DEAN W. J. MOORE

DR. P. M. GRISE

MISS RUBY RUSH

Three Faculty Members Retire

Three members of the Eastern Faculty, including one department head, the academic dean, and Model teacher, will retire at the end of this school year after more than a century of service to the College.

They are: Dr. William J. Moore, dean of academic affairs; Dr. P. M. Grise, head of the department of English; and Miss Ruby Rush, Latin teacher in Model Laboratory School. They all will reach the mandatory retirement age of 70 this year, and their retirement becomes effective July 1.

Dean Moore joined the Eastern Faculty in 1928 and taught in the commerce department until he became dean of the Faculty in 1945. He first came to Eastern in 1913 as a student.

He has served on scores of educational committees and groups and presently is chairman of the advisory committee of Teacher Education to the Council on Public Higher Education. Listed in Who's Who, Dr. Moore is a member of many professional and social fraternities, including: N.E.A., K.E.A., Kentucky Academy of Science, American Economic Association, National Tax Association, American Society of Public Administration, Masonic Lodge, Phi Delta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, Phi Delta Pi, Pi Omega Pi, and Square and Compass.

The Owsley County native received the B.A., A.M., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Kentucky and has done post-doctorate work both at U.K. and at the University of Chicago. He also studied law at the University of Kentucky.

Dr. Grise has served on the Eastern faculty for over thirty-five years. He has been head of the English Department since 1964. Under his leadership the department has grown from 950 students to more than 4,000 and the teaching staff has increased from 11 to 34 during this same period.

He earned the A.B. degree from Western Kentucky State College; the M.A. degree from Peabody College; and the Ph.D. degree from the University of Kentucky. He is a member of both the National Council and Kentucky Council for Teachers of English, K.E.A., N.E.A., C.K.E.A., the American Association of University Professors, College Conference on Composition and Communications, and Phi Delta Kappa.

Miss Rush joined the faculty of the Eastern Laboratory School in 1926 and served continuously until December, 1964, when she was given a terminal leave because of poor health.

She received the A.B. degree in English and Latin from the University of Kentucky and the M.A. degree from Columbia University. She is a member of K.E.A. and N.E.A.

Dr. Moore Calls For Changes

"Drastic changes must be made on many American college campuses if the widespread unrest is to improve," Dr. W. J. Moore, dean of the faculty at Eastern, said as he addressed the weekly assembly.

Speaking to the Eastern student body in Hiram Brock Auditorium, Dr. Moore attributed this unrest to the fact that many institutions are de-emphasizing the importance of good teaching, concentrating heavily on research, graduate education, and a high degree of specialization, and to the anxiety to get into a profession as fast as possible.

He said, "There is evidence of widespread unrest on many American college campuses, and I have a strong suspicion that it will not get any better until some drastic changes are made on these campuses."

Dr. Moore suggested four solutions to this problem: (1) emphasize the development of man, (2) provide a good general and liberal education, (3) emphasize, reward, and expect good teaching, and (4) encourage the development of students.

Dean Moore, who joined the Eastern faculty in 1928 and became dean of the faculty in 1945, will retire from the institution July 1.

Continuing, Dr. Moore said that the prime purpose of an institution should be to develop men — men of character and intelligence and men who have an understanding and appreciation of the heritage of their civilization.

Quoting from John Stuart Mill, Dr. Moore said, "Men are men before they are lawyers, or physicians, or merchants, or manufacturers, and if you make them capable and sensible men, they will make themselves capable and sensible lawyers or physicians."

"Men may be competent lawyers without general education," he quoted, "but it depends on general education to make them philosophic lawyers."

He told the group of more than 2,000 students and faculty that "we in America have largely lost sight of academic freedom of the student, and it is high time it be restored to our academic pattern, if our universities are not to become advanced preparatory schools."

Parts Filled In Season's Last Play

Eastern Little Theatre will present "The Fantasticks" as its last major production of the 1964-65 school year. The play, a musical by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt, will be presented May 10-15 at 8 p.m. in the Pearl Buchanan Theatre.

