Consultants On Campus For Vocation Conference

Hold Discussions On Various Fields

In a panel discussion Wednesday night, teaching as a profession was given the emphasis. The leader of the panel was Dr. Noel B. Cuff, Director of Personnel at Eastern. Others on the panel were Boswell Hodgkin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Frankfort; Mr. Glenn Morris, Principal, Everts High School, Everts; Mr. J. D. Cobb, Principal, Newport High School, Newport; Miss Louise Combs, the State Department of Education, Frankfort; Miss May C. Hansen, Associate Professor of Education, Eastern Kentucky State College; Miss Norma Brown, Freshman, Eastern Kentucky State College, and Mr. Keith Wiggins, Freshman, Eastern Kentucky State College.

Elementary Education

A discussion of elementary education began Thursday at 9:10 in the Little Theatre. Ruth Cheatham acted as chairman. Speakers for this group were Miss Nan Lacy, Supervisor of Elementary Schools, Lexington, and Miss Grace Champion, Supervisor of Elementary Schools, New Albany, Ind. The discussion leader was Mrs. Julian Tyng. The faculty consultants were Miss Germania Wingo, Miss Virginia Story and Dr. D. Thomas Ferrell.

Nan Lacy is general supervisor of the elementary schools of Lexington. She took this position in 1931. She came to Kentucky from North Carolina, where she had been teacher and principal in the Raleigh Public Schools.

Miss Lacy has taught college courses in summer schools at Ohio State, Emory University, Georgia, the University of North Carolina and at State Teachers Colleges in North Carolina and Georgia.

Her undergraduate work was done at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. Her master's degree was received from Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee. She spent two summers at Teachers College, Columbia University, doing graduate work and one winter in Italy and Switzerland at which times she visited schools.

Grace Champion graduated from Eastern in 1937 with a B.S. degree in elementary education and in 1942 she received her Master's degree with supervision as a major. She taught for six years near her home in Mercer county. After receiving her B.S. degree, she went to Louisville and taught the first grade for six years. She returned to Eastern in 1941 and shared with Mrs. Nancy Lohn the responsibility of Burnam Hall while Mrs. Blanton was away on a year's leave of absence.

After receiving her Master's degree she returned to Louisville and worked for one year with remedial problems in the Louisville Public Schools. In the fall of 1943 she went to New Albany as Elementary Supervisor there. Miss Champion has worked with Foster Music Camp as counsellor and business manager for nine years.

tucky Wesleyan College and a Master's degree from Columbia University and University of Kentucky. He has wide experience in administrative work, having served as principal at Whitesburg High School, principal of Morganfield High School, dean of men at Morris Harvey College, and dean of men at Kentucky Wesleyan College. He came to Danville and served as principal of Danville High School from 1944-1946.

Emma Neubauer is now seventh grade critic teacher in the University School at Lexington. She did her undergraduate work at the University of Kentucky and at Western State Teachers College, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

She received a Master of Arts degree in the field of psychology at George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tennessee. Prior to coming to Lexington, she had teaching experience in the grade schools, junior high school, and the senior high school in Owensboro, her home town. Her predominating interest is in the field of guidance. She has served as chairman of the Guidance Committee of the University School for the past two years.

Social Work

A gathering of students in Room 201 of the Student Union Building heard Dr. A. M. Lyon, Department of Social Welfare, and Dr. Howell V. Williams, Dean of Kent School of Social Work at the University of Louisville, discuss social work as a career for women.

Virginia Strohmeier presided at this meeting. Mr. William Stocker led the discussion.

Dr. Lyon is a Commissioner in the Department of Welfare at Frankfort. He is a graduate of the University of Louisville Medical School and kept up a general practice of medicine for 14 years. He was in service of Kentucky's mental institutions for 23 years, and served as superintendent of Kentucky Training Home for 10 years; was with Public Health Service for two years; Director of Hospitals and Mental Hygiene since 1941, in addition to being Superintendent of Central State Hospital, Lakeland, since 1944. During World War II he served as Consultant Psychiatrist in the Induction Service.

He is a Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association; member of several Medical Societies, and on the faculty of the Medical Department University of Louisville.

