degree who expect to be recommended for teaching positions in high schools must have as many as twenty-four hours in one subject and eighteen in another which they expect to teach."

The quotation makes it clear that the person with a degree is expected to be prepared, insofar as knowledge of the subjects can make him prepared, to teach at the high school level in the field of either of his major or of his first minor. In order, therefore, for a number of courses to qualify as an acceptable major or minor they must not only yield a prescribed number of hours of credit, but must constitute an assemblage or group and not merely an accumulation. They must comprise a coherent and unified body of knowledge as contrasted with a number of unrelated blocks of knowledge or detached fragments or slivers of information. The body of knowledge must not only be coherent and unified, but it must be complete; that is, it must cover the field, insofar as that amount of undergraduate work can cover the field.

In order to have an acceptable major or first minor in almost any field the student should have some work dealing with teaching in that field. There are only two fields covered in Eastern in which students are encouraged to take majors that are notable exceptions. The first is social science in which there is no course which concerns itself with the teaching of the subject except to primary children. The second is mathematics. If the student expects to teach mathematics he should probably take that course which deals with the teaching in the upper grades and likewise that which deals with the subject in the high school. On the other hand, he may expect to take his major in mathematics and teach physics. He will not take his major in physics because we offer only twenty hours in that subject. When such is his intention he probably should take no pedagogical course in mathematics, but should make up the full major credit count in subject-matter courses only.

Students should be very sure of their reasons for doing so before planning to take a major in education. The facts unfavorable to such a major are (1) the improbability of getting a position in which to teach the subject (2) the excessive amount of time spent on education would almost certainly reduce unduly the amount of time spent on the subject that the student will teach, and (3) even if the student expects to go immediately into a graduate school to

Closes Term's Work Home Ec. Class

The Home Economics Club held its final meeting of the semester Monday night in the Home Economics department for the purpose of electing officers for the second term. The new officiating members are president, Betty Massey; vice president, Nell Pelphry; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. B. L. Bemins.

Besides being the only vocational organization on Eastern's campus it is one, if not the most, active. This study education with the expectation of becoming a teacher of that subject, he should take less of it in the college and more of it in the graduate school. The conclusion from these facts is that only those who will become superintendents or supervisors of schools immediately after graduation are justified in taking a major in education.

Whatever your inclination may be with respect to the choice of major and minor fields you should consult the heads of the departments in which you are interested and likewise the dean before making your selections.

It is perfectly legitimate for any student who has a taste for departmental teaching in the upper grades or the junior high school to prepare to do that teaching. If the student has fully decided to do departmental teaching, then instead of taking the curriculum prescribed on page 71 of the catalog, he will meet only the minimum requirements for the certificate laid down on page 72 and will give correspondingly more time to the subject of his choice.

In connection with his curriculum for departmental teaching the student should have in mind that (1) departmental teaching is rarely done below the fourth grade, (2) courses designed especially for teachers of primary grades should not be counted as credit toward his certificate, and (5) the courses taken in the field of his choice should constitute a group much the same in quality as if they were to be offered a major by a candidate for a degree.

New Students Are Welcomed by Y. W. C. The Literary Society Greets New Students

To all you who are for your first time entering the portals of Eastern Kentucky Teachers College and to those who are not entering for your first time, we, the Y. W. C. A. girls, welcome into our organization.

As a whole, we are expecting to engage in the activity of the teaching profession, and it is evident that to be the well-rounded teachers we are striving to be we must not neglect our religious education. The Y. W. as the only Christian organization on the campus affords you the best opportunity for obtaining this part of your training.

May Kenney, president of Y. W. C. A., will make herself known to you if she has the opportunity, but it is more difficult for one student to make the acquaintance of 1500 others than it would be for each of the 1500 to seek her out as she is the most conspicuous and well known figure at Eastern.

