Eastern Students Injured In Glasgow Car Collision

By BERRY WIREMAN
Five Eastern students were injured in an accident last Saturday afternoon while traveling to the Eastern-Middle Tennessee basketball game. The accident happened on U.S. 31-E, six miles south of Glasgow, Kentucky.
In all, there were 12 students in two cars on their way to the game. The students involved were: Guy Bill Reed, a sophomore from Waco, Linda Wood, a junior from Austin, Lynn Napier, a junior from Frankfort, Paul (P. D.) Christian, a junior from Harlan, Dolan Motley, a junior from Richmond, Ann Stanley Johnson, a senior from Frankfort, Mike Gardner, a sophomore from Mayville, Tom Norman, a junior from Belfry, Dan Blackburn, a junior from Russell, Paul Fuller, a junior from Covington.

Gary Harris, a junior from Newport, and Charles Klonne, a graduate student from Park Hills. Guy Bill Reed was driving the lead car when he saw a car sliding on his side of the road, traveling at a high rate of speed. Reed swerved to the right to miss the oncoming car and struck the end of a concrete bridge. Mike Gardner, driving the second car, was also forced off the road by the same oncoming car and struck the lead car in the rear.
The injured were Paul (P. D.) Christian, face laceration and acute back strain; Michael Gardner, lacerated mouth and abrasion on right knee; Tom Norman, scalp laceration; Dolan Motley, contusions on back and knees, and Gary Harris, fractured leg and leg laceration. The five injured were taken to the Glasgow Community Hospital.

Dan Blackburn, a rider in the second car said, "I saw a light colored '59 Dodge sliding toward us off the bridge. Guy then hit the bridge and the next thing I knew I was on the ground." Paul Fuller added, "I was just about to light my cigarette when the crash came, and I still haven't found the damn thing."
Total damage was listed as being over $5,600 to both cars.

Debaters Schedule More Tournaments

By BEN CARTINHOOR
The Eastern Debate Team has scheduled several upcoming tournaments in the next few months. On March 7, they will participate in the cross-examination meet at Berea.

The cross-examination style of debating is something new to Eastern's team. Each member of both the affirmative and negative team delivers an 8 minute constructive speech. After the constructive speech, they are subject to cross-examination from the other team. When both teams are finished with their constructive speeches and the cross-examination, they are given a minutes summarizing.

"One of the best features of the cross-examination style of debating," says Mrs. Almee Alexander, debate coach, "is that each member of the debating team must be able to debate both affirmatively and negatively and know their subjects extremely well."

The other debate tournaments coming up this semester will be the Original Oratorical meet, March 9 and 10 at Miami of Ohio, and the District Oratorical Contest at Morehead, March 30 and 31.

The features of the Morehead meet will be: interpretive reading, public discussion, after-dinner speaking, and original oratory. Making the trip with the debate team will be the other people that are engaged in speech activities on campus.

Debating affirmatively for the Eastern team are: John Rogers, Tom Roberts, Edwin Able, and Jim Stivers. The negative team is composed of Bill Cain, Jay Roberts, Gerald Kemper, and Carl Cunnagin.

Mrs. Alexander, commenting on the values of debating, said, "Debating is probably one of the best methods of preparing a person

James King Is Appointed To State Post

JAMES O. KING

James O. King, director of auxiliary enterprises at Eastern since 1960, has been appointed executive assistant to the Commissioner of Parks. The announcement was made this week by President Martin following the appointment by Edward Fox, Commissioner of Parks.

King, who formerly had served with the Department of Parks, will assume his duties in Frankfort on June 1, Fox said.
The 31-year old King, President Martin said, "is one of the most qualified and capable administrators in the state, and he certainly has done a tremendous job for our college."

He has served as budget analyst with the Department of Finance, assistant to the Director of the Budget, and Director of Administrative Services with the Department of Parks. He came to Eastern in September, 1960.

A native of Elba, Alabama, he holds both the B.S. and the M.A. degrees from the University of Alabama, and a certificate from the Southern Regional Training Program in public administration.
King is married to the former Beatrice Ellis, of Vanceville, Mississippi. They have three children, James Edward, 7, Jane, 4, and Carol two.

Regional Drama Festival Next Week

Fifteen Central Kentucky high schools will compete Thursday and Friday at the annual Regional High School Drama Festival here.

The festival, involving over 100 students and their directors, will be held in Hiram Brock Auditorium, in the Coates Administration Building. Competition will begin each day at 8:15 a.m. and the final presentation of the day begins at 3:15 p.m. Sessions are set to coincide with class periods.