Howell V. Williams is Dean and a Professor of the Raymond A. Kent School of Social Work in Louisville. Dean Howell took his B. J. from the University of Missouri, his M. A. from Bucknell University and his Ph. D. from the University of Chicago. He has been Expert Economic Analyst, U. S. Children's Bureau, 1931-32; Warden's Assistant, U. S. Bureau of Prisons, 1932-36; Executive Secretary, Advisory Committee on Social Security, Seattle, Wash., 1937-38; Instructor, School of Social Work, University of Chicago.

Quint Feted

Coach Paul McBryer and the varsity basketballers were honored at a dinner in downtown Richmond Monday evening sponsored by the Richmond Exchange Club.

A large turnout of local civic leaders was on hand to honor the Maroon squad which compiled a record of 17 wins and only 4 losses during the past season.

Principal speaker at the dinner was Coach McBryer, the pride of Eastern.

Dean Holmes Speaks

A dinner meeting was held Thursday at six o'clock in the Blue Room of the Student Union Building for those interested in learning about "Marriage and a Career." This topic was discussed by Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes,

SARAH B. HOLMES

Dean of Women at the University of Kentucky. Approximately one hundred girls were served. Barbara McGuire Warf presided at this dinner. Gathleen Hill pronounced the invocation.

Estill Guest Minister At Sunrise Service

ROBERT W. ESTILL

The ninth annual Easter Sunrise Service will be observed next Sunday morning at 6:00 a. m. in the Eastern amphitheater.

Robert W. Estill of Lexington, a senior student at the University of Kentucky and rector of Christ Church Episcopal, Richmond, will be the guest minister.

Mr. Estill will enter Episcopal Theological School (Harvard University) next September where he will further his ministerial training.

While studying at the University, he has been affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity, Eta Sigma Phi, the Philosophy, the Sociology and the Canterbury Clubs. During World War II, Mr. Estill served 13 months in the United States Navy. While in "boot training" at Great Lakes, he sang in the Blue Jackets Choir.

He has been associated with the Christ Church in Richmond since January, 1948.

The scripture will be read by Ed Gayheart. The college choir under the direction of Mr. Van Peursem will sing.

This program is sponsored by the Young Women's and the Young Men's Christian Association on the campus.

Spring Swing

The "Spring Swing", an informal dance sponsored by the Women's Residence Hall Organization, took place last Friday night in the recreation room of the S. U. B.

Miss Joan Everling, president of the House Council, announced that the dance was a success but added that it would have been more successful if more girls had attended.

Delta Alpha Chapter Plans Banquet

The Delta Alpha Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi is planning a banquet which will be served at 6:30, Monday, April 18, at Old South Inn in Winchester.

Before the banquet, there will be a meeting at 4:45 in Room 202 of the Student Union Building for the purpose of electing officers for next year.

At 5:15, the same evening, the society will hold its initiation service in Walnut Hall. The following people will be initiated: Jessie F. Abney, Anna C. Ballard, John W. Bussey, Edwin A. Carter, Edward Casebolt, Joseph E. Kohler, Alx McIlvaine, Peggy McGuire, Norman McGuffey, Mrs. Mavis Rains, and Hise Davis Tudor.

Special Assembly

The Vocational Information Conference officially began at a Special assembly for Women Students of Eastern, Tuesday morning at the regular assembly hour.

Miss Charlotte Newell, president of Collegiate Pentacle, and general chairman of the conference, presided over the meeting. The invocation was given by Marjorie Hall. Miss Jane Wilhoit, president of Mu Chapter of Cwens, gave the welcome address.

The purpose and plan of the Conference was discussed by Mrs. Emma Y. Case, Conference faculty advisor.

Information Meet Comes To Close

Sponsored By Women's Groups

Several months' planning and work came to climax this week as Eastern's first Vocational Information Conference for Women got into full swing. The conference is sponsored by Collegiate Pentacle and Mu Chapter of Cwens, assisted by Women's Residence Hall Organization, the Young Women's Christian Association, Women's Athletic Association, Women's Economics Club. The conference began Tuesday at the regular assembly hour and came to a close at noon Friday.

The general chairman is Charlotte Newell and the faculty advisor is Mrs. Emma Y. Case. Working with these are the Administrative Council of College Women. They are Jane Wilhoit, Virginia Strohmeier, Lenora Douglas, Jane Hester, Joan Everling and Elizabeth Pennington.

Approximately one hundred students and faculty members acted as officials during this conference. They served as student chairmen, faculty discussion leaders, student secretaries, faculty consultants and ushers.

