Cadets Will Honor Kennedy's Memory

Military Day Highlights Include Parade, Ceremony

Eastern's 1,750-cadet ROTC brigade will pay tribute to late President John F. Kennedy in a pre-game memorial service tomorrow as they commemorate the fourth annual Military Day. The activities begin at 10 a.m., when the entire cadet brigade, including the ROTC band and sponsors, and all the special units within the brigade, parades through downtown Richmond. Pre-game ceremonies, beginning at 1:30 p.m., will assemble all the cadets on the Hanger Stadium field, along with the band and sponsors. The brigade will stand at parade rest while the band plays the U.S. Navy hymn, following a prayer in honor of the late president. The band will also play the Eastern Alma Mater and the Star Spangled Banner as part of the pre-game assembly.

Moberly of Richmond and Michael Stull of Covington, all seniors, commanders of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd battalions respectively. Sponsors of these units are Paula Bunton, Jacksonville, Fla.; Betsy Stafford, Ashland; and Kathleen Nelson, Springfield, Ohio.

All cadets will wear identical uniforms and march in regular place in the brigade; special units—such as Pershing Rifles, Counter-Insurgency Raiders and Scabbard and Blade—will not be distinguished from the total brigade. The parade route extends from the corner of Park Drive

Dedication Principals

Honored by a building and two lecture halls, guests at Sunday's dedication ceremonies on the campus are welcomed by President Robert R. Martin, second from left. Twin lecture halls are named for Dr. D. T. Ferrell, retired head of the Education Department, left, and Dr. P. M. Grise, head of the Department of English, right; while the entire building honors the former Governor Bert T. Combs.

By Former Attorney - General

Combs Building Called 'Honor To Eastern'

"Eastern Kentucky State College honors itself in honoring former Governor Bert Combs as the genesis of the efforts which have been crowned with such great success on this and other state college campuses," General Jo M. Ferguson, former attorney-general of the Commonwealth told an audience of educators, state officials, staff, faculty and friends at dedication ceremonies Sunday for the Bert Combs Classroom Building. The handsome new $2.9 million classroom building is named for the man who, according to Ferguson, "was the first of our chief executives to admit without reservation that the primary job in the field of higher education must be undertaken by the State, and to set about to undertake that job."

Some 500 guests also heard Dr. J. Dorland Coates, associate dean for teacher education, dedicate the D. T. Ferrell room, in honor of the former head of Eastern's department of education, retired after 38 years of service to the college.

Coates told his audience that Dr. Ferrell had counseled more than 5,000 teachers of elementary education, and that "many generations in the future will benefit from this room, as many in the past have benefited by the presence of this man we honor today."

Response By Dr. Ferrell In responding to the dedication, Dr. Ferrell said, "Men live on in the very finest ways as they live in their students."

Dr. Quentin Keen of the Department of English dedicated the P. M. Grise Room, which like the Ferrell Room is a 326-seat lecture hall in the new building.

Other highlights of the hour-long ceremonies were presentation of keys to the building by held by his colleagues. He added that Dr. Grise "insists that English is for all people who use the English language."

The dedication, written by Professor William L. Keene, also of the English Department, was read responsively by Keene and the audience.

Other highlights of the hour-long ceremonies were presentation of keys to the building by

More than 10,000 alumni, students and friends of Eastern participated in the annual Homecoming festivities this past weekend.

Highlight of the activities was the crowning of Miss Jeannie Gail Ashe, a junior business and English major from Rogersville, Tenn., as Homecoming Queen.

Her attendants were Miss Vicki Reedy, a freshman elementary education major from Irvine, representing McGregor Hall, as first runner-up, and Miss Nancy Lewis, a freshman business education major from Versailles, representing the Woodford County Club, as second runner-up. Forty-two coeds competed for the coveted honor. In float competition, Kappa Pi took first place honors in the beauty division with its interpretation of the Boston Tea Party, and Pulaski County Club took top honors in originality with the Gold Rush.

Burnam Hall won first in building decorations.

Sixty-two floats and marching units participated in Saturday morning's parade, including Madison, Madison Central, Model, Frankfort, and Versailles, Ind., high school bands, and the 120-member Eastern "Marching Maroons."

Miss Ashe, a daughter of Mrs. Ida Ashe, represented the Pershing Rifles. She was crowned by Dr. Ted C. Gilbert, executive secretary of the Council on Public Higher Education, just before the Eastern-Tennessee Tech game at Hanger Stadium. Miss Bernada Woody, 1963 homecoming queen, placed the official robe around her shoulders.

Homecoming activities actually got under way Friday night with the annual Alumni Dance in the Keen Johnson Student Union Building, where the 42 candidates for queen were presented for the first time.

Alumni registered from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Saturday in the Student Union. From 11:30 a.m. until 1 p.m., the association's buffet dinner was held in the main cafeteria. After the game, the Alumni Association hosted old grads to a coffee in Walnut Hall, followed by a dinner in the cafeteria.

Special guests of the college for the weekend were members of the OVC championship team of 1954, which played in the Tangerine Bowl. The former players, their wives and families were honored by a special reunion luncheon in the Student Union Building at 11:30. The ex-players sat on the sidelines during the game.

Following the game, a reception was given by Glenn Pressnell, coach of the 1954 team and now athletic director at Eastern, and Mrs. Pressnell. Saturday evening, another reception, followed by a dinner and dance was held at the Madison Country Club.

