KKS Will Swim 'Over The Rainbow'

Have you ever wondered what you will find on the other side of the rainbow? The Kappa Kappa Sigma synchronized water ballet club will present this magnificent scene to you in their Annual Spring Show—"Just Over the Rainbow".

The pool will be transformed into a forest to help set the background. Color and music will be utilized to suggest the rainbow and beauty in performance. Such numbers as Ruby, Pink Panther, Deep Purple, Lavender Blue and others, leading a play on colors, will make up the entire program.

This week being presented next Thursday through Saturday for the first time in its history, the show will be held in the Alumni Coliseum Pool. The performance will begin at 8 p. m. and cost 50c per person.

Officers of KKS are: May Nash Ginn, president, Ann Howard, vice-president, Trusie Farley, secretary, Linda Huffman, treasurer, Lilly Moore, reporter, Janice Huffman, Student Council representative, Miss Dot Kirkpatrick, member of the Health, Physical Education, and Recreation department, is the sponsor.

Other members are: Nan Dawson, Lynette Turner, Janie Fugate, Judy Safriet, Sandy Underhill, Carolyn Campbell, Anna Marie Seller, Eddie Bell Sheriff, Karen Marx, Karala Brown, Marilyn Jackson, Kathy Colebrook, Bea Fraser, and Hannah Richardson.

Practice Perfects

The club has been practicing stunts, strokes, and form to perfect the upcoming show. They have worked long, hard hours on scenery and costumes to depict and enhance the individual numbers. The show consists of duets, solos, trios, and group swimming with each girl taking part in the natagography of the numbers.

Each year KKS selects four boys to participate in the show. A rigid tryout was held to find the boys with the most capabilities for the stunts which they must perform. This year Gene Pettit, Charles Tandy, Marvin Fisher, and Rick Wood will take part in the program.

Persons interested in auditioning for a role should contact Mr. Joe Johnson at the Pearl Buchanan Theatre if there are any questions. Also, anyone who wishes to work backstage should see Mr. Johnson at the earliest opportunity.

Students, Faculty Work On Student Center Plans

Five students and five faculty members have been selected to serve on a student-faculty committee in planning the proposed two and a half million dollar student center. Representing the student body are Miss Peggy Carter, junior from Versailles; Mr. Vice Hellard, senior from Versailles; Mr. Lin Powell, sophomore from New Castle; Mr. Tom Roark, senior from Hebron; and Miss Betsy Stafford, senior from Ashland.

Mr. John L. Vickers, is chairman of the committee and Dean Henry Martin, Dean Evelyn Bradley, Mr. Larry Martin and Miss Dorothy Kirkpatrick also represent the faculty.

The committee is consulting other schools as resources for ideas in the construction of the center and has, through questionnaires, asked for suggestions and opinions from Eastern students.

The center will be located on the west end of the present football field behind McGregor Hall. The football field will be re-located. It will be connected to the Keen Johnson Student Union Building by a breezeway.

The major food services will be located in the new building and the Student Union Cafeteria will be converted into a grand ballroom where formal dances, buffets or other special events may be held.

No major structural changes are foreseen for the new construction which will serve as the center of recreational facilities for the use of the student body. The building will house a small auditorium, the Student Council Office, meeting rooms for all campus clubs and organizations, and offices of the Milestone and Progress.

Powell commented for the student group, "We hope to be able to provide for Eastern students as beautiful and useful a student center as possible. We're always open to student suggestions. We are aware of the big need for this center and are pleased to be asked to help remedy it."

High School Debaters Hold Regional Here

Sixteen high schools will participate in the annual Regional High School Debate Tournament here Tuesday.

Other speech events are scheduled for Friday, March 26. Superior rating students of both meets will advance to the State Festival to be held on the University of Kentucky campus April 22-24.

Director of the Richmond festival is D. J. Carly. Director of in-service education at Eastern. Schools registered for the competition include: Berea Foundation, Lexington Dunbar, Franklin County, George Rogers Clark, Georgetown, Harrison County, Harrodsburg, and Henry Clay.

Lexington Catholic, Mt. Vernon, Midway-Pinkerton, Nancy, Paris, Somerset, and Woodford County.

August Grads Must File For Degree

All graduate students who expect to complete requirements for the M.A. degree at the close of the summer session should submit application for the degree before the close of this semester. Application may be obtained in the graduate office.

KKS Bedecks Coliseum

Next week this cardboard box and these newspapers will appear to be a bush in the scenery of the annual Kappa Kappa Sigma swim show. Members working on the "bush" are: kneeling from left, Marilyn Jackson and Nan Dawson and standing, Ann Howard, Kathy Colebrook, Judy Safriet, Janie Fugate and Hanna Richardson.

Religious Emphasis Week Features Dorm Sessions

The second annual Religious Emphasis Week will be held on campus beginning Sunday.

The theme this year is "Race, Religion, and Democracy," a topic which sums up many of the problems encountered in the world today.

On Sunday, the different religious groups of the campus will meet for dinner in the Blue Room where Father Mc-Guire of St. Mark's Church in Richmond will give the introductory talk.

At 9:00 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, discussion groups will be held in all dormitories. These discussions will be led by competent men in the different religious fields. Scheduled to lead discussions are: Rev. Joseph Smith who is the Director of Baptist Student Work at Berea College; Lester Palmer, professor at the College of the Bible in Lexington; Rabbi Bernard Schwab at the O'Havey Zion Synagogue; Harold Dörner, Superintendent of the Danville District of Methodist Churches.

Kenneth Doxie, Director of Christian Education at Maxwell Presbyterian Church, Lexington; Rev. David Bronson, professor of the New Testament at the Episcopal Seminary of Kentucky in Lexington; Rev. John Werner, pastor of St. Elizabeth Catholic High School; and Mr. William Duchscherer, Jr. representing the Christian Science Church.

The main speaker, who will address the assembly program next Wednesday is Rev. Olaf Anderson, of the Louisville Presbyterian Seminary. He has been active in the human rights movement and is on the Commission of Rights in Louisville.