Several committees were appointed to carry out details of the conference while it was in session.

Phyllis Chandler heads the Hospitality committee. She was assisted by Joan Everling, Vivian Pelley, Sue Newell, Shirley Carson, Faye Hopper, Betty Henneke, Marilyn McDaniel, Barbara DeJarnette and Marjorie Lyons.

Anita Gosney heads the committee on Teas and Dinners. Serving on this committee with her were: Mary Jean Binder, Emily Dixon, Lois Kolo, Charlotte Rees, Doris Smith and Joy Lee.

Betty Lee Nordheim was in charge of Exhibits and Pamphlets. Her assistants were Sarah Griggs, Eleanor McConnell, Rose Ackman, Emogene Jones, Martha Rose Hammons and Marinella Thompson.

Jane Wilhoit was chairman of the Finance committee. Janet Roberts and Eleanor McConnell also served on this committee.

The interview committee was headed by Vivian Pelley. Serving with her were Doris Croley, Jenny Lou Eaves, Crystal Masters, Laura Roberts and Mary Martha Williams.

Billie Smith was in charge of Posters. She was assisted by Barbara Stephenson and Mildred Peters. Mildred Peters designed the art work on the front of the printed program. Elizabeth Pennington was in charge of newspaper publicity.

Each meeting in this vocational conference was attended by a student secretary whose task it was to record high points of each meeting. Those handy with the pencil and note pad in these discussions were: Florence Bush, Barbara Stephenson, Mary Lou McMannus, Dorothy Wash, Mattie Jean Gardner, Faye Hopper, Marilyn McDaniel, Ketty Fletcher, Evelyn Fugate, Katherine W. Simpkins, Charlotte Newell, Norma Brown and Crystal Masters.

These girls turned in a summary of the discussions which will be made available to the students following the conference.

Student ushers were assigned to serve at the various meetings of the conference.

Music Festival Held

The Kentucky High School Regional Music Festival was held on the Eastern campus, April seventh and eighth.

There were approximately 1500 contestants, representing thirty-one high schools in Madison and the surrounding counties, on the campus for the event last week. The number of contestants in different groups ranged from forty-two on down to one.

The contests for singing were held on the first day. Groups ranged from chairs and quartets to mezzo-sopranos. Judges for the contests were Mr. Howard Ellis, Mr. Aimo Kiviniemi, Dr. Dwight Anderson and Mr. William Merrell.

Instrumental contests were held on April eighth. The program included practically all kinds of string, woodwind, and brass instruments and various combinations thereof. A baton whirl event which was held behind the Library was also on the program.

Judges for the events on the second day were: Mr. Kieth Huffman, Dr. Edwin Stein, and Dr. Frank Prindl.

Secondary Education

A meeting of those interested in Secondary Education was held in the Little Theater Thursday afternoon at 2:10. Elizabeth Pennington was student chairman. Visiting speakers for this meeting were Miss Amelia Duley, Frankfort High School, Frankfort; Mr. J. Marvin Glenn, Superintendent of Danville City Schools, Danville; Miss Emma Lillian Neubauer, University School, University of Kentucky.

Faculty discussion leader for this meeting was J. Dorland Coates. Dr. Ferrell and Leland Wilson were the faculty consultants.

Amelia Duley is a senior home room teacher and dean of girls at Frankfort High School at Frankfort, Kentucky. She has been very interested in vocational guidance and for the past two years she has given vocational interest tests put out by Stanford University.

Miss Duley did undergraduate work at Morehead State Teachers College and received her A.B. degree from University of Kentucky. She has done her graduate work at Columbia University.

She has been teaching social studies for 14 years at Morehead, Augusta and Frankfort, Kentucky. Last year she served on three visiting committees for evaluating high schools for the Southern Association, one of which was at Model High on our campus.

Miss Duley is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma and was past vice president of American Association of University Women.

tion department of the city of Lexington.

Arts Reviewed

Radio, television, art, music, drama and writing as professions, were discussed Wednesday by Miss Katherine Fox, Station WLW; Miss Lourena Eaton, The Courier-Journal, and Dr. Edwin E. Stein, head of the Music department at University of Kentucky.

Dr. P. M. Grise served as discussion leader. Peggy McGuire was chairman of the assemblage. Mr. James E. VanPeursem, Dr. F. P. Giles and Dr. R. B. Clark were consultants in this group.

