R.O.T.C. Announces National Inspection, Field Day Dates

Final Corps Days on May 29 and June 1 Respectively

The Eastern unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps will complete this semester's program with National Inspection on May 28 and 29 and Field Day on Monday, June 1. Lieutenant Colonel Westman of Fort Benjamin Harrison will again be the national inspector of the corps for the United States Army.

Lieutenant Colonel Westman will be on the campus for two days to interview each military class and the actions of the unit as a whole. A special corps day will be held on May 29, at which time the Lieutenant Colonel will see our men in action—marching, gun drill, and communication contacts.

COMMISSIONS

This corps day will begin approximately at 3:00 p. m. and will feature the presentation of thirteen commissions in the United States Army by President O'Donnell. O'Donnell will speak briefly to the men, congratulating them on their becoming second lieutenants, and then Lieutenant Noble of Eastern will swear the men in.

FIELD DAY

On the following Monday, June 1, the R. O. T. C. will hold its annual field day wherein the final drill will be executed and the presentation of the awards will be made.

At this time the honor graduates will be announced, and the freshmen gun squads and the sophomore communication details will compete in Battery competition. The cup will be awarded at the end of the meet to the winning battery commander. The pistol team, with its enviable undefeated record in shoulder-to-shoulder matches, will also be given medals.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

Walter Heuke will be presented during the Monday ceremonies with the Field Artillery Medal as the outstanding member of the junior advanced training course. Robert Yeager, also a junior, will be awarded the expert gunners medal for achieving the highest ranking in the junior class in expert gunnery. Ballard Yelton achieved the best record in the first class gunnery tests and will be decorated for such. Joe Hays of the freshman class will be given the second class artillery medal.

Eight of these have been ordered to active duty effective May 29 and will report to the Replacement Training Center at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, on June 6. These

Alumni To Hold Annual Banquet

Newly-Elected Officers Will Be Installed

Graduates of Eastern in 1917, 1932, and 1942 will be honored at the Alumni Banquet to be held Saturday, May 30, at 6:30 p. m., in the main dining hall of the Student Union Building.

Heading the list of speakers will be President O'Donnell, representing the college; Captain Gayle Starns, of the Lexington Signal Corps and member of the class of '32; Mildred Gortney, of the present graduating class; and Maude Gibson, retiring member of the faculty. Miss Grace Champion will preside.

Newly-elected officers of the Alumni Association, which has sponsored these banquets since its formation in 1909, will be installed during the program.

Before the banquet, at 2:30 in the afternoon, there will be an Alumni business meeting in the Little Theater. Alumni who were members of the Y. W. C. A. are invited to a tea held from 3:30 to 5 o'clock at the home of the Y sponsor, Miss McKinney.

Senior Reception

President and Mrs. O'Donnell extend a cordial invitation to the senior class to attend a senior reception at their home on Lancaster avenue on Monday evening, May 25, from 7:30 p. m. until 9:30 p. m. The garden will be open for all who care to see its beauty in the springtime.

Profit of Tomorrow's Ball Goes for War Bonds for Loan Fund

All profit from the Senior Ball to be given tomorrow evening, Saturday, May 23, in the Walnut Hall of the Keen Johnson Union Building from 8:00 until 12:00 o'clock, will be turned over to the student loan fund of the college to be used to purchase defense bonds.

Miss Mae Fawbush of Benham, Ky., will reign as queen and will be attended by Miss Georgia Root of Corbin and Miss Theda Dunavent of Loyall.

Music will be furnished by Jamie Thompson and his orchestra with admission price $1.50.

There will be six no-breaks and a victory special. Before the special, all those attending the ball will be requested to adjourn to the lobby whereupon young ladies of the senior class will be stationed on the two pairs of steps leading to the dance floor. Each couple wishing to dance will pass by the girls and make a contribution to a fund to be used for war stamps to be held by the college.

