Applications Due For Keene Oratorical

The W. L. Keene Oratorical Contest for women is scheduled for Wednesday, January 19, during freshmen assembly.

The coed who wins this contest will participate in the state competition with chances of going on to the national level.

Semi-finals for the contest will be held during the latter part of next week. Four girls will be chosen for the finals to be held the following week.

Entry blanks for the semi-finals may be obtained from any member of the Speech Department or from 107 or 108 Cammack. They must be returned to the department by Monday.

The only requirement for entrants is that they be undergraduate women.

Judges of the semi-finals will be Mrs. Almee Alexander, Mr. Joe Johnson, Mr. John Weldon, and Dr. R. G. King. Judges for the finals have not yet been chosen.

Speeches must be at least eight and not over ten minutes long. They must be original composition.

"The speeches should be written to inspire and stimulate the audience," Mr. Weatherly, director of the contest, said.

The speeches do not necessarily have to be memorized for the semi-finals; but this must be done for the finals. Copies of the four finalists' speeches must be turned in to the Speech Department before the final contest.

The Weaver Oratorical Contest, counterpart to the Keene Contest, will be held in March. This contest is open only to undergraduate men. The requirements are the same as for the Keene Contest.

Hawaiian Study Tours Program Taking Applications

The 1966 Summer Travel Program to the University of Hawaii Summer Session is now accepting reservations. Dr. Robert E. Cralle, Executive Director, The Adler University Study Tour to Hawaii, announced.

Special rates for students and teachers for the 43-day Summer Session Program begin at $549. This price includes round-trip Pan American jet air travel from the West Coast, accommodations in Waikiki Beach hotels, plus a full schedule of 22 planned activities including island sightseeing trips and tours, cruises, dinner dances and beach parties.

Little Theatre Tryouts Announced

Eastern Little Theatre will hold try-outs for its second production of the 1965-66 year, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 11 and 12, at 7 p.m. in the Pearl Buchanan Theatre.

The play, "The Skin of our Teeth," by Thornton Wilder, is the story of George Antrobus, his wife and two children, and their general utility maid, Lily Sabina, all of Excelsior, New Jersey. George Antrobus is John Doe—the average American at grips with a destiny, sometimes sour, sometimes sweet. The Antrobuses have survived fire, flood, pestilence, the seven-year locusts, the ice age, the black pox, and the double feature, a dozen wars and the many depressions.

They run many a gamut, are as durable as radiators, and look upon the future with a disarming optimism. Alternately bewitched, befuddled, and becalmed, they are stuff of which heroes are made—heroes and buffoons. They are true offspring of Adam and Eve, victims of all the ills that flesh is heir to. They have survived a thousand calamities by the skin of their teeth. The play is a tribute to their indestructibility.

There are eight male and eight female roles available. Try-outs are open to all students.

Folk Trio Concert January 22

Peter, Paul, and Mary, one of the nation's outstanding folk-singing groups, will appear in concert at Alumni Coliseum on Saturday, Jan. 22, at 8:30 p.m.

This will mark the second appearance at Eastern by the Trio, which consists of Peter Yarrow, Paul Stookey, and Mary Travers. They appeared in Alumni Coliseum in 1964, attracting 6,000 spectators.

The trio has been singing together for five years and has consistently maintained a high degree of success in each public performance.

Tickets, priced at $3.50 and $2.50 are now on sale at the campus book store and Cashier's office, and in Lexington at Main Record Shop, 224 1/2 Main Street. Persons wishing to order tickets may write to: Peter, Paul, and Mary Concert, Eastern Kentucky State College. All seats are reserved.

All Campus Dance

Tonight from 8 to 11:30 the Freshman class will sponsor a dance. Danny and the Vibrations will play in the SUB.

Clyde Holloway To Present Third Organ Concert

The third in a series of six organ concerts at Eastern is scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 16, at 4 p.m., with Clyde Holloway as the performer.

Holloway, assistant professor of music at Indiana University, studied with Mildred Andrews at the University of Oklahoma. After receiving both the bachelor and master of music degrees from the University of Oklahoma, he was the recipient of the American Guild of Musical Artists' Award for outstanding performance and was granted a Fulbright Scholarship to attend the Amsterdam Conservatory in the Netherlands. He studied organ, harpsichord, and chamber music there with Gustav Leonhardt.

The 40-Rank Holzkamp organ, designed for Eastern's Hiram Brook Auditorium, was dedicated Nov. 7, 1965, in an initial concert by Author Poister of Syracuse University. The organ consists of more than 2,106 individual pipes.

Palmer, Clay Opening

Eastern's eighth and ninth completed dormitories, Palmer Hall and Sidney Clay Hall, and expected to be ready for occupancy for the Spring Semester. Palmer Hall, named for Wilson Palmer, State Senator from Cynthiana, is located at the corner of Park Drive and Kit Carson Drive, just east of the Towers, will accommodate 314 men students. Sidney Clay Hall, named for Louisville Banker, is located behind Burnam Hall, facing Kit Carson Drive and will house 420 women students.

Experiment In International Living Representative To Be Selected

Eastern will again select a representative from the student body to participate in the Experiment in International Living.

