	New Endorsement
Approved	Teacher Leader Endorsement	Fall 2010
	This endorsement program provides an avenue for candidates who previously completed a master's degree or for candidates who completed Rank II 5th year or Rank I 6th year programs prior to December 31, 2010, an option to add the Teacher Leader Endorsement to their credentials.
	Program Revision
Approved	MAEd in Instructional Leadership	Fall 2010
	Revise program title and components of the program to reflect the requirements and standards for the new Teacher Leader Endorsement.

Health Sciences

	Baccalaureate and Graduate Nursing
	Program Revision
Approved	Nursing (BSN) - To update catalog copy to reflect revised mission and outcomes, and also department approval process for three prerequisite nursing courses. To specify the time frame as five years for accepting older credits on specific prerequisite/ support courses (BIO 171, BIO 273/CLT 209, BIO 301, CHE 105, NFA 201, NSC 232, NSC 242, and NSC 252).	Fall 2010
	Family and Consumer Science
Approved	General Dietetics	Fall 2010
	a. Change progression/admission and graduation requirements: -Increase the minimum cumulative GPA required for admission to the dietetics program from 2.5 to 2.75 -Increase the minimum cumulative GPA required to earn the BS in General Dietetics from 2.75 to 3.0 More selective admission and academically rigorous graduation requirements will help to ensure that graduates will be competitive in the dietetic internship selection process and pass the national Registered Dietitian (RD) exam. b. Delete CHE 330 as a Major Requirement option Currently, CHE 330 (4 hrs) is offered as an alternative course for NFA 301 (3 hrs). The content of NFA 301, however, is specific to the major and integrated with other courses in the curriculum. Thus, CHE 330 is not equivalent in content to NFA 301.
	Dropped Course
Approved	FCS 400 Ethics and Advocacy in Family and Consumer Science	Spring 2010
	Health Promotion and Administration
	Program Revision
Approved	Health Education – Wellness Opt.	Fall 2010
	Drop REC 411 and Add PHE 407. Change name of this Health Education option from Wellness to Worksite Health Promotion It is essential that students who work in Worksite Health Promotion have a thorough background in personal training and fitness (PHE 433) and a prerequisite to this course is PHE 407 – Strength and Conditioning. Students employed in Worksite Health Promotion are not as likely to come in contact with seniors, so we are dropping REC 411 (Therapeutic Recreation Services for the Senior Adult). This helps us to stay as close as possible to 120 hours for the option. We would also like to change the option title from Wellness to Health Education with an option in Worksite Health Promotion to better reflect the language in the field.
	Course Revision
Approved	HSA 203 Fundamental of Medical Science	Fall 2010
	Change course number to HSA303. This course is restricted to Health Services Administration majors and is taken during the junior year. This is currently the only HSA course (taken after formal admission to the program) that is numbered at the 200 level.
	Occupational Therapy
	Editorial
	OTS 313 Occupation in Context	Fall 2010
	To correct by adding OTS302 as the co-requisite to OTS 313. In 2007-08, changes were made to several occupational science courses to include the co-requisites for a sequence of courses (OTS 302, OTS 335, and OTS 421). OTS 302 was changed to reflect OTS 313 as its co-requisite but OTS313 was overlooked.
	Course Revision
Approved	OTS 402 Practicum in OS IV: Research and Advocacy	Fall 2010
	Add statement so OTS 402 Credit will not be given if OTS 402S credit has been earned.
	Hybrid Course
Approved		Fall 2010

Health Education – Wellness Opt. CHS 8 - 9
Drop REC 411 and Add PHE 407. Change name of this Health Education option from Wellness to Worksite Health Promotion It is essential that students who work in Worksite Health Promotion have a thorough background in personal training and fitness (PHE 433) and a prerequisite to this course is PHE 407 – Strength and Conditioning. Students employed in Worksite Health Promotion are not as likely to come in contact with seniors, so we are dropping REC 411 (Therapeutic Recreation Services for the Senior Adult). This helps us to stay as close as possible to 120 hours for the option. We would also like to change the option title from Wellness to Health Education with an option in Worksite Health Promotion to better reflect the language in the field.

EKU MPH –EHS Program for Graduate Certificate in Occupational/Environmental Health

Students in the Graduate Certificate in Occupational/Environmental Health will interact in classes that include other professionals, teachers, researchers and others interested in occupational & environmental health. An interdisciplinary, applied focus on occupational & environmental health is enhanced by the diverse enrollment in the OEH Graduate Certificate. Students will come from many disciplines, careers, and interest. OEH is designed for both degree seeking and non-degree seeking students. Students will need to meet the GPA of 2.5 or 2.74 of their last 60 semester hours of the baccalaureate program. Degree seeking students must submit a Program Change application for admission and all supporting documents as listed in the Catalog under the section APPLICATION TO THE GRADUATE SCHOOL. Up to 12 hours of the courses taken may be applied toward their MPH/EHS degree.

Currently, there are no certificate programs at any of the state universities in Kentucky to address the need for additional education in this area. Eastern Kentucky University with its CEPH accredited Masters of Public Health/ Environmental Health Science program, and the only accredited environmental health science program in the state, has the faculty with the appropriate training, teaching and certification credentials to make the OEH Graduate Certificate Program a one of a kind program. The faculty in the program has over 75 years of work experience in this field. Our program is designed for students currently working with classes scheduled on-line, at night and on the weekend. Attached is a curriculum and schedule of classes.

The 18 hour graduate certificate program will enable hundreds of Kentuckians presently involved in working for local, state and federal agencies and private companies to enhance their knowledge and skills in occupational & environmental health(OEH). Kentucky is an OSHA state, therefore, the employees are state employees operating as Occupational Health & Safety officers. These employees perform the exact job duties as a federal OSHA employee in enforcing the Occupational Safety and Health Act and its regulations . Kentucky has thousands of manufacturing companies of varying sizes. A large percentage of these companies have environmental health and safety personnel to manage their OSHA and EPA mandated regulations. Many of these managers have degrees in chemistry, biology or other sciences. The OEH Graduate Certificate program will allow them to have more industrial hygiene/occupational safety courses than most graduate programs teach. It will increase the educational level beyond a bachelor's degree, encourage many to complete a master's degree, and enhance the opportunities for advancement in their careers.

Students completing the Graduate Certificate Program in OEH will have acquired the following CEPH competencies:

Domain #1 Analytical Skills

1. Determine appropriate uses and limitations of both quantitative and qualitative data.
2. Evaluate the integrity and comparability of data and identify gaps in data sources.
3. Obtain and interpret information regarding risks and benefits to their organization.

Domain #2 Policy Development & Program Planning Skills

4. State policy options and write clear and concise policy statements.
5. Decide on appropriate actions based on available data
6. Develop a plan to implement policy, including goals, objectives and implementation steps
7. Prepare and implement emergency response plans

Domain #3 Communication skills

8. Communicate effectively both in writing and orally

9. Lead and participate in groups to address specific issues
10. Listens to others in an unbiased manner, respects points of view of others, and promotes the expression of diverse opinions

Domain #4 Cultural Competency Skills

11. Utilizes appropriate methods for interacting sensitivity, effectively, and professionally with persons from diverse cultural, socioeconomic, educational, racial, ethnic and professional background, and persons of all ages and lifestyle preferences

Domain #5 Community Dimensions of Practice Skills

12. Establishes and maintains linkages with key stakeholders
13. Describes the role of government in the delivery of community health services

Domain #6 basic Public Health Science Skills

14. Identifies and retrieves current relevant scientific evidence
15. Identifies the limitation of research and the importance of observations and interrelationships
16. Identifies and applies basic research methods used in public health

Domain #7 Financial Planning & Management Skills

17. Manages programs with budget constraints
18. Applies budget processes
19. Monitors program performance
20. Develops and presents a budget
21. Conducts cost-effectiveness, cost-benefit, and cost utility analyses

Domain #8 Leadership & system thinking Skills

22. Creates a culture of ethical standards within organizations and communities
23. Helps create key values and shared vision and uses these principles to guide actions
24. Promotes team and organizational learning
25. Uses the legal and political system to effect change
26. Applies the theory of organizational structures to professional practice

18 HOUR GRADUATE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM in INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE

The program will be a University approved 18 graduate credit- hour certificate taught in the EHS-MPH program by graduate faculty. It will have a time frame of 3 semesters with 2 classes taught each semester. One of the 6 classes will be online. The students will be approved through the Graduate School via the Non-Degree Admissions- Certification Admission graduate application process including an acceptable GPA from an accredited college or university.

The following are the 6 courses required to complete the certificate:

The Graduate Certificate in Industrial Hygiene is designed for both degree-seeking and certificate-seeking students. The degree-seeking student may apply the certificate courses toward their degree and earn the official EKU Graduate Certificate in Industrial Hygiene.
 The students will be approved through the Graduate School via the Non-Degree Admissions – Certification Admission graduate application process including an acceptable GPA from an accredited college of university.

The following six courses are required to the complete the certificate:
 EHS710, 840, 841, 865, 875, and 885 .....18 hours total

Meeting Time: Monday 6:00 – 8:45 PM Instructor arrives 5:00 pm on class day
Location: Dizney 218 and is available to answer questions

Course Description: Lecture, lab, demonstrations and discussions of types and sources of radiation, radiological hazards and exposures, assessments, equipment utilization, uses of radiation and radioactive materials, and calculations to solve basic radiological problems.

Course Reference Material- Provided by the instructor on a CD.

Supplemental Text (not required, but useful): Basic Radiation Protection Technology, Gollnick, Daniel A., 5th edition, Pacific Radiation Corporation.

Internet Sites- will be provided during the course

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Identify the types of radiation, interactions of each type, and means to detect each
2. Develop control processes for radiation and radioactive sources
3. Operate radiological monitoring equipment
4. Understand basic biological effects of radiation exposures and dose management
5. Recognize requirements for transportation and waste management of radioactive materials
6. Perform calculations involving nuclear mass defect, shielding, decay and other basic radiation protection calculations
7. Gain familiarity with federal, state and local regulations
8. Know where and how to find information on various topics concerning health physics
9. Plan, coordinate, implement and monitor a radiological plan
10. Evaluate, assess, and critique a radiological incident
11. Expand their knowledge of the surveys, audits, and radiological equipment and procedures

Course Content

- Identification of radiation- what is it? Ionizing radiation and interaction with matter
- Use of instrumentation and handling of small radioactive sources
- Common sources of radiation, radionuclide identification, spectral analysis
- Survey and field monitoring equipment, dosimeters
- Food and industrial irradiation
- Biological effects
- Federal and state regulations, standards and recommendations
- Radiological control programs, health and safety integration into engineering/ operations
- Exposure control and contamination control; dose optimization
- Waste management and transportation
- Planning and emergency response
- Problem solving and calculations
- Special topics

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Attendance:

The attendance policy will be a total of 1 missed class period which will include excused and unexcused absences. Classes missed after this will be addressed by the student and myself and may include additional work and/or a letter grade drop for each class missed. You are responsible for contacting the instructor before class if you are required to miss. You will be responsible for obtaining class handouts and notes for classes that you have missed.

Recognize that although the CD and supplementary text are quite comprehensive, there will be numerous class discussions that are not covered in these. In the past, there has been a direct correlation: Students who attend all the classes get the best grades; those who miss the most classes get the worst grades. Plan on arriving at class on time and staying until class dismissal.

The course deliverables include the following:

Deliverable	Class	Date	Points	Total
Take home Final Exam	13	11/30	300	300
Tests (2)	7	10/19	200	400
	11	11/16	200
Homework (4)	3	9/14	25	100
	5	9/28	25
	9	11/02	25
	12	11/23	25
In class- Labs (5)	1	8/24	0	100
	2	8/31	25
	4	9/21	25
	8	10/26	25
	14	12/05	25
Written paper and presentation (2)	Group I topic	9/14- 10/26	100	200
	Group II topic	11/02-12/05	100

The course deliverables total 1100 points. 100 of these points will be dropped leaving a possible 1000 points. The grade will be assigned according to school policy as follows:

Course Grading Scale:	A = 93.6 - 100	A- = 90.0 - 93.5
B+=86.6 –89.9	B = 83.6 - 86.5	B- = 79.6 - 83.5
C+=76.6 -79.5	C = 73.6 - 76.5	C- = 69.6 - 73.5
D+ =66.6 -69.5	D = 63.6 - 66.5	D- = 60.0 - 63.5
F=<60

Instructor's expectation:    A 60%        B 30% C 10%        D/F 0%

- Students typically receive an A or B if they attend all classes and do all their assignments
- Grades for assignments that are not turned in on time will be reduced by 1 letter grade (10%). Assignments that are not turned in within one week (next class) after the due date will not be accepted. Assignments can be emailed or faxed prior to class for full credit.

Final exam- covers all material for the duration of the course

Test 1 and Test 2- 90 minute duration each, covers material from classes, papers, homework.

Homework- Handouts provided the week before they are due.

Paper and presentation- see following discussion.

Labs- There are 5 labs. The first is Week 1 and includes instrument familiarization; this lab is not graded, but the lab sheet must be turned in for credit. The next 4 labs are graded.

Eastern Kentucky University
DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SCIENCE
EHS- 510 – Radiological Health (3 semester hours)
Fall, 2010

Conduct of the Class- In most cases, each class will start off with homework turn- in if it is due that class. Next, are the student presentations. Then, instructor lectures and demos. Questions should be asked at any time during instructor lectures. Finally, a lab if one is scheduled. The instructor arrives an hour early and is available to work with students. The instructor is also available after class as necessary.

Classroom activity sequence (each week)

Attendance, Student Q&A, Review homework, Student presentations,
Scheduled subjects/ topics

Note: Attendance is taken each week

Student Progress

The instructor will provide students with written information on BlackBoard at the midpoint of the course.

Last Day to Drop Course

Refer to Colonel's Compass for the last day to drop the course.

Class prerequisites

Math skills are necessary. We'll review any math needed to do coursework during class. A calculator is required. The calculator used in Math 107 or a standard scientific calculator is adequate. Graphing capability is not necessary.

Effective computer skills are an advantage, especially use of Word and Powerpoint. These will not be reviewed during the class.

Reading, written and verbal skills are necessary to satisfactorily complete the course. These will not be reviewed during the class.

Written Paper and Presentation

The purpose of the paper is to provide a broader coverage of pertinent topics than the instructor can cover during one course. When developing the written paper, focus on items of interest to the class, and be sure that they are relevant to Radiological Health. Please note that I like to ask at least one question from each paper/ presentation on a homework, quiz, test or exam.

Each person will choose two topics from a list; one each from Group I and Group II. The paper and presentation together for each topic in a group is worth 100 points. Spelling errors, grammatical errors, etc will be deducted; therefore it is important to proof- read the paper.

Only one person can choose a given topic. They do so by putting their name on the list next to the topic they choose. The list will be at the front of the room after the break on the first class meeting. Associated with a topic is a date due. On that date, the person will turn in a hard copy of the paper and put an electronic copy of the paper and presentation on the classroom computer in the folder: EHS-510-ppt. As an alternative, the paper and presentation can be provided by email PRIOR to class. Then the student will give a 5 minute presentation to the class on their paper, and be prepared to answer 5 minutes of questions from the class and instructor.

Each paper is 500 to approximately 1000 words, typed and double- spaced. At least three references are required. Internet references are acceptable. If an internet reference is used, include the URL. Personal references are acceptable if interviews are conducted. Annotate the date/ time of the interview. A letter grade will be deducted if less than 3 references are listed.

It may be that some of the topics may be difficult to research. See the instructor as soon as possible if this becomes the case.

Eastern Kentucky University
DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SCIENCE
EHS- 510 – Radiological Health (3 semester hours)
Fall, 2010

This is the grading scheme for papers: Normally the paper starts out as an A if the topic is covered and the student is knowledgeable during the presentation.

A letter grade is deducted each week the electronic paper/ powerpoint is late.

A letter grade is deducted each week the presentation is late.

A letter grade is deducted if references are not provided.

Grammatical errors may be deducted.

individual. The data is obtained as a group effort. The calculations, questions and answers, and lab conclusions are to be performed by each individual, not as the group.

Team assignments have been developed. There are five sets of instruments. Each instrument set has a color marking. The color markings are depicted using colored adhesive circles. Note that each set is calibrated only for those components. The probe from one set, for example the red set, is not to be used with the ratemeter from another set, for example the blue set. The five sets of instruments are designated by the following colors:

- Red
- Blue
- Yellow
- Green
- Magenta

The Team assignments are noted in the following table:

Each student is required to turn in a lab report that typically consists of a sheet with questions, calculations, and other pertinent information from the lab exercise. In some cases, the team may be able to submit a common data sheet for the lab.

Academic Dishonesty

Eastern Kentucky University is a community of shared academic values, foremost of which is a strong commitment to intellectual honesty, honorable conduct, and respect for others. In order to meet these values, students at Eastern Kentucky University are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity. These standards are embodied in the Eastern Kentucky University Academic Integrity Policy, which all students shall pledge to uphold by signing the Eastern Kentucky University Honor Code. By honoring and enforcing this Academic Integrity Policy, the University community affirms that it will not tolerate academic dishonesty.

Academic integrity is a fundamental value for the Eastern Kentucky University community of students, faculty, and staff. It should be clearly understood that academic dishonesty is not tolerated and incidents of it will have serious consequences. Anyone who knowingly assists in any form of academic dishonesty shall be considered as responsible as the student who accepts such assistance and shall be subject to the same sanctions. Academic dishonesty can occur in different forms, some of which include cheating, plagiarism, and fabrication.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT

Eastern Kentucky University will honor the University's Academic Integrity policy. By honoring and enforcing this policy, the University affirms that it will not tolerate academic dishonesty.

Eastern Kentucky University
DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SCIENCE
EHS- 710 – Radiological Health (3 semester hours)
Fall, 2010

Instructor: Mr. Douglas G. Draper
Office: 513-569-7267 Facs: 513-487-2775 Home: 513-398-1610
Email: Doug.Draper@eku.edu
Meeting Time: Monday 6:00 – 8:45 PM Instructor arrives 5:00 pm on class day
Location: Dizney 218 and is available to answer questions

Course Description: Lecture, lab, demonstrations and discussions of types and sources of radiation, radiological hazards and exposures, assessments, equipment utilization, uses of radiation and radioactive materials, and calculations to solve basic radiological problems.

Course Reference Material- Provided by the instructor on a CD.

Supplemental Text (not required, but useful): Basic Radiation Protection Technology, Gollnick, Daniel A., 5th edition, Pacific Radiation Corporation.

Internet Sites- will be provided during the course

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Identify the types of radiation, interactions of each type, and means to detect each
2. Develop control processes for radiation and radioactive sources
3. Operate radiological monitoring equipment
4. Understand basic biological effects of radiation exposures and dose management
5. Recognize requirements for transportation and waste management of radioactive materials
6. Perform calculations involving nuclear mass defect, shielding, decay and other basic radiation protection calculations
7. Gain familiarity with federal, state and local regulations
8. Know where and how to find information on various topics concerning health physics
9. Plan, coordinate, implement and monitor a radiological plan
10. Evaluate, assess, and critique a radiological incident
11. Expand their knowledge of the surveys, audits, and radiological equipment and procedures

Course Content

- Identification of radiation- what is it? Ionizing radiation and interaction with matter
- Use of instrumentation and handling of small radioactive sources
- Common sources of radiation, radionuclide identification, spectral analysis
- Survey and field monitoring equipment, dosimeters
- Food and industrial irradiation
- Biological effects
- Federal and state regulations, standards and recommendations
- Radiological control programs, health and safety integration into engineering/ operations
- Exposure control and contamination control; dose optimization
- Waste management and transportation
- Planning and emergency response
- Problem solving and calculations
- Special topics

Course Relationship to MPH Program

The MPH educational program objectives addressed in the course are:

1. Contribute to the public health profession through sound professional public health attitudes, values, concepts and ethical practices.
2. Integrate and apply the crosscutting knowledge and skills (competencies) within five core public health areas of knowledge (behavioral sciences, biostatistics, epidemiology, environmental health science, and public health administration).
3. Demonstrate advanced knowledge and skills necessary for specialized roles within public health specific to community health, environmental health science, or public administration.

Course content, assignments, and assessment instruments have been designed to facilitate the attainment and demonstration of appropriate knowledge and skills, and facilitate application in the field of public health.

COURSE RELATIONSHIP TO THE MASTERS IN PUBLIC HEALTH (MPH) PROGRAM

To achieve its mission, the ECU MPH Program “prepares professionals for broad-based practice in public health, through the integration of core competencies in the five areas of knowledge basic to public health (behavioral sciences, biostatistics, epidemiology, environmental health science, and public health administration) with specialized knowledge, competencies, and expertise in a selected public health discipline area.” This course relates directly to accomplishment of the MPH Program educational objectives, and the core competencies and option-specific competencies. (See the MPH Student Handbook http://www.mph.eku.edu/Student\_Resources/MPH\_Handbook\_Summer07\_vs\_082207.pdf#page=23&zoom=100).

SAVE THIS SYLLABUS. YOU WILL REFER TO IT REGULARLY!

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Attendance:

The attendance policy will be a total of 1 missed class period which will include excused and unexcused absences. Classes missed after this will be addressed by the student and myself and may include additional work and/or a letter grade drop for each class missed. You are responsible for contacting the instructor before class if you are required to miss. You will be responsible for obtaining class handouts and notes for classes that you have missed.

Recognize that although the CD and supplementary text are quite comprehensive, there will be numerous class discussions that are not covered in these. In the past, there has been a direct correlation: Students who attend all the classes get the best grades; those who miss the most classes get the worst grades. Plan on arriving at class on time and staying until class dismissal.

The course deliverables include the following:

Deliverable	Class	Date	Points	Total

	Group II Topic	11/15-12/10	200

The course deliverables total 1100 points. 100 of these points will be dropped leaving a possible 1000 points. The grade will be assigned according to school policy as follows:

Course Grading Scale:     A = 93.6 - 100             B = 83.5-93.5     C ≤ 83.4

Instructor's expectation:     A 60%             B 30%             C 10%

- Students typically receive an A or B if they attend all classes and do all their assignments
- Grades for assignments that are not turned in on time will be reduced by 1 letter grade (10%). Assignments that are not turned in within one week (next class) after the due date will not be accepted. Assignments can be emailed or faxed prior to class for full credit.

Final exam- covers all material for the duration of the course

Test 1 and Test 2- 90 minute duration each, covers material from classes, papers, homework.

Homework- Handouts provided the week before they are due.

Paper and presentation- see following discussion.

Labs- There are 5 labs. The first is Week 1 and includes instrument familiarization; this lab is not graded, but the lab sheet must be turned in for credit. The next 4 labs are graded.

Eastern Kentucky University
DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SCIENCE
EHS- 710 – Radiological Health (3 semester hours)
Fall, 2010

Conduct of the Class- In most cases, each class will start off with homework turn- in if it is due that class. Next, are the student presentations. Then, instructor lectures and demos. Questions should be asked at any time during instructor lectures. Finally, a lab if one is scheduled. The instructor arrives an hour early and is available to work with students. The instructor is also available after class as necessary.

Classroom activity sequence (each week)

Attendance, Student Q&A, Review homework, Student presentations,
Scheduled subjects/ topics

Note: Attendance is taken each week

Student Progress

The instructor will provide students with written information on BlackBoard at the midpoint of the course.

Last Day to Drop Course

Refer to Colonel's Compass for the last day to drop the course.

Class prerequisites

Math skills are necessary. We'll review any math needed to do coursework during class. A calculator is required. The calculator used in Math 107 or a standard scientific calculator is adequate. Graphing capability is not necessary.

Effective computer skills are an advantage, especially use of Word and Powerpoint. These will not be reviewed during the class.

Written Paper and Presentation

The purpose of the paper is to provide a broader coverage of pertinent topics than the instructor can cover during one course. When developing the written paper, focus on items of interest to the class, and be sure that they are relevant to Radiological Health. Please note that I like to ask at least one question from each paper/ presentation on a homework, quiz, test or exam.

Each person will choose two topics from a list; one each from Group I and Group II. The paper and presentation together for each topic in a group is worth 100 points. Spelling errors, grammatical errors, etc will be deducted; therefore it is important to proof- read the paper.

Only one person can choose a given topic. They do so by putting their name on the list next to the topic they choose. The list will be at the front of the room after the break on the first class meeting. Associated with a topic is a date due. On that date, the person will turn in a hard copy of the paper and put an electronic copy of the paper and presentation on the classroom computer in the folder: EHS-510-ppt. As an alternative, the paper and presentation can be provided by email PRIOR to class. Then the student will give a 5 minute presentation to the class on their paper, and be prepared to answer 5 minutes of questions from the class and instructor.

Each paper is 500 to approximately 1000 words, typed and double- spaced. At least three references are required. Internet references are acceptable. If an internet reference is used, include the URL. Personal references are acceptable if interviews are conducted. Annotate the date/ time of the interview. A letter grade will be deducted if less than 3 references are listed.

It may be that some of the topics may be difficult to research. See the instructor as soon as possible if this becomes the case.

Eastern Kentucky University
DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SCIENCE
EHS- 710 – Radiological Health (3 semester hours)
Fall, 2010

This is the grading scheme for papers: Normally the paper starts out as an A if the topic is covered and the student is knowledgeable during the presentation.

A letter grade is deducted each week the electronic paper/ powerpoint is late.

A letter grade is deducted each week the presentation is late.

A letter grade is deducted if references are not provided.

Grammatical errors may be deducted.

Labs- The labs are conducted with monitoring instrumentation typical of use in the USA. Each lab has an objective related to a classroom discussion. A lab data sheet is completed by each individual. The data is obtained as a group effort. The calculations, questions and answers, and lab conclusions are to be performed by each individual, not as the group.

Team assignments have been developed. There are five sets of instruments. Each instrument set has a color marking. The color markings are depicted using colored adhesive circles. Note that each set is calibrated only for those components. The probe from one set, for example the red set, is not to be used with the ratemeter from another set, for example the blue set. The five sets of instruments are designated by the following colors:

- Red
- Blue
- Yellow
- Green
- Magenta

The Team assignments are noted in the following table:

Lab Team Assignments
Student	Team	Student	Team
	Blue		Blue
	Green		Yellow
	Blue		Red

	Magenta		Red
	Red		Green
	Red		Blue
	Green		Magenta
	Yellow		Magenta
	Blue		Green
	Magenta		Yellow
	Green		Red
	Magenta		Green

Each student is required to turn in a lab report that typically consists of a sheet with questions, calculations, and other pertinent information from the lab exercise. In some cases, the team may be able to submit a common data sheet for the lab.

Academic Dishonesty

Eastern Kentucky University is a community of shared academic values, foremost of which is a strong commitment to intellectual honesty, honorable conduct, and respect for others. In order to meet these values, students at Eastern Kentucky University are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity. These standards are embodied in the Eastern Kentucky University Academic Integrity Policy, which all students shall pledge to uphold by signing the Eastern Kentucky University Honor Code. By honoring and enforcing this Academic Integrity Policy, the University community affirms that it will not tolerate academic dishonesty.

Academic integrity is a fundamental value for the Eastern Kentucky University community of students, faculty, and staff. It should be clearly understood that academic dishonesty is not tolerated and incidents of it will have serious consequences. Anyone who knowingly assists in any form of academic dishonesty shall be considered as responsible as the student who accepts such assistance and shall be subject to the same sanctions. Academic dishonesty can occur in different forms, some of which include cheating, plagiarism, and fabrication.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT

Eastern Kentucky University will honor the University's Academic Integrity policy. By honoring and enforcing this policy, the University affirms that it will not tolerate academic dishonesty.

 Fall 2010, Dizney Rm 208, 6 PM – 8:45: PM; Monday
Instructor - Dr. Carolyn Harvey CIH, Professor

Course Description:

This course will include all aspects of ventilation including but not limited to: designing and balancing a system; inspection of current system; choosing fans; choosing appropriate hoods; determining appropriate flow rates, duct sizes; determining location of branch lines; and calculations of the flow rates, static pressures, velocity, hood entry and branch losses; and other aspects of the ventilation system including health effects of poor or inadequate ventilation. Web assisted course with 2/3rd in class and 1/3rd Lab/online. There will be some practical exercises as well as web exercises.

The purpose of the course is to increase the level of knowledge of the student in the areas of ventilation. Ventilation is one of the major if not the major cause of occupational exposures in office buildings, college buildings, homes, industrial facilities, and other confined areas in which we work, play or recreate.

Required Text:

Industrial Ventilation: A Manual of Recommended Practice for Design, 25th Edition

Industrial Ventilation Workbook, 6th Ed.

Publisher:	ACGIH
Number of Pages:	689pages
Date Published:	2004
ISBN:	1-882417-52-6

Publisher:	ACGIH
Number of Pages:	320 pages
Date Published:	2003

Publication # 0428
ISBN: 1-883992-04-4

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate the knowledge, skills and understanding of the importance of ventilation.
2. Identify the adverse impacts caused by a variety of ventilation problems.
3. Outline how to effectively inspect a ventilation system.
4. Analyze the design of a ventilation system based on the material(s) to be removed by the system.
5. Discuss how to balance the system when problems arise from other factors in the area.
6. Enable the student to articulate key environmental health concerns when occupational exposures occur due to lack of or poor ventilation.
7. Plans, coordinates, and monitors installation of a ventilation system.
8. Evaluates, assesses, and improves a current ventilation system.
9. The student will be able to formulate a strategy for implementation of a ventilation monitoring system.