General Manager of the festival is D. J. Carty, director of in-service education at Eastern. Judge will be Russell T. Miller, of Western Kentucky State College.

Each high school team will present a 30-minute drama. Those receiving superior ratings will advance to the State Festival, to be held March 12-14 at the University of Kentucky.

High schools listed in Division A are: Clark County; Henry Clay; Danville; Bryan Station; Franklin County; Madison Central; and Lafayette.

Division B and C schools are: Bourbon County; Versailles, Scott County; Georgetown, Paris, Midway-Pinkerton of Midway, Cynthia, and Model High of Richmond.

Sandra Wilson Crowned Eastern's Basketball Queen

Dorm Contract Is Awarded To Lexington Firm

The construction contract for Eastern's McGregor Hall, 425 bed women's dormitory, has been awarded by the state to Hargett Construction Co., Lexington, Finance Commissioner Robert Matthews, Jr., announced Tuesday.
Matthews said the new dormitory will serve both present needs and future needs as enrollment expands.
Hargett was low bidder at $1,735,899 for the six-story structure, named McGregor Hall in honor of Judge Thomas McGregor, Frankfort, a member of the Eastern Board of Regents. He is a former Kentucky attorney general and former circuit judge of the 14th Judicial District, made up of Franklin, Woodford, Scott and Bourbon counties.

Six-Floor Building
Dormitory rooms will be on six floors including the basement and ground-level floors. Recreation, storage, laundry and drying space is distributed among the floors.
The exterior will be faced with brick. Two elevators will serve the building.
Construction is expected to start in two weeks, Matthews said. The dormitory is being built through a Federal loan from the Housing and Home Finance Agency. Funds received from rental of the rooms will be used to retire the indebtedness.

Canterbury Club Wants Poems, Plays And Stories

The deadline for all poetry, short stories, plays or other works for the 1961-62 Belle Lettre has been set for March 15 by the Canterbury Club, the sponsoring organization. All students regardless of major or standing are welcome to submit works for this year's publication.

The club has also announced that the prize money for the best poetry and the best prose has been increased from $5 to $10 this year. After the judges have completed their work on the book, the outstanding contributor is honored on either Women's or Men's Honors Day in the spring.

Two new awards have been set up for presentation this year. The Roy C. Clark Poetry Award will be given to the student who submits the best poem to the publication, and the Presley M. Grise Prose Award will be presented to the student writing the best short story, play, or other prose work.
Last year's winners were Barbara Parsons Walters, who received the top award for her short story, "Duty," and Charles Semonis, who received the top award for his poem, "Infusion."

Belle Lettre is published each year by the Canterbury Club, an honorary organization for English majors and minors at Eastern. Students in charge of this year's publication are Suzanne Hale, Carol Veach, and the president, Phyllis Fisher. All activities of the organization are directed by Dr. Byno Rhodes and Dr. Phillip Mankin.

Annual Military Ball To Be Held April 25

By JIM FARRIS
The Lieutenant John N. Combs Memorial Chapter of AUSA has announced Wednesday night April 25 as the date for this year's Military Ball. The local AUSA Chapter is the sponsor of the annual affair.
The dance will be held in the Student Union Building from 8:12 p.m. according to college regulations. Due to the increased ROTC enrollment both Walnut Hall and the Cafeteria will be used this year.

This formal dance will be open to the general public. A limited number of tickets will go on sale in a few weeks. Those interested in tickets may obtain them from any junior or senior cadet. The price will be five dollars per couple.
Jeff Juett, band committee chairman, has signed a contract with the Jimmy Dorsey Band from Chicago. George Dopp, general planning committee, has reported a professional decorating company from Lexington will be hired to help in the decorating of the Student Union Building. Harvey Turner, program committee chairman, announced the Military Ball Queen will be announced at the dance.
Those young ladies who the club voted on were as follows: Margaret Ball, Carol Brown, Nancy Hill, Glenda Holbrook, Judy Kendle, Linda Lewis, Melva Linville, Connel Robb, Jeannie Sanders, and Linda Wood. Miss Evelyn Craft, Brigade Sponsor, was queen last year and withdrew from this year's competition.

All junior and senior cadets have been assigned to one of these various committees.

SWEETHEART DANCE
Remember the annual Sweetheart Dance tonight. Some boy will be crowned King of the Sweetheart Dance. The affair will last from 8 to 12. Everyone is invited.

