Eastern State Teachers College and Normal School

RICHMOND, KY., FRIDAY, OCT. 31, 1924

621 ARE ENROLLED FOR EASTERN COURSES

398 in College and 223 in Normal Department—Great Year is Being Planned

Eastern opened for the fall semester of 1924 with a total enrollment of 621, the largest in the history of the institution for a fall term or semester, and for the first time as a Teachers College. There has probably not been a year in the history of Eastern in which such marked developments have been noted than in the fall of '24.

The first semester opened Monday, Sept. 22, and the enrollment was the principal feature of the week. The majority of the students were enrolled in the first three days but all were not until the week was at an end.

Changing of schedules occupied much time both in the initial week and the one following.

As soon as the business office found time to count the students who had enrolled it was announced that there were 398 in the college and 223 in the normal school. At once the various organizations of the campus began functioning with new blood, with students who had never attended Eastern in the past. The old students set about at once to do everything possible to make the student body one great group of friends, all understanding the other's problems and co-operating with the other in every way to make Eastern a truly great college.

As is always the case in a Teachers College the ladies outnumber the men by quite a large figure. The exact number, however, has not been compiled in the business office. It has been estimated, however, that there are 200 men and 400 ladies to make up the student body.

Upon entering school in 1924 Eastern's students found a faculty probably as strong for a school the size of Eastern as could be found anywhere in the country. President T. J. Coates and the Board of Regents went to no little time and expense to secure as instructors the present Eastern faculty.

Numerous improvements on the campus have been noted by the students returning to Eastern. The greatest of which is the new library building which is ready for use. It is by great odds the best college library in the state.

The men of the institution have in Memorial Hall a palace in one sense of the word. A small army of workmen were employed there during the past year and have made the living quarters of the boys 100 per cent better. Expensive furniture for the parlors of Memorial Hall has not arrived yet but when installed will give the boys just as fine a parlor as can be found in either Sullivan or Burnam Hall.

Students interested in the progress of Eastern are quite enthusiastic over the prospects for one of the greatest school years in 1924-25 that Eastern has ever experienced. With a record enrollment, these students believe, this year will go down in the history of the school as one of its greatest.

FIRST LYCEUM NUMBER

The 1924-25 Lyceum course opened October 22 with a concert by the Metropolitan Quartet, E. Bryn Evans, first tenor; Robert G. Anderson, second tenor; Valentine Withington, baritone and Howard Zimmerman, basso.

OPEN FORUM TO BE BIG FACTOR

The Open Forum is a recent organization of the highest type, representing service to both student and faculty. It is the biggest thing of its kind ever attempted by the students of Eastern, some say. The Open Forum was inaugurated last summer by Miss Anna Schneib and a committee of seven students of which Miss North was chairman. The work done by this body was so pleasing to both faculty and students that a request was made this year for a recognized organization.

The Open Forum exists for the purpose of benefiting the students of Eastern. Through its committee the students may formally and in a systematic, business-like manner present requests for consideration of their wishes along any line that affects them or the institution. The faculty has the privilege of requesting the attention of the students in the same manner.

Through this same committee, increased advantages in the form of speakers, will be brought before the student-body for the purpose of giving information upon all vital issues and leading questions of the day and time. This will result in a broad knowledge and intelligent consideration of such issues and questions as interest active cultured, thinking peoples of all lands; will keep the students informed to such an extent that they will soon be noted for this knowledge on local, national, international, cultural and practical subjects. This knowledge will increase the demand for Eastern teachers, and reflect the credit of both students and faculty.

It has, by quick, decisive action and concentrated effort, brought to this school, two of the outstanding men from two of Kentucky's leading educational institutions, Mr. Marshall Vaughan, of Berea, Ky., and Mr. E.

BILL HYATT ELECTED FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

William Hyatt, of Springfield, was elected captain of the football team just before the Cumberland College game. His election was unanimous. Hyatt is a splendid leader and well qualified for the captaincy of the eleven. He has been suffering from a broken hand which has kept him out of parts of the Cumberland and Georgetown freshman games. He, however, showed up well against Wesleyan when he injured his hand. This game was on Oct. 4.

THE NEW DEAN

DR. HOMER COOPER

DEAN COOPER HEADS FACULTY ADDITIONS

15 Additions Made to Eastern Faculty As School Changes to a Teachers College

Heading the list of 15 new teachers added to the faculty of Eastern this year is Dr. Homer E. Cooper, who succeeds H. L. Donovan, resigned as dean of the institution. Since this year Eastern is officially a four year college, President Coates took great pains in selecting the new faculty members to bring this body up to the required standard.