Course Content:

The assigned textbook and work in the assigned ventilation workbook. Online work may be assigned as the course progresses.

Course Requirements:

Student Evaluation:

Examinations – three in class	300 pt
Two take home	300 pt
Seven Class exercises/Ventilation workbook	350 pt
Lab work -instrumentation use	50 pt
Total points	1000pts

Examinations will cover material included in class, in the handouts, in homework assignments, and from web sites. Several exercises will be done in the lab and in class and each of these will have a grade assigned.

The grading scale is as follows:
(A = 90 - 100) (B = 80 - 89.9)

Attendance Policy: ONE MISSED CLASS . Students will be required to do extra work including problems to make up for additional missed classes.

Student Progress

The instructor will provide students with written information before midterm. The students' progress will also be noted on Blackboard at the midpoint of the course.

Last Day to Drop Course

Refer to Colonel's Compass for the last day to drop the course.

Course Relationship to MPH Program:

The MPH educational program objectives addressed in the course are:

1. Contribute to the public health profession through sound professional public health attitudes, values, concepts and ethical practices.
2. Integrate and apply the crosscutting knowledge and skills (competencies) within five core public health areas of knowledge (behavioral sciences, biostatistics, epidemiology, environmental health science, and public health administration).
3. Demonstrate advanced knowledge and skills necessary for specialized roles within public health specific to community health, environmental health science, or public administration.

Course content, assignments, and assessment instruments have been designed to facilitate the attainment and demonstration of appropriate knowledge and skills, and facilitate application in the field of public health.

COURSE RELATIONSHIP TO THE MASTERS IN PUBLIC HEALTH (MPH) PROGRAM

To achieve its mission, the ECU MPH Program "prepares professionals for broad-based practice in public health, through the integration of core competencies in the five areas of knowledge basic to public health (behavioral sciences, biostatistics, epidemiology, environmental health science, and public health administration) with specialized knowledge, competencies, and expertise in a selected public health discipline area." This course relates directly to accomplishment of the MPH Program educational objectives, and the core competencies and option-specific competencies. (See the MPH Student Handbook http://www.mph.ecu.edu/Student\_Resources/MPH\_Handbook\_Summer07\_vs\_082207.pdf#page=23&zoom=100).

Domain #1 Analytical Skills

1. Determine appropriate uses and limitations of both quantitative and qualitative data.
2. Evaluate the integrity and comparability of data and identify gaps in data sources.
3. Obtain and interpret information regarding risks and benefits to their organization.

Domain #2 Policy Development & Program Planning Skills

4. State policy options and write clear and concise policy statements.
5. Decide on appropriate actions based on available data
6. Develop a plan to implement policy, including goals, objectives and implementation steps
7. Prepare and implement emergency response plans

Domain #3 Communication skills

8. Communicate effectively both in writing and orally

Course Relationship to MPH Program

The MPH educational program objectives addressed in the course are:

1. Contribute to the public health profession through sound professional public health attitudes, values, concepts and ethical practices.
2. Integrate and apply the crosscutting knowledge and skills (competencies) within five core public health areas of knowledge (behavioral sciences, biostatistics, epidemiology, environmental health science, and public health administration).
3. Demonstrate advanced knowledge and skills necessary for specialized roles within public health specific to community health, environmental health science, or public administration.

Course content, assignments, and assessment instruments have been designed to facilitate the attainment and demonstration of appropriate knowledge and skills, and facilitate application in the field of public health.

COURSE RELATIONSHIP TO THE MASTERS IN PUBLIC HEALTH (MPH) PROGRAM

To achieve its mission, the ECU MPH Program “prepares professionals for broad-based practice in public health, through the integration of core competencies in the five areas of knowledge basic to public health (behavioral sciences, biostatistics, epidemiology, environmental health science, and public health administration) with specialized knowledge, competencies, and expertise in a selected public health discipline area.” This course relates directly to accomplishment of the MPH Program educational objectives, and the core competencies and option-specific competencies. (See the MPH Student Handbook http://www.mph.eku.edu/Student\_Resources/MPH\_Handbook\_Summer07\_vs\_082207.pdf#page=23&zoom=100).

Domain #1 Analytical Skills

1. Determine appropriate uses and limitations of both quantitative and qualitative data.
2. Evaluate the integrity and comparability of data and identify gaps in data sources.
3. Obtain and interpret information regarding risks and benefits to their organization.

Domain #2 Policy Development & Program Planning Skills

4. State policy options and write clear and concise policy statements.
5. Decide on appropriate actions based on available data
6. Develop a plan to implement policy, including goals, objectives and implementation steps

Prerequisites

English 102 or permission of instructor

Text

Lamdin, Louis (2006). Earn College Credit for What You Know (4th ed.). Dubuque, IA: Kendall/Hunt Publishing Company.

Course Purpose

To provide the students with the knowledge and skills needed to document prior work and life learning experiences for evaluation for college credit. The course instructor will assist the student in a self-assessment of prior learning and understanding how it can be applied to student learning outcomes at the college level. In addition, the course instructor will assist students in planning a program-learning portfolio.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify and categorize prior learning using Kolb's Experiential Learning Cycle
2. Critically reflect upon past learning and link to career and academic goals
3. Identify appropriate documentation of prior learning
4. Develop a portfolio that represents prior learning experiences

Conceptual Framework

While the major outcome of the Prior Learning Seminar is the preparation of the portfolio, the course is a valuable educational experience in itself. The course is an exercise in self-evaluation, introspection, analysis and synthesis. The reflection, analysis and communication that is an integral part of the course aids the student in developing educational plans linking prior learning and career and academic goals. The portfolio is a record of the student's effectiveness in the life/work situations. The portfolio proved to be suitable for presentation to prospective employers and others interested in students' skills and abilities.

Criteria for Determination of Grade, including Evaluation Methods

EVAUATION METHOD	% OF GRADE
1. Portfolio	60%
2. Self-assessments	10%
3. Program learning plan	10%
4. Lifelong learning plan	10%
5. Participation	10%

Grading
90-99 A
80-89 B
70-79 C
60-69 D

Student Progress

Students will be informed of their progress through graded assignments and biweekly meetings with the instructor to review the educational plan and progress on the portfolio.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend each seminar as learning is dependent upon participation with peers on the development of learning plans and portfolios. Unexcused absences will result in a 10 point deduction from the participation grade. It is the responsibility of the student to make up and submit all work missed during an absence.

Last Date to Drop the Course

The last day to drop this course is _____

Disability Statement

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Academic Integrity Statement

Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Official E-mail: An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

Course Requirements

1. Develop a professional portfolio for review of college credits
2. Complete self-assessments on program standards
3. Develop program-learning plan with documentation guidelines
4. Develop a lifelong learning plan.
5. Attend class and participate in activities

GSD 220

Background and Need

There is an increasing focus on the adult learning and degree completion needs of individuals in Kentucky. Data provided through the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education in 2009 also reveal that there are nearly 57,000 adults in the ECU service region (and well over a half million statewide) who have completed an associate degree or some college credit; approximately 78 percent of these persons have not earned a degree. An additional 44,000 adults from our service region have some college but no degree.

At ECU, over 300 potential degree completers have contacted the institutional liaison since the inception of Project Graduate. This statewide initiative, designed to bring back adults with 90+ hours of college credit is generating interest in degree completion among others not meeting the criteria. Many of these individuals have amassed professional experiences through venues like employment and volunteer work. These learning experiences may be worthy of college level credit toward a degree. Prior learning experiences could be gained through in-service training as part of his/her job, work experience and/or training content that may be closely connected to a particular course(s).

Many universities are now providing a Prior Learning Assessment seminar that is focused on an individual's prior learning experiences and its' connection to college courses. The seminar recognizes the value of life and employment experiences and stresses the connection of previous learning to college curricula. As such, the seminar meets the need for a systematic means of promoting student learning while simultaneously assessing the nature and extent of academic credit warranted for previous learning experiences. A seminar teaches students to organize and reflect upon their prior learning. Further, they can develop an understanding of how those learning experiences relate to a specific college course or program of study. The recognition of the value of prior learning and the ability to avoid redundant material in courses provides incentive for the adult student to return to college and to pursue a program of study.

Portfolio Assessment

Prior to portfolio development, the student must identify the course or courses for which credit is being sought. At this time, an application to submit prior learning credit (PLC) must be made to the department and college. The department chair and college dean must concur that the department will permit the use of PLC as an option for receiving credit for the specified course(s). The department chair is responsible for assigning a faculty evaluator upon the approval of the application to submit.

Faculty Evaluator Responsibility:

Prior to the creation of a portfolio, the faculty evaluator should communicate with the student to discuss expectations - outcomes and the documentation of learning.

Completed portfolios will be submitted to the faculty evaluator. The evaluator will review and assess the portfolio for credit based upon the educational outcomes of the course(s) selected for PLC. In addition to reviewing the portfolio, the evaluator may require a verbal interview with the student and/or additional demonstration.

The evaluator will submit a credit recommendation form to the department chair and college dean. This recommendation form will include one of the following:

- a recommendation for credit (P/F)
- a recommendation for additional information
- a recommendation for reduced credit (applied for 3 credit hours, awarded 2)
- a recommendation that credit be denied

Student Fees:

In order to submit a portfolio for PLC, a student must be admitted to Eastern Kentucky University. In addition to the EKU admission fee, the student will be charged a fee of $150 plus $50/per credit hour granted. If a faculty evaluator formally requests that a portfolio be amended and resubmitted, the student will be charged a fee of $110 for a second evaluation.

Faculty Stipend:

A faculty evaluator will be issued $100 per initial portfolio review and $75 to review resubmitted portfolios. This stipend is intended to cover the initial meeting/conversation with the student as well as the portfolio evaluation.

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

~~The following information applies to all programs in the College of Education.~~

Eastern Kentucky University has maintained a strong interest in and commitment to the preparation of teachers since its founding in 1906 and is dedicated to the preparation of teachers who function effectively in a culturally diverse society in order to meet the needs of all candidates. The College of Education, in cooperation with the Office of Graduate Education and Research, offers the Masters of Arts in Education degree programs for elementary teachers, middle grade teachers, secondary teachers, special education teachers, school counselors, library media specialists, speech-language pathologists, and instructional leaders. Other graduate programs include a Master of Arts in Teaching: Elementary Education*, Middle Grade Education, Secondary Education and P-12 programs; a fifth year program for certificate renewal leading to Rank II certification; a sixth year program leading to Rank I certification; ~~the professional certificate certification programs in for~~ Deaf and Hard of Hearing, Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education, Learning and Behavior Disorders, and Moderate and Severe Disabilities; professional certification programs for Director of Special Education, School Principal, Supervisor of Instruction, Director of Pupil Personnel Services, and Superintendent of Schools; the Master of Arts degree in Mental Health Counseling and in Human Services Student Personnel Services in Higher Education; the Specialist in Education degree in Educational Administration and Supervision, and in Student Personnel Services in Higher Education and the Doctor of Education Degree in Leadership and Policy Studies.

*Admission suspended until further notice, inquiries regarding MAT Elementary (P-5) should be directed to the alternative certification specialist in the Office of Teacher Education Services (859-622-8326).

Graduate Course Credit — ~~All 700 level courses have undergraduate counterparts bearing the same last two digits. The 700 level courses are offered only for graduate level credit and require additional appropriate experiences for all candidates enrolled. Candidates who have previously taken the undergraduate counterpart of these courses at the 500 level will not be permitted to enroll for graduate level credit in the 700 level counterpart. Credit will not be awarded for both the 700 and 500 level of the same course.~~

Cross Listed Courses — ~~Some courses are offered under different prefixes with the same course content. Candidates will not be awarded credit for any course for which they have previously received credit under a cross-listed prefix.~~

Master of Arts in Education Programs Requirements

Specific curricula and requirements for the Master of Arts in Education and Master of Arts in Teaching degree programs are provided in the College of Education individual program sections of this catalog.

~~The following are general requirements for the Master of Arts in Education. In addition to these general requirements and the University requirements of the Graduate School, specific program requirements may be found in the appropriate departmental section of this Catalog.~~

Program Planning — During the first term, the candidate must develop a planned program. Candidates for whom program plans have not been appropriately filed will not be eligible for a second registration. Subsequent changes of the program plan are permissible, but must be approved on the appropriate form by the advisor, the department chair, the college dean, and the graduate dean. ~~Every candidate for the degree shall complete a minimum of 15 semester hours in professional education as a component of the graduate program. The remainder of the course work shall be determined by the institution in terms of the candidate's need, provided (1) that at least 12 hours shall be in an approved teaching field, and (2) that all such course work shall be approved graduate level credit. Individuals interested in community college teaching will need to complete the Masters Degree and at least 18 hours of graduate course work in their specialization.~~

Transfer Credits — Candidates for the Master of Arts in Education degree are restricted to transfer of not more than twelve semester hours.

Thesis — ~~The thesis is not required in any program leading to the Master of Arts in Education degree. Candidates with special research interests are encouraged to explore thesis possibilities with their advisor.~~

Comprehensive Examinations — ~~The candidate will have an opportunity to demonstrate professional growth through a written and/or oral examination covering education and major program components. Comprehensive exams are scheduled after application for degree has been filed and evidence exists indicating that the candidate should complete all degree requirements.~~

Curriculum Requirements for Graduate Programs in Education — ~~All programs leading to the Master of Arts in Education have a core of professional education requirements. The candidate should check the specific program for professional education core requirements of that program.~~

Rank II Certification, the Fifth Year Non-Degree Program

THE RANK II CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS ARE UNDER REVIEW AND SOME PROGRAMS WILL BE CLOSED TO NEW STUDENTS DECEMBER 2010. PLEASE CONFER WITH YOUR ADVISOR FOR OTHER DEGREE OPTIONS.

To provide an alternative to a master's degree program for teachers, the College of Education offers, in cooperation with other colleges of the University, a fifth year of study leading to the Rank II classification and renewal of the elementary, middle grade, secondary, and special education teaching certificate. The fifth year program requires a minimum of 32 semester hours of graduate course work which include:

1. Twelve hours to be taken in the area of teacher specialization.
2. Twelve hours of professional education.
3. Eight hours chosen to fit general or specific needs of candidates without regard to offering department.

Programs of study must be approved and filed with the advisor and the Office of Candidate Teacher Education Services no later than the term in which the first six hours are to be completed.

General institutional guidelines:

1. Candidates must have Rank III (Provisional certification) through a regionally accredited institution.
2. A t least 18 of the 32 semester hours must be earned at Eastern Kentucky University.
3. Candidates for the Rank II classification must have a grade point standing at the completion of the program of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. No more than 40 credits (32 required) may be submitted to achieve the necessary average.
4. Course credits specified for Rank II cannot be more than 10 years old at the completion of the program.
5. Credit earned by correspondence shall not apply toward the fifth year program.
6. A minimum of 12 hours of appropriate credits earned in the Rank II Fifth Year program may be applied in graduate degree programs. Rank II program credits with earned grade of “C” or lower may not be applied to subsequent graduate degree programs. A candidate who desires to enter the master’s degree program after completion of the non-degree fifth year program must:
  - a. make application for and be recommended by the department offering the master’s degree program;
  - b. meet all current academic criteria specified for admission to and completion of the requested master’s degree.

4 Student learning outcomes:

In this class, students will demonstrate their mastery of content by doing the following:

A. Develop and write an assessment of their community using instructor-provided demographic data, surveys, focus groups, and other community data sources.
(4.1e, 4.1f, 4.1g, 4.1h, 4.2b, 4.3b, 5.1b, 5.1c, 5.2c, 6.1a, 6.1b, 6.1d, 6.1f, 6.1q, 6.1h, 6.1i, 6.3b)

B. Analyze the data on community needs and use it to develop a school improvement plan using the data in A. (4.2b, 4.3b, 5.1c, 5.2c, 5.4a, 6.1f, 6.2d, 6.3b)

C. Develop a base Site Based Decision Making (SBDM) budget for their school based on the school improvement plan from B and resource allocation priorities (instructional).
(4.2b, 4.3b, 5.1a, 5.1b, 5.1c, 5.3a, 5.4a, 6.1c, 6.2b, 6.2d)

D. Write a request for Section 7 monies, a grant proposal, or a plan to raise funds in the community. The need for this funding will be based on unmet student needs in the SBDM budget.
(4.1f, 4.1h, 5.1a, 5.1c, 5.2c, 5.3b, 5.4a, 6.1b, 6.1c, 6.1e, 6.1g, 6.2a, 6.2b, 6.2c, 6.3a, 6.3b)

E. Apply the legal budgeting (including the concepts of adequacy, equity, and efficiency) and financial management regulations to specific case studies.
(4.3a, 4.3b, 5.1c, 5.2c, 5.3a, 5.4a, 6.1c, 6.2a, 6.2b, 6.2c, 6.2d)

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

The Department of Educational Leadership offers degree and non-degree graduate programs in educational leadership.

Master of Arts in Education in Instructional Leadership

Rank I Programs

Educational Leadership

Specialist in Education

Education Administration and Supervision

Educational Leadership Program Descriptions

Educational Leadership programs are designed to build a professional knowledge base, leadership and management skills, and positive attitudes among aspiring educational and school district leaders. The courses and experiences address the Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium and Technology Standards for School Administrators that has been adopted by the Kentucky Education Professional Standards Board in partnership with the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

The Instructional Leadership—School Principal (all grades) program prepares educational leaders and managers for leadership positions with P-12 schools. Initial certification for school principal requires completion of an approved master's degree, Level I or Level II program completion, three years of teaching experience, and successful completion of the School Leaders Licensure Assessment and the Kentucky Principal test. The Supervisor of Instruction program prepares instructional supervisors for district-wide leadership. Initial certification for supervisor of instruction requires completion of an approved master's degree, the courses required for Level II Principal certification, and three years of teaching experience.

The Director of Pupil Personnel Services program prepares directors and assistant directors of pupil personnel services for school district-wide leadership. Initial certification for director of pupil personnel services requires completion of an approved master's degree, the courses required for Level II Principal certification, and three years of teaching experience.

The Superintendent of Schools program prepares highly qualified candidates for district-wide leadership. Initial certification for school superintendent requires completion of an approved master's degree, the courses required for Level II Principal certification, three years of teaching, and two years of administrative experience.

II. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Master of Arts in Education

- A score of 300 on the verbal section of the Graduate Records Exam (GRE) or a scaled score of 360 on the Millers Analogy Test (GMAT).
- 3.0 GPA in the undergraduate degree or 3.0 GPA in the last 60 undergraduate hours or a 3.0 GPA in a minimum of 15 graduate hours.

Non-degree Certification Programs

- Master's Degree.
- 3.0 GPA on graduate work.

III. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Assessment Requirements

- A program portfolio is required for each candidate admitted to the program. The program portfolio will be continuously developed and assessed within each course. Content contained within the portfolio shall align with the Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium Standards that have been accepted by the Kentucky Education Professional Standards Board. The advisor of each candidate will review the portfolio at least once during Level I and/ or Level II and at the completion of a candidate's program.

IV. EXIT REQUIREMENTS

- A master's degree is required to receive initial certification in a Level I or Level II Principal program.

- A Kentucky classroom teaching certificate and appropriate years of teaching and administrative experience as described above are required.

The following are the exit requirements for all options of the Master of Arts in Education—Educational Leadership. There are no exit requirements for certificates.

Thesis—A thesis is not required in this program; however, an action research project which culminates in a technology enhanced presentation is required in the Capstone Seminar.

Comprehensive Examinations—The candidate will have an opportunity to demonstrate professional growth through a written and/or oral examination covering education and major program components.

Certification—Candidates seeking principal certification must successfully complete the School Leadership Licensure Assessment (SLLA) and the Kentucky Principal's Test to be recommended for certification.

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION in Instructional Leadership

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

The Teacher Leader for Instruction degree is designed to prepare teachers to be essential contributors to the shared leadership in the school. Teacher leadership is a ground level collaborative to strengthen teacher performance. This degree program provides two options. The first option, Teacher Leadership for Student Learning, will provide the proficiency knowledge base for teachers who may later choose to pursue a school principal master's degree. The second option, Safety and Facilities Management in Educational Settings, will provide teachers with an avenue for earning a School Safety Endorsement.

II. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

A minimum total GRE score of 700 with verbal and quantitative subtest scores of at least 300 is required for clear admission to all options of the M.A.Ed. program in Teacher Leader for Instruction. As an alternative to the GRE, a raw score of 388 on the Miller's Analogies test or passing scores on all required Kentucky PRAXIS II initial teaching exams will also meet the admission test requirement. Candidates must have completed an initial teaching certification program. In addition, candidates must have earned an overall 3.0 undergraduate GPA or a 3.0 in the last 60 hours completed. Candidates must also meet the general requirements of the Graduate School.

III. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Curriculum Requirements

Teacher Leader Core ..... 15 hours

ETL 800, 801, 802, EMS 850, 869

Candidates will be eligible to apply for the Teacher Leader Endorsement upon completion of these 15 hours.

Option 1: Teacher Leadership for Student Learning ..... 15 hours

EAD 811, 812, EME 866..... 9 hours

EME 873, EMG 806, or ESE 774 ..... 3 hours

SED 775, 800, or 810 ..... 3 hours

Option 2: Safety and Facilities Management in Educational Settings ..... 15 hours

EAD 840; SSE 870, 871, 873 ..... 12 hours

SSE 872 or COU 847 ..... 3 hours

Candidates will be eligible to apply for the School Safety Endorsement upon completion of these 15 hours.

Total Program Hours ..... 30 hours

IV. EXIT REQUIREMENTS

Program GPA: Candidates must earn overall GPA of 3.0 or higher, with no grade lower than a C.

A field-based research project, which culminates in a technology-enhanced presentation, is required in the Capstone Seminar or in a designated course in each option, or as part of the comprehensive examination. A portfolio review may be required.

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

- A. 1. Specific action requested: To update catalog copy to reflect revised mission and outcomes, and also department approval process for three prerequisite nursing courses.
- To specify the time frame as five years for accepting older credits on specific prerequisite/ support courses (BIO 171, BIO 273/CLT 209, BIO 301, CHE 105, NFA 201, NSC 232, NSC 242, and NSC 252).
- A. 2. Effective date: Fall 2010
- A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: (if applicable)

B. The justification for this action: The mission and outcomes were revised as part of the self study for reaccreditation process to reflect consistency with documents required for reaccreditation. Also, the department approval process for the three prerequisite nursing courses is slightly revised for increased clarification for students.

The department is working carefully to increase retention and graduation rates for students admitted to the program. This goal is in line with university goals, and is consistent with new mandates by the national accrediting body that all programs maintain a minimum 80% graduation rate. One concern with retention has been the age of some prerequisite and support courses. Although the catalog has a statement regarding transfer courses older than eight years old must be approved, the CARES report and the new Degree Works report has been automatically placing older courses in the support course line as meeting the requirement. We have found some courses 20 to 25 years old and both the advisor and student being led to believe the student was ready to apply for admission. As a result, the department has been carefully considering the issue of age of support courses and student success. The department faculty are concerned about students not having current content on some of the support courses/prerequisite courses, and this deficit has contributed to increased failure rate for a few students early in the program. Requiring the courses to be within the five years prior to admission to the nursing clinical sequence would improve currency of content. Students become frustrated when faculty have expectations that the student will already have a solid foundation in those courses, and faculty do not have time to go back and re-teach content the student has already had. An example is the pathophysiology course where faculty expect students to be current in the content in physiology and other pre courses. Students who do not have a strong background have a fairly high failure rate in this course. Another example includes the assessment courses in which faculty assume students have current content knowledge in anatomy and other pre courses. Again, faculty cannot take time to re-teach that content. Exceptions can be made for individual student situations. In the case where a student has been engaged in an occupation using the content before coming to the program (e.g., paramedic, LPN, biology teacher in a high school, etc), an exception can be given and the time limit waived. Having the time limit clearly published, however, will send a notice to potential students about currency of courses and encourage discussion between students and advisors related to their knowledge base and preparation for entering the nursing clinical sequence. It is not anticipated that a large number of students will be affected, but the small number who are affected will have a better chance of success. The change is requested for Fall 2010, but students who are anticipating entering the program for that semester and have not been advised accordingly will of course be accommodated and an exception granted if they choose.

This time limit will also work in favor of students competing for admission under our current point scale where older previous grades on the course can count against the student for admission. In some cases, the course work is older but the student either has not elected to or is not eligible to bankrupt. The new policy will provide a clean slate for students who have not taken the courses within the previous five years and have to repeat courses.

C. The projected cost (or savings) of this proposal is as follows:

Personnel Impact: None in the department. It is not anticipated that it will have a large effect on departments teaching these support courses, as most students who take them at EKU already have taken them within the five year time frame.

Operating Expenses Impact: NONE

Equipment/Physical Facility Needs: NONE

Library Resources: NONE

Department of Baccalaureate and Graduate Nursing

(Page 133 of the 2009-10 Undergraduate Catalog)

The baccalaureate nursing program is based upon the belief that preparation for professional nursing encompasses a broad liberal, general, and professional education. ~~Within the framework of EKU and the College of Health Sciences, the Department of Baccalaureate and Graduate Nursing attempts to provide opportunities for the individual to~~ The threefold mission of the department is congruent with the mission of the college and university; to serve the community of interest by providing high quality, accessible learning opportunities which encourage students to act independently, to think critically, to communicate effectively, and to practice professional or advanced levels of nursing with integrity, enlightenment and creativity; to participate in service which enhances the educational mission of the college and the university; and to participate in research and other scholarly efforts supporting the educational mission of the college and university.

Professional Nursing Practice Outcomes

Upon completion of the baccalaureate nursing program the BSN graduate:

1. ~~Treats clients~~ patients as holistic, unique and self-directive with the right to make decisions for themselves concerning health matters.
2. Uses the nursing process to provide ~~and~~ manage and evaluate culturally competent primary, secondary, and tertiary prevention for diverse clients across the life span in a variety of settings.
3. Uses evidence-based nursing practice, critical thinking and research methodologies informatics, and healthcare technology to understand relationships, provide therapeutic interventions, predict outcomes, and influence the delivery of health care.
4. ~~Has the knowledge and ability to assume~~ Assumes a leadership role in health care by communicating and collaborating with ~~clients patients, and other~~ health care professionals, and health care systems.
5. ~~Is a consumer and sociopolitical advocate who supports~~ Supports safe, quality, responsible, and economic interdisciplinary health care as a consumer and sociopolitical advocate within multiple health care systems.
6. Promotes the ethical and legal practice of professional nursing.
7. Demonstrates self-care, professionalism, accountability, and competence in nursing practice with a commitment to advancing the profession of nursing.

Admission and Progression Requirements

All students who are accepted by EKU's Admission Office and declare their major as baccalaureate nursing (four-year nursing) are admitted to the University as pre-baccalaureate nursing majors. However, admission to the freshman year does not guarantee admission to the laboratory nursing courses. Students seeking to enter NSC 232, 242, and 252 in the third semester of the curriculum must meet minimum program GPA requirements of 2.5 ~~or~~ and have department chair approval. Spaces in these courses are limited and are reserved for students whose academic record indicates they are more likely to be eligible to be considered for and admitted to the clinical nursing courses. To be eligible to be considered for admission to the clinical nursing courses, students must have completed the first three semesters of college work as outlined in the curriculum plan and have submitted a complete department application. All prerequisite courses must be completed with a grade of "C"/2.0 or better, and a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale must be obtained. For the prelicensure nursing program, [Nursing Pre-RN (B.S.N.)], some prerequisite courses (BIO 171, BIO 273/CLT209, BIO 301, CHE 105, NFA 201, NSC 232, NSC 242, and NSC 252) must have been taken within five years prior to the time application is made for admission to the clinical nursing courses unless an exception has been approved by the department. For the prelicensure Nursing (B.S.N.) Second Degree Option, the courses in BIO 171, BIO 272/CLT 209, BIO 301, and NFA 201 must have been taken within five years prior to the time application is made for admission to the option unless an exception has been approved by the department. Completion of eligibility criteria does not guarantee admission to the clinical nursing courses. Admission to the clinical nursing courses is competitive and based on review of the applicants' academic history by the Baccalaureate Nursing Admission/Readmission Committee. Spaces are limited and the most qualified applicants will be selected for admission.

Part III. Recording Data for New, Revised, or Suspended Program

New or Revised* Program Text
(*Use ~~strickethrough~~ for deletions and underlines for additions.)

General Dietetics Program

The dietetics program leads to a baccalaureate degree in General Dietetics. The undergraduate program in dietetics is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Dietetics Education (CADE), which is an arm of the American Dietetic Association. Upon completion of the BS in General Dietetics, the student will be issued a Verification Statement which makes the graduate eligible to apply for and complete an Accredited Dietetic Internship. Most internship programs are 9-12 months long and include supervised practice in all areas of the dietetics profession. Some internships are included within a Master's Degree program and are therefore generally 2 years long. Once the Dietetic Internship has been successfully completed, the student is eligible to take the national registration exam to become a registered dietitian (RD). Upon successful completion of the RD Exam, the student is then a Registered Dietitian.