Mr. Barr Speaks

Assembly Observes Education Week

American Education Week was recognized at Eastern Wednesday as the Student National Education Association presented the weekly assembly program.

Theme for the convocation was "Education Pays Dividends."

Featured speaker in the Alumni Coliseum program was Dixon Barr, head of Eastern's Department of Education.

Directing his remarks to the 2,300 freshmen attending the assembly, Barr said, "Quality teaching makes quality education."

He told the group that between 70 and 80 per cent of them would enter the teaching profession and asked them to consider some of the characteristics, which he called "The Art of Teaching."

Ingredients Listed

Barr listed the ingredients of a good teacher as: (1) possessing a deep understanding of subject-matter, (2) knowing what to do with the subject-matter, (3) developing skills as to how to teach, (4) being excited and enthused about the teaching profession, (5) becoming a creative teacher through discussing, encouraging, supporting, and motivating students, and (6) cooperating with other members of the profession.

He urged the students as future teachers to develop these skills in order to rekindle the desire to learn within their students.

Also appearing on the program was Miss Beverly Keith, a senior from Corbin, who explained the purpose of the SNEA.

"The organization," she said, "is the professional association for college students who are interested in entering the teaching profession." She told the group that the association provides opportunities for personal and professional growth.

The campus chapter of SNEA has a membership of 400 students.

Officers of the group include: Miss Sharon Leasor, Louisville junior, president, who presided at Wednesday morning's program; Miss Ann Thomas, Falmouth, first vice president; Miss Sharon Newman, Hamilton, Ohio, second vice president; Miss Pat Roberts, Paris, secretary; Miss Mary Ann Brassfield, Winchester, treasurer; Miss Doris Miller, Somerset, historian, and Miss Lena Garver, Carrollton, publicity.

Others participating in the assembly were Mrs. Kay Jacober, sophomore from Madison Heights, Va., who introduced the speaker; Carl Hurley, senior from Richmond, devotional, and Miss Mona Willoughby, senior from Richmond, special music.

Also recognized were the coaches for the Eastern football team: Roy Kidd, head coach; Don Daly, Bill Shannon and Carl Oakley. Kidd announced that the honorary football captains for this year were selected Tuesday night by the team. They are Herbie Conley, Ashland, and Todd Reynolds, Jackson, Ohio. Captains for each game were appointed throughout the season.

DANCE TOMORROW

The Senior class is sponsoring a dance in the cafeteria tomorrow from 8 to 12 p. m. The Titans will play. Dress is casual and tickets $1.50 per couple and $1.00 stag. Everyone is invited to attend.

In Reserve Unit

Army ROTC Program Receives Big Boost

"The greatest thing to happen to ROTC since its beginning," is the way professor of military science Colonel Everett Smith describes the new Reserve Officer Training Corps program recently signed into law by President Lyndon Johnson.

The new program, which is centered primarily around the advanced program provides these advances over the old arrangement:

(1) That advanced program students must enlist in a reserve component.

(2) Establishment of 5,500 scholarships for each of the three services, but imposes a limitation of 4,000 each for the Army and Air Force during the first four years the legislation is in effect.

(3) Increased summer camp pay from $78.00 to $120.60 per month.

(4) Increase of the old $27.90 per month subsistence pay to a retainer pay of not more than $50 or less than $40 per month.

Other sections of the bill re-instate older aspects of the ROTC program or only modify them slightly.

Immediate Enlistment

In Eastern's case, the bill necessitated the immediate enlistment of the advanced course students in a reserve component which consists of a

'ASK NOT'

In Memoriam

ROTC Honors Late President

Tomorrow will be the fourth annual Military Day at Eastern, and aside from the now traditional parade through downtown Richmond, and the pre-game march onto the field, there will be another more solemn moment as the over 1,700 cadets pause for a prayer in memory of our late President John F. Kennedy, followed by the ROTC band playing the Navy Hymn during the pre-game ceremonies.

By The Band

President Martin Day Fitting

The Marching Maroons and their director, Mr. Nick Koenigstein, are to be commended for their designation of Homecoming as President Martin Day, and honoring Dr. Martin with the halftime presentation.

Needless to say, such a presentation was certainly appropriate, especially with the many alumni on hand to witness the occasion. The amazing thing about the program was that it was such a well-kept secret. A large number of Eastern students apparently knew it was going to happen, but it was fairly obvious that it came as a great surprise to President Martin and clearly touched him deeply.

An interesting incident concerning the band's presentation was related to the Progress by Mike Campbell, Eastern band member who presented Dr. Martin with a plaque at halftime. Mike said that one day last week Dr. Martin drove by the Alumni Coliseum parking lot where the band was practicing spelling out "Martin." President Martin reportedly asked Mr. Koenigstein how rehearsals were going and got "fine" as a reply. If Dr. Martin had not been on the same level as the band he would have seen what the band was spelling.

While dealing with a topic concerning the band, we have another opportunity to congratulate and praise them for the fine performances they have presented at halftime during the football season. Larger numbers of fans have remained in the stands for the half-time show than in any other past season, indicating that the Marching Maroons are appreciated.

And judging by the tremendous ovation given our band and feature twirler, Miss Mary Jo Holl, two weeks ago when they performed in Bowling Green at Western's homecoming, the Marching Maroons are truly becoming, in the words of their public address announcer, "The Pride of Kentuckiana."