Eastern Hosts Anthropologists

Eastern's Behavioral Science Symposium, an organization of students, will act as guides when the third annual meeting of the Anthropologists of Kentucky convene here Saturday, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

R. Dale Givens, assistant professor anthropology and sociology and vice chairman of the ASAK, invited all interested faculty and students to attend the all-day meeting, and to lunch with the group. Lunch tickets at $2.00 are available from Mr. Lathel Duffield, University Building, Room 301.

Following registration in the lobby of the Little Theatre at 9:30 Saturday, the group will be welcomed by Dr. Clyde Orr, Dean of Graduate Studies. Four University of Kentucky faculty members will then present papers, after they are introduced by Cyrus M. Johnson, also of UK. James W. Gladden's paper is titled "Kentucky: An American Model in Marriage and Divorce"; E. Grant Youngmans will offer "Human Aging: Needed Research in Rural Areas"; and Charles O. Carlton and Ronald L. Akers will present "Mental Health Clinic Attendance in Eastern Kentucky."

A coffee break at 11:15 in Walnut Hall will be followed at 11:30 by the second session, a panel on "The Role of Sociology and Anthropology in Teacher Preparation," with John R. Duncan of Morehead State College as chairman. Participants include Klara Cook, UK; Arnild Wright, Kentucky State College; Raymond Wilkie, UK; and James Stermer, Berea College.

The nominating committee meeting at 12:45 will be followed at 1:00 p.m. by luncheon and a business meeting.

The third session offers a panel on "The Social Structure of Touring" by Willis A. Sutton, UK, followed by a panel on "The Place of Research in the Small Department". Panelists include E. Richard Quinney of UK, chairman; Richard Scudden, Georgetown; Mary Harmeling, Villa Madonna; Joseph Mouldous, Easter; and Charles E. Parris, University of Louisville.

The meeting will adjourn after a 4:00 p.m., coffee break.

Danger! Radiation

"Has a silent bomb been dropped on the campus?" "Will all the books be contaminated?" "How will those people get out of the library?"

These and many other curious questions buzzed over the campus Monday afternoon when students passing the library had to walk into the area posted: "DANGER, RADIATION AREA".

Espionage was not the explanation, however. In preparation for the reconstruction and enlarging of the building, the walls were merely being x-rayed in order to determine positions of supporting beams and other information necessary for the planning of construction to be underway this spring.

Citations Awarded 51 Full-Time Students Who Attained Perfect 'A' Standings

Fifty-one full-time students have recorded perfect grade standings for the fall semester, President Robert R. Martin announced today.

In announcing the President's List, Dr. Martin said that these students would receive special citations for their outstanding scholastic achievements.

To be named to the select list a student must have compiled 56 or more quality points in earning a perfect "A" standing. Compiling the highest number of quality points was Glenda L. Taylor, Louisville, who earned 80 quality points based upon 20 hours of credit.

Eastern uses the 1-2-3-4-point system; an A giving four credits; B, three credits; C, two, and D, one.

Other students named to the honor list include: Alice J. Adams, Richmond; Glenna A.

Barksdale, Richmond; Anne A. Bean, Maysville; Wanda C. Bohannon, Shelbyville; Joyce A. Cabral, Lexington; George H. Caudill, Carcrossone, and Sally C. Chesnut, East Bernstadt.

Shirley Clingman, Richmond; Anna R. Cox, Smithfield; Cindy E. Darling, Richmond; Virginia M. Eades, Waco; Sharon J. Foster, New Albany, Indiana; Blanche B. Goins, Richmond; Mary Jo Hart, Richmond, and Margene Hatch, Richmond.

Roberta S. Heeb, Cincinnati, Ohio; Gisela Herdler, Ft. Thomas; Angela F. Hurley, Richmond; Kay M. Jacober, Richmond; Myrena Jennings, Richmond; Beverly J. Keith, Corbin, and Minga Kenamer, Richmond.

John A. Locke, Kettle Island; Terry L. Nelma, Richmond;

Emma Sue Noland, Richmond; Sandra Nunneley, Ashland; Patricia A. Parr, Frankfort; Janice M. Racke, Highland Heights; William A. Raker, Richmond; Blanche E. Reams, Richmond; Lucien M. Ross, Ashland; Lynelle F. Ryan, Walton, and Robert W. Ryan, Verona.

Dr. F. B. Stratemeier Joins Faculty In Fall

Dr. Florence B. Stratemeier, professor of education at Teachers College, Columbia University, and a leading authority in the field of teacher education, will join the Eastern faculty in Sept. as Distinguished Professor of Education.

In naming Dr. Stratemeier a Distinguished Professor, Dr. Robert R. Martin said that this is the first such appointment ever made by the college.

He called her "one of the top women in her field in the nation."

Has Been Here Before

Dr. Stratemeier was a visiting lecturer here last summer when she served in a workshop in Organization and Supervision of Student Teaching.

The veteran educator, who holds the A.B., A.M. and Ph.D. degrees from Columbia University, retires from that institution—Teacher's College—in June after 40 years of distinguished service there.

Dr. Stratemeier will appear on the Eastern campus in another capacity prior to joining the faculty. She is scheduled to head a summer workshop in organization and supervision of student teaching which lasts from July 5 to 23. She has co-authored a text, "Working With Student Teachers."

Influence Far Reaching

Dr. Stratemeier's influence has reached many of today's teacher education faculty members and administrators who studied under her. She served as doctoral advisor for Dixon A. Barr, head of Eastern's Department of Education and Psychology, and for Joseph Howard, professor of education here.

The renowned educator has been a leader in professional teacher education, having been active in the work of the Association for Student Teaching, Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development and the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

Dr. Stratemeier has contributed chapters on curriculum and teaching in teacher education institutions to the book, "Teacher Education for a Free People," published by the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

She is also co-author of "Developing a Curriculum for Modern Living."

Dr. Stratemeier holds honorary doctorates from Trenton State College and Western Michigan University.

Has Held Many Positions

She has served as teacher and assistant principal in the Detroit schools, as instructor and su-

supervisor of student teachers at Detroit Teachers College, and shortly after joining Teachers College at Columbia U., she was co-director of the Bureau of Curriculum and Research.

Dr. Stratemeier is a laureate member of Kappa Delta Pi and a former vice president; she is a member of numerous professional societies, among them the Association for Higher Education of NEA and the American Educational Research Association.