Katherine Fox, Director of Special Broadcast Services for WLW, is a native of Latonia, Kentucky, and was educated in Kentucky.

Miss Fox joined the WLW staff in 1937 and served in a secretarial capacity until she began administrative duties in 1941 in what was formerly known as the public service department of the station.

In 1944 Miss Fox was named to her present post and programs dealing with educational, religious, cultural and civic matters clear through her office. In addition she is responsible for the international exchange of programs between WLW and such foreign broadcasting organizations as the BBC, Radiodiffusion Francaise and Radio Luxembourg.

Active in community and civic affairs, Miss Fox is a member of the Cincinnati Radio Council, president of the Cincinnati Zonta Club, an organization of business and professional women; seventh district chairman of the Association of Women Broadcasters; consultant of the radio committee of the Cincinnati Central Volunteer Bureau; board member of the Cincinnati Adult Education Council; charter member of the Association for Education by Radio and the Junior Town Meeting League of America, and an advisor to the radio division of the Women's Division of the United Nations.

Edwin E. Stein is a native of Coffeyville, Kansas. Dr. Stein holds the bachelor of music degree from Michigan State College and the master of music and doctor of philosophy degree from Eastman School of Music, Rochester, New York.

Before coming to the University of Kentucky in September, 1948, he was associate professor of music at George Peabody College in Nashville. His professional career also includes periods of service at Michigan State College and University of Texas as assistant in musicology. In 1934-35 Dr. Stein was flutist with the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra.

During World War II, the U. K. music head served as lieutenant, senior grade, in the United States Navy where he was assigned to anti-submarine warfare and air-rescue work.

As head of the University of Kentucky music department, in addition to teaching and administrative duties, he also directs the University Symphony Orchestra.

Miss Lourena Eaton has been school editor for the Sunday Courier-Journal since 1940 and has been a teacher of English on the secondary level in Louisville public schools since 1934. For the last eleven years she has been teaching at Halleck Hall and has served in the capacity of critic teacher. She is a member of the Kentucky State Textbook Commission, a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary educational society. She is also a member of Educational Writers Association, an organization composed of school editors for large metropolitan newspapers.

At present she is employed by the Louisville schools in the curriculum department to write a textbook for supplementary use on the secondary level. She received her training at the University of Louisville where she graduated with a major in Latin and Greek, and a minor in English and education. She did additional undergraduate work at the George Peabody College for Teachers, in Nashville, Tennessee. She did graduate work at the University of Kentucky in English, education and journalism.

How To Get A Job

"How to Get a Job and Hold It" was the topic for discussion at 4:10 Wednesday in the Little Theater. Guest speakers for this occasion were Mr. William A. Edie, personnel coordinator with American Air Filter Corporation, and Mr. S. Hughes Chambers, personnel manager, the Girdler Corporation. Presiding at this meeting was W. F. O'Donnell, president of Eastern.

William A. Edie is Personnel Coordinator with the American Air Filter Company, Inc., of Louisville. He is charged with coordination of training of all levels of personnel within company, selection procedures and employee services.

Mr. Edie was born in Macomb, Illinois. He attended Bradley College of Peoria, Butler of Indianapolis, and University of Louisville. He majored in Economics and Industrial Relations.

He served in the army from 1941 through 1945. He was a graduate of O. C. S. at Fort Knox, Kentucky, and was staff officer with General Boudinot of the Third Armored Division, European Theater of Operations.

Mr. Edie is now Chairman of the Educational Committee of the Louisville Personnel Association.

Secretarial Work

The students who were interested in secretarial work, accounting, and office management were on hand to hear Mr. William Edie, Mr. S. Hughes Chambers and Miss Margaret Noonan discuss these fields.

Charlotte Newell presided at this meeting. Mr. R. R. Richards was the discussion leader. The faculty consultants were Mr. M. E. Mattox and Miss Margaret Moberly.

Margaret Noonan holds the position of secretary in a Louisville insurance agency. In this position she acts not only as secretary but as insurance underwriter, office manager and receptionist.

Miss Noonan was born in Oak Park, Illinois. Shortly after this her parents came to Louisville and settled there permanently. She attended St. Helena's Commercial College and then secured a position as secretary with a large oil refining company in the city. She furthered her education by attending night classes at Nazareth College in Louisville.

