Student Council's New Constitution Approved Tuesday

The Student Council Constitutional Revision Committee, headed by Rick Tatum, submitted revisions to the Student Council which were approved at Tuesday's Council meeting.

The Committee has been working diligently since they were first organized on correcting the weaknesses in the old constitution.

Changes made in the constitution include the qualifications of the officers, which was changed to read that officers must have a 2-point academic standing and not be on social probation. Classifications of the officers were changed to state that the president and vice-president must have second semester sophomore standing, and secretary and treasurer must have second-semester freshman standing at the times they take office.

The powers of the president, previously unmentioned, are stated in the new constitution as:

a. The president shall have the power to appoint Committee members after the Council has approved the committee.

b. The president shall serve as ex-officio chairman of all committees.

c. The president shall have the right to designate a legislative leader who shall be a member of the council and whose duties it will be to introduce motions for the chair.

d. The president of the Student Council shall have no power of veto over the Council.

e. Financial administrative direction of Council work is delegated to the treasurer and the finance committee at the direction of the president.

f. Administrative work of the various committees is delegated to the committee as directed by the president.

The sections concerning membership and term of office were also revised in the new constitution.

Student Council Petitions

Petitions for Student Council officers elected must be filed next Friday at 5 p.m. in the Student Council office in the Student Union Building.

The petition forms are available in the Student Council office.

Any under graduate student who has a 2 point academic standing and is not on social probation may enter the election and hold office.

The candidates for president and vice-presidents must be at least second semester sophomores, and the candidates for secretary and treasurer must be at least second semester freshmen.

Each petition must contain the names of at least 150 full-time students attesting to the eligibility and good character of each candidate. Any petitions offered after next Friday will not be accepted and the nominees, names will not be placed on the ballot.

The election committee of the Student Council, headed by Oliver Bryant, will verify all nominations and will post a listing of all the nominees following the deadline.

The officers election will be held March 23. Ballot boxes will be placed in the lobbies of each dormitory and in the Student Union for off-campus residents. The election committee will make all rules governing the election.

The new officers will take office at the first meeting of the Council in April.

Shulman, Smith Explore Philosophies In Play

Max Shulman and Robert Paul Smith, two of America's foremost humorists, have explored the clash of two basic philosophies in "The Tender Trap" to be presented by Eastern Little Theatre next week, March 1-5.

There exists among men the notion that all females have one goal in life—marriage. Women believe just as strongly that men do whatever they can to remain single. "Stay the hell away from women who know what they want," Joe McCall tells Charlie Reader, a confirmed bachelor. Joe, married eleven years, cannot believe the life Charlie leads in New York.

For life in New York is different for a bachelor. There, the girls outnumber the men, six to one. And Charlie, being very eligible, is besieged by all sorts of attractive women who constantly call him, take him out, bring him presents—and even do his cleaning.

There is Jessica, a department store buyer, who lives in the same apartment house, and who drops in often with little reminders. There is Poppy, an editor, who calls on the phone and calls by the apartment.

Then there is Sylvia, a musician, who takes Charlie to concerts and who comes over every Sunday morning to fix his breakfast. And, finally, there is Julie Gillis, a lab assistant, who wants to shed her lab coat and don an apron—as Charlie's wife, of course.

Each of these women is "a tender trap, with the trigger all set," but Charlie is determined to steal the bait and run. And Joe, Charlie's best friend, complicates matters by falling in love with one of the girls. Earl Lindquist, a chemist, is also in love with one of them, and he is determined to keep her away from Charlie.

How the trap finally snares Charlie is too good a plot twist to develop here. But he does become engaged and throws a wild party to celebrate. Among the celebrants is Sol Schwartz, a crazy musician, whose liberal ideas bother Charlie.

"I really feel this is the most appealing play we have done here," said Mr. Johnson, director of Eastern Little Theatre. "We have a beautiful set, a fine script, and an excellent cast. I think everyone who sees this play will find it extremely funny and enjoyable."

Members of the cast are Susie Donoghue, Leah Strehlow, Suzanne Ankrum, Pecky Radar, Dave Bond, Vic Hellard, Gordon Jennings, and Jerry Smith.

The play will be presented each night at 8:00 p.m. March 1-5, in the Pearl Buchanan Theatre. Tickets are now on sale from 2-5 daily at the theatre box office, or one may call 7530 for reservations. All seats are reserved. Tickets are 50 cents for students and 75 cents for others.

Following the first night's performance, there will be a reception.

Drama Festival

Eastern students are invited to watch the plays being presented at the Regional High School Drama Festival today in Hiram Brock. A new production starts each hour, and the festival is scheduled to end late today or tomorrow morning.

Two Contests Scheduled For Tuesday

Contests to select Mr. and Miss Popularity and the most valuable Cheerleader will be held in the dormitories Tuesday night from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. When voting each person must show his identification card.

Cheerleader contestants sponsored by the Progress are: Linda Worthington, Dianne Hendricks, Sarann Shepherd, Becky Sizer, Sandy Underhill, Barbara Stapleton, and Clydia Case.

Miss and Mr. Popularity contestants sponsored by the Milestone are: Gloria Gray, Miss Beverly Keith, Miss Dianne Taylor, and Miss Shirley Bunch. Tom Coffey, Joe Pursfull, Bob Vickers, Vic Hellard, and Bob Tolan.

Seen On Campus

Like all boy scouts, one pert coed proved to be prepared for one or more emergencies as she was seen leaving the crowded halls of the Combs Building one day this week. Knowing she had put a head scarf in her purse in case of rain, and needing it, she freed one of her hands from her arm-load of books and took out what she thought was the scarf. It was nearly tied around her head before she realized it was the nylon stocking she had included in case of a runner.

Twenty-One Vie In First Brockton Vote

Leroy Kinman, a senior from Highland Heights, and Donald H. Smith, a junior from Detroit, Mich., are the candidates for the office of mayor in the first election for government officials in Brockton.

Ballots for the Monday election will offer the following names for councilmen. Listed here by precincts as they will be found on the individual ballots: (1) Stephen E. Drescher, senior from Louisville and Tyrone D. Thomas, junior from Irvine; (2) Lawrence Shepard, sophomore from West Caldwell, N.J., and William C. Thorpe, junior from Berea.

(7) Richard Carr, senior from Ashland; (8) Lindsey Able, senior from Louisville and Judson C. Cross, sophomore from Redding, Ohio; (9) Joe Blankenship, senior from Louisville and George Simpson, junior from Richburg, South Carolina.

The election will be held in the laundry in Brockton and the Student Council will supervise it and count votes.

Eligibility for candidacy required that one be a full-time student of adequate point standing and live in Brockton. Each was required to obtain a petition of 30 signatures from his precinct for the office of councilman or 6 for the office of mayor with at least one coming from his own precinct in the latter.

Under the mayor-council type government each councilman represents one-ninth of the adult population.

It will be the responsibility of these officers to formulate a constitution. Their terms will end in September when new officers will be elected to serve for a full year.

