Commissioner's Message

With the 1956-57 basketball season well under way, it appears that all areas of the state have their quota of outstanding teams this year. For many years now Kentucky has produced an annual crop of fine basketball players. After graduating from high school these boys have gone on to win acclaim in collegiate and professional ranks. Kentuckians thrill to their many achievements in this state and elsewhere in the nation.

What can the administrator and coach do to make this current season a better one, to make the sports program follow educational objectives, to see to it that the basketball game in which their team takes part is a contest of friendly competition rather than a war between enemies? Most of our school men know the answer to this question and act accordingly. A few may be like the farmer who refused to go to the Farm Bureau meeting and listen to a lecture on better farming methods, saying that he already knew more good farming methods than he was putting to practice.

This season has been a comparatively quiet one to date, but pressures will begin to mount as tournament time approaches. There are four or five areas of potential trouble which might be explored briefly.

Most of our administrators and coaches realize that one or more officers of the law should be present at all athletic contests. This is implied under the provisions of By-Law 17. Well policed games in Kentucky are now the rule rather than the exception. However, some of our schools are not providing peace officers at their home contests. They are running a great risk by their failure to do this.

Some of our school officials are careless in the matter of compliance with By-Law 23 with respect to agreement on officials. Officials for any contest are to be agreed upon at least ten days before the contest. No coach likes to take his team on the floor and find out for the first time the names of the persons who will call the game. He is entitled to consideration in the selection of officials, and he should extend the same courtesy when the situation is reversed.

The home principal should be alert in the matter of reporting disqualifications to the Commissioner's office. By-Law 7, Section 2, says: "When an official disqualifies a player, he shall report the name of the player to this (home) principal." The official sometimes fails to see the home principal, making his report direct to the State Office. This is satisfactory, although it is not necessary that the official report to the Commissioner unless he thinks that a violation of By-Law 17 might be involved. It is importnt that the home principal know about the disqualification.

Many of our principals and coaches take a dim view of transfers late in the season, and rightly so. K.H.S.A.A. By-Law 8, Section 1, says: "Any person who is a first team player on one secondary school team shall be ineligible to represent any other secondary school for the remainder of the season in that sport, even though his parents move to the school district in which the school to which he transfers is located The provisions of the first sentence of this section may be waived by the Commissioner in any case where there is evident injustice." As soon as a first team player transfers from School A to School B the principal of School B should send immediately to the principal of School A a K.H.S.A.A. transfer blank. If the player does not enroll in School B, after his parents have moved to this district, but merely inquires about his possible eligibility at School B, the principal of School B should call or write the other principal, asking if he knows of any reason for the Commissioner not being requested to waive the penalty of By-Law 8, Section 1. It is the opinion of the Commissioner that most principals are very fair in requesting that transfer students be declared eligible at School B if they are convinced that the moves are bona fide ones and no undue influence is involved.

Many arguments occur late in the season concerning the adding of names to preliminary and final tournament lists. Tournament

"Approved" and "Certified" Officials

One hundred thirty-five basketball officials have qualified for the "Certified" rating this year, and forty-four have received the "Approved" rating. The latter rating does not carry forward from year to year, but must be earned each year. After an official has received the "Certified" rating, he keeps this rating by clinic attendance. Only officials receiving these higher ratings are eligible to work in the regional tournaments. Only "Certified" officials, who are residents of Kentucky, are eligible to work in the State Tournament.

Basketball officials who qualified for advanced ratings during the current season are as follows:

The Flying Dutchman

Here's a state-wide study of fees paid basketball officials throughout Kentucky which will prove interesting. The Dutchman failed to receive reports from Regions 9, 11, 12, 13 and 15, but here's the dope on the others.

Region 1 pays its happy arbiters $12.50 to $15.00, with nearly all officials being required to work both varsity and junior varsity games; in Region 2 it is $10.00 to $12.50 for one game and $12.50 to $15.00 for two, with a few schools going as high as $18,00; Region 3 finds officials averaging $12.50 for a singleton and $15.00 for a double; Region 4 reveals that if a whistler works one game. he gets $12.50, and the same if he works two; in Region 5, officials are generally required to work two games and are sent home richer by $12.50 to $15.00; In Region 6 the boys get fifteen bucks if they work one and the same if they work two: Region 7 finds the metropolitan area of Louisville chipping in $15.00 to $20.00 for one game, while it is $15.00 in the surrounding county area (the officials working junior varsity games usually take home from $5.00 to $8.00); Region 8 says it is $15.00, regardless of whether one or two contests are involved; here's something new in Region 10, with the whistlers getting mileage besides $15.00 for working one, and $17.50 to $20.00 for two; Region 14 swells the official's billfold by $10.00 to $15.00 for a single effort and $12.50 to $17.50 for a double, while in Region 16 mileage plus $10.00 to $15.00 is paid for one game, with an additional $3.00 to $5.00 being tacked on if the boys work the second game.