She accepted her present position in November, 1944. For the past five months she has been going to school three nights each week studying accounting which she feels will be of great value in the future.

Miss Nonnan contemplates marriage within the coming year and intends to try her hand at a two-fold career: that of a housewife and secretary.

Choosing Nursing

The girls who are interested in nursing had an opportunity to hear Miss Beatrice Szabo of Vanderbilt School of Nursing and Miss Thelma Clay from Portsmouth General Hospital.

Margaret Ann Kijchok presided at this meeting. Miss Gertrude Hood was the discussion leader. The consultants were Mrs. Carl Todd and Miss Martha J. Sargent.

Thelma B. Clay is Superintendent of Nurses at Portsmouth General Hospital, Portsmouth, Ohio. Miss Clay is a graduate of Eastern. She took a B.S. degree in Physical Education and Biological Science. She got her R.N. degree from Schirman Hospital in Portsmouth, Ohio. Before assuming her present position, she was an instructor of nurses at Schirman Hospital and later Superintendent of Nurses at Amsterdam General Hospital, Amsterdam, New York.

Miss Beatrice Szabo, a native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, received her early education there. She attended Louisiana State University for two years and later graduated from Vanderbilt University School of Nursing in 1948 with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing.

She accepted a position as teaching fellow in the School of Nursing in the area of recruitment for a period of six months.

On September 15, 1948, she was appointed as Instructor in Nursing and Field Representative, and has served in this capacity since that time.

Applied Arts

The opportunities in applied arts were discussed by Mrs. Dorothy D. Hoffman, package designer Friday morning at 9:10 in Walnut Hall. Dr. F. P. Giles led the discussion following Mrs. Hoffman's talk.

Billie Smith was student chairman at this meeting. Mr. Dean Gatwood and Miss Allie Fowler were faculty consultants.

Kinman Wins National Billiard Crown

MEET HELD AT COLUMBIA U.

By PAUL DUNCAN
Progress Sports Editor

Congratulations to Leroy Kinman, the country's colossal, classy collegiate cue champion. Leroy Kinman, the pride of Williamsburg, Ky., won the National Intercollegiate Pocket Billiard Championship in a tourney staged at Columbia University in New York City last weekend.

The popular pocket pool expert who also captained the Eastern cue squad to a national title recently went to the world's largest city and waltzed through four consecutive opponents to bring the national crown to Eastern.

Little Opposition

Kinman won his first match by a 75-18 margin and then added victories of 75-34 and 75-37 before heading into the finals. Clashing with Bob Rowley of the University of Utah in the title match, Leroy pocketed 75 shots to his opponent's 34.

Following the championship match, Kinman posed for newspaper photographers, and newsreel and television cameras.

The tournament was sponsored by the Billiard Congress of America and the National Association of College Unions.

MAROONS WIN THREE GAMES

By the Sports Editor

Coach Turkey Hughes' Maroon baseballers opened the 1949 spring diamond campaign here on April 2, with an impressive 8-3 triumph over the Army nine of Fort Knox, Ky. Highlighting the opener were the ceremonies preceding the game. The Maroon band was on hand to play for the large turnout.

Honored guest for the event was Mimi Chandler, daughter of baseball commissioner Happy Chandler.

Giltner Takes Over

After popular Mimi threw out the first pitch, Maroon hurler Ray Giltner of Covington took over on the mound. The big right hander held the GIs scoreless for his reign of five innings. Fort Knox got only three scattered hits.

Curveballer Buck Newsome took on the pitching duties in the sixth and was nicked for only two hits while giving up three runs in the remaining innings.

Homers Feature

Eastern's opening win was featured by a pair of home runs hit by second baseman Joe Harper and right fielder Ed Shemelya. Harper clouted one in the sixth with none on and Shemelya rapped one to deep left in the seventh with two Maroons on base.

The varsity lineup: Cinamon, 3b, Noble and Scherrbaum c, Billingsly 1b, Lewicki ss, Harper 2b, Doddridge and Shemelya rf, Dunn lf, Combs cf, Giltner and Newsome p.

Maroons Beat Bera Here

Chalking up their second victory of the new season, Eastern's baseballers whipped neighboring Berea College here 7-1 last week on the campus diamond.