Today, nearly a year since the tragic assassination, there is still a great remembrance on the part of the American people, and a thankfulness that our system is constructed in such a way as to carry on through such disasters.

It is especially fitting that this should follow last year's Military Day, which was the day after the President's death and was made a memorial service to him.

The exercises tomorrow will be the first public appearance of Eastern's ROTC brigade this year, and it is particularly appropriate that the staff has decided to honor the memory of President Kennedy.

'I Am A Camera'

Theatre Production Distinctive

By MRS. BETTY MOHS
Instructor of English

Eastern's Little Theatre presented John Van Druten's "I Am A Camera" this week, the last performance of which is scheduled for tonight at the Pearl Buchanan Theatre. The director, Mr. Joe Johnson, as well as his able cast and crew, are to be commended for their distinctive production of this play. "I Am A Camera" is a play which relies on larger-than-life characters rather than a plot or a message. Far from being a conventional play, it could better be considered a "stage piece." Set in the 1930's in Berlin, the play revolves around Chris, an aspiring writer and Sally, an amoral young woman. The relentless pursuit of the Jews by the Nazis is woven into the scenes by the secondary principals, Fritz and Natalia.

Eastern's production was a smooth one, pointed up by a strong cast and some sheer wizardry in staging. There were no weak characterizations in this show. All of the actors lent strength in making this an outstanding production. Singled out for acting honors must be Miss Elizabeth Craft, who breathed life into the role of Sally with consummate ability and skill.

She served up this difficult role so effectively that the audience viewed Sally with a mixture of dislike tempered with compassion. Chris, the "camera," as played by Kenn Keith, built from a hesitant young man in the first scene to a dominant, forceful man by the third act curtain. And Miss Shirley Harmon, the landlady, brought a three-dimensional quality to her role from her rolling eyes to her wrinkled stockings.

The audience will not soon forget the excellence of the rest of the cast: Al Allison, who played Fritz; Miss Suzanne Ankrum, who played Natalia; Larry Measle, who was Clive; and Miss Gail Marsee, who played Mrs. Watson-Courtneidge to the hilt.

Light and Zestful
Mr. Johnson directed this play with a light and zestful touch, revealing to the audience the many facets of each character. His assistants, Miss Jennifer Marcum, David Bond, Jerry Smith, and Miss Betty Pennycuff, are to be credited with some of the most authentic staging seen here or elsewhere.

The costumes were magnificently reminiscent of the early 1930's, right down to the thick-heeled shoes and long skirts. The set, part of a middle-class German home, will be long remembered for its garish wallpaper and excellent period pieces.

"I Am A Camera" brings to its audience a "slice of life," but cut in a different pattern. It allows the audience to gain many insights into some characters and to decide for itself where these characters are going. With a truly good cast and excellent production, this play provides a most enjoyable evening's entertainment.

I AM A CAMERA... Performances of "I Am A Camera" began Monday and end tonight in the Pearl Buchanan Theatre. Kenn Keith, right, senior from Pleasure

Ridge, is the protagonist who acts as "camera," at left is Elizabeth Craft, senior from Whitesburg and center is Shirley Harmon, senior from David.

Although We Lost

Homecoming Was A Big Success

Even though the Maroons lost their football game, Homecoming-1964 will have to be remembered as the best in Eastern history.

A near record crowd in Hanger Stadium, including a tremendous number of returning graduates, was only one facet of a Homecoming that was complete in every way.

One of the most intangible, yet important, aspects of this year's Homecoming was the attitude of our Alumni — there was truly that feeling of coming home.

Most of the "old" graduates that we saw were impressed with the beauty of the campus, the continued growth, and were glad to see that Eastern still retains the charm and friendliness that made such lasting impressions upon them as undergraduates.

Impressive pre-game activities, coupled with the touching band show at halftime in honor of Dr. Martin, carried the Homecoming spirit through the afternoon, although the Maroons fell in defeat.

The parade Saturday morning surely will be remembered as the best ever here. The floats, even though limited in cost for the first time, were evidently better than last year's and much greater pains were taken by the Eastern organizations to build good floats this year than ever before. The campus clubs are to be congratulated.

Congratulations are also in order for Miss Sharon Dones, KYMA president, who did so much to make Homecoming the huge success that it was.

In this Alumni issue of the Progress, we want to tell the Alumni who were with us last weekend that the campus is ready for their return at any time, not just once a year at Homecoming, and to those graduates who were not here that they missed a great Homecoming.

Sights And Sounds

By JIM STEVENSON
Progress Arts Editor

The Eastern Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Robert Oppelt, will be presenting its first concert of the season this coming Wednesday morning at 10. The presentation will take place during the assembly in Alumni Coliseum and there are plenty of seats for all students who wish to attend.

The program set for this opening concert has an excellent variety of both classical and light classical music. It includes Kabalevsky's "Dance of the Comedians," the first movement from Mozart's "Symphony No. 31" (the "Paris Symphony"), Saint Saens, "Allegro Appassionata" with the Cello solo being played by Miss Louise Hinkbehn, "Capriccio Espagnol" by Rimsky-Korsakov, Vaughn Williams' "Fantasia on Greensleeves," and Prokofiev's "Lieutenant Kijl Suite."