Admission and Progression Requirements

All students who are accepted by EKU's Admissions Office and declare their major as dietetics are admitted to the University as pre-dietetics majors. However, admission to the pre-dietetics program does not guarantee admission to the dietetics program. To be admitted to the dietetics program the following criteria must be met: (1) complete a minimum of 45 semester hours; (2) attain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale; (3) earn a "C" or better in CHE 101/107 and 102 or their equivalents if taken at another school; (4) earn a "B" or better in NFA 121, 201, and 202. Once these requirements have been met, the student must apply to the Dietetics Program Director for a change from the pre-dietetics program to the dietetics program. No 400-level NFA courses may be taken prior to being admitted to the dietetics program.

After admission to the dietetics program the student must meet the following criteria to receive a BS Degree and be granted a verification statement: (1) attain a minimum cumulative GPA of ~~2.75~~ 3.0 on a 4.0 scale; (2) earn a "C" or better in all major and supporting courses (other than those NFA courses in which a "B" or better is required per admission requirements.)

General Dietetics (B.S.) Area Major

Program Goals

Upon completion of a degree in General Dietetics, graduates will be able to: 1) succeed in one or more of the following: a graduate program related to dietetics, an accredited Dietetic Internship, or employment in dietetics or a related field; 2) exhibit competent professional practice in all areas of the basic foundation knowledge and skills necessary for entry-level dietetics practitioners; 3) demonstrate a commitment to service by participating in service activities to the region and profession; and 4) develop skills for providing comprehensive food and nutrition services in a variety of settings. Employment opportunities are available in hospitals, foodservice or public health and wellness programs. After completing the degree, students may consider applying for a Dietetic Internship in order to sit for the Registered Dietitian (RD) exam.

(*Use ~~strikethrough~~ for deletions and underlines for additions.)

Health Education offers the Bachelor of Science degree in Health Education with three program options: Community Health, School Health P-12 (Teaching), and ~~Wellness~~ Worksite Health Promotion. Students who complete Community Health option are prepared to determine the health needs of the community and plan and implement effective programs to improve the health of the populations they serve. Community Health Educators may work in the Public Health Departments, Volunteer Organizations, Hospitals, and Family Resource Centers. Students in the School Health Option are prepared to teach core content health topics in public school system grades P-12 and a variety of health related agencies. Students in the ~~Wellness~~ Worksite Health Promotion option are prepared to facilitate behavior change by developing and implementing wellness and fitness programs in worksite health promotion organizations. A student may choose a minor in Community Health (non-teaching) or in School Health P-12 (Teaching). The Bachelor of Science program in Health Education has met national standards for accreditation from the Society of Public Health Educators, American Association for Health Education, National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education, and Kentucky Department of Education.

Students who transfer from another college or university must earn a minimum of 12 hours at EKU in the major. Students who transfer from another college or university must earn a minimum of six hours at EKU in the minor. Students who are accepted by the EKU Admissions Office and declare their major as Health Education must maintain an overall grade point average of 2.25 with a grade of "C" or better in all of the required major and supporting courses found in the Health Education Curriculum.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. The student will demonstrate basic medical knowledge related to the performance of health services administration functions.
2. The student will communicate clinical information with other members of the healthcare team.
3. The student will calculate hospital morbidity and mortality rates.
4. The student will interpret clinical health data and statistics.
5. The student will compile a personal health record.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity Policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by Telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

CELL PHONES During class, students are expected to concentrate on class materials and activities. Cell phones shall be on silent or vibrate mode, and the phones put away, before class begins.

OFFICIAL E-MAIL An official e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this ECU e-mail address.

METHOD OF EVALUATION                      HSA 303 GRADE DETERMINATION

1. Grades for this class will be based on your demonstration of competent knowledge or skills in all units of the class. Doing excellent work in some units and poor work in other units does not lead to success in health care; you need to understand all units.
2. All unit exams must earn at least a grade of C after two attempts. Grades of D or F show that you are not competent in these areas of knowledge to progress to more advanced classes.
3. All unit exams will carry equal weight, except for the final exam. It is to your benefit to be well prepared for each exam when it is first given, so that you can receive at least a grade of C on it and not have to repeat a make-up exam. The best preparation is to learn your objectives from the syllabus. Study groups may be helpful.
4. Assuming you receive a grade of C or better on all unit exams after two attempts, your course grade will be determined by averaging these grades and then adding in your homework and PHR grades. If you wish to attempt to improve your final grade, you have the option of taking the final exam. If you take the comprehensive, multiple choice final exam, your semester exam average will be determined by using the higher grade from the final exam or your average from the semester exams. For example, you have a B at the end of the semester exams but receive an A on the final exam, you will receive an A for the exam average portion of your course grade. If you receive a C on the final exam, you retain your B for the exam average. If you are motivated and have sufficient time to review, it will benefit you to take the final exam.
5. If you receive a D or F on any unit exam the first time, your grade will be a 0 (zero) because you are not considered competent in the material. You will have a second chance to learn the material and be re-tested. The highest grade that will be recorded from your second attempt is a C of 74%. For example, if you take the second attempt and receive 90%, you will be assigned a 74%. This is to encourage you to do well the first time and not to penalize those who passed (C or better) the first time, but perhaps with a lower grade than desired.
6. Dates and times for second exam times will be announced or arranged between the instructor and student.
7. If after two attempts you have still not received a C on an unit exam, you have one last opportunity to show competency by taking the final exam and receiving at least 74% on it.

Graded Activities

Unit Exams (or final exam).....80% of course grade
 PHR.....15% of course grade
 Other homework.....5% of course grade

Grading Scale

A = 92.0 – 100    B = 83.0 - 91.9    C = 74.0 - 82.9    D = 60.0 - 73.9
 F = below 60

MIDTERM STATUS

Students will be given a grade update of their progress in the class prior to midterm.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

Lecture, audio-visual, homework exercises.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

1. Students are expected to attend all classes.
2. If it is necessary to miss a class, the student must see the instructor prior to the next scheduled class period to identify any work missed during the absence.
3. At the discretion of the instructor, class attendance will be recorded at the beginning of each scheduled class meeting. When a student is late in getting to class or after attendance has been recorded, the student is responsible, immediately after class, to see that the absence is removed from the record. Tardies will be considered one-third of an absence.
4. At the discretion of the instructor, some absences may be excused, such as those due to a documented medical encounter or approved University activity. Examples of documentation include a written doctor's excuse or an official University excuse.
5. In the event of an unavoidable absence, the student should meet the instructor's terms for "make-up" procedures. The responsibility for initiating make-up work rests with the student.
  - a. Make-up assignments and exams may be provided for excused absences, although it often is not possible to make-up an in-class discussion or exercise.
  - b. If a student does not have an excused absence and needs to make up an exam or assignment, the grade may be lowered by a 10% late penalty.
  - c. At the discretion of the instructor, specific time deadlines may be assigned to some make-up work.

LAST DAY TO WITHDRAW

March 19, 2010

Last day to withdraw in the fall is October 14, 2005.

SCHEDULE

The units are covered in an orderly manner throughout the semester, averaging about 1½ Units per week. The class is scheduled to have an exam about every other week during the first half of the semester, and almost every week during the second half of the semester. The PHR assignment is typically due week 13 or 14. The pharmacology homework is typically due around week 5 or 6; the mental health homework is due the last week of the semester and much of it is completed in class. A detailed class calendar will be distributed in class and is available on Blackboard.

Catalog Description:

Pre-requisite: OTS 401. Participatory experiences in the application of advocacy, ethics and research to advance health and wellness. Course includes self-reflection and portfolio development.

Course Objectives:

Upon completion of the course, the learner will

1. Participate in the roles of leader, educator, advocate and researcher.
  - a. Explore community based options for service learning leadership initiative.
  - b. Discuss roles of engagement for service learning.

2. Demonstrate strategies to use resources and collaborate with persons, organizations, and populations.
  - a. explore community-based options for service learning initiative.

3. Participate in campus-community partnership for change.
  - a. Reflect on service learning components in the partnership.

4. Reflect on the ethics of community-based research and advocacy.
  - a. Student will participate in reflections using critical thinking skills, based upon the service learning experience.

5. Synthesize concepts of occupational science to inform research and advocacy activities.
6. Engage in the design of product which promote health and wellness.

7. Demonstrate competency in the integration of curricular themes through portfolio completion.

S/U

Summative portfolio is a final assessment of achievement of outcomes and sub-outcomes. A student must receive a satisfactory grade (70% or better) on the summative portfolio to pass OTS-402. If the course instructor determines a portfolio score to be less than satisfactory, two faculty assessors who teach in the Occupational Science Program will independently evaluate the portfolio. At least two of the three assessors must agree that the portfolio is unsatisfactory. If the portfolio is unsatisfactory, the student receives a failing grade in OTS-402 and cannot graduate from the Occupational Science Program until the whole course is successfully repeated.

All requirements must be completed to pass the course. Late assignments will have 10% deducted for each day past due.

Grading Practices:

90 - 100	A	70 - 79	C
80 - 89	B	60 - 69	D
59 and below	F

Grades are available on the course Blackboard site.

Midterm grades are determined by participation and work completed by 3/6/08.

The last day to withdraw from the course is March 21, 2008.

Attendance:

Participation is essential to an experiential course. Each student is to notify the instructor prior to class when he or she will be absent due to illness. Not attending class, including community-based activities, will have a significant negative impact on your course grade.

Americans with Disabilities Act ADA Statement:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please make an appointment with the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you need accommodations and are not registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please contact the office on the third floor of the Student Service Building, by email at dissolve@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in alternative forms.

Academic Integrity:

Students are expected to abide by the ECU Academic Integrity Policy. A copy of the policy, including definitions, descriptions, and institutional procedures, is available <http://www.academicaffairs.eku.edu/integrity/>

Good morning!

Your application for an "S" Designation for courses OTS 871 and OTS 402 has been approved by the Service-Learning Committee. I have mailed the signed application form to your mailboxes. Please move forward in your process to have this course approved by the department, college, and CAA. Let me know if you have any questions during this process.

Thank you!

The justification for this action:          Attaining accreditation for the Fire Protection Engineering Technology and Industrial Safety portions of our programs through ABET (Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology) will benefit the professional development of graduates. Currently the Fire and Safety Engineering Technology curriculum has four study options, Fire Administration, Fire Protection Engineering Technology, Fire, Arson, and Explosion Investigation and Industrial Safety and Risk Management. To obtain this accreditation, the plans of study that are now under a single degree must be separated into a single track to obtain the degree. Curriculum will remain constant for the newly developed degrees while offering the greatest flexibility for graduates. Continued accreditation of the Fire, Arson and Explosion Investigation curriculum will be sought under the International Fire Service Accreditation Congress (IFSAC). C. The projected cost (or savings) of this proposal is as follows:  Personnel Impact:          Current curriculum includes courses for options within the Fire and Safety Engineering Technology Degree thus, no new courses or additional faculty will be required for this change.  Operating Expenses Impact:

B. The justification for this action:

Attaining accreditation for the Fire Protection Engineering Technology and Industrial Safety portions of our programs through ABET (Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology) will benefit the professional development of graduates. Currently the Fire and Safety Engineering Technology curriculum has four study options, Fire Administration, Fire Protection Engineering Technology, Fire, Arson, and Explosion Investigation and Industrial Safety and Risk Management. Curriculum will remain constant for the newly developed degrees while offering the greatest flexibility for graduates. Continued accreditation of the Fire, Arson and Explosion Investigation curriculum will be sought under the International Fire Service Accreditation Congress (IFSAC).

C. The projected cost (or savings) of this proposal is as follows:

Personnel Impact:

Current curriculum includes courses for options within the Fire and Safety Engineering Technology Degree. Several new courses are required to meet the ABET accreditation CRITERIA. New faculty added to the FSE program in recent years can teach the new courses and the program is continuing to add appropriately credentialed adjunct faculty to help with existing and/or new courses.

Operating Expenses Impact:

The ABET accreditation of two of the new degrees will require some support to fund the accreditation process (application fees and site visits).

Equipment/Physical Facility Needs:

The four new degree curricula include many of the same courses for the options within the Fire and Safety Engineering Technology Degree thus, no new or additional faculty will be required for this change.

Library Resources:

The four new degree curricula include many of the same courses for the options within the Fire and Safety Engineering Technology Degree thus, very little additional library resources will be required.

Part II. Recording Data for New, Revised, or Dropped Course

(For a new required course, complete a separate request for the appropriate program revisions.)

1. For a new course, provide the catalog text.
2. For a revised course, provide the current catalog text with the proposed text using ~~striketrough~~ for deletions and underlines for additions.
3. For a dropped course, provide the current catalog text.

New or Revised* Catalog Text

(*Use ~~striketrough~~ for deletions and underlines for additions. Also include Crs. Prefix, No., and description, limited to 35 words.)

FSE 335 Engineering Mechanics (3). Prerequisites: CON 303 or PHY 221. Engineering mechanics and materials provide students with knowledge of structural mechanics and behavior of materials. Topics: elasticity, stress, strain, tension, compression, shear, beams, columns, moments of inertia, and centroids.

Part III. Recording Data for New, Revised, or Suspended Program

1. For a new program, provide the catalog description as being proposed.
2. For a revised program, provide the current program requirements using ~~striketrough~~ for deletions and underlines for additions.
3. For a suspended program, provide the current program requirements as shown in catalog. List any options and/or minors affected by the program's suspension.

B. The justification for this action:

This course examines theories and methodologies utilized to engineer fire protection systems for structural members and systems. Currently education of Fire Protection Engineering Technology students does not include this information which is critical to their success in completion of certification testing.

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

A. 1. Specific action requested: (Example: To increase the number of credit hours for ABC 100 from 1 to 2.)
 As the Occupational Safety Program will be seeking ABET accreditation in the future, a senior capstone course will be beneficial to document our students progress though their four years of education. To approve a new OSH course- OSH 495 Senior Capstone.

A. 2. Effective date: (Example: Fall 2001)
 Fall 2010

A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: (if applicable)

---

B. The justification for this action:

This course would be a senior capstone class that has the potential to clarify the student's relationship to this discipline of occupational safety by solidifying their knowledge and opening new paths for the future. This course would examine real world situations through case study analysis, and consider scenarios that are presented to them which then require them to use and integrate materials from courses they have taken and then develop strategies and problem solving methods to solve the problem, formulate strategies to deal with future issues to eliminate future events, and control future accidents and injuries, as well as dealing with management issues and concerns.

C. The projected cost (or savings) of this proposal is as follows:

Personnel Impact:

As this is an additional course to a current curriculum, no new faculty or personnel will be required and other courses are being dropped from the curriculum.

Operating Expenses Impact:

No new expenses are expected from this change.

Equipment/Physical Facility Needs:

No new equipment or facility needs are expected.

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

A. 1. Specific action requested: To revise the required major and supporting courses in the Bachelor's of Science in Homeland Security.
A. 2. Effective date: Fall 2010
A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: Not applicable
B. The justification for this action: The current bachelor's of Science in Homeland Security curriculum is in its third year. The program faculty has identified several gaps in the curriculum requiring a revision to major and supporting courses. Additionally, EKU is a charter member of the Homeland Security and Defense Education Consortium Association (HSDECA), and the attached revisions bring the EKU program into compliance with the HSDECA model Homeland Security curriculum recommendations. This is important as HSDECA will soon become the program certification/accreditation organization in Homeland Security.
C. The projected cost (or savings) of this proposal is as follows:  Personnel Impact: None. Existing full-time faculty will teach new HLS courses. There are sufficient HLS adjunct faculty to backfill for existing full-time faculty teaching new HLS courses. All EKU departments contributing supporting courses have confirmed their abilities to participate.  Operating Expenses Impact: None  Equipment/Physical Facility Needs: None  Library Resources: None

BS in Homeland Security Student Learning Outcomes

Students completing the BS in Homeland Security will be able to:

SLO 1: Explain, discuss, and apply clearly and accurately the key concepts and general theories, and demonstrate expertise, appropriate to the Homeland Security discipline in the following areas:

Strategic, Policy, Legal, Ethical and Administrative Issues

Critical Infrastructure and Key Resource Protection

Emergency Management

All Hazards Intelligence Support

SLO 2: Identify, collect, analyze, and evaluate relevant information to understand the context of essential questions and problems in the discipline.

SLO 3: Evaluate questions and problems in the discipline using creative and critical thinking approaches that identify and analyze underlying concepts, assumptions, inferences, and point of view of arguments, including assessing alternative answers and solutions while considering implications and consequences.

SLO 4: Communicate based on intellectual standards in presenting arguments clearly and logically using oral and written forms.

Measurement of student learning outcomes will be conducted through a student graduation survey and student performance in the new HLS 495 Homeland Security Colloquium (Capstone) course.

Texts:

Norman, T. L. (2009). Risk Analysis and Security Countermeasure Selection. Houston, TX: Protection Partners International.

CRS Report: The Department of Homeland Security's Risk Assessment Methodology: Evolution, Issues, and Options for Congress February 2, 2007

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Integrate critical and creative thinking skills into risk analysis.
2. Appraise and apply the five core principles of the risk analysis lifecycle.
3. Assess a completely adaptable graphic risk analysis tool applicable in public or private industries, and works with all DHS-approved methods.
4. Appraise the tools and insights needed to effectively analyze risks and secure facilities in a broad range of industries, including DHS designated critical infrastructure in the chemical, transportation, energy, telecommunications, and public health sectors.
5. Conduct assessments with industry best practice tools such as CARVER, API/NPRA, RAMCAP, and various Sandia methodologies.

Evaluation Methods:

Course Components	Points	Percentage of Final Grade
Discussion Exercises & Participation	20	20%
Assignments	20	20%
Quizzes	10	10%
Final Project	50	50%
TOTAL	100	100%

B = 80 - 89 points (80 – 89%)

C = 70 - 79 points (70 – 79%)

D = 60 – 69 points (60 – 69%)

F = < 60 points (<60%)

Student Progress: In conjunction with the return of graded mid-term examinations, students will be provided a written summary of their progress in the first half of the course.

Attendance Policy: Students are required to attend all class periods unless formally excused by the instructor. Points will be deducted from the student’s overall class totals for unexcused absences. All assignments will be submitted on original dates due unless a formal extension of the due date is authorized by the instructor. Late assignments are subject to point deductions for being late.

Disability Statement: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Academic Integrity Statement: Students are advised that ECU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Official E-mail: An official ECU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this ECU e-mail address.

Course Requirements:

Discussion Exercises & Participation (20%)

Each module contains graded Blackboard discussion board style exercises where you are asked to provide an original substantive response by a due date indicated in the Course Calendar tool. Quality responses evaluate the discussion topic critically; relate to the protection of critical infrastructure; demonstrate mastery of course vocabulary, and recognize related policy. In addition, responses should be well organized and carefully edited.

You are to also provide at least one substantive response to one other student's post (for each discussion exercise) by the due date indicated in Course Calendar tool. Substantive posts build on another's post by adding supportive evidence, identifying inconsistencies/gaps, or offering a counterpoint. All posting should be carefully edited and well organized.

Assignments (20%)

There are five graded individual assignments in the course. Each asks you to apply course materials and submit work by a due date indicated in the Course Calendar tool. Quality submissions will demonstrate knowledge of sectors, relate existing policies and procedures, and apply methods and tools to address particular critical infrastructure protection issues. You should also address any shortcomings you discover in your applications. All assignment submissions should be carefully edited and well organized.

Quizzes (10%)

There are four graded quizzes in the course. Each has an availability and due date indicated in the Course Calendar tool. The quizzes are designed to ensure you have grasped important foundational information related to critical infrastructure protection, such as key vocabulary, related policies, and analysis tools.

Final Project (50%)

The final project is a synthesis of the individual course assignments demonstrated by completing the adaptable graphic risk analysis tool on a specific critical infrastructure sector. The sector can be either public or private or a combination both and will include completing a comprehensive vulnerability and risk assessment.

Course Outline:

Module 1: Risk Analysis— Risk Assessment Methodology: Evolution, Issues, and Options; The Basis for Appropriate and Economical Countermeasures

Module 2: Risk Analysis Basics and the Department of Homeland Security—Approved Risk Analysis Methods

Module 3: Risk Analysis Skills and Tools

Module 4: Critical Thinking and the Risk Analysis Process

Module 5: Asset Characterization and Identification

Module 6: Threat Analysis

Module 7: Estimating Probability

Module 8: Prioritizing Risk

Module 9: Security Policy and Countermeasure Goals

Module 10: Developing Effective Security Policies

Module 11: Countermeasure Goals and Strategies

Module 12: Types of Countermeasures

Module 13: Countermeasure Selection and Budgeting Tools

Module 14: Security Effectiveness Metrics

Module 15: Cost-Effectiveness Metrics

Module 16: Writing Effective Reports

Catalogue Course Description: History, structure and operations of the US counterintelligence community. Includes legal foundations of counterintelligence and critiques of recommended changes to the community.

Texts:

Frank J. Rafalko (ed.), American Revolution into the New Millennium (Washington: Office of the National Counterintelligence Executive, 2004). (CD)

Michelle K. Van Cleave, Counterintelligence and National Strategy. (Washington: National Defense University Press, 2007).

Dycus, Berney, Banks, and Raven-Hansen, National Security Law (3rd ed.), (New York: Aspen Publishers, 2002).

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Assess forces driving changes in the global environment.
2. Appraise challenges facing the US in the 21st century in both the public and private sectors.
3. Assess the history and structure of the US counterintelligence community.
4. Appraise the legal foundation for US counterintelligence operations.
5. Examine US counterintelligence operations through a series of case studies using a critical and creative thinking framework.
6. Critique the US counterintelligence community and recommendations for improvement that have been advanced.

Evaluation Methods:

1.	In-class Discussion Participation (100 each half semester)	200 points
2.	Critical Thinking Logic Paper	50 points
2.	Counterintelligence Briefing Papers (#1-8 @ 50, #9 @ 100 points)	500 points
3.	Mid-term Examination	200 points
4.	Completion of Counterintelligence Simulation	350 points
	Proposal	50 points
	Threat/Risk Analysis	100 points
	In-Class Presentation	100 points
	Final Paper	100 points
5.	Final Examination	200 points

Total Points: 1500 points

Grading Scale:

A = 1350-1500 points 100-90%

B = 1200-1349 points 89-80%

C = 1050-1199 points 79-70%

D = 900-1049 points 69-60%

F = 899 or less points < 60%

Student Progress: In conjunction with the return of graded mid-term examinations, students will be provided a written summary of their progress in the first half of the course.

Attendance Policy: Students are required to attend all class periods unless formally excused by the instructor. Points will be deducted from the student's overall class totals for unexcused absences. All assignments will be submitted on original dates due unless a formal extension of the due date is authorized by the instructor. Late assignments are subject to point deductions for being late.

Disability Statement: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Academic Integrity Statement: Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Official E-mail: An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

Course Requirements:

In-Class Discussion Participation (13.3%): A significant part of your grade in this course comes from the in-class discussions. You are expected to read assignment materials, take notes on the readings, and bring the reading notes to class and be prepared to discuss the material in class. Students will be selected at random in-class to summarize sections of the assigned readings. Your in-class discussion participation provides me an indication of your understanding of the course material.

Counterintelligence Briefing/Logic Papers (36.6%): Students will be required to complete nine (9) Counterintelligence Briefing Papers (3-4 pages double spaced each) and one Logic Paper (2-4 pages double-spaced), due at various times during the course. The Intelligence Briefing Papers place you in the role of a Counterintelligence Officer at a large government agency or private industry organization. The material for each paper should come from both the assigned readings and supporting outside research. The papers must follow APA Publication Manual guidelines and be free of typographical, spelling and grammatical errors. The Analytical Writing Rubric will be used to evaluate these assignments. Briefing and logic papers are also used for group session discussions where the topic of each paper is investigated more in-depth.

Examinations (26.6%): There will be in-class mid-term and final examinations. The examinations will employ an essay format. Students will be able to use their textbooks, class reading notes, lecture notes, and class handouts on the examinations.

Group Project: Counterintelligence Plan (Simulation) (23.3%): Students will work in groups to develop a counterintelligence plan for a large government agency or private industry organization of the group's choice. The group will first develop a proposal for their selected agency or organization. The group will prepare a threat and risk analysis for the agency or organization. Finally, the group will prepare a counterintelligence simulation plan, which will be presented in class and in a final paper 20-25 pages in length. The individual assignments and final paper must follow APA Publication Manual guidelines and be free of typographical, spelling and grammatical errors. Each individual assignment will be evaluated based on the assignment quality and compliance with individual assignment's requirements. The Analytical Writing Rubric will be used to evaluate the assignment's quality.

Course Requirements:

National Incident Management System (NIMS) Training:

Students are required during the first three weeks of this course to complete the following online courses. Each online course can typically take up to two hours to complete. Evidence of completion will be the printed online certificate and a copy of this must be provided to the instructor. The process for taking these three online courses will be explained in class. EACH ONLINE COURSE IS WORTH 50 POINTS, UPON COMPLETION.

1) Introduction to the Incident Command System (IS 100.a), introduces the Incident Command System (ICS) and provides the foundation for higher level ICS training. This course describes the history, features and principles, and organizational structure of the Incident Command System. It also explains the relationship between ICS and the National Incident Management System (NIMS).

<http://training.fema.gov/EMIWeb/IS/IS100a.asp>

2) ICS for Single Resources and Initial Action Incidents (IS-200.a) is designed to enable personnel to operate efficiently during an incident or event within the Incident Command System (ICS). ICS-200 provides training on and resources for personnel who are likely to assume a supervisory position within the ICS.

<http://training.fema.gov/EMIWeb/IS/IS200a.asp>

3) NIMS An Introduction (IS 700.a) introduces and overviews the National Incident Management System (NIMS). NIMS provides a consistent nationwide template to enable all government, private-sector, and nongovernmental organizations to work together during domestic incidents.

<http://training.fema.gov/EMIWeb/IS/is700a.asp>

Other online courses related to NIMS are also available should a student wish to take additional courses. To see what courses are available, go to: <http://training.fema.gov/IS/>

Examinations: There will be two examinations, a mid-term (100 points) and a final examination (200 points). These examinations may be given in the classroom on dates/times to be provided in class.

MID-TERM EXAM: This exam may consist of a variety of types of questions, including multiple choice (or matching), short answer, and essay questions (value 100 points).

FINAL EXAMINATION: This exam may consist of multiple choice, matching, short answer questions, and/or essay (value 200 points).

Quizzes: There will be four quizzes taken in class. Each will be worth 50 points. Each will take about 20 minutes of class time. These will be based on course materials studied and/or lectured about during that three week period.

Disaster Exercise: Students will design and conduct an in-class disaster exercise incorporating critical and creative thinking methodologies. Preparations and related critical thinking activities will take-up parts of at least four weeks. Week Ten will be dedicated to the exercise. Guidance will be provided in class and posted online.

Comprehensive Preparedness Guide 101 - A Guide for All-Hazard Emergency Operations Planning: The FEMA Comprehensive Preparedness Guide. CPG 101 provides general guidelines on developing Emergency Operations Plans (EOPs). <http://www.fema.gov/about/divisions/cpg.shtm>

Comprehensive Preparedness Guide 301: Interim Emergency Management Planning Guide for Special Needs Planning: Federal Emergency Management Agency and DHS Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties. Version 1.0 (August 15, 2008): This guide is a tool for state, territorial, tribal, and local emergency managers to use in the development of emergency operations plans (EOPs) that are inclusive of the entire population of a jurisdiction of any size. It specifically provides recommendations for planning for special needs populations. <http://www.fema.gov/news/newsrelease.fema?id=45436>

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Adapt planning concepts, theories, principles, and programs of governmental and corporate emergency management to the emergency planning process.
2. Formulate a framework for plan development through team building and coordination in a service-learning environment.

3. Integrate critical and creative thinking frameworks into emergency planning activities.
4. Appraise and apply the legal responsibilities of local, state and federal government agencies in all hazards planning.
5. Plan in a real world emergency management setting interacting with professional emergency managers and agency executives.

D = 600 – 699 points (60 – 69%)

F = < 600 points (<60%)

Student Progress: In conjunction with the return of graded mid-term examinations, students will be provided a written summary of their progress in the first half of the course.

Attendance Policy: Students are required to attend all class periods unless formally excused by the instructor. Points will be deducted from the student’s overall class totals for unexcused absences. All assignments will be submitted on original dates due unless a formal extension of the due date is authorized by the instructor. Late assignments are subject to point deductions for being late.

Disability Statement: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Academic Integrity Statement: Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Official E-mail: An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

Course Requirements:

Examinations: There will be two examinations, a mid-term (100 points) and a final examination (100 points). These examinations will be given in the classroom on dates/times provided in class.

MID-TERM EXAM: This will be a closed book exam and be taken in the classroom during a regularly scheduled class period. It may consist of a variety of types of questions, including multiple choice (or matching), short answer, and essay questions (value 100 points).

FINAL EXAMINATION: This may be, in part, an open book exam. It will consist of multiple choice, matching, short answer questions, and/or essay (value 100 points).

Homework Assignments: The details of homework assignments and the disaster exercise will be discussed in class. See Teaching Schedule for times. The value of each assignment is 50 points.

- 1) Assignment I: Each student will develop one disaster model for each hazard-disaster relationship, then assist in developing a synthesized/composite model.
- 2) Assignment II: Each student will develop one PowerPoint slide set, then assist in developing one synthesized/composite PowerPoint presentation.
- 3) Assignment III: Each student will prepare one Table Top exercise design and assist in developing one synthesized/composite Table Top exercise.
- 4) Assignment IV: Each student will participate in presenting the PowerPoints (verbal presentation) to the organization's staff.