"Morning Watch" a ten-minute devotional period, is held every morning at 7 o'clock, with the exception of Sunday, when it is held at 8 o'clock. It would be worthwhile for every student to acquaint herself with the nature of these services. We are looking forward to having you with us and are hoping that you will become an active Y. W. member.

DEAN TURCK TO SPEAK

President Charles J. Turck, of Centre College, will deliver the address on Thursday of the first week of the second semester.

Eastern to Share in Association Benefits

Eastern has been a member of the Kentucky Association of Colleges for some time. President T. J. Coates being president of that association.

More than a year ago application was made for membership in the Southern Association of Colleges, of which all schools of any importance in the south are members. Since it is necessary for an application to be in the hands of officials of the association for a year before it can be acted upon, it was only recently

"THE PROWLER" GETS NEW JOB

Feature Writer Declares Eastern Best Thing Around Richmond

BURNAM HALL INTERESTS

I got myself anew job the other day. That job consists of writin' for this here school paper, The Progress. I don't know much about writin', so I don't know how I will make out at this job. I hadn't been doin' much toward fillin' up space, so the other day the editor—I believe he is called, anyway he told me what to do like he was boss—told me that if I s'pected to stay with my job very long that I had better get on the job and tell the publik somethin'.

In order to tell the publik what they need to know—not that I give a hang for this here job—I started prowlin' around to see what was to be seen. First place this here town of Richmond is a furst rate town. I like it. There are several things about the burg that I like, but best of all is this here Normal School and Teachers College. To me it is about the biggest thing hereabout.

They got several houses on the school grounds. I don't see any need for as many houses. But they told me that all of them are being used. Some of them are new and some are not so new. There one that they tell me has been here a long time, University Building—I believe they call it. The one I am most interested in is this here new one, Burnam Hall. That sure is a big house. It will hold about 300 and a few girls. They feed all the students in the basement of that house. Then there is another new house about to be finished. One of the boys told me that it was an office building. All these fellers that hain't got nothin' for sure to do will have an office over there. Then it looks like I will have to have a class or two over there. It will be a little hard on some of the gals when they move the store over in that house. Then they will have to do without their breakfast—that is those that eat there.

Several of the boys and their gals like to go over to that big house they call the library. It sure is a big house. They got more books there than most any place I have ever seen. Magazines nad newspapers, I never did see so many.

I heard some of them talkin' about, maybe, two new houses that the president wanted. One was a gymnasium and the other was to be used as a chapel. This here chapel is to be built onto the new house that is being completed over by the president's house.

All in all, you know, I think they have a nice bunch of houses on the school grounds. I like to go to school here and I bet you a two-bit piece you will like it here too. You know it is rather easy to come to school here. About all you have to do is write the president and he will see that you get to come. But if you don't want to write the president you might send a little note down to the business manager. He is a perty good fellar, altho he is red headed.

THE PROWLER.

PURDUE QUINT BEST

CHICAGO, Jan. 25 (P)—Purdue University today remains at the top of the western conference basketball standings, the result of defeating Indiana University last night, 28 to 25. The Boiler Makers have won three games, defeating Indiana, Illinois and Iowa.

Indiana dropped back to fourth position with three wins and two defeats, leaving Northwestern and Wisconsin undisputed co-holders of second place with three victories and one defeat.

SMILES

Oh! what a cute little dolly! Does she say "Mama" when you squeeze her? Naw! My dolly is a modern doll. When you squeeze her she says "Oh, boy!"

When Adam in bliss
Asked Eve for a kiss,
She puckered her lips, with a coo;
With looks quite ecstatic,
She answered emphatic:
"I don't care, Adam, if I do!"

Last night I held a little hand—
So dainty and so neat;
I thought my heart would surely burst
So wildly did it beat.

Teacher: Can you tell me where shingles were first used?

John: Yes'm, but I'd rather not, ma'am.