These fees are a far cry from the late twenties, frugal thirties and early forties, when the Dutchman was joined in the "Officiating Gold Rush" by such nifties as Edgar McNabb, "The Magnificient;" Louis Litchfield, "The Economical;" Delmas Gish, "The Thoughtful"; and Bill Utley, "The Debonair." Any of these chaps will tell you that it would have been easier, then, to get the athletic director's right arm than $15.00 for working a single game and you worked alone, not with two officials on the floor as now.

Back in the early thirties, district tournament managers were regarded as financial geniuses if they could just make expenses on tournaments. The year of 1931 recalls the pride W. B. Owen radiated when, as district tournament manager of the fiasco at Horse Cave, he announced, "Ladies and gentlemen, we have made expenses and no school will be out any money for paying the cost of this tournament." In 1929 it was this same "Sarge" Owen (as Coach Diddle used to call him) who could not dig up six bucks from gate receipts to pay the Dutchman for working the boys, girls, midget and independent games in one evening, but who saved the day by coming up with collateral in the form of a country ham.

The Dutchman

The year 1930 found Coach Ed Diddle and the Dutchman contracting to work nineteen boys and girls games in the three-day district tournament at Tompkinsville for forty bucks apiece flat. It also found Porfessor Rudolph, tournament manager, with only twenty cash dollars for each of us when it ended. He made up fifteen of it by giving us the equivalent in chickens and eggs, which we sold on the way home, and a kindly lady of the town, Mrs. Eubanks, gave us enough angel food cake and grape juice to make up the rest. Hugh Poland, now scout for the Giants, played for Tompkinsville in this meet.

In the middle thirties Dillard Moor, of Sonora, wasn't embarrassed when he paid your reporter off in $7.50 worth of pumpkins because he hadn't taken in enough at the gate. My car's back seat, front seat and trunk were filled with the fruits of the autumn harvest. Herb Ockerman, now superintendent of Boone County Schools, offered me $8.00 worth of fresh country sausage to work three games at Mount Washington and we contracted. It's true that officials coming along in the heyday of "The Magnificent,"

Page Eleven

"The Economical," "The Thoughtful," and "The Debonair" didn't make much money, but they had an awful lot of fun.

In our state-wide study, based only on the regions which did report, we learned that there are officials' associations existing in scattered locations. "Jolly Amos" Teague is the president of the Second Region Basketball Officials Association which meets at Madisonville, Howard Gardner heads up the South Central Officials Association at Elizabethtown, Claude Ricketts and Bob Taylor are presidents of the Falls Cities and Louisville Basketball Officials Associations, respectively, in the seventh region, and Bill Gammon leads the North Eastern Kentucky Officials Association at Ashland. If you know of others, drop the Dutchman a line.

The best columnists tell us that when letters are received griping about your "stuff" you may feel encouraged because you know you are being read; when you get communications of praise a celebration is in order, but when you get neither gripes nor commendations, you are dead because you can't stir up enough interest one way or the other to cause anybody to write anything. Send the Dutchman's wreaths to "Ole Ted." He'll know where the remains are. In December's column we begged you to compliment or condemn, using a post card. As we go to press, we haven't even had a chance to say "Hello" to the letter carrier.

Back to our facts about Kentucky's officiating problems. There are 1400 football and basketball officials registered in the state. It's odd how some areas have plenty, others just about enough to supply demand, while there are serious shortages in some areas. As far as we can ascertain, there is not one registered basketball official in Caldwell, Webster and Letcher counties. Here's a comparison: In some mountain counties the coaches schedule their games on nights when officials are available, while in the Louisville area the coaches' "cup runneth over" as officials "scrap" for the games.

ficials "scrap" for the games. The Falls Cities Officials Association draws a salute from the Dutchman for being alert and public relations conscious. When the University of Louisville played Notre Dame in Freedom Hall, forty-five high school coaches were the invited guests of the Association. They'll also put on a "spread" for them in March, as will the Louisville Officials Association.

Reports coming in from officials indicate that a lot of good will is in evidence when colored and white teams come under their jurisdiction. John Gettler, recreation superintendent of Lexington, worked the Dunbar-Pikeville game and called for an Abou Ben Adhem certificate to be sent to Dunbar High School. Said popular Johnnie, "I highly recommend that you recognize Dunbar High School for carrying out the standards in athletics that are in keeping with true community spirit." Shepherdsville also won an Abou award when officials Bill Long and Bob Rosenbaum pointed out that Coach Joe Hall and his community do much to bring about good community relations. Bill Long, Paul Schlich and Mel Whedbee worked a tourney in Nashville involving two colored and two white teams. These Louisville arbiters report that everything was smooth even though it was the first time for such competition that far south. Bill said that the consideration and courtesy each race extended the other was good to see.