Jim Wombles Vice-Mayor Of Brockton

Mr. Jim Wombles was elected vice-mayor of Brockton at the first official meeting after the election of officers last week.

Other officers named were Mrs. Elaine Taylor, secretary; Mr. Ronald Young, treasurer, and Mr. D. Wayne Bearbow, sergeant-at-arms.

Mr. Young will also serve as reporter and Mr. Judson Cross as chairman of the Constitutional Committee.

It will be the main responsibility of this Brockton governing body to formulate the constitution and by laws for the future and it has been announced that this committee will meet weekly until this is done.

The Brockton Council meets each Tuesday at 8:45 in University 103. The meetings are open to all residents.

A suggestion box will be placed in the Brockton laundry for ideas for the Council or news for the Progress.

Freshmen Judge Assembly Debaters

The negative team, composed of Eugene Gray, freshman from Paris, and Brent Cornelius, senior from Peoples, defeated the affirmative team in a debate judged by some 2,300 freshman at this week's assembly.

Representing the affirmative team were Linda Ward, senior from River, and Kathy DeJarnette, McQuade. The topic debated was "Resolved: that the Federal government should establish a national program of public work for all unemployed."

Both teams comprised the Eastern entry in the Novice division of last month's Berea In-Eastern work.

The unique feature of the assembly was that the freshmen students were the judges. Each student was given a score sheet by his counselor and voted for his choice on the effectiveness of the respective teams from the following criteria: analysis, reasoning, evidence, organization, refutation, and delivery.

Mrs. Aimee Alexander, assistant professor of English and the College debate coach, was presented a certificate naming her a Kentucky Colonel, by Tom Coffey, a veteran member of the debate squad.

Presiding at the assembly were Joe Dunn, president of the Debate Club, with Patricia Schecter, secretary, reading the Bible. Other officers of the Debate Club are: Jay Roberts, vice-president, Kathy DeJarnette, treasurer, and Shirley Green, Student Council representative.

Eastern Gains Membership In National Forensic Society

By NORRIS MILES Assistant News Editor

Eastern has been selected as a new charter member of Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa, which is the National Honorary Forensic Society.

President Robert R. Martin received the official letter of admittance and congratulations from Professor H. L. Ewbank, Jr., Purdue University, who is the national Secretary of DSR-TKA.

The National Honorary Forensics, which is composed of members skilled in oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and discussion in intercollegiate competition, has as its motto "Oratory, the key to power, and Honor for merit."

The Society is organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes which include promoting interest in, and awarding suitable recognition for, excellence in forensics and original speaking, and to foster a respect for and appreciation of freedom of speech as a vital element of democracy.

Criteria for admittance to this elite Society includes for the interested school the meeting of the accreditation requirements of the Association of College Honor Societies.

Qualifications needed by students involve: (1) participation, as a student, at a high level of excellence, in at least two years of intercollegiate (or the equivalent) forensics or original speaking activity, and (2) sponsorship of a campus charter or by a qualified member of the forensics staff, unless the forensics or original speaking activity was commenced in the senior year as an undergraduate, in which case one year of such participation shall be acceptable; (3) the candidates shall have completed at least three semesters or five quarters of college prior to initiation and shall rank scholastically in the upper 35 percent of their college class; and (3) election of any member shall require the recommendation of the faculty sponsor and a major vote of the members of the campus chapter present and voting.

Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha has played an important role in the destiny of college forensics in America. Its influence has permeated deeply the field of speech education in general. DSR-TKA is the oldest society of its kind, and was the first to pursue high standards of proficiency among college orators and debaters and first to regard excellence on the forensics platform with honor and glory. With the merger of the two Honoraries the program is extended and promises to reach greater heights.

"This is quite an honor for Eastern to receive a charter from this Society," comments Mrs. Aimee Alexander, sponsor of the Honorary. Last year only eight out of thirty-three applicants were accepted for membership, which Eastern was one.

In the official letter to President Martin relating Eastern's admittance to the Society, professor Ewbank said that "the existence of a charter from this society acknowledges a strong program, reinforced by academic offerings and administrative support through adequate back-ground and faculty sponsorship of intercollegiate forensics."

Applications are now being screened for members of the Honorary. Twelve students have been recommended. The announcement of selectees will be made the last of March followed by a formal initiation service and installation service, Mrs. Alexander said.

Freshmen Vote Negative

Best novice debaters, who as a team won the Berea Invitational tourney last month, Wednesday split up and argued among themselves in a demonstration debate for the weekly freshman assembly at Eastern. Kathy DeJarnette and Linda Ward, affirmative, were defeated by the negative team, made up of Brent Cornelius, standing, and Eugene Gray.

Hooray

Dean's List Requirements Stiffened

WHEN THE ENTIRE DEAN'S LIST for the fall semester is announced next week it will contain 437 names, compared to 734 last fall, and 858 last spring. This does not indicate a drop in the quality of the Eastern student body, but rather a needed stiffening of the Dean's List requirements.

In a Progress editorial January 8 we asked for more stringent criteria than the 3.0 requirement that was adopted when the College changed from the three to the four-point grading system last year. The 3.0 requirement simply did not allow the Dean's List to retain the prestige it possessed under the old system which required 40 quality points.

We suggested a double standard, either a 3.5 standing, or 60 quality points, as a possible remedy for the over-abundant Dean's List.

The new criterion, 56 quality points, nearly splits the difference of the two facets of our proposal, and after an examination of figures appears to be a satisfactory solution.

A 3.5 standing with 17 hours will produce the required number of quality points, and an increasingly lower point standing is necessary with more semester hours. This places a premium on both quality and quantity, but only if they are found together.

In the last 3.0 rated semester with 40 quality points necessary, 344 made the Dean's List. Last fall's enrollment was about 1,500 more than the mentioned semester, indicating that the 437-member Dean's List of last will represent about the same percentage of the student body.

Congratulations should go out to the members of the Dean's List, but special recognition should, and is, being accorded to the 51 Eastern students who compiled perfect 4.0 standings last fall.

In Eastern's drive for quality education and a quality student body, these are the students who are leading the way. It takes hours of hard work to attain a perfect standing, and they are hours well-spent.

