Mary Agnes Finneran Selected Editor-In-Chief Of College Newspaper By President

Eastern Progress To Be Edited By Sophomore; To Succeed Eicher

ENGLISH MAJOR

Mary Agnes Finneran, sophomore, Covington, has been appointed by Dr. H. L. Donovan as the editor-in-chief of the Eastern Progress for 1939-40. This will be the first time in the history of the school that a young woman has been placed in complete charge of the college newspaper. She will succeed Eddie Eicher, senior, Fort Thomas, the present editor of the paper.

The new editor has served on the Progress staff for two years, having held the positions of reporter, feature writer, managing editor, and associate editor. She has served as secretary of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association and received special recognition in this group when her editorial and news story ranked high in all-state competition of the K.I.P.A. last fall at Centre.

In addition to her work on the Progress staff, Miss Finneran is active in the sophomore class; she is a English major and is actively engaged in many campus activities. She holds membership in the World Affairs Club, the Girls' Glee Club, the Little Theater Club, the Northern Kentucky Club, the Kymas, the Canterbury Club, and many other campus organizations.

William Adams, junior, Richmond, was named by President Donovan for the Business Managership of the Progress but rejected it in favor of the position of editor of the Milestone.

Miss Finneran has announced that she will not select her staff and make appointments until next fall.

Attends Meet

The White House conference held in Washington Wednesday was reviewed briefly last Friday by Dr. H. L. Donovan, president of Eastern Teachers College, who was invited by President Roosevelt thru Secretary of Labor Perkins to attend the conference. Dr. Donovan returned from Washington and spoke at the regular college assembly hour.

"Children in a Democracy" was the theme of the conference, which was called for the benefit of young people of college age as well as children, Dr. Donovan stated. "The problems of democracy as they affect the youth of the nation are just as vital to you as to the younger children," he told the college students in his audience.

This was the fourth conference of its kind, the first having been called by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1909, the second by President Hoover and the third by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932, Dr. Donovan said, declaring that these conferences have done a great deal toward focusing attention of the nation on the needs of the children.

The address of President Roosevelt was given Wednesday morning at a general session, at which Mrs. Perkins presided, in the East Room of the White House and Mrs. Roosevelt gave a very informal talk on the lack of opportunity for children in the poorer sections of the country and cities, according to Dr. Donovan.

Quoting briefly from the president's speech, Dr. Donovan said he was tremendously impressed with the sincerity and purpose of the president in providing for the welfare of the nation's children and with the interest of Mrs. Perkins in this work.

About five hundred people were present at the conference, Dr. Donovan said, including representatives from each state and Alaska, Porto Rico, and Hawaii.

Progress Editor

MARY AGNES FINNERAN

Miss Mary Agnes Finneran, sophomore, Covington, will be the 1939-40 editor of the Eastern Progress. Miss Finneran has been a member of the Progress staff for two years, serving as reporter, feature writer, managing editor, and associate editor. She is an English major and an active member of the World Affairs Club, the Little Theater Club, the Madrigal Club, and many other campus organizations.

Press Key Awards Presented Progress Staff Members

Five Seniors Receive Recognition; KIPA Winners Receive Prizes

FOR WRITINGS

According to an announcement made by Eddie Eicher, Progress editor, and Mr. William Keene, faculty sponsor, the following students will be given special recognition for their work on the paper during the past year.

Miss Mary Agnes Finneran and Miss Sue Biesack will be awarded certificates from the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association for the excellence of their work. Miss Finneran will receive an award for writing news stories and editorials, and Miss Biesack's award will be for writing feature stories.

Billy Adams and Eddie Eicher will receive press keys from the K.I.P.A. Mr. Adams received his for winning first place in advertising, and Mr. Eicher's were won by first place in news writing and sports writing. The Progress received a certificate from the association for ranking as the second best paper in Kentucky in the annual competition.

Progress awards this year are in the form of gold press keys and will go to all seniors and to several underclassmen selected on a merit basis. Seniors who will be awarded keys for their work are: James Rodgers, sports editor; Mildred Abrams, society editor; Rebekah Vallandingham and Fred Mayes, reporters, and Eddie Eicher, editor. Two juniors will receive their award on merit. They are Billy Adams and Mildred Coley. Sophomores receiving press keys are Mary Agnes Finneran and Ruth Catlett. The only freshman to receive the gold press key award from the Progress is Miss Sue Biesack, of Covington.