Dr. Allen E. Ragan, an expert in the field of local government, is serving as faculty advisor to the governing body.

Brockton houses 175 families in which at least one of the adult members is an Eastern student. Only the residents who are full-time Eastern students may vote, or run for office.

Large Crowds, Pep Rally Welcome OVC Champs Back Home

Rousing crowds of up to 2,000 people welcomed Coach Jim Baechtold and his Eastern Maroons home following their 99-51 victory over Tennessee Tech that nailed down the championship of the Ohio Valley Conference.

A motorcade of about 50 cars containing school and city officials and members of the Eastern boosters club met the bus carrying the champions about five miles outside the city and led them through downtown Richmond and back to the campus for a tremendous rally.

Eastern president Dr. Robert R. Martin escorted Coach Baechtold and Mrs. Baechtold to his car and the four senior members of the Maroon squad—Lee Lemos, Bob Tolan, Dennis Bradley and James King—rode in cars belonging to officials of the sports club.

With sirens screaming and horns blowing, the motorcade passed along Main Street where several hundred persons lined the streets in welcoming the Maroons home.

President Martin greeted Baechtold and his team by saying, "You are great champions and everyone here in the Eastern community, as well as our alumni and friends everywhere, are very proud of you."

Coach Says "Feels Great" The young Eastern coach, in his third year as head man of the Maroons, said, "It feels great, believe me. My boys are indeed real champions and will pledge to represent Eastern and the OVC as well as we can."

About 2,000 students cheered the champions when they arrived at Stateand Hall, on the campus. A pep band, the Eastern cheerleaders and members of the college pep club applauded loudly as each player stepped from the bus carrying the victors from their successful trip.

and stretched across Lancaster Avenue.

Across Stateand Hall, residence hall of the players, a huge banner was wrapped around the second story, reading, "EKSC, We're No. 1."

Baechtold told the cheering throng, "These boys are the greatest. They deserve all this tremendous support you are giving them. And you are the finest fans in the world."

He added, "We're on our way, now. Give us support and we're off and running."

The Maroons gained the crown with a 99-51 win over Tennessee Tech at Cookeville Monday night. They are 12-1 in the OVC and 17-4 overall. Only Murray has defeated Eastern this season, by 86-84 at Murray.

Eastern ends its league season Saturday night against Morehead at Alumni Coliseum. A capacity crowd of about 7,000, or more, is expected.

To add to the excitement here, athletic director Glenn Presnell announced that more than one-half of the 1,000 tickets for the NCAA regional first-round tournament to be held at Bowling Green March 9, were sold by mid-morning.

About 200 orders were telephoned to him last night following the Maroons' win, he said. This morning the phone hasn't stopped ringing, he said. And long lines have been at the coliseum all morning. The tickets are expected to be sold this week.

He said that he planned to try to obtain additional tickets for the tournament, but that these tickets were choice seats and others might be bleachers much higher above the court.

A few reserved seats remain for the Morehead game, he said, but it is expected that another section may be reserved today or tomorrow.

Winner of the first game will meet the Southeastern Conference champion Vanderbilt or Tennessee in the regionals at Lexington on March 12.

Dedication Speakers Laud 'First Families'

Recapturing in eulogies the pioneer spirit of the late Senator Hiram Brock and the late Dr. Thomas J. Coates, two distinguished members of the Eastern faculty Sunday afternoon led in re-dedication ceremonies for the Coates Administration Building and the refurbished Hiram Brock Auditorium.

At the 2 p.m. convocation of some 300 faculty and friends of the College, including members of the Brock and Coates families, Eastern's academic dean, Dr. William J. Moore, characterized the late Hiram Brock as a "great man, a great mountaineer, and a great Appalachian," and suggested that Eastern remind "those who come to us from that region, of the contributions of their forebears—great men like Hiram Brock."

The tribute to the late Dr. Coates, Eastern president from 1916 to 1928, was a poetic reminiscence by W. L. Keene, professor of English, of a man "who cared about those little schools" over this Commonwealth, and whose life was marked by an "intensity of

Debaters Capture Honors At Berea

Eastern's debaters enjoyed success at the Berea debate tournament Saturday by capturing first place in the novice division, winning third place speakers honors in the varsity division, and winning a first place speakers award in the novice division.

The novice team, which won first place in this division, and posted a record of seven wins against one loss, was represented by Linda Ward and Kathy DeJarnette, affirmative team one; and Brent Cornelius and Oliver Bryant, for the negative team two.

Beat Field of Forty-Four Team two's affirmative speakers were Mary Jo Rudd and Charles Greenwell, who won the top speakers award in the novice division out of a field of forty-four speakers. Representing the negative team were Mike Coffey and Denis Burrows.

Eastern's varsity team, winning there and losing five, still holds its own as third place speakers award won by Jay Roberts, Dick Bragg and Gordon Camuel represented the affirmative, and Jay Roberts and Eugene Gray the negative.

Win Over UK 'Gratifying'

Mrs. Alexander, debate coach and a member of the English faculty, comments that the debaters did an excellent job; especially gratifying was their win over the University of Kentucky in the novice division. The conventional style of debating was used in the novice division while cross examination was utilized in the varsity division.

Eastern's debaters—ran up against strong competition from schools heralding from Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, and West Virginia. The debaters will see action again when they participate in a varsity tournament at Georgetown the fifth and sixth of March.

Future Filibusterers

placed third among the varsity debaters; Oliver Bryant and Brent Cornelius, over-all negative novice winners and Charles Greenwell who placed first among the novice debaters.

Setting A Trap

Yes, four of them. This group of lovely young ladies are engaged in woman's favorite sport—husband hunting. They appear in next week's Little Theatre production, "The Tender Trap." They are, clockwise from the top: Leah Strehlow, Suzanne Ankrum, Susie Donoghue, and Becky Rader.

Almost Sewed Up!

At Home

Maroons Close Out

It may seem strange to have a sports editorial for the third week in a row, but this time there is really something to crow about. The Maroons have done it!

A sparkling win Monday night at Tennessee Tech lifted the Maroons to their first undisputed Ohio Valley Conference championship since 1959, and a chance to make "believers" out of a lot of people in the NCAA Regional at Bowling Green, March 9.

The team that has posted more regular season OVC wins (12) than any other squad in the loop's history closes out its home and conference schedule tomorrow night against an improved Morehead team. It seems unreasonable that anyone should go home this afternoon to find something to do for the weekend. With a campus movie tonight and the Morehead game tomorrow night, activities should be more than adequate... and it will be the last opportunity for many to see the Maroons in action.

When the Maroons took the floor against Western last week the crowd was tremendous. The ovation that greets the Maroons tomorrow night should be even greater. They've done what we wanted them to, let's show them that it was appreciated.

Winning the conference gives us an automatic NCAA bid, and when the Maroons go to Bowling Green all indications are that they will be far from alone.