The suite from "Lieutenant Kijl," when it is well played, is in itself worth the time to go and listen to. It was originally a score written in 1934 for a Russian motion picture of the same title. Although the film has long since been forgotten, the music is still very popular, having found its way to the American concert stages in the late thirties. (It is at present recorded on nine different record labels.) Light, melodic, orchestrally colorful and moving, this is, in my opinion, one of Prokofiev's best works.

It looks as if Eastern might get something that it really needs. At the present time, there are hopes for the future existence of a permanent art gallery on campus to be prepared in room 104 of the Cammack Building.

Art Gallery

Although the whole project still needs the final approval of President Martin, to obtain the room for the purpose, there is little doubt that by next autumn there will be a continuous "revolving" display in the Art Department.

These exhibits will cover the whole range of the visual arts from student and faculty shows to traveling displays and Museum collections.

The transformation of this room for this purpose is highly desirable as it will provide for the proper method of display as well as protection for any valuable pieces that may be obtained.

At the present, paintings, sculptures, constructions and the like are being displayed in the Cammack first-floor hallway which has proven itself inadequate in its amount of space, in its lighting and in its flexibility. (Besides, hallways are difficult to lock up at night.)

New Contest

While on the subject of new things, I might add that this year for the first time there has been formed the W. L. Keene Oratorical Contest for women. Named after Dr. William Keene, Professor of English, this competition is the twin of the older Weaver Oratorical Contest for men. This will open the way to a large display of talent from many talented and previously neglected women.

Hurry Up And Wait

Marriage Ends Freedom

(ACP)—THE VIEW, Mount St. Mary's College, Los Angeles, Calif., has this to say:

Early marriage puts an end to what is known as the freedom of youth. So, too, does early engagement in public affairs.

Of course, if you equate the freedom of youth with freedom from everything, then it might be just as well to make a bee-line for the homestead or the marketplace. Better to be involved in some responsibility than to be just twiddling your thumbs.

But if it should be that the freedom of youth is freedom for something, then it might be just a little bit unfortunate that so often it gets thrown away in a scramble for husbands or husbands.

From what is the freedom of youth? From marriage and taking care of society. For what is the freedom of youth? For furious debate, argument, study, reading about the foundations of marriage and taking care.

It is not for making up one's mind and coming to conclusions and swinging into action. It is freedom for holding off as long

Letters To The Editor Of The Progress

Dear Students,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank every club for their help with Homecoming. KYMA Club has received many compliments on the parade, but KYMA's work would have been nothing without the effort of every club represented in the parade. I don't believe I have ever seen a more beautiful selection of floats. There was a tremendous amount of enthusiasm concerning Homecoming and every club worked extremely hard to make their float the very best. This effort made the parade the most beautiful, original and biggest in the history of Eastern. We in KYMA Club are glad that we did not have to judge the floats, for if we had, there would have been thirty-three first place winners.

I would also like to take this opportunity to apologize to everyone I have been associated with, in recent weeks for the sharpness of my tongue. Again I would like to thank all of the clubs involved for making the parade the best one the Alumni could have expected and to say please forgive my lack of consideration of other people and their feelings, by my loosely-connected tongue.

Sincerely,
Sharon Dones
KYMA Club, President

Getting Out News

(ACP)—THE OPTIMIST, weekly newspaper on the campus of Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, came out in time, even though —

The editor's bed burned. She and her husband moved from their house into a motel and tried to run the paper while washing smoked clothes.

Somebody forgot to set up a room for Friday's staff meeting.

The list of reporters' assignments got lost.

The business manager was in two successive auto wrecks.

It could have been worse. The week before, the press broke down.

WANT TO BE A COLONEL?
 Eastern's sports events will be lacking one of her colonels at the end of this semester. Anyone interested in applying for the position should see Larry Rees before next Friday.
 KYMA Club and the cheerleaders are in charge of finding a Colonel. Specifications have not yet been set but those concerned should show an interest now.
 Rees lives in 406 Dupree Hall.

Ten violinists, violists and cellists — most of them music majors here — will appear in a recital program Monday, during the three-day convention at the Southern Baptist Seminary of the Kentucky Music Teachers Association.

At the Louisville meeting, the viola section of Eastern's symphony orchestra will play the rarely-performed Sixth Brandenburg Concerto by Bach, first movement.

A string quintet, made up of Eastern's orchestra members, will also offer the first movement of a Mozart Quintet in E-Flat.

control group with its headquarters on this campus.

Colonel Smith was quick to point out that the purpose of this part of the bill was to insure the Army's investment in a cadet which totals about $1,100 over a two year period. An individual who is required to drop out of school for economic, physical or academic reasons will not be called to active duty, but those who willfully try to evade the contract will be.

No Meetings

The PMS also explained that Eastern's advanced course students will not be required to attend reserve meetings, but that they are, in fact, serving two years of their six-year service obligation while students in the ROTC program.

He said that 100 Eastern students were affected by the new bill.

New IBM Machine Will Score Tests

A machine that does in minutes the test-scoring work of 10 man-hours has been put to service for faculty members, according to Dr. Joe Rowlett, the College's director of research.

The IBM Optical Mark Scoring machine processes 1200 answer sheets in one hour, the newest and fastest machine of its type and the first in the area, Dr. Rowlett adds.

The machine is particularly well suited to examinations the multiple-choice and true-false type; students mark answers with ordinary pencil on forms standardized for machine processing.

The machine was first used for Eastern's comprehensive testing of freshmen this September.

Dr. Rowlett expects wide use of the time-saving machine from faculty members.