Elected To Ky. Jr. Hall Of Fame

Miss Doriselwood Lemon of Berry, Ky., has recently been elected to the Kentucky Junior Hall of Fame for her notable work as a 4-H club member. Each year 11 out of thirty-three thousand members are chosen to represent Kentucky. Miss Lemon, a freshman at Eastern, has been a 4-H club worker for several years and during the time has been chosen the outstanding 4-H member of her county, has won the silver loving cup, and has won cash prizes amounting to $100 for work on a sport suit and one evening dress. She now holds the title of Clothing Champion for Kentucky for 1938.

Marion Campbell Elected Queen Of Junior Prom

Frankfort Troubadours Will Play For Biggest Dance Of Season

HERE MAY 12

Eastern seniors will be the honored guests Friday night, May 12, at the annual Junior Prom—the occasion of their college careers which is second in importance only to the awarding of diplomas at June Commencement.

Miss Frances Marian Campbell, Springfield, will receive the crown of roses emblematic of "Queen of the Junior Prom of 1939" from the hands of Miss Pearl Stephenson, Richmond, retiring queen.

The queen's court which is made up of representatives from all the classes consists of the following: Misses Mildred Abrams and Lucy Teater, seniors; Misses Frances Little and Peggy Denny, juniors; Misses Catharine and Drucilla Wilson, sophomores; and Misses Jean Roberts and Margaret Colley, freshmen. Catherine Hummell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Hummell, and Edward Cuff, son of Dr. and Mrs. Noel B. Cuff, will serve as flower girl and page, respectively.

Music for the Prom will be furnished by the Frankfort Troubadours, it was announced by George Evans, chairman of the orchestra committee. This popular central Kentucky band was chosen because of its recognized superiority over other orchestras which were available for the evening. There will be six no-breaks and two extras.

Final Arrangements Made For Annual Mother's Day Program Presented On Campus; Keene To Deliver Address

The special program in honor of Mother's Day will be held on Sunday, May 14. This program is sponsored by the Student Relationship Council, and the president, faculty, and student body are joining the council in extending a most cordial invitation to the families of all Eastern students to spend the day on our campus.

The music for this occasion has been arranged by Miss Sams and Mr. Van Puersem. The morning musical selections will be sung by Miss Betty Sturm, Bellevue, accompanied by the men and women's glee clubs. They will sing "Sun of My Soul," Ritter-Monk; "A Legend," Tschalkowsky; and "Beautiful Saviour," Christiansen. The Eastern orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Van Puersem, will present a short concert in Hiram Brock Auditorium on Sunday afternoon. It will be composed of the following: "Secret Marriage," Domenico Cimarosa; "Reformation Symphony," Felix Mendelssohn; "A Serenade," Riccardo Drigo; "Tales from the Vienna Woods," Johan Strauss, and "Symphony in D Minor by Cesar French.

The program will begin with a special Mother's Day service in the auditorium. Donovan Cooper, a junior in the college and acting president of the Student Relationship Council, will preside. The principal speaker of the morning, Mr. W. L. Keene, will speak on "Tributes for Mother's Day." The

Junior Class President Is Elected As Editor; Adams Will Head Milestone Staff

Richmond Boy To Fill Editorship Left By Brock

COMMERCE MAJOR

William E. Adams has been elected by the members of the junior class to be editor-in-chief of the Milestone, annual publication of the senior class of Eastern. He will succeed Hiram Brock, senior, Harlan, who has served as the editor of the 1939 yearbook which will be off the press within the next two weeks.

Mr. Adams, Richmond, junior, is a commerce major and has been active in campus affairs for the past three years. He has served as Business Manager of the Eastern Progress for the past five semesters and had been reappointed by Dr. Donovan to that position for 1939-40, but he rejected it in favor of the editorship of the college annual.

In addition to his work on the Progress staff, Mr. Adams is the president of the junior class, a member of the honorary commerce fraternity, Sigma Tau Pi, and holds membership in many other organizations. While on the Progress staff, his work in advertising was recognized as outstanding by the state press association. At the fall meeting of this group, he was presented with a silver press key to signify that his was the best collegiate advertising in the state.

As is the custom, Mr. Adams will select his own associate editor and business manager for the Milestone, and they will be announced next semester.

Milestone Editor

Billy Adams, Richmond, junior, was elected by the junior class as the editor of the 1940 Milestone, the college yearbook. Mr. Adams had been appointed as business manager of the Eastern Progress for next year, but rejected it in favor of the Milestone post. Mr. Adams has served on the staff of the Eastern Progress for three years, is president of the junior class, and is active in many campus activities.

R. O. T. C. Seniors Attend Banquet Of Reserve Group

Reserve Officers Association Honors Graduating Classes

AT LEXINGTON

The annual dinner given by the Reserve Officers Association of Kentucky in honor of the graduating classes of the Reserve Officers Training Corps of the University of Kentucky, Western Kentucky State Teachers College and Eastern Kentucky State Teachers College, was held Friday night, April 28, in the Student Union building of the University of Kentucky, Lexington, at 7 o'clock.