At press time, some 1,100 orders for tickets to the Regional play-offs had been made at the athletic ticket office, and orders are still pouring in. Eastern, by all rights, should be the best represented team at the first round, since it's being played in the area of our sister institution Western, and the Western fans should be pulling for their conference representative.

Congratulations are definitely in order to the Maroons and Coach Jim Baechtold. They've been under a lot of pressure all season, and like the champions they are, they never cracked. A lesser team would have.

NCAA all the way.

Letters To The Editor Of The Progress

To the Editor,

I think that recognition should be given by the student body for three boys at Eastern. They are Phil Bills of Delaware, Ohio, Bill McDowell of Middletown, Ohio, and Charlie Tapp of Ashland, Ky., all sophomores. For the last two basketball games, these students have, on their own initiative, made the blue signs that have been behind the student body section saying "We Want the OVC," and "EKSC. We're No. 1."

These students should be commended for taking their own time and money to do this for Eastern. Maybe this can be an example to other students that if they really want to support their team, they can do something about it.

Sincerely,
Alice Jane Hall

Alice Jane Hall:

Thank you very much for your thoughtfulness. We feel your letter is just the type of recognition such students deserve.

A Letter Makes Rounds

(ACP) — WASHBURN REVIEW, Washburn University, Topeka, Kan., tells of a letter received by its president, Dr. Harold Sponberg, which he decided to pass around.

The letter, from a meat packing company which shall be designated as "Company X," reads:

"Company X is a manufacturer of artificial sausage casings and other flexible film products used in the meat industry. As a major supplier to this industry, we would like to know if your institution maintains a sausage kitchen and/or a course on the processing of sausage. Company X's interest is to be of assistance by placing this department on our mailing lists and having our local representative keep in contact for whatever help we can be to the college. If you have such a course, we would like to know the names of the supervisor in charge and the equipment. Since students graduating from such courses might be considered for employment by our firm, we would also like to receive a description of the course curriculum and the number of students taking it."

Dr. Sponberg sent the letter first to Richard Vogel, school treasurer, with this comment in the margin: "I know there is plenty of baloney on this campus, but I did not know they were doing surveys on it."

To which Mr. Vogel replied: "This I believe is an academic affair."

The letter then was forwarded by President Sponberg to Dr. R. F. Englebert, dean of the college, with the comment: "This project seems to be in your area — a continuous ring of baloney. Please establish a course of study in this meaty field."

The dean sent the letter back to the president with this notation: "If this refers to link sausage, we could make it a divisional course. Get the pun?"

Dr. Sponberg then forwarded the letter to Dean John Howe, head of the law school with the question: "Would the sausage course fit your curriculum, since you are training pork-barrel specialists?"

To which the law school dean responded: "Would the course in sausage stuffing count as a physical education substitute?"

And, at this point, the matter of beginning a sausage-stuffing course at WU was dropped, probably not to any great dismay to either students or administration.

A Big Wide World

Realms of Emotions

Oh, big wide world about me,
Please give me in my one short life,
A taste of grief, of joy, and sadness,
A taste of love, of peace, and strife;
That I may know all of life's ways,
And all realms of emotion.
If I never have a taste of grief,
Or never a taste of strife and sadness,
I can never fully appreciate
The things that bring me gladness.
Yes, let me bear all of life's ways,
So when from this great world I flee,
I shall have borne all life's emotions,
And through this a wiser person be.

Petitions Wanted

Student Council Election Nears

The annual Student Council officers' election is to be held soon. The petitions for officer candidates are to be submitted no later than 5 next Friday in the Council office in the Student Union Building.

This is easily the most important election of the year. Whoever wins this election must be not only popular in student opinion, but also dedicated to the cause of Eastern and the student body.

The Student Council's claim to importance has steadily increased along with its increase in responsibility.

The character and credibility and dedication of past officers has made the offices somewhat awesome for prospective candidates, and has necessitated considered thought for would-be officers.

But the posts are not untenable. Students who desire to run for office are urged to evaluate their determination and dedication to perform a worthwhile service to the student body. Those students who decide to run for office are charged to pick their parties carefully to choose only those who are willing to work. The party platforms must be arranged with thought given to goals that will enrich the college community.

Last year a total of 11 students ran for officers positions on the council with only party entering by the deadline. The petition deadline had to be advanced to admit two of the parties in the race. This situation can be avoided with some forethought and work.

150 student signatures are required on the petitions this year. Any full-time student with a 2 point academic standing and not on social probation may run for office. Candidates for president and vice-president must be 2nd semester sophomores at the time the new officers take office. Secretary and treasurer candidates must be classified as 2nd semester freshmen.

The election this year is set for March

23. In last year's election 1841 students voted, nearly 42 per cent of the student body.

The election will be conducted under the supervision of the election committee of the present Council. Voting will take place in the dorms and in the Student Union Building lobby for off-campus students.

Belle Lettres Request Student Submissions

The publishers of the annual Belles Lettres are now making requests for good short stories, plays, and poetry written by Eastern students. All entries must be turned in to the Belles Lettres editor, Mrs. Charlotte Waters Mason of Richmond, or to Dr. Bynne Rhodes of the English Department by March 15.

The Belles Lettres is an annual literary publication of the Canterbury Club. All students, regardless of their major fields, are urged to participate by submitting manuscripts. The editors choose the best pieces of literature, and it is then published in the magazine.

The Belle Lettres for 1965 will be available during the first of May. It will cost $1 per copy. Members of the Canterbury Club will carry on a sales campaign. However, any person who is not contacted, and who wishes to buy a copy, may do so in Dr. Rhodes' office in the Combs building. Back issues of the Belles Lettres may also be obtained there. They will cost fifty cents per copy.

This year there will be a new cover design on the Belle Lettres. Previous issues have had a picture of Roark Hall on the cover. However, since the English Department has been moved from Roark to the Bert Combs Building, the Belle Lettres editors feel that a new cover design will be more appropriate. They want to welcome cover design ideas from any Eastern student.

The Belles Lettres was first published in 1938 under the direction of Dr. Roy B. Clark. It was later sponsored by Dr. P. M. Grise, who is now head of the English Department. Dr. Bynne Rhodes and Mr. Philip Mankin are the present sponsors.

Each year four awards are given to persons whose manuscripts are published. The Canterbury Club gives the Roy B. Clark Award of $10 for the best published poem. They also present the P. M. Grise Award of $10 for the best published short story.

Another award, which was provided for by Dr. Clark's will, is given to the best overall contribution to the magazine. The actual sum of money may vary from year to year.

An anonymous award is given for the best article in the magazine.

The Belles Lettres has three editors. Charlotte Mason, an English major, is editor-in-chief. She said, "Belles Lettres offers an opportunity for deserving students to be recognized for their literary achievements."

The co-editors are Sandy Phillips, a senior art and English major; and Kathy Hollis, a sophomore English major.

Peace Corps Week

Eastern Students Become Involved In Peace Corps

By BRENDA PHILPOT

On Friday, Saturday, and Monday thirty-six persons took the placement tests given in co-ordination with National Peace Corps week which began on last Monday.