The Bearded Flesh Has Its Perils

(ACP)—Flesh, particularly flesh that wears a beard — is heir to a "thousand natural shocks," reflects the bearded editor of the IVORY TOWER, monthly literary magazine at the University of Minnesota.

When Garrison Kessler was riding back to campus on a bus, a woman and child got on. The child looked at the bearded editor and stared before opening his question.

Child: Is that Jesus?
Mother (turning): No, it's a beatnik.

Says It's Necessary

Governor Explains Bond Issue

(Editor's Note: Following is one installment of "Let's Look it Over," a series written by Governor Edward Breathitt, which explains the necessity of the passage of a bond issue proposal this fall. While the Progress remains bi-partisan in political elections, we have, and will continue to support legislation we feel will benefit the people of Kentucky, for example, President Johnson's aid to education measures.)

FRANKFORT—Any way you look at it, the $176 million bond issue proposal to be submitted to the people of Kentucky for approval in the November 2 general election is a bargain.

It has been tentatively estimated that the State will get a total return of more than $780 million in needed facilities for the $176 million in bonds. That would be better than $8.80 for $2, which is hard to beat.

The 1964 General Assembly bill, authorizing a vote on the issue, says that proceeds from the sale of $139 million worth of the bonds will be used for the construction and reconstruction of highways "wherein there is to be federal cost participation."

The bill provides further that $37 million of the total will be used for the construction and reconstruction of buildings and the purchase of equipment and furnishings of a permanent nature.

It has been estimated that the $139 million for roads would enable the State to match $520 million in Federal funds to build a total of $659 million worth of highways in Kentucky.

With the help of matching funds from Federal and other sources, according to another estimate, the $37 million in bond funds for capital construction would enable the State to obtain $123,750,000 worth of buildings and equipment.

Approval of the bond issue will provide a responsible and compelling solution to some very critical needs of our public agencies and institutions. Its passage will represent a renewed commitment on the part of the people to continue the kind of progress which promises a better life for every Kentuckian and a stronger economy for every community.

One thing I want to emphasize as strongly as possible is that issuance of the bonds will not jeopardize the finances of the Commonwealth.

What some people either overlook or ignore is that borrowing money to finance an existing need is one of the oldest established principles of the free enterprise system. Who becomes horrified, for instance, when a utility company borrows hundreds of millions of dollars for plant improvements? Who objects to United States "Savings Bonds?"

Or, to go a step further, who denies his family a home of its own for 30 years while he saves the money to pay cash—especially when buying a home actually constitutes a long-range savings?

The bond issue will furnish the minimum needed to provide additional facilities for safe and comfortable travel, for the education of our youngsters and enrichment of their lives, for the enjoyment of recreational facilities, for service to the handicapped and the needy, and for a rise in our industrial and agricultural economy.

I am firmly convinced that Kentucky cannot wisely postpone these needed improvements for another 30 years, while she saves money at the rate of a few millions a year, while construction costs continue to increase, and while much of modern progress bypasses her.

In the 1963 gubernatorial election I was given a mandate by the people of Kentucky to lead this state forward, not backward, neither to let it stand still.

That is why, heart and soul, I am for this bond issue. Some people call it "Breathitt's Bond Issue." It's not, but that's all right with me; there will be no cause for me ever to apologize for it. But this idea is still wrong. The issue is to benefit the state and all its people. It's "Kentucky's Bond Issue," and it's the People's Bond Issue.

Much Is Forever

The Art Of Being Different

"Much, much of me is forever . . . caught in you and you and you! . . . Much is scattered in a thousand moments . . . Lived to overflowing in other days . . . I cannot collect my fragments . . . They lurk along the way over which I've come . . . in moments, persons, and things." (Unknown)

It is startling to think that fragments of us are scattered over yesterday, today, and will be scattered over tomorrow as well. We leave a fragment of us wherever we go; a bit of us at home, a part in the classroom, and bits of us in the minds of the people we encounter along the way — a part of us left behind!

Many people are displeased with the fragments that they leave behind. Perhaps you are one of these people. If you are it is not too late to change the nature of the fragments you leave behind. Of course, the first step is wanting to.

Then comes trying to find out what your best self is. Then, and only then can you begin to change these fragments.

Next, after finding the key to your best self, you should try every minute to be just that, your best self. Only you can find this. Then you are ready to share it with others.

The major part of not being one's best self comes from letting petty things get in the way. Of course, this does not mean that petty things are the only things that one has to face and overcome. There will be major things too, which only time and effort can solve; but some people think that searching in bottles and pill boxes for ways with which to fight the daily battle for survival is the answer. Escaping from the pain of a problem does not cause it to vanish into thin air! Eventually you have to face it.

Just remember that there is no big disgrace in failing. A bigger disgrace lies in not getting up to try again. So you can be your best self, or at least a better self. I know — I got up to try again.

At Colleges

Off - Campus Speakers Draw Comment

(Editor's Note: Following the appearance of Mr. Norman Thomas, noted socialist leader, on our campus the Progress received considerable verbal comment about his speech. The following article, taken from our files, gives some indication of the attitudes toward off-campus speakers at a nearby institution, the University of Cincinnati.)

(ACP)—"All hell broke loose," said May, 1963, THE NEWS RECORD of Ohio's University of Cincinnati, when Carl Braden spoke on campus on "The Problems of Integration in the Deep South."

The talk was sponsored by "The Students For Constitutional Freedom," a local campus organization.

Braden was repeatedly heckled by the audience. Most of the heckling concerned his appearance before the Senate Internal Security Committee and his refusal to state whether or not he was a Communist when questioned by this committee. Braden said the purpose of the committee was to prevent white people from speaking in favor of integration.

Braden's appearance on campus made the front pages of both Cincinnati daily newspapers and was featured on radio and TV. The university switchboard was flooded with calls from persons off campus. And the university president accused the sponsoring group's faculty advisor of using "very poor judgement" in allowing the visit.

The president, Dr. Walter C. Langsam, released this statement:

"The University of Cincinnati had a policy on speakers sponsored by student groups which has worked satisfactorily over many years. This has been to allow student organizations to invite outside speakers with the approval of their faculty advisers.