The new Scoring Reader the latest in a series of electronic devices which have been added to speed operations Eastern. First of these IE machines were acquired the office of Dr. Charles A. Brose, dean of admissions a registrar, and initially used in registration in 1963.

Eastern Symphony Featured In Next Week's Assembly

The Eastern Symphony, conducted by Dr. Robert Oppelt, will present an assembly program Wednesday. The orchestra will use this concert as a warm-up for appearances in three Lexington high schools Nov. 23.

The orchestra will play for about seven thousand persons in its appearance at Henry Clay, Bryan Station and Lafayette High Schools.

The program contains music of varied appeal, ranging from a movement of a symphony by Mozart to the pastoral Fantasia on the Greensleeves melody by the English composer, Ralph Vaughan Williams.

Students Solo
 Student performers will be heard in solo passages in several of the works to be played. Garrett Tilford, clarinetist from Louisville; Miss Gail Hammis, flutist from Saginaw, Michigan and Miss Louise Hinkebein, cellist, from Louisville.

Mr. Alan Staples of the Eastern music faculty will have a violin solo.

While most of these will be heard in the Capriccio Espagnol of Rimsky-Korsakoff, Miss Hinkebein, will be heard in the solo work for cello and orchestra Allegro Appassionato St. Saens.

The fifty-five piece orchestra of 1964 is considered the finest in the history of Eastern music department. The quality of performance among the wind players has made great improvement during the past two years. The same is true of the strings.

Strings from Far and Near String players now come from all parts of the country. Two players hail from Minnesota, two from Florida and many from midwestern states.

Next semester the orchestra will be joined by a string player from Philadelphia, and next year by at least one player from Boston.

Several faculty wives find time to play and make a contribution to the orchestra. Mrs. John Vickers, cello; Mrs. Evangeline Smith, harp; Mrs. Robert Oppelt, violin.

DAD'S DAY

The annual Dad's Day will be held tomorrow. There will be a reception with a luncheon following at twelve. Dad's Day doesn't exclude the mothers; they'll be here too. The parents of the players will meet the coaching staff and Dr. Martin at the reception. At the game the Dads will sit along the sideline and they will be introduced at the half. Dad's Day is sponsored by the E Club.

"THE GAME" FOR MOREHEAD

Morehead, like Eastern, has a few injured players, but you can bet that they will field a strong team. Although Morehead has a mediocre 3-3 record, they are expected to bring 300-500 students down here tomorrow afternoon. In the words of Coach Kidd, who was a backfield coach at Morehead, "If a Morehead team loses all of the rest of its games and beats Eastern, the Morehead people feel that they have had a successful season."

Last year, when Morehead beat Eastern, the Eagles were greeted on the outskirts of Morehead by fire engines which drove them around town and to the campus. Following an elaborate ceremony where speeches were made by the president, the coaches, and captains, the Hawk Rifle was placed in a glass case for exhibition. This year there won't be any Hawk Rifle, but the spirit of the game still remains.

Coach Kidd said that he saw a Morehead player with a dislocated shoulder come back to play in the Eastern game. The players, the students, and the faculty alike all take tremendous pride in beating Eastern. Coach Oakley, also a former Eagle coach, summed up Morehead feelings about the Eastern game when he said, "If they had people in their grave, they would come back to play against Eastern."

Let's all turn out for the Colonel's last game of the season and cheer them on. I don't mean just when a player runs back a kick-off or scores, but show your appreciation when a Colonel intercepts a pass, gets a tackle or knocks down a pass. Your support just might be the thing the team needs to win.

FINAL GAME FOR EIGHT SENIORS

As the 1964 campaign draws to a close, it brings to mind the seven seniors who will never again wear the maroon and white of the Eastern Colonels. These seven players are Herbie Conley, Dick Carr, Jack Schulte, Wendell Wheeler, Doug Hamilton, Todd Reynolds, and Dave Grim.

Herbie Conley is a physical education major from Ashland. Conley received an ankle injury in the Tech game and will not be able to play tomorrow. Dick Carr, also a physical education major from Ashland, plans to enter physical therapy school upon graduation. Dave Grim, a health and physical education major from South Heights, Pennsylvania, plans to enter the teaching profession.

Jack Schulte, a physical education major from Cincinnati, Ohio, plans to teach and coach upon graduation. Wendell Wheeler, another physical education major from Ashland, plans to enter the coaching field. Doug Hamilton, a geography and chemistry major from Paintsville, will enter the Marine Corps. Todd Reynolds, a Jacksonville, Ohio, plans to enter the coaching field.

These boys have all had fine careers at Eastern, but out of all the games they have played the one they will remember the most will be their last one, the Morehead game. And you can bet that they will do everything possible to go out a winner.

OLD RIVAL

The Morehead and Eastern series dates back to 1924 when Eastern defeated the Eagles 14-0. Eastern leads in the series with 22 wins, 10 losses, and 3 ties. The Colonels' attempt to get back on the right track after being "derailed" for the past two years by scores of 20-12 and 6-0.

Retiring Maroon Lettermen

Tech's Second Quarter Touchdowns Spoil Eastern Homecoming 27-7

Tennessee Tech broke loose for two touchdowns in the second quarter to spoil the Colonel's Homecoming with a 27-7 victory in Hanger Stadium last Saturday afternoon. Tech scored early when an alert lineman pounced on an Eugene Van Hoose fumble on the Colonel's third play from scrimmage. After driving to Eastern's five-yard line, quarterback Paul Whaley rolled around right end for the touchdown on a third-and-goal situation. Jarry Cantrell's try for the PAT was good.