The tests consisted of general aptitude tests which were required to be taken by all applicants, and optional language achievement tests.

Each year Peace Corps volunteers visit the campuses of the larger colleges throughout the United States during the annual "National Peace Corps Week."

On Monday of last week, three volunteers began working to promote interest in the Peace Corps among the students on Eastern's campus.

The students showed quite a bit of interest in the literature given out in front of the grill by the three volunteers. By Tuesday, the second day, they had to send for more material because so much had been given away.

The volunteers also visited various classes upon the requests of the instructors. They gave oral information to the students there.

The three volunteers were Bill Katon, Assistant to the Director of Management of the Peace Corps; Bill Donohoe, a volunteer from Michigan; and Enid Coel from New York.

Katon, as Assistant to the Director of Management in Washington, has traveled to seven different Peace Corps countries, four of which are in the Middle East. He said: "Eastern students and professors have given us the finest reception of any of the other colleges we have visited. Our purpose on this campus is to promote interest among the students, and to clear up any misconceptions they might have about the Peace Corps."

When asked about the degree of success attained by the Peace Corps, Katon made this statement: "Its success is evident from the results. We have more requests for volunteers than we can fill. We know we are wanted in these countries because they ask us to come. We would not go uninvited."

"Most of us volunteers are those who like people, and those who want to work with them. Our purpose is to help develop countries economically and educationally."

Donohoe, a volunteer since 1962, has spent two years in Ethiopia where he taught history on the secondary level. He was graduated from Western Michigan State College with an AB degree. Donohoe said: "I liked Ethiopia and the Peace Corps work very much. I hope to be able to go back. I found teaching students there to be like teaching elsewhere. Some students are good, some poor. It is like this everywhere."

Miss Coel, a French major, has just returned to the United States after spending two years in Nigeria. She is a native of New York where she was graduated from the City College of New York. During her two years in Nigeria, she taught French. She said: "Although I am a French major myself, having had previous foreign language training is not necessary for prospective Peace Corps volunteers. The Peace Corps has its own training program."

Miss Coel also expressed her enjoyment of her work in Nigeria. "I found the people to be very co-operative toward me. I felt quite welcome there," she said.

To join the Peace Corps, applicants must be at least eighteen years old. They must fill out questionnaires. Then they go through a screening process which in the end gives assignments only to those most qualified.

Peace Corps volunteers are needed in four major areas of work: education, agriculture, health, and community development. A lot of general skill is needed in the Peace Corps. Therefore, liberal arts majors are very much in demand.

The Peace Corps now works in 46 countries. However, they receive many requests for volunteers even in countries in which they do not operate.

Three of Eastern's own students have already been accepted as volunteers. They are Tom Coffey, a senior who will be stationed in Ecuador; Paul Hake, also a senior, but with an definite assignment yet; and Mel Giancola, who has been accepted for service in India.

Coffey offered the following statement as explanation of his reasons for joining the Peace Corps: "My reasons for joining the Peace Corps are many and varied, but they are best explained by the fact that I just want to help others help themselves. By my helping them, I am also helping myself. My perspective and insight into the world in which we live will also be increased."

At presstime the Progress learned that two more Eastern students have been accepted by the Peace Corps. They are Miss Jane Maxwell, a geography major, and Miss Betsy Stafford, an English and physical education major, from Ashland.

Language Students To Study Abroad

Language students from Eastern, traveling with Miss Dorothy Carter, instructor of French, will sail June 26 from New York on their way to the Alliance Francaise school in Paris for French study.

In making the announcement, Miss Carter said Eastern will "probably" give undergraduate credit for work at the Paris school, and that courses are offered for elementary, intermediate and advanced students of French. There are courses, too, for interested students who have had no French at all, she added.

Eastern's curriculum committee this month voted to give up to nine hours of credit here for foreign language study abroad at certain accepted institutes and colleges subject to the approval of the department chairman.

Cost for the eight-week "package" tour to Paris is $899, which includes dormitory room and board, tuition and books, and steamship fare on board a Dutch student ship, which lands at Rotterdam. Extra expenses which must be borne by the student himself are fare from Rotterdam to Paris, side tours and the like.

Students interested in the summer study program should contact Miss Carter in Room 201, Cammack. Dr. J. Hunter Peak is head of the department.

Wesleyans Nominated for State Officers

Three Eastern Wesley Club members have been nominated for state officers. They are: David Wagner, for treasurer; Jim Taylor, for World Christian Community Chairman; and Betsy Ann Law, for Commission on Christian Vocations.

Mrs. Harrell spoke on "The Problem of Behavior" at the Monday night meeting.

All interested students are invited to attend the discussion groups. The groups are as follows: Methodist doctrine, Tuesday at 8 p.m.; Bible, Tuesday at 6 p.m.; Sex, Courtship, and Marriage, Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

Everyone is invited to attend the next meeting to be held at the Center Monday night at 8:00 p.m. with dinner followed by a business meeting.

Sandy Banks Is Senior's Candidate

Sandy Banks was nominated as the senior's candidate for Mardi Gras Dance.

Five men and five women were nominated for prom queen and king.

The class members present voted in favor of giving Tom Coffey $200 to help finance his trip to Italy in April. Tom will attend the International Student Conference at which 74 student delegates representing various countries will be present. Only five Americans were chosen for this trip.

The Senior Banquet committee is now working on plans for the Senior Banquet to be held May 8. Any suggestions seniors have should be given to Shirley Bunch, Ron Walke, Charlie Spicer, Pat Wellman or Jesse Jones.

The next scheduled class meeting will be Wednesday in University at 7 p.m.

Canterbury Club Has Pancake Supper

The Episcopal Canterbury Club is sponsoring a Shrove Pancake Supper Tuesday from 5-7 p.m. at Christ Episcopal Church. The price for tickets are $1.75 for children and students and $1.00 for adults. The tickets may be purchased from any member of Canterbury Club or at the door.

The members of the club are assisting at the Telford Youth Center Thursday and Saturday.

It is imperative that all members attend the next meeting. If you are unable to attend, please see the president, Lorita Spooner.

E Students Attend Annual Baptists Conference

Twenty-two Eastern Baptist students will attend the annual Missions Conference at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, this weekend. There will be addresses by Dr. John Claypool, Louisville, the Rev. Nathan Porter, and Dr. William Hull of the Seminary faculty.

Among those attending the three-day conference will be the following: Robert Morgan, Marlene Smith, Mary Lee Doyle, Joe Roach, Bud Frazier, Lois Muff, James Carter, Bonnie Bentley, Carol Rogers, Charlie Wells, Ada Brown, Delora Sue Cook, Gayle Elkins, Pricilla Roberts, Phyllis Greer, Joe Greer, Jane Champion, Sandy Orme and the Rev. and Mrs. Dwight Lyons.