The purpose of the dinner was to have the students meet the Reserve Officers with whom they will serve after they have received their commissions in the Organized Reserve component of the Army of the United States.

The principal speaker of the program immediately following the dinner was Brigadier General Adna R. Chaffee, Commanding the Kentucky Military Area, and the post of Fort Knox. His theme will be "The Place of the Young Reserve Officer in our scheme of National Defense." General Chaffee was introduced by Colonel N. Butler Briscoe, Cavalry, Chief of Staff of the Kentucky Military Area.

In addition to the Reserve Officers of Richmond and the officers of the military unit at Eastern, the following students attended: Cadet Major Leslie G. Roth, Fort Mitchell; Cadet Captain Harvey D. House, Red House; Cadet Captain Hiram M. Brock, Harlan; Cadet Lieutenant Wallace G. Forbes, Richmond; Cadet Lieutenant Charles L. Stafford, Covington; Cadet Lieutenant Dale L. Morgan, Newport, and Cadet Lieutenant Homer W. Ramsey, Whitley City.

Visitors To Be Guests Of College at Lunch; Students To Serve As Guides

CAMPUS TOURS

Approximately 1500 high school seniors are expected to visit the campus of Eastern Kentucky State Teachers College, on the fourth annual High School Day today. Over 100 reservations have already been received from the various high schools of the state. Last year's program was attended by over 1400 seniors and school officials representing fifty-two high schools. An even larger attendance is anticipated for 1939.

Following the registration of guests in the Administration Building, beginning at 9:00 a. m., detailed campus tours under the guidance of college students representing the various counties will be held. There will be an assembly hour at 11:00 during which an address of welcome will be given by Dean W. C. Jones, dean of the college, and short talks by Miss Lucille Nunneley and Mr. Leonard Stafford, seniors, representative of the Eastern student body. This will be followed by a program of music furnished by the college orchestra and the two Glee Clubs. Visitors are guests of the college for the lunch in the Amphitheater at 12:30 p. m.

In the afternoon an outdoor demonstration in the stadium will be sponsored by the department of Military Science and the department of Health and Physical Education, followed by a baseball game, Eastern vs. University of Kentucky.

It is the purpose of the college, in conjunction with the guidance program of the various high schools of the state, to sponsor an annual High School Day to acquaint the prospective college students with the campuses of various state colleges offering courses in their selected fields and to give them a first hand opportunity to view the college in action. It is the belief of these guidance staffs that too few students know anything about the state schools and the comparative low cost of attending them. This inspection tour is to offer the students a chance to acquaint themselves with the organization here at Eastern.

A. A. U. W. Leader

Mrs. Jeanette Murbach, a member of the Eastern State Teachers College faculty at Richmond, was elected president of the American Association of University Women Saturday, April 29, at Mammoth Cave, Ky.

Mrs. Murbach, now in Europe completing work on a doctor's degree, succeeds Mrs. Frank L. McVey, wife of the University of Kentucky president.

Mrs. Lucille Rorer, Campbellsville, was elected secretary. The other officers hold over until next year.

Approximately 80 delegates from 27 state schools attended the meeting, which was opened Friday night. The meeting concluded Sunday with an outdoor breakfast and induction of officers.

Mrs. McVey spoke at a dinner meeting on "Responsibilities of College Women." Earlier in the day, the delegates motored to Bowling Green for a tour of the city and tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul L. Garrett. Dr. Garrett is president of Western State Teachers College.

Miss Edith Ford, Eastern commerce instructor, and Mrs. Frank L. McVey were chosen by the division to represent Kentucky at the annual A. A. U. W. meeting at Denver this June.

FRANCES LITTLE

Miss Frances Little, attendant, was Miss Eastern of 1938 and is attendant to Miss Eastern this year. She is a member of the Home Economics Club, Madrigal Club, and Little-Theater Club.

MARION F. CAMPBELL

Miss Marion Campbell, junior, Springfield, will reign as Queen of the Junior Prom, which will be held in the small gym of the Weaver Health Building, Friday evening, May 12.

The Queen of this year's prom was the sophomore attendant to the prom queen last year. She is a member of the Student Relationship Council and is active in many campus organizations.

PEGGY DENNY

Miss Peggy Denny, attendant, of Richmond is new to the campus this year although she attended Model High School. She is a transfer student from Sullins College and a member of the Madrigal Club and the Little Theater Club.