On the ensuing kickoff, Aaron Marsh took the ball on the 7 yard line and raced 93 yards down the left sideline behind fine blocking for the score. Marsh covered the 93 yards in just 13 seconds. Roger Butler cacked on the extra point to deadlock the game 7-7.

No Indication

The strong early showing certainly was no indication of things to come as the Colonels weren't able to muster much of a drive the rest of the game.

After twice trading punts, Tech broke up a minor Colonel scoring threat when Ed Dowling intercepted a Van Hoose pass on the Tech 34. Whaley hit on a pass to Ed Stamps on the next play to set up the second Tech score. On a third-and-goal situation, hard-hitting Ron Reeves bulled over from one yard out for the touchdown. The try for the PAT failed.

With just 21 seconds left in the first half, the Golden Eagles wrapped up the scoring when Whaley directed Tech downfield with his pinpoint passing. With the ball on the one, Whaley again called on Reeves and the big fullback bulled over for the TD. Cantrell added the extra point, and Tech went to the dressing room with a 20-7 lead.

The game turned out to be more of a defensive battle in the second half. Neither team mounted much of a scoring threat in the third quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, Tech quarterback Tom Van Tone hit wingback Roy Sinkovitch with a pass and Sinkovitch scampered 49 yards to the Eastern 4. Jim Broyles scored on a one yard plunge to register the Golden Eagle's 4th TD. Cantrell again found the range and the game wound up as a 27-7 Tech victory.

The Headhunter's inability to stop the Golden Eagles on third and fourth downs proved to be the difference in the game.

Eastern gained only 81 yards rushing and 41 via the air route while permitting Tech 239 yards on the ground and 151 in the air.

The loss dumped the Colonels into the OVC cellar along with Tech. Tech has one win and four losses in loop play while Eastern has compiled a 1-4-1 record. The win was the first of the season for Tech who now stands one and seven overall. The Colonels have a 2-5-1 overall slate.

Marsh Halted

Tennessee Tech halfback Jim Bowles stops Maroon freshman star Aaron Marsh after a short gain in Eastern's 27-7 homecoming loss to the Golden Eagles Saturday. Marsh scored the Colonel's lone touchdown on a 93-yard kickoff return gallop.

Eastern was a charter member of the Ohio Valley Conference which was founded in 1948.

Kidd Has More Than One Reason To Beat Morehead

Eagles Invade Campus Tomorrow; Win Will Better 1963 Season

Eastern head coach Roy Kidd has more than one reason to want to beat Morehead State when his Maroons close their season here Saturday in the fourth annual Military Day.

The Maroons must post a win in their finale to register any improvement over last season's dismal 2-8 record, and pull themselves out of the Ohio Valley Conference cellar tie with Tennessee Tech, victor over Eastern 27-7 Saturday in Eastern's homecoming.

Kidd's charges have posted a 2-5-1 record overall, and a 1-4-1 loop record in their first eight games.

Another reason given by Kidd is that he and his offensive line coach, Carl Oakley, have both coached at Morehead as assistants.

Lifeless Against Tech
The Maroons were lifeless in their homecoming loss to Tennessee Tech. No even a thrilling 93-yard kickoff return by freshman sensation Aaron Marsh that tied the score brought them to life.

Eastern failed to move the ball offensively, netting only nine first downs and 122 yards, and could do little to halt the Golden Eagles, who earned 16 first downs and 390 yards.

Morehead will bring the OVC's leading passer, Mike Gottfried, into the 36th meeting of the two teams, and hard-running Russ Campbell, one of the loop's leading rushers. Eastern leads the series, which dates to 1924, 22-10-3.

Marmie Still Leads
Leader in two Eastern statistical categories, even though he missed the Tech game, is quarterback Larry Marmie, 29.3 yard average and two broken collar bone against Western. Marmie still leads the Eastern passers with 434 yards on 40 completions in 73 attempts, and his 229 rushing yards give him 663 total yards, also tops on the team.

Marsh is the leader in four fields-rushing, scoring, pass receiving and kickoff returns. The 165-pound Springfield, Ohio, speedster has rushed for 293 yards and a 4.1 yards-per-carry average, scored four touchdowns, caught 11 passes for 133 yards and return 14 kickoffs for 410 yards, for a

Fred Malins, junior tailback, continues to punt with authority, averaging 40.3 yards on 43 kicks, which should be good enough to advance him in the NCAA standings from the 18th spot he held last week. As a team, Eastern ranked 12th in national punting figures last week.

Eastern's Reserve Officer's Training Corps brigade of over 1,700 cadets will perform in pre-game ceremonies in memory of late President John F. Kennedy.

HARRY LENZ

TODD REYNOLDS

Lenz, Reynolds Cited For Tech Showings

Harry Lenz, a freshman defensive back, and Todd Reynolds, senior guard and defensive linebacker, are Coach Roy Kidd's selection for players of the week honors following the loss to Tennessee Tech.

A Pittsburgh, Pa., native, Lenz was in his first starting secondary assignment Saturday, but turned in a fine job defensively. He was solely responsible for stopping many Tech runs after the ball carrier had broken through the Maroon forward wall.