Soph V-P Candidates

Clarksville, Ind.; Michael Murphy, Richmond; Dianne Swannack, Los Cruces, N.M.; and Peter Nowak, Huntington, N.Y.

Sophomores Vote For Vice-President

Six sophomores will compete for class vice-president in an election to be held Tuesday.

Voting tables for this election will be placed in the vicinity of the Student Union Grill. Voting will be open from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 4 to 6.

The candidates, nominated in a class meeting last week, running for the office are: Leah Strehlow, Arlington Heights, Illinois; Pam Smith, Lexington; Jerry Mitchell, Clarksville, Indiana; Dianne Swannack, Los Cruces, N. M.; Mike Murphy, Richmond; and Pete Nowak, Huntington, New York.

Stressing the necessity of filling this office, sophomore class president, Lin Powell stated, "I feel it's important that the sophomore class have a conscientious vice-president." Continuing, Powell urges "each sophomore to back the candidate of his choice and participate in this election. I hope to see each and every sophomore at the polls Tuesday."

Maroons Ice OVC; Close Home Season Tomorrow

Last Home Game

Four senior members of Eastern's Ohio Valley Conference championship team close their Alumni Coliseum careers tomorrow night against Morehead. They

Five Blasts Tech 99-81

The Eastern Maroons wrapped up the OVC title with a 99-81 win over Tennessee Tech, Wednesday night at Cookeville, Tennessee.

The Maroons were down at 21-20 and 31-29 in the first half and it looked as if it was going to be a close game, but they spurted ahead 45-34 at the half.

Tech came back to play in the second half and a 12-point lead was cut to 3 points, at 64-61; with 9:11 remaining. However, the Maroons regaining their poise and had a 91-72 lead with 2:29 to go.

Eddie Bodkin led all scorers with 23 points, Dennis Bradley tossed in 20, while substitute guard Doug Cemmmons added 16. Lee Lemos and Bill Walton rounded out the scoring with 15 and 12 points respectively.

Clemmons came off the bench when Lemos and Walton ran into foul trouble and played an excellent game while scoring 16 points.

Ron Hobson led the losers with 19 points. He was followed by Tom Kirby who tossed in 13 points.

Eastern connected on 40 of 72 shots from the field for a 55.5 percentage. Tech managed only a 37.3 percentage on 25 of 67 shots.

The win gave the Maroons a 17-4 overall record and a 12-1 conference worksheet. The loss dropped Tech to 12-11 overall and 6-6 in loop play.

A Happy Man

His face radiating joy and pride, Coach Jim Baechtold urges the Eastern student body to support the Maroons during a pep rally following the team's triumphant return Tuesday. Coach Baechtold said, "They're on their way."

Host Morehead In OVC Finale

Their Ohio Valley Conference title and NCAA bid under lock-and-key, Eastern's rampaging Maroons close their home and OVC season tomorrow night against Morehead in Alumni Coliseum.

Eastern tied the conference crown Monday night with a convincing 99-81 thumping of Tennessee Tech in Cookeville.

Coach Jim Baechtold, who has watched his team earn its first loop crown in his three year tenure at the helm, was elated. "They're a tremendous group of boys, and a team" in every sense of the word."

Stats Show Teamwork

He says the overall team statistics reveal the balance-shooting, rebounding and teamwork that has made this "the finest Eastern team I've ever seen."

The Maroons have four men averaging in double figures and another with a 9.9 mean. All-America candidate Eddie Bodkin leads with a 22.0 point-per-game out-pot.

He's followed by Lee Lemos (16.5), Bill Walton (12.8), Dennis Bradley (11.9) and Bob Toland (9.9).

The team shooting percentage has reached 47.3, best in the OVC and five points better than the school record. Walton (52.4) and Lemos (49.1) are the main reasons for the high percentage, but five other Maroons are hitting better than 45 percent of their shots.

The opposition has managed only 38.1 percent-lowest in the league-against the tough Eastern defense.

Toland's 13.4 and Bodkin's 12.2 rebounds per game help give Eastern a 57.9-39.0 edge, good for the 5th highest recovering percentage in the U. S.

Eastern is averaging 87.7 points per game, 14th best in the country, and the defense mark of 74.6 makes them the best offensive and defensive team in the OVC.

Morehead is paced by senior guard Harold Sergeant and 6-9 junior center Henry Akin.

Jack Adam's baby Maroons (11-3) square off against Lees Junior College in a 5:45 preliminary to the 8 p.m. varsity action.

A capacity crowd of about 7,000 is expected, according to Athletic Director Glenn Presnell. Reserve seat tickets were almost gone early this week and additional sections may be reserved for the contest, he said.

"Everyone loves a champion," he said, "and our students and fans will all turn out for this final game of the season."

He also reported that 1,000 tickets for the NCAA first-round game at Bowling Green on March 9 are going fast. By Wednesday, about 700 had been sold.

Smith On C-J's OVC Frosh Team

Garfield Smith, 6-7 star of the Eastern Baby Maroons, was named one of the top five freshmen in the Ohio Valley Conference, in a poll conducted this week by the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Smith, who became the first Negro to play basketball here was named on the first team of the OVC All-Star Freshman team. The Campbellsville ace is averaging 25 points per contest and has led the yearlings to an 11-3 record.

Joe Prattis, 5-11 guard from Mansfield, Ohio, who came to Eastern to try out for a football scholarship, was also listed in the league poll as an honorable mention choice.

Joe Davis, 6-1 Hazard guard, was also praised by coaches, but an injury which kept him out of some action prevented his being named to the all-star aggregation.

Coaches generally agreed that the top four freshman teams in the league are: 1-Tech; 2-Murray; 3-Eastern; 4-Western or Middle Tennessee.

The Courier-Journal also said that seven of the eight freshman teams in the OVC are well above the .500 mark. Only Austin Peay (3-9) failed to break even or better.

DePaul Is Eastern's NCAA Foe

DePaul has been named as the at-large entry to meet Eastern's OVC champion Maroons in the NCAA Midwest Regional first-round game at Bowling Green March 9.

The Dayton Flyers were selected to meet the winner of the Mid-American Conference in the second game of the tourney.

Miami of Ohio and Ohio University are currently tied for the lead of the MAC and will meet in a playoff on March 8 at the Dayton Fieldhouse to determine the league representative.

The Eastern-DePaul clash has been set for 7:30 p.m. CST, while the nightcap gets underway at 9:30.

Winners of these games move on to Lexington March 12 where the Eastern-DePaul winner meets the SEC champ, probably Vanderbilt, and the Dayton-MAC winner tangles with the Big Ten champions, Michigan.

Athletic director Glenn Presnell said that orders for reserved seat tickets to the NCAA first-round games are still being taken. Two hundred additional tickets were ordered, he said and only a few of the total allotment of 1,200 remain.

He asked that about 500 additional tickets be made available to Eastern fans. Students and faculty members are asked to order their tickets before March 3.

Prices are $3.50 and $2.50.