"This occasion is the first time a faculty adviser, in approving this invitation, has shown what, in the view of the administration, is very poor judgement.

"In this instance the sponsoring student group went about arranging for its meeting and speaker so quietly that it did not come to the administration's attention until the day before the speech. Although the administration is as strongly opposed as possible to having a speaker of this type appear on the campus, it seemed better at this late date to allow the meeting to proceed rather than to bar it.

"To forbid on such short notice the appearance of this speaker would serve to make a martyr of him — precisely what he probably would welcome.

"Because the University's policy has, if only this one time, resulted in what we feel is a mistake, the administration will appoint a committee of deans and faculty to review the policy and make proposals for bringing it in line with facts of life as they exist today.

"Having been caught in a bind so late, with no better alternative in view than permitting the meeting to go on, it was yet felt the silver lining might be to see how many of our 21,000 students are interested in hearing such a speaker.

"By actual count there were fewer than 150 at the meeting, including many who came to disagree. The University student body showed splendid patriotism as well as maturity in virtually boycotting the meeting. There were almost as many students protesting at the meeting as pickets as there were in the meeting.

"In these troubled times the University administration and faculty are determined that the University stand loyally for those things which are in the country's best interest.

"In this connection it is interesting to note that the United States Citizens Committee of Cincinnati and the Federal Bureau of Investigation are sponsoring a campus seminar on "Americanism and Com-munistism." THE NEWS RECORD telephoned Braden in Louisville, and obtained this statement:

"I am not particularly upset by heckling as such. I have taken a firm stand for racial integration and for abolishing the House Un-American Activities Committee, so I expect abuse, heckling, jailing and other forms of harassment.

"What disturbs me is the fact that college students take part in the heckling of a speaker. Heckling indicates closed minds, and it is the role of a university to help people to have open minds. In that respect, the University of Cincinnati has at least partly failed.

"One statement by the president of the University shows that he may be somewhat at fault in this situation. He said the faculty adviser showed poor judgement in approving my appearance on campus. If he were devoted to producing open minds at UC, Dr. Langsam would welcome the expression of all ideas on the campus — including those with which he disagreed."

Dr. Louis Harlan, the adviser to the Students for Constitutional Freedom, made this statement:

"It is part of the educational process for students to hear many points of view. From these they can, by reason, by discussion and by inquiry into the facts, determine their own point of view.

"It is only when there are controversial speakers that this educational approach is questioned. But from the educational viewpoint it is the students who are at the center of concern, and I have faith in the capacity of the students at the University of Cincinnati to reach their own intelligent conclusions about controversial matters.

"Interference with their freedom to hear is as serious as interference with the right to speak. Actually, the constitution-at right of free speech is of no real importance unless people have the right to hear.

Indeed, the only practical reason for free speech is so that people may hear. From this viewpoint, a free university in an open society must cherish the expression of dissenting opinions in order that from the sifting and winnowing of conflicting opinions the truth may emerge."

The Students for Constitutional Freedoms released this statement:

"It has been our impression that the function of a faculty advisor is to make available his best considered judgement on an issue, but the ultimate responsibility lies with the students. Students for Constitutional Freedoms decided as a group to invited Mr. Braden. Dr. Harlan, our adviser, should not be held responsible for our actions.

"Notice of the meeting was not given 'so quietly' as to make it a surprise. Posters were distributed widely, and classroom announcements were made from Monday on. (The speech was Thursday.) Notifications were given to THE NEWS RECORD in typed form for the two issues preceding the meeting, but they were not printed for some reason. Publicity was obviously not secretive, for many more people than could be seated appeared at the meeting room, which had chairs for about 100.

"Despite the crowd, which was larger than we anticipated, and some heckling, the meeting was orderly for the most part.

"Because the fundamental principle of a free society is that any viewpoint may be expressed, it can never be unpatriotic to listen to unpopular beliefs. In a university, freedom or access to controversial viewpoints is vital, and the maturity of students is manifested in a willingness to listen and judge for themselves."

THE NEWS RECORD said the SCF did, in fact, give notices to the newspaper, but there was no explanation for why they were not printed in advance of the speech. "Undoubtedly," said an editor's note, "it was partially our fault that the incident occurred. However, we cannot believe that the Administration receives all its information from the NEWS RECORD."

The newspaper pointed out that notices to all faculty members were out on Monday morning and signs were posted around campus on Monday and Tuesday.

The SCF did not intend to "sneak" the man on campus, the newspaper said. Dave Kuhn, president of the organization, was counselor last summer at a camp in New England attended by Braden's son. Braden had given an informative speech at the camp and Kuhn did not anticipate any trouble, the newspaper added.

Kuhn's father is a professor in the University's economics department. The professor, Alfred Kuhn, said in a letter to Dr. Langsam, which the newspaper published:

"All concerned would have appreciated if you had inquired somewhat further into the background on this problem before issuing the statements to the press."

Keith Eastin, a NEWS RECORD columnist, observed in part: "Using Dr. Harlan, faculty adviser for the sponsoring group, as a scapegoat for apologizing for the presence of the speaker on campus was in itself poor taste. If any apology were to be issued, it should have been issued with regard to the discourteous actions of the students toward the speaker—regardless of who it may be."

Another columnist, Pat Reeves, said: "If the area of doubt rests with the administration's fear that a few students may be converted to communism, then it must not have much faith in the students of this campus who, I think, are an erudite group as far as such things are concerned."

State Job Interviews March 25

Eastern students interested in learning more about job opportunities with Kentucky State Government may have their questions answered on Thursday, March 25 when Mr. Richard J. Bell, recruitment officer from the Kentucky Department of Personnel, will be on campus. Mr. Bell will be available all day in the college placement office.

He noted that almost one-third of all job classifications in State Government require college training, and that virtually every college course has some practical application in state offices.

Within the Kentucky State Merit System, which protects covered employees from discriminatory hiring and firing for political, religious, or ethnic reasons, there are some 1,000 job classifications ranging from agriculturalist to x-ray technician. Purpose of the visit is to fill vacancies which exist now or are anticipated during the next few months, and to recruit students for various graduate school stipend programs offered by State agencies. In addition, the State offers advanced training under several in-service training programs.