The first Corn Cob Pipe of the new year goes to Al Brantley of Madisonville for unselfish service. For three years he has been a volunteer coach of the V.F.W. baseball team, for two years has served as chairman of the grade school football and basketball committee, was grounds chairman for Little League Baseball, and has been voted the outstanding citizen for contributions to civic improvements. It couldn't go to a nicer guy.

Here's the Dutchman's closing thought for January. "No man has ever risen to the real stature of spiritual manhood until he has found that it is finer to serve somebody else than it is to serve himself."

COMMISSIONER'S MESSAGE (Continued from Page One)

Rule VIII provides that no name may appear on the final list which is not on the preliminary list. It has long been a policy of the Board of Control and the Commissioner, however, to allow the addition of a name to the tournament list if such an addition was to correct a clerical error. We do not believe that it was ever the intention of those who have formulated our Association rules to deny an eligible player the right to participate in the tournament if his name was left inadvertently off the preliminary list. However, regardless of this philosophy, how much better will it be if each principal has his preliminary lists double-checked carefully, and if he sends out a squad list to each of the member schools in his district rather than just a list of some twelve or fifteen players who might be the fortunate ones at tournament time.

Report and Appreciation

By Geo. D. Wheeler, Associate State Secretary Kentucky State YMCA

The program of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, under the leadership of Commissioner Ted Sanford, emphasizes as one of its main aims the building of sportsmanship. Through its "Sportsman's Creed"; its evaluation of officials, coaches, players, and spectators, on the basis of sportsmanship; and its emphasis on sportsmanship in all athletic events the Kentucky High School Athletic Association is rendering a real service to the high schools of the State of Kentucky.

It is for this reason that the Kentucky State Y.M.C.A. is happy to help in this program of developing better sportsmanship in high school athletics by sponsoring its annual Y.M.C.A. Youth Day and Cheerleaders Clinic.

On November 17, 1956, the sixth annual program was held at the University of Kentucky, with more than 3,000 high school students and faculty members attending. Too much cannot be said of the wonderful cooperation of the University of Kentucky, the high schools, principals and faculty members, newspapers, radio and TV stations, and the officials and members of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association.

Because of the strong support of the Athletic Association we have been able to get superintendents principals, coaches and faculty members, all or most of whom are members of the Athletic Association, to serve in various capacities in this program. And we appreciate it.

Warren Lutz, Director of the University "Marching 100," and Walter Hall, Band Director of Lafayette High School, have been especially helpful with the program for the majorettes. Mrs. Stella Gilb, University High School, has year after year given of her time and thought with the cheerleaders. Dr. Hambleton Tapp and Bart Peak have helped with the Youth Day program ever since its beginning. Bernie Shively and Ken Kuhn have since the beginning of the program given of their time, energy, and advice. Bernie Shively, especially, has rendered a great service to us in planning and carrying out this program ever since the first event held six years ago. To all these and many more we want to say a deep from the heart "thank you."

Here and There

R. J. DALLEY, son of Secretary Rex Dalley, is making satisfactory progress following a serious injury to his right arm. This injury occurred during the time of the Federation annual meeting and prevented attendance of the family at the meeting. Through skill in surgery, amputation has been avoided. The arm, with a fixed elbow joint, is healing and R. J., in his senior year in high school, is regaining use of fingers and hand. The best wishes for continued rapid recovery are extended by the entire Federation group.

DECREASE IN NUMBER OF HIGH SCHOOLS: The number of high schools is slightly fewer than for a few years ago. This probably represents a healthy state of affairs. In most states, there has been a definite trend toward combining several smaller high schools into one district. This has been partially balanced by the growing practice of dividing high schools which have an enrollment of more than approximately The number of small high schools 2500.which have been combined into one is greater than the number of large high schools which have been divided. This is because of the large percentage of small high schools. State Association memberships have remained about the same as in former years because of the admission, in many states, of junior high schools. The situation in Iowa is an illustration of what is happening in these connections. A year ago, the Iowa State Association had a membership of 921 high schools. The number has now been reduced, because of consolidation. to 905 high schools. In that state there are 82 junior high schools which are not a part of a senior high school. Such schools are granted junior memberships in the State High School Association.

The Perryville Six¹Man Team

Although there is no official Kentucky champion in the sport of six-man football, it is probable that the Perryville High School 1956 six-man football team was the best in the state. In addition to winning its own conference championship, the Perryville team defeated Caverna, Barren River Six-Man Conference Co-Champion, decisively, Scores of the games played by Perryville during the 1956 season were: Perryville 34-Berea 6, Perryville 56—Burgin 18, Perryville 30— Berea 12, Perryville 51—Burgin 32, Perryville 30-Eminence 24, Perryville 46-Caverna 0.