EDITORIAL

The mid-way point has been reached. Some of us are dropping by the wayside; most of us are going on. To those that are leaving, for any reason, we must say that we are somewhat disappointed. We are sorry you have to leave. We believe you could stay if you only would. Since you will not we will take this chance of saying that your presence on the campus has been greatly enjoyed, we hope you success in whatever you endeavor on going out, and only hope that you will see fit to come back next year.

To those of you that are staying we offer our congratulations. You have weathered the storm of the first half of the year and we wish you the best of success thru the remainder of the year. By your staying you have signified that you mean business, that you intend to finish your school work, a goal that every student should strive to attain.

To the new students we offer a word of welcome. Many of you are returning after having spent a successful year in the school room. We are glad to have you back. Drop right into your old places and make things hum. Many of you are coming to us for the first time. It is to you that we are glad to say welcome. You may find the going just a little rough for a time, you may not get started as soon as you would like, you may have it a little rough in enrolling, but only remember that it will not last long. You may become discouraged and homesick, but after a week you will be alright.

Within a week we will all be as one large family. Then it is up to each of us to make the best of our time and get going from the very start and when the time comes to turn down the home stretch next spring, we will be prepared to come through with flying colors. Make Eastern proud of you and in return you will be proud of Eastern.

CHAPEL NOTES

One of the most interesting, as well as beneficial chapel programs of the year, was presented last Friday morning when Mr. Paul N. Guthrie, field secretary of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, addressed the student body on different phases of his work.

One was immediately impressed by Mr. Guthrie in the way that he went into his subject. To see so young a man wholly wrapped up in his work was much of an inspiration.

The high point of his talk was wrapped up in two words, "find truth." He said that we are not going to be able to stop the use of alcohol by passing laws only, but that it was very necessary that we educate the people that they might understand the laws. Give the people truths in order that they might get a small idea as to what it was all about.

Mr. Guthrie spent the day and evening on the campus in discussion with various students as to the question of alcoholism. At six-thirty he met with a number of the Y. W. C. A. girls and conducted something of a general discussion on the business of educating people against the use of alcohol.

Visitor: Are you a student here?
 Jesse: No, I just go to school here.

Eastern's Plea to Budget Commission

The state budget commission, in session at Frankfort recently heard the request of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School and Teachers College for an appropriation sufficient to build a new auditorium and a new men's gymnasium.

Dr. T. J. Coates, president of the college, is attending the meeting and presenting the claims of the school for an appropriation to meet the needs. The normal school received a special appropriation for the building of new Burnam hall, the new administration building and an auditorium at the last session of the legislature, but the cost of the new dormitory and the administration building exceeded the estimate and funds were not available to construct the auditorium.

EASTERN LOSES TO TRANSY

Boys Trounced 39 to 21, Female Five Defeated 37 to 20

TRAILED AT HALF 16 - 3

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 20—A vastly improved Transylvania Pioneer basketball team defeated Eastern Teachers College of Richmond 39 to 21 here last night. At the same time the Transy girls found the going easy with the Eastern Normal girls and won their second straight game by a score of 37 to 20.

In the varsity game the Maroons did not score a field goal in the first half and did not score a marker from the field for fully eight minutes after the second half got under way. The first half ended 16 to 3.

Freeman was first to score for Transy, sinking a crip. He was fouled by Guy and got two more. Curtice added a crip and the score stood 6 to 0. Curtice made the score 8 to 0 and Camp's pot shot was good and the count stood 10 to 0. Curtice made it 11 to 0 with a free throw. Salyers scored Eastern's first point, a foul shot, but Curtice retaliated with a crip.

Guy scored Eastern's first field goal in the second half, but the Maroons were too far outclassed to overcome the advantage attained by the Pioneers.

In the girls' game, Miss Sabel scored first, but the first half was a nip and tuck affair with Transy leading 14 to 12 at the end of the period. The first team lineup was injected in the fourth quarter, and the Sirens began ringing up points, easily outclassing the visitors.

Misses Bailey, Hardwick and Sabel were best for Transy, Miss Bailey scoring 12 points, while Misses Clay and Simmons starred for the visitors.

