Y.W.C.A. HOLDS Dr. Ferrell Visits RETREAT AT DANIEL BOONE

Old and New Cabinets Spend Week-end at Camp

PLAN PROGRAM

The Eastern Y.W.C.A. held its annual spring retreat at Camp Daniel Boone, Jessamine county, May 19-21. The old cabinet and the cabinet for 1944-45 spent the fourteenth an-nual retreat in making plans for the work of the "Y" in the coming year.

The group discussed means of fi-nancing the program for 1944-45, summer conferences, "Y" work in freshman week, social work, social service, publicity, vespers, and new Leaders at the retreat were Miss Mary Frances McKinney, sponsor of the Y.W.C.A. at Eastern, Miss Minnie Maude Macauley, director of the Y.W.C.A. at Berea, Miss Alice Ja-cobsen, the Danforth graduate on the campus of University of Kentucky, and Mr. Elmore Ryle.

South Carolinian Visits Eastern

Miss Mary Eva Hite, assistant director of the division of teacher education in the state department of South Carolina, has recently been on the campus in the interest of Eastern's workshop.

Miss Hite showed several moving pictures concerning one and two room rural schools in South Carolina and the improvements made after better community, social, and health conditions were exercised. She served as county supervisor in several of the poorer counties in the state of South Carolina.

Miss Hite was pleased with the work that the workshop unit is doing and very grateful to the training school teachers, the dean, the president and others who made her visit here so enjoyable.

"Throughout the South, there seems to be a renewed interest in the importance of the community school, and Kentucky is taking a lead in this field," stated Miss Hite.

West Ga. College

Dr. D. T. Ferrell was in Carrollton, Georgia recently observing the work of West Georgia College. This study was made in connection with a work being carried on by the state board of education.

West Georgia College is located in an agricultural section of the states and has as its prime pur-pose the training of teachers for the rural schools. In doing this it cooperates with the surrounding schools and communities.

The ideas of the faculty and the school as a whole are; the school and community must be improved together; to do anything teachers must begin with what they have and work with pupils as they are; and teachers in training should have practical experience in the field. ience in the field. There is an end to everything, including the school year, and the end of this one is almost here. For several it is more than that; it is the end of college. To the seniors-a special good-bye.

This is the final edition of the PROGRESS for this school year, and we want to take this opportunity to thank all those people who so kindly helped in the publication of our school paper. Certanly they are not all listed on the masthead.

To Miss Colley, for time and effort, not only in writing the news letter, but also in any thing in which we sought her help and to Mr. Brock for his help with the cuts and photography, our unmeasured thanks; to President O'Donnell, Dean Jones, Dr. Schnieb, Mr. Maddox, Miss McKinney, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Chenault, Dr. LaFuze, Mrs. Case, Dr. Giles, and many others we express our sincere gratitude for the great interest which they gave our efforts. Particularly to Mr. Keene goes our appreciation for time and interest given to the staff and its work. To members of the staff of the Richmond REGISTER we say, "Thank you."

To the staff . . . Lema for ads and cartoons . . . Nina for seeing that the paper had sufficient features . . . Nordean for society news and "Y" column . . . Jean, Neil, Alice, Janet, Ruby, Pick, Elsie and Imogene, the absolutely essential cents that make the perfect dollar-words cannot express it.

We know that we have not always pleased the faculty and students, but we hope their judgment will not be too severe.

And now . . The end is nigh; We say good-bye Until we meet again.

The Editors.

By NORDEAN BURRESS

We have reached the end of another "Y" year on Eastern's campus. As we review this memorable year, that has been so different from former years, but perhaps by having had the unusual and the many pleasant experiences, we can make for a better organization and satisfaction from being able to, perhaps in some way, help other people in various situations. We have been able to do all these things through cooperating together and with our hearts turned toward heaven.

There have been outstanding personalities on our campus, in the interest of the "Y" coming to us through the courtesy of different world organizations. We are, indeed, grateful to these people and

It was our privilege to have with us for about seven months, some very able young men. We thank Tuesday, May 23 at four o'clock in these A.S.T.P. boys for their help the Arts Building. Mrs. Case spoke and it was good to have known them. It was through their efforts that we were able to carry on with many of the "Y" traditions. They should certainly be commended for their Y.M.C.A. organization, it was "one of the best." We send our best wishes to them and all service people and "God speed be with you."