The Student Council will sponsor one student to travel abroad during the summer vacation of 1966.

The experiment program comprises a one-month family living experience followed by a second month of traveling with nine other Americans and an equal number of native counterparts.

The only cost for the Eastern student will be approximately $125.00 to cover his personal expenses during the trip and the cost of his round-trip transportation from his home to point of embarkation. The Student Council will provide for the other expenses.

The Experiment Selection Committee will consist of four council members and three or four faculty members. This committee will select three finalists whose applications will be forwarded to Putney, Vermont, where the national office will make the final selection.

In order to participate the student must meet the following qualifications:

1. The student can be of either sex.
2. The student must have 30 semester hours by June 1.
3. The student must have a 2.5 standing or above.
4. The student must have been at Eastern for two semesters and have at least two semesters left on campus.
5. The student must not be married.
6. The student must be 18 years of age.
7. The student must be in excellent health.

For more information, there will be someone in the Student Council Office at S. U. B. 201 from 3:00-5:00 Monday through Friday.

To allow more time for applying, the deadline has been extended to Friday, January 21.

Pre-Registration For Eligible Students Begins Monday

Pre-registration for all qualified students will begin Monday and end Saturday. The hours will be 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. until 12 noon on Saturday.

Sophomores, juniors and seniors who are not on probation, who have no failing grades, and not more than one "D" grade at mid-term, are eligible for the pre-registration.

Students who are enrolling at Eastern for the third semester of work and who will have earned 30 semester hours or more by the end of the first semester will be permitted to register provided that they meet these academic requirements.

Order of Registration

The order of registration will be alphabetical as follows:

- Monday, January 10.....A-C
- Tuesday, January 11.....D-H
- Wednesday, January 12.....I-N
- Thursday, January 13.....O-S
- Friday, January 14.....T-Z
- Saturday, January 15.....In service and late registration.

On Friday, January 13, registration of students whose last names begin with T-Z will register from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m. while those who failed to complete their registration may do so beginning at 2 p.m.

The procedure of pre-registration is as follows: Obtain IBM packets from the Records Office located in the lower hallway in the Administration Building. The issuance of packets will be in accordance with the alphabetical schedule of registration, to wit: students whose names begin with A-C will be allowed to obtain their packets on Monday; Tuesday only those students whose last names begin with D-H may obtain a packet and son on.

Dean of Students Area First

After securing packets, students will proceed to the area of the Dean of Students located on the second floor hallway of the Administration Building. In this area fee cards will be obtained, housing cleared, and I.D. cards validated.

With clearance from the Dean of Students, students will proceed to schedule classes. In effect this is now an open campus area for purposes of pre-registration and the departments from which academic counseling and class cards will be secured.

Class cards (one green and one pink) are issued to each student when he is enrolled by an instructor in a class. It is the direct responsibility of the student to check these cards carefully to see that the course number and section letter agree with those which appear on the Registrar's card.

"This attempt to better registration is geared toward helping the individual student obtain a better schedule," commented Dr. Ambrose, the Registrar.

Students ineligible to register next week will do so at the regular registration time during the first week of February.

Broekema Named To Arts Commission

Governor Edward T. Breathitt has named Dr. Andrew J. Broekema, Chairman of the Music Department here, to the executive committee of the newly created Kentucky Arts Commission.

The Commission is composed of 27 members and was allocated $37,500 of his contingency fund to activate the commission and to assist three Kentucky arts groups. The Commission is to develop and promote a broad conceived state policy of support for the arts in Kentucky, Breathitt said.

It also will serve as the state agency to seek and allocate the humanities and arts.

The Commission will review requests for State and Federal grants to the arts and will report to the Commissioner of Finance prior to the 1966 Legislative session, Breathitt said.

Chairman of the group is Mrs. John Oswald, wife of the president of the University of Kentucky.

Arts forms covered in the Governor's order include music (instrumental and vocal), dance, drama, folk art, creative writing, painting, sculpture, photography, graphic and craft arts, games and fashion, motion pictures, television, radio and tape and sound recordings.

Of the $37,500 allocated by the governor from his contingency fund, $7,500 is to be used to carry out administrative functions of the new Commission for the rest of the fiscal year.

The remainder of the allocation provides $10,000 to the Kentucky Opera Association, $10,000 to the Actor's Theatre of Louisville, and $10,000 to the State Theatre of Kentucky at Danville.

The opera association is to use its funds for performances outside of Louisville. The Actor's Theatre is to use its allotment for cultural development within Louisville. The State Theatre's grant is for training in stage production and for cultural development.

Breathitt's order said groups or individuals seeking grants must submit an application to the Commission containing a notarized financial statement.

Productions or projects that would qualify for grants under the executive order include those which:

- Give emphasis to Kentucky creativity and maintenance of professional excellence;
- Meet professional standards and, without assistance, would otherwise be unavailable to citizens in many areas of the state;
- Encourage and assist artists to achieve professional standards;
- Encourage and develop appreciation and enjoyment of the arts;
- Other relevant projects, the orders states, would include surveys, research, and planning in the arts.

Audubon Films To Be Shown Wednesday

Karl H. Maslowski, one of the nation's outstanding naturalists, will present the second in a series of Audubon Wildlife Films Wednesday evening, at 7:30 p.m. in Brock Auditorium.