GUESTS

President and Mrs. O'Donnell, Dean and Mrs. Jones, Dean and Mrs. Keith and Mrs. Emma Y. Case will be guests of the class at the occasion. Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Samuels, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Giles, Miss Janet Murbach, and Miss Edith Ford.

BOND FUND

Admission price to the dance will be $1.50 per couple or stag, and there will be no corsages. All profit from the dance will be put into war bonds to be put at the disposal of the student loan fund of the college.

The intermission for the coronation will be at 10:15 p. m. with the coronation scheduled for 10:30 p. m. Red, white, and blue colors will be used to decorate for the occasion.

Clark Rates Superior

Miss Sara Clark of Model High School attended the National Music Festival held at Nashville, Tennessee, last week.

Miss Clark won superior honors both on cello and piano. On the cello she played Saint-Saens Concerto in A Minor and on the piano a Sonata in A Major by Haydn. She was chosen to play the cello in the all-honored orchestra concert held in Neely Auditorium, Nashville, on Friday evening, May 15.

Milestone Scheduled For Distribution Today

According to the latest reports from the printers, the Milestones were scheduled to be delivered to the Milestone Office last evening and are to be given out sometime today or tomorrow, according to Frank Flanagan, editor.

Flanagan explained that this year's book will contain one hundred and eighty pages, including faculty, many snapshots, clubs, classes, and advertisements.

The cover, of a new and surprising design, is made of leather, the first of its type on an Eastern annual.

Because some of the students neglected to cooperate with the Milestone officials, their pictures will not appear in the annual. This is sincerely regretted, according to the editor and business manager of the book.

The new plan of $5.00 worked admirably for the first time. Unfortunately, because of a paper shortage, there will be no Milestone next year.

Fourteen Men Make ROTC Allotment

Fourteen men from the sophomore course of Military Science and Tactics have been chosen to continue their work in the next two years of Advanced work under government contract from the fifty-nine members of the class.

Those who were selected in the order of their ranking by the Military Department are: Roberts, Gail; Brashear, Billy; Loper, Jack; Keuper, Jerry; Frey, Paul; Muntz, Edsel; Carlson, Lawrence; Eads, Malcomb; Power, Lewis; Yelton, Ballard J.; Lowe, Argyle; Kelly, Willard; Sawyer, Orval; and Burch, Robert.

PARAGRAPH 20

These men do not receive pay and allowances from the government and no assurance is given that they will receive a reserve commission, but otherwise, they receive the same instruction and ROTC privileges as those men on the allotment.

Those men eligible for Paragraph 20 may fill any vacancies that might occur in the allotment. The ratings of part of the remainder of the class starting after the fourteenth on the allotment, are as they were given priority: Hudnall, Lloyd; Williams, John L.; Smith, Carl K.; Gibson, Earl; Doeb, Norman A.; Kidd, Roy; Weber, Edward; Bartlett, Howard; O'Donnell, James; Cooper, Robert; Tabb, Thomas; Wagers, (CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

Jacqueline Yavecchia Is Given 1942 Belles Lettres Prose Award

Miss Jacqueline Yavecchia of Waterbury, Conn., was awarded the prize for the best prose selection selected for the 1942 publication of Belles Lettres.

Miss Yavecchia, a junior majoring in chemistry, was named the winner by the members of the English department of the school for her selection entitled "The Keen of the South Woman," a fantasy relying chiefly on the sharp connotations of atmosphere to relay its meaning.

Having contributed both prose and poetry to this year's anthology and several poems to last year's book, Miss Yavecchia plans to continue mixing chemistry and literature in her own fashion.

Fools We Mortals Be

That teachers are born and not made has more truth in it than fiction. Teacher training may do much to develop latent talent in those who are preparing for the teaching profession, but . . . there must be something within a person that makes him a successful teacher.

A truly good teacher is a rare thing. Why? Because the teaching profession is crowded with men and women who should not be teachers. How long will it take us to realize that the role of the teacher is the most important in shaping the lives on the next generation?