"The Fantasticks," based on Edmond Rostand's "The Romançers," opened off-Broadway May 3, 1960 and is still running. Since that time it has become America's most-produced musical and acquired an international reputation.

In auditions held recently, the following people won parts in the play: the narrator, Jerry Smith, Frankfort; the mute, Suzanne Ankrum, Mt. Sterling; the girl, Fonda McAllister, Louisville; the boy, John Curran, Harrodsburg; the girl's father, Al Allison, Harrodsburg; the boy's father, Dave Bond, Versailles; the old actor, Bill Peyton, West Liberty; and the man who dies, Gordon Jennings, Covington.

The production is directed by Mr. Joe M. Johnson, and musical direction is by Mrs. Blanche Seever. Accompanist is Sharon Tudor, assistant director is Jeni Marcum, and stage manager is George Proctor.

Tickets for the play will go on sale in two weeks. Prices are fifty cents for students and seventy-five cents for others. All seats are reserved.

Seniors Planning Banquet

The Senior Class Banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m., Saturday, May 8, at the Imperial House in Lexington. All seniors are eligible to attend. Dr. Charles Ross will be the main speaker.

In order to make proper arrangements, it will be necessary for the Senior Class officers to know the exact number of persons planning to attend. For this reason, although to banquet is tentatively free to all seniors, they must purchase tickets during the week of April 19 to 23 in the grill. These tickets will cost $2.00. Tickets costing $4.00 must be obtained for all persons who are not seniors and will be going as the dates of seniors. Tickets will bear the names of the owners, and they will be collected at the door.

Depending upon the number of seniors attending the banquet, the $2.00 for the ticket will either be refunded or a portion of it may be retained to cover expenses.

Dick Clark's Roaming Caravan Of Stars Will Perform In Alumni Coliseum

DICK CLARK

Fifteen Acts Highlight Appearance May 4

Little Anthony and the Imperials, Bobby Vee, Freddy Cannon, The Hondells, and 11 other acts will accompany television personality, Dick Clark to Eastern for a show Tuesday, May 4, at 8 p.m. in Alumni Coliseum.

Clark became known to young people across the country in the mid 1950s and has introduced most of the popular recording artists to them on his television dance show, American Bandstand, which comes out of Philadelphia, Pa.

The 15-act program will also feature Jewell Akens, Round Robin, Myron Lee, George McCannon III, the Dixie Cups, Brenda Holloway, and Reparata and the Delrons.

Admission to the program will be $1.50 in advance; $2.00 at the door. Tickets will be on sale at the cashier's window of the Business Office, the bookstore, the Colonel Drive-In, Jerry's Drive-In, and Hinkle's Drug Store.

Packed Western
Last year the group played to a packed audience of 8,500 at Western Kentucky State College, and they regularly fill such arenas across the country.

Clark's newest discovery among this group of young stars is George McCannon III. Recently traveling with the 1964 Summer Caravan of Stars, he performed not only as a singer but as a master of ceremonies. He has signed a new recording contract with Musicor Records, and in collaboration with Gene Pitney has recorded three new discs, two of which were written and produced for him by Pitney.

The Hondells, brought to the top fifty with their recording of "Little Honda," originated in Southern California. Their first album, "Go Little Honda" is picked nationally as a multi-million-seller.

Vee Has List Of Hits
"Susie Baby" was the record that launched Bobby Vee, one of the nation's top-recording artists, into a successful career in popular music. Since then, he has added to his list of hits: "Devil or Angels," "More Than I Can Say," "Staying In," "Rubber Ball," "How Many Tears," and "Take Care of My Baby."

Prom, Buffet Set For Juniors, Seniors

The annual social activities given for the Senior Class by the Juniors have been set for Friday, April 30.