Maslowski will present a panorama of many wild creatures harbored and nurtured by a Midwestern watershed. Included are muskrats, white-tail deer, least bittern, Canada goose, rock bass, sandhill crane, red foxes, mink and crayfish.

Sponsored by the Eastern Biology Department and the National Audubon Society, the Audubon series is for adults who are interested in conservation of wildlife and in nature.

The program, entitled "Waterway Wildlife," filmed in color, presents spectacular photography accompanied by effective sound recordings of waterway dwellers, and an informative narrative and forceful conservation message, making this a superlative program.

Admission to the series is by season ticket, which is good for four single admissions, to be used by more than one person on the same day if desired.

Reserve Seats Go On Sale

Additional reserved seats for Eastern's Jan. 15 Alumni Coliseum clash with Western have been placed on sale, director of athletics Glenn Presnell said today.

Presnell said an additional section of reserved seats had been sold earlier in the week and that another 500-seat section was being reserved to answer the "biggest demand for tickets we have ever had."

Attendance for the Maroon-Hilltopper battle could surpass the Alumni Coliseum record of 7,700 who saw the rivals clash here last season. The Coliseum seats just over 6,500.

Eastern is defending its 1964-65 OVC championship, while the "Toppers are favored to cop the title this season."

Milestone Orders Due January 28

If you should not return to Eastern for the Spring Semester, you must place your order for the 1966 Milestone before Jan. 28, 1966, at the Cashier's Window. Cost will be $4.75, which includes fees for printing, postage and handling. The First Semester fee pays only for photograph. Some Will Get By, For Others . . .

It's Too Late To Get Serious Now

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN when students come back to school after the Christmas vacation, all well rested and refreshed.

But the atmosphere on campus has changed in the two weeks we have been gone, for the few remaining weeks of the semester might well be dubbed the "cramming period."

It is now that students finally realize that they are in school to get an education and that their tenure in school depends upon their grades in the classes they are taking.

It is a small minority of the students that might not be here too much longer unless they can manage to do a semester's work in two weeks.

But it's too late to do that work now, and it's too late to finally become serious about studying, to become studious.

However there are those who try. Much mid-night (and later) oil will be burned in the next weeks, the library will see its largest number of interested and industrious seekers of knowledge. Instructors will have a great many consultations, notebooks will be overloaded, late assignments will come in by the pounds, as this minority attempts to make good its opportunity. But it's too late to be come "educated" now. For education is a gradual process that must be kept up with. To learn requires daily preparation and study.

Some of the students in this minority will manage to absorb enough information to "make it under the wire," but the majority of students in this group will not. None of them will accomplish or achieve anything, for those who can cram enough to get by will soon forget all that they learned through their efforts.

We are glad that this group is only a small minority of Eastern students. For most have returned not only rested, but with the knowledge that they can face the remainder of the semester and indeed the new year with continued ease, for these students have a good semester's work behind them and have come prepared for the last two weeks of classes before final examinations.

These are the students who should be praised for they are the ones who have entered college with a purpose and will have achieved that purpose. These are the students who benefit themselves as well as helping the college to gain stature in it's drive for excellence and quality.

The Progress commends these persons for their contribution and urges them to continue in their efforts for the remainder of the semester, and for the entire year, although this advice is not really necessary, for these students have enough personal insight, and desire to continue their good work.

For those who now realize too late that it is indeed too late, we can only offer our sympathy and say "See ya' around."

Tiparillos?

Cigar-Smoking Coeds

(ACP)—Should a gentleman offer a lady a Tiparillo?

"By all means," many Texas Tech coeds answer, says the Daily Toreador. Women are trespassing into the man's world even further by smoking cigars, one of the last items men had a "patent" to use.

It may have come about because of the cancer scare which drove many men—and now women—to replace cigarettes with cigars.

One Texas Tech coed said she smokes cigars because she enjoys them more than cigarettes. "They last longer, taste better, and you don't have to inhale to get full satisfaction. Cigars provide an outlet for nervousness and tensions that cigarettes never seemed to satisfy."

Another female smoker said cigars are "fun and different. People may stare at me like I'm crazy, but I don't really care."

Few coeds, however, have enough courage to light up a cigar in public. "I don't smoke them in public," one said, "because I'm afraid society isn't ready for it."

When asked what brands they prefer, most coeds had little knowledge of particular ones. They said, however, that they preferred plastic-tipped cigars. "I usually ask the salesman what he considers a good brand and go by that," one coed said. "I have always been satisfied."

Disadvantages? One coed said she found it "annoying to have to relight them often."

"Another thing that bothers me is that they create more smoke than cigarettes and often leave a big cloud around your head. This sometimes annoys friends."

"My major gripe," another said, "is that they leave a horrible taste in my mouth. I have to get up several times during the night to brush my teeth and still can't get rid of the taste. Also, people often think you're just trying to show off."

Is cigar-smoking by coeds a passing phase? Tech coeds who have tried it said they intend to continue, despite the disadvantages.

'Can You Really Protest The Rain'

Role Of Press

Not A Public Relations Piece

(ACP) — The role of the student newspaper is not just to be a public relations branch for the university, says the Northern Star, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb.