PERHAPS WE WILL LEARN THE LESSON FROM HITLER'S YOUTH MOVEMENTS. But we doubt it.

And it is not entirely the fault of low salaries, etc., the usual jargon of educational meetings. One of the most important factors is that which is aggravated by the teachers themselves, the restrictions on the private life of the teacher.

We do not care if a man teaches his class nothing so long as he is a pillar of the church and drinks only coffee. He may be the worst influence on the children imaginable by his indolent ways, but if he has a doctor's degree, then he is a good teacher. Bah! Teachers are born, not made. And just any fellow with a line of degrees can't be a teacher.

If we had the most wonderful teacher in the world who could make his material comprehensible to his students, who was likeable, but did not let that interfere with his teaching what he knew he should . . . if . . . and if that person's private life, that had nothing to do with his classroom, were questioned, we would certainly fire him and hire another who couldn't possibly do what the former one could for the youth of America.

I wonder what the future will say of us when they read Bertrand Russell's biography. The teacher is not entirely to blame for this attitude, we know, for the good citizens of the community will also balk. (as in the picture show, "Remember the Day"). But the teachers, by sticking together can do much to slow up instead of augment the issue.

If you can't teach, get out of the teaching profession. If you can, stay in. Don't commit a real sin by taking money for something you can't do, or by refusing to do your duty by the world.

WORK AT YOUR JOB. THE WORLD NEEDS GOOD TEACHERS

Mental Relief

If we at Eastern allow our so-called "extra-curricular" activities dwindle to almost nothing during the war, we will be making a sad mistake. By all means we should profit from what England had to learn, that her people must be given wholesome recreation and relief from the strain of the war in order to carry on successfully.

The tension that war creates can be greatly alleviated by hearing and making good music, both jazz and classical; by seeing or acting in a good play; by putting all you have into a tennis or football game; by painting or observing good work; by many other things along the "extra-curricular" line. Eastern must redouble her effort to give her students and faculty the best in entertainment to partly relieve their anguish and partly show them just what we are fighting to preserve.

England learned that her people needed relief. Her greatest artists set out to tour the country for charity to give the people laughs and true enjoyable escape. Beatrice Lilly went on with the show just after she received word of her son's probable death in the Indian Ocean.

We are starting right as a nation; let us do it right here at Eastern. Weed out the poor clubs and activities, yes. But don't even think of doing away with the sports, dramatics, music, art, or any of the other salves on the wounds of war.

MOREHEAD STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE CHOSEN AS TRAINING CENTER

The United States government has chosen Morehead State Teachers College as one of the 20 colleges in the United States to train men for the Navy. The facilities of the school will be used to train electricians, and Morehead expects $800,000 or more annually from the Navy Department to cover the cost of instruction, board and dormitory facilities.

Dr. W. H. Vaughn has announced the college will use the equipment for a trade school after the war.

Morehead has granted the Navy the use of the new science building, one of the largest of its kind in the South, the gymnasium-auditorium, the stadium, and the college theater. The college will probably employ 20 new instructors to provide sufficient instructor personnel.

CARTOON

There is a cartoon feature, published in the Atlanta Constitution, entitled, "Southern Oddities." In a recent issue, there appeared a drawing of a tombstone with this epitaph on it:

Ma loved Pa,
Pa loved women,
Ma caught Pa
With one in swimmin'.
Here lies Pa.

ADVICE

Sisterly advice is most encouraging in time of need. From the Trail-Blazer, we find that one co-ed said to a sympathetic group before walking on the stage for the May queen election: "I'm so scared I'm shaking all over." Answers sister co-ed: "Sister, you just keep on shaking and you won't have any trouble in this contest."

GOOD READING: If you really want some good laughs, read "The Seven Lady Godivas," now running hither and thither from the library. It's a knockout.

SHORT STORY: Once upon a time there were three bears—Mamma Bear, Papa Bear and Little Wee Bear. Mamma Bear sat down on a thistle and promptly arose. Papa Bear sauntered up a few moments later and flung himself down to rest on the same thistle. He, too, arose very promptly.