Faculty Round Table To Discuss Religion And Mental Balance

"The Role of Religion in the Quest for Mental Balance" is the theme of the next Eastern Faculty Round Table. The program will be presented in the form of a panel discussion in the Little Theatre, on Wednesday evening, February 14, at 7 o'clock.

The moderator of the panel will be Dr. William H. Poore, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Richmond. The other members of the panel will be Dr. Ralph Wilburn, Dean of the School of the Bible, at Lexington; and Dr. George Noe, a member of the Department of Philosophy and Religion, at Berea College.
Following the response by Dr. W. Gordon Ross, Head of the Department of Philosophy and Religion at Berea College, there will be an open discussion. A coffee hour will be held in Walnut Hall at the conclusion of the program; all Eastern students are invited to attend the discussion and the coffee hour.

Last Meeting
The meeting will be the last of the Faculty Round Table's current series of discussions on the general theme, "Human Quest for Mental Balance," or "New Minds for the New World." The following subjects will be explored:

'E' Club Is Sponsor

Sandra Wilson, a freshman home economics major from Lexington, was crowned as the 1962 Basketball Queen Wednesday night at the half-time ceremonies of the Eastern-Tennessee Tech basketball game. She is the first girl to reign as a basketball queen here in recent years.
Miss Wilson was crowned by President Martin and awarded a trophy by Gene Blackweider, president of the "E" Club, the sponsoring organization.
The election was decided by the total amount of money collected in the various containers which were located around campus and around town.
Miss Wilson's attendants were made up of the remaining candidates. The attendants all represented some organization on campus.

Representatives and Escorts
Carolyn Brock, a junior elementary education major from Frankfort represented the junior class. Her escort for the evening was Jamie Keller. Janet Wilson, a junior from Irvine and a commerce major, represented Sigma Tau Pi. She was escorted by Philip Morgan. Barbara Bunch, a junior music major from Loyall, represented KAMA, Eastern's pop club. Her escort for the evening was Wayne Conley. Sue Marcum, a senior physical education major from La Grange, represented the Physical Education Majors and Minors Club. Her escort was Ray Hager. The last candidate was Myrna Young, a junior physical education major from Cincinnati, Ohio. Myrna's escort was Dale Kinman. She represented Women's Recreation Association. The queen was escorted by Jerry Simpson.

Music for the coronation was provided by the Eastern band. The entire project was sponsored by the "E" Club.

Student Book Exchange Handles Over 1500 Books

The Student Book Exchange sponsored by the Student Council reports very good results. The Council handled over fifteen hundred listings of books of which one thousand were given out to the students. The remainder of the listings were in their possession, but were not used by those interested in buying a book for this semester.

The Student Council reports that they are satisfied with the results as this being the first time this type of exchange has been offered to the students. They plan to continue with this program for the following semester.
If any student has any suggestions or complaints to offer concerning the book exchange, the Student Council would be glad to learn of them.

INTERVIEW
Interviewers from the General Telephone Company of Kentucky will be on campus in Room 305 of the S.U.B. on Thursday, February 15, 1962. If interested, sign up for an interview in Room 1, Ad. Building or contact R. W. Nelson, Director of Personnel, General Telephone Company of Kentucky, 3081 Harrodsburg Road, Lexington, Kentucky.

We Want Blood!

Students are urged to participate in next week's visit of the bloodmobile. The bloodmobile will be set up in the Little Gym from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. next Wednesday.

The Jr. Women's Club of Richmond will give $25 to the dormitory with the largest percentage of donors. Sponsored this year by the Student Council, council members have been making trips to the individual dorms distributing parental approval slips for students under 18 years of age. The Red Cross is furnishing the slips which the Student Council members are distributing.

Each student will give one pint of blood. Before his donation, he will be examined by assisting doctors and nurses to be sure that he is in good physical condition. The procedure will take approximately thirty minutes. Donuts, coffee, and fruit juice will be given to each student after his donation.

A Ray Of Hope

GARDNER FOR THE LAYUP—Ray Gardner, senior Maroon forward, is shown going up for a wide-open layup in Eastern's 84-72 win over Tennessee Tech Thursday night. Tech's Tom McKinney is attempting to get his defense up while Eastern's Russ Mueller, 15, and Larry Parks, 21, stand poised for a possible rebound.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

There Is Originality

The Student Council began this year with the usual high hopes and oratory. The usual problems of student support faced the newly elected officers and members. Almost immediately plans were made for the betterment of the college community and the promotion of school spirit and support.