Dean Cooper received his Ph. D. and A. M. at Columbia University and his A. B. from the University of West Virginia in which state is his home. Dr. Cooper came to Eastern from Baltimore, Md., where he was the organizer and superintendent of the school of insurance for the agents and employees of the Maryland Casualty Company. He has also taught in the University of Maryland.

Dr. Cooper made a school building survey of the cities of Nassau county, New York, and was also connected with school surveys in St. Paul, Minn., and Philadelphia, Pa. He also directed the school survey and publicity campaign for the city of Kittanning, Pa. He has published professional articles and one book, "The Cost of

ARRANGEMENTS FOR CHAPEL ARE MADE

The officials of Eastern are doing everything possible to make the chapel programs just as interesting as possible. Every student is expected and required to attend chapel Monday morning since that day has been set aside for announcements. Usually on Tuesday some member of the faculty or an outsider speaks to the students. Wednesday morning is the day for singing entirely, this being directed by Prof. John Orr Stewart.

Thursday morning all of the classes meet in various rooms over the campus and Friday the whole school assembles for a special program of some kind. All students are required to attend chapel on Monday and Thursday, according to President Coates.

So far the students have heard at chapel speeches by Miss Grace Leigh Scott, State Superintendent McHenry Rhoads, Prof. M. E. Mattax, Dean Cooper and Dr. W. J. Grinstead. The last named spoke Tuesday morning on his hike this summer from Nashville, Tenn., to Richmond.

FRESHMEN DISTINGUISHED

Since the red caps to be worn by the Freshman boys have not arrived, the Sophomore class decided that this bunch was being allowed to go too long without being marked, so decided to have them go without neckties until the caps arrived.

The first day of the new Freshman ruling was Tuesday. The campus was dotted with female humans whose lower limbs were covered by stockings of different colors. The boys of the Freshman class looked as if they had gotten up late and were forced to hurry to class partly dressed. The office of the dean reported fewer Freshmen tardy marks for 7:30 classes as the result of the new ruling.

LITTLE THEATRE CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The Little Theatre Club held its first meeting of the year Sept. 30, 1924, for the election of officers for the ensuing year with the following people duly elected:

President, Mrs. C. L. Talbert; Recording Secretary, Katherine Yager; Corresponding Secretary, Sarah Arbuckle; Treasurer, Emil Brown; Business Manager, Roscoe Dalton; Stage Manager, Charlie Mullins; Program Committee, Marian Webber, Roscoe Dalton and John Jennings.

The first try-out of the year was held Oct. 14, at 7:30 p. m. Those who were voted admittance to the club by the former members were: Shirley Galbraith, Robert Sharon, W. C. Stevens, Allie Ruth Moores, Mildred Scott, Thelma Smith, Caroline Moores, Dorothy McBrayer and Virginia Mamby.

The second and last try-out for this semester was held October 23, at 7:30 p. m., with Mildred Allen, Burnell Martin, Dovey Parrish, Mrs. Edith Burns, Alva Ragenstein, Earl Jones, Lillian Brandenburg, Elizabeth Reeves, Isabel Roach, Margaret Smoot and Evelyn Wellmann being accepted for membership.

The splendid and unusual talent that has been displayed in the try-outs give promise of the production of worth-while plays during the coming year. There are quite a few people who are desiring to enter the Club and play their parts in costume designing, decorating and make-up work.

The first program rendered by the Club will be in the nature of an evening entertainment given at the Slick Rock School, on Nov. 15.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TO START IN NOVEMBER

Girls' basketball at Eastern will get under way in earnest about the middle of November. There is some probability of the girls playing by strict girls' rules this year. However, it is hoped by the student body that this will not be the case.

Letters have been received by Coach Hembree from K. C. W., at Danville, Transylvania, the University of Louisville and Louisville Girls High School asking for places on the Eastern schedule.

Eastern is fortunate in having promising material this year. Candidates for the girls' basketball five will be here from some of the leading high schools in the state. Indications at present point to one of the most successful years in girls' basketball ever experienced at Eastern.