And then along came Little Wee Bear—who sat down on the same thistle. And he sat and SAT. Said Mamma Bear (very much worried) to Papa Bear: "Dear me, do you suppose we have one of those "Dead End Kids"?"

TO REMOVE PIMPLES AND SCARS

Put the stopper in the sink and pour in one-half gallon of sulfuric acid and add three cups of water. While this solution is settling, gently sandpaper the face with grade .03 paper.

Now dip the face in the prepared solution and keep it there until you get a tingling sensation, and then rub the flesh with steel wool. Now to complete the treatment, polish the face with Johnson's Glo-Coat. Notice how the bones shine. This is a permanent treatment.

What Does God Think?

"God's in his heaven; all's right with the world." Bombs crashing! Chinese starving! The German opera house burns!

Germans shouting, "Herr Jesus Gott!" and Englishmen shouting, "God help us!" And the rest of the world's people praying for victory to their gods.

"And the peace of God that passeth all understanding shall keep your minds and hearts in the love of God. . ."

Fourteen shell-shocked victims return to Kentucky from Pearl Harbor.

"I tell you, there's no God. If there were he'd stop this war." Candles burning in the bombed churches. Crooked women walking behind crooked old men to take refuge and find peace before the Holy Mother.

"If our minister doesn't stop preaching those dreadful sermons about the slums! . . . I declare he ought to be busy saving our souls."

Plenty of God's goods on the earth, but no one can get at them. Everyone feels that he ought to have it all—so he doesn't get any.

Politicians and business men who steal your shirt during the week days and wear it to church on Sunday as a vestryman or deacon.

"I keep thinking that if I were in God's place, I'd junk this Christianity and look around for something that had life—that was moving in some . . ."

"Rich and poor alike in the city cathedral humbly praying for remission of their sins and help to conquer evil thru the aid of their God."

Simple rural religion. A deep devotion, like the faith of your grandmother, who could see a good God's hand everywhere.

Housman on the creation of the earth: "I never soiled my hand with such a deed."

These are the rumblings of the world, the things that you and I hear and read everyday. They cannot be ignored; they must be faced and faced squarely. It is up to you and me to find the answer. It cannot be blind faith; it must have logic and reason to it. IT MUST BE STRONG.

THINK. THINK HARD! "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Find your God and keep him safe, for you must face . . . "God's in his heaven; all's right with the world." Her sweetheart is dead; the ROTC men leave June 6; and there's no food to be had in Greece.

A Coke? No Thank You, Just A Milkshake, Please

By AVANELL PRATER

A coke? No, thanks, just a milkshake, please.

Yes, I know I always drank cokes but the last time we were here . . . you knew Ken, didn't you? Of course, that's right everyone knew him and liked him. He was just that way. The last time we were here . . . I know I am being sentimental . . . you can understand for you knew Ken. It was the last time we were together. So long ago now, but only last September, in fact. He looked almost boyish that day with his broad unassuming smile which made everyone like him.

We could detect a camouflaged uneasiness about his manner as he stood there in his uniform. He just couldn't see what all the fuss was about. Thousands were leaving—millions like him all over the world. One more or less made no difference. Except that it did this time because he was not one of the "others." He was Ken. That sultry September afternoon we had not yet awakened. We were wavering on the brink ready for the plunge into the maelstrom of death which was only two months—two short months away. What we heard only faintly then was Niagara . . . Niagara of human sweat, blood, and tears. Pearl Harbor was for the future.

Nothing would happen, of course. Were not the Japanese at that very moment negotiating in Washington for a peaceful solution of this . . . just another flare-up. We were appeasing Nippon again. All would be well. War? Treachery? Nonsense. Then out of a clear Oriental sky—or could we say clear, for the war clouds were hovering ominously over Pearl Harbor at that moment? Or was it Jap planes obscuring that Oriental sun?