EELS HOST KENTUCKY INTERCOLLEGIATE SWIMMING AND DIVING CHAMPIONSHIPS

When the Eels host the Seventh Annual Kentucky Intercollegiate Swimming Championship meet today and tomorrow, almost every existing state record should be broken. A comparison of the Eels' best times this year to the state records shows just how good a team Coach Combs has this year.

The 1650 yard freestyle event will be used for the first time so there can be no comparison of times. In the 400 yard medley, the record is 4:11.5 set by Eastern, but this year's relay time has recorded a time of 3:56. Steve Hellman of the University of Kentucky holds the state record in the 200 yard freestyle with a 1:58.3 clocking, but Bill Walker holds the Eastern team record with a 1:53.1 timing.

Charlie Tandy's 23.1 in the 50 yard freestyle better the state record by nine-tenths of a second. In the 200 yard individual medley, Fred Bartlett holds the state record with a 2:16.8 timing, but Walker has a 2:18.5 clocking to his credit.

Hellman holds the 200 yard butterfly event with a 2:15.3 timing, but the Eels' Rick Hill has gone 2:09.2. Another UK swimmer, Richard Wade, may see his .53.1 record time in the 100 yard freestyle fall, because Tandy holds the Eel team record with a .51.2 timing. The record in the 200 yard backstroke should also go, because Dave Williams has a 2:13.4 timing that should top the 2:23.6 state record.

The time in the 500 yard freestyle should really lower the state record. Walker's 5:21.4 timing is a lot lower than Bartlett's 5:42.7 state record. In the 200 yard breaststroke Hill has gone 2:26.8 compared to the record of 2:32.7. Eastern holds the 400 yard freestyle relay record with a 3:40.8 timing. However, this year's team has managed a 3:33 timing.

If the Eels' team records this year compared to state records are any indication of the meet, there should be plenty of excitement and plenty of records broken.

HIGH SCHOOL TOURNEY HELD HERE

The 11th Region High School Basketball Tournament, which began on Wednesday, is being held for the first time in Alumni Coliseum. The first two rounds have already been played. The semi-final round will be played tonight and the finals will be held on Saturday. The tourney will be a fine chance for Eastern students to see Kentucky high school basketball at its best.

SPECTATORS WELCOME AT RIFLE MATCH

Sargeant James Baker, coach of the varsity rifle team, extends a welcome to all students to watch the progress of the National Rifle Association's International Rifle Competition match which will be held tomorrow. The teams competing for honors in addition to Eastern are the University of Kentucky, Ohio State, Southern Illinois, Western, Murray, Xavier, and the University of Louisville.

There will be 65 individual matches starting at 7 a.m. followed by 15 team matches. The awards ceremony is scheduled for 8 p.m. in Alumni Coliseum.

WANTED: TENNIS PLAYERS

Tennis Coach Jack Adams wishes to announce that anyone interested in trying out for the tennis team should contact him. Coach Adams' office is on the ground level floor of the Alumni Coliseum.

De Paul Blasts Maroons In N C A A Opener Demons Hand Eastern School's Worst Defeat

"We were too keyed up, tighter than a drum. We weren't alert and they outdid us in everything."

Those were the words of Eastern Coach Jim Baechtold following Tuesday night's disaster at Bowling Green.

DePaul handed the Maroons their worst defeat in history, 99-52, as the usually hot-shooting Eastern quintet hit a frigid 29.5 per cent in the opening game of the N C A A Midwest Regional at the E. A. Diddle Arena.

The Blue Demons wasted no time in taking control and worked themselves into a comfortable lead, while the Ohio Valley Conference kings looked listless.

Rebounding and scoring were lopsided and passing was not as sharp as it has been. Defensively, Eastern was not up to par.

21 Points For Bodkin

Eddie Bodkin warmed the cold Maroons momentarily late in the first half when he reeled off 10 straight points to close the gap to six points, 37-31. He finished with 21 points to lead the Maroons while Bob Tolman tacked on 11.

At the half, DePaul held a 43-33 advantage.

Dave Mills, 6-foot-10, led the Chicago team with 21 points and Tom Meyer had 20. Eastern hit better than 45 per cent all season but made only 20 of 68 shots in the catastrophe at Bowling Green.

In the rebound department, the Maroons, fifth in the nation, were outdone 48-29. They committed 18 floor errors.

The worst previous Eastern defeat was a 122-78 licking it took at the hands of Western Kentucky in 1954.

Eastern finished with a 19-6 record.

DePaul, which had lost five of seven before its rout of Eastern, faces Southeastern Conference champion Vanderbilt in Lexington.

Dayton squeezed to a 66-65 victory over Ohio University in the first round of the N C A A match. Dayton now goes to the Midwest semifinals Friday night in Lexington against Michigan, No. 1 in the final Eastern Outguns Ohio U.

Eastern's ROTC varsity team defeated Ohio University by 95 points here last Saturday. The score was 1296 to 1201.

The five top shooters were Robert Cornett, senior, 263; David Spratt, junior, 256; and David Elkins, freshman, 256. The other shooters were Bill Rigby, Dale Jackson, Don Bataille, and William Murphy.

Tomorrow Eastern will host the National Rifle Association's International Rifle Competition match.

Swimming Butterfly

Fred Bartlett, a junior from Cleveland, Ohio, who holds eight team records at Eastern, hopes to finish high in the college division of the N C A A meeting in Bloomington, Ill., March 19-20. The Eastern Eels record is now 12-0.

Eels Play Host To State Swimmers

Eastern Kentucky's undefeated swimming team will be shooting for its third straight state title when it hosts the Seventh Annual Kentucky Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Championship meet Friday and Saturday in Alumni Coliseum.

Participating in the two-day meet will be Morehead, Union, the University of Kentucky varsity and freshman teams, the University of Louisville varsity and freshman teams, and the defending champions—Eastern.

Returning to defend his three 1964 K. I. S. C. records will be Steve Hellman, junior swimmer from U. K. He holds records in the 1500 meters (20:00.5), 200-yard free (1:58.3), and the 200-yard butterfly events (2:15.3).

Another member of the Catfish team defending his last year's record will be Richard Wade, who holds the 100-yard free record (53.1) and finished second to Hellman in the 200-yard free.