The first part of the activities will consist of a buffet, which will occur from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Friday afternoon in the Student Union Building. Dress for this particular event should not be too casual; ladies wear your heels; and fellows, wear your ties.

Tickets for the buffet will be available for all juniors, seniors, and faculty members in front of the SUB grill and near the cashier's office in the basement of the Administration Building beginning Monday, April 18. These tickets will cost $1.00 in advance and $1.25 at the door.

If any juniors or seniors were not classified correctly on last fall's IBM cards, those persons should contact one of the junior class officers or class sponsors in order to obtain tickets.

The Junior-Senior Prom will begin at 9:00 p.m. of that same evening and last until 1:00 a.m. It will also take place in the Student Union Building. The Junior Class will serve as hosts to the Senior Class.

Juniors, seniors, and faculty members will be admitted to the dance by showing the invitations which are now being sent to all those eligible to attend.

During the evening a Prom, King and Queen will be crowned. They will be elected by the Junior and Senior Classes in a popular election to be held Thursday, April 22, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in front of the grill.

Oriental decorations are to be used for the Prom. Decorating will be done on the Thursday night preceding the Prom. All juniors are invited to lend a hand in this task.

Col. Hatch Appointed Director Of Housing

Col. Alden O. Hatch, former professor of military science, will become Eastern's new director of housing, effective Sept. 1.

Hatch, who retired from the Army in 1960, will continue as director of Richmond's PAC infirmary until he assumes his new post.

President Robert R. Martin made the announcement Tuesday after telling of the resignation of Col. Samuel Allen, also a retired military colonel, who leaves the post at Eastern to accept another position.

Col. Hatch's appointment is effective June 1, when Allen terminates his service at the college.

In making the announcement, Dr. Martin complimented both men.

"Col. Allen has been a capable administrator in administering the largest housing complex of any college in the state," he said. There presently are 3,968 students residing on the Eastern campus and 720 new units are now under construction.

Of Col. Hatch, Dr. Martin said, "I'm convinced that Col. Hatch's abilities as an administrator equip him in a very unique way for this position."

Col. Hatch, whose distinguished military career began in 1933 when he earned a commission from the University of Utah, was named administrator of the Pattie A. Clay on Feb. 9, 1960, by the hospital board. He assumed duties there Nov. 1 of the day following his retirement from the U. S. Army.

Dianne Hendricks Flies To Finals

Dianne Hendricks, one of five finalists in the Miss Cheerleader USA Contest, leaves today for the competition to be held in Cyprus Gardens, Fla.

Chosen as one of the five finalists from colleges and universities from across the United States for the national competition, she and the other four coeds will meet in Atlanta, Ga., Friday for a press conference and then travel to Winter Haven, Fla.

Their two-day agenda will include pictures, rehearsals, water skiing, a dinner, an informal dance, workshop services, and the final competition.

The winner of the contest will appear on a national TV show.

The cheerleader recognition is not the only top honor Miss Hendricks has won. Earlier this year, Miss Hendricks was chosen Miss Eastern and the college's representative in the Mountain Laurel Festival to be held in Pineville this May.

Down The Hatch

Miss Judy McNulty, junior from Cincinnati, tosses a piece of paper where it belongs, in one of the new campus trash cans installed as part of a Spring clean-up campaign being waged both at Eastern and in Richmond.

Applications Due For Experiment

Students interested in making application for the Student Council sponsored Experiment in International Living are requested to submit applications as soon as possible.

Application forms, as well as additional information concerning the Experiment, may be obtained from any officer of the Student Council, or in the Council office in the Student Union Building.

Registration Cards Deadline Advanced

Due to the Spring Vacation the deadline has been advanced one week to turn in registration cards.

The cards must be returned to the office of the Registrar before Thursday informing the Registrar's office of the students intentions for summer school and fall semester next year.

Students registering at Eastern must have a registration packet prepared in advance. To determine the number of packets to be prepared each student is requested to complete the registration intention cards. Failure to do so will cause a delay in registration.