One of the purposes of a public relations bureau is to emphasize the positive aspects of the University. NIU already has such a bureau . . . It distributes news releases throughout the state with University endorsement. This is fine.

The Star, on the other hand, has often been critical of the administration. To some, who think student newspapers should say only good things about the University, this is negative and wrong.

To this we can only say that everything in the world is not viewed through rose-colored glasses. Editors of the nation's collegiate newspapers were recently criticized for their failure to reflect reality. We must face reality sometime—why not at the college level?

The function of the Star is to inform, comment, educate, and entertain. Whether the news is good or bad, we report it. The University acts as a training ground for journalists. But this is not the primary purpose for a newspaper at Northern Illinois.

Our primary purpose is to act as a means of communication for more than 15,000 people who run around this campus every day.

Sights and Sounds

By JOE M. JOHNSON

I have lately maintained there is no better way to waste time and enjoy it than to read an Ian Fleming book. But there is! It's seeing a movie based on a story found in an Ian Fleming book. I saw "Thunderball" over the holidays and found it thoroughly enjoyable. It should get some special award from the Academy as best science fiction of the year.

The expenses of these Bond films are overwhelming. But so are the box-office receipts. And to make matters better, there is a great deal of care and precision evident in every scene. The finesse of the actors, the judicious choice of setting, the meticulous attention to every production detail make them remarkable showcases of motion picture professionalism.

Because the entire James Bond series has been done in a beautiful blend of realism and satire, the movie-goer sits in a hypererotic state that satisfies his vicarious longings for adventure and allows him to maintain an aesthetic distance so that he can still guffaw at the too-obvious puns and laugh at the sadistic goings-on.

The next flick in the series ("You Only Live Twice") will not start filming until July in Tokyo. That means another whole year before the next new film. Oh, well, I suppose we can content ourselves with re-runs.

The Hollywood Women's Press Club recently announced the nominees for its annual awards—a Golden Apple to the most cooperative star and a Sour Apple to the personality who is most uncooperative in giving interviews, posing for pictures, etc.

The nominees for the Golden Apples are Steve McQueen, George Segal, and John Wayne as most cooperative males; Dorothy Malone, Inger Stevens, and Sandra Dee got the nod for females. The Sour Apple will be presented to Tony Curtis, Vince Edwards, David McCallum, Ann-Margaret, Patty Duke, or Debbie Reynolds.

The awards mean nothing so far as talent, patriotism, citizenship, are concerned. They are given solely on the basis of the star's attitude toward the press—particularly the Hollywood fan magazines.

Last year's Sour Apple winners were Ann-Margaret and Tony Curtis. It's entirely possible they might win again. The ironic thing is that both of them in previous years won Golden Apples. Good luck, ladies, on your final choice!

The New York Film Critics Circle, which usually awards six prizes each year, gave three of its awards to the British import, "Darling." It won in the best picture category, and its star, Julie Christie was named best actress. John Schlesinger, a fairly new name to American audiences and apparently one to look for later, was chosen best director for 1965.

Oskar Werner, a German actor in an American film, was named best actor for his portrayal of the ship's doctor in "Ship of Fools." The best foreign-language film of the year was Federico Fellini's "Juliet of the Spirits." No award was made for best writer. These awards which generally coincide greatly with the April Academy Awards are a further indication of the generally poor esteem in which American movies are held. According to most of the "best" lists, the top contenders for acting awards are Oskar Werner (German), Laurence Olivier (English) for "Othello," Terence Stamp (English) for "The Collector," and two Americans, Lee Marvin for "Cat Ballou" or "Ship of Fools," and Sidney Poitier for "A Patch of Blue" or "The Slender Thread."

American ladies fare no better. The top stars seem to be Samantha Egger (English) for "The Collector," Vivien Leigh (English) and Simone Signoret (French) for "Ship of Fools," the above mentioned Julie Christie, and lastly, America's Julie Andrews for "Sound of Music." Another oft-mentioned contender is Britisher Rita Tushingham for "The Knack" or "The Leather Boys."

In addition to "Darling," other pictures touted for the "best" title are "Sound of Music," "Dr. Zhivago," "Ship of Fools," "Magnificent Men in Their Flying Machines," "Cat Ballou," and "The Hill." Since all but "Darling" are American, there would seem to be a better chance, but the Film Critics bypassed them all. It is very likely the Academy will do the same thing.

Student Grading Valuable

(ACP)—Student dismay over the refusal of University of Texas art department to renew the teaching contract of a popular teacher brings up an important question, says the Daily Texan — how influential should students be in the evaluation of their education?

While we are unqualified to pass judgment on George Allen Bogart's competence or on the decision to let his contract expire, we do feel that the art department should give serious consideration to a petition, signed by nearly 300 art students, which favors giving the professor tenure. We also think the department should consider the two Students' Association teaching excellence awards Bogart has received.

As the Texan has emphasized many times before, the University is for students. Their opinions and evaluations of their own needs must be considered. If certain professors consistently please and inspire students, their manner of teaching should be closely examined. Those professors may be popular for reasons other than teaching excellence, or they may be popular because they offer something other professors ignore.

