STUDENTS RETURN FROM OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

Sam Fife, Leonard Helton, Jack Hutton and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Whitaker, members of the World Affairs Club, returned April 26 from Morgantown, W. Va., where they attended the annual Ohio Valley Regional Conference of the International Relations Club held April 23 and 24 on the campus of the University of West Virginia.

During the two-day meeting, 300 delegates from 56 colleges in Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia had the opportunity to hear prominent speakers and to exchange ideas on international affairs.

Dr. Irvin Stewart, president of the university, welcomed the delegates at 11 a.m. Friday, April 23, in Reynolds Hall in which he compared the work of men in physical sciences to those in the social science field.

"The most spectacular succes reported by the physical science would be man's conquest of the atom," he said. "One of the most spectacular failures reported in social science would be man's in-ability to protect himself from the results of that conquest."

"The problems of the physical scientist are but child's play com-pared with those of the social sci-President Stewart pointed "The physical scientist can build confidence upon the pre-ordained behavior of inanimate matter, while the social scientist must deal with highly individualistic and sometimes cantankerous

In delivering the keynote address at 1 o'clock, Dr. Carl M. Frasure, faculty advisor of the host club, said "it is particularly significant that we are meeting at this time in view of the United Nations Assembly in New York."

"We seem to be passing from one world crisis to another and a determination of policy in de-mocracies must ultimately be left in the hands of the people," he explained.

Thinking in this county on international relations is far more advanced now than it was 25 or 30 years ago when we refused to enter into the League of Nations of the World Court, whereas in 1945 we voted overwhelmingly to go into the United Nations and the new world court," Dr. Frasure said in closing.

Following Dr. Frasure, Miss Dorothy Robins, member of the American Association for United Nations and the Collegiate Council for United Nations, spoke on the subject "The United Nations Se-curity Council."

That night Dr. Ryland W. Crary well known author and prominent educator, spoke on "Atomic Energy and Hard Choices." He is a member of the faculty of the Teachers College, Columbia University. U. S. Senator Harley M. Kilgore told the delegates Saturday morning that international cartels are really Fascism in industry as totalitarianism is Fascism in government and represented a threat to peace and security in the world.

Bids For Enlargement BAD SHIPMENT Of Health Building To Be Opened June 3

Bids for the enlargement of the Weaver health building at Eastern Kentucky State College will be opened June 3, it was announced today by President W. F. O'Don-

Plans and specifications which were prepared some time ago provide for the enlargement of gymnasium to accommodate approximately 4,000 spectators. The present seating capacity is less than 1,600, or very few more than the college enrollment.

It is hoped that work can be begun a few days after the contract is let and that the building will be ready for use by the first of December.

Most of the new construction can be completed before the present unit and the new unit are connected. This will permit the college program of physical edu-cation to be continued without interruption during the construction period. The building will be extended

72 feet on the south side.

The board of regents will also receive bids June 3 for the construction of a new heat main from the power plant to a point near the Training School. This new main will replace one that was constructed forty years ago.

Wednesday morning, May 5, was Honor Day for women at Eastern Kentucky State College. The assembly program that day was the first one held to honor women, but it was planned with the hope that it would become an annual tradition on the campus. The assembly began at ten o'clock in the Hiram Brock Auditorium.

An air of solemnity marked the program as it was presided over by Miss Jeanne Ruark, senior, of President W. F. O'Donnel, the guest speaker, was introduced by Miss Ruark. Dr. O'Donnell's address was equally acceptable to the women and to the men present. He stressed the fact that "those who achieve most in college are those who achieve most in life."

At the conclusion of the president's message, the Women's Chorus gave Fred Waring's arrange-ment of "The Night is Young." Miss Ruark recognized the presidents of the women's organizations for 1947-48. They called to the stage the officers who are to serve for the next year, 1948-49. Edna Mae Truesdell, president of the Women's Residence Hall Organization, introduced Joan Everling, president for the next year; Lois Cockrell, vice president; Mary Lou McManis, secretary, and Virginia Strohmeier, treasurer.

Miss Thurman introduced Lenora Douglas as president of the Young Women's Christian Association; Anita Allen, secretary, and Marinella Thompson, treasurer, could not be present because of illness.