Quizzes: There will be six quizzes taken in class, one each two weeks (approximate schedule). Each will be worth 50 points. Each will take about 20 minutes of class time. These will be based on course materials studied and/or lectured about during that two week period.

Service Learning Project: A service learning project with an emergency management agency/office will require students to provide a set of deliverables of benefit to that organization. This will be a significant class activity and be worth 300 points. Students will design and carry out the project as per class instructions. Guest lecturers will also instruct the students. The project will evolve and remain a work in progress. Students can have input into how the project will be conducted.

Approximately two-thirds of class time and homework time will be dedicated to the service learning project.

Deliverables are anticipated to include the following:

1. Disaster models – developed by the students for as many as three hazard-disaster relationships.
2. PowerPoint presentations (training modules) explaining how the organization can respond to emergency situations caused by the three sets of hazard-disaster relationships.
3. Designs for three sets of table top exercises based on the disaster models and training modules.

The students will provide professional emergency planners with presentations of the training modules, as well as the disaster models and table top exercise designs during the last week of class.

Course Requirements:

In-Class Discussion Participation (20%): A significant part of your grade in this course comes from the in-class discussions. You are expected to read assignment materials, take notes on the readings, and bring the reading notes to class and be prepared to discuss the material in class. Students will be selected at random in-class to summarize sections of the assigned readings. Your in-class discussion participation provides me an indication of your understanding of the course material.

Strategic Position Papers (30%): Students will be required to complete six (6) Strategic Position Papers (3-4 pages double spaced each) due at various times during the course. The Strategic Position Papers place you in the role of a Planning Officer at a large government agency or private industry organization. The material for each paper should come from both the assigned readings and supporting outside research. The papers must follow APA Publication Manual guidelines and be free of typographical, spelling and grammatical errors. The Analytical Writing Rubric will be used to evaluate these assignments. Briefing papers are also used for group session discussions where the topic of each paper is investigated more in-depth.

Senior Project: Strategic Planning Project (50%): Students will complete a senior project organized around a strategic planning project of the student's choice in homeland security or emergency management. The senior project consists of a project proposal, strategic analysis, funding document development, in-class presentation, and a final paper. The final paper will be 25-30 pages (double-spaced) in length. The individual assignments and final paper must follow APA Publication Manual guidelines and be free of typographical, spelling and grammatical errors. Each individual assignment will be evaluated based on the Analytical Writing Rubric, plus the assignment's compliance with individual assignment's requirements.

SWK 310W Social Welfare Policy History. (3) I, II. Prerequisites: Pol 101. History of U. S. social welfare policy and programs. Critical thinking and writing are an integral component of this course. Gen. Ed. VB

2. TEXT(S) AND OTHER REQUIRED READINGS

Jansson, B. (2009). The reluctant welfare state: American social welfare policies: Past, present and future. (6th ed.) Belmont, CA: Brooks/Cole.

Szuchman, L. T., & Thomlison, B. (2007). Writing with style: APA style for social work. (3rd ed.). Belmont, CA: Wadsworth/Thompson.

3. GENERAL EDUCATION GOALS

Students will be able to:

1. Use appropriate methods of critical thinking and quantitative reasoning to examine issues and to identify solutions. (Goal two)
2. Analyze the historical and social contexts of cultural, economic, political, religious, and scientific developments. (Goal three)
3. Distinguish the methods that underlie the search for knowledge in the arts, humanities, natural sciences, history, and social and behavioral sciences. (Goal seven)
4. Integrate knowledge that will deepen their understanding of, and will inform their own choices about, issues of personal and public importance. (Goal eight)

4. SOCIAL WORK DEFINITION

The Generalist Perspective: "The application of an eclectic knowledge base, professional values, and a wide range of skills to target systems of any size, for change within the context of four primary processes. First, generalist practice emphasizes client empowerment. Second, it involves working effectively within an organizational structure and doing so under supervision. Third, it requires the assumption of a wide range of professional roles. Fourth, generalist practice involves the application of critical thinking skills to the planned change process” (Kirst-Ashman & Hull, 2006, p. 7).

Critical Thinking: The ability to use intellectual and affective processes, which evaluate statements, arguments, and experiences by judging the validity and/or worth of those statements, arguments, and experiences. Critical thinking entails the ability to carefully evaluate the validity of an assumption and even of a so-called “fact” (Kirst & Hull, 2002, p. 27). It “involves the careful examination and evaluation of beliefs and actions” (Gibbs & Gambrill, 1996, p. 3).

5. SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

1. Apply critical thinking skills within the context of professional social work practice. (Program Goal: 4)
2. Understand the value base of the profession and its ethical standards and principles, and practice accordingly. (Program Goal: 2, 3)
3. Practice without discrimination and with respect, knowledge, and skills related to clients’ age, class, culture, disability, ethnicity, family structure, gender, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, and sexual orientation. (Program Goal: 3, 4)
4. Understand the forms and mechanisms of oppression and discrimination and apply strategies of advocacy and social change that advance social and economic justice. (Program Goal: 3, 4)
5. Understand and interpret the history of the social work profession and its contemporary structures and issues. (Program Goal: 1, 2)
6. Apply the knowledge and skills of generalist social work practice with systems of all sizes. (Program Goal: 1, 4)
7. Use theoretical frameworks supported by empirical evidence to understand individual development and behavior across the life span and the interactions among individuals and between individuals and families, groups, organizations, and communities. (Program Goal: 1, 4)
8. Analyze, formulate, and influence social policies. (Program Goal: 3, 4)
9. Evaluate research studies, apply research findings to practice, and evaluate their own practice interventions. (Program Goal: 2, 3, 4)
10. Use communication skills differentially across client populations, colleagues, and communities. (Program Goal: 1, 3, 4)
11. Use supervision and consultation appropriate to social work practice. (Program Goal: 2, 3)
12. Function within the structure of organizations and service delivery systems and seek necessary organizational change. (Program Goal: 2, 3, 4)
13. To understand and analyze the impact of current social issues specific to the region and the larger society. (Program Goal: 1, 4)

6. COURSE OBJECTIVES

Each of the following course objectives is cross referenced to the applicable program objectives. Also listed with each objective are the class assignments or experiences designed to measure the students’ achievement of the objective.

1. To learn the structure and function of the U.S. social welfare system and its relationship to other social institutions. (Program Objective: 5)
[Outcome Measure--Response Papers]
2. To examine the various components of the social welfare system. (Program Objective: 6)

[Outcome Measures--Response Papers, Target Population/Social Problems Paper, and Social Welfare Agency History Paper]
11. To examine the impact of social welfare policies and programs designed to address economic inequalities on populations-at-risk. (Program Objectives: 12, 13)
[Outcome Measures—Response Papers, Target Population/Social Problems Paper, and Agency History Paper]
12. To analyze ways that inequitable distribution of income and resources contribute to situational, institutional, and cultural violence. (Program Objective: 4)
[Outcome Measures--Response Papers, In-Class assignments, and Agency History Paper]

7. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Each of the student learning outcomes below will be followed by the related course objective and its outcome measures. The student who successfully completes SWK 310 is expected to be able to:

1. To assess and demonstrate an understanding of the effects of poverty, unemployment, and discrimination on an individual and the family. (Course Objectives 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 10, 11, 12)
2. To identify and discuss social insurance programs, their historical development, funding, strengths and weaknesses, and current concerns. (Course Objectives 1, 3, 4, 10 and 11)
3. To identify and analyze social assistance programs, various food programs, and housing programs. (Course objectives 2, 4, 8, 9, 10, and 11)
4. To identify and apply critical thinking to the prevailing attitudes toward social insurance and social assistance programs and the myths that have developed around them. (Course Objectives 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10 and 11)
5. To identify the role of government (local, state, and federal levels) in establishing and maintaining income, housing, employment, and anti-discrimination programs. (Course Objectives 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10 and 11)
6. To appraise the strengths and limitations of the present income maintenance programs. (Course Objectives 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, and 8)

8. DISABILITIES STATEMENT

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

9. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT

Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Violations of the NASW Code of Ethics is also considered a violation that may result in a failing grade or dismissal from the social work program.

10. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend class regularly and participate in class discussions. In the case of absence the student is responsible for obtaining notes from a classmate and handouts from the Blackboard or the instructor. Attendance will be taken every class at the beginning of class. A student is allowed up to 4 absences, including excused and unexcused absences. The first four absences will result in a 5 point deduction from the participation grade (worth 100 points.) After the third absence the student will receive a "0" for the participation grade.

11. GRADING AND EVALUATION

Students are encouraged to discuss grading procedures and individual progress with the instructor at anytime during the semester. Students are encouraged to make an appointment with instructor to have adequate time for discussion.

Written work students will be evaluated on accuracy, creativity, written and communication skills, and ability to integrate knowledge. All written work must be turned in on time and at the beginning of the class session on the day it is due. This includes hard copies and electronic copies. All late work will be penalized 5 points per day from the day following requested submission.

The final course grade will be based on the following:

GRADING SCALE:

Response Papers	200	828 - 900	A
Blackboard/Class Assignments	100	738- 827	B
Social Welfare Agency	200	648 - 737	C
History Paper
Presentation	100
Target Population/Social	200	558 - 647	D
Problems Paper		557 or below	F
Class Participation	100
Total	900 points possible

12. STUDENT PROGRESS

Students will be informed of their mid-term grade at the mid-point of the semester as reflected by the score earned on Response Papers grade, In-Class Assignments, and Class Participation.

The last day to drop this course and receive a "W" for withdrawal is (Date 2009).

Writing Intensive Course Syllabus Statement: For the Target Population and Social Problem Paper, you must send an electronic copy to me at via Blackboard Message Center (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing.

13. ASSIGNMENTS

The assignments assist in student comprehension, application and analysis, as well as interpretation and evaluation of materials. Further, the assignments demonstrate an integration of the course material. The reading response papers will demonstrate student comprehension of the core concepts of the course. The two-part research paper on a historical social work agencies and social problems in the United States demonstrates application and analysis as well as interpretation and evaluation. Students also research and deliver a presentation on the historical social work agency and along with the social problems paper demonstrates integration of the course content.

Students will complete a Minute Paper about the Paper (a critique of their performance) to be attached to all written assignments and a Presentation Self-Assessment for all presentations. Copies are placed on Blackboard.

a. Reading Response Papers

The focus of this course is not solely to learn historical facts such as names, places, and dates. Rather, to explore and grapple with some of the key underlying ideological and philosophical issues which guided and shaped the historical development of social welfare and the social work profession. Therefore, the focus in this class will be to work in small and large groups discussing some of these issues, rather than exclusively lectures about the content of readings.

Therefore, students must read and become familiar with the assigned readings prior to addressing the topic in the classroom. To facilitate this, students must submit a 1-2 page response to each assigned reading at the beginning of each class period for which the reading is assigned. The response should be double-spaced, typed, with the students name, the date, the course, and the title or chapter of the reading on the cover page. The instructor will read the paper and provide feedback regarding written communication and level of analysis. The student will re-write the paper and submit it the following class. This is an opportunity to change the grade attached to the paper. All the response papers will be maintained in a notebook or folder. (No Minute Paper about the Paper is required for the Response Papers).

The reading response paper should include:

- a. a one or two paragraph summary of the main points of the reading, and
- b. your response and thoughts about the reading, raise any questions, gaps, inconsistencies, things you do not understand, agree or disagree with, contradictions, implications for social welfare or social work, connections to other ideas encountered in the course, etc.
- c. At least one question or comment you would like addressed in the class session.

Grading reading responses will be evaluated on a scale of 0 – 2 in the following manner:

0. late, not done, or poor grasp of content and incomplete attempt to wrestle with the issues and implications of the material
1. partial grasp of content and superficial attempt to wrestle with the issues and implications of the material a solid grasp of content and a genuine and perceptive attempt to wrestle with the issues and implications of the material.
2. A grasp of the content and sufficient identification of the issues and implications of the material covered with a thoughtful analysis.

Since the focus of this learning is to understand and grapple with the historical issues and dilemmas, rather than memorizing facts, there will be no tests. Rather, the reading responses will constitute 22% of the course grade (the other 78% consisting of a target population and social welfare social problem paper, a historical agency research and presentation, a series of application assignments, and class participation).

b. Identification of Target Population/Social Problem Paper

Student will identify a population at risk and investigate a social problem that directly impacts this group. The topic must be approved by the instructor before beginning your paper. The paper should be four to five pages (not including cover and reference pages. It must follow APA Style guidelines. Use the following outline to write your paper. Each major section will be submitted in draft and feedback will be given to the student. The student is to re-write the paper and re-submit for grading.

Target Population and Social Problem Paper

- A. Identify a population at risk.
- B. State a social problem that affects this population.
  - a. Define social justice.
  - b. What are the social justice implications of this social problem?
- C. Describe the problem using factual data and statistics.
  - a. What are the nature, scope and magnitude of this problem?
  - b. Who is specifically affected and how?
- D. Importance for social work
  - a. What effect does the problem have on the target population?
  - b. How does this problem or its effects relate to social work values and ethics? c. Which of the core values speaks directly to this issue?
- E. Name at least two people involved in addressing the social problem and explain their roles.

Target populations:

People of color

People with physical or cognitive disabilities

People with mental illness

Gays, lesbians, transgendered and bisexuals

Immigrants

Women

Children

The elderly

People living in poverty

Social Problems:

Aging/elder services
Healthcare
Civil rights
Juvenile justice
Mental health
Education (i.e., access to)

Foster Care
Family violence
Child welfare
Homelessness/housing
Immigration
Welfare reform
Disability services

Racial/ethnic issues
Crime/corrections
Adoption
Gay Marriage
Workers' rights

Students are to upload their papers onto Blackboard. The instructor will review the papers and provide written feedback. Students will then revise and resubmit their papers for grading.

Note: For the Target Population and Social Problem Paper assignment X, you must send an electronic copy to me at my ECU email address by (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing.

c. Social Welfare Agency History Paper and Presentation

Students will complete research and make a presentation to the class on a historical agency. This assignment is focused on the history, origins and development of a social welfare agency which has its roots in the late 19th Century (i.e. established in 1950). The research and presentation must follow this outline:

1. Origins:
  - a. Who started the agency?
  - b. What was its' original purpose?
  - c. What services did it provide and to whom (target population)?
  - d. What resources (funding, staffing, space, etc.) did it have?
2. How and why did the agency evolve to what it is today?
  - a. How is the agency similar?
  - b. How is it different? (i.e. has the target population changed?)
  - c. What historical events influenced this evolution and development?
3. Evaluation and analysis.
  - a. What are the strengths and weaknesses of the agency both at the beginning and now?
  - b. How are these strengths and weaknesses shaped by its origins, history, development, and context?
  - c. How does it relate to the social welfare of the nation?

- d. What is the significance of the agency to the profession of social work?
- e. summary of why the purpose the agency serves is important
- f. What is the future prospect for resolving the social welfare issue?

Students should inform their discussion of these points with material and knowledge they have learned about the key events in social welfare history. For example, if their agency began in the 1930's how did the context of the depression shape the agency? The student must contact the agency by telephone, email, letter, or face-to-face visit and communicated with someone who has a long history (or knowledge of the agency's history). However, additional research on the agency's history, context, etc. must also be completed by the student. A draft of the paper is to be submitted prior to the due date. It will be reviewed by peers during an in-class review session and feedback provided by peers. The final paper is due at the time of the presentation.

A self-assessment of the written assignment and a peer review will be completed and attached to the paper when submitted to the instructor. The guidelines for the assessment and peer review are attached to the syllabus. All information regarding the subject matter and student performance is confidential.

Presentations are scheduled for (Dates) (see course calendar).

Guidelines for Papers and Presentations

- The PowerPoint Presentation must be interesting and engaging and a variety of approaches must be used to communicate findings. It should be 15 minutes long with up to 5 minutes for questions. Do not read to the class! Develop a 1-2 page outline of the presentation or copy of the PowerPoint presentation to upload on Blackboard the class session prior to the presenting.
- Each paper and presentation must include at least five references. Three of the sources MUST be scholarly journals that can be accessed in print form.
- The paper should follow APA Style Manual in format and when citing references. An abstract is NOT necessary.
- Be sure to address all sections of the paper and use headings based on the areas identified.
- The paper should have 12-point font, double-spaced (excluding the cover and reference pages)

d. Blackboard/In-Class and Homework Assignments

Throughout the course you will be given mini-assignments that should be submitted to Blackboard, to be completed in class, or as homework. All homework assignments will be reviewed by the instructor and feedback given. Students have the opportunity to revise the assignment once and return for review and if necessary re-grading.

Dear Norma:

I'm writing to let you know that the TCAC Advisory Board has approved your proposal for SWK 310W. We're very happy to be adding this course to those available to students. You are all set to go in offering the course as soon as it clears the College and other levels of approval. As you know, you need to initiate that approval path through your department channels.

Please remember to include on your syllabus this statement (filling in your own information, of course):

"For assignment X, you must send an electronic copy to me at mary.doe@eku.edu by (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing."

The assignment you ask to have submitted electronically should be the course's major writing assignment; you'll send it on to me (preferably, the whole class's papers on a CD), and it will be evaluated for assessment purposes. The first assessment will be held on July 13, and all TCAC faculty are welcome to participate.

With regard to your proposal, I wanted to note that, since this course has now been approved as a gen ed course, you will need to add the gen ed goals to your syllabus. The advisory board also wanted me to ask that, when you teach this course, you clarify on your syllabus how students will receive feedback from you on their major assignment.

I also want to mention that you are eligible for a course reduction (or the equivalent payment) the first time you teach the W class. When the course is in the schedule book for a given semester, let me know and I will start the paperwork for your payment. You are also eligible to apply for funds to be used in faculty development activities that will help you teaching writing-intensive courses better. If you want to use these funds, let me know and I will walk you through the process. These funds need to be used within a year from the date on this letter.

Thanks again for your hard work in making SWK 310W reality. We're looking forward to your AFA proposal. If there's anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Best regards,

Catalogue Description: Mass media as social structure and audience agency in interpretation of mass media is examined through analysis of media ownership, media content, and audience characteristics.

Required Texts: 1) Media/Society: Industries, Images, and Audiences. 3rd Edition. Croteau, David and William Hoynes.. Pine Forge Press. Thousand Oaks. 2003. 2) Media Analysis Techniques 2nd Edition .Arthur Asa Berger. Sage. New York. 1998.

Student Learning Outcomes. The successful student will:

- Define and describe the characteristics of media as a social institution
- Assess the effect of media technology as an agent of socialization (both primary and secondary).
- Assess the degree to which news and entertainment are separate media content and the extent to which these have converged.
- Analyze how news and entertainment function as instruments of authoritative power-, i.e. ideology formation. This will be accomplished by an identification and assessment of media control- who owns the media, and who decides what media content and technology will-and will not-be emphasized, and why.
- Describe and interpret the social construction of, and use of sentiment by media owners in generating salience in media content: i.e. the manufacture of fear, patriotic impulses, pride, and consumer desire.
- examine and distinguish between the delivery systems of mass media and media content
- Examine characteristics of work (the labor process) in mass media.
- Analyze the concept of the audience: the social construction of audiences; different theoretical approaches to the role of audience in relation to media, and the degree to which audience members- as reflexive actors-have the ability to resist media influence.
- Assess the comparative strengths and weaknesses of the cultural and critical perspectives in media analysis.
- Define and examine the function that media plays in maintaining an assumptive order that creates inequalities based on race, ethnicity, gender, social class, sexuality, religion, and national identity.
- Use critical and cultural approaches to conduct a focused content analysis of both print and electronic media.

Evaluation Methods: YOU WILL BE GRADED BASED ON THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

Detailed descriptions of assignments and tests follow in the section immediately following.

Test 1	25
Test 2	25
Test 3	25
Final Assignment	15 points
Video reaction papers	10 points

Total 100 points.

Grading scale:

A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	&gt;60

You must submit all tests, assignments, and material to me through the Blackboard site for this course. Your assignments, tests, and grading are as follows.

Assignments: Final Assignment 15 Points

You will have ONE FINAL ASSIGNMENT.

This assignment will be worth 20 points of your grade and is due, posted on Blackboard, on the last day of class (12: 05 AM, May 3rd). Details for this assignment will be posted on Blackboard under ASSIGNMENTS.

Assignments: Video Assessments. You will be watching a series of critical videos ( this is, after all, a mass media class ) . Guidelines for these assignments will be posted on Blackboard . Each video assessment is due by the test date following after the video: example: if you watch a video on January 29th, you would need to submit the video assessment for that video by Test One's scheduled time.

Tests. You will take three tests Each test is an essay test and will take 2 hours and 20 minutes. You will take tests on your own, over a two day time span, at a location of your choice, on a computer and submit them to me via Blackboard.

Student Progress: One third of students' grades will be available prior to midterm and last day to withdraw date.

Last Day To Withdraw: October 29th 2010 is the last day to withdraw from class with a grade of 'W'.

Attendance Policy:

Students are expected to attend class. If You Have More Than FOUR UNEXCUSED ABSENCES, your grade will drop BY ONE LETTER GRADE. If you miss more than seven classes and these are unexcused, then you will FAIL THE COURSE.

Disability Statement: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student

Catalog Course Description

SOC 330S Sociology of Migration. (3)
Prerequisites: SOC 131 strongly recommended. A sociological exploration of global migration including study of migrants, refugees, politics, laws, and the role of the global economy, informed through service-learning.

Course Description:

Societies are transformed by population migrations. These transformations occur at local, national and global levels. This course will consider the transnational experiences of migrants and refugees, and provide an interdisciplinary perspective for examining the wide range of causes, consequences and contexts of contemporary migration.

We will examine the varied global processes that encourage cross-border mobility, including growing international exchanges of money and information; economic deprivation and socio-political conflict; and the varied networks which lower barriers to migration and communication. We will examine how each act of migration, and aggregate migration streams, contribute to transnationalized relations and identities.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify migration origins, destinations and motivations.
- Recognize the complex causes and consequences of migration.
- Employ this knowledge in response to readings, interviews and engagement with immigrants.
- Critically analyze the relations between human rights, civil rights and national identity and economic interests.
- Appraise the changing role that migration plays in a growing transnational globalized world.

Required Readings:

There are four required books for this course, as well as a set of required articles that will be posted on Blackboard. The amount of reading for this course is demanding, about 70-100 pages per week, so you will want to schedule sufficient time to complete your readings for each week. I think you will find these readings engaging, and expect you to follow the reading schedule closely.

Bowe, John. 2007. Nobodies: Modern American Slave Labor and the Dark Side of the New Global Economy. New York: Random House.

Barbara Ehrenreich and Arlie Hochschild. 2002. Global Woman: Nannies, Maids, & Sex Workers in the New Economy. New York: Henry Holt.

Courtney-Smith, Robert. 2006. Mexican New York: Transnational Lives of New Immigrants. Berkeley: University of California Press.

Fadiman, Anne, 1997. The Spirit Catches You and You Fall Down. Farrar, Straus & Giroux.

Further required readings for the course are available on Blackboard.

Structure of Activities:

Class sections will include lectures, films, and discussion. Additionally, as our service learning projects unfold, there will be days devoted to service learning activities. Those days will be determined as the semester progresses.

Service-Learning:

This course is a service-learning course. Service-learning is defined at ECU as "an experiential educational method in which students participate in an organized service activity meeting community needs and reflecting on the service activity in such a way as to develop critical thinking skills and develop an enhanced sense of civic responsibility."

In this course, students will work with Kentucky Refugee Ministries to provide assistance in housing set-up and acclimation for refugee families. Students will organize a drive for needed goods for the family, participate in setting up housing, meet the family at the airport, and visit with the family to help in the acclimation to their new environment. All students will complete a minimum of 15 hours of service over the course of the semester. Additionally, students will research the circumstances surrounding the refugee family for whom they are providing assistance, and present that research to the community. Students will also be required to write a reflection paper on their experiences with the refugee family.

Students are required to participate in assigned service-learning activities and meet all requirements for that participation which could include personal background checks, fingerprinting, additional training by host sites, etc. Students who have concerns over potential requirements should meet with the instructor immediately to discuss alternatives for course selection.

Evaluation Methods:

There are six required elements in this course on the basis of which your grade will be based.

1. Test 1 October 6 (20% of final grade)
2. Reflection and Analysis Papers on two of four of the assigned texts. You may choose which two of the four you complete (that is, you will complete two papers, 2-3 double spaced pages each, 10% each, 20% of final grade).
  - o Nobodies, paper due September 15
  - o Global Woman, paper due September 29
  - o Mexican New York, paper due November 3
  - o The Spirit Catches You and You Fall Down, paper due November 24
3. Contemporary migration/refugee research presentation (15% of final grade)
4. Contemporary migration/refugee reflection paper – due on or before December 8 (15% of final grade).
5. Final Exam – December 15 (30% of grade)

You are required to write well. It is not sufficient to include the correct factual material in your writing if it is not conveyed clearly. A report or assignment that has all the factual information correct yet is not written at an “A” level will not receive an A. This is a qualitative judgment on my part. This is an upper-level course, and you are too far along in your college career to not be writing well. If you would like comments from me on any of your assignments before their due dates, please contact me and we will make arrangements.

Student Progress: Your grades for exams and assignments will be posted on blackboard. In addition, Midterm grades will be viewable online on October 16th.

Attendance Policy: You are expected to attend class unless you have a valid university excuse. Since this is a service-learning class, students cannot be excused from the assigned service times. The people we are serving depend upon your attendance. Students missing service assignments will fail the course unless extreme circumstances can be documented.

Last Date to Drop the Course: End of Add/Drop period is August 30. Last day to withdraw from the class is October 30.

INTEGRITY: Students are advised that EKU’s Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

It is imperative that you do not plagiarize in this course (either intentionally, or unintentionally). Proper reference to sources and proper use of quotation marks is essential. I will provide guides on each assignment.

Other Expectations and Code of Conduct

- Students are expected to attend and participate, to read and reread assigned materials, to have assignments ready in a timely manner, and to engage seriously in the topics and discussions of this class.
- I expect you to arrive in class on time, turn off your cell-phone, stay awake in class, and leave private conversations outside the classroom. Laptops may be used in class for note-taking or other class related (and approved) activities only. If I find your use of the laptop distracting to me or to others in the class it will no longer be allowed.

Disability Statement: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

OFFICIAL E-MAIL

An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

COURSE SYLLABUS – DES 463

DES 463, Problems in Design: _____ . Three credit hours.

Prerequisites: DES 354 and 451 or Departmental approval.

Course Description:

Independent study in design builds on creative skills and techniques learned in prior design courses. This course stresses the development of a specialized study of techniques and concepts for a design portfolio.

Recommended Text:

To be assigned in accordance with the particular goals of the student. By the time the student has arrived at this advanced level it is expected that he or she will have acquired an appropriate personal library of Design resource materials.

Course Objectives:

- To isolate and refine the student's design objectives.
- Continue to develop technical skills; to increase knowledge of design history; to research and execute technical & conceptual competence into a cohesive body of work that will define a portfolio unique to the student.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Students will demonstrate how to isolate and refine design objectives.
- Students will continue to develop technical skills; to increase knowledge of design history; to research and execute technical & conceptual competence into a cohesive body of work that will define a portfolio unique to the student.

Course Outline:

The course outline and sequence of projects is determined each semester on the basis of student's design objectives. The instructor will set the outline and sequence after consultation with the student (s) and meet for discussion and review at least 4 times of ongoing work that will culminate into a portfolio of finished design projects. The course may have a research paper as a required component.

Course Calendar:

Will meet at least 4 times throughout the semester (see Independent Study form).

Course Requirements: Completion of ALL assignments for a passing grade. The student must provide him/herself with materials and equipment as directed by the instructor. Lab time outside of scheduled class meetings is required.

Evaluation:

Design projects will be evaluated by critique session. Students must participate in critiques and discuss general design and project principles, techniques and concepts. The project will be evaluated by both general design and specific project principles, techniques and concepts. Participation in research and the execution of the project will determine course grade. Final projects represent the culmination of project objectives. This project will be 50% of course grade with the remaining grade percentage determined from each schedule meeting to review progress of project.

Grading Scale: 90-100%=A, 80-89%=B, 70-79%=C, 60-69%=D, <60%=F

- A excellent work that serves as a benchmark for what can be achieved
- B Good work that exceeds the requirements of the assignment
- C Work that is acceptable and fulfills the assignment
- D Work that is of poor quality and/ or does not address the assignment but still deserves a credit.
- F A failing grade: also given for work not handed in by the deadline.

Attendance Policy:

The Art Department's attendance policy is in effect. Its major provision; 15% absences automatically results in an "F". You are required to attend all classes and to be on time. Late arrivals/early departures will count towards absences. Two lates equal one absence. Three absences may result in the dropping of half a letter grade; four absences may result in the dropping of one full letter grade; six or more absences (greater than 15% of the semester) are grounds for failure. Please contact the instructor in case of extenuating circumstances for absences.

Academic Integrity Policy:

"Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity Policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity."