Fred Zirkle, a sprinter; Tom Ambrose, a breast-stroke specialist, and Bill Davis, butterfly ace, are expected to finish high for the U. K. squad.

Representing Union College's Dolphins will be Bob Long, a classy diver on both the one and three meter boards. Long is considered to be one of the best divers in Kentucky.

To Defend Titles

Eastern swimmers who will be returning to protect their titles are: Fred Bartlett, record holder in the 200 yard (2:16.8) and the 500 free (5:42.7); Tom Baecht, first in the 200 Breast (2:30.5); Phil Stoffey, the winner of the 200 back; Johnny Warren and Charles Parris, who finished first and second in the one meter diving; and Gene Pettit, a member of both the record holding 400-yard medley relay (4:11.5) and the 400 free relay (3:40.8).

Other Eels expected to capture some of the hardware are freshmen Rick Hill, undefeated in collegiate circles; Bill Walker, a powerful distance freestyler, and Dave Williams who is 10 seconds below the 200 backstroke K I A C record.

Charlie Tandy, speedy Eel sprinter, George Dodge, breast-stroker, and Mike Williamson, freestyler and butterflyer, will be in contention in several events.

Eastern Coach Donald Combs, the K I S C meet director, stated, "We expect to see meet with every record being broken—some by as much as 20 seconds. The meet may be closer than expected as U. K. has gained strength this semester and shown consistent improvement."

Both freshmen teams (UK and UL) will add a certain mystery to the outcome as they have not been tested this year. We should be the favorite to win by holding dual meet victories over all the other teams, but we lack depth which is needed for a championship meet. Seconds and thirds will play a big part in who wins the trophy," he said.

Thinclads Compete Mason-Dixon Games

Eastern's thinclads competed in the Mason-Dixon games held in Louisville and took first place in the two-mile relay.

The two-mile relay, composed of Earl Jordan, Bill Swanson, Larry Whalen, and Ron Benson, ran the two miles in 7:38.4, a new record. The old record, 7:48.4, was set by Kentucky State in 1964.

Jordan ran the first leg in 1:56.1 and handed off the baton in second place. Swanson ran a splendid second leg, 1:56.1 and handed the baton to Whalen for a first place position.

Whalen ran the third leg in 1:53.1. As Whalen gave the baton to Benson, Kentucky State shot into the front. Benson ran a great anchor leg and finished ahead of Kentucky State. His time was 1:53.1.

Eastern's best time prior to this was 7:58.6.

In the mile relay, Eastern finished second in Division I with a time of 3:20.9. Harry Faint ran the first leg in 53.2 and Vernon Brooks ran 50.1 in the second. Swanson ran 49.2 in the third leg and Benson ran the anchor leg in 48.4.

This was a thrilling race. Benson came from third place with a handicap of 30 yards to catch the leaders going in to the tape. The fans at the games went wild at Benson's great effort to win.

In the Kentuckian mile, Larry Whalen ran a 4:19 for third place. Bill McAnelly, Brent Arnold, Phil Kamerer, and Jim Beasley all finished fifth.

Rick Dyer took fifth place in the high jump.

Presnell Optimistic About Golf Season

Coach Glenn Presnell is looking forward to a successful spring season. He said it is hoped that the golf team has a season record as good as the one last year which was 10-3-2.

The golf mentor greets five returning lettermen. They are: John Needham, Hendersonville, North Carolina; Don Kittenacker, Covington; Ken Kreutz, Lexington; and Ben Robinson, Richmond. Newcomers to the squad are Jack Good, Gardiner, Maine; Jim Martin and Ron Roby, both Louisville natives; Kenneth Tate, Hazard; and Edwin Luxon, Richmond. Luxon is the Madison County Club champion, where Eastern plays its home matches, and may hold a slight edge over his opponents.

Baseball Team Begins Practice

Eastern's baseball team has started working out in the Weaver Health building during the evening and is getting in condition for this season's games. With the loss of only three boys, the ball team should have a lot of playing experience.

As things stand right now, the same boys that started last year will start this year with just two changes, Larry Williams and Arnold Nylassey. Both of these boys are freshmen and broke into line-up during fall practice.

Coach Hughes said that he has a good pitching staff, but he is looking for some left-handed pitchers. If you are left-handed and can pitch, you could help the ball team out by going to see Coach Hughes.

Here is the starting line-up as of now:

Some of the outstanding reserves are: Eddie Lameier, Jim Whittamore and Cookie Witt. The starting pitching staff consists of Dave Pritch, an all conference pitcher, Glenn Marshall, and Don Snopek. It is awfully early to make any predictions as of yet, but ruling out injuries Coach Hughes is expecting a good season.

Jim Sexton Leads SGP Slate

The third party to announce for Student Council officers' posts in the up-coming election is the Student Government Party, (SGP). Running for the office of treasurer is Riley Thompson, for president is Jim Sexton, for secretary Peggy Carter and for vice-president Mike Campbell.

Third Ticket Enters Student Council Race

The third party to enter the race for officers' positions on the Student Council is the Student Government Party, (SGP), headed by presidential candidate

Jim Sexton, a junior business major from Ashland.

Completing the ticket are Mike Campbell, a junior mathematics major from Louisville, running for vice president; Peggy Carter, junior elementary education major from Versailles, running for secretary; and Riley Thompson, a junior from Danville, majoring in accounting and history, running for treasurer.

The aim of SGP is set forth in the Preamble of the Student Council Constitution. The Preamble reads: "We, the undergraduate students of Eastern Kentucky State College, desiring to foster worthy traditions; encourage high ideals of conduct; promote a richer cultural experience; secure within our institution unity, cooperation, and mutual understanding and respect; and provide a larger opportunity for the practice of democratic principles, do hereby approve and establish this Constitution."

In order that these ideals may be fulfilled, the SGP ticket proposes the following improvements in student government.

I. We advocate the initiation of a Student Cabinet composed of the president of the Student Council, the Student Council officers, and the chairmen of the various committees of the Council. Such a cabinet would serve the president of the Council in an advisory capacity, keeping him constantly informed as to faculty, student, and, or committee requests.

II. We propose that the Student Council assume and fulfill its multi-various responsibilities as a governing body. For example, any requests or recommendations made to the Student Council would be discussed and resolved by open debate as in a true governing body.