President Martin has announced that classes will end on March 9 at 3 p.m., allowing students and faculty members who desire to attend the game time to make the 165-mile journey.

The DePaul team has a record of 16-6 going into week-end action with Notre Dame. Coach Ray Meyer's cagers Murray, and Wesleyan.

close their season against Dayton on March 6.

Dayton and Middle Tennessee are the only common foes for both Eastern and DePaul. The Maroons lost 73-71 at Dayton, while the Demons defeated the Flyers 63-59 at the U.D. Fieldhouse, but Dayton was without 6-6 Henry Burling, one of its stars.

Middle Tennessee fell to both teams, the Maroons winning 99-69 at Alumni Coliseum, while DePaul downed the Blue Raiders 89-69 at Chicago.

It was hopefully anticipated that the Maroons would draw Dayton in the first game. This would give Eastern a chance to avenge that early season two-point setback at Dayton.

The Maroons have gained revenge against the other three teams to defeat them—Western, Western, and Wesleyan.

CROWD GREETES CHAMPS

When the 1964-65 OVC Champions' bus pulled into State-land house, the team was greeted by an enthusiastic throng of cheering students. The team was escorted by a motorcade that included such dignitaries as President and Mrs. Martin, President Emeritus W. F. O'Donnell and his wife, and Mayor and Mrs. Luxon.

It was evident that the players were very pleased with the welcoming ceremonies. Coach Baechtold told how proud and pleased he was with the team. President Martin also congratulated the team. In reply to the chant "we want a holiday," the President said that our holiday will come.

Senior guard Lee Lemos made a statement which we hope all will heed. He said, "WE WANT TO SEE ALL OF YOU DOWN AT BOWLING GREEN."

FOUR MAROONS TO PLAY LAST GAME AT HOME

A defensive ace, a substitute, a point-scorer, and a rebounder will be playing in the last game in Alumni Coliseum tomorrow night when Eastern takes on rival Morehead.

The four senior basketball players are: Dennis Bradley, James King, Lee Lemos, and Bob Toland.

Bradley, a 6'5" forward from Lexington, has been thought of mainly as a defensive player through out most of his varsity career. He has, this season, also developed into an offensive threat as well with an 11.9 average.

King, a 6'0" guard from Largo, Florida, has been hampered by injuries during his varsity eligibility. He gave junior guard Bill Walton a run for his money early in the year before injuring an ankle. King has played only occasionally this year because of the injury.

Lemos, a 6'3" guard from California, Ky., has been an offensive star during his three years of play. This season he became the fifth highest point scorer over a three year stretch. He has broken open many a zone defense with his long range shots. Lemos has the highest point average of all the seniors at 16.5.

Toland, a 6'8" center from Crown Point, Ind., has been the rebounder for the Maroons during the past two years. His ability to pull the ball off the board has helped the team to many victories. He is among the top rebounders in the nation this season with his 13.4 average.

We have come to know and love these four players during the years that they have played for Eastern. Let's show them that we appreciate what they have done for us, for Eastern and for the game of basketball. When they are introduced tomorrow night let's give them the ovation they deserve — an ovation for champions.

SWIM NOTES

This year's edition of the Eels has posted a 12-0 mark for the best record ever recorded by an Eastern swim team. The Alumni Coliseum natatorium will be the scene of the seventh annual Kentucky Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Championships the 12th and 13th of March.

Coach Combs has been the swimming mentor at Eastern since 1957 and has compiled a record of 66 wins and 29 losses. The Eels have taken 115 first place honors of 132 possible in 12 dual meets. Rick Hill, a freshman from Louisville, Kentucky, is undefeated in 25 events. Bill Walker, a freshman from Lexington, Kentucky, has been beaten only once in 21 tries.

INTRAMURAL IN THE NEWS

I-M WRESTLING . . . Intramural wrestling meets will begin March 16, 17, and 18. The teams eligible will be dormitory teams, designated clubs, and off-campus clubs.

Entry blanks may be obtained in Mr. Bernie Groves' office (134 Alumni Coliseum). The entry blanks must be filled out and returned to the Intramural Office no later than Friday, March 12, at 5 p.m.

Further information may be obtained when the entry blanks are secured.

BASKETBALL PLAY-OFFS . . . Intramural basketball play-offs will begin Monday, March 1. The play-offs will be a single elimination tournament between the top teams in each league.

COACH SMITH HAS HIGH OPINION OF BENSON

Track coach, Connie Smith, tells us that he has a great runner in Ron Benson, a junior from San Mateo, Calif. Smith said, "This boy is undoubtedly the finest potential track man we have ever had at Eastern. He is a willing worker, has great ability, and most of all, he loves to compete against the toughest. Smith says that there is an excellent chance that Benson could go under 47 seconds in the 440 and go down as low as 1:49 in the 880 this season. We are certainly looking forward to seeing Benson run this spring.

Take The Bus ...

Anyone interested in going to the NCAA tournament in Bowling Green March 9, who is willing to pay $5.00 for a bus ride (this does not include the ticket), contact either Larry Rees, 406 Dupree or Pam Smith, Box 275 McGreggor. If there are enough people interested, KYMA club will sponsor a bus. Please contact these people before this Wed. if you are interested.

Eels Creating Big Splash In Swim Circles

You'd think that a championship basketball team would cause all other athletic activity to be "ho-hum," so to speak.

Not so at Eastern Kentucky State College, where a championship swimming team is causing quite a stir, zipping through an undefeated season with a 12-0 mark, and breaking most existing school records.

The Eastern Eels of Coach Don Combs have an unprecedented 12-0 mark having rolled over Conference strong-boys.

Vanderbilt and tough Indiana State, as well as Georgia Tech, Emory, Sewanee, Kentucky, Louisville, Union, Appalachian, and Morehead.

The wins over Vandy and Indiana State avenged the Eels' two losses suffered last year when they posted a 9-2 worksheet.

Combs' mermen have won the last two Kentucky Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Championships.

The Eels' path to an undefeated season is powerful Evansville. Eastern nipped the Aces last year with a one-tenth of a second win in the last relay to win the meet. Scouting reports indicate that the Aces are stronger than any team the Eels have met this year.

Evansville holds a 66-29 victory over Indiana State, where as the Eels recorded a 68-37 win.

With such a record as the Eels have, you'd expect a senior-laden squad. Surprisingly, there are no seniors on the 12-man team and only six juniors. Two of the standout performers on the team are freshman Rich Hill, Louisville, and Bill Walker, Lexington. Hill is undefeated in dual meet competition while Walker has been beaten only once.

Set New Records

This year's edition of the Eels has established 10 new team records. Leading the assault on the record book is Walker who has set three new records — 200-yard Freestyle (1:53.1), 200-yard Individual Medley (2:08.5), and the 500-yard Freestyle (5:21.4).

Charlie Tandy, Louisville, a junior transfer from Florida State who became eligible this semester, joins Hill as a record-holder in two events. He has the best time in the 50-yard Freestyle (1:23.1) and the 100-yard Freestyle (3:12.9).