EASTERN WINS TWO AND LOSES BUT ONE

Football Off to Good Start—Wesleyan Wins, But Maroons Beat Frosh and Cumberland

Facing the hardest game of the schedule in the gridiron tussle with Transylvania at Lexington Friday, Oct. 31, Eastern has a record of two wins and one defeat, the latest being a 13 to 0 victory over the Georgetown Freshmen at Georgetown Friday, Oct. 24th. Coach G. N. Hembree's men have made quite a creditable showing in the games to date.

The first year eleven at Georgetown was no match for the Eastern eleven which was even more superior to the Georgetown Frosh than the score indicated. Eastern scored in the first quarter aided by a 35-yard pass from Clouse to Stone. Jesse Moberly bucked the line to within less than a foot of the goal and Stone carried it over the line.

In the third quarter Eastern scored by the aid of an intercepted forward pass which Stone carried within 10 yards of the goal. Stevens bucked the line for half the distance and Clouse carried it over. On the first touchdown Clouse drop kicked for another point. The line-ups follow:

Georgetown:	Eastern:
Lair	LE	Hyatt
Gillespie	LT	Luxon
Lewis	LG	Staggs
Dawes	C	McGlothlin
Burns	RG	Alford
Adams	RT	Ault
Duke	RE	Manious
Scudder	QB	Stone
Hays	RH	Stevens
Quisenberry	LH	Moberly
Stonebreaker	FB	Clouse

Substitutes: Eastern, Triplett, Tuttle, Gregory, Cosby, H. Hacker, Gay and Alexander. Referee, Doak, of Pittsburgh; Ford Nunnally, umpire. Touchdowns, Moberly and Clouse. Point after touchdown, Clouse, 1.

No game was scheduled for Eastern one the week of Saturday, October 18, but the week before Eastern romped to victory over Cumberland College here by a score of 19 to 6. Cumberland would not have scored but for an intercepted forward pass which Davies took in to run 80 yards for a touchdown in the closing minutes of play.

Stevens scored Eastern's first touchdown in the second quarter by a 29 yard run around left end. In the third quarter his return of a punt 33 yards to Cumberland's one yard line enabled Stone to carry the ball over after Moberly has failed. A pass from Stone to Gregory behind the goal line in the last quarter gave Eastern the

HALLOWE'N PARTY IN THE GYMNASIUM

Announcement was made in chapel Tuesday morning by Dean Cooper that a Hollowe'en party for the students would be held in the gymnasium Friday evening. This is expected to be one of the biggest affairs of the fall as is always the case with Eastern's Hollowe'en celebration.

Mrs. Hume will have charge of the program. She is to be assisted by six young men from the institution who are expected to put the party over in great style. It is being looked forward to with much interest by all the students.

GET ACQUAINTED

Many of the students at Eastern are entering upon a new span of life, crossing another threshold, preparing themselves for the great experiences to come. A great deal of their future success will depend upon their success here, upon the spirit in which they enter into the various activities on the campus. While the knowledge obtained in the class room and laboratory must always be foremost, it is the ability to "mix," the knack of making friends quickly, and holding them that helps to really put one over in the battle of life.

How well are you acquainted with the various members of the football squad? Do you know all the school yells? Do you make it a point to be present at every game and help the team on to victory? Are you helping put across The Progress? Are you relaying getting acquainted with the other students? These are but a few of the things you can easily do in order to really get something out of your time here.

Every student should become thoroughly imbued with the Eastern spirit that you simply can't help boasting and boosting. In this way you are not only helping yourself, but the school as well. Just think this over and start in getting acquainted today.

Training Teachers."

For a while Dr. Cooper was superintendent of schools at Bluefield, W. Va. He has been associated with almost every phase of school work and is well qualified for the position which he holds at Eastern.

In introducing the other teachers the first in the catalog is Meredith Cox, head of the chemistry and physics departments. He is a Kentuckian and received his A. M. at Peabody College. He has taught at several colleges, including Berea.

Melvin E. Mattox, a B. S. and A. M. from Peabody College, is the director of the training school. He is from Mississippi where he had much experience in teaching. He succeeds R. A. Edwards, who this year is away on leave of absence attending Columbia University.

Virgil E. Burns, from Eastern Kentucky, is a teacher in the history department. He is an A. B. graduate from the University of Kentucky and has taught in this state.

G. O. Bryant also received his A. B. from the University of Kentucky. He is from Liberty, Casey county, Kentucky. He is employed as a teacher in the mathematics department.