"THE BRAT" IS WELL PLAYED

Little Theatre Club Acceptably Presents Ingenious Comedy; Talent Disclosed

THE CAST

Mrs. Forrester	Francys Searcy
MacMillan, her son	Charles Ray
Bishop, her younger son	Jas. Cornett
Bishop Ware, her brother	Orville Hamilton
Mrs. Ware, his wife	Glenn Faulconer
Dorothy, his small daughter	Rebecca Fancher
Jane Depew, a spinster	Mary Arnold
Angela Smythe, a debutante	Dora Hancock
Timson, the butler	Harold Douds
	Frances Mason

The Little Theater Club of Eastern Kentucky Teachers College made its 1928 debut Jan. 10 with the presentation of that pleasing comedy, "The Brat," written by Maude Fulton and first presented in the Forty-Second Street Theater in New York.

The weather conditions did not tend to promote concentration of either cast or audience on the presentation of the play and the enjoyment consequently suffered as a result.

Miss Frances Mason, as "The Brat," a little urchin picked up from the street by MacMillan Forrester, the conceited young author, interested primarily in "types," was especially good and probably deserved a little more wholehearted support from the other leading characters than she received.

Charles Ray, as the young author, spoke his lines well, but hardly loud enough to be heard above the howling of the wind as it shook the frame gymnasium. This fault was noticeable in practically the entire cast with the exception of Miss Mason; Miss Mary Arnold, who took the part of the spinster friend of the Forresters, and Orville Hamilton, who portrayed very successfully the part of Bishop Ware, brother of Mrs. Forrester.

Miss Arnold, as Jane Depew, handled her part well and the numerous cryptic statements given to her never failed to bring a ripple of applause and laughter from the half-frozen audience, especially when she said "I always like to be perfectly frank when I'm doing anything underhanded."

James Cornett, as Stephen Forrester, the younger and unappreciated son of Mrs. Forrester, portrayed by Miss Francys Searcy, handled his role well with the possible exception of a tendency to overplay the dipsomatic part when he and Timson, the butler, played by Harold Douds, became gloriously drunk on about three small glasses of wine. Douds mastered the Irish, or was it English, brogue very well indeed, although his staggerings about the stage in the drunk scene bespoke a slight unfamiliarity with the reality.

Miss Dora Hancock, as Angela Smythe, a debutante who thru hook and crook manages to land the successful young author, handled the part in a conscientious manner.

All in all Miss Pearl Buchanan, who has achieved much success in the direction of the Little Theater Club, deserves the commendation of the club for the production. The play naturally has its limitations. A re-presentation with another week of practice would whip the comedy into such shape that it would be hard to surpass.

MAROONS LOSE TO UNION FIVE

Feminine Five Defeats Union College Girls 20 to 14 As Boys Fail

GENTRY HIGH POINTER

A last-minute whirlwind finish by the Union College quintet Saturday night found the Maroons on the short end of a 21 to 19 score. The Maroons were out in front at the half and led up to within a few minutes of the final whistle when several goals in rapid succession gave Union a two point lead and victory.

The maroonettes, now more accustomed to playing modified rules, took the visiting girls into camp by a 20 to 14 margin. The Maroonettes were never hard pressed to win and did not have to show their best tricks.

For the Maroons Gentry was high point man with 10 while Combs garnered 8 and Clifton got a foul shot. Gentry's long shots worked admirably during the first half of the contest but in the second half they did not hit the hoops with any degree of regularity. Salyers played a nice floor game until he was taken out.

The boys game was particularly rough and many fouls were made by both sides. Starks, for Union, was high point man with eight to his credit.

For the Maroonettes Miss Morgan played a nice game at forward, making several pretty shots and getting a total of eight points. Miss Clay, center, played her usual excellent game and had seven points for her total. Simmons got five and played a nice floor game. Combs and Cornett did good work at guard and prevented many Union shots from being made good.