Hill tops the team in the 200-yard Butterfly (2:09.2) and the 200-yard Breaststroke (2:26.8).

Dave Williams, a native of North Tonawanda, New York, is the record-holder in the 200-yard Backstroke event with a timing of 2:13.4.

In addition to the individual performances, the 400-yard Medley Relay and 400-yard Freestyle Relay teams have set new marks. The 400-yard Medley Relay team, consisting of Williams, Hill, Tandy, and Fred Bartlett, Cleveland, Ohio, turned in a time of 3:56. The 400-yard Freestyle Relay team, made up of Bartlett, Hill, Tandy, and Walker, turned in a 3:53 clocking.

"Swimming is becoming a great spectator sport at Eastern," said Coach Combs, whose teams have won 66 of 95 meets since he became coach in 1957.

"We have capacity crowds of 500 for every meet."

Eastern's Eels have not lost a dual swimming meet to a Kentucky team since January of 1962 in running their string to 20 straight wins.

Eastern's facilities for swimming are among the finest in the south. Meets are held in the new natatorium, in Alumni Coliseum, itself of championship design.

So it's only fitting that all sports activity held beneath the huge roof of the magnificent sports plant be of championship caliber.

Record Relay Team

Here is the Eastern 400-yard freestyle relay team that set a new team record with a 3:53 clocking. The members are, from

Eastern's Grappler's Boast 8-2 Record

The Eastern Grapplers traveled to Morehead and defeated the Eagles 24-6. They then returned to Alumni Coliseum to score two more victories against Marshall University and Knoxville Y.M.C.A. The scores were 16-12 and 27-2 respectively. The grapplers stand with a 8-2 record.

Freshman 130 pounder, Marty Willigan, is the top performer on the squad. He has a 10-0 record winning nine matches by falls, scoring 48 team points out of a possible 50. Coach Don Webster said, "Willigan could wrestle on almost any team in the nation at 123. Marty tends to have all the qualities to become a national performer."

Eastern's ace 157 pounder, Randy Bryd, was lost for the season after competing against Morehead. Randy received a shoulder injury in the third period. He went on to win the match by a 8-6 decision. Tandy finished the season with a 6-1-1 record.

Henry Bivens, No. 1 147 pounder, has moved up to 157 to replace Bryd and Pete Connallon has taken over the 147 pound class.

Joe Howard who received an injury earlier in the season has been back in competition to add strength with two victories at 137.

Hollis Carroll, the new look in the Eastern line-up has won three matches at 123 in three starts.

Ron House, heavyweight, sustained his first defeat against Marshall in a close match. House stands with a 9-1 record for a total of 29 team points.

Welcome Home

The bus carrying the 1964-65 OVC champs passed under a "Welcome Home 'Champs'" sign strung across Lancaster Avenue Tuesday. Mayor and Mrs. Chester Luxon were in the car immediately behind the bus, and more of the motorcade was ahead of the bus.

Eels Down Indiana State For 12-0 Mark

The Eels of Coach Don Combs brought their record to 12-0 with wins over Vanderbilt, Sewanee, and Indiana State.

In defeating Vandy, the Eels finished third in the event. Bill Walker also set a team record with a 1:53.1 clocking in the 200-yard freestyle. Walker and Rick Hill paced the Eels with 10 points each. In the Sewanee meet, High point men for Eastern were Tandy and Hill with 10 points each.

In the Sewanee meet, Charlie

Tandy set a team record with a timing of :51.3 in the 100 yard freestyle and Rick Hill broke another team record with a 2:26.8 timing in the Breast-stroke event. The Eels' fine diver, Johnny Warren, was defeated in the Sewanee meet. Hill point men for Eastern were Tandy and Hill with 10 points each.

Tandy and Hill again led the Eels with 10 points each in the Indiana State meet. Tandy broke his old team record in the 100-yard freestyle with a :51.2 clocking. Walker was defeated for the first time this year in a "photo finish". However, he set a new team record in the 500 yard freestyle with a time of 5:21.4.

commitment." Dr. Coates' interest in Eastern, Keene said, was "warm and fatherly," and when he died, on a snowy day in March, 1928, "white silence shrouded the little world he loved."

Built in 1928, the stately Coates Building served, until its reconstruction this year, as a classroom and administration building. Now it houses administrative offices exclusively.

Brook Auditorium was added to the Coates Building in 1929; it was named to honor state senator and Eastern regent Hiram Brock of Harlan. Dr. Robert R. Martin, president of Eastern, introduced the day's guests, among them Regents Harry M. Sparks, State Superintendent of Public Instruction and ex-officio chairman of the board, Earle B. Combs, and Judge Thomas McGregor. Also present in the audience at the rededication ceremonies for the $673,000 reconstruction, were former governor Keen Johnson and David H. Pritchett, of the State Department of Finance.

Thinclads Run Well In Indoor Meet

Last Saturday, Eastern's 1965 track team competed in the Southwest United States Indoor Track Championships in Chattanooga, Tennessee. It is the first time that Eastern had ever entered the meet.

The thin-clads, tunning against the finest track athletes in the south, performed outstandingly well according to Coach Connie Smith. Eastern took only thirteen boys to the indoor meet.

Rick Dyer, a freshman from Elmhurst, Illinois, placed fifth in the high-jump with a leap of 6'4". Ron Benson, a junior from San Mateo, California, and Vern Brooks, a sophomore from Chicago, both qualified for the finals in the qualifying heats. Benson placed third in the finals with a splendid 1:13.5. Brooks was forced to withdraw because of an injured foot.

Freshman Earl Jordan from White Plains, New York, and Junior Larry Whalen of Euclid, Ohio, both qualified for the finals in the 1000. Jordan took fifth place and Whalen came in sixth. In the mile Brent Arnold from Danville, Kentucky, won his qualifying heat with a time of 4:27.5 but placed fifth in the final tabulation. Sophomore Jim Beasley of Jeffersonville, Indiana, ran 9:43 in the two mile for a sixth place.

The mile relay composed of Arnold, Jordan, Henry Patino, freshman from Lansing, Michigan, and sophomore Cary Guess of Louisville placed fifth.

The outstanding event of the day was the two mile relay. Eastern battled the University of Tennessee and Kentucky State all the way, but finally ended up third, only one half a second away from the winning Tennessee squad. Eastern was greatly handicapped for the relay because it was the fourth race of the day for Benson and the third of the day for Whalen. The best time made by an Eastern runner in the relay was 1:58.2 by Bill Swanson.

THE BEARD OF AVON

Topic for today is that perennial favorite of English majors, that ever-popular crowd pleaser, that good sport and great American—William Shakespeare (or "The Swedish Nightingale" as he is better known as).

First let us examine the persistent theory that Shakespeare (or "The Pearl of the Pacific" as he is jocularly called) is not the real author of his plays. Advocates of this theory insist the plays are so full of classical allusions and learned references that they couldn't possibly have been written by the son of an illiterate country butcher.