Among the completed projects of the Council can be found two which have their origins in this academic year. The Voice of Eastern, a project assigned to Council member George Wilcox, was begun in hopes of enlightening and appealing to the students and professors of Eastern. The program, over the local Richmond radio station, found that its purpose was two-fold in that it was to serve as an outlet to the local community also. From this two-fold responsibility problems emerged which are supposedly in process of being alleviated.

Another originality which was introduced this semester was the Student Book Exchange which found its purpose in the fact that there was apparent discontent among the student body concerning the cost and procedure of buying and selling texts at the end and beginning of each semester. Termed a success by the Council, the Exchange seems to hold high possibilities in the future since this was only a trial run.

Excluding for the time being the many other projects which have been undertaken, the student will notice the progressive approach involved in the completed items. The only problems now lie in smoothing over the rough spots of each project. This is sometimes easier said than done... the Voice of Eastern is now in its fourth month of broadcasting. Its beginning pace has quickened and now begun to assume a purpose of valid reporting not only to the college folk. The biggest problem at first seemed to be the recognition of the fact that the program was not a closed network affair but open to public hearing.

All in all the Council has been striving for a type of perfection, but they have not seemingly readily accepted suggestions on existing issues. It could be that no suggestions have been found practicable. That is a good possibility.

The fact is that there has been definite originality in this year's Student Council. The part which this quality holds in the completed picture of the Council's success is yet to come with an examination of other areas of endeavor of the group including its impromptu dance the Thursday before Homecoming and its successful efforts in supporting a week's spring vacation. The Student Council story has just begun. (This is the first in a series of articles on the Student Council which will be continued weekly until completion.)

Which Will It Be?

Sometimes we at Eastern have the opportunity to see first hand the higher forms of culture in western civilization. Such an opportunity was afforded the student body on January 31 when the San Francisco Operatic Quartet performed on campus.

But what happened? Only a small portion of the student body took advantage of this opportunity. Can it be that juke box in a pantry can attract more students than one of the most outstanding group attractions on the concert stage in America today? Can it be that we are becoming immune to music which doesn't allow us to act as if a hill of fire ants were dropped down our backs?

Granted rock 'n roll has a place in our society. After all, what good would it do to deny it such? But the sad thing is that it has become a monopoly, and a monopoly has no place in a society such as ours.

This concert, as well as most of the programs presented by the Community Concert Association, was well presented. These four fabulous voices presented quite a contrast from the screaming antics of some of the "get rich quick" artists. In their program, one could find great variety, and a pace which did not give rise to boredom. The four encores tell the story of the performers' success with their sparse but appreciative audience.

It is no secret that many hindrances arise, especially, in the week of registration when this particular concert was scheduled. However, when a community and a school go to such expense to present such excellent entertainment for its citizens and students, the opportunity afforded therein should not be taken lightly.

R. W.

At Last!

After a near tragedy last week, it was a surprise to find men armed with shovels blocking the walks by doing something for the safety of the college community. The question is: why wasn't this situation taken care of during recent weather which made the campus walks extremely hazardous?

Since the situation has now come to the attention of the maintenance crew, as was demonstrated yesterday, maybe the issue should be buried and forgotten. Maybe we should say a silent prayer that no one else besides Dr. Janet Murbach fell on the temporarily neglected walks. It would be far better if no one had fallen prey to the conditions, however, if the campus had been partially cleared the day before or early that Wednesday morning of the French teacher's fall.

Sprinkling salt the second or third day after a snow, if the sun has not cleared the walks before that time, has obviously shown itself as inadequate as far as the safety of students and professors is concerned... thank heaven that the situation is now being cared for and its dangers are fully recognized by the right people. We appreciate it.

M. B.

Readers Write

Dear Editor,
With all the modern conveniences we have here on campus such as clocks, chimes, and the hourly whistle, the classes still can't seem to start or end on time.
I realize whatever subject the professor is teaching is an important subject or he or she wouldn't be teaching it; but is it so important that the class must start before the whistle and end after the whistle?

Because a student leaves one class late causes this student to be late for the next class at which time the professor does a few cartwheels across the classroom about people being tardy.

It looks as though the only solution for this problem is for the student to become jet-propelled or buy a pair of roller skates.

Oh well, so is life.
Sincerely,
"The Old Senior"

Summer Jobs Available Now

A directory which lists summer jobs for college students throughout the United States is now available.

The Summer Employment Directory gives the names and addresses of 1,267 organizations which want to employ college students. It also gives the positions open, salary, and suggestions on how to make application—a simple letter of application and a personal data sheet.