Two Choirs To Sing

The College Concert Choir and Chamber Choir, conducted by Thomas Lancaster, will present a concert next Sunday at 8 p.m. in Hiram Brock Auditorium.

Featured soloists for the Eastern performance will be Mrs. Mary A. Wright, soprano of the college faculty; Jay Wilkey, tenor from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary faculty, and Donald Henrickson, baritone, also of the Eastern faculty.

Selections for the concert will include music of Gasparini, Brahms, Kodaly, and Tsch. Beethoven's "Elegischer Gesang," Opus 118 and J. S. Bach's "Cantata 61" will be presented. The Bach and Beethoven works will be accompanied by members of the Eastern Symphony Orchestra.

Togetherness?

Joan Yates and Martin Sarnar gave each other moral support as they each donated a pint of blood in yesterday's blood mobile drive. Sponsored by the Registered Nurses of Richmond and the Student Council, 218 pints of blood were collected

Military Ball Scheduled

The 27th annual Military Ball has been set for next Saturday night, 8:30 to 12:30 in the Student Union Building.

This dance is sponsored by the ROTC Department and organized by the Association of the United States Army (AUSA). Dress for the dance is formal. In order for cadets and their dates to be admitted, the cadets must appear in their uniform. Special invitations are being sent to faculty members, the presidents of campus organizations, and outstanding dignitaries.

During the evening Queen Athena will be crowned. The candidates for queen are Sandy Underhill Pemberton, Patsy Taubee, Paula Bunton, Kathy Hamm, Jean Lane, Carol Fritz, and Jeannie Gayle Ashe. ### Campus Clean-up A Student Responsibility

THE NEW TRASH CANS that Eastern students saw for the first time when they returned from Spring break are part of a "Clean-Up Campaign" that is currently underway in Richmond and on our campus.

Spring is traditionally a clean-up period, and this year, it seems, there is more to be cleaned-up than is usually the case.

Mr. Chester Luxon, Mayor of Richmond, has asked that Eastern students be reminded of their part in keeping the city neat and clean. Part of the city drive includes the placing of litter baskets on all the streets and "clean-up" poster contests at local high schools.

Eastern has assumed responsibility for the entire campus and all streets that run adjacent to the campus as part of this drive, but Eastern responsibility runs much deeper.

On campus the Eastern student is almost solely responsible for cleanliness, and with the new trash cans the fulfillment of this duty is even easier. The maintenance department works long hours to insure a beautiful campus, but a deluge of scrap paper, cups, and cigarette packs often makes the campus look like it's suffering a "dandruff day."

The Eastern student may ask, "How is it my responsibility to keep Richmond clean, I don't live here?" But, for nine months of the year, eleven in some cases, we do live here and it is easy to see that the Eastern student presents a bigger litter hazard than the average local citizen.

The preponderance of trash to be seen cluttering the Richmond streets consists of paper cups from drive-in restaurants, cigarette packs and general refuse piled up in front of homes.

As far as leaf piles and such other eyesores are concerned, there is nothing the Eastern student can do, but as far as the other things go, there is.

It seems logical that the student body composes far and away the bulk of local restaurant patronage, and just as probably is to blame for a large portion of the litter that bespeaks Richmond.

Only a minimum of effort is required to put trash where it belongs. In fact, it really constitutes the breaking the habit of flipping the empty drink cup out a car window or dropping it at your feet while walking.

SPRING: ALSO A TIME FOR CLEAN-UP!

'Communist Target-Youth'

Writer Paints DuBois Clubs Pink

By REV. AUGUST W. BRUSTAT, PH.D.
Christian Economics

After the San Francisco riots in May 1960, the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) issued a report by F.B.I. Director J. Edgar Hoover entitled: "Communist Target — Youth." In it Mr. Hoover outlined the Communist infiltration and agitation tactics directed at youth.

The complete accuracy of the knowledgeable Hoover's diagnosis of Communist activity among the youth of America and the world is evidenced by the continuously recurring demonstrations which youth has since staged and is staging everywhere.