III. We advocate that the Student Court be divided into an Upper and Lower court. The upper court will exercise appellate jurisdiction for the student body. The prerogative of the lower court will be to act on traffic violations.

IV. We propose that Eastern's students be represented by precincts to be organized by dormitories on a population basis. The representation would be set up on the basis of one representative per one-hundred students and the total number of representatives from each dormitory would constitute a delegation to the Student Council. By securing the Council representatives from such precincts, we feel that each student on campus will be represented to the fullest extent.

V. We propose that provision be made for the formation and perpetuation of a party system. Although subject to revision and modification, a given platform could be expected to continue from year to year. We feel that this would enhance and improve the quality of student government.

VI. We propose to continue the worthwhile work being done by the present Council administration through its various committees, especially those on food and the proposed formation of a campus tutoring system.

Eastern Heads Up All - OVC

Eastern's Eddie Bodkin and Clem Haskins of Western were unanimous choices for the Ohio Valley Conference All-Star Team, and Eastern coach Jim Baechtold was named "Coach of the Year" in the annual poll of league coaches.

Rounding out the ten man dream team were Stewart Johnson, Murray; Lee Lemos, Eastern; Harold Sergent, Morehead; John Namciu, Murray; Tommy Woods, East Tennessee; Dwight Smith, Western; Henry Akin, Morehead; Charles Wood, Tenn. Tech.

Bodkin and Lemos led Eastern to the conference title. Their teammates—Bill Walton, Dennis Bradley, and Bob Tolan —landed honorable mention. Murray placed two on the balloting, Johnson being near-unanimous and Namciu was sixth man. Smith joined Western teammate Haskins on the team while Morehead also landed two—Sergent and Akin—on the first team.

Haskins, the OVC's most heralded sophomore since Sergent, led the league in scoring with a 24.0 average. He received 34 of a possible 40 points in "Player of the Year" selections.

Baechtold, in his third year at the Maroon helm, directed Eastern to a 13-1 league record and 19-5 over-all mark.

Tennessee Tech's Kenny Sidwell edged Johnny Oldham of Western for runner-up honors on the "Coach of the Year" ballot.

'65 CHEVROLET

These great performers are the lowest priced models at our One-Stop Shopping Center

Top to bottom: Chevy II 100, Corvair 500, Chevelle 300, Chevrolet Biscayne. All 2-door models.

Each of these beauties is the lowest priced in its line. But the ride doesn't show it. Or the interior. Or the performance.

That luxurious Biscayne is as roomy as many expensive cars, has color-keyed interiors, plush vinyls, fine fabrics, full deep-twist carpeting.

Chevelle, America's favorite intermediate-size car, has clean new styling, wide doors, roomy, tasteful interiors and Chevrolet easy-care features.

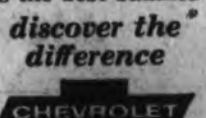

Chevy II got a lot smarter for '65—but stayed sensible! Still family-size, easy to handle, economical, and the lowest priced Chevrolet you can buy.

Or get a sporty rear-engine hardtop in a Corvair Sport Coupe or Sport Sedan for fun in the months ahead.

Chevrolet, Chevelle and Chevy II are available with the Turbo-Thrift Six for fuel economy, quick warmups, quiet idling. It's light, efficient, smooth and spirited.

Corvair's air-cooled rear-mounted Turbo-Air Six delivers the best balance and traction for this size car.

So be practical. Only you will know. Because it sure won't show!

Progress Gets Competition From Russian Paper
 Another newspaper is being published on campus—in Russian, that is—the Progress learned last week.
 It is one of several learning tools used by Dr. Eugenie Woronin's Russian class to add enjoyment to the study.
 A weekly, "more or less," the dittoed publication carries sports, music reviews, puzzles, political news, and the newspaper's usual variety of humor, illustrations, and the like.
 One highlight is a "novel," original work by Dr. Woronin, called "Who Am I?" which in the latest issue was concluded after running as a serial in two earlier issues with the ending (in Russian, of course) "to be continued."
 Begun last October, the Russian-language paper is written and produced by 17 students in Russian 102, a second-term Russian class.
 Second-year Russian will carry these students further in Eastern's first such course offering. The department of foreign languages hopes to offer, perhaps as early as this summer, another beginning Russian course.
 Dr. Woronin, who is a Russian-born physician as well as a linguist, points out that the language is less complex than Latin in its grammar, and far easier than English in its phonetic spelling.
 Trudy Shearer, Jeanette McCauley and Linda F. Lawson, three of Dr. Woronin's students are editors of the publication.

Bryant Counts Votes
 Tabulating votes in the annual Mr. and Miss Popularity and Miss Cheerleader elections is Oliver Bryant, a senior from Mt. Sterling, and chairman of the Student Council election committee. The purpose of the committee is to oversee the legality all inter-campus elections, and tabulate the results of these elections.

Committee Runs Campus Elections
 The election committee of the Student Council supervises all student-centered elections held on campus.
 Among the elections conducted by the committee are the class officer elections held simultaneously with the Miss Eastern Election in the fall semester.
 Perhaps the biggest responsibility of the election committee is conducting the annual Student Council officers election. This committee, headed by Oliver Bryant, Mt. Sterling senior, makes all the rules pertaining to the election, campaigning, and vote tabulation. The committee also decides on the eligibility of candidates running for office.
 A new duty assigned to the election committee this spring was the supervision of the Brockton self-government election.
 In addition to these elections, they oversee and count votes in the election of Mr. and Miss Popularity, and Miss Cheerleader.
 Student Council representatives who participate in the functions of this committee are: Peggy Carter, junior from Versailles; John Wade, a graduate student from Louisville; and Shirley Green.

Tharp Elected Top Cadet

Cadet John R. Tharp, sophomore from Wilmington, Ohio, has been selected as this week's Cadet of the Week.
 The military science department selected Tharp, a representative of B Company, on the basis of his knowledge of the manual of arms, drill maneuvers, the chain of command, and current events.
 Tharp is a physical education major and was graduated from Wilmington Senior High School. He is the son of Mrs. Cleo R. Tharp, also of Wilmington.