There are all types of summer camp jobs listed in every state; there are jobs at resorts in the New England States, the North-eastern States, the Great Lakes area, and the Western States. College students are needed in: 20 national parks and national monuments, 34 ranches in the West and New York State, summer theatres in 15 states, business and industry at scattered locations, and various departments of the government. In addition to these popular summer employers, many other organizations list their needs for summer help.

Students wishing summer work make application to the employers listed in the directory. Employers are included at their own request, and they invite applications from college students.

The Summer Employment Directory is available at most colleges, in the student employment office, the library, or the Dean's.

Students who wish to have a Summer Employment Directory for their own use may obtain a copy by sending $3.00 to the publisher: National Directory Service, Dept. C, Box 32065, Cincinnati 32, Ohio.

O.V.C. IS NOT SHOOTING, HIGH SCORING, AND UNPREDICABLE

When the latest O.V.C. statistics were released Monday by Dave Whitaker, conference information director, there were several interesting things that stood out in them. They were the scoring, shooting and unpredictability that earmark the conference every year, and Eastern compared favorably.

Five of the seven teams in the loop are hitting the bucket with over a 40.0 per cent mark. Western leads the pack with a blistering 43.4 per cent and is followed by Murray, Morehead, Tennessee Tech, East Tennessee, and Eastern, in that order. Our Maroons are slightly off the pace set by the leaders with a 40.1 mark.

In the free throw department Eastern is faring a little better ranked second behind Western. Western is sinking foul shots at a 73.4 per cent clip—their accuracy at the line was witnessed here when they sank 40 of 50 attempts to overcome Eastern's 18 point edge in the field goal department. Eastern is connecting with a 70.1 percentage, which has been climbing with each game.

From the individual standpoint two Kentuckians and one Tennessean are monopolizing the spotlight. Granny Williams of Morehead, Jim Jennings and Eddie Mason of Tennessee Tech lead in the top four departments.

Williams leads in points per game with a 27.1 average and in the foul shot accuracy department with 88.3 per cent. Williams' per cent leads the group having scored over 45 foul shots, but in the 20-44 range he is passed by our Ray Gardner with a 89.2 per cent. In the same class with Gardner, Jim Werk is second with 83.6. It is conceivable that if Eastern had played as many games as Morehead, (14), Gardner would be in the lead.

In the points per game Williams is followed by Western's Bobby Rascoe, Jennings, East Tennessee's Willie Malone, and Tom McKinney of Tech. It is at this point in the standings that Eastern makes a showing outweighing the leaders. The next three are Jim Werk, Ronnie Pickett, and Larry Parks in the number six, seven and eight slots. Then if you drop down a little you find Gardner also hitting in double figures.

Jennings is the leader in rebounding and points scored. He is averaging 17.9 rebounds per contest and has scored 421 points in Murray's 19 games. Two of those are well remembered here, those that came on the last-second, turn-around jump shot the lanky sophomore beat us with.

The lone Tennessee leader, Mason, is pacing the field goal percentage race. He was averaging 51.9 per cent going into Wednesday night's game.

The unpredictability of the loop is attested by comparing a few records. To begin with Morehead beats Tennessee Tech in Cookeville. Western then journeys to Morehead and beats the Eagles and then comes to Eastern to top us. Eastern beats Morehead, and then the surprise icing on the cake came when Tech beat Western to keep both Eastern and Morehead alive in the race.

STUDENTS SHOULD REALLY GET BEHIND BAECHTOLD
The man that stepped into the shoes of Paul McBrayer has his work cut out for him and the student body can help make it much easier if it continues to show him the same welcome that it did the night of the Morehead win.

Jim Baechtold must lead the Maroons to a clean sweep of all remaining games to make them a contender for the Ohio Valley Conference laurels. Road hurdis at Murray tomorrow night, Western, Tennessee Tech, and Morehead would present a challenge to the most experienced head coach.

Baechtold, young and highly qualified, would not be envied for the task by any coach in the conference, but with continued support by the fans could very well pull it off.

Player Of The Week

RON PICKETT

Ron Pickett, 6-7, Maroon center, was named Player of the Week in the time period covering the Morehead and Middle Tennessee wins. Coach Jim Baechtold cited him Tuesday as turning in one of his better games of the season against Morehead, as he played a big part in the conference win.

He led all scorers with his 24 points and was second in rebounding with 11. He connected on six of 17 shots from the field and same through in the clinch to sink 12 of 14 crucial foul shots.