Disability Statement:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

A. 1. Specific action requested: (Example: To increase the number of credit hours for ABC 100 from 1 to 2.)
 To create a new course: CHE 385 Chemical Literature that will replace an existing course CHE 480

A. 2. Effective date: (Example: Fall 2001)
 Fall 2010

A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: (if applicable)

B. The justification for this action:

A new series of seminar courses is being developed for chemistry majors. The current course that covers the aspects of chemical literature and data dissemination (CHE 480) does not cover technical writing, chemical safety, or ethics. The newly formed course will allow these items to be covered as well as allow students to attend seminars from guest scholars to learn about current chemical topics and methods for data dissemination. The course will be geared for second year students so they can be better prepared for additional undergraduate teaching laboratories and research.

C. The projected cost (or savings) of this proposal is as follows:

Personnel Impact: The instructors for the current seminar course, CHE 480 that will be dropped, will teach this proposed course and will run concurrently with other proposed courses: CHE 484 and CHE 485.

Operating Expenses Impact: None

Equipment/Physical Facility Needs: None

Library Resources: Resources currently used for chemistry students in the current seminar course, CHE 480 that will be dropped, will be sufficient for this newly formed course.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

CHE 385 Chemical Literature (2) I. Prerequisites: CHE 112(C). Course introduces professional tools and techniques necessary for scientists including chemical literature searching, methods for disseminating chemical data, chemical safety, and professional conduct.

TEXT: No specific text. Any readings for the course will be supplied through Blackboard.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of the course work all students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate their ability to effectively utilize the Eastern Kentucky University library resources.
2. Compare, contrast, and evaluate the structure and content of published chemical information including online databases and the Internet.
3. Demonstrate familiarity with major chemical information reference tools (examples include 'Web of Science' (Science Citation Index) and 'STN on the Web' (Chemical Abstracts)).
4. Compare, contrast, and apply different methods for data dissemination including written manuscripts and posters along with oral presentations.
5. Provide clear concise written critiques of research presentations with respect to presentation style, multimedia, and content.
6. Demonstrate awareness for all forms of chemical safety as it applies in laboratories.
7. Demonstrate the ability to understand ethical issues that occur with chemical research.

COURSE OUTLINE: See supplied topical outline

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Library Assignments: During the semester, three assignments will be administered throughout the semester after sessions in the library and will be based on presented methods for literature searching.
2. Technical Writing Assignments: Four different assignments pertaining to technical writing and presentation preparations will be administered throughout the semester.
3. Seminar Journal: Multiple guest speakers will be presenting research to the department on Friday afternoons during the semester. Each student will be required to keep a journal of these seminars recording information about content and presentation methods.

ATTENDANCE POLICY: It is important that students attend all seminars and instructional presentations during the appointed course time. No allowances will be made for any absences and penalty points will be deducted from the overall course score as follows: 5 course points for each unexcused absence above 1. Excused absences must be approved prior to the missed class or by an appropriate note.

STUDENT PROGRESS: The electronic course management system Blackboard will be utilized for this course (website: <http://learn.eku.edu>). Assignments, handouts, and additional course materials will be available with Blackboard. Students can monitor their progress for the course as written assignments are returned and scores are posted through Blackboard.

EVALUATION METHOD: The evaluation for this course will be based on the student's performance on the written assignments and attendance/participation according to the following:

Library Assignments	30%
Writing Assignments	25%
Seminar Journal	25%
Attendance	20%
	100%

The following evaluation scale will be used for the course:

Letter Grade	Grade Range
A	90% - 100%
B	80% - 89%
C	70% - 79%
D	60% - 69%
F	< 60%

DISABILITY STATEMENT:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in Student Services Building Room 361 by e-mail at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

ON-CAMPUS MEETINGS:

Students will meet on campus for lecture on the first floor of the Moore building.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

Academic integrity is a fundamental value for the Eastern Kentucky University community of students, faculty, and staff. It should be clearly understood that academic dishonesty is not tolerated and incidents of it will have serious consequences. Anyone who knowingly assists in any form of academic dishonesty shall be considered as responsible as the student who accepts such assistance and shall be subject to the same sanctions. Academic dishonesty can occur in different forms, some of which include cheating, plagiarism, and fabrication.

Students have an affirmative obligation to review and comply with all standards articulated on the ECU Academic Integrity website, at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. If a student is found to have committed any of the above offenses, s/he will receive a failing grade on the assignment or in the course, depending upon the seriousness of the offense, in accordance with University policy. The offense will be referred to the Academic Integrity Office for investigation and imposition of sanctions. Ignorance is no defense.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

CHE 484 Chemistry Colloquium (1) I, II. Prerequisites: CHE 325 and 362. Lectures and presentations of chemical information by local or visiting scholars currently involved in chemical research. One weekly meeting. Cannot be taken concurrent with CHE 485. May be retaken for a maximum of two hours.

TEXT: No specific text. Any readings for the course will be supplied through Blackboard.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of the course work all students will be able to:

1. Compare and contrast chemical content available in lectures and presentations from visiting research scholars with chemical theories and methodologies presented in academic courses.
2. Structure pertinent questions regarding the data presented from a scientific presentation.
3. Assess different social issues as it applies to chemical research.
4. Evaluate the different methods for data dissemination used in oral presentations.
5. Summarize research presentations using written critiques pertaining to content, presentation style, and multimedia use.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Seminar Journal: During the course of the semester, multiple guest speakers will be presenting research to the department. Each student will be required to keep a journal of these seminars recording information about content and presentation methods.
2. Attendance: It is important that students attend all seminars and instructional presentations during the appointed course time. No allowances will be made for any absences and penalty points will be deducted from the overall course score as follows: 5 course points for each unexcused absence above 1. Excused absences must be approved prior to the missed class or by an appropriate note.
3. Participation: Students are expected to engage with discussions that occur following presentations. Students will need to formulate questions for presentations and required to ask at least 5 questions during the semester.

STUDENT PROGRESS: The electronic course management system Blackboard will be utilized for this course (website: <http://learn.eku.edu>). Quizzes or homework may be administered through Blackboard. Handouts or additional course materials for class will be available with Blackboard. Laboratory experiments will be available at least one week before the experiment is performed in lab. Students will be able to monitor their progress in the course as written assignments are returned to them and all grades will be posted through Blackboard.

EVALUATION METHODS: The grading for this course will be based on the student's performance on the written assignments according to the following:

Seminar Journal	75%
Attendance / Participation	25%
	100%

This evaluation scale will be used:

Letter Grade	Grade Range
A	90% - 100%
B	80% - 89%
C	70% - 79%
D	60% - 69%
F	< 60%

DISABILITY STATEMENT:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in Student Services Building Room 361 by e-mail at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

ON-CAMPUS MEETINGS:

Students will meet on campus for lecture on the first floor of the Moore building.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

Academic integrity is a fundamental value for the Eastern Kentucky University community of students, faculty, and staff. It should be clearly understood that academic dishonesty is not tolerated and incidents of it will have serious consequences. Anyone who knowingly assists in any form of academic dishonesty shall be considered as responsible as the student who accepts such assistance and shall be subject to the same sanctions. Academic dishonesty can occur in different forms, some of which include cheating, plagiarism, and fabrication.

Students have an affirmative obligation to review and comply with all standards articulated on the ECU Academic Integrity website, at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. If a student is found to have committed any of the above offenses, s/he will receive a failing grade on the assignment or in the course, depending upon the seriousness of the offense, in accordance with University policy. The offense will be referred to the Academic Integrity Office for investigation and imposition of sanctions. Ignorance is no defense.

IMPORTANT DATES: (from the Colonel Compass)

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

CHE 485 Chemistry Seminar. (1) I, II. Prerequisite: CHE 362 and 385. Presentation of specific chemical research from recent literature and/or performed experimentation to members of the chemistry faculty and departmental majors. One weekly meeting. Cannot be taken concurrent with CHE 484. Credit will not be awarded for both CHE 481 and 485.

TEXT: No specific text. Any readings for the course will be supplied through Blackboard.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of the course work all students will be able to:

1. Compare, contrast, and apply methods of data dissemination to prepare an effective oral presentation.
2. Create an individual presentation on chemical research while utilizing the Eastern Kentucky University library resources.
3. Explain a specific area of chemical research with a previously prepared presentation to peers and faculty advisors in the department.
4. Demonstrate the ability to introduce visiting speakers and/or invited guests

COURSE OUTLINE: See supplied topical outline at the end of syllabus

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Seminar Presentation: Seminars must be 35 to 45 minutes in length. Do not exceed these guidelines either on the long or short side!! Seminars of only 15 to 25 minutes in length are unacceptable, as are those of 50 to 60 minutes. Five (5) percentage points will be deducted from the course grade for each 5-minute block outside of this range. Written student and faculty evaluations of a seminar preparation and delivery of the seminar will be given and collected following the seminar. Submitted evaluations will assist in assessing the score for the presentation.
2. Host Performance: Duties of host include preparation of physical facilities (equipment for visual aids, extension cords, spare lights, chalk, etc.) and managing the seminar (welcome, introduction of speaker, conducting question session, thanking speaker and audience, etc.). Refreshments are not a host duty.
3. Listening Duties: To measure being an effective listener, each student will be required to keep a seminar journal of other presented seminars by recording information about content and delivery.

STUDENT PROGRESS: The electronic course management system Blackboard will be utilized for this course ( website: <http://learn.eku.edu>). Quizzes or homework may be administered through Blackboard. Handouts or additional course materials for class will be available with Blackboard. Laboratory experiments will be available at least one week before the experiment is performed in lab. No allowances will be made for any absences and penalty points will be deducted from the overall course score as follows: 5 course points for each unexcused absence above 1. Excused absences must be approved prior to the missed class or by an appropriate note.

EVALUATION METHODS: The grading for this course will be based on the student's performance on the written assignments according to the following:

Speaker Performance	50%
Host Performance	10%
Seminar Journal	15%
Attendance	25%
	100%

The following grading scale will be used for this course:

Letter Grade	Grade Range
A	90% - 100%
B	80% - 89%
C	70% - 79%
D	60% - 69%
F	< 60%

DISABILITY STATEMENT:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in Student Services Building Room 361 by e-mail at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

ON-CAMPUS MEETINGS:

Students will meet on campus for lecture on the first floor of the Moore building.

OFFICIAL E-MAIL:

An official ECU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to ECU e-mail addresses.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

Academic integrity is a fundamental value for the Eastern Kentucky University community of students, faculty, and staff. It should be clearly understood that academic dishonesty is not tolerated and incidents of it will have serious consequences. IC (3)				VC (3)

NOTE: Do not forward validation tables with curriculum form.

(*Use Validation Tables.)

Other students in the testimony sessions also rate student performance. Peer ratings are returned to the student but do not enter into the grade assignment.

Written assignments are reviewed by both instructors for correct writing style, ability to convey information in an organized and understandable way, and technical correctness.

The final grade will be determined on the following basis:

90 to 100	=	A
80 to 89	=	B
70 to 79	=	C
69 to 60	=	D
less than 60	=	F

Components of the Grade:

Mid-term essay exam *	10%
Final essay exam	10%
Expert Witness Report	10%
Amended Expert Witness Report	10%
Class Participation	10%
Videotaped Student Sessions:
Deposition	10%
Direct	20%
Cross	20%

*Results of this examination will be available to students prior to the mid-point of the semester.

V. Use of Blackboard course management program

Students will be expected to regularly access the Blackboard site for this course. The site will have course announcements, course documents, links to recommended reading, and homework problems. The discussion board area will also be available for students to communicate with each other on questions and topics of general interest to the course

V. Attendance

Students are expected to attend all lectures and the taping sessions for which they are scheduled. If a student misses a lecture, the student is still responsible for any information from that lecture. S/he should get notes from a classmate. If a student misses a testimony or exam session and there is a documented excuse, the student can make the session up at a time mutually agreeable to him/her and the instructor. If there is no documented excuse, students will receive no credit for assignment.

VI. Testimony Sessions and Grading

The student testimony sessions will be videotaped. There will be 3 testimony sessions:

Depositions	[Dates]
Direct	[Dates]
Cross	[Dates]

There will be 8 students in each of these sessions. You only need to attend the session you are scheduled for. This schedule will be given out early in the semester.

Instructors will grade student testimony sessions using a communications rubric. Students will also evaluate peers that testify in their testimony group using an abbreviated communications rubric. Ten percent of the student's grade for a testimony assignment will be based upon successful peerevaluation. Students will also review videotapes of each testimony assignment and perform formal self-assessment of each performance. The self-assessment will apply the rubric to the performance and summarize reflections for improvement in a one-page written document. Ten percent of the student's grade for a testimony assignment will be based upon successful self-evaluation.

For the Expert Witness report, you will need to send an electronic copy to me at (professor email) by (time/date). The document must be in Microsoft WORD. You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing.

VI. Scenario

Students will be given a case scenario and data about evidence collected as part of the case. This will be given to students well in advance of testifying. Students will need to choose an area of expertise. The possible areas of expertise will be given to students during the second week of class.

VII. Academic honesty and student behavior

Students are advised that ECU's Academic Integrity Policy will be strictly enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity Policy is available at www.academicintegrity.ecu.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

VIII. Important Course Dates:

- [Date] last day to drop a course without a "W" appearing on your transcript
- [Date] mid-term grades available
- [Date] last day to withdraw from a course with a "W"

IX. Disability Statement:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@ecu.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Dear Lynnette:

I'm writing to let you know that the TCAC Advisory Board has approved your proposal for FOR 465W. We're very happy to be adding this course. As you know, you'll need to move your proposal through the rest of the approval process, department to college: it will then be taken to the CAA for final approval.

When you teach this course, please remember to include on your syllabus this statement (filling in your own information, of course):

“For assignment X, you must send an electronic copy to me at mary.doe@eku.edu by (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing.”

The assignment you ask to have submitted electronically should be the course's major writing assignment; you'll send it on to me (preferably, the whole class's papers on a CD), and it will be evaluated for assessment purposes. An assessment session will be held this year on July 13; if you are interested in being part of this process, just let me know and I'll send you details.

I also want to mention that you are eligible for a course reduction (or the equivalent payment) the first time you teach the W class. When the course is in the schedule book for a given semester, let me know and I will start the paperwork for your payment. You are also eligible to apply for funds to be used in faculty development activities that will help you teaching writing-intensive courses better. If you want to use these funds, let me know and I will walk you through the process. These funds need to be used within a year from the date on this letter.

Thanks again for your hard work in making FOR 465W a reality. If there's anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Best regards,

ENG 211 – Survey of World Literature I

3 Credit Hours

CRN: -----

Course Description: Prerequisites: ENG 101 and 102 (or 105). Selected readings from masterpieces of world literature from ancient times through the Renaissance. Gen. Ed. Block III.

Textbooks: Lawall, Sarah and Maynard Mack, eds. The Norton Anthology of World Literature. 2nd ed. 3 vols. New York, London: W.W. Norton & Co., 2002.

General Education Goals:

Students will be able to:

- Use appropriate methods of critical thinking and quantitative reasoning to examine issues and to identify solutions. (Goal two)
- Analyze the values, cultural context, and aesthetic qualities of artistic, literary, philosophic, and/or religious works. (Goal six)
- Distinguish the methods that underlie the search for knowledge in the arts, humanities, natural sciences, history, and social and behavioral sciences. (Goal seven)
- Integrate knowledge that will deepen their understanding of, and will inform their own choices about, issues of personal and public importance. (Goal eight)

Course-Specific Learning Objectives for Humanities courses (IIIB):

1. Students will demonstrate their analytical writing skills.
2. Students will demonstrate their literary reading skills.
3. Students will critically discuss the literary ideas and/or cultural values of a representative body of creative works, comprised of Western and non-Western poetry, fiction, non-fiction, and drama.

Student Learning Outcomes (ENG 211):

- 1) Students will identify and comprehend key passages in a variety of pre-seventeenth century literary texts.
- 2) Students will formulate written responses to literary texts in received standard English.
- 3) Students will analyze key concepts and features of a variety of pre-seventeenth century literary texts.
- 4) Students will connect concepts from a variety of pre-seventeenth century literary texts which originate from different periods and cultures.

Student Learning Outcomes (Writing Intensive Course):

- 1) Students will demonstrate a writing process that produces effective documents appropriate to course level.
- 2) Students will recognize effective writing strategies.

Evaluation Methods (see “Course Requirements” for details of each assignment):

- 1) Class Participation (75 points)
- 2) Online Reading Quizzes (5 points, 175 points total)
- 3) Discussion Board Postings (30 points each; 270 points total)

- 4) Summary Paper (50 points)
- 5) Analytical Paper (150 points)
- 6) Synthesis Paper (200)
- 7) “Mid-Term” Essay Exam (100 points)
- 8) Final Essay Exam (200 points)

1220 points total

Grading Scale:

A: 90% - 100%

B: 80%-89.99%

C: 70% - 79.99%

D: 60% - 69.99%

F: 0% - 59.99%

Student Progress:

All students can find their current grade in the course in the “gradebook” tab of Blackboard at any time.

Any student may also ask to see their current grade via e-mail at any point.

Attendance Policy:

*Failure is mandatory for students who are absent from more than 10% of the regularly scheduled class meetings. 10% ABSENCES FOR THIS CLASS AMOUNTS TO FIVE (5) CLASS PERIODS! Absences which are “excused” simply allow students to make up whatever work they missed; they still count toward your total of two absences. Students who arrive late for class will be counted as ½ absent; students who leave class before it is dismissed will be counted as absent for the entire period. For the entire text of attendance policy, see: http://www.english.eku.edu/attendance\_policy.doc

THE LAST DAY TO WITHDRAW FROM THIS COURSE IS FRIDAY, MARCH 26.

Students with Disabilities:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity necessitates that all coursework that you share in a public context is entirely your own production and that, if it is NOT, you will credit the producers of the original work. Conversely, academic dishonesty consists of reading someone else’s exam answers, plagiarizing material in a class paper, or generally trying to pass off someone else's work as one's own. To see the most current policy on academic integrity, please refer to www.academicaffairs.eku.edu/integrity. TO SUMMARIZE THE POLICY, THE FIRST INSTANCE OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY WILL RESULT IN A GRADE OF ZERO FOR THE ASSIGNMENT; THE SECOND INSTANCE WILL RESULT IN A FAILING GRADE FOR THE CLASS AND POSSIBLE DISMISSAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY.

Course Requirements:

Applied to Mid-term Grade:

- 1) Class Participation (75 points) – This can take on many forms, including but not limited to participation in class discussion, appearance at office hours, and overall evidence of engagement with class material.
- 2) Online Reading Quizzes (5 points, 175 points total) – A new quiz will be given for each reading. Questions will usually be multiple choice, but may be fill-in-the-blank or short answer. The quizzes are available under the “Assignments” tab on Blackboard. Note that quizzes should be completed before you come to class.
- 3) Discussion Board Postings (30 points each; 270 points total) – These online writing exercises will require you to write a paragraph (300 words) about the assigned reading on a discussion board on Blackboard. You will then have to respond to the postings of at least one of your group's members with another paragraph (300 words). Each group will have to do this twice over the course of the semester. Postings that are too short or that do not address the prompts, and responses that are too short or do not address other posts, will have points deducted.
- 4) Summary Paper (50 points) – This 2-3 PAGE paper will ask you to summarize the plot of Gilgamesh succinctly and accurately. You will have to choose one particular emphasis (provided in a prompt) to guide the editorial decisions of your summary. Grading criteria will include: accuracy of summary, argumentative structure, textual evidence, mechanics.
- 5) Analytical Paper (150 points) — This 4-5 PAGE paper will require you to perform an interpretive analysis of one text by using literary and/or historical elements of the text that we will discuss in class. It will be due WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18. It will be graded based on four criteria: conceptual focus, argumentative structure, textual evidence, and mechanics. More will be said on this paper, and the grading criteria, in a handout.
- 6) “Mid-Term” Essay Exam (100 points) – This two hour-long, in-class essay exam will consist of two parts: part one will ask you to formulate an answer to a specific question about one of the texts we have read in class; part two will ask you to compare two or more texts. The test will be given shortly before the mid-term break on WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4. It will be graded based on three criteria: precision, structure, and comprehension. More will be said on this exam, and its grading criteria, in a study guide.

Applied to Final Grade:

- 7) Comparative Paper (200) – This 5-6 PAGE paper will require you to compare the literary and/or historical elements of TWO texts that we have read in class. It will be due WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29. It will be graded according to four criteria: conceptual focus, argumentative structure, textual evidence, and mechanics. More will be said on this paper, and the grading criteria, in a handout.

- 8) Final Essay Exam (200 points) – This two hour-long essay exam will consist of three parts: part one will ask you to compare two texts from the first half of the semester; part two will ask you to compare two texts from the second half of the semester; part three will ask you to discuss a text from late in the semester. The test will be given on WEDNESDAY, MAY 6. More will be said on this exam, and its grading criteria, in a study guide.

Dr. Jerry Nachtwey
Department of English and Theatre
EKU CAMPUS

Dear Jerry:

I'm writing to let you know that the TCAC Advisory Board has approved your proposal for ENG 211W. We are very happy to be adding this course to the general-education offerings in the writing-intensive program.

The next step is to get the W course approved by your Department curriculum committee, and then on to the College committee. You and your department will need to decide whether you intend to drop the old 211 and add the new writing-intensive version in its place, or keep both the old one and the new one. I'm copying this letter to Dr. Jim Keller, so that he will know officially that your course is approved at the TCAC level and can help you in moving it on to the next level.

When you teach ENG 211W, please remember to include on your syllabus this statement (filling in your own information, of course):

"For assignment X, you must send an electronic copy to me at mary.doe@eku.edu by (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing."

The assignment you ask to have submitted electronically should be the course's major writing assignment; you'll send it on to me (preferably, the whole class's papers on a CD), and it will be evaluated for assessment purposes. The particulars of the assessment process will be announced early in Spring '10. Basically, it will be a day-long session in the summer. All "W" faculty will be invited to attend, and those who attend will receive a stipend.

Thanks again for your hard work in making your new course a reality. If there's anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Best regards,

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

Required Texts (always bring the day's assigned reading to class with you)

The Longman Anthology of British Literature, 4th edition, volumes 2A, 2B, and 2C (Pearson, 2010)

Examinations (30% of final grade; 10% each)

There will be three exams, one covering each of the three chronological divisions of the course: the Romantic period, the Victorian period, and the twentieth century. The format will be short answer and essay.

Papers (50% of final grade)

You will write three short papers (3-4 pages or 1,000-1,200 words each), one for each of the three sub-divisions of the course. Papers A and B are each worth 15% of your final grade; paper C is worth 20%. More details and specific assignments are provided on a separate handout.

Daily In-Class Writing (10% of final grade)

For each day's reading assignment, three or four study questions will be posted on Blackboard. At the beginning of each class, I will choose one of that day's study questions, and you will write in response to it. These in-class writings will be collected and evaluated as either "satisfactory" or "unsatisfactory." Satisfactory work will show critical thinking and engagement with the readings, will respond directly to the day's prompt, and will be clearly/ coherently written and legible. To earn an A on this assignment, 90% of the daily writings must be graded "satisfactory"; 80% "satisfactory" for a B; etc. You must be in class on time to complete the assignment, but you may miss up to three in-class writings without penalty.

Participation (10% of final grade)

We learn the most about literature when we come prepared to share our thoughts and questions about what we have read with one another. Therefore, regular and thoughtful participation in large- and small-group discussions and other class activities is expected of all students. Negative participation (disruptive or disrespectful behavior, coming late or leaving early, texting, etc.) will have a negative effect on your grade. Students will also participate in peer review of one another's papers, using file exchange in Blackboard.

Attendance

I will take attendance at each class meeting. Excessive absences (more than three classes) will result in a substantially lowered final grade; absences in excess of three weeks (equivalent to six classes) will result in failure of the course.

Specifications for written work

All out-of-class written work must be typed, according to the following guidelines: MLA style (parenthetical citations), double-spaced, 1" margins on all sides, 10-12 point font, clear and easy to read print. Proofread your work; mechanical and grammatical errors (including misspellings and typos) inhibit clarity and will result in a lower grade. Late papers will be penalized 5% (for example, from 90% to 85%) for each day late, including weekends but not school holidays. Assignments will not be accepted after three days following the due date.

Students are advised that ECU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at <www.academicintegrity.eku.edu>. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity. Plagiarism is the act of presenting another's words or ideas as your own, without acknowledging the source. Work that has been plagiarized, in whole or in part, will be given a grade of F (0 points) and I will report you to the Academic Integrity Coordinator. To guard against academic dishonesty, all essays must be submitted via Blackboard's Safe Assignment feature.

For all paper assignments, you must send an electronic copy to me at susan.kroeg@eku.edu by (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing.

Grades

Grades will be posted to Blackboard as I complete them. Your midterm grade will be based on exam 1 and paper A. Midterm grades should be available on EKU Direct after <date>. The last date to drop the course is <date>.

Grading scale:

A 90-100      B 80-89.9      C 70-79.9      D 60-69.9      F 0-59.9

Disability Statement

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361, by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

CLASS SCHEDULE

Professor Susan Kroeg
Department of English and Theatre
Case 467
EKU CAMPUS

4 February 2010

Dear Susan:

I'm writing to let you know that the TCAC Advisory Board has approved your proposal for ENG 353W. We're very happy to be adding this course to writing-intensive roster. You are set to go in offering the courses as soon as they clear the appropriate levels of approval. As you know, you need to initiate that approval path.

Because these courses are part of the TCAC program, they will need to be part of its assessment process. This means two things. First, we ask that for each course, the syllabus would include a statement like the following:

“For assignment X, you must send an electronic copy to me at mary.doe@eku.edu by (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing.”

When the papers are gathered electronically, the instructor(s) can copy them to a CD and send it to me. Second, all instructors of writing-intensive courses will be invited to participate in a yearly holistic scoring of sample papers from all writing-intensive classes. A stipend will be paid to those who participate in this event.

In addition to the Student Learning Outcomes that you and your department have chosen for this course, the syllabus also needs to include the SLOs for the writing-intensive courses. There are two:

1. “Students will demonstrate a writing process that produces effective documents appropriate to course level”
2. “Students will recognize effective writing strategies.”

Thanks again for your hard work in making this course a reality. We are delighted to have you as part of the TCAC community. If there's anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Best regards,

Deborah Core
Director, TCAC
Professor of English

Catalog Description of Course:

An introductory social science course focusing on the political and governmental aspects of societies enhanced with a service-learning component. Does not count toward political science major requirements. Credit will not be awarded to students who have credit for POL 100. Gen. Ed. VB, VC, or VII (SBS)

Required Text:

Shively, W. Phillips. 2011. Power and Choice: An Introduction to Political Science, Twelfth Edition. New York: McGraw-Hill. ISBN: 978-0-07-337903-6

In addition to the required book, there may be other readings assigned during the course and information on such readings will be given during the course as necessary.

Student Learning Outcomes: As part of the General Education Program of Eastern Kentucky University, this course is designed such that upon successful completion, students will be able to:

- Use appropriate methods of critical thinking and quantitative reasoning to examine issues and to identify solutions. (Goal two)
- Analyze the social and behavioral influences that explain how people relate to each other, to institutions, and to communities. (Goal four)
- Distinguish the methods that underlie the search for knowledge in the arts, humanities, natural sciences, history, and social and behavioral sciences. (Goal seven)
- Integrate knowledge that will deepen their understanding of, and will inform their own choices about, issues of personal and public importance. (Goal eight)

In addition to General Education learning outcomes, the course involves political science learning outcomes. Specifically, having taken POL 100, students will be able to:

- Comprehend important concepts and theories in the study of politics.
- Explain and evaluate institutions and processes of political systems.
- Apply concepts and theories to specific political problems.
- Demonstrate a basic understanding of the methods commonly used in the discipline.
- Integrate information, perspectives, and principles relevant to politics in oral and/or written communication.

Evaluation Methods: This course uses a variety of techniques to assess students' mastery of learning outcomes. The relative weight of each method is outlined below.

- Exams. Exams assess student progress on all of the learning outcomes.
- Homeworks. Homework assignments will be used to assess comprehension of concepts and theories, application of those concepts and theories, integration of information, and written communication.
- Service-Learning Project. The project, which has several components as described below, will be used to assess critical thinking, analysis of social and behavioral influences, application of concepts and theories, integration of knowledge, and written communication.
- Participation. Students are expected to participate in class and participation will be used to assess comprehension of material and oral communication.

Student Progress: Students will be assigned a mid-term grade, as required by University policy for undergraduate classes. Students will have several graded assignments (including a minimum of one homework and one exam) prior to mid-point of the course. Grades on assignments will be posted in the Gradebook on Blackboard. In addition to grades, Blackboard will be used for announcements, for posting (and submitting) assignments, etc. So, students should make a habit of checking the site regularly

Last Date to Drop the Course: Consult the Colonel's Compass at <http://www.eku.edu/compass/>.

Course Requirements:

Attendance and Participation (including Attendance Policy): Class attendance and participation is required. Students are expected to complete assigned readings before class. Absences will be excused in the event of sickness and death of a family member upon the provision of written documentation. Students should notify me of their expected absence the day of class or before if possible. Make-up exams and late homework assignments (although see policy below for homeworks with posted answer keys) will ONLY be accepted if the student has an excused absence. Please do not come to class if you plan to talk, text, sleep, read outside material, play games on your laptop, etc. Please turn off your cell phones or switch them to 'vibrate' if you are expecting an important call. I will ask any student not abiding by these policies to politely excuse themselves from the class, and mark him/her absent from class for the day. There is no penalty for missing three or fewer class sessions during the semester. Students missing between four and six class sessions will have 10 points deducted from their final total for the class. Students missing more than six class sessions will receive a failing grade for the course. Arriving at class late and leaving early will both count as half an absence. Since this is a service-learning class, students cannot be excused from the assigned service times. The people we are serving depend upon your attendance. Students missing service assignments will fail the course unless extreme circumstances can be documented.