Reynolds, who calls the defensive signals, did an outstanding job on his offensive blocking assignments and participated in 16 tackles to lead the team in that category. A Jackson, Ohio, native, Reynolds will be one of tomorrow's captains.

Running At Half X-Country Team Downs Tough Kentucky State

Eastern's winningest cross-country team ever won its seventh victory of the season by defeating Kentucky State at a meet held at the Madison Country Club, 26-29. The loss was Kentucky State's first in a dual meet in three years. They were ninth in the NCAA finals in 1963 and were expected to rank in the upper five this year.

Kentucky State's John Knox with a time of 21:54 was the first runner to cross the finish line. He was followed by Bill Ewing, another Kentucky State runner. The next four runners to finish were all from Eastern. They were: Jim Beasley, with a time of 22:13; Phil Kamerer, 22:27; Bill McAnelly, 22:41, and Larry Whalen, 22:50. Hudson of KS was seventh and Brent Arnold of Eastern was eighth with a 23:13 time.

Coach Connie Smith said that his boys put forth a great effort. "They showed the courage of true champions in winning the close meet. It was a great job."

Tomorrow the cross-country team will begin a meet against Berea and Union Colleges by running around the football field twice at the half of the Morehead game.

They will then leave the stadium to finish the race. The team now holds a 7-2 slate. Their only losses came against Western and Cincinnati.

Trophy Presented

Mr. Barney Groves, right, director of intramurals, presents the I-M flag football championship trophy to Bob Kupchak, coach of the title-winning Invaders. The Invaders won the title by downing the Eightyniners.

PRINCIPALS CONFERENCE HELD AT EASTERN . . . State Superintendent of Public Instruction Harry Sparks, right, and Don Bale, center, assistant superintendent, discuss the day's program for the area principals' meeting held Thursday at Eastern with John L. Vickers, executive assistant to the Eastern president. Approximately 125 elementary and secondary principals attended the conference held in the newly-completed Bert Combs Classroom Building.

Superintendent Sparks Says Principals Busiest

"The busiest person in education with the toughest task is the principal," State Superintendent of Public Instruction Harry M. Sparks told elementary and secondary principals at an area principals' meeting here last Thursday.

Approximately 125 persons attended the day-long conference held in the D. T. Ferrell Room of the Bert Combs Classroom Building.

The group of educators were welcomed to the campus by Eastern President Robert R. Martin. Presiding at the conference was Don C. Bale, assistant superintendent of public instruction.

Dr. Sparks, speaking on the topic, "Leadership Role of the Principal," said that as the principal is, so goes the school.

He outlined the four areas of leadership for the principal as (1) instruction, (2) discipline, (3) holding power of school, and (4) professional organization.

He told the group that the American education system would receive more and more criticism as money is needed to meet the demands of the expanding school needs.

Earlier, Bale outlined the purpose of the day's conference. He told the group that the principal must think of his total responsibility and leadership in 1964, and in doing this, he must consider several specific aspects.

These major points were the topics for the day's conference.

Participants in the one day conference included: Claude A. Taylor, director, division of instructional services; Sidney Simandle, assistant director, division of teacher education and certification; Stella Edwards, director, division of special education, and Richard Best, assistant director, division of free textbooks.

C. E. Bevins, director, division of school lunch; E. P. Hilton, assistant superintendent for vocational education, and Kearney Campbell, director, division of guidance services.

Debaters Score First

Eastern's debate team scores a first today and tomorrow as it sends two different teams to separate tournaments. One is Tau Kappa Alpha Delta Sigma Rho Province Convention, which is being held at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio, and the other is the Western Kentucky Invitational Debate Meet, at Bowling Green.

The subject to be debated is: Resolved: That the Federal Government should establish a national program of public work for the unemployed.

Representing Eastern at Capital University are varsity affirmative, Tom Coffey and Gordon Camuel, and Jay Roberts and Joe Dunn for the negative. In the novice division for the affirmative are Linda Ward and Kathy De Jarrette and Allen Muncy and Eugene Gray for the negative. Mrs. Aimee Alexander and Mr. Phil Ebrooks of the English faculty are accompanying this team.

In the Western Kentucky Meet, the varsity debaters are Jim Bragg and Dave Hill for the affirmative and Jim Glass and Oliver Bryant for the negative with Mary Jo Rudd as official substitute who will debate at least one round with Dave Hill on the affirmative.

Mrs. Alexander, debate coach, comments that the team has been working extremely hard and are keyed up for the meets. She also said that the growth of interest in debating at Eastern is tremendous. The debate club, Alpha Zeta Kappa, has a membership of 30 where there were only eight a few years ago.

The team is now preparing for the debate tournament at Cumberland College, Williamsburg, Dec. 4. Eastern will be allowed to enter as many teams as desired.

Mrs. Alexander extends a welcome to all who are interested in debating. Debate class offers six hours credit. However, a member of the novice debaters who could not work debate into his schedule this semester is taking debate as an extra-curricular activity. Debating should be especially valuable for English majors, speech minors, political science majors and minors, and pre-law students. Mrs. Alexander's office is in Combs Building room 204.

Reaching For The Stars

Ground breaking ceremonies Friday began work on the new Smith Park Observatory which will house an 8-inch telescope with a revolving mechanized. The observatory is named for Dr. Smith Park, left, head of the mathematics department. Mrs. Park is second from right, between Pres. Martin and Dean Moore.