Virginia Strohmeier, president of the Women's Athletic Association, was re-elected president of that organization. She introduced her fellow officers: Jane Wilhoite, vice president; Mattie Jean Gardner, secretary, and Louise Bryant, treasurer. Ruby Maggard, president of the Home Economics Club, recognized Lois Cockrell as presiding officer for the 1948-49 school year. Jane Hester was elected vice president; Laura Jean Humble, secretary, and Nellie Lou Steele, treasurer. The assembly also included the tapping ceremony of the National Society of Cwens. The tapping ritual was carried out as pre-scribed by the national board. Twenty-two freshmen women were called by the president, Mrs. Anne Rogers Bussey, to be given a neck-

MOTHER'S DAY

The honor of the origination of Mother's Day belongs to Miss Anna M. Jarvis of Philadelphia. On Sunday, May 9 1906, a year after the death of her mother, she told a friend whom she had invited to remember with her the anniversary of the death of her mother of her desire to dedicate a day to all mothers.

Before long she had interested many individuals and organizations in the observance of the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. Philadelphia observed the day in 1908 after which state after state followed.

Five years later, on May 10, 1913, a resolution passed the House of Representatives and Senate declaring the second Sunday in May a national holiday. The day is also observed in several foreign countries.

Following the tradition on the campus, the Social Committee of the college will present its annual Mother's Day program at 2:30 p. m. Sunday in Walnut Hall of the Keen Johnson Student Union building.

The committee has selected Miss Pearl L. Buchanan, associate professor of English, to be the guest speaker. Her subject is "With Love—Mother." Music will be provided by the College Choir under the direction of James E. Van

An invitation has been mailed to the parents of the students inviting them to visit the campus Sunday and to attend this program.

The Progress sincerely hopes that the students, faculty and friends will attend the program which has been arranged to honor our mothers.

The Coming Struggle For Silence (This column was written one night after we had stalked through the silent halls of the Rec Room, visited the Library and excited screaming into another part of the forest.)

Far heafrom us to wax opti-mistic over the state of civilization reached by our student body. We do not look for every student to spend two hours reading Proust, to listen to Stravinsky, to con-sider "modern" art with an open mind, or to take a fraction of a millimicron of interest in contemporary affairs. No, we will not see this condition as long as we have Moon Mullins, Fearless Fosdick, Vaughn Monroe, Van Johnson and Thomas Wolfe ready at

Maybe we are idealistic, but we thought every student, no matter how much time he has spent acquiring benighted ignorance, knew that a library is supposed to be a place of quiet. Even if he did not know this, surely there is no one on the campus who so lacks courters, as to campus and a lacks courtesy as to carry on a loud, animated, amorous conversation for 45 minutes in the library.

Perhaps we are at fault. Perhaps we are hopelessly narrow in our outlook and old-fashioned in our social code. Perhaps we have been living with an illusion all these many years. Maybe the li-brary is a place to make noise. If so, watch this column for the

Annual Inspection For Eastern ROTC

The Eastern ROTC Unit underwent its annual inspection on Tuesday, May 4. This inspection included training tests and an inspection of the administration of the unit along with training facilities afforded at the college. Dur-ing the training tests, cadets were interrogated and were required to demonstrate their proficiency in the subjects taught during the school year.

The Inspection Board repre-sented the Commanding General Second Army, Fort George Meade, Md., and was composed of Col. Charles S. Johnson, president, Lieut. Col. John H. Lewis, Major George C. Morton, Major Jernigan and Captain Muladore.

The members of the board of inspectors and Col. W. D. Paschall were dinner guests of President W. F. O'Donnell at the Keen Johnson Student Union Building.

According to Colonel Paschall, the members of the board indi-cated that they were in general highly pleased with the training at Eastern. The rating actually accorded the ROTC unit will not be known until a later date.

The board departed from Richmond for Bowling Green where they were to inspect the ROTC unit of Western the next day.

Veterans' Club Notes

By VIRGINIA BLACKBURN

The regular meeting hour of the Veterans Club has been changed to every other Tuesday. The next meeting will be held at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday, May 11, in the recreation room of the Keen Johnson Student Union building. A program will be presented.

Plans for the annual minstrel sponsored by the Veterans Club are under way with Mrs. Leanor B. Adams in charge of arrangements. Veterans who would like to paritcipate in the production are requested to attend the meeting next Tuesday night.

All veterans whose picture was included in the group picture re-cently taken for The Milestone are urged to pay twenty-five cents to Tom Utz immediately.

Veterans are prohibited from receiving subsistence allowances and readjustment allowances for the same period, officials at the Veterans Administration Branch Office in Columbus, O., emphasized today.