Service-Learning: This course is a service-learning course. Service-learning is defined at ECU as “an experiential educational method in which students participate in an organized service activity meeting community needs and reflecting on the service activity in such a way as to develop critical thinking skills and develop an enhanced sense of civic responsibility.” In this course, students will work with the Foothills Community Action Partnership in one of the Partnership’s service areas. Among services in which the Partnership is involved are Head Start, the Youth Investment Program, Liberty Place Recovery Center for Women, and a Community Food and Nutrition program. The exact service in which students participate will be determined by student interest and Foothills Community Action Partnership needs. All students will complete a minimum of 15 hours of service during the semester. In addition to the service hours with Foothills Community Action Partnership, the community service project involves completion of a “reflection” assignment, a service journal, and a reflection assignment. Each of these assignments are designed to encourage students to make connections between the academic content of the course from the textbook and lecture and the experiential educational activity. Students are required to participate in assigned service-learning activities and meet all requirements for that participation which could include personal background checks, fingerprinting, additional training by host sites, etc. Students who have concerns over potential requirements should meet with the instructor immediately to discuss alternatives for course selection.

Homework: There will be several homework assignments in the course that will typically involve the completion of small research projects, outside readings, and/or simulations, and the writing of a short paper. Homework assignments will be submitted via Safe Assignment (a plagiarism detection tool) on Blackboard and must be submitted by the beginning of specified class meetings. Late homeworks will NOT be accepted (since students will be given the assignments with enough “lead time” to allow for unforeseen circumstances).

Exams: There will be a total of three exams covering the assigned material. The exams will have a variety of types of items including (but not limited to) multiple choice, identification, and short essay. Exams constitute 65% of your final grade.

Grading Summary:

Exam 1:	20%	Exam 2:	20%
Exam 3:	20%	Homework:	15%
Service Project:	25%

Final Grade Calculation:

exam 1 score (as percentage) * .2	+
exam 2 score (as percentage) * .2	+
exam 3 score (as percentage) * .2	+
average homework grade (as percentage) * .15	+
service project score (as percentage) * .25	-
penalty (if any) for absences	=

numerical value on 0-100 point scale

Grades will be assigned according to the following 10% scale (and subject to the attendance provisions outlined in this syllabus):

90-100	A
80-89	B
70-79	C
below 60	F

Accommodation of Disabilities: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

The Department of Government is located in McCreary Hall and my office is located in Miller Hall. Both are historic buildings on campus that are not handicapped accessible. Alternative meeting locations are available for those students who are unable to access the building. Please notify me of your need and I will arrange an alternative meeting location.

Academic Integrity: Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. COURSE DESCRIPTION & INTENDED AUDIENCE

HIS 290 Historical Research and Methods. (3) I, II. Formerly HIS 201. History and History/Teaching majors only. A comprehensive introduction to historical research, writing and methodologies. Credit not awarded for both HIS 201 and HIS 290.

Students whose graduation requirements fall under the 2004–2006 catalog or a later catalog are required to take this course for the B.A. in History or in History/Teaching. Any student who declared his/her major in History prior to Fall 2004 should speak with his/her adviser before registering for this course.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Describe the skills and expectations required within the discipline of history.
- Analyze primary and secondary source materials in context.
- Exhibit basic familiarity with traditional and online research resources.
- Demonstrate the basic skills needed to research and write a term paper in history, complete with proper citations.
- Integrate historical research into an organized argumentative essay.
- Relate major historiographical schools of thought.
- Edit and proof-read more effectively.

STATEMENT CONCERNING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by e-mail at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are advised that ECU's Academic Integrity Policy will be strictly enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

DUPLICATION WARNING: Please also be aware that under no circumstances will a paper be accepted for credit in HIS 290 that you have submitted for credit in another course. Although there is no problem with writing a paper on a topic related to one you have previously written, the paper for this course must nevertheless be substantially different in content.

MIDTERM GRADES, STUDENT PROGRESS & DROP POLICY

Midterm Grades will be posted by March 5 and visible on EKUDirect by March 6. Students will receive written feedback concerning their progress in this course prior to midterm grade postings via five short assignments and a proofreading quiz. According to the official ECU academic calendar, the last day to withdraw from this class without an academic penalty is March 19. (Students who withdraw by this date will receive a "W" on their transcripts.)

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Roll will be taken at each class meeting. Students' class participation grade will suffer from unexcused absences, and students with poor attendance may automatically fail (see below). Students are responsible for securing written and duly signed medical or other university-recognized excuses for their absences (personal illness/injury, illness/injury of a student's dependent, medical emergency involving an immediate family member, death in the family, or participation in a university-sponsored competition necessitating travel). Students are also responsible for material missed even if the absence is excused.

ATHLETES, ETC.: If you will need to be absent from class meetings for participation in away games or similar university-recognized events, please speak to me during the first three weeks of the semester. Please bring to that conversation a copy of your away-game schedule or similar event schedule issued by the relevant university department. Absences for participation in away games are excused but count toward your excused absence limit under the Automatic Failure Policy (see below).

PEOPLE OF FAITH: If you will need to be absent from a class meeting for the purposes of religious observance, please speak to me during the first three weeks of the semester. In that conversation please indicate the nature of the religious observance(s) that prohibit(s) your attendance on a particular date(s). Students approaching me in this fashion will thus be excused well in advance and given an opportunity to make up work in a manner consistent with their faith. It is expected that serious believers of all faiths are sufficiently familiar with their own calendar to notify me in advance; therefore, absence for observance of a religious holiday will not be excused after the fact. Absences for religious observance are excused but count toward your excused absence limit under the Automatic Failure Policy (see below).

LATE ENROLLERS: Students who add the course late will begin the course with one or more absences that will count toward the absence limits under the Automatic Failure Policy (see below).

AUTOMATIC FAILURE POLICY: According to history department policy, any student missing more than twenty percent of the class sessions may be assigned a failing grade for the semester, at the discretion of the instructor. In accordance with this policy, students who miss more than eight classes will automatically fail if any one of those absences is unexcused. Students who miss more than ten classes (including excused absences) will automatically fail. Leaving class early without permission will count as a full absence.

Examples:      0 excused + 8 unexcused = May still pass as not more than 8
                     0 excused + 9 unexcused = Automatic Failure
                     5 excused + 4 unexcused = Automatic Failure
                     8 excused + 1 unexcused = Automatic Failure
                     10 excused + 0 unexcused = May still pass, all excused,

CLASSROOM COURTESY

Mutually courteous conduct and speech are expected in the classroom at all times. The discreet consumption of non-alcoholic beverages is permitted. Permission to eat in class or to rest the head may be secured under extenuating circumstances. Cellphones must be turned off at all times unless you are a single parent, expectant father, etc., who might reasonably expect to receive an emergency call; texting will not be tolerated.

The following activities are PROHIBITED in the classroom:

Texting, whether sending or receiving	Sleeping or resting the head against any
Using a cellphone (please turn them off)	surface (wall, arm, etc.) with eyes closed
Using headphones	Placing the head down without permission
Eating without permission	Reading material unrelated to the course
Chewing tobacco	Completing homework for this or another
Spitting (spittoon disguises don't work)	course
Smoking	Engaging in private conversation
Consumption of alcohol	Engaging in any behavior disruptive to learning

Students engaged in prohibited activity shall receive a single warning. Repeat offenders will be asked to leave the classroom and withdraw from the course.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Craig, Gordon A. Germany 1866-1945. Oxford History of Modern Europe, ed. Lord Bullock and Sir William Deakin. New York: Oxford University Press, 1978.

Marius, Richard, and Melvin E. Page. A Short Guide to Writing About History, 7th ed. New York: Pearson/Longman, 2010.

Offner, Arnold A. The Origins of the Second World War: American Foreign Policy and World Politics, 1917-1941. New York: Praeger, 1975. Reprint, Malabar, Florida: Krieger Publishing Company, 1986.

Turabian, Kate L. A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 7th ed. Revised by Wayne C. Booth, Gregory G. Colomb, Joseph M. Williams and the University of Chicago Press Editorial Staff. Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2007.

Other readings will be distributed as handouts or provided as Web links. Whenever electronic sources are assigned, students should print out the source and bring their copy to class.

It is your responsibility to purchase the texts promptly so that you will not fall behind in the readings and assignments. Please let me know as soon as possible if you are having difficulty securing the books.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attendance and participation, 130 points

Each class will be both lecture and discussion. There will be some in-class group work. There will be an attendance and participation grade of 3 points attached to each class meeting (absence = 0, a warm but inert body is 1). Four of the meetings will be worth 6 points, and the remainder of the points (4) will be given based on your required meeting with the instructor toward the end of the semester. Absences will make your grade drop, so do not miss this class. Six class meetings will not be held so that students will have extra time to devote to their research and to get one-on-one help from the instructor.

2. Ten short assignments, 520 points

Most weeks there will be a short assignment to help move students toward completion of the overall project. Instructions for each assignment will be posted on Blackboard approximately 8 to 10 days before they are due. Students are responsible for printing off the instructions and bringing these to class on the days that we will be going over them to clarify expectations for the upcoming assignment. These assignments will be graded on a regular ABCDF/100% scale by the following weights:

- |   |         |
|---|---------|
| a. Encyclopedia Search & Framing a Question | 30 pts. |
| b. Preliminary Bibliography                 | 40 pts. |
| c. Primary Source Assessment                | 50 pts. |
| d. Journal Assessment                       | 40 pts. |
| e. Book Assessment                          | 50 pts. |

f. Historiography Project	60 pts.
g. Annotated Bibliography	50 pts.
h. Website Assessment	30 pts.
i. Paper Check Sheet	40 pts.
j. First Complete Version of Paper (100) and Peer Review (30)	130 pts.

All assignments and projects must be typed double-spaced using Courier New or Times New Roman 12-point font with one-inch margins on all sides (the default). Multiple pages must be stapled or paper-clipped for your protection and my convenience. All work should be in proper written English with full sentences and paragraphs unless otherwise instructed.

3. Citation Project, 75 points

Unlike most other assignments, the Citation Project, will not be accepted until it is fully correct and without errors. The grade for this project is either 75 points or 0 points. The reason for this is that the History Department will not accept a term paper for fulfillment of the departmental B.A. requirements if the paper's bibliography or citation formats are incorrect. Therefore, for your own protection, it is imperative that you learn in this course to correctly construct citations and bibliographies by referring to the information in Turabian.

You will have two chances to hand in a formal draft of the Citation Project before you hand in a final copy. It is in your best interests to get the first draft fully correct — then you will not have to redo the project at all and can concentrate on other work. However, if your first draft is not correct, it will be returned to you to be corrected properly and you will have two more chances to turn it in. If I have not received a fully correct assignment by the due date for the final copy, you will not receive credit for the Citation Project. Bear in mind that, although I will not read more than two drafts, you may come to my office and discuss these projects with me. You will not be left to struggle with these or any other projects alone.

The due dates for the Citation Projects are not rolling dates. There are three specific days on which drafts may be turned in (March 1, March 26, and April 30). If a student misses one of the due dates for turning in the project, he or she must wait until the next indicated due date to turn it in. The only exception will be documented medical illnesses. However, I will always be willing to answer questions.

4. Take-home Proofreading Quiz, 50 points

Students will be expected to catch as many grammatical, spelling and stylistic errors as they can in a two-page text. Distributed on January 25 and due on February 10.

5. Final paper / Exam, 225 points

Students will be expected to apply the analytical skills they learn in this course in the researching and writing of a short historical research paper of 1800 to 2000 words (6 to 7 pages) on a topic drawn from the Topics List on pp. 6-8. The paper will serve in lieu of a final exam and will be due no later than the end of the two-hour period when your section would otherwise have a final exam. Section 1's papers will thus be due by 10 a.m. on May 5. Section 2's papers will be due by 10 a.m. on May 7.

GRADES AND GRADING SCALE

The grading scale will be	900 – 1000	A	600 – 699	D
applied as follows:	800 – 899	B	599 & below	F
	700 – 799	C

Midterm grades will be visible to students on EKUDirect no later than March 6, thirteen days prior to the last day to withdraw from the class without academic penalty other than a “W” (March 19). By March 6 you will have 32.6% of your final grade (210 short assignment pts. + 66 participation points + 50 points proofreading quiz).

LATE SUBMISSIONS

Late submissions on Assignments 1—10, the Proof-reading Take-home Exam, and the final paper will result in the loss of a full grade for each day it is late, loss of grade to begin at the close of class on the due date. The only exception will be documented medical problems.

BLACKBOARD

This course will use Blackboard for many of its functions. The syllabus is located in Course Documents section of the Blackboard site. All of the assignments or projects will be in a folder named “Assignments and Projects” in the Assignments section of the Blackboard site. The grades will be posted in the Gradebook, with the exception of participation grades which will be posted at three points during the semester.

A separate sheet with instructions for using Blackboard is available for those of you who have never used it. By Wednesday, January 20, I expect each person in the class to have accessed our Blackboard site, to have made sure that he/she is able to access all files and can print files from the site, AND to have sent me an email through the Blackboard system that verifies your ability to access and print these files. If it is necessary to send out group e-mails, I will be communicating with you via your ECU e-mail address, so be sure to check it regularly.

TOPICS LIST

The overarching problem under investigation in this research seminar is the American perception of a and response to Imperial, Weimar and Nazi German policies from the launching of Kaiser Wilhelm II’s Weltpolitik in 1897 to the outbreak of German-American hostilities in December 1941 in the midst of World War II. This problem may be broken down into the following sub-issues as follows:

The American reception of and responses to the ...

1. German ambitions in East Asia and the Pacific (e.g. China, Philippines, Carolines, Samoa), 1897-1914
2. Anglo-German naval arms race, 1897-1914

3. German rivalry with other European powers over the Ottoman Empire (e.g. German military advisers in Constantinople, Berlin-Baghdad Railroad plans), 1897-1914
4. German instigation of the First and Second Moroccan Crises, 1905-1912
5. German contribution to crises in the Balkans (Austrian annexation of Bosnia, First and Second Balkan Wars), 1908-1913
6. Degree of German responsibility for outbreak of World War I (U.S. perspectives both during and after war, 1914 to c. 1930)
7. German invasion & occupation of Belgium, 1914-1918, plus any postwar echoes
8. German war aims vs. British, French & Russian war aims, 1914-1918
9. British naval blockade & German submarine warfare, 1914-1917, plus any postwar echoes
10. German relations with revolutionary Mexico, 1911-18
11. German responses to peace initiatives, 1914-1918 (including, but not limited to, Wilson's Fourteen Points)
12. Status of Poles & re-establishment of Poland at German & Russian expense, 1914-1921
13. Impact of the two Russian Revolutions of 1917 and the Treaty of Brest-Litovsk (1918) on the Allied war against Germany and the peace terms, 1917-1919
14. Germany as bulwark against Bolshevism and/or site of possible Bolshevik (Communist) revolution, 1917-1928
15. German parliamentary reforms & request for armistice (Oct. 1918), revolution (Nov. 1918) & establishment of a republic (1918-1919)
16. Terms and enforcement of the Treaty of Versailles: Territorial questions
17. Terms and enforcement of the Treaty of Versailles: War guilt and reparations questions
18. Terms and enforcement of the Treaty of Versailles: German disarmament & the demilitarization of the Rhineland (see also French-inspired separatism)
19. German right-wing extremism (coup attempts, political assassinations, etc.) under the Weimar Republic, 1918-1925
20. Democratic character & political instability of the Weimar Republic, 1919-1930
21. German relations with emerging Soviet Union, including cooperation for German evasion of arms limitation terms of Versailles, 1919-1933
22. French desire for peacetime alliance with the United States against German aggression, 1918-1933
23. The crisis of 1922/1923: Ruhr occupation, hyperinflation, civil unrest
24. Dawes Plan, reparations and currency stabilization, 1924-1929
25. German recognition at Locarno of postwar borders with France and Belgium and German entry into the League of Nations, 1918-1926
26. German relations with France & Belgium, 1924-1933
27. German relations with Britain, 1924-1933
28. German relations with Poland, Lithuania and Czechoslovakia, 1919-1933
29. German relations with Austria, 1919-1933
30. Weimar Republic's relations with Mussolini's Italy, 1922-1933
31. Germany as bulwark against Bolshevism and/or site of possible Bolshevik (Communist) revolution, 1928-1941
32. Great Depression and the impact of mass unemployment in Germany, 1930-1935

54. Nazi German relations with Hungary and Romania, 1933-1941
55. Nazi German relations with & occupation of Yugoslavia and Greece (1941), 1933-1941
56. Nazi German relations with Latin American, esp. Argentina, 1933-41
57. Undeclared German-American war in the Atlantic, 1939-1941

The American reception of / responses to German policies may themselves be broken down into four areas of investigation, namely:

- I. The perceptions of Americans in Germany (diplomats, journalists, businessmen, etc.) and their reactions to the policies of the Imperial, Weimar or Nazi regimes
- II. The perceptions of the President of the United States, the State Department, and the cabinet and their responses to the policies of the Imperial, Weimar or Nazi regimes

III. The perceptions of the United States Congress and its responses both to German policies and the State Department/White House reactions

IV. The perceptions of the American public and its responses to both German policies and the State Department/White House reactions

For your research paper, you will be asked to select one of the aforementioned sub-topics and EITHER (a) investigate that issue with respect to at least three of the above four points OR, with the instructor's permission, (b) investigate some other aspect of that issue as the existing historiography might suggest.

Course Description

This class offers History majors training in “research and writing in history,” as the university catalogue explains. In addition, it provides the final senior writing experience for history majors, guiding them through the writing process to produce a 15-20 page paper. This semester, the papers must address some aspect of the historical period from the end of the American Revolution to the end of the nineteenth century. In other words, your topic must fall within the chronological period of 1780-1900.

Course Objectives

1. Each student will identify a topic, develop a specific research question, and write a 15-20 page paper that responds to the research question.
2. Each student’s paper will demonstrate extensive research, including research focusing on primary sources and archival materials.
3. The research and writing will be grounded in the analysis and integration of relevant secondary sources.
4. The final paper will illustrate the student’s mastery of correct citation and bibliographic formatting.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the process of identifying a topic and crafting a research question.
2. Analyze the causes and effects of historical change with respect to the historical developments or events targeted for research.
3. Evaluate primary sources as historical evidence and develop effective historical arguments on the basis of documentary analysis.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the significance of primary source evidence as the basis of effective historical analysis and understanding.
5. Demonstrate an integrated understanding of the interaction of political, social, cultural, economic, technological and/or religious factors as causes and expressions of historical change.

Required Text

Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (7th edition).

Grading

Point distribution:

Final research paper:	500 points
Working Bibliography:	100 points
Rough Draft:	100 points
Peer Review:	50 points
Meetings with the professor/class attendance:	250 points
Total	1000 points

Important grade penalties:

1. Any missed appointment deducts 50 points from your final grade total.
2. Any violation of ECU's academic integrity policies will result in an automatic zero for any single assignment or the final paper.

Academic Integrity Statement

Students are advised that ECU's Academic Integrity Policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.ecu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Drop Policy

According to the official ECU academic calendar, the last day to withdraw from this class without academic penalty is _____.

Individual Meetings

As per the course schedule, you will have four assigned meetings with Professor Bowes. All of these meetings are important to your progress in this course and you will need to be prepared. You will lose points if you miss any meeting or come to the meeting unprepared. Take full advantage of these meetings to support the completion of your paper.

Turning in Assignments

I do not accept papers or other assignments through email. You must turn in a hard copy of your assignment to me. You do not want to turn in assignments late. If an assignment is not received at the beginning of the class period when it is due, it will be considered late and will be docked 10% of the point total for that assignment. It will lose an additional 10% of the total every day it is late. Late papers and other assignments will be accepted only with prior permission from Professor Bowes.

Assignment Information

Although additional materials will be provided in class, the following are brief descriptions of some of the most important assignments due during the course of this semester.

Working Annotated Bibliographies

On March 4, working bibliographies are due to Professor Bowes. These biographies must reflect the following:

1. Correct citation style
2. An explanation of the purpose for the book in your paper and specifically what points will be used in your argument.
3. A balance of primary and secondary sources, including books used to supply a theoretical basis and books for factual information.

Rough drafts/Peer Reviews

Two copies of your rough draft are due on April 6. In order to receive credit, the rough draft must be complete (including correctly formatted footnotes, a bibliography in Turabian format, and all components of the paper in place – introduction, body, conclusion).

You will serve as a peer to one of your classmates. Your peer review (5% of your total grade) will occur with regard to the drafts turned in on April 6 and is due on April 15. Credit will be earned by taking a careful and detailed look at your peer's work, offering corrections and suggestions with regard to style, organization, argument, evidence, grammar, spelling, punctuation, citation placement and citation style. Failure to take this element seriously – and to provide a real critique, will eliminate the credit for this assignment.

Final Papers

Final papers are due April 29 by 4pm. You may turn the paper in to Professor Bowes in his office, you may submit the paper early to the History Department office, or you may put the paper into Professor Bowes's box. If you have any concerns that the paper has been received, please email Professor Bowes and check for a confirmation.

When you submit your final paper, please make sure you have provided the following:

1. TWO copies – one copy must include a separate sheet of paper with the thesis statement ONLY.
2. Your peer reviewed draft
3. An electronic version submitted to SafeAssignment through Blackboard

In addition, for the final paper, you must send an electronic copy to me a john.bowes@eku.edu by April 29 at 4pm. (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing.

The Department of History requires that your final paper must meet the following requirements. Failure on either of these points results in an “F” for the paper and thus for the course.

1. Length: 15-20 pages (this includes the paper’s core, the notes and bibliography)
2. Footnotes/endnotes and Bibliography: Must be included and comply with format outlined in 7th edition of Turabian

Finally, in order to earn a passing grade, this course requires that the paper:

1. Use multiple primary and secondary sources. These sources must reflect a serious research agenda and demonstrate mastery of the historical literature and historical period discussed in the paper. AT LEAST ONE THIRD OF THE PAPER MUST BE DRAWN FROM PRIMARY SOURCES TO EARN A “B” OR BETTER.
2. Papers must be in Times or Times New Roman font, double-spaced, 12-point, with 1 inch margins all the way around, and page numbers.

Cell Phones must be turned off at the start of class and during meetings with the professor. Any use of a cell phone in class will result in the loss of 25 points from your overall final grade.

Statement Concerning Students with Disabilities

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Inclement Weather:

In case of inclement weather, check the ECU homepage or call 622-2239 for information. If the University is on a 2-hour delay:

The 2pm section will meet at 2:40 until 3:40

The 3:30 section will meet at 3:50 until 4:50

Meetings with Professor Bowes will be determined on a case-by-case basis. If Professor Bowes must cancel due to weather, or if the University closes and the meeting must be rescheduled, there is no penalty to the student and the student can expect maximum flexibility with regard to rescheduling.

1 December 2009

Dear Fiona:

I'm writing to let you know that the TCAC Advisory Committee has approved your proposal for HIS 450W. We're very happy to be adding this major-area course to those available to students.

The next step is to get the W course approved by your department curriculum committee, and then on to your college committee. You and your department will need to decide whether you intend to drop the old HIS 450 and add the new writing-intensive version in its place, or keep both the old one and the new one. I'm copying this letter to Dr. David Coleman, so that he will know officially that your course is approved at the TCAC level and can help you in moving it on to the next level.

When you teach HIS 450W, please remember to include on your syllabus this statement (filling in your own information, of course):

"For assignment X, you must send an electronic copy to me at mary.doe@eku.edu by (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing."

The assignment you ask to have submitted electronically should be the course's major writing assignment; you'll send it on to me (preferably, the whole class's papers on a CD), and it will be evaluated for assessment purposes. The particulars of the assessment process will be announced early in Spring '10. Basically, it will be a day-long session in the summer. All "W" faculty will be invited to attend, and those who attend will receive a stipend.

Thanks again for your hard work in making your new course a reality. If there's anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Best regards,

Deborah Core
Director, TCAC
Professor of English

cc. Dr. David Coleman

History (B.A.)

CIP Code: 54.0101

Program Objectives

Upon successful completion of this program, graduates will be able to: 1) demonstrate knowledge of U.S. history, European history, and selected aspects of non-Western history at a high level; 2) demonstrate their ability to write effectively (all students in the program will complete term papers as part of their major requirements); and 3) execute a major research project utilizing both primary and secondary sources. All students in the baccalaureate program will submit prior to graduation a formal research project which includes both primary and secondary sources. In addition to pursuing careers in education, graduates of this degree program have found employment in business, journalism, public history, library work, government and law. A history degree is excellent preparation for law school as well as graduate programs in library science, public history and many other fields. Many employers value the research, writing and analytical skills developed through the study of history.

Major Requirements.....33 hours

HIS ~~201~~, 202, 203, 290, ~~450~~, 450W, and 21 upper division hours with a minimum of six hours in each of the following distribution areas (including two of the following three courses: 302A, 302B, 302C):

Area I (U.S.): HIS 300A (3 hours), 302A, 303, 304, 305, 309, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 411, 412, 413, ~~415~~, 420, 424, 433, 435, or 516.

Area II (Europe): HIS 300B (3 hours), 301, 302B, 310, 336, 337, 339, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 350, 363, or 365.

Area III (Non- Western): HIS 300C (3 hours), 302C, 308, 320, 330, 347, 374, 375, 378, 380, 383, 384, 385, 386, 388, 434, 474, or 475.

The remaining upper division history course may come from any of the above areas or from other upper division history courses except HIS 302A, B, C.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:
demonstrate understanding of the process of science and apply scientific method to solve physics problems.
apply general physical laws and appropriate math methods to specific problems to generate quantitative solutions.
exhibit quality graphing technique to analyze the physics phenomena.
integrate understanding of observable quantities with the physical laws that govern their behavior.

Course requirements:

1. There will be in-class assessment opportunities throughout the semester.
2. There will be homework and diagnostic assessments given throughout the semester on Blackboard or on ALEKS. Due date will be given when homework is assigned. Late homework will not be accepted.
3. There will be in-class group problem solving activities.
4. There will be a final report required at the end of the semester.

Course outline:

Content	Date
Pre-diagnostic test	8/23
Unit I: Understand the Elements of College Physics I: Motion and Forces in 1-D (Young & Geller, Chapters 1 and 2)	8/23-9/13
Unit II & III: Interpret Motion and Forces in 2-D Using Graphs (Young & Geller, Chapters 3, 4, and 5)	9/15-10/6
Unit IV: Use Diagrams to Understand Energy and Momentum (Young & Geller, Chapters 7 and 8)	10/8-10/29

Unit V: More Elements of College Physics I: Rotations and Revolutions (Young & Geller, Chapters 6, 9 and 10)	11/1-11/22
Unit VI: Graphic Approach to Buoyancy, Simple Harmonic Motion and/or Waves (Young & Geller, Chapters 11, 12, and 13)	11/29-12/10
Post-diagnostic test	12/10
Final report - Comprehensive	12/16

*The instructor reserves the right to adjust the schedule as necessary.

Evaluation:

Attendance / participation	10%
Diagnostic tests (completion grade only)	15%
Activity wrap-ups and in-class assessments	50%
Final Report	25%
Total	100%

Your final letter grade will be determined by the following:

- A – 90-100%
- B – 80-89%
- C – 70-79%
- D – 60-69%
- F – 0-59%

Attendance / participation:

Missing THREE or more class meetings (20% of all classes) after your official enrollment in this course will result in a failure of the course. Because space in this class is very limited, please be committed to attend classes in time.

You must notify the instructor in advance if you are unable to attend class and provide proper documents for excuse. Excused absences will be given with appropriate documentation (including University issued excuses and doctor's excuses).

Student progress: Students are responsible for monitoring their progress in the course as paper are passed back and grades are posted on Blackboard throughout the semester.

Diagnostics assessments: As a means of gauging your preparation for the material and your progress learning the material, there will be several diagnostic assessments given throughout the semester.

Official E-mail: An official ECU e-mail is established for each registered student. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this ECU e-mail address.

Academic integrity policy:

Students are advised that ECU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.ecu.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Academic accommodations:

or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

General Comments:

This is a concurrent course of PHY131. It is recommended to students who feel they are not fully prepared to succeed PHY131. This course will help them to reach their goal. The course will meet once per week for two hours.

In years of teaching, we found that students who found PHY131 a hard course are usually not hindered by the physics; what holds them back are usually things that they should have learned before they come into PHY131. These things include but not limited to:

- Basic algebra and trigonometry functions;
- Extracting information from physics context-rich problems;
- Unit conversion and vector addition;
- Creating and interpreting graphs within physics context.

Since there is no precise course pre-requisite that can address these issues, we decided to create a concurrent course of PHY131. The course will help the students to meet the requirement of the PHY 131 course, give them necessary support based on their special needs in the course, and enhance their general problem solving skills.