In some departments here, and at colleges and universities throughout the country, students are being asked to grade their professors and courses. In addition to yielding pertinent information on specific professors and courses, such evaluation may also emphasize a widespread frustration by students who are limited to a curriculum designed for the Every-student. To remedy such ills, many universities are giving students a wider range of choice to saturate their intellectual thirsts and encouraging professors to cross the boundaries of their narrow, specialized fields.

If student evaluations are studied rather than filed for oblivion, they may yield significant comments on the shortcomings and successes of an educational system. Evaluation of professors, courses, and programs by faculty members who can judge professional competence and by alumni who have had time to test their education is imperative, but student evaluation should also be a primary consideration.

Letter To Professor

'You Tell Me I'm Under-Producing'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article appeared in the "Centre College Cento," the student newspaper of Centre College in Danville. The unsigned article appeared under the heading "An Open Letter: Student to Professor." We feel that the article points out several rather pertinent points which should be of value and applicable to this campus.)

You tell me that I am "under producing." You feel that I am capable of doing well the work you have chosen for me. My grades would tell the graduate school and the world that I am not capable of work of any kind, but what is the test of knowledge?

Why do my grades reflect this? It is either that I don't choose to do the work (i.e. am lazy), or that I am in fact incapable of doing the type of work necessary for good grades. And by incapable of the work I mean incapable of doing things like literally memorizing a certain poem in order to identify a line chosen at random from it or tell what preceded it, or what some word refers to—questions that frequently appear on what is known as a "chicken" test.

Of course I realize that the professor should know best but personally I would prefer to, and think it closer to the test of true knowledge to, discuss the poet as reflected in his works—what he thought, did, and was; or to discuss what is being demonstrated by this work as a whole, at any rate an examination of what the subject is. It is the opinions and ideas of the students that are the important factors, not the amount of detail that can be memorized.

This does not rule out, however, the necessity for learning of detail, for a working knowledge of what is in a work is necessary to intelligent discussion. The world does not want living encyclopedias and catalogs; what the world wants, what the world must have, and what the college must produce, is the man who thinks, the man who can take a pile of detail and make a thought of it, or an action—a man who knows what relation this pile of detail has to the world, to life, to man; not the man who knows a pile of details by itself, or one who can memorize this pile one day and forget it the next—this can be done quite simply with a computer.

But let us journey beyond this. You claim that I am under-producing and you give me a bad grade. You base this conclusion on my test grades alone, and you don't let me tell you what I know, what I have learned from your course, what it means to me. I realize that guidance is necessary, but it cannot be absolute in the classroom. This is because classes are made of individuals, all of whom have different minds, thoughts, desires.

I long to be at least partially free in my intellectual pursuits. The factor of independence must be considered, and weighted carefully, when making decisions that will affect the student's future as a student.

Ann has been the recipient of many honors during her four years here. Sigma Chi Delta chose her as their sweetheart for 1965-66. She has twice been nominated for homecoming queen. Last year Ann represented the junior class. This year she represented Sigma Chi and was one of the ten finalists. Ann was first runner up in the recent Miss Richmond contest. In this contest she was named Miss Congeniality.

A future art teacher, whose specialty is sketching, Ann would like to teach at her alma mater, Franklin County High School. Ann said, "I enjoy meeting and being with people and I feel this is important for any one in the teaching profession. As a teacher I hope to be the sponsor for some clubs."

An avid sports enthusiast, Ann especially enjoys swimming, golfing, and tennis. Ann plays the ukulele for her own personal enjoyment. She is employed making commercial posters for a Richmond firm.

Ann happily recalls the night when she was chosen Miss Popularity. "I was so surprised all I could do was sigh and smile. I waited till Christmas vacation when I could show my family the trophy before I told them of my selection."

Smiling, Ann said, "Eastern has a wonderful academic atmosphere." Professors show a genuine interest in students as individuals. I know that upon graduation I'll feel as though I'm leaving a little something of myself behind, but the friendliness of Eastern is noted for welcoming back its alumni."

"I felt very honored being chosen Mr. Popularity," were the words of Mike Campbell, a senior Math major from Louisville who was accorded this honor through an all campus election.

Clampbell is a quite active personality on campus. Besides being the most popular male, he is vice-president of Sigma Chi Delta, Chief Justice of the Student Court, member of the Student Code Committee, president of the band and was a member of the band and orchestra and past treasurer of the Music Club. He served on this year's Homecoming Committee.

His plans upon graduation and the future include teaching Math for a few years, then studying I.B.M. and going into this field.

Mike would like to teach Math in Maryland, Montgomery County. He says, "I think I will enjoy teaching. I would like to try it for a while."

He enjoys living in general along with swimming, tennis, and basketball.

When asked what his thoughts were of Eastern, he replied, "I have enjoyed myself. Eastern will give you what you give Eastern. As for the students, he said, I would urge students to get out and join extra-curricular activities and take an interest in campus life."

Miss Eastern Enjoys Varied Life

Junior Patricia Sharon Taulbee (Patty) is this year's Miss Eastern. The ash-blond, blue-eyed miss from Campton is an English major and a biology minor.