Communist leaders have in recent months been welcomed to college campuses and are credited with having addressed a million college students during the last year.

Since the HCUA publication of the Hoover Report, a new Socialist-Marxist youth organization has reared its ugly head, triggered at our college youth. Named after the late nonagenarian Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, who died as a Communist in Ghana in 1963, one of the founders of the NAACP in 1909, recipient of the Soviet Union's Lenin Peace Prize in 1959, and husband of Communist-Fronter Shirley Graham, the organization is growing like a meteor.

Robert Heisler, 19, misguided youth leader of the New York clubs and statewide coordinator, is quoted as saying: "We believe in social action. We are for jobs for young people at trade union wages. We believe the government should take the social responsibility for education."

We advocate denying aid to all segregated institutions. We are strictly a socialist organization, willing to accept Communists. We believe some things the Democrats believe in too. Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities." And he emphasized the fact that their goal is the foundation of a "Socialist Order."

Some thirty clubs are already functioning across the country and rapid expansion is predicted. In the metropolitan New York area clubs have already been organized at City College of New York, Hunter, and Brooklyn College.

Director J. Edgar Hoover branded the movement as a Marxist group, spawned by the Communist Party of the U.S.A. The DuBois Clubs represent another phase of the stepped-up Communist movement directed against America's youth.

There are those, of course, who argue that youth should hear both sides of a question, and therefore they should also hear the enemy's side. But these advocates fail to realize that youth in the late teen-age and early twenties group invariably passes through a mental stage of questioning doubt.

The doubt is usually directed against all traditional concepts such as politics, morality, and includes religion. This argument is as valid as to suggest that churches should invite atheists into their pulpits to enable them to present their story of atheism, and then permit the membership to decide whether to believe in God or not. Such reasoning is the reasoning of the madhouse.

Rather, inexperienced youth needs directive guidance which will solidify and stabilize the basic principles they have been taught at home and in church. Immaturity and inexperience is often incapable of considerate judgement in vitally important matters which affect life, and therefore needs wise counsel, and positive educational direction.

Scripture suggests: "Train up a child in the way he should go." And contrary to the educational process of permissiveness, it suggests that "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."

The DuBois clubs and similar socialistic and Communist organizations on college campuses represent another nail hammered into the Communist-planned coffin for America.

Condemns Sloppiness

Paper Endorses Dress Code

(ACP) — Enforcement of year-old dress rules in University of Delaware dining halls resulted in a rash of student criticism.

The DELAWARE REVIEW commented:

Colleges should have no need for dress regulations. Individuals on the college level hopefully have developed enough good taste to know how to dress properly.

At this university, however, students come to meals in sweat shirts and dirty jeans, go to see administrative officials unshaven and without coats and ties. They excuse themselves by saying that each person has a right to dress as he pleases. After all, so the argument goes, "If you can't have freedom at a university, where can you?"

A university represents the acme of human knowledge. The propagation of that knowledge in effect demands a rigid conformity to which few object. But when demands are made of students to conform only slightly to widely accepted social standards, they become rebellious and scream "individuality."

They hide behind the cry of non-conformity and are either too lazy or crude to care about their appearance. In such cases a few students degrade the whole student body and it becomes necessary for controlling bodies to step in.

A year ago the Student Government Assn. did step in and after lengthy study presented a set of regulations which were approved by the Senate.

No response came from the campus—because the regulations were not enforced. This semester an enforcement clause was added. Students who came to meals improperly dressed would receive a warning letter explaining that their meal tickets begin to complain.

The apparent lack of personal dress standards on campus made student government action necessary. Such minimal requirements are hardly an infringement of individuality.

Letters To The Editor Of The Progress

To the Editor of the Progress:

I should certainly like to express my thanks for the fine manner in which the swimming team news has been handled in the Progress. I hope that you will convey my thanks to your staff for a job well done not only on sports news but the paper overall. Particularly I would like to commend Roy Watson for his fine copy work.