The lineups and summaries follow:

EASTERN DROPS 2 TO WESLEYAN

Maroons Downed 34 to 25; Girls Bested 22 to 5 In Slow Game

MODIFIED RULES USED

WINCHESTER, Ky., Jan. 16.—Kentucky Wesleyan's varsity boys' and girls' teams scored a double victory at the expense of the Eastern Normal quintets here tonight. The Panthers won, 34 to 25, while the girls were winning, 22 to 5.

Wesleyan took the lead in the boys' game when Hummel caged a difficult shot from an angle, closely followed by Atkins' crip. Moberly was first to score for Eastern, although they never caught up and were behind at the half, 18 to 10.

The second half was slow, each team playing cautious ball. Turner scored first for Wesleyan and the Panthers had little trouble holding their lead the rest of the game.

In the girls' contest, Miss Nixon was the whole show, scoring 13 points, and covering the entire floor. The first quarter ended, 4 to 3, in favor of Eastern, but Wesleyan forged ahead as the first half ended, 12 to 4. They were never threatened after that, Eastern failing to score a field goal during the entire game.

The girls' game was played under modified rules and the Eastern girls showed no familiarity with that style of play. Not a single member of the Eastern squad has ever played under modified rules.

BOYS' GAME		Wesleyan (34)		Pos. (25) E. Normal
Hummel (12)	F	(1)	Pieh
Webb	F	(4)	Gentry
Turner (11)	G	(6)	Moberly
Adkins (6)	G	(4)	Combs
Royse (3)	G	(7)	Triplet

Substitutions: Wesleyan—Srother, Davis, Powers, Reeves, Hatcher (2). Eastern—Guy, Sauffley (2), Salyers (1), Douds, Clouse.

GIRLS' GAME		Wesleyan (22)		Pos. (5) Eastern
Easton (2)	F	(1)	Eckert
Harris (6)	F	(1)	Simmons
Dixon (13)	C	(2)	Clay
Royster	G		Combs
Tyles	G		Moberly

Substitutions: Wesleyan—Randolph, Reece. Eastern—Maguire, Morgan, Tate (1), Bunch, Messersmith. Referee—Howard (both games).

A good place to start a p-nut stand would be in new Burnam Hall lobby, according to the crowd that was there last Sunday.

STUDENTS MUST DEAN ISSUES HAVE GEOMETRY CREDIT NOTICE

None to Be Admitted Fithout All Entrance Requirements, Dean Cooper Says

It was formerly the practice in all prospective students and all principals of high schools from which some of the institutions of Kentucky in which were maintained both a college and a secondary school to admit to the college students who had only fourteen secondary school units and permit them to enroll in the secondary school for the additional unit required for entrance to the college. Such was the practice in Eastern until this year. This year Eastern admits conditionally on fourteen units (see catalog p. 69), but does not assign the student a full load and expects him to satisfy the additional unit by examination within the year.

Beginning September, 1928, no student will be admitted to the college who has not met every entrance requirement.

About two students per hundred offer to enter who have no credit in geometry, although a full unit of that subject is required. You can not satisfy this requirement in a few weeks only. If you do not have credit for geometry and expect to enter Eastern as a college student next year, you should begin now to get the geometry requirement out of your way. You may take it by correspondence if you like. If you want to take it with Eastern by correspondence, address Fallen Cambell, Acting Director, Richmond, Ky.

Unless Certificate From Accredited Hi School is Presented Entrance to be Withheld

BLANKS ARE FURNISHED

Eastern has in the past admitted an occasional person as a special student pending receipt of high school credits or other credentials. It has become increasingly noticeable that this practice was bad. Besides, high school principals are now so much accustomed to certifying credits that it seems best, therefore, to admit no any delay seems to be unnecessary. student from this time on unless his credentials were on file. Accordingly, this policy was announced in the catalog of 1927, p. 46, for the information of all who expect to enter.