Patty is a member of Kappa Delta Tau and is the sponsor for Scabbard and Blade. She is a former member of SNEA, Canterbury Club and KYMA Club. This year she was second runner-up for Homecoming Queen and is a candidate for College Board.

Patty's likes are Eastern, working, with people, clubs, dancing. She enjoys all kinds of sports whether she is participating or just watching.

Miss Eastern's pet peeves are "having my picture taken" and insincerity in people.

Her first words when she was announced Miss Eastern were "Oh!" She said, "I was so happy I was spastic; I couldn't say anything and just stood there. I didn't believe it."

Patty likes Eastern because it is friendly and still small. She feels that everybody is friendly to everybody. About Eastern's growth she states, "I am glad to see Eastern is growing because it presents more opportunity to its students."

Patty graduated valedictorian of her class in 1963. She went to Hazel Green Academy.

As Miss Eastern Patty will represent Eastern in the Mountain Laurel Festival this spring. She will officially represent Eastern through the coming year.

Chemist Hear Professor Hall

At their regular meeting on Monday evening this week, the Chemistry Club heard a talk by Dr. Larry C. Hall, Associate Professor of Analytical Chemistry at Vanderbilt University.

Professor Hall discussed the subject of Spark Source Mass Spectrometry. This chemical technique is among the most sensitive methods of identifying small amounts of material and can detect one part in a billion as a lower limit. The speaker was introduced by Dr. Daniel Silver, The President of the Chemistry Club. Mr. Michael Shore, a senior from Chicago, Illinois, presided at the meeting.

On Monday afternoon and on Tuesday morning, Dr. Hall visited the Chemistry Department where he spoke briefly with faculty members and with chemistry majors planning to do graduate work.

PROGRESS ON SPORTS

with Jim Wiehebrink

OVC CROSS-COUNTRY COACH OF YEAR
Coach Cannon Smith in his second year at Eastern as cross-country coach, has compiled 18 wins against only two defeats. This year he was voted OVC cross-country coach of the year. The cross-country team went undefeated this year and only three teams were able to score against them. They were Kentucky State, Iowa and outstanding High School phenomenon Darrell Remole in the Kentucky Federation meet. They also defeated other Big Ten teams Indiana and Illinois. The final victory came when the thin clads shut out the entire league in winning the Ohio Valley Conference Championship by sweeping the first five places.

Coach Smith has done an outstanding job in bringing Eastern into one of the top cross-country schools in the country and he should be congratulated for a job well done.

ALL-AMERICAN CANDIDATE
Eddie Bodkin had a successful Christmas break in the two holiday tournaments in which the Maroons participated. In both the OVC tournament and the Motor City Classic at Detroit, Bodkin was one of only two unanimous all-tourney selections, and in Detroit was named co-Most Valuable Player along with Detroit's Doris Murrey. Bodkin also lifted his points per game average to 22.7, his rebounding mean to 11.6, and his field goal percentage to 49.7 during the holiday firing. Most impressive of his accomplishments was typing Murrey for Most Valuable Player in the Motor City. Bodkin tied two Classic field goal records for field goals, and led all scorers with 59 points in two games.

EASTERN'S TWO SIDES
Close observers on the Eastern scene have decided that there is really two Eastern teams this season. The Maroons have displayed one team in romps over Transy (91-54), Central Missouri (105-69), Murray (79-73), and Harvard (90-76), and in a 72-69 loss to Dayton. They've done a complete reversal in winning over Austin Peay, and losing to Marshall, Western, and William and Mary. Coach Jim Baechtold, always pleased when his team shows its true colors, says they've been playing on the "flip side" too much to suit him.

ALL TOURNAMENT TEAM
Eddie Bodkin and Bill Walton were the only Maroons to be named to the all-tournament team.

Clem Haskins, who was named the most valuable player of the tournament, along with Eddie Bodkin, were the only unanimous choices in the voting.

Western placed four players on the all-tourney team, Dwight Smith, Steve Cunningham and Chapman joined Haskins while Austin Peay was the only other team to place two players on this honored list. They were Tom Head and Dennis Snyder.

Stewart Johnson of Murray and Larry Jordan of Tennessee Tech rounded out the elite circle. Morehead, East Tennessee and Middle Tennessee failed to place anyone in the top ten players.

Undefeated Matmen Take On Morehead

Eastern's undefeated wrestling team risk their perfect 2-0 record this Saturday when they face Morehead at 3 p.m. in Alumni Coliseum. The grapplers, posting victories over Knoxville YMCA and Maryville, are favored to take their straight victory. In addition to the regular competition, Joe Meyer, Marty Weisheir, and Bob Morrison of the Maroons will wrestle in exhibition. It would prove very interesting for those who would like to see Eastern's fine young wrestling team in action. Student attendance would be greatly appreciated. There is no charge, admission is by the showing of your I.D. card.

Although the team was idle over the holidays, two of their members made impressive showings on their own.

Marty Willigan kept his undefeated record in tack taking first place in the 137 lb. division at the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Invitational. The tournament, held in Long Island, N.Y. was open to all collegiate wrestlers who live on Long Island. Rutgers, Oklahoma, Navy and Minnesota were among the schools that were represented. It lasted two days and Willigan won six matches. He defeated Greg DeMarco of Rutgers for the title.