Then they struck with treacherous fury. A dastardly attack which shook us out of our smug complacency. Thousands were killed . . . thousands of "others" and Ken. For awhile there was that endless anxiety when we never heard. Nursing refugee thoughts of his escape, we hoped and we waited. Like a thunderbolt suddenly released, it came with dagger-like reality. His name was only with a list of "others."

We were stunned, for we had obstinately clung to a threadbare hope. Now we would only stare into the abyss of despair and blame a sardonic fate. We tried to think of the glorious cause for which his unselfish sacrifice was made.

It helped but a little. Most things sound foolish and hopelessly untaught in the presence of death. I must stop this. I shouldn't be telling you this but I had to tell someone.

A coke? No, thanks, I couldn't now. Just a milkshake, please.

Nearing the End

with BOB RYLE AND ROY GILLIGAN

ARSENIC AND ONE OLD CAFETERIA NAPKIN

The other night we were very surprised, when passing Burnam Hall, to hear dawgs barking very loudly. At first we were rather worried. We thought perhaps Wickersham had contracted a froggy throat from his wanderings over the campus. As we passed, we said, "Some night, watchman." . . . Received a letter the other day from the inimitable McDowell K. Starkey. Mac, formerly of the Progress staff, is now in the U. S. Army Med. Corps at a training school in Denver. He sends his love to all his friends on the campus and would have us kiss several young ladies for him. But you know how Mac is. . . We've tried all week to buy tickets to the Senior Women's Banquet but for some reason they wouldn't sell us any. We're in favor of having a Freshmen's Banquet. Very informal. No socks, T-shirts, frog beer, cigars, and cookies au gratin. . . People are getting married or engaged all over the place. We'll just take care of the whole thing by saying, "Congratulations, en masse."

PASS THE OPIUM PIPE, PAPPY:

We studied all our chromosomes
And all our little genes.
Though we may try,
They just don't lie,
We're just a paraffines.

OUR WEAK WEEK:

Just to show you that we are really two very literary characters, we shall quote this issue from Miz Roosevelt's epic, "My Day." We think this is something. We've known some very nice bags and they've certainly had a grip on us. We quote: "I walked into the White House from the hairdressers a few minutes ago and noticed a group of bags in the Lincoln Room. My curiosity got the best of me and I looked further. Lo and behold, there was our son Elliott and a civilian friend, who had come with him from Africa."

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Since things are getting military around here, we picked up a little story which we intend as a bit of advice on military etiquette to our future 2nd Looeys. It seems that the colonel and his lady desired the presence of one Captain Greene to supper. They sent him an invitation which read like this: "Colonel and Mrs. Brown request the pleasure of Captain Green's company to dinner on Friday night." The reply, arriving the next day, said: "With the exception of five men on leave and three in the hospital, Captain Green's Company will gratefully accept your invitation."

NO HO CAUSES B.O.

OR SHOOT THE ENERGINE TO ME, TANGERINE

A boy at Eastern named Bertie
Said, "They'll never find me dirty."
But he went out last night
With "odeur non delight."
The water went off at eight-thirty.

JIVE NOTES:

A. Shaw, the master clarinetist as far as we are concerned, bows out of the musical spotlight for the duration with a number strictly on the solid side, called "Carnival." It's a Victorific record. . . One sweet tune which is destined to click and stay on top for a long while is "Sleepy Lagoon." Harry James' version is the best we've heard to date. . . "Heavenly Hideaway," and we ain't just harpin', is a sweet, sweet melody which is handled on wax very nicely by the King Sisters, who have one of the mellowest vocal combinations running. . . Kay Kyser, during his stay at Meadowbrook, introduced a novelty entitled "Jingle, Jangle, Jingle." This is pure, unadulterated corn but arranged in a pleasing manner and has a catchy tune that is easy to remember. Keep on the lookout for it. . . As a theme song for the sugar-rationing program, we suggest "Hand Me Down My Walking Cane."