Not only is the paper a great source of satisfaction to the men on the team now but we use it regularly in our recruiting material. It has certainly proved effective for me as prospective swimmers have been very much impressed with the coverage of all sports, and not just football and basketball as happens so often at other schools.

Would Do It Again

Marriage: Its Complications For The Student

By DORETHA BELLEW

Would today's married college students still get married if they had a chance to do it all over again? This question was unanimously answered "yes" by the twenty-one students interviewed for this article. Although there are many problems, these students prefer marriage to being single.

Many problems arise when one attempts to attend a college, maintain a home, and earn a living at the same time.

One of the most common complaints of college couples is the lack of adequate time to get things done. They have to crowd so much into a day that they really must push themselves to complete everything.

One young co-ed says, "After classes, I come home to an evening of cooking supper, washing dishes, and cleaning the apartment. I've learned to combine my studying with other necessary tasks, such as writing a theme while waiting for my clothes to dry at the laundromat."

One young mother of two children said, "I wash dishes one time each day. Household chores usually go undone until the weekend rolls around."

The list of chores facing the married co-ed when she comes home from a day of classes is practically endless. She is heavily submerged in ironing clothes, planning the budget, picking up after her husband, cooking meals, washing dozens of dishes weekly, cleaning out drawers, setting out the garbage can, finding time to make her husband's favorite dessert, plus trying to look fresh and attractive when he gets home.

Besides these chores of the ordinary housewife, she also faces the usual college student's problems — doing homework, going to the library, writing a research paper, and studying for tests.

Not Enough Hours

One college wife sums up the situation when she says, "There simply aren't enough hours in a day to do everything that needs to be done."

Another important problem facing the married college couple is that of having enough money to stay in college and maintain a home at the same time.

In most families, either the husband or wife works full time to keep the other partner in college. Often the member attending classes has a part time job as well.

Some students attend college by obtaining U.S. Government Defense Loans. Others borrow money and repay it after graduation. But most of them still have part time jobs.

One young husband says, "We budget nearly every cent that we spend, because we have to. After the first few months of living strictly by a budget, we have found that it really isn't too hard to stick to it."

A wife has this to say: "I stretch my grocery dollar just as far as it will possibly go. But we still have good meals, even if they are economical."

Children Offer Extra Problems

Parents of young children have extra complications. One mother says, "I feel that I am neglecting my family if I spend too much time on my studies, but I also feel that I am neglecting my studies when I spend too much time with my children. It is hard to give adequate time to each of them."

A father says, "I have a hard time trying to study and still give my children all the time they deserve. It's just as important for me to be a good father to them as it is for me to get an education."

Many couples with young children attend classes on the shift basis. Either the husband or the wife stays at home with the children while the other one attends classes. Later they change places.

Couples sometimes take turns babysitting for each family's children while the parents get an occasional night out. "It usually comes out even," says one young mother. "We all babysit nearly the same number of times."

Three Categories

Married students at Eastern fall into one of three groups: those who live in Brockton or in town, those who commute daily from their homes, and those who live in the dormitories while their spouses remain at home. Each of these groups has its own particular problems, but they also share many common problems.

Asked what he thinks about professional opinions on the inadvisability of college marriages, one young husband says, "Sure there are problems — and lots of them. But aren't there problems in almost everything people try to do?"

Another husband has a similar answer. "There are plenty of problems. You simply have to face them squarely and overcome them if possible."

Perhaps this statement simplifies the determination that makes both a college marriage and a college career successful, and causes married students to admit that they would do it all over again if they had a chance.

Four Mile Relay

A new track event at Eastern is drawing considerable attention to Coach Connie Smith's thinclads, who started their dual-meet schedule yesterday against Union College in Richmond. Members of the two-mile relay team, who set a new Mason-Dixon Games record with a 7:38.4 last month, are, from left: Bill Swanson, Larry Whalen, Ron Benson, and Earl Jordan. Track and Field magazine listed the Maroon team as the 12th ranking indoor two-mile relay outfit.