Mike McClellan of Eastern took part in the National A.A.U. Tournament held in Miami, Florida. It was open to all wrestlers in the country both from the A.A.U. and the N.C.A.A. Stars such as Ed Perry, three time N.C.A.A. champ, participated in the event. Mike wrestled four bouts and took second place in the 177 lb. weight division.

After Saturday the Maroon Grapplers are idle to Jan. 22 when they travel to Indiana to meet Hanover College.

Cadets Of Week

John E. Pickarski, a freshman from Irvine, represents D Company as a Cadet of the Week. He is a business major and hopes to make the army his career.

Representing N Company this week is Ronnie Andrews. A freshman from Sarasota, Florida. Ron is also a business major and would like to have a future in baseball.

Stephen Blackburn, freshman from Carrollton, is a music major. He is representing Band Company and plans to teach secondary school band after graduation.

Eddie Bodkin Sinks Two
Eddie Bodkin adds another basket against Morehead to increase the Maroons early lead. Bodkin scored 17 points in the first half and finished as the games leading scorer with 29 points.

Maroons Defeat Morehead

Eastern led by Eddie Bodkin's 29 points, struggled to a 74-64 victory over the Morehead Eagles.

A jump shot and a layup by Eastern's Jerry Bisbey opened the game with a 4-0 lead for the Maroons.

Eastern held the lead for the next eight minutes, but a fast closing Morehead team managed to pull ahead on a jump shot by Jim Sandfoss and a foul shot by Hall. Bodkin evened the score at 16-16 with a hook shot.

Morehead using the strategy of a deliberate offense led Eastern 20-16, but a jump shot by Carr and one by top scorer Bodkin brought the Maroons even 20-20.

Until the close of the first half the mistake-ridden Maroons led by as many as eight points, but the Eagles rallied and tied the score 34-34 to end the half.

During the first half the score was tied four times and Eastern

Hopes Ride With Eastern's Tennessee OVC Road Games

After opening their Ohio Valley Conference defense on a winning note against Morehead last Monday night, the Maroons (6-4) go in quest of their league road wins Saturday and Monday at Austin Peay and Middle Tennessee.

The Maroons, who mixed good shooting (45.2 per cent), and poor ball handling (15 turnovers) in their 74-64 win over the Eagles, will leave Friday morning for Clarksville and return Tuesday from Murfreesboro.

Austin Peay and Eastern clashed earlier in the OVC tourney at Louisville with the Maroons edging by 86-85 in a hard-fought thriller. Paced by junior college transfers Tom Head and Dennis Snyder, the Governors, who have never lost an OVC game by more than eight points in Clarksville, might be even harder to beat at home this season.

Middle Tennessee, which lost its tournament clash to Murray, is also paced by a transfer-hot shooting Jay Cole—and veteran Bobby Gardner.

Four scoring from the guard position and lack of speed up front in the Morehead win have prompted head coach Jim Baech told to consider radical lineup change for the Tennessee swing.

Bill Walton (14.1), Doug Clemmons (8.5) and Fred Johnson (4.5), combined for only nine backcourt points against the Eagles, and Eastern's running attack was hampered by front court speed.

"I'm looking for a scoring guard," said Baechtold, "and I am going to move that front line around to get more speed on the floor."

Outstanding Gridders Signed By Coach Kidd

Three outstanding high school linemen have signed Eastern Kentucky football grant-in-aid head coach Roy Kidd has announced.

The Maroon grants just before Christmas were Sidney Yeldell, Franklinville, New Jersey, and Dewey Baker and Dennis Diesh, both of Hamilton, Ohio.

Yeldell, 6-foot, 208-pounds, was a two-time all-state performer at DeSosa Regional High School under John Oberg. A defensive linebacker and offensive guard, he "hits the way you want them to," said Kidd. "He's one of the finest high school linebackers and offensive guards that I have ever seen."

Kidd said the Maroons plan to use Yeldell, son of Mrs. Bernice Yeldell, exclusively on defense.

Baker, 6-3, 220, was an honorable mention All-Ohio end at Hamilton Taft, where he was coached by Fred Garretson. Kidd was impressed with Baker's speed in films, and said he would probably play tight end on offense. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Baker.

A defensive tackle, Diesh, 6-1, 206, also did his high school playing at Taft where he was voted Most Valuable Defensive Lineman. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Diesh, he will play defensive tackle for the Maroons. A hard-hitter, Baker impressed Kidd with his aggressiveness and quickness.

Track Team To Compete In Orange Bowl Meet

Seven Eastern track team members and Coach Connan Smith left Wednesday for Miami Fla., where they will participate in the Orange Bowl track meet tomorrow.

Representing Eastern will be the two-mile relay team of Ron Benson, San Mateo, Calif.; Bill Swanson, Morris, Ill.; Jan Halth Kil, Sweden, and Ken Anderson, Malmö, Sweden, sprinter Herman Carter, Cincinnati, half-miler Earl Jordan, White Plains, N. Y., and two-miler Grant Colehour, Rockford, Ill.

An eighth Eastern student, pole vaulter and broad jumper Wilbert Davis, will also be competing. A transfer student, Davis must run unattached and will not be eligible to run for Eastern until the second semester.