Student veterans who acquire dependents while enrolled in school under the GI Bill as single persons should notify VA immediately in order that an adjustment may be made in their subsistence pay-

Hughes' Nine Bows To Xavier, Morehead

Eagles Beat Maroons 8-6

Morehead State College's baseball squad took advantage of Eastern errors in a wild and hectic fifth inning to gain an 8-6 win over the Maroons. The game was played last Wednesday afternoon at Morehead's Jayne Memorial Stadium.

Although the Easternites outhit the Eagles 13-6, the miscues in the fifth frame proved to be the margin of deefat. In that inning Morehead scored seven runs on three scratch hits and three Eastern misplays.

Trailing 8-2 in the seventh, the varsity rallied two runs in the eighth and added another pair in the ninth. Their ninth inning rally fell short and the Eagles chalked up one of their rare wins over an Eastern team.

Carl Eagle started on the mound for the Maroons and was charged with the loss. Relief hurler Jack Meeks took over in the fifth and performed in fine fashion.

THIN CLADS IN TRACK MEETS

Eastern's varsity track squad swings back into action tomorrow afternoon when the Maroons travel to Lexington for a triangular meet at the University of Kentucky. In competing with the Kentucky var-sity and Wildcat freshman squau, Coach Fred Darling's harriers will be seeking their second victory.

Win Triangular

Last Saturday afternoon, the Maroons came out on top in a triangular meet at Berea with Centre and Berea. The maroon and white garnered 54 points to win the tussle while Centre copped second place with 39 and Berea trailed closely with 37.

Eastern bowed in their track opener to Georgetown College on May 24 by dropping a 72-59 count.

The "three musketeers," a trio of lettermen, have been pacing the Eastern squad in the point-making department thus far this season. This trio includes Gerald Becker, shot put, discus throw, javelin throw and high jump; Goebel Ritter, high and broad jump, and leak partners low and high hur-Jack Bahlman, low and high hur-dles, shot put and broad jump.

Freshman speedster Harry Sweesy has also done well in gaining points for he copped the 100-yard dash in both meets and also took first in the 220 dash at Georgetown and Berea.

Squad Listed

Other thinclads out for the varsity squad include: Distance-run-ners, H. Grimme, H. Ratleff, C. Rice, F. Darling, C. Dixon and B. Emmett; dashes, B. Tankosh, H. Kittrell, R. Russo and R. SPORT SHOTS

By PAUL DUNCAN, Sports Editor

One of the things that many people dislike most is a change. A recent change here at Eastern that is meeting the approval of all is that one made by President W. F. O'Donnell. We are referring to the change that permits many students to enjoy their leisure time on Saturday and Sunday afternoons in athletics.

In the past it was a rule here that the gymnasium and locker room was closed on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. However, that has now been changed. According to present arrangements, men stu-dents are permitted use of the gymnasium, playground and dress-ing rooms on weekend afternoons. Judging from the large turnout in the athletic playground area on weekends, there is no doubt that the change made was both a wise and popular one.

Progress is still being made in the move to get the Weaver Heartn Building extension for a larger gymnasium. Word was received this week stating that bids for the contract work would be opened on June 3. It is expected that a contract will be let shortly there after to a construction firm. No doubt, many Eastern basketball followers still have their fingers crossed in hoping for an adequate court for the next season.

Notice comes from the Athletic Director's office that tennis participants playing on the courts next to the Student Union Building are to wear smooth soled gym shoes. The shoes with rubber cleats and ridges are harmful to the clay-type courts and therefore should not be used.

Dunkel's ratings, nationally rec-ognized sports statistician, last week published a rating sheet of 790 collegiate basketball teams. In that large group Eastern ranked 49th in the nation! That's something for the Maroon fans and players to be proud of.

Sonny Allen, Morehead State College's basketball showman, put in an appearance at the Maroon-Eagle baseball game last Wednesday afternoon. Ever-clowning Sonny kept up a steady line of chatter aimed at the Eastern pitchers until a voice from the Maroon bench silenced him with, "Hey, Sonny, since the new draft law is going through, you'll probably be playing for Fort Knox next winter!"

RAY GILTNER

Believe it or not, the leading hitter on the varsity baseball team is one of the pitchers—Ray Gilt-ner. He is batting an amazing

It happened in Danville at the Eastern-Centre ball game. The irritated Centre fan didn't like the way umpire John Showalter called a pitch on a home town batter so he yelled, "Hey, you block-head, do you call yourself an umpire?" . .