Junior-Senior Reception Is Next Tuesday

The girls of the junior class will give a reception Tuesday, May 16, in the recreation room of Burnam Hall from 8:00 to 10:00. Special guests will be the men and women of the senior class. Men of the junior class will be guests.

The committee on arrangements is composed of Shirley Crites, chairman, Sue Toadvine, Frances Little, Dorothy Dunaway, and Martha Eubank.

A thing which is a constant source of amazement to us is the fact that these big football heroes, who are usually supposed to be clumsy, are our most adept jitterbugs and most skillful step-pers. Limb, Combs, Mowat, and Thurman are all as much at home at a swing session as they are on the gridiron.

There will be no paths across the greensward when the new men's dormitory is finished, for no matter which way you turn there is a walk going in the same direction that you are.

President Boatman at Union said: "We will not subsidize athletics," and Dr. Donovan said: "Neither will be." Now President Boatman says: "No modern dancing and swing at Union, squire dances and folk dances will be permitted." Dr. Donovan, please don't follow that man's example again and take our sweet swing from us.

Along the same lines, can you imagine our annual Junior Prom turned into a square dance? We might employ Dr. "Speed" Engle and Dr. "Boone" Dorris on the gitar and fiddle and have Dr. "Zeke" Donovan calling the sets. Some fun . . . and no one hurt by

Maroons Hope To Better Record Of Three Of Five

New Field May Be Used If Weather Is Favorable

TEAM LISTED

By FRED MAYES

The Maroon baseball team will try to better their record in collegiate circles this afternoon by annexing a game with the University of Kentucky Wildcats. The Eastern nine has defeated the Wildcats once this season by a 6-4 count behind the three-hit pitching of Rice.

Although the Maroon nine seemed superior at Lexington, the visitors are expected to give Coach Hembree's team plenty of opposition in today's contest. Eastern's other victories this season have been over Franklin College by a score of 2-0, and the Praying Colonels of Centre, 7-1. The Maroons have dropped games by close scores to the University of Cincinnati and to the Volunteers from Tennessee University.

Lefty Shetler will probably be Coach Hembree's choice to pitch against the Wildcats. "Yeep hasn't been in top form yet this season, but if the kinks in his left flipper have straightened out he should be able to befuddle the university batsmen with his fast-breaking curves. Catcher Joe Williams will complete the Eastern battery.

In the Maroon infield, the fans will see Lewis on the initial sack with Hines at the keystone. The shortstop position will be ably taken care of by Merlino and Les Voshell will hold down the hot corner. Porter, Davison and Murrell will compose the outfield. Judging from previous performances these boys can give a good account of themselves.

The Wildcat battery will probably be composed of Tognocchi and Fritz. In the infield Coach Moseley will start Phillips, Carnes, Raine and Shepard, unless Crowell gets the call at shortstop instead of Raine. Tice, Willoughby and Gravis are to be the university's choice for outfield duties.

Eastern has not exhibited much power at the plate this season. Voshell, Merlino, and Porter have been the big guns of the Maroon attack and have really turned in fine performances. The hits have been timely, if not frequent, and with more batting practice the Eastern team's batting average should pick up materially.

Coach Hembree's team has been showing steady improvement this year. At the beginning of the season the nine was composed of a few regulars and a number of inexperienced players. Because of the late spring the team has suffered through lack of practice sessions, but with the advent of warm weather the Easterners should gain the needed drill.

Weather conditions being favorable the game will be played on the new diamond on the campus. The game will be called at 3 p.m.

Eastern Opens Net Season Next Week With Hilltoppers

With the ping of a tennis ball across the net and down the court, we find the Eastern netters rounding into shape under the tutelage of Coach Turkey Hughes. This year the Maroons should be considerably stronger than last in spite of the fact that the majority of the players are in varsity competition for the first time. The nucleus of the team is Coleman Whittaker, a junior who has made rapid strides in perfecting his court play and service. He will be counted upon to take a big percentage of his sets. Other members of the team are: Billy Farris, Lon Limb, Jim Squires, Billy Bright, Mills Lyons, and Powers.

Matches scheduled:
May 13—At Western.
May 15—At Berea.
May 20—Berea.
May 23—Western.
Centre (2 matches—date not set).

Meeko Hutcha.

Big Chief Meeko Hutcha (White Chief), alias Thomas E. McDonough, head of Eastern's physical education department, was recently presented with this ceremonial Indian headdress and with silver bracelets by the Pawnee and Ottoo Indian tribes at a convention banquet on Wednesday, March 1, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The occasion was the annual meeting of the Southern District of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, of which Mr. McDonough is president. The presentation was made by Chief Wolf Robe, head of the tribe, accompanied by seventy-five Indians in full regalia who entertained the convention with characteristic war dances.