The course will be taught in an activity based format. Students are responsible for completing the homework and in-class work in time. The topics will be covered in PHY 129 include but not limited to:

- Adding vectors;
- Converting units;
- Drawing free body diagrams to help problem solving;
- Reading physics problems to extract important information;
- Drill on questions that hinder students' progress in PHY 131.

PHY 131 students can enroll the PHY 129 as late as after the first exam grade is released (usually after the 11th class, i.e. the fourth week). Early enrollment is strongly encouraged. Students who enrolled later need to finish Unit I (basic graph reading and drawing, unit conversion, solving simple equation, basic reading) by themselves and pass a "Unit I Assessment". Students who fail the assessment should work extra hours to make up the materials.

Prerequisites: PSY 200 and PSY 250 or departmental approval.

Course Materials:

Required Text: Muchinsky, P.M. (2009). Psychology applied to work (9th Edition). Summerfield, NC: Hypergraphic Press.

Supplemental Readings: May be assigned throughout the semester and will be provided in class.

Course Description: Principles of psychology as applied to industry, business, and organizations. Course will focus on the individual employee, the job, the organization, and the work environment (3 Credit Hours).

This course is designed to give an introduction to the major concepts, issues, principles, and findings in industrial/organizational psychology (also referred to as “I/O psychology”). Industrial/Organizational psychology is the study of psychology as it applies to work situations and problems. The “I” and the “O” of I/O psychology symbolize two distinct aspects of the field. Industrial psychology (the “I”) deals with traditional personnel issues, such as selection and training. Organizational psychology (the “O”) is concerned with the social, interpersonal, and motivational aspects of work, including motivation, job attitudes, harassment and discrimination, and work teams. Although much of what we will study is applicable to human resource management and other business-related fields, this course specifically focuses on psychological processes involved with people in organizations.

Student Learning Outcomes: The student who successfully completes this course will:

1. Comprehend the field and sub-areas involved in I/O psychology, as well as what I/O psychologists do for organizations that employ them.
2. Comprehend the research techniques utilized in the field.
3. Comprehend and critically evaluate the major concepts, issues, principles, and research findings in the area of I/O psychology.
4. Apply major psychological concepts and principles to practices engaged in by I/O psychologists and to your own experiences.

Outcomes will be evaluated through course assignments, chapter writes, exams, and a service-learning project.

Attendance Policy and Course Structure: Students will be responsible for material presented in the textbook and in class. Therefore, both attendance and completing the assigned readings are important to your success in this course. Although there will be considerable overlap between lectures and assigned readings, unique information will frequently appear. Therefore, it is in your best interest to keep up with the readings and to attend every class in order to obtain a complete understanding of the material and earn an A in the class.

You are responsible for all material presented in class, whether or not that material is presented in the textbook. Lecture slides (PowerPoint slides in PDF format) will be made available online. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to obtain copies of notes from a classmate. You are encouraged to get to know a classmate today and exchange contact information.

Since this is a service-learning class, you cannot be excused from the assigned service times. The people we are serving depend upon your attendance. If you miss service assignments you will fail the course unless extreme circumstances can be documented or prior arrangements have been made with the instructor.

Classroom Behavior and Respect: To make this environment comfortable for everyone, please remember that there are many students with different experiences and needs in one room. This class does not tolerate remarks that are sexist, racist, homophobic, or otherwise ridicule people. Further, it is important that we all respect what others are saying in class; therefore, please do not talk while others are speaking.

Cell Phone Policy: Unless you are expecting an emergency call, all cell phones, personal electronic devices, etc. should be turned OFF and PUT AWAY during class. Cell phones ringing in class or texting during class are not acceptable, as this is distracting to the instructor and other students. Students who do not follow this guideline may be asked to leave class or have their device taken away until the end of the class period.

**ANY contact with communication devices during an exam will result in a score of zero on the exam.

Course Website: We will use Blackboard for our course website. Here, you can obtain copies of the syllabus, class notes (PowerPoint slides in PDF format), messages from the instructor, and access to your grade throughout the course. Although any changes in the course schedule will be announced in class, they will also be posted as announcements on Blackboard, and therefore it is recommend you check the website periodically, especially if you must miss a class. To log on, go to <http://learn.eku.edu>.

Grading Policy: Your grade in this class will be based on your performance on several homework assignments, chapter writes, and exams. Additionally, since service-learning is integral to success in this class, approximately 20% of your grade will come from service-learning related activities.

Each component will comprise approximately the following total number of points:

Assignments	50 points
Chapter Writes	80 points
Exams	450 points
Service Learning Project
Reflection Journal	25 points
Project Presentation	25 points
Final Project	100 points
Total	730 points

Final grades will be determined based on the total number of points earned out of the total possible points at the end of the semester. The following grading scale will be used:

- A 90% of total points or higher
- B 80 - 89% of total points
- C 70 - 79% of total points
- D 60 - 69% of total points
- F <60 % of total points

Assignments. The assignments for this course can be found on the Blackboard course web-page. Each assignment should be TYPED, double-spaced, in 12-point plain font (Times, Ariel, etc.), spell-checked, and grammatically correct (please see the Standards for Written Assignments below). The due date for each assignment is noted in the course schedule. All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. Assignments turned in after this deadline will be assigned a 2-point penalty, with an additional 2-point penalty for each additional day the assignment is late.

Exams. Five exams will be given throughout the semester. Each exam will cover 2 - 3 chapters of material and all corresponding lectures, as well as supplemental readings, class discussions and handouts. These exams will have a variety of question formats, which may include multiple choice, matching, fill-in-the-blank, and short answer. Each exam will draw primarily on new material since the previous exam; however a few cumulative questions may also be asked.

Make-Up Exams. Make-ups for missed exams will only be allowed for university excused, or extenuating, documented (in writing) absences. Whenever possible, students should inform the instructor before an exam is missed. Barring extenuating circumstances, all make-up exams must be completed within one week of the original exam date, at a time convenient for both the student and instructor (preferably during office hours). The final exam cannot be taken any time after its scheduled time.

Chapter Writes. One ongoing assignment is to write a one to two page description and discussion of an experience you have had or know about that is relevant to topics we will discuss during the semester. When applicable, these writes should reflect your Service Learning project experiences. Most of you have personal work/school/volunteer experiences (or know of a family member or friend who has) that are relevant to these topics/chapters. Describing and applying these experiences to the content of lecture and the chapters in your book will make this course more relevant and will enhance your learning.

These writes should be 1) applied, 2) relevant to the current readings and/or class discussion, and 3) typed, spell-checked, and grammatically correct (please see the Standards for Written Assignments below). Make sure you link experience to what was stated in the text or lecture -- random thoughts without a link will be scored lower.

Each of your writes MUST have the following LABELED headings:

(1) Description.

A brief description of the events or activities you experienced. These descriptions are purely factual. Describe the who, what, where, and when of the event in enough detail that your reader (me) has an understanding of the actual events.

(2) Reaction.

In this section you need to reflect and elaborate on your experience. This is an analysis of the situation in terms of feelings, emotions, values, (i.e., what is your take on this situation? – I was really angry because.....).

(3) Application Analysis.

In this section you need to provide a link between science and practice. What did you read in your text, hear in class, read in an article, or talk personally with the instructor about that helps you understand the events from a theoretical perspective? Was your experience consistent/inconsistent with theory? Did it work for the organization? For you? Do you understand the rationale for the theory better (did your experience influence your understanding)? How would you do things differently than the organization (i.e., what could I/O psychology offer to make the organization work more effectively)? Why?

Of the following 12 content areas (Job Analysis/Criteria, Performance Management, Psychological Assessment/Individual Differences, Personnel Decisions, Organizational Learning, Attitudes/Behavior, Motivation, Teams, Leadership, Organizations and Organizational Change, Occupational Health/Safety, Diversity in the Workplace), choose 8 for which you will complete Chapter Writes.

Grading of Comments: Comments will be graded Exceptional (10 points); Good (8 points); Acceptable (7 points); Content unacceptable but followed the format (3 points); or Content unacceptable, failed to follow format, but turned in (2 points). Comments are due WHILE we are discussing a chapter and due dates are noted in the course schedule. Late papers will be accepted up to the unit exam on that material and will only be worth a maximum of 5 points.

Service Learning. One objective of this course is to provide the opportunity to apply major psychological concepts and principles to practices engaged in by I/O psychologists. Thus, we will complete a project for a community partner, and will have the opportunity to see how I/O psychology can help address community concerns.

Service learning is an academic experiential educational method in which students participate in an organized service activity that meets community needs and in reflection on the service activity in such a way as to:

- gain further understanding of course content
- develop critical thinking skills, and
- develop an enhanced sense of civic responsibility.

Early in the semester, students will choose a project for a semester-long service-learning (partner or small group) project based on their interest, local resources, and instructor guidance. Service projects must involve work that directly relates to the class objectives of applying major psychological concepts and principles to practices engaged in by I/O psychologists.

Sample projects might include assisting an organization in collecting and analyzing data and providing recommendations regarding an organizational concern (e.g., worker attitudes and behaviors, turnover intentions, etc.), conducting job analyses and constructing job descriptions, developing a performance appraisal system, or developing a training program or materials.

As a component of this project, you will be asked to engage in several class discussions and writing assignments. You will be asked to keep a project reflection journal and summarize your reflections about your service learning experience in a class presentation at the end of the semester, during which time you will also present your final project. Depending on the needs of your client, you may also be asked to formally present your final project to the community partner. More details regarding this project will be presented in class.

Students are required to participate in assigned service-learning activities and meet all requirements for that participation which could include personal background checks, fingerprinting, additional training by host sites, etc. Students who have concerns over potential requirements should meet with the instructor immediately to discuss alternatives for course selection.

Extra Credit. Throughout the semester several in-class quizzes and activities will be conducted. These will not be announced ahead of time, and make-ups will NOT be given, however some of these activities will count as extra credit towards your final grade.

As an additional extra credit opportunity, you may create study guides/materials for the exams. You may turn in a maximum of two study guides (these will be due the day of the exam). Each completed study guide will be worth up to 5 points for a total of 10 possible extra credit points. I realize that students study for exams in a variety of ways, so if you make note cards you can bring those in. If you write out notes/definitions for the study guide provided then you can bring that in for credit, etc.

Completing additional Chapter Writes beyond the 8 required may also count towards extra credit. Additional Chapter Writes (no more than 2) will be worth up to 5 points each of extra credit (for a total of 10 possible extra credit points). Other extra credit opportunities will be announced throughout the course of the semester. Extra Credit deadlines will be provided in class and late extra credit will NOT be accepted.

For SUCCESS IN THIS COURSE, it is recommended that you read the assigned material prior to lecture (class lectures are based on this assumption) and actively participate and take notes during class. There is a lot of reading required of you, so make sure you divide it up and stay on top of the reading load. If you find that you are having trouble comprehending the course material, I suggest that you see me as early in the semester as possible.

University policy suggests you should allow a minimum of 2 – 3 hours outside of class for homework and study purposes for each hour spent in class. Thus, for this 3-credit hour course, you should allow 6 – 9 hours per week outside of class for studying. This course covers a large amount of material and you will need to spend time to understand the material and to develop the critical thinking skills you will need to be successful in this course.

Student Progress: Grades will be available on Blackboard throughout the course. Prior to midterm, a current grade will be calculated and posted to provide you with an estimate of your progress in the course.

Official E-mail: An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

Academic Integrity: Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity Policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Disability Statement: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in Student Services Building Room 361 by e-mail at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Standards for Written Assignments: Students in all psychology courses are expected to use correct grammar, spelling and composition in written assignments. These elements of writing will be taken into consideration in grading all out-of-class writing assignments. If you would like free help with your writing, you may use the writing lab: Case Annex 173 (622-6191).

Course name and number PSY 319: Industrial/Organizational Psychology

Number of credit hours 3

Check the appropriate box:                      New Course                       Existing Course

Will other sections of the course be offered without service-learning?    Yes     No

How many sections of the course will be offered? 1

What community organization/agency will the students be working with? How did you determine their need?

Students will work with the instructor to choose a community partner with a need that can be addressed through the application of I/O Psychology. Sample projects are provided in the syllabus.

How many hours of service per semester will students be required to complete?

What reflective assignment(s) will students be required to complete?
Students will be required to submit a Reflections Journal and Chapter Writes linking their experience to concepts covered in class. Additionally, students will present their reflections through class discussions and an end-of-semester presentation.

Have you incorporated an experiential educational activity that is connected to academic content as described in the syllabus?

Yes     No

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course Objectives: In this course students will complete a research project. Students will: (a) identify and refine a problem or topic in Psychology; (2) find and summarize relevant literature (5 relevant empirical research articles required; Review articles are not allowed); (3) develop an appropriate research strategy; (4) obtain approval from the University Institutional Review Board (IRB); (5) collect and analyze data; (6) prepare written and oral presentations of their research project; and (7) understand the ethical treatment of human subjects.

Student Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course you will

1. Demonstrate comprehension of a specific problem or topic in psychology. How this outcome is assessed: Introduction sections of research proposal and research report
2. Analyze, interpret, and evaluate previous research on your topic. How this outcome is assessed: Finalize Topic Assignment and Introduction sections of research proposal and research report
3. Create original research predictions based on a synthesis of previous literature, and state appropriate rationale for those predictions. How this outcome is assessed: Finalize Topic Assignment and Introduction sections of research proposal and research report
3. Apply scientific method to develop appropriate research procedures to test your predictions. How this outcome is assessed: Method sections of research proposal and research report; role-play of procedures to peers; materials prepared for your study
4. Understand issues involved in the ethical treatment of human participants in research. How this outcome is assessed: On-line ethics tutorial; research proposal review by IRB
5. Apply statistical knowledge to plan appropriate data analyses, and apply SPSS knowledge to analyze data. How this outcome is assessed: Statistics Assignment, Data Analysis section of research proposal, and Results section of research report

6. Integrate present and past findings to discuss connections among studies, and conclusions and implications of your research. How this outcome is assessed: Discussion section of research report
7. Create a poster of your research appropriate for “poster sessions” of profession conferences. How this outcome is assessed: Poster
8. Give an oral presentation of your research. How this outcome is assessed: Oral presentation
9. Students will demonstrate a writing process that produces effective documents appropriate to course level. How this outcome is assessed: All written assignments
10. Students will recognize effective writing strategies. How this outcome is assessed: QEP Assessment Team is developing a method of assessment.

Psychology Department Statement on Writing Quality. Students in all psychology courses are expected to use correct grammar, spelling and composition in written assignments. These elements of writing will be taken into consideration in grading all out-of-class writing assignments. If you would like free help with your writing, you may use the writing lab: Case Annex 173 (622-6191).

GRADING: Proposals, papers, posters, and presentations will be graded on:
 (a) Content, including evidence of critical thinking; (b) Clarity of expression and writing mechanics; and (c) APA format when appropriate.

*For each task that you complete on time you may receive all the points listed on the syllabus. If you complete a task later than the deadline 10% of the points will be subtracted, per day late (excluding Sat/Sun). The due dates listed on the schedule are the latest possible dates to complete a task. For your own benefit, please plan to complete tasks before the due dates. ALL STEPS MUST BE COMPLETED IN ORDER TO PASS THE COURSE.

A=90 -100%; B=80 - 89%; C=70 – 79%; D=60 – 69%; F= Less than 60%

Academic Integrity. Students found guilty of an academic honesty violation will receive a 0 on the assignment in question. Violations could also result in a 0 in the course and/or a referral to the Academic Council. Students are advised that ECU’s Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.ecu.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Students with disabilities. If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in Student Services Building Room 361 by e-mail at disserv@ecu.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Attendance Policy. If you miss a class meeting your grade will be lowered by 5% for each class that you miss. (exceptions = documented illness or emergencies).

Student Progress. By midterm you will have earned 160/330 points for the class (48% of the course grade). Graded copies of all assignments will be returned to you with earned points indicated on the assignment. You can calculate your midterm grade by adding your earned points and dividing by 160. Subtract 5% from your grade for each unexcused absence. If you need clarification about your grade, please see me.

Official E-mail: An official ECU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communication sent via e-mail will be sent to this ECU e-mail address.

Definitions: Proposal, Paper, Poster, and Presentation

PROPOSAL: A description of your proposed research project that is reviewed by the University Institutional Review Board (IRB). Proposals must be reviewed and approved before you can actually conduct research. For most students the PSY 310 paper is the beginning of the proposal. Proposals include the following sections: Title Page, Abstract, Introduction, Method, Data Analyses, and References. Appendices, which include the Consent Form, Debriefing Form, and all Instruments used for data collection, are attached to the Proposal. After your draft proposal has been approved by the instructor you will complete an IRB Exempt Proposal Form.

FINAL PAPER: = Final Research Paper in which you will revise your research proposal and add the following sections: Results and Discussion.

POSTER: = An abbreviated description of your final paper, complete with images, graphs, and tables. Posters are placed on poster board and displayed in the Cammack Lobby during finals week.

PRESENTATION: = A 10--15 minute talk about your final paper, given to the other class members and the instructor. Presentations are given in the classroom during the scheduled final exam period for this course.

STUDENTS PLEASE COMPLETE: Tutorial Certificate (<http://www.research.ecu.edu/>) Institutional Review Board link (see Step 1). Choose: Social Sciences module. Please allow 3 hours to complete the tutorial. Print certificate verifying completion and make a copy for the IRB.

The course stresses problem solving, critical thinking, and computer application skills. Prerequisite: A minimum grade of "C" in ACC 202 and (CIS 212 or CSC 104.)

Student Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course you should be able to:

1. To explain how accounting information systems can assist in attaining organizational objectives, and how they can improve planning and control at all levels of the organization;
2. To explain how the operational and information functions of several major AIS subsystems and how those subsystems interface with each another;
3. To demonstrate a reasonable proficiency-level in using a variety of tools used in documenting systems;
4. To demonstrate skills involving team participation, researching technical topics, and oral and written communications;
5. Prepare a written review of a database software package;
6. To explain common fraud techniques used in both manual systems and computer-based systems;
7. To apply the internal control structure defined by SAS No. 78;
8. To analyze the threats inherent in the revenue, expenditure, payroll and fixed asset cycles and to recommend controls to reduce the risk of these threats;
9. To explain the characteristics of and the differences between three database models: hierarchical, network, and relational;
10. To explain the implications of the REA model for the accounting profession; and
11. To explain the general functionality and key elements of ERP systems.
12. Explain the role of XBRL in financial business reporting.
13. List and explain the general function of the key components of an XBRL document.

Course Requirements

This course is an introduction to how accounting activities are implemented and integrated in manual and computer-based accounting information systems. The course examines the relationship and distinctions between accounting information systems and the total management information system environment. Topics include the operational characteristics of and transaction processing in the five main AIS approaches that are in current use: manual processes, flat file systems, database approach, the REA model, and enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems. The course explores, in detail, several typical AIS application subsystems, including the revenue and expenditure cycles and the general ledger, financial reporting, and management reporting systems. Internal control is emphasized throughout the course. The course also integrates discussions of fraud and ethics throughout the curriculum.

Students are involved in a variety of learning experiences, including problem solving, critical thinking, case participation, oral classroom presentations and analysis of third-party systems software packages using resources in the computer lab. The major themes throughout the course include oral and written communication, typical business documents and reports, and proper system documentation using flowcharts, data flow diagrams and REA modeling.

Disabilities

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format..

Attendance and make-ups

Regular class attendance is essential in this course. Your final course grade may be reduced by one letter grade for each unexcused absence in excess of two. Any student having more than four unexcused absences will receive an "F" in the course. Roll may be taken at any time during the class period. If you are not in class when roll is taken, you will be marked absent. It is your responsibility to notify your professor if you have a valid reason for arriving late for class or leaving early. This must be in writing. Failure to do so will result in an unexcused absence. You will be assigned an unexcused absence if you are late or leave early.

COURSE STRUCTURE:

Students are expected to read assigned materials prior to the class period in which the material is presented. Class lectures are not intended to take the place of reading the chapter materials. A very important part of this course is your active participation in class discussions and your active gathering and synthesis of information. As aspiring professionals, you are expected to schedule time far enough in advance so that conflicts that prevent you from being prepared for class are minimized. I will call on students to answer questions about the homework and assigned readings. However, your voluntary contributions to class are more valuable.

You will need to attempt assignments to understand the material covered in the course. Quiz grades will be averaged in with your overall course grade.

TENTATIVE GRADING:

	Points		Course Grade	Percentage
Exam 1	100		A	90 – 100%
Exam 2	100		B	80 – 89.9%
Projects:			C	70 – 79.9%
Data Flow Diagrams	25		D	60 – 69.9%
Flow Chart	25		F	Below 60%
REA Diagrams	25
Control Matrix	25
Accounting Systems
Using Access	50
XBRL	50
Final Exam	200
Total	600

Exams will consist of multiple choice questions, problems, and essay questions. Exam dates are on the Course Outline. These examinations must be taken as scheduled. Make-up exams are not offered except in the case of valid, DOCUMENTED medical emergencies. Most make-up exams will be oral exams given at an agreed upon time in my office. Students must take care of all biological necessities prior to starting the examination. Your exam is over once you leave your seat for any reason.

Individual Homework Assignments will not be graded, but are necessary for you to understand the application of the chapter material.

Anti-Fraud Module

Students will understand why fraud occurs, including the components of the Fraud Triangle, the pressures, opportunities and rationalizations that are present in most frauds. They will identify some important red flags of fraud. Students will compare and contrast the approaches and techniques that are used to commit computer fraud and describe how to deter and detect computer fraud.

Academic Integrity

Students are advised that ECU's Academic Integrity policy will be strictly enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.ecu.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity. I have attached a copy of the University's "Academic Dishonesty Defined" on this syllabus for your reference. You should be aware that a notification of a violation of the Academic Integrity policy must be made to the Office of Academic Integrity and that the notice will become a part of your permanent student records.

Repeats

EKU Business Policy: A business student may only repeat a course twice. The second repeat requires a College Exception Form with the approval of his/her advisor, department chair, and the Dean of the College of Business and Technology.

Incomplete Grades – Grade of "I"

Departmental policy on Incompletes: Failure to complete the course requirements will result in a grade of "F." A grade of "I" must be authorized before final grades are due for that course by the department chair upon review of documented evidence that the student was unable to complete the course requirements due to unavoidable circumstances.

Retained Work

I reserve the right to retain, for pedagogical reasons, an electronic copy of any student's work submitted for a grade in this class. Students' names will be deleted from any retained items.

Blackboard

I use Blackboard as the ONLY means to communicate with students. All grades on quizzes, exams, and projects are posted on Blackboard along with the current course average grade. Copies of the syllabus, handouts, assignments, and supplementary material are posted on Blackboard. You should check Blackboard at least once daily to see if I have posted any new material.

Official E-mail

An official ECU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this ECU e-mail address.

Disclaimer

This syllabus (including topic list, class schedule, and other components) represents a tentative plan for course proceedings. I reserve the right to make changes as student needs and other factors may warrant. Changes to the syllabus will be announced in class and posted on Blackboard. Students are responsible for all announced changes even if they miss the class in which the change is announced.

EKU Academic Integrity Policy
Academic Dishonesty Defined

Academic integrity is a fundamental value for the Eastern Kentucky University community of students, faculty, and staff. It should be clearly understood that academic dishonesty is not tolerated and incidents of it will have serious consequences. Anyone who knowingly assists in any form of academic dishonesty shall be considered as responsible as the student who accepts such assistance and shall be subject to the same sanctions. Academic dishonesty can occur in different forms, some of which include cheating, plagiarism, and fabrication.

Cheating

Cheating is an act or an attempted act of deception by which a student seeks to misrepresent that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- Giving or receiving assistance not authorized by the instructor or University representative;
- Participating in unauthorized collaboration on an academic exercise;
- Using unapproved or misusing electronic devices or aids during an academic exercise.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism occurs when a student represents work taken from another source as his/her own. It is imperative that a student gives credit to information, words, ideas, and images that are integrated into his/her own work. Acknowledgement of a source of information in any form should consist of complete, accurate, and specific references and, if verbatim statements are included, quotation marks as well. Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- Using words, ideas, or images from another source (including the Internet); whether in quotation marks or not, without giving credit to that source in the form of a bibliographic citation;
- Facts, statistics, or other supporting materials that are not clearly common knowledge without acknowledgment of the source.

Fabrication

Fabrication is a form of deception and occurs when a student misrepresents written or verbal information in an academic exercise. Fabrication includes, but is not limited to:

- Citation of information not taken from the source indicated. This may include the incorrect documentation of secondary source materials;
- Listing sources in a bibliography not directly used in the academic exercise;
- Submission in a paper, thesis, lab report, practicum log, or other academic exercise of falsified, invented, or fictitious data or evidence, or deliberate and knowing concealment or distortion of the true nature, origin, or function of such data or evidence;
- Submitting as your own any academic exercise (verbal, written, electronic, or artistic work) prepared totally or in part by another person.

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

A. 1. Specific action requested: (Example: To increase the number of credit hours for ABC 100 from 1 to 2.)
 To create a new and relevant course in computer forensics for students to use as an elective and to support a proposed future track for the CIS major.

A. 2. Effective date: (Example: Fall 2001)
 Fall 2010

A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: (if applicable)
 NA

B. The justification for this action:
 This course will also serve the needs of students both inside and outside the CIS program, including non-CIS business majors as well as majors in CSC, TEC, HLS, LPS, and CRJ.
 The optional textbook for this course is number 1 in a set of 5 books that lead a student to test for a certification as a Computer Hacking Forensic Investigator (CHF1).
 Topics for course discussion take in the latest technology including Windows, Linux, Mac, PDAs, cell phones, and thumb drives. At the end of the class, the student will have a solid background with which to pursue advanced knowledge in the area of Forensic Computing.
 The current instructor for this course has a BBA, Major in CIS, and an MBA, both from EKU, and is recognized as professionally qualified to teach by both SACS and AACSB. He has extensive computer industry experience in programming, database, and networking. He has taught thousands of students in university-level computer courses over the past 18 years. He has recently earned the Certified Computer Examiner (CCE) designation from The International Society of Forensic Computer Examiners. Our Forensic Computing Lab will serve as both a lecture venue as well as workspace where students can practice what they've learned. This lab supports lecture seating for 20 students and 8 team workstations with 2 Dell Forensic Workstations and 1 Apple computer per station. Each workstation supports a removable hot-swap drive bay and a variety of specialized hardware (i.e. converters and write-blockers) and cabling to support acquisition and analysis operations.

C. The projected cost (or savings) of this proposal is as follows:

Personnel Impact:

II. Textbook and Supplies (required)

Required:

- Guide to Computer Forensics and Investigations, Fourth Edition by Bill Nelson, Amelia Phillips, Christopher Steuart. Course Technology Incorporated, 2010.
ISBN 10: 1-4354-9883-6. ISBN-13: 978-1-4354-9883-9.
  - This book emphasizes hardware/software, systems, and forensic concepts, and also includes step-by-step explanations for using a variety of both hardware and software forensic tools. Numerous practical exercises are included at the end of each chapter.

Optional:

- Computer Forensics: Investigation Procedures and Response, published by Course Technology, 2010.

III. The Course

A. Description

CIS 320 Forensic Computing: Investigations (3) A. Prerequisite: CIS 212 or CIS 240 or CSC 104 with a grade of “C” or better and junior standing. Provide students with an understanding of digital forensics as used in corporate investigations and criminal/civil litigation. Students learn basic tools and techniques to properly initiate a computer forensics investigation, then acquire and analyze that evidence.

B. Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

- Describe forensic computing and investigations as a profession from a criminal, civil and corporate perspective.
- Explain the importance of using standardized processes to complete an investigation.
- Articulate the issues and implications in the design of forensic lab work space.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the rules of evidence and how to operate in a crime scene.
- Describe the basics of evidence collection and validation.
- Demonstrate proficiency in using a broad set of both hardware and software tools involved in analyzing digital evidence.
- List and explain the legal issues surrounding any digital investigation from a corporate, civil and criminal perspective.
- Describe the “big picture” as the digital investigation relates to other areas of the organization.

IV. Grading

A. Attendance

A student who does not come to class is unable to contribute to classroom discussion, cannot ask questions, and does not understand homework assignments. Coming to class is important...It is important to me, and it should be important to you...It will definitely be important to other members of your team who have more work to do in your absence. For this reason, absences will have a significant impact on your class participation grade. Any student missing class with seven excused or unexcused absences will automatically fail the course.

B. Grade Components

1.	Exams – midterm and final	40%
2.	Quizzes / Labs / Written Assignments	20%
3.	Research Paper	20%
4.	Computer Forensics Portfolio	10%
5.	Class Participation	10%

Final grades will be assigned based on the points earned in each area. Letter grades will be assigned as follows:

A	90 AND ABOVE
B	80 - 89
C	70 - 79
D	60 - 69
F	59 AND BELOW

V. Policies

- Exams missed due to an excused absence will be made up by taking a comprehensive final, which will also count for those missed exams. Exams missed due to an unexcused absence cannot be made up. Exams will be given neither early nor late.
- Homework and assignments will be collected at the beginning of class. Homework can be turned in one class period after the due date, with a 20 percent penalty. This should be the exception, not the rule.
- A note about email: I check mine often and try to get answers to questions back promptly. If you choose to contact me via email, make sure your name is obvious - it isn't always in the email address itself. Update your profile in ECU Direct to include the email address you check regularly. Always start your email subject line with "CIS320" and you'll find I get back to you faster. (Students are my first priority.) Never send homework via email. Always include a subject line...no subject line is a great way to end up in the Spam folder. Q: btw, How much homework can I send to you via email?? A: Never send homework via email.