To avoid delay and disappointment students expect to enter should take notice and pass the word to their friends that at the registration the second semester and at subsequent registrations no student will be registered in the college whose high school credits are not on file in official form in the office of our registrar.

If you thing of registering decide the question now and get ready. If you decide only the day before registration do not blame anyone but yourself if you have trouble because of not being ready.

Blank forms for certifying credits may be procured by addressing M. E. Mattox, Registrar, Richmond, Kentucky.

HOMER E. COOPER, Dean.

Richards: Tell me, what is it when I say "I love, you love, he loves?"

Thelma: That's one of those triangles where somebody gets shot.

that Eastern's standing was made known.

At the annual meeting of the association last month it was voted to admit the Normal School to the Southern Association of Secondary Schools. Because the college had not met with one requirement, a given number of instructors with Ph.D. degrees on the faculty, it was not admitted as an active member. However, the college of this school was placed on the non-active membership roll. This act allows graduates of Eastern to teach in any of the high schools of the state that are members of the association, there being some seventy in the state.

Before a school can become a member of this association it is necessary to meet very strict requirements. The physics and chemistry departments must have a given amount of equipment, the normal school and college had to be separated and a number of other improvements made. All of the requirements had been met by the time of the association meeting, excepting the required number of faculty members with Ph.D. degrees. The Board of Regents has given President Coates permission to pay a larger salary to people holding such a degree. In all probability this requirement will be met by next fall and Eastern will be admitted as an active member of the association.

CLOSES TERM'S WORK

club was organized during the second term of last year and since that time has proved very successful. This semester the club served a dinner in its quarters to the members of the "Commercial Club," the football banquet in the new cafeteria given by the Rotary and Exchange Clubs of Richmond, and last but not least a dinner to the members of the club which convinced those present that it was really worthwhile to belong to the Home Economics Club.

An organization of any type is known by its leader. This principle applies very satisfactorily to Home Economics Club. Under the leadership of Miss Evelyn Ellison and guardianship of Miss Burrier the club has made a name worthy of its purpose. Miss Ellison, a Home Economics major, has made a very satisfactory president with which to start the year out. She is always willing to give her assistance whenever and wherever possible. And can she cook? You should just taste her cooking. Just like Cracker Jacks—"the more you eat, the more you want."

With all the fine work accomplished by Miss Ellison the club is reluctant to give her up. However, they know that their next president, Miss Massey, will prove just as successful. The club offers its entire support to Miss Massey's program for the second term and with this in back of a leader success is assured.

At the opening of the second term the Home Economics Club extends a hearty welcome to Miss Ruth Dix, its faculty advisor. They take this opportunity to thank Miss Burrier and Mrs. Burrier for their everlasting cooperation. They dislike to give up Miss Burrier as an advisor, but hope that she will not cease to attend the meetings and still be one of the club.

It was very unusual to see Ira with Loreen only once last week.

The hand carved cough drop for this month is presented to Bob Adkins, who hurried home after waiting a half hour for his new girl, Gladys, to whistle after she had puckered her lips.

Roy Staton seems to find quite a bit of attraction at the cottage. We wonder if he has to see Dr. Scudder so often?

Thelma Hughes will not be in school this coming semester. We extend our sympathy to Herman Wood.

Oscar was overheard the other night when he said to Ruth:

"Our eyes have met—our lips have met,

And I can taste that lipstick yet; So you can bet I won't forget—I think I am poisoned by what I et."

The Corner Club gave a farewell party the other night for three of its members who are leaving at the close of the semester, Misses Thelma Hughes, Ethel Mingua and Mildred Pollick. Ice cream and cake were served.

This month's prevailing fad seems to be to get campused.

All the boxing bouts that occurred this past week didn't take place in the gym.

The brat used to be an undesirable name. But since Miss Frances Mason played this part so well last Friday night we should feel complimented to be so called.

No other hand e'er held so tight Could greater gladness bring Than the one I held last night—which was Four aces and a king.

We know a man so bashful he has receding gums.