In the Middle Tennessee encounter he made 13 precious points, second to Larry Parks, and dominated the defensive board.

Pickett was termed one of the most promising center prospects here in recent years at the start of the season, and with his recent improvement the junior pivotman is beginning to fulfill the prediction.

EASTERN SWIMMERS LOSE TO UNION 49-46

Union's swimmers rolled to their third win in four tries by downing Eastern, 49-46, at Barbourville Tuesday. The Bulldogs copped seven first place to four for Eastern. Bucky Colclough of Union and John Vetter of Eastern shared high-point honors with 11 1/2 each.

Maroons Win Fourth OVC Game

Tennessee Tech Beaten 84-72

By DOUG WHITLOCK

Eastern's hot-shooting Maroons fired over two different zone defenses and evaded a third Thursday to defeat the visiting Tennessee Tech Golden Eagles 84-72 in an extremely important Ohio Valley Conference game.

Tech used a 1-3-1 zone defense at the start and the hot outside shooting of the Maroons forced them to convert it to a 2-1-2 along with a 3-2 zone press as the Maroons were bringing the ball up court. Eastern burned the nets from far out and drove for the easy layups to shatter this and at the end the Eagles were using a man-to-man. Coach Jim Baechtold said that the Eastern quintet responded excellently to the changes in the Tech defense.

The win makes Eastern 8-3 overall, and 4-2 in the O. V. C. It also marks the third straight game the Maroons have annexed since Baechtold took over the head coaching post.

Hot From Foul Line
Even play and scoring marked the remainder of the first half with Tech picking up points on Eastern from the foul line as the visitors were cold from the field. They hit only 36.8 per cent from the field, but were hot from the line as they sank 15 of 16 for a 93.8 mark.

Eastern's averages improved on both of Tech's as the Maroons hit 43.2 per cent from the floor and 10 of 10 for a perfect showing at the foul line. The Maroons led 48-43 at the half.

Tech came out in the tough 2-1-2 defense in the second half and gave Eastern trouble for the first few minutes of the canto. With Tom Cardwell and Don Gorin scoring, they cut the lead to three at 50-47 and then to two at 55-53 on a five footer by Cardwell with six minutes off the clock.

Eastern then solved the zone and started taking only wide open shots and layups as they fired the ball quickly around the court trying to make openings. They scored eight straight points to go back ahead by 10 at 63-53 and from that point on Tech never threatened seriously.

PARKS TIPS—Larry Parks, Eastern's jumping-jack guard, goes high above the rim for the basket in the Maroons' important 93-85 win over the Morehead Eagles, Number 11 on the floor is Granny Williams of Morehead, while 6-2 Parks out-jumps 6-4 Bob Hoover, 25, by nearly a foot.

Maroons Go To Murray After Win For Revenge

Eastern's revenge bent Maroons will venture to Murray today for another shot at the Murray Racers, the team that broke our 38 game home court winning streak, as they face the Thoroughbreds tomorrow night in a contest beginning at 9 p.m. Richmond time.

Murray was a surprise victor over the Maroons here last month as Jim Jennings sank a last second shot to give the Racers an 82-80 win. That marked the first loss for the Maroons in the Health Building since January of 1958 when Western did the trick.

It will take a definite improvement over the showing at Middle Tennessee for the Maroons to come home with the important win under their belts, but with the spirit displayed in determination to do good for coach Baechtold they will do their best to avenge the heart-breaking loss here.

Murray is paced in scoring by Jennings and Ron Greene. Jennings is averaging 22.1 points per outing and Greene, 14.8. Jennings is also the leading rebounder in the conference.

Eastern's success may depend on whether or not a few minor injuries have healed completely. Jim Werk has been suffering from a sore back, but has shown considerable improvement this week and it is hoped he will be in top shape for the big game. Ray Gardner suffered a severe sprain late in the Middle Tennessee game, but it was not as bad as first thought and he should be in good shape.

The win could go a long way in helping the Maroons this season as it is the first of the four big hurdis Eastern must get over to be a title threat. A clean sweep of Murray, Tech, Western, and Morehead, would insure a second place finish and perhaps a share of the title, as was the case last year.

The starting lineup for the Maroons is expected to be the same as all year, Ray Gardner and Jim Werk at the forward spots, Larry Parks and Rupert Stephens at the guards and Ronnie Pickett at the pivot.

Russell Mueller, the number six man on the team, and Carter Brandenburg and Kay Morris, both who made stellar performances at Middle Tennessee, should be called upon to see considerable action.