Baseballers Take Berea In Double

The baseballers started their spring vacation off right with a sweep of a double-header with Berea. The scores were 2-0 and 2-1. They then took it on the chin 10-0 from Lincoln Memorial. The roof fell in as they played Georgia Southern in a three-game series. Southern swept the series by the scores of 6-2, 17-0, and 7-1. The trip to Carson-Newman was just as unpleasant as they lost 6-3.

The OVC games started off just as bad as East Tennessee edged out a 2-1 decision, but the Maroons bested them in the second game 9-1. The rematch with the University of Kentucky turned out to be a "real pitchers' duel," as UK won 13-12.
Ron Pinsenschaum and Ron Chasteen share the honors for the highest batting average. Both are hitting at a .324 clip. Chasteen also leads in RBI's with 11. Larry Williams holds the top spot in home runs with 2.
In the pitching department Eddie Buckner has the lowest earned run average with a 1.18 mark, while John Carr is close behind with 1.76. Dave Price, an all-conference hurler last year, leads the team in victories with a 2-0 record.

Daly Resigns Coaching Spot

Don Daly, former Little All-America football star and present backfield coach at Eastern, has resigned to accept a position as head football coach and athletic director at Dade City, Fla., High School.

He will begin his new duties at Dade City this fall.

Daly, who helped to re-write the record books while starring on the gridiron here in 1951-55, still holds several Eastern grid records. His 97-yard touchdown run from scrimmage against Morehead his freshman year is the longest on record. He also still holds records for the most carries from scrimmage in one season (110) and most yards gained rushing (699).

An All-State halfback at Covington Holmes High School, Daly earned four varsity letters in college football. He co-captained the 1954 Maroons, champions of the Ohio Valley Conference, to an undefeated season and a trip to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

He was selected captain of the All-OVC team in 1954.

The solidly-built blond had several track records here. His 9.8 clocking in the 100-yard dash stood until 1963 when two of his track students ran 9.7 dashes. Daly has coached the Maroon track team since 1962.

Upon graduating from Eastern in 1955, Daly served two years in the Marine Corps as a lieutenant. In 1956, as a halfback, was named to the All-Marine Corps first team.

He coached for two years at Dayton, Ohio, Roosevelt High School, serving as an assistant to former Eastern star, Ray Pelfry, before returning to his Alma Mater in 1960.

While serving as head track coach, his thinclads compiled excellent records against some of the South's top teams. His Maroons grabbed one second-place finish in the OVC and two third places.

Daly is married to the former Phyllis Kinzer, and they have two children. His hobbies are chess, tennis, and all sports.

Second place went to the Sullivan Hall Champ, Pam Oliver. Diane Terry, Burnam Hall placed third, while Sharon Moster, McGregor, finished fourth.

Diamondmen Take On Anderson

Tomorrow they will engage the University of Cincinnati in a doubleheader starting at 1:30. Morehead will be here for a double-header on Tuesday. The game will start at 1:30. On Thursday Xavier University will invade our campus to play an originally scheduled-out game.

The golf team will have a match this week with Bowling Green University which will

In the world of track the thinclads will have their hands full when they meet Kentucky State tomorrow. This meet will start at 1:30 and should prove to be a good one. Then on Tuesday, Rio Grande College of Ohio will be here for a dual meet. This meet will start at 3:30 p.m.

Meade Star Visits

Alvin Ratliff, left, Meade Memorial basketball star, and his coach, Wendell Wallen, right, chat with Coach Jim Baechtold, during a visit to the campus this week. Baechtold has offered Ratliff a basketball grant-in-aid and hopes the 6-5 Meade star will cast his lot with the Maroons. Says Baechtold, "Alvin will fit into our program beautifully. He's a fine player and an equally fine young man. We want people like Alvin associated with our program."