Miss Isabelle Bennett, of Richmond, is a new assistant librarian. She is an A. B. graduate from the University of Kentucky.

The home economics department has a new teacher in Miss Jane Bell, of Lexington, a B. S. from State University. She has had experience teaching home economics at East Bank high, West Virginia.

In the English department a new teacher is Miss Winnie Davis Neeley, a B. S. from Peabody College. Her home is in Birmingham, Ala. She has had experience teaching in that state.

Miss Ruth Perry, of Ellijay, Ga., succeeds Miss Katherine Hammond as head of the department of Physical Education for Women. She received her B. S. from Peabody College. For a number of years she has taught in the state of Georgia.

The training school has two new teachers in Miss Mae Powell, of Lancaster, and Miss Frances Potter, of Mound City, Mo. Miss Powell received her B. S. from Peabody College, while Miss Potter is a graduate of the State Teachers College at Kirksville, Mo. Miss Powell is a critic teacher in the seventh and eighth grades and Miss Potter critic teacher in the second and third grades.

The return of Paul A. Barnes to the Eastern faculty this year was welcomed by all. During the past year he was director of music of the city schools of Fort Thomas, although previous to that he spent two years as an instructor at Eastern. He will teach piano at Eastern this year.

C. M. Wade, of Campbellville, received his B. S. degree at the University of Kentucky. He is teaching agriculture at Eastern this year. He has been county agent in Owen county.

Two Eastern graduates, Misses Hettie Leathers and Margaret Lingens, are employed this year as rural critic teachers.

Two members of the Eastern faculty returned this year after a year's leave of absence. Miss Maude Gibson, head of the Art department, spent the winter studying at Columbia, while Dr. W. J. Grinstead took first a course at Columbia last fall and winter but in the summer went to Peabody college, Nashville, Tenn.

This year besides Mr. Edwards, Miss Brown E. Telford has been given a year's leave of absence to study.

President T. J. Coates says that Eastern has one of the best faculties for any college of its size in the country.

WELCOME PROGRAM GOES OVER BIG

Aside from the reception given the students at the gymnasium and the general welcome shown in the city the business men of Richmond extend a hearty welcome to the students in a chapel program put on by the combined efforts of the Rotary and Exchange Clubs.

The two Richmond luncheon clubs came to Eastern in a body and occupied the stage in chapel. Addresses of welcome were made by Hon. C. C. Wallace, of the Exchange Club, and J. W. Hamilton of the Rotary Club, both of whom stated that Richmond considers Eastern its greatest asset and were ready at all times to show the students appreciation at their being in Richmond. Welcomes to the churches, homes, business houses and society were extended to the students by the luncheon clubs.

Each member of the Exchange Club was introduced by Secretary A. R. Denny, who went about this task in such a witty manner that he made a friend of every student who heard him. The same is true of Secretary F. C. Gentry, who introduced his Rotary Club members. The clubs sang their songs and with individual musical selections made the program one most enjoyable to the students.

GROUPS ORGANIZED FOR ALL TEACHERS

The student body has been divided into four special groups, according to what kind of school work they are planning to engage in when they leave Eastern. Each group has a member of the faculty for an advisor.

The group for principals and superintendents, of which Dean Cooper is advisor, has not yet completed their organization.

The Upper Grade Teachers' Council, of which Miss Anna Schreier is advisor, has organized and began work. An example of their enthusiasm was displayed in chapel Monday morning.

This group has already worked out three definite objectives. They are: First, to help the members see if they are in the right group. That is, to see if teaching is really the work they should do.

Second, to help the members to see the possibilities and opportunities of upper grade teaching.

Third, to help the members secure and keep good positions.

This group meets once a month. They are planning to have experts in the teaching profession speak to them from time to time. The officers for this group are: Clayton Mainaus, president; William Stevens, vice-president; Virginia Griffith, secretary and treasurer. The cheer leaders are yet to be elected.

The primary group is composed of students that are planning to teach in grades below the fifth. Mr. Mattox, director of the training school, is advisor of this group. He is planning on meeting this group once a week until they get well organized. So far it has only met twice. The officers: Miss Marian Webber, president; Mary Virginia Manby, vice president; Alice Law, secretary-treasurer; Cheer leaders, Phoebe Lutes, Dess Nicely, Eunice Swamer.

The rural group, which is composed of students planning to teach in the rural schools, meets twice a month with Professor A. B. Carter, its advisor.