In reviewing the year, we think of the Freshman "Y" party, the tea at Miss McKinney's, and the hi-larious amateur hour. Next we remember the fall retreat. In November we added something new-the Thanksgiving Vesper Service. With the club: President, Nina Mayfield; December came our traditional "Hanging of the Greens," and the Christmas Party, and of course, in the interveninw days and months there were parties, cabinet meetings, get-togethers at Miss McKinney's, group meetings, Vespers, and Quiet Hour. Other outstanding traditional events were the Easter Sunrise Serv-"Y" banquet held on May 5, and last weekend the spring re-treat to Camp Daniel Boone, which was an excellent climax to a great BLIND SPOTS.

Somebody said that college life is the happiest time in anyone's life. Well, the only people around here who feel that way are the seniors and why shouldn't they? The worst of it is over for them. But consider the poor under-classmen who are starting to read the book they neglected all quarter, making charts, notebooks, and cramming. I could go on, but my head hurts!

Those girls you saw last Sunday evening with stringy hair, sun-burns, and wearied expressions were the "Y" girls just returned from Camp Daniel Boone. Which reminds me-A most interesting and charming person was a guest of the "Y's" on retreat and for a short time on the campus Sunday. Alice Jacobsen, a Danforth fellow, hail-ing from the extreme western state of Oregon, now on the University of Kentucky campus, was one of the leaders on retreat, and she came back to Eastern for her first visit with us. Alice really stole the hearts of the girls who met her. We wish that she were going to be here longer, but she is leaving Kentucky in a short time for Oregon. Next year she will work on her masters-

Mabel Criswell: Three times a oridesmaid, never a bride!

Emma B. Schirmer: Walking on different sides of a tree or post—always say "Bread and Butter," so you won't fall-out with each other.

Virginia Olds: Bad luck when a black cat crosses your path.

LaVerne Holcomb: When the left side of my nose itches I know a boy friend is coming to see me.

Mary Broaddus: Pecking on wood-Marguerite Hunter: Well, I don't much like black cats.

Helen Osborne: It's bad luck to rock an empty chair—I have always thought that.

Inez Howard: I don't like to walk under ladders, and I don't like to walk with one shoe on and one shoe off. The number of steps you take that way is how many days of bad luck you'll have.

Aline Dolan: Bad luck-three on Margaret Silvers: Black cats! I'm cared to death of them.

SUMMING UP

Another year is behind us—an-other milestone (beg pardon—LIFE AT EASTERN). This spring and commencement means a lot of different things to a lot of different people. Frinstance, to the graduating seniors it means the end of four happy years spent in a beautiful spot; it means becoming alumni. To the freshmen if means the end of a year which in September seemed to them too long ever to be lived through, but now it's gone.

To all of us graduation is a time to remember—freshman week (hair rollers and pig tails), A.S.T.P., military ball, all the traditional programs—Messiah and Hanging of the Greens, the sweethert ball, the great tragedy—disbandment of the A.S.T.P., weddings, elections, club meetings, feasts in the dorm, and all

Because we think it expresses the feelings of many, we copy this poem: IN MEMORIAM

One last remembering, one minute more, One glance around the room . . . Then break the spell and pack Away my books. No use to dwell On winged hours passing . Other girls before have said goodbye And softly closed the door, Have looked down from this window, Seen the swell and fading Hue of sunsets; loved as well As I the feel of misty nights. The muffled roar of trains Thru darkness. Future days I know Will hold as much of beauty. Come!

Strip bare the shelves and tables. What's an ended year with all of Life before me? Bravely go along The empty halls, nor turn to stare At ghosts of days, dear days, Behind me here."

ALUMNI NEWS

The new service flag for Eastern men and women in the service has been placed in the Student Union Building, along with a complete directory of all names and addresses of former students and graduates in the service. These addresses will be kept up to date and added as rapidly as the Alumni Association receives information about new members of the armel forces.

The flag is six feet by eight feet, with a large blue star in the center on a white background, bordered in red and edged in gold fringe. Gold stars represent Eastern's war dead.

BULLETIN BOARD

bulletin board has been placed just outside the Alumni Office (Room 18, Administration Building) where letters from East-ern students and graduates are posted daily as received. It is requested that letters be written on one side of the page only so that the complete message may be read when posted on the bulletin board. NEW ALUMNI OFFICERS