By JIMMY RODGERS

This evening the Maroons are to engage the University of Kentucky in their second encounter with the State nine. Last month the Eastern team defeated Coach Moseley's boys without much trouble and should be ready now to repeat. With Lefty Shetler on the mound and a hot sun beaming down to warm up his big flipper, the Maroons will walk away with another victory.

The manner in which Carl Yeager and Johnny Rice are tossing the ball in the relief and regular roles, respectively, is really pleasing to this spectator's eye. Give Carl good support from the stands and afield and he will demonstrate a fast ball that's got all the movements of a fan dancer.

The state colleges have done a very fine job in appeasing the pug-nacious attitude of the officials of the private institutions. For this year, O. A. Gunkler of Berea was elected president of the K.I.A.C., with the remaining officers being selected from Transylvania and the University of Louisville. My! My! the big boys really did turn over a new leaf.

For some time Eastern was recognized as a real threat in collegiate golf circles, having had in Garrard Rawlings of Harlan the Kentucky intercollegiate state champion a few years ago. This season Eastern will not be represented on the links because enthusiasm for the game is lacking; demand for a team is not great enough to warrant the expense. Let's not allow this sport to die and be erased from the athletic program here at Eastern.

Under the coaching of Tom Samuels, five men were rounded into shape to carry the Maroon and White colors in a triangle track meet held at Berea College April 24. The quintet that represented Eastern was composed of Lon Limb, Virgil McWhorter, Ora

Tuasey, George Ordick and A. J. Hauselman.

Here's a tip for Coach Samuels: The other day while watching several men work out for the track team, we saw Chester Hill jumping five feet, one inch as if he were hurdling. By this I mean approach to the parallel bar was straight-forward. Imagine what he could jump with some instructions as to the form used in a "western roll," or even a "scissor jump."

Eastern defeated the University of Kentucky baseball team, Tennessee downed the Maroons, the Wildcats came back for a decisive victory over the Volunteers to the tune of 18-5. The only explanation we can make is that our boys must be rather tough to have softened the southern team up so much.

Ralph Stafura, fullback on the Union College football team for three years, has received an offer from the Cincinnati Bengals professionals. For two he made the All-State K.I.A.C. first team, one year he made the All-Southern S.I.A.A., and received honorable mention for the Little All-America.

Eastern Loses To Tennessee Nine In Close Game

Maroons Lose In Tenth After Tying Volunteers With Seven Run Rally

SCORE IS 11-9

The University of Tennessee baseball team took an 11-9 victory from the Eastern Teachers College Maroons Friday in a game marred by cold weather, a stiff breeze, and consequently, erratic play.

The Volunteers, coached by Johnny Mauer, former U. K. basketball coach, took an early lead and lengthened it to 9-2, but Coach George Hembree's lads came to life in the seventh to score seven runs and knot the count.

Tennessee scored in the first on a walk and a two-base hit by Sneed. Eastern tied it in the same inning on two walks, a passed ball and an error. The Vols counted three in the third, added another in the fourth and four more in the sixth. The Maroons got one in the fourth.

In the big seventh, Eastern pounded Bob Fox from the mound on three hits, a couple of walks, an error and a hit batsman to tie the score at 9-all, where it remained until the first of the tenth when the Vols collected two more runs on two walks, an error and a wild pitch.

Garrett replaced Fox for Tennessee in the seventh and Martin went in in the eighth to hold the Maroons safe the rest of the game. Shetler started for Eastern, was relieved by Rice in the fourth and Yeager went into the game in the eighth.

Maroons Score Freely To Down Centre Colonels

Fifteen Colonels Fan Atmosphere In Second Straight Loss

YEAGER WINS

The Centre Colonels, making their second appearance on the diamond since 1929, again failed in their quest for a victory when the Eastern Maroons grabbed a 5-run margin in the early innings and went on to win by 7-1.

The Deckermen, who were held to four hits by four Maroon moundsmen, have yet to hit their batting stride, for fifteen of the Gold and White batters were sent back to the bench on strikeouts.

With Bill Herrick making his first start of the year on the mound, the Maroons sent two men across the platter in the second on Porter's timely single to right, and added a second brace of scores in the fourth on two walks, two hits and an error. A fifth Maroon tally came across in the fifth, but the Colonels matched it when Andy Lorentsen's screaming triple down right field foul line scored Frank Medaris from first. Final Eastern tallies came in the eighth and ninth.

Credit for the victory went to lanky Carl Yeager, who left the box in the fifth in favor of Bob Abney after blanking the Colonels during his tenure on the mound.