To which I reply "Faugh!" Was not the great Spinoza's father a humble woodcutter? Was not the immortal Isaac Newton's father a simple second baseman? (The elder Newton, incidentally, is one of history's truly pathetic figures. He was, by all accounts, the greatest second baseman of his time, but baseball, alas, had not yet been invented. It used to break young Isaac's heart to see his father get up every morning, put on uniform, spikes, glove, and cap, and stand alertly behind second base, bent forward, eyes narrowed, waiting, waiting, waiting. That's all—waiting. Isaac loyally sat in the bleachers and yelled "Good show, Dad!" and stuff like that, but everyone else in town sniggered derisively, made coarse gestures, and pelted the Newtons with overripe fruit—figs for the elder Newton, apples for the younger. Thus, as we all know, the famous moment came when Isaac Newton, struck in the head with an apple, leapt to his feet, shouted "Europa!" and announced the third law of motion: "For every action there is an opposite and equal reaction!"

Figs for the elder Newton, apples for the younger.

(How profoundly true these simple words are! Take, for example, Personna Stainless Steel Razor Blades. Shave with a Personna. That's the action. Now what is the reaction? Pleasure, delight, contentment, cheer, and facial felicity. Why such a happy reaction? Because you have started with the sharpest, most durable blade ever honed—a blade that gives you more shaves, closer shaves, comfortabler shaves than any other brand on the market. If, by chance, you don't agree, simply return your unused Personnas to the manufacturer and he will send you absolutely free a package of Beep-Beep or any other blade you think is better.)

But I digress. Back to Shakespeare (or "The Gem of the Ocean" as he was ribaldly appellated).

Shakespeare's most important play is, of course, Hamlet (or, as it is frequently called, Macbeth). This play tells in living color the story of Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, who one night sees a ghost upon the battlements. (Possibly it is a good he sees; I have a first folio that is frankly not too legible.) Anyhow, Hamlet is so upset by seeing this ghost (or goat) that he stabs Polonius and Brer Bodkin. He is thereupon banished to a leather factory by the king, who hollers, "Get thee to a tannery!" Thereupon Ophelia refuses her food until Laertes shouts, "Get thee to a beanery!" Ophelia is so cross that she chases her little dog out of the room, crying, "Out, damned Spot!" She is fined fifty shillings for cursing, but Portia, in an eloquent plea, gets the sentence commuted to life imprisonment. Thereupon King Lear and Queen Mab proclaim a festival—complete with kissing games and a pie-eating contest. Everybody has a perfectly splendid time until Banquo's ghost (or goat) shows up. This so unnerves Richard III that he drowns his cousin, Butt Malmsey. This leads to a lively discussion, during which everyone is killed. The little dog Spot returns to utter the immortal curtain lines:

Our hero now has croaked,
And so's our prima donna.
But be of cheer, my friends.
You'll always have Personna.

©1965, Max Shulman

Yea and verily. And when next thou buyest Personna, buyest also some new Burma Shave? regular or menthol, which soaks eth rings around any other lather. Get thee to a pharmacy!

Orators And Coach

Mrs. Aimee Alexander, right has coached Eastern's participants in the Kentucky Intercollegiate Oratorical Association contest to be held here tomorrow. Mr. Bill Peyton, junior from West Liberty was the last winner of the annual Weaver Oratorical Contest. Miss Mary Jo Rudd, sophomore from Burkhart won the William Keene Oratorical for Women last month.

Miss Rudd, Mr. Peyton Eastern's KIOA Orators

Eastern will host the annual tournament of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Oratorical Association tomorrow, where the State's best college orators will participate. Eastern will be represented by Miss Mary Jo Rudd and William R. Peyton.

The day-long speech will begin with a welcome to visitors at 2:30 p.m. in the Grise Room of the Combs building by Dr. P. M. Grise, head of the English department.

Two speakers from each of some 12 to 15 colleges will compete for State honors, with Dr. Kenneth Hance of Michigan State University as critic-judge. The women's speech contest will be held in the Grise Room following the welcome address while the men will compete at another contest at 7 p.m. in the Pearl Buchanan Little Theatre, following a dinner for all contestants in the Blue Room of the Student Union Building. Highlighting the dinner will be choral reading by the speech 230 class of Mrs. Letty Moins, instructor of speech.

Eastern's entrants in the contest are Miss Mary Jo Rudd, winner of the W. L. Keene Women's Oratorical contest, who is a sophomore foreign language major from Burkhart; and William R. Peyton, winner of the Weaver Oratorical contest for men, who is a junior majoring in English from West Liberty.

Miss Rudd's speech will be entitled "I Knew Kathy," which explores the situation of a girl in college who is pregnant. Mr. Peyton will speak on the topic, "Art—The Mirror of Civilization." He will relate that "art is the mirror of the soul of a people," and that it should take its rightful place in our world.

MILFORD GLENN SHORT

Cadet Honors Go To Short

Cadet Milford Glenn Short, Jr., freshman from Evans, has been selected as this week's Cadet of the Week.

The military science department selected Short, a representative of C Company, on the basis of his knowledge of the manual of arms, drill maneuvers, the chain of command, and current events.

Short is a mathematics major and was graduated from Evans High School. He is a member of the Pershing Rifles company here.

Short is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Glenn Short, Sr. also of Evans.

Student Council Constitution

In the By-Laws, the article and sections concerning elections were revised and expanded to change the time of elections and submission of petitions. The new constitution states that the petitions must be submitted by 5 p.m. on the first Monday of March, thereby stating a definite time for the submission of petitions. Each petition must contain the signatures of 150 full-time students, rather than 50 as previously stated in the old constitution. Included in the expansion of this section is the statement that all petitions must be turned in by this time to be valid. Any petitions offered after this time will not be accepted.

Setting a definite time for the elections, the new constitution reads that the elections will be held on Tuesday, March 4. Ballot boxes will be placed in each of the dormitories, and the Student Union Building for off-campus residents. It also states that all students will be required to vote in their dorms. The poll times are set at 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Members of the Constitutional Revision Committee who helped formulate the improvements of this constitution are: John McCubbin, Darla Algae, Susie Donoghue, Doug Horsley, Larry Rees, Sylvia Ramsey, Mary Nash Ginn, Dennis Bradley, Peggy Carter, John Walker, Steve Cawood.

Sock-Hop Saturday

KIE is sponsoring a sock-hop tomorrow night following the Morehead-Eastern game. The sock-hop will be in Burnam Hall's recreation room and admission will be $.25 per person.

Are you still wearing those creasy kid slacks?

Get into some wised-up Post-Grads that know where a crease should always be and where it should never be, and how to keep things that way. The reason is the Koratron fabric of 65% Dacron*/35% cotton. No matter how many times you wash and wear these trimly tapered Post-Grad slacks, they'll stay completely neat and make the iron obsolete. In tan, clay, black, navy or loden, $6.98 in poplin or gabardine, $7.98 in oxford. At swinging stores.