Smith predicts that his two-mile relay team will approach the world record in the event of 7:24. Average time necessary to tie the record is 1:51 per m.f.m. In previous meets in the 880 event, the length for each leg of the two-mile relay, Benson and Andersson have run 1:50, Halth 1:51, and Swanson 1:52. Smith points out that his runners have probably not been training long enough this year to break the record.

Carter, who starred for the Maroon footballers this fall, ran a 9.45 in the 100 yard dash this summer on only a year's training. Jordan, plagued by injury last spring, ran a 1:53 in the half as a freshman.

Colehour, a freshman, ran a 9:11.5 two-mile in high school last year.

Davis has vaulted 15-4 and broad jumped 23-11. Smith predicts he will break 16 and 24 feet this spring.

Brick-Breaking 101

Student-Taught Karate Class Draws Interest

By JAMES ELLERBERG Every afternoon, Monday through Thursday, at 4, a unique class meets in Alumni Coliseum. This class teaches Karate. You don't sign for it at registration, because it is not taught by the school.

The instructor is Terry Collis, a junior from Erlanger. Terry started this class last year when several students asked him to teach them Karate.

Karate, a Japanese word meaning "empty-hand," is a system of empty-handed fighting against armed or unarmed opponents in which its practitioners rely on their trained bodies instead of lethal weapons. Many people associate Karate with Judo, but actually they are entirely different. Karate is comparable with boxing while Judo is more like wrestling.

Karate uses the striking surfaces of the body. For example from the wrists to the finger tips there are more than 10 parts which are used to strike. Also used are the elbows, wrists, knees, and feet. Actually the human body is composed of many natural weapons.

Since brute strength is not required in Karate, both men and women can practice it. Many women become very adept at it, because the essence of Karate is speed and technique. There are two co-ed in the Eastern group, and they practice daily with about 25 men.

In addition to being a superb form of self-defense, Karate is an ideal means of exercise. This is its main purpose at Eastern. Each day the group goes through a series of defensive and offensive techniques called Kata. These formal exercises develop speed, rhythm, vigor, and power. Constant and continuous practice is necessary to develop these attributes.

Beginning students are usually anxious to train. Terry Collis says. They find Karate very exciting. However, the constant repetitions necessary in order to learn the basic techniques can become monotonous to them. Here lies the danger of tiring without spirit, and eventually ceasing to train.

Besides being a wonderful means of exercise, Karate is also an exciting sport. One part of a Karate contest is a free-style sparring match between two people. Each person must both attack and defend while attempting to deliver a strong, well-focused punch, strike, or kick. But this attack must be stopped just short of the target, because it is forbidden to actually strike an opponent.

Terry and some of the members of his group do participate in actual matches. Terry placed fourth in his division as a member of the United States team in its match against Canada on Oct. 2 of this year.

Because Terry wants to keep all of his students on the same level, he is not accepting any new students during the remainder of this semester. He says that he will accept some beginners next semester. Once enrolled, the new student can stay in the class as long as he is willing to work.

The group plans to put on an exhibition during half-time at one of the Eastern basketball games this fall.

Study Tour To Be Launched

The International College in Copenhagen will launch its new eight week study tour this summer.

The tour is designed to explore life in the capitalistic Scandinavian welfare states, in socialist Soviet Union, Poland, and Czechoslovakia, and in the divided city of Berlin.

The less academically oriented parts of the experience tour include six day stays at international student centers in Sochi and Yalta.

This experience in living and studying abroad is primarily intended for students in their junior year of undergraduate study. However, others, such as special advanced students and teachers, are eligible for the tour.

The summer session of five weeks will give students from two to four semester credit hours plus a two months tour of Northern and Eastern Europe with no credit.

Interested students may obtain more information by writing to I.C.C., Dalstroget 140, Soborg, Copenhagen, Denmark.

Junior Class Officers

Industries Recruiting College Seniors

At Special Session

Coca Cola Co., Carnation Company, B. F. Goodrich, Continental Assurance, and more than 60 other top U.S. companies will be recruiting '66 seniors at a special March 10 and 11 interviewing meeting in Chicago at the Sheraton Chicago Hotel.

Dubbed "INTRO," because it introduces college seniors to industry, the interviewing conference is sponsored for the 9th consecutive year by the American Marketing Association's Chicago Chapter. Over the years numerous students have found positions through the INTRO conferences.

INTRO provides college seniors an opportunity for face-to-face interviews with major companies that could not ordinarily fit their schools into their crowded campus itineraries.

Thom McAn makes moccasins like the Choctaws, Chickasaws, Cherokee and Chippewas do.
How? By hand-sewing the moccasin seam. It's not nearly as fast as doing it by machine. But somehow it feels better. And looks better.
By using leather tanned a special way to hold the shape, yet mellowed for softness and pliability.
By cutting it so a single piece of leather cradles the foot from toe to heel. Indian style. Pure comfort.
Finally, by putting the shoe on the last soaking wet. When it dries, it holds its exact shape and form.
How much?
Surprisingly little, 9 beavers, 3 eagles, 4 buffalos. That's 00.00 American.