This group is planning to take up and study those problems confronting the rural teacher. President Coates has met with it and emphasized this phase of its work.

Dean Cooper met with this group Wednesday night and outlined with it a plan by which to study these problems.

The officers are: President, Ishmael Triplett; vice-president, Thelma Spencer; secretary and treasurer, Lee Eyer. There is still some parts of this group organization yet to be completed.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL AT STATE IS ABOLISHED

The Athletic Council of the University of Kentucky, abolished girls' basketball at the opening of the 1924 fall term. A definite cause has not yet been learned. The girls, however, are petitioning the University Senate for reinstatement of the sport and there seems to be an excellent chance of their winning the fight.

FRESHMEN DRESS TO BE REGULATED

Probably by the time this issue of the Progress is published the college campus will be bespeckled with queer looking beings made so either by the unique little red fezzes or stockings of contrasting colors which they wear.

Upper classmen are advised not to be alarmed. They are harmless, just lovely freshmen complying with a newly adopted regulation which has long been customary at many other colleges and universities.

A week or so ago while all of the classes were having separate meetings, a representative from the Sophomore class entered the room in which the Freshmen were in session and informed them that he had been sent by his classmates to suggest that the first-year students pass a resolution compelling the boys to wear red and white caps which the Sophs would design for them and the girls wear one stocking of one color and the other of another.

Being a bright and intelligent group the Freshmen saw that this suggestion from the second year college class was only a polite way of telling them that they would be compelled to do this. Therefore, they quickly adopted it as a regulation.

The Freshmen proved that they have a splendid school spirit by this act. After Thanksgiving they will be allowed to dress like ordinary human beings and again live in hopes of extending this suggestion to the Freshman class of next year.

Y. W. C. A. ENROLLS MANY NEW MEMBERS

For several weeks the "Y" has been supervised by an executive committee selected by Miss Roberts. A canvass of the halls was made and a large percent of the girls joined the Y. W. C. A. As usual the "Y" has charge of morning watch and the regular Sunday night meeting at 4 o'clock.

Sunday, October 26, the following officers were elected: President, Stella Ward; vice-president, Hattie Carter; secretary, Abbey Lutes; treasurer, Marian Webber; Under-graduate, Mae Wyan.

ROARK SOCIETY WORK STARTED

The Roark Literary Society met on October 7 for the purpose of organization. The following officers were elected: President Robert Sharon; vice president, Henry Triplett; secretary-treasurer, Tennie Ford; sergeant-at-arms, Charles Ray; critic, Ira Bell; pianist, Vida Cummins.

Since this meeting there have been three regular meetings which shows that this is going to be a real society. Some of the best material in the school belongs to this society as all are volunteer members, who have taken up this work because they appreciate its value.

Prof. R. D. Squires, who has been for a number of years the advisor of this society has resigned. The society is now without a faculty advisor. The society was sorry to hear of Prof. Squires' resignation as he has been a great help in the past. It is hoped that a new advisor will be appointed soon by President Coates. Some very good programs are being rendered, which seems to show that the members are taking an interest. Many surprises are planned for every one by the program committee. This society gives a hearty welcome to all the normal students, as this is an organization for normal students only. "Come on, Roark! Let's put Horace Mann in the shade," is a suggested slogan of the club.

Boost the Eastern Progress and help to make our student activities more attractive.

EXCURSIONS PROVE MOST SUCCESSFUL

Fall is always welcomed on the Eastern campus since its coming marks the time when Mr. Smith with his Nature Study and Botany classes go on long hikes and excursions for the purpose of collecting specimens and to see the beauties of nature.

Lake Reba, a few miles from the campus which furnishes Eastern's water supply, is usually one of the first places visited. The party this year left in the forepart of the afternoon, took lunch with them and returned in the evening.

Natural Bridge in Powell county, one of the most wonderful pieces of work of nature, was the feature of the program. Besides there is Pinnacle Rock, Lover's Leap, Devil's Slide and a cave, part of which has never been explored at this place.

Since the train had to wait in Winchester quite a while, the hikers us-around the city, visiting Kentucky Wesleyan College and other places of interest.

The next trip was that to East Pinnacle, near Berea. Here, also, are several interesting places such as the spot where Daniel Boone first saw the Blue Grass to foresee its opportunities and possibilities, the Indian wall built by the Indians for protection 4,000 years ago, (according to Mr. Smith), the Indian kitchen formed by rocks, and Berea College.