While Maroons pitchers Carl Eagle and Ralph Parsons were limiting the Berea nine to three hits, the varsity took advantage of 8 enemy errors and 5 hits to mark up the triumph over the Blue and White of Berea College.

Carl Eagle started on the mound for the Maroons and went for 5 innings. Eagle limited the Bereans to one run and two hits in his debut.

Making his first appearance for Eastern in the sixth frame as a relief hurler, Ralph "Fireball" Parsons performed in fine fashion. Parsons gave up only a single hit while holding Berea scoreless with his variety of hooks and curves.

WAA Takes Breather

The W. A. A. members are taking a "breather", so to speak, these next few weeks. This is the period for volley ball, soft ball, tennis, badminton and fencing.

When official soft ball season opens the Maroonettes plan to have a softball playday here. Right now they are busy with money making projects to support a weekend planned at camp.

If you're looking for a good time you'll find it in W. A. A. Come over and play every day from 9:00 to 5:00!

Young Swimmer Wins

Allen Hughes, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hughes, Richmond, outswam all other contestants in the 10-year-old and under 25 yard free-style swim division of a AAU aquatic meet in Louisville Saturday.

The first place win is the second for the young swimmer who also previously copped a second place victory in a swim session. He won his first pool victory at the age of eight.

SPORT SHOTS

By PAUL DUNCAN, Sports Editor

The baseball outlook for this spring appears bright at present for Coach Turkey Hughes has a promising group of candidates out for the squad. Up to this time, unfavorable weather has prevented the Maroon mentor from getting a close look at his squad.

Rain and wet grounds have robbed the varsity nine from five scheduled dates already.

However, with the advent of better weather, the Maroons have in store for their followers a flock of good home games in the coming weeks.

Promising Squad

One of the brightest spots in the lineup this year is the pitching. In the first two games of this season, veterans Ray Giltner, Carl Eagle and Don Newsome appeared to be in fine shape. This same trio won the majority of the Maroon conquests last spring and should be able to repeat.

Newcomer Ralph Parsons also looked like he should help the team in the stiff campaign ahead. Parsons, even though only a freshman, looks at home on the mound and has a variety of "stuff" which should fool plenty of enemy batters.

In Noble and Scherrbaum, Coach Hughes has two able catchers to receive his hurlers.

There is a battle at present for both the infield and outfield berths. Lettermen Lonnie Nelson (first base), Eddie Lewicki (shortstop) and Jimmy Cinnamon (third base) head the flock in infield. Joe Harper and Jack Billingsley are scrapping for the second base spot while Chuck Hertzler, Paul Tesla and Ray Feld may break into the lineup-most any day.

The outfield was strengthened recently by the return of Luther "Groceries" Wren. His booming bat of past years should be a big help this spring. Ted Dunn has been performing well in the pastures while Stan Doddridge and Ed Shemelya have been sharing the right field position. Letterman Charley Combs is also back and should see plenty of action.

Competition Tough

The Ohio Valley Conference loop will be plenty tough this year with Evansville, Murray, Louisville and Morehead heading the opposition parade. Both the Purple Aces of Evansville and the Cardinals of Louisville show signs of power in their games played to date.

This weekend, Eastern plays host to Eastern Illinois State on the campus diamond. Next week, highly touted Indiana University will invade the local ball park. Following the K. E. A. vacation, the Maroons will open O. V. C. competition here on Wednesday, April 27, playing host to Evansville.

On behalf of the varsity basketball squad we extend thanks to the management of the Circle Bar for the fine dinner given the Maroons. Many of the squad are still talking about the fine chicken that was served. Thank you, suh!

One of Eastern's most versatile athletes, Goebel Ritter, visited the campus this week and was greeted by his many friends. Ritter just completed his first season of play as a professional cager with the New York Knickerbockers. He had a fine season and is already looking forward to next fall when he returns to the Knicks.

In his college days, Ritter excelled as a basketballer, baseball pitcher and track star.

Tennis enthusiasts of the college are asked to follow the following rules when using the college courts:

1. Use tennis shoes only. (On clay courts, only flat soled shoes without grooves will be permitted).
2. Do not use courts when nets are down.
3. Do not play when courts are wet following rain.
4. Limit games when others are waiting to play.
5. Stay off courts when the college tennis team has a match scheduled. (All students are eligible for the team).
6. Courts are reserved after 3:00 p. m. for the tennis team only.