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the Glee Clubs for the splendid entertainment last week. Highly satirical, the operetta proved to be the most amusing program of the year. Leading members of the cast were Ann Etta Simmons, Roy Gilligan, Paul Brandes, Bud Petty, and Lewis Kilgus, who were all well worth praising.

APOLLO

Apollo had held out his hand to me—and jerked it back. Mountains in my mind crumbled, cities fell into ruin. . . I stepped off into space, I tried to run up the sky, I crashed to the earth; I jumped up and ran around in circles, waving my arms wildly; I bumped into people; I sprawled in ridiculous positions; my face went into the dirt; my girldle fell off—I was grotesque! (Pick up that girldle and hand it to the lady, Apollo.)

THE ENGLISH SPIRIT

Out of the night that covers me
Black as a pit from spout to spout,
I ask whatever Gods may be . . .
Another blackout?

In the fell clutch of air-raid warnings
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Up 'til the sun calls early morning,
My head is sleepy, but unbowed.

It matters not how big the plane,
How soon it starts or ceases,
For if a bomb fell down on me
. . . I would NOT go to pieces.

MORONS

Did you hear about the little moron who shot his mother and father so he could go to the orphans' picnic? I thought you had.

DRAWING NIGH

The time is drawing near for parting to be such sweet sorrow or whatever it's gonna be. Another year—with lots of wisdom that may not be counted in grade-points but it took plenty of college hours to get it. Oh, well, all things, good or bad, must come to an end, so why shouldn't this. . .

Eastern Nine Will Try for Third Victory Against Tennessee Team

Will Meet Polytechnics At 2:00 Tomorrow

Tomorrow at 2 p. m. the Eastern Maroon nine will attempt to gain their third victory of the season when they play the Tennessee Polytechnic Institute team on the local diamond.

Having been rained out twice, negotiations were finally completed again and Coach Hughes and the team journeyed to Cincinnati for a game with the University of Cincinnati. Playing under cloudy skies, the boys were defeated 4-1. Gene Rall started the game but retired in the second inning with a sore arm and Bill Wayman took over and was relieved later by Francis Haas. All three pitchers allowed Cincinnati 8 hits and Eastern hit safely 6 times.

NEW PLAN

Under a new plan being established by the Army, certain selected men who can complete their college course in the prescribed time, may be enlisted in the Enlisted Reserve, Army of the United States, or in the Enlisted Reserve, Army Air Corps and thereby have an opportunity to receive deferment from regular military service until they have graduated from college. This implies that those men selected must finish their college course be continuous. If, for any reason, they failed to return to college, they would immediately be inducted into the army. This plan is designed to allow these men to complete the work for their degree before entering the Army for their military services.

YOUR COLLEGE CAN NOW HELP YOU BECOME A NAVAL OFFICER

Freshmen, Sophomores, 17 THRU 19. Enlist now!
Stay in college! You may qualify for a Naval Commission on the sea or in the air.

Freshmen, Sophomores. Here's a challenge—and an opportunity! Your Navy needs trained men. Trained men to become Naval Officers! And your college is ready to give you that training now.

Here's New Navy Plan

If you're 17 and not yet 20, you enlist now as an Apprentice Seaman in the Naval Reserve. You then continue in college, including in your studies courses stressing physical training, mathematics and physics. After you successfully complete 1½ calendar years of college work, you will be given a classification test.

Aviation Officers

If you qualify by this test, you may volunteer to become a Naval Aviation Officer. In this case, you will be permitted to finish the second calendar year of college work before you start your training to become a Flying Officer.

However, at any time during this two-year period after you have reached your 18th birthday, you may, if you so desire, take the prescribed examination for Aviation Officer . . . and, if successful, be assigned for Aviation training. Students who fail in their college courses, or who withdraw from college, will also have the privilege of taking the Aviation examination.

Deck or Engineering Officers

If you qualify in the classification test and do not volunteer for

Aviation, you will be selected for training as a Deck or Engineering Officer. In that case, you will continue your college program until you receive your bachelor's degree, provided you maintain the established university standards.