Digging In

Ground Broken For Park Observatory

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the Smith Park Observatory last Friday marked the first step in construction of a concrete pier to mount an eight-inch telescope on the campus.

Named for Dr. Smith Park, veteran head of Eastern's department of mathematics, the observatory will be built on Kit Carson Drive, adjoining the Gertrude Hood Women's Athletic Field, by Lansdale and Ritchey Construction Company, Lexington.

Cost of the project is $26,945.

Architects who designed the concrete pier, in which the telescope will revolve 360 degrees on a motorized track, are Brock and Johnson, Lexington. The telescope itself was acquired from the University of Kentucky, largely through the efforts of Dr. Park.

Dr. Robert R. Martin, Eastern's president, recommended acquisition of the telescope to the Board of Regents; he later asked that group to name the finished observatory in honor of Dr. Park.

Dr. Park has announced that the general astronomy course, Mathematics 221 will not be offered more frequently. Also making use of the observatory will be students taking Science 351 for elementary teachers and Physical Science 110.

There will be certain hours planned for use by the public. Dr. Park has taught classes in astronomy at Eastern for many years.

State Has No Polio Cases In 23 Months

FRANKFORT — No polio in Kentucky now for 23 months! That's the happy record through October, says Dr. Russell E. Teague, State health commissioner.

Two suspects checked recently did not have polio, Dr. Teague added, and another polio suspect checked earlier was found to have tubercular meningitis.

Last year was the first one in which Kentucky went a full 12 months of any calendar year without a case of polio. The last case in this state was in November, 1962, according to Dr. Teague.

Kentucky's "perfect record" for 23 months is particularly significant because of a 10-year state average of 434 cases and 26 fatalities per year from 1951 through 1960.

Nationally, the polio record continues pleasingly, too, Dr. Teague said.

Seventh In Nation

The Communicable Disease Center of the U. S. Public Health Service, in Atlanta, Ga., reported only seven paralytic cases in the nation in October, as compared with 66 in the same month last year. Kentucky had four cases in October 1961, and one in October 1962, the two waning years of incidence.

Through October of this year, only 95 cases were reported from all over the nation, 76 of them paralytic. Comparative totals for the nation through the first 10 months for last year were 353 cases with 301 paralytic.

Most Cases Reported

New York and North Carolina have had the most 1964 cases, 10 each. Other leading states of incidence have been Florida with nine, Indiana with six, and Illinois and Texas with five each.

Salk and Sabin oral vaccines have helped to eliminate polio, health officials believe. The Sabin oral variety, a weakened strain of the live virus, is used mostly in Kentucky now.

Dr. Teague said that vaccine still is available in most of Kentucky's 120 counties in clinics sponsored by local med-

TIPS ON TOGS
By "LINK"

A HOT — item, for sharp dressers. Sleeveless sweaters on the Vee Neck Variety are gaining fast. (And I mean fast). Popularity to be worn under sports coats or blazers instead of vests. Every day I see more and more of these combinations. (They are not worn with dress suits of course). "Skip Wilson" wears them quite frequently and always makes a smooth appearance.

WHILE ON the sweater kick, I would like to mention one that "Jack Ray (sophomore), has, (so I'll mention it). Jack selected a cardigan styled one of soft yellow made of 50% wool by Jantzen. (John Reed told me last night that he wanted one just like it. ack also will support a pair of these "Brush out" Sox that match his sweater perfectly.

LAST NIGHT—(Saturday) I was mingling with the crowd at the "Favorite Spot," and I spotted (You can't miss him) "Kenny Papania." He looked very delectable in a blazer of Olive color and slax of rust hued brown. He complimented the above with a button-down collared shirt of light Olive and a tie of Olive and Rust brown stripes, and a belt (Wide) of Rust brown suede. Kenny is lots of laughs and is the "Jonathan Winters," of the "Favorite Spot."

FOR WHEAT—It is worth. My picture was published in last month's edition of the National Trade Magazine "Men's Wear." They did a lay-out on our store and a featured write up about "Mrs. Taylor," the Manager of our "Big T" Shop. She well deserved the recognition. As for me I think they were hort of material.

DON'T FORGET about the new collar style I told you about last week. "Be open minded style wise." Note to my camp's representatives: I would like to see you soon on important business—OK.

BEST WISHES to "Ronny and "Roger" (new partners). They are two swell characters that I feel honored to call my friends. If they ever change the name of their bistro, I suggest—the "Favorite Spot"—so now I am out of space and all I can say is:

So long for now,

1964 Homecoming Made Successful By Returning Alumni

By LORRAINE FOLEY
Alumni News Editor

Homecoming was a great success and to all of those who came, we were so happy to see you, and to have the opportunity to greet old friends and meet new ones. To those who were unable to be with us, we are sorry you missed such a nice day. The weather was perfect for the game and parade. AND, the parade, you have never seen such beautiful floats! However, only one in each category could win, but those students and faculty members who worked so hard deserve a great deal of praise.

They were all wonderful. The Pulaski County Club won the prize for the most original float depicting the Gold Rush, and Kappa Pi's float, representing the "Boston Tea Party," was judged the most beautiful.

We hope all of you can be with us next year. Of course, our congratulations must be added to Miss Jeanne Gall Ashe, a junior, who was selected as Eastern's 1964 Homecoming Queen. Incidentally, Jeanne worked for awhile in the alumni office so naturally we are very proud of her. Again, we are sorry that all the candidates couldn't all win—they were all so very lovely.