Last and most enjoyable was the barge trip on the Kentucky river, whose cliffs are a rival of those on the Hudson for beauty. There was dancing and music on the barge trip.

With the close of the season everyone is ready to proclaim Mr. Smith the best of sports. All look forward to spring when the trips will be renewed.

We urge all students to patronize the advertisers in the Eastern Progress.

MEN'S CLUB WILL DO MUCH BIGGER WORK

The Men's Club, which was established in 1921 for the purpose of promoting a closer fellowship among the men students of Eastern, met and reorganized, the following officers being elected: President, John Jennings; vice president, E. B. Hale; secretary, Robert Sharon; treasurer, Claud Hood; sergeant-at-arms, William Mayo.

The Men's Club, although it has done a great work in the past by serving as a medium through which the men students of Eastern could work for each other and for the school, is planning a larger scope of work with higher ideals of service and fraternity. A new constitution with by-laws has been adopted with the idea of making this organization more efficient and progressive. With its new vision of service the Men's Club gives promise to be one of the most popular and influential organizations at Eastern.

CITY BUSINESS MEN ENTERTAIN STUDENTS

The students of Eastern Teachers College were guests of the business men of Richmond at a delightful reception Friday night, Oct. 18, given at the college gymnasium in their honor.

Students and citizens of the city, probably numbering 600, attended the affair which was thoroughly enjoyed by the entire body.

The program consisted of dancing and the old-fashioned quadrille with the Kentucky Melody Boys, a six-piece orchestra from Richmond, furnishing the music. Refreshments consisted of punch and ice cream.

The orchestra played "Home Sweet Home" at 10 p. m., after three hours of entertainment which every one enjoyed to the utmost.

Richmond's business men are showing great interest in the 1925 year, probably more so than ever before as was clearly manifested in the delightful entertainment given in the gymnasium. Alex Denny, secretary of the Exchange Club of Richmond, was the master of ceremonies and put it over in great style.

The reception was largely due to the combined efforts of the Rotary and Exchange Clubs of Richmond, although every one of the business men of the city co-operated with the clubs. It was a great treat for the students and well appreciated by them.

COLLEGE LITERARY SOCIETY REOPENED

The Horace Mann Society has started this new school year with a very promising future. With the finest set of officers and the highest ideals and aims, the society expects to accomplish much. A good deal of "pep" has been shown by the members and suggestion has been made that it would be interesting to have a rival college society.

The officers elected are: Roscoe Dalton, president; Edgar Higgins, vice-president; Miss Kathryn Morgan, secretary; Miss Loine Floyd, song leader; Miss Nancy Mae Elliott, pianist; Mr. Fugate, critic; Miss Virginia Route, treasurer; Mr. E. C. Mullins, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Talbott, Miss Kathryn Morgan and Mr. L. E. Lane, consuls.

EXTENSION WORK GROWING

The Extension Department of Eastern has become a real power in the field of Education for Kentucky teachers. The department has been functioning for about four years but this is the first year that members of Eastern faculty have been sent out extensively to conduct Extension classes. Heretofore, the Extension classes have been held in the various towns by the city superintendents but this year twelve have already been organized with others under consideration.

The members of the faculty who are towns are: C. E. Caldwell, two classes, now holding classes in the various in Mathematics, at Georgetown; C. A. Keith, two classes in Education at Shelbyville; H. G. Cox, one class in College Algebra, at Covington; R. A. Foster, one class in English at Madison High School, Richmond.

Supt. C. E. Ackley, of Ashland, has a class in Primary Methods and Observation with the assistance of Miss Virginia Story, who is Primary Supervisor of Ashland schools. Miss Story holds an Advanced Certificate from Eastern.

Mrs. Jane Russell Stokes, who was a member of Eastern faculty in the department of Music during the summer terms and is now Supervisor of Music in the Danville schools, is conducting a class in Music for the teachers of Shelby county at Shelbyville.

Two classes are to be organized at Harrodsburg October 25, at which time the subjects to be taken will be selected. There are also a number of other classes under consideration, according to R. Dean Squires, Director of Extension.

The Correspondence Department

now has about six hundred taking work.

It is only necessary to get in touch with one of those taking Correspondence work to realize just how much that work is doing for all those availing themselves of this opportunity. Some excellent new courses have just been added to the already long list of correspondence work to realize just how much that work is doing for all those availing themselves of this opportunity. Some excellent new courses have just been added to the already long list of Correspondence subjects. They are: English 103 and English 114, Science 113, Mathematics 107, History 107, French 101 and French 102.