Other Opportunities

If you do not qualify as either potential Aviation Officer or as potential Deck or Engineering Officer you will be permitted to finish your second calendar year of college and will then be ordered to active duty as Apprentice Seaman. But, even in this event, because of your college training, you will have a better chance for advancement.

Pay starts with active duty. It's a real challenge! It's a real opportunity! Make every minute count by doing something about this new Navy plan today.

We Need Every College Man In Officers' Training

★ To Man the Mightiest Air Army in the World ★

Make Your Choice This Week For Present or Future Officers' Training

IF your blood boils at the very thought of an enslaved world... If Jap treachery and Nazi savagery make you see red and itch for a gun—calm yourself with the promise that we shall pay them back with compound interest!

We shall—and you as a college man now have the opportunity of serving as a Flying Officer—a Bombardier, Navigator or Pilot—with that branch of service which will do that paying back in person—the U. S. Army Air Forces!

Under the new Army Air Force Reserve Plan—if you are a Senior or wish to leave school—apply now for your Aviation Cadet training.

You and your friends can share together the work and fun of flight training, and after approximately 8 months—earn the right to be flying officers in the U. S. Army Air Forces!

On the other hand, if you are a Freshman, Sophomore or Junior—you can, if you like, continue your studies under the Deferred Service Plan of the Army Air Forces—and become better prepared for Officers' Training later.

New Simplified Requirements

To qualify you must be 18 to 26 (inclusive), physically fit—and pass a new, simplified mental test which college men find easy.

When you are ready—and facilities are ready—you begin as an

THREE ENLISTMENT PLANS FOR COLLEGE MEN

Juniors—Sophomores—Freshmen May Continue Their Education

1. A new plan allows Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen, aged 18 to 26, inclusive, to enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and continue their schooling, provided they maintain satisfactory scholastic standing.

All College Men May Enlist for Immediate Service

2. All college students may enlist as privates in the Army Air Forces (unassigned) and serve there until their turns come for Aviation Cadet training.

3. All college students may enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and wait until ordered to report for Aviation Cadet training.

Upon graduation or withdrawal from college, men will be assigned to active duty at a training center as facilities become available.

If the necessity of war demands, the deferred status in the Army Reserve may be terminated at any time by the Secretary of War.

The new Army Air Force Enlisted Reserve Plan is part of an over-all Army Enlisted Reserve Corps program shortly to be announced. This program will provide opportunities for college men to enlist in other branches of the Army on a deferred basis and to continue their education through graduation if a satisfactory standard of work is maintained. In case of necessity the Secretary of War shall determine when they may be called to active duty.

It is understood that men so enlisted will have the opportunity of competing for vacancies in officer's candidate schools.

This plan has been approved in the belief that continuance of education will develop capacities for leadership. (Reserve enlistment will not alter regulations regarding established R. O. T. C. plans.)

Aviation Cadet at $75 a month, with expenses paid.

If you have majored in science or engineering you can try for a commission in the ground crew—in Armament, Communications, Engineering, Meteorology, Photography.

As a Second Lieutenant on active duty, your pay ranges from $183 to $245 a month.

80% Have Won Commissions

Due to thorough training—about four out of every five Aviation Cadets this past year received Second Lieutenants' commissions—of which 67% are now flying officers.

The tremendous expansion of the Air Forces should assure rapid advancement in all branches. And after the war—you'll be ready for the ever-growing opportunities in aviation.

Settle Your Service Now

The years ahead are war years—and every college man should make his plans accordingly.

To make America supreme in the air we need every college man who can qualify for active or deferred service.

So take advantage now of this option. You may never again have such opportunities.

See your Faculty Air Force Advisor for information and help with details. Join the thousands of America's college men who are enlisting this week!

NOTE: If you are under 21, you will need your parents' or guardian's consent. Birth certificates and three letters of recommendation will be required of all applicants. Obtain the forms and send them home today.