NEW LIBRARY IS SPLENDID BUILDING

One of the most outstanding improvements noted at Eastern this year is the splendid new library building, which was completed last summer at a cost of approximately $55,000.00. It is a two-story building, fireproof throughout, containing 16 rooms. It will accommodate about 200 students at one time.

On the main floor are two large reading rooms, a lobby, a reference room, the stack room, the librarian's office and the room in which the cataloguing is done. Opening into the second story stack room are six seminar rooms. On the first floor is a large assembly room, some class rooms, a juvenile room, a document room, and an unpacking room.

When the school opened early in 1907 there were only a few hundred books in the library. Now there are 16,854. The circulation of books last year was 100,425. The Board of Regents last summer appropriated $5,000 for the purchase of new books this year. New appropriations will be made from time to time. Since the school has become a four-year college many books have been added to the library needed for the third and fourth year work. The six seminar rooms, which are for the use of students working in groups on particular problems will be equipped and opened soon.

It has been said that "no school can be better than its library." Eastern has one of the best college libraries in the state. It is an integral part of the institution. It is not merely a store-room of books, but is an active, busy workshop, containing the latest and most authoritative material, where every student shall feel free to come to study and do read.

In each issue of the Progress the Librarian will have an announcement of new books received. Look for these announcements.

There is no room for question in the statement that Eastern has the best college library in the State.

OPEN FORUM TO BE BIG FACTOR

(Continue dfrom first page)

F. Farquar, of Kentucky University, to present both sides of the $75,000,000 bond issue. This issue will be voted on in the November elections. The Forum thus made it possible for every student to have the same opportunity to arrive at an intelligent conclusion in this matter as have the students of the University.

From the Open Forum of Ancient Rome, which was an open space where anyone, rich or poor, high or low, might assemble for discussion of public affairs or questions, and intelligently consider the subject matter presented, is a long stride to Eastern's Open Forum.

Every student in the institution is a member of it.

Miss Anna Schneib is the advisor and the committee is: Miss North, president; Mr. Roscoe Dalton, vice-president; Mrs. C. Lusby Talbot, secretary and treasurer; Mr. C. E. Mullins, Mr. Clayton Mainous, Miss Mary Floyd and Miss Virginia Routt.

President Coates says, "It can be made the greatest force for right understanding between faculty and students of any organization ever attempted on this campus. I am delighted that this student-body should have so well represented themselves to me, to the Board of Regents and to the other educational institutions of this state. It means that you students recognize and appreciate the added advantages of a four-year college curriculum and life, and that you wish to bring this appreciation to the notice of the other colleges of this state. I am delighted."

Time will tell what it will do. Back it up, watch for results, is being urged.

ready been noted from this, one as announced in chapel by Prof. C. A. Keith, member of the Rhodes Scholarship committee in Kentucky. He stated that Eastern was now eligible to have its students take the examinations toward being a Rhodes scholar. He was one himself, graduating with honors at Oxford (England) University.

Mr. Keith pointed out that this was one of the very biggest educational offers ever made to a student in this country. He urged the men who would like to take advantage of this offer to investigate the matter with him or others and possibly try to secure a Rhodes Scholarship. One will be accepted this year, he stated.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT HAS VERY PROMISING START

The Music Department of Eastern Teachers College is under the direction of Prof. John Orr Stewart, who has been connected with this work here for a number of years, still each year putting much "pep" into the musical activities on the campus. From all indications, the director plans greater achievements for the musical club than ever before.

There has been a series of try-outs held for those desiring to become members of the Ladies' Madrigal Club. The names of those who have been selected by the director for permanent membership will be posted about the last of the month. The quality of the voices in the Madrigal Club taken as a whole is quite unusual. Due to this the Director is planning to take up even more difficult work than has been attempted with this club in previous years.

GAME HERE SATURDAY

One hundred percent of the student body is expected to turn out Saturday November 15, for the football game with St. Mary's College on the Eastern gridiron. This will be the first appearance of Eastern here since the second week in October when the defeated Cumberland College 19 to 0. The game will be a good one in which Coach Hembree's men are expected to win.

Eastern plays only three football games at home this year and should give the eleven the fullest support all three of these games. After St. Mary's game Saturday comes the game with Morehead State Normal the following week, played on Nov. 22. The final 1924 appearance of the Eastern football squad will be made at Bourbonville Thanksgiving Day with Union College as Eastern's opponent.

No doubt a large crowd will witness the game here Saturday.

GRINSTEAD SPEAKS ON ARMISTICE DAY

A crowd which filled the chapel Tuesday morning heard Eastern's Armistice Day program featured an address by Dr. W. J. Grinstead. The program was the only one of the kind held in the city and was attended by a good number of people from Richmond.

The program was opened with the singing of "Columbia The Gem of the Ocean," after which Rev. W. A. Stewart of the First Christian Church pronounced the invocation. Dr. Stewart led the singing of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Rev. H. Hally, a man who can recite the Bible from cover to cover, then gave the Book of Esther and also a few sections on what Jesus said about the Bible. His reading was much enjoyed. Another song was given before Dr. Grinstead began his address.

He opened by telling of the day Nov. 11, 1918, when news was received in Richmond of the signing of the Armistice. His impressions of that day then would long remain with him, he stated. In brief, Dr. Grinstead told of the causes and occasions of the World War, the greatest in the history of the world. He related in brief how each country came into the gigantic struggle, its course and the end, a story so well known by all.

Then he started to enumerate the results of the war. He went into detail on the things which the world has done since to end war. He stated that

Growing as the South Grows

IN Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia, 44 Stores have recently been opened by men trained in the service-rendering and value-providing plan of this Nation-Wide Organization of 571 Department Stores.

It is a tribute to the opportunities which the Great Southland affords. The past achievements of this Company are bound to be duplicated in these Southern States which are so rich in promise and possibilities.

If straight-forward business operations, which may always be measured by the Golden Rule, will win the confidence and patronage of Southern people, the success of these new Stores is already assured.

In our new Store here is proof of our desire to grow as the South grows.

Bringing a Country-wide Advantage to Your Door!

JAMES C. PENNEY, in 1902, opened a small general store in a little mining camp in Wyoming. Such stores were typical of the times. Out of this one-man, one-town business has grown a Nation-Wide Institution of Department Stores. Its operations today offer a sharp contrast with those of 22 years ago.

Then a few hundred people were served. Now millions of people living in 571 communities, scattered over 41 States, are served.

The tremendous collective buying power of these stores has given a SAVING POWER to the people which enables them to retain millions of dollars and at the same time enjoy needed goods of indisputably reliable quality.

This advantage is yours at our Store here.

MISS GRACE SCOTT SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

In a chapel and an evening talk at the Teachers College Miss Grace Leigh Scott, of Greenville, Ind., national field service secretary of the social morality department, W. C. T. U., with headquarters in New York city, made a plea to the students that a single standard of morality for both men and women be maintained. Her talks were well received and made quite an impression upon her audiences.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO BE CAMP LEADERS

An opportunity is offered at Eastern for girls to prepare themselves for similar work as instructors in girls' summer camp.

Miss Garfield is directing classes in Berea, K. C. W., Wesleyan and State University besides the one at Eastern State Teachers College. Her recommendations are best known because of the large class and the real work planned. This program includes much work as well as drills, stunts, hikes and week-end camps. This organization is composed of girls full of vigor and enthusiasm, girls that have real college and campus spirit.

RULES FOR FRESHMEN

- (By An Upper Classman)
Motto: "Never do yourself what you can get somebody to do for you."
1. Be popular. Get your name on the fine list.
2. Never consult card catalogue for a book. Ask the librarian at the library at the desk. She hasn't anything else to do.
3. Keep revenue books as long as you like. The library needs more money.
4. Break as many rules as possible. The council is looking for something to do.
5. Upon seeing a person from your rooming house, be sure to yell at the top of your voice, "Who's got the mail?"
6. Don't waste 50c for a locker key. You can always find a locker open.
7. Cultivate your artistic ability by carving all desks.
8. Practice all latest jazzy steps in the hall. The faculty appreciate them.

FRESHIES PARADE

Girls with their different colored stockings and the boys with their collars turned down as requested by the Sophomore class paraded the streets of Richmond Tuesday afternoon. The mob blocked traffic on Main street for a while. They gave yells for the Freshman class and the college, attracting much attention in the city. The long line wove through the autos parked in the center of Main street and seemed to extend the whole length of the main part of the thoroughfare.