Academic Integrity Policy

Students are advised that ECU's Academic Integrity policy will be strictly enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.ecu.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity. I have attached a copy of the University's "Academic Dishonesty Defined" on this syllabus for your reference. You should be aware that a notification of a violation of the Academic Integrity policy must be made to the Office of Academic Integrity and that the notice will become a part of your permanent student records.

Disability Statement

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Repeats

EKU Business Policy: A business student may only repeat a course twice. The second repeat requires a College Exception Form with the approval of his/her advisor, department chair, and the Dean of the College of Business and Technology.

Incomplete Grades – Grade of “I”

Departmental policy on Incompletes: Failure to complete the course requirements will result in a grade of "F." A grade of "I" must be authorized before final grades are due for that course by the department chair upon review of documented evidence that the student was unable to complete the course requirements due to unavoidable circumstances.

Retained Work

I reserve the right to retain, for pedagogical reasons, an electronic copy of any student's work submitted for a grade in this class. Students' names will be deleted from any retained items.

Blackboard

I use Blackboard as the ONLY means to communicate with students. All grades on quizzes, exams, and projects are posted on Blackboard along with the current course average grade. Copies of the syllabus, handouts, assignments, and supplementary material are posted on Blackboard. You should check Blackboard at least once daily to see if I have posted any new material.

Official E-mail

An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

Disclaimer

This syllabus (including topic list, class schedule, and other components) represents a tentative plan for course proceedings. I reserve the right to make changes as student needs and other factors may warrant. Changes to the syllabus will be announced in class and posted on Blackboard. Students are responsible for all announced changes even if they miss the class in which the change is announced.

Students will experience and understand the portion of the digital investigation beginning with digital evidence acquisition, then analysis of the evidence, and finally reporting results – implementing various forensic hardware and software including write-blockers and EnCase.

B. Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate a basic knowledge of a variety of storage hardware types and the file systems commonly found on those devices – and how this will impact the student's ability to complete forensic investigations.
- Describe in detail the boot processes of the most common types of computer systems.
- Explain in detail the issues facing the investigator of a Windows system – and an overview of the issues relative to Macintosh and Linux systems.

- Demonstrate skill in preparing media to be used to hold evidence.
- Demonstrate the ability to acquire data from computers and other digital devices to be used in the investigation – as well as to control that evidence so it can be used in court if necessary.
- Demonstrate the skill needed to recover deleted files and deleted partitions from media being investigated.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the EnCase software application as a digital forensic tool.
- Write a clear and concise report outlining the details of the case and the results of the analysis.

V. Policies

- Exams missed due to an excused absence will be made up by taking a comprehensive final, which will also count for those missed exams. Exams missed due to an unexcused absence cannot be made up. Exams will be given neither early nor late.
- Homework and assignments will be collected at the beginning of class. Homework can be turned in one class period after the due date, with a 20 percent penalty. This should be the exception, not the rule.
- A note about email: I check mine often and try to get answers to questions back promptly. If you choose to contact me via email, make sure your name is obvious - it isn't always in the email address itself. Update your profile in ECU Direct to include the email address you check regularly. Always start your email subject line with "CIS325" and you'll find I get back to you faster. (Students are my first priority.) Never send homework via email. Always include a subject line...no subject line is a great way to end up in the Spam folder. Q: btw, How much homework can I send to you via email?? A: Never send homework via email.

Academic Integrity Policy

Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity policy will be strictly enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity. I have attached a copy of the University's "Academic Dishonesty Defined" on this syllabus for your reference. You should be aware that a notification of a violation of the Academic Integrity policy must be made to the Office of Academic Integrity and that the notice will become a part of your permanent student records.

Disability Statement

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Repeats

EKU Business Policy: A business student may only repeat a course twice. The second repeat requires a College Exception Form with the approval of his/her advisor, department chair, and the Dean of the College of Business and Technology.

Incomplete Grades – Grade of "I"

Departmental policy on Incompletes: Failure to complete the course requirements will result in a grade of "F." A grade of "I" must be authorized before final grades are due for that course by the department chair upon review of documented evidence that the student was unable to complete the course requirements due to unavoidable circumstances.

Retained Work

I reserve the right to retain, for pedagogical reasons, an electronic copy of any student's work submitted for a grade in this class. Students' names will be deleted from any retained items.

Blackboard

I use Blackboard as the ONLY means to communicate with students. All grades on quizzes, exams, and projects are posted on Blackboard along with the current course average grade. Copies of the syllabus, handouts, assignments, and supplementary material are posted on Blackboard. You should check Blackboard at least once daily to see if I have posted any new material.

Official E-mail

An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

Disclaimer

This syllabus (including topic list, class schedule, and other components) represents a tentative plan for course proceedings. I reserve the right to make changes as student needs and other factors may warrant. Changes to the syllabus will be announced in class and posted on Blackboard. Students are responsible for all announced changes even if they miss the class in which the change is announced.

B. The justification for this action:
Most programs in EKUBusiness now require 120 hours for a BBA degree. Therefore, we propose the revision of the Finance major that requires only 120 hours. We also recently proposed two new courses in Personal Financial Planning and Entrepreneurial Finance that would serve Financial Planning and Managerial Finance options.

Lectures:

While exams and other methods of evaluation are important to measure the students' progress throughout the course, emphasis of the lectures will be placed on LEARNING. I will endeavor to delineate the material during lectures that I believe is worthy of inclusion on the exams. It is my intention that the lectures will be interactive. In my experience, students learn better when they are actively involved in the process. First and foremost, upon completion of this course, I want the students to have information applicable to practical production scenarios. This information will be presented from a SCIENTIFIC perspective.

Teaching Philosophy:

As your instructor, I have the task of providing the factual information and guidance in gathering information. It is also my goal to stimulate the thought processes that allow students to integrate concepts to a point that they will be applicable to future professions, vocations, or life experiences. I am mindful that not all students learn at the same rate and that they respond to different teaching styles. I will try to meet the learning needs of all students. Above all, I place fairness in my interactions with the students of paramount importance. We are all partners in the learning process!

Attendance Policy:

Students in Agriculture are required to attend all scheduled meetings of the classes for which they are enrolled. If a student has a legitimate reason to be absent (personal illness, critical illness or death in immediate family or participation in an approved University activity), the student is expected to discuss it with the instructor prior to his/her anticipated absence, and when possible and make arrangements for any make-up work that must be done. Completion of make-up work is the responsibility of the student. The instructor will judge the validity of the reason for an absence. In case of an emergency of such nature that the above requirements cannot be met, the student should inform the instructor at the first opportunity after the student's return to the campus and he/she should present adequate and documented reasons. Absences in excess of 10% will result in the lowering of the final grade one letter grade. Absences in excess of 20% of a class will automatically result in a failing grade unless this be waived by the instructor and department chairman.

Students with Disabilities:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in Student Services Building Room 361 by e-mail at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Academic Integrity Statement:

Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity Policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu <<http://www.academicintegrity.eku.edu>>. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Evaluation:

The final grade for the course will be determined according to the following:

Three—100 point hour exams (see exam schedule)	300 points
Presentation	100 points
Final Exam—new and comprehensive material	100 points
Total	500 points

Exams may contain multiple choice, short answer, essay, or completion questions.

The presentation assignment will involve putting together a 10-15 minute PowerPoint presentation to be delivered during the regularly scheduled class time. An assignment sheet detailing the specific requirements for the presentation will be handed out in class. The presentation schedule will be agreed upon by the professor and students.

Hour exams are tentatively scheduled for the following lecture days: TBD

Assignment make-up policy:

When an excused absence results in a student missing a test, quiz, or other assignment, it is the student's responsibility to arrange for a make-up. These arrangements must be made within one week of returning to class. Failure to follow these guidelines will result in the student receiving no credit for the graded assignment.

Student Progress:

While my schedule may not always make it possible, I will make every effort to return exams and graded assignments to the students during the next scheduled class period following the exam or assignment turn-in date. The students should keep a log of their points for each exam and assignment for the semester to track their progress. I will provide the students with a mid-term letter grade. I also welcome students inquiring about their progress at any time during the semester.

Withdrawal:

For the Spring 2011 semester, the last day to withdraw from a full-term class or the University is TBD.

Final Exam:

The Final Exam is scheduled for TBD.

Grading:

The final letter grade will be based on a percentage of the semester total as follows:  $\geq 90\%$  = A; 80 – 89% = B; 70 – 79% = C; 60 – 69% = D; and  $< 60\%$  = F

Catalogue Course Description: A study of the art and craft of writing screenplays including character development, plot considerations and an overview of the marketing process.

Texts: The Screenwriter's Workbook, Syd Field, ISBN: 0385339046

Student Learning Outcomes:

- a. to demonstrate a writing process that produces effective documents appropriate to course level.
- b. to recognize effective writing strategies.
- c. to identify recurring characters and learn how to incorporate them into new works.
- d. to identify plot developments and understand how character influences plot.
- e. to understand and apply the mechanics of screenwriting.
- f. to understand the marketing process and the basics of selling a screenplay.
- g. through the screenplay peer reviews, exercise critical thinking when watching a film or reading a screenplay.

Learning Modules:

1. Creating Characters
2. Creating Plot
3. Writing Descriptions
4. Writing Action
5. Writing Dialogue
6. Scene Headings, Transitions and Time of Day
7. Marketing and Pitching the Screenplay

Evaluation Methods:

Peer Review Workshops	10%
Take Home Exam	10%
Outline: Plot and Characters – 1 st Draft	10%
Outline: Plot and Characters – 2 nd Draft	10%
1 st Draft Screenplay	10%
2 nd Draft Screenplay	20%
Final Draft Screenplay	30%

Student Progress: Students will monitor their process by checking the grade center on the Blackboard site and in scheduled progress meetings with the instructor. Students are responsible for recovering information they missed during any absences from fellow students or Blackboard.

Attendance Policy: Regular and timely class attendance is expected of all students. Students are allowed three (3) absences during the semester without penalty. All subsequent unexcused absences will result in a final grade reduction of one letter grade per incident. (For example, if a student has an A in the class, but has 4 unexcused absences, she will receive a B for her final grade). Six (6) or more absences will result in an automatic F for the class.

Excuses must be submitted in writing within 48 hours of the absence and must include official documentation. Excused absences will include only the following:

1. Auto accident and/or mechanical problems experienced by the student on the day of the absence. A police report of the accident or towing/shop receipt will be required for an approved excuse.
2. Hospital or emergency room visit by the student on the day of the absence. A doctor's note will be required for an approved excuse.
3. The death of an immediate family member within 2 days of the absence (husband, wife, brother, sister, mother, father). A funeral notice or obituary will be required for an approved excuse.

The instructor will not accept late assignments. All late assignments will receive an automatic F without an approved excuse (see above).

If a student misses a quiz or assignment deadline, the student may be offered an extra credit assignment if she provides the instructor with an approved excuse (see excused absences above).

Students are responsible for recovering information they missed during their absence from fellow students or the Blackboard site. Students should not ask the instructor "what they missed" when they were absent. The instructor will not provide this information.

Students who choose to use cell phones in class will receive an automatic absence for the day.

Last Date to Drop the Course: August 30, 2009. Last day to drop a full semester course without a "W" appearing on the university transcript, last day to register for or add additional full-semester courses. Last day for full tuition refund.

Disability Statement: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Academic Integrity Statement: Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Official E-mail: An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

Course Requirements:

Consultations: Consultations are times for you to consult with the instructor one-on-one concerning the progress of your screenplay. The instructor will provide you with his evaluation of your recent draft at this time. During consultations, class will not meet as usual. Students will be assigned consultation dates.

Exams: One written take home exam will test you over the content of the textbooks and supplemental material.

Outline: The outline of your Final Screenplay is the general blueprint of your project and will be graded for completeness of character sketches and plot outlines. Outlines will be graded according to a rubric that will be posted on Blackboard. Both your peers and the instructor will provide evaluations of each draft of your outline.

Screenplay Drafts: You will complete two drafts in this class. These will be drafts of the first and second act of your feature film (Final Screenplay). Each draft will be graded more and more stringently, according to a rubric that will be made available to you on Blackboard. Both your peers and the instructor will provide evaluations of each draft of your screenplay.

Writing Reflection Journals: You will complete an entry in your Writing Reflection Journal after each Peer Review and Instructor Consultation. Entries should reflect your feelings about your writing efforts and the peer or instructor review. The Writing Journal will be due with each script draft.

Required Viewing: You are required to view the following films outside of class: Thelma and Louise (1991) and Titanic (1997). If you miss the in-class screening of The Shawshank Redemption, you must view it on your own.

Required Reading: All required reading for a class meeting should be completed before the class so that students are able to participate in discussions and question and answer sessions. Students will receive their specific reading assignments in class.

2 February 2010

Dear John:

I'm writing to let you know that the TCAC Advisory Board has approved your proposal for BEM 353W. We're very happy to be adding this course to writing-intensive roster. You are set to go in offering the courses as soon as they clear the appropriate levels of approval. As you know, you need to initiate that approval path.

Because these courses are part of the TCAC program, they will need to be part of its assessment process. This means two things. First, we ask that for each course, the syllabus would include a statement like the following:

"For assignment X, you must send an electronic copy to me at mary.doe@eku.edu by (time/date). (1) The document must be in Microsoft WORD; (2) You must include your ID number on the document. A copy of this document will be sent to a committee to evaluate the overall success of writing-intensive courses. Your ID number will allow the University to track students' progress over time, without seeing your name. Very rarely, a paper may be printed to use for training purposes. When this occurs, the ID number is removed before printing."

When the papers are gathered electronically, the instructor(s) can copy them to a CD and send it to me. Second, all instructors of writing-intensive courses will be invited to participate in a yearly holistic scoring of sample papers from all writing-intensive classes. A stipend will be paid to anyone who participates in this event.

In addition to the Student Learning Outcomes that you and your department have chosen for this course, the syllabus also needs to include the SLOs for the writing-intensive courses. There are two:

1. "Students will demonstrate a writing process that produces effective documents appropriate to course level"
2. "Students will recognize effective writing strategies."

Thanks again for your hard work in making this course a reality. We are delighted to have you as part of the TCAC community. If there's anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Best regards,

Director, TCAC
Professor of English

Instructor: Dr. Jayne L. Violette

Office: Combs 308

Office Hours:

Email: Jayne.Violette@eku.edu (email is preferred mode of communication)

Phone: 2-8455 (but always best to email me, as voice mail is rarely checked.)

Course Description: CMS 485S Communication Training and Development. (3), I, II. Formerly CMS 485 and CMS 406. Prerequisite: CMS 300 and 24 hours completed in CMS. Service-learning course introduces students to the communication training and development field applied in a variety of professional contexts.

Required Materials:

Beebe, S. E., Mottet, T. P., and Roach, K. D. (2004). Training and development: Enhancing communication and leadership skills. Boston, MA: Allyn-Bacon/Pearson Education.

Other supplemental readings and journal articles will be provided throughout the course. These additional required reading materials will be available online and/or on our class Blackboard site.

You must maintain an active EKU email account that you check daily for announcements from me. I depend heavily on email to communicate with you!

Student Learning Outcomes:

The Quality Enhancement Program (QEP) theme at EKU is: “EKU will develop informed, critical and creative thinkers who communicate effectively.” This senior capstone course involves all of the processes inherent in this theme. Therefore, by the end of this course, you should be able to...

- (1) Identify training and development as a field of communication.
- (2) Explain adult learning theories as they relate to communication training and development programs within an organization.
- (3) Develop, implement, and analyze a needs assessment for a specific organization
- (4) Effectively analyze which training formats are most appropriate for specific training needs and contexts.
- (5) Design and present professional proposals, reports, and training materials for training and development purposes.
- (6) Design and orally present a communication training module (curriculum) for a specific organization/audience.
- (7) Explain the relationships between training, job performance, and training assessment.
- (8) Demonstrate ethical practices involved in communication training and development.

Assignments:

This course centers around the generation and implementation of a service-learning project designed to provide each of you with active, experiential learning related to communication training and development while offering valuable information to a community partner. This project will primarily address two domains of student learning: (1) cognitive, meaning that you will acquire new knowledge about communication training and development and (2) behavioral, meaning that you will apply that new knowledge in a “real life” setting through the development and implementation of the project.

You will spend the majority of your time this semester working on this one major service-learning project. With assistance from your instructor and other campus resources, each of you will secure an appropriate community partner with whom to work for the entire semester. With instructor permission, you may choose to partner with one of your classmates for this project.

Your instructor will provide very specific instructions and assignment criteria involving research, data collection and analysis, report writing, curriculum development, and training delivery. In summary, this service-learning project requires that you:

- (1) Turn in a copy of a signed community partner contract by a specific date (10 points)
- (2) Develop a formal needs assessment proposal for your community partner and gain their approval for data collection (50 points)
- (3) Collect data through formal needs assessment methods and techniques (50 points)
- (4) Generate and gain community partner approval of a needs assessment results report and training recommendations (50 points)
- (5) Develop targeted communication training curriculum, including various related training documents, and a detailed training plan format (50 points) and participants’ guide (25 points)
- (6) Formally present findings of needs assessment and recommended training curriculum to your community partner. REQUIRED to be video-taped. (25 points)
- (7) Assess project efforts by collecting and analyzing project evaluation survey data from community partner (25 points)
- (8) Organizing a “ Training Project Binder” complete with all created documents + tape of presentation (25 points)
- (9) Keep a project reflection journal throughout the semester (25 points), then summarize reflections about your service-learning experiences at the end-of-the semester presentation in class (10 points).

The critical thinking and oral and written communication skills involved in the generation of all of the above will be evaluated using the ECU Rubrics for Critical Thinking, Written Communication, and Oral Communication competencies.

Additionally, this course requires:

- (1) Completion of at two - three exams, covering textbook information (100 - 150 points total)
- (2) Consistent attendance (see policy below)
- (3) Active participation in class

- (4) Occasional homework assignments (up to 40 points)
- (5) A high level of professionalism, as this course is designed to help you change your identity from being a “student” to becoming a “communication professional”.

Grading Summary:

Signed Community Partner Contract	10 points
Needs Assessment Proposal	50 points
Data Collection Documents	50 points
Results Report + Training Recommendations	50 points
Training Curriculum (+ plan)	50 points
Participants’ Guide	25 points
Oral Presentation to Community Partner	25 points
Assessment Survey	25 points
Project Binder	25 points
Final Presentation	10 points
Reflection Journal	25 points
Exams (2 - 3)	100 – 150 points
Homework	up to 40 points
 TOTAL	 up to 535 points (depending on # of exams and # of homework assignments)

Grading Scale: 90 – 100%

Student Progress: You will meet one-on-one with your instructor at least twice during the semester (at least once before mid-term and at least once after) for scheduled progress consultations. You can also monitor your progress in this course by checking your grades online through Blackboard. You should contact your instructor for additional meetings any time you are not certain of your status in this course!

Policies:

Attendance: Your consistent attendance is imperative to your successful completion of this course! Students who make it a goal never to miss class this semester will, of course, get the most from this learning experience. However, acknowledging the fact that illness or other justifiable reasons for missing class do occasionally occur for most students, you can miss up to THREE classes without penalty. If you miss more than the allotted three absences, a formal written, university-approved excuse must be submitted. Absences beyond FIVE, however, for whatever reason, representing both excused and unexcused absences, will result in failure of this course. No exceptions.

For those of you who will be partnering with a classmate this semester, attendance at partner meetings may also be a contributing factor to this policy. Missing arranged meetings with your partner, arriving late or leaving meetings early will be documented. Excessive infractions (missing, arriving late, or leaving early for more than two meetings) as reported by either party will result in a minimum of one full grade lower of your final grade in the course!

You can expect that we will meet in our classroom most days. Occasionally, class may be conducted online through our class Blackboard site. There are also certain points during the semester, as indicated elsewhere on this syllabus, when you and your instructor will need to use class time for project progress consultations. Those times will be announced ahead of time and scheduled appointments will be made. Failure to show up for these scheduled office consultations equals class absence: 1 missed appointment = 1 class absence. See attached weekly calendar for an idea of when these will occur, subject to adjustment as needed.

Tardiness: Our time together is valuable and late arrival to class both devalues this course and is disruptive and rude to your instructor and your classmates. Consistent tardiness will negatively impact your grade. Every 3 times late = 1 full absence. Late means that you get to class after attendance is taken, usually in the first three minutes of class.

Cell Phones/Electronic Devices: Please show respect to your instructor and your class mates by turning cell phones and other electronic devices off and away when in class. Texting is prohibited whenever class is in session! You should not get up in the middle of class to take a call, respond to a text message, or otherwise disrupt class proceedings unless it is a true emergency. Students with children may keep cell phones on “vibrate” setting. Failure to comply with this policy will result in expulsion from class.

Readings and Homework: Please read chapter and other assignments BEFORE you come to class each day and complete the homework assignments on time so that you are informed and ready to discuss. If it becomes apparent that the class as a whole is not keeping up with readings or homework, your instructor reserves the right to add “pop quizzes” to the point total for the course.

Assignments/Due Dates: It is expected that you turn in all assignments on or before the due dates. Due dates are established for a functional reason: to keep your project from stalling, to promote and maintain project goal-setting, and to prevent procrastination. Procrastination is DEADLY in this course! The due dates for project-related documents are negotiable to some extent (give or take a couple of days), acknowledging that working with clients is sometimes unpredictable.

Due dates related to readings and exams are non-negotiable, however. If you attend class regularly, check email messages from your instructor daily, and watch for announcements on our class Blackboard site, you will never be surprised as to when assignments are due and/or when exams are given. YOU MUST CONTACT YOUR INSTRUCTOR AHEAD OF TIME VIA EMAIL IF YOU ARE GOING TO MISS AN EXAM OR WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT DUE DATE, ARE NOT SURE IF AND WHEN AN ASSIGNMENT IS DUE, AND/OR NEED TO TURN IN AN ASSIGNMENT LATE DUE TO CLIENT CONSTRAINTS. DO NOT wait until the next time and/or make assumptions that everything will be OK.

All submitted work must be original, neatly typed (12 point font), be absolutely free of grammatical and typographical errors, and presented professionally, reflective of the higher level nature of this course. This is a senior-level capstone course and there are high expectations of you. Extra-credit assignments are not given. If you know writing is not your strength, you are expected you to get the help you need from writing consultants at The Studio for Academic Creativity located in the library.

Withdrawing from the Course: The last day to withdraw from this course is _____.

Students with Disabilities: If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 /TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

Academic Integrity: Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity Policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity Policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding this policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Respect for Others: The foundation of effective communication is being "other-oriented". Again, please turn off electronic devices when in class. The use of tobacco products is prohibited in this class. Please avoid racist, sexist, crude, or other negative language that may make others in our classroom community uncomfortable. Respect for opinions and beliefs different from your own is also desired. This also applies to any and all electronic communication.

Class Cancellation: Every effort will be made to contact you ahead of time if class must be cancelled due to bad weather or instructor illness. If class is cancelled for any reason, you are asked to check your email that same day for information and assignments. You may be asked to participate in assignments on your class Blackboard site.

WEEKLY LEARNING GOALS

(will be adjusted as needed as we go along)

NOTE that I have generally determined both in-class goals and out-of-class goals for each week. This is to help you manage your time and establish your goals and priorities each week so as not to get behind. Although these goals may slightly adjust over the course of the semester, please make careful consideration of how your time needs to be consistently allocated. Again, as this schedule suggests, procrastination in this course will result in tremendous angst for all parties concerned, including (and most importantly) your community partner. Please commit to your best work in this course this semester, reflective of the goals of a senior capstone learning experience!

Week 1:

In class goals -Course Overview; Self-Introductions; Read Preface + Chapter 1 "Introduction to Training" and Chapter 12 "Trends and Opportunities in T & D"

Week 2:

In class goals – Chapters 1 & 12, cont. + selected readings on service-learning
Out-of-class goals – Work on identifying and securing Community Partner

Week 3:

In-class goals - Chapter 2 – “How Adults Learn”

Out-of-class goals – Community Partner contracts signed; identify “key players” and “gatekeepers” and make initial contact with each.

Week 4:

In-class goals - Chapter 3 – What is a Needs Assessment? Methodologies and Techniques for Data Collection

Out-of-class goals – Decide needs assessment methods, techniques, proposal research

Week 5:

In-class goals – Chapter 3, cont.; Collecting info for your needs assessment proposal; writing the proposal; EXAM # 1 on chapters 1 – 3, parts of chapter 12 + class notes and additional readings.

Out-of-class goals – Write Needs Assessment Proposal

Week 6: Project consultations with Dr. Violette – Scheduled in office (Combs 308). Bring draft of Needs Assessment Proposal!

Week 7:

In-class goals – Data collection “instruments” designed, strategies/logistics determined; FINAL DRAFT OF NEEDS ASSESSMENT PROPOSAL DUE in class on Thursday.

Out-of-class goals – Meet with community partner to get proposals signed, discuss data collection strategies and make adjustments if necessary; begin data collection

Week 8:

In-class goals – Begin Chapter 4 (writing objectives) and discuss Needs Assessment Results Report

Out-of-class goals – Continue data collection; meetings with Dr. Violette (if needed) to discuss findings

Week 9:

In-class goals – Finish Chapters 4 & 8; Designing Curriculum and Training Plans– FINAL DRAFT OF NEEDS ASSESSMENT RESULTS REPORT DUE IN CLASS

Out-of-class goals – Finish up Needs Assessment Results Report + Training Recommendations

Week 10:

In-class goals – Cover Chapter 5; In-class progress discussions

Out-of-class goals – Get Results Report signed; research curriculum content and work on curriculum plan

Week 11:

In-class goals – Cover Chapter 6 on Training Methods

Out-of-class goals – Coordinate curriculum research and build training plan

Week 12:

In-class goals – EXAM # 2, covering Chapters 4, 5, 6, and 8 + class notes on Tuesday; Cover Chapter 9 on Thursday

Out-of-class goals – Schedule Presentation date with community partner; complete training curriculum module

Week 13:

In-class goals – Chapters 10 and 11 – Dealing with Difficult Training Situations and Assessment of Training Outcomes; EXAM # 3 on Thursday (?)

Out-of-class goals - Scheduled consultations with Dr. Violette to discuss and/or rehearse Community Partner Presentation

Week 15: Community Partner Presentations ALL THIS WEEK. No FtF class.

Week 16: In-class Reflection Presentations; Reflection Journals DUE; Project Binders DUE

Final Exam Day – TBA

Good afternoon,

Congratulations! Your application for an "S" Designation for the course CMS 485 S: Communication Training and Development has been approved by the Service-Learning Committee. I have mailed the signed application form to your mailbox. Be sure to include this application with the CAA application packet. Please move forward in your process to have this course approved by your department, college, CAA, and any other committees/colleges. Let me know if you have any questions about this process.

Thank you!!
Nicole

Service Learning Course Application

Department submitting application: Department of Communication

Date of Submittal: 1/21/10

Name of faculty teaching this course: Dr. Jayne L. Violette

Email: Jayne_Violette@eku.edu Phone: (859)806-3215 (cell phone)

Course name and number: CMS 485S "Communication Training and Development"

Number of credit hours: 3

Check the appropriate box: New Course  Existing Course:  X

Will other sections of the course be offered without service-learning? Yes  No  X

How many sections of the course will be offered? This course is offered at least every other semester, not including summers and only one section of this course per semester is currently offered, unless number of CMS majors grows. The cap for this course is 20. Please note that this is one of the required senior capstone courses for CMS majors. ALL CMS seniors must take this course and participate in the service-learning projects.

What community organization/agency will the students be working with? How did you determine their need?

Community partners vary each semester, depending on individual student's interests, career goals, and community partnership requests. Each student has a different community partner and each student is required to identify and secure his or her own community partner, pending Dr. Violette's approval. With special permission, students may partner with one other classmate, if the partnership context meets certain criteria. Communication training needs are determined through formal needs assessment procedures and students then develop and deliver subsequent 1-hour communication training workshops designed to address identified skill needs. Past community partners have included schools, financial institutions, healthcare facilities, retail stores, government agencies, and on-campus professional staff organizations (i.e. Admissions office, Housing Office) and others over the years. Both course evaluations and community partner surveys consistently indicate very positive experiences for all parties involved.

How many hours of service per semester will students be required to complete?

This is a semester-long service project. The majority of students' in and out-of-class time the entire semester is devoted to working on this project. Students are expected to work a minimum of five hours per week on the project, but some weeks, it is much more. The emphasis of this course is on serving others while implementing communication knowledge and skills gained from prior CMS coursework, giving students the opportunity to alter their self-identities from "student" to "communication professional".

Comm 24

What reflective assignment(s) will students be required to complete?

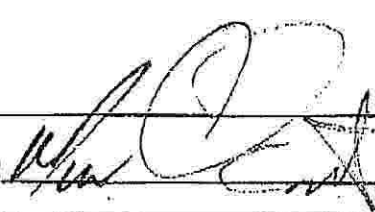

Students will keep a reflection journal throughout the semester, with reflection prompts provided by Dr. Violette. Students will also deliver an in-class reflection summary presentation at the end of the semester.

Have you incorporated an experiential educational activity that is connected to academic content as described in the syllabus?

Yes  No

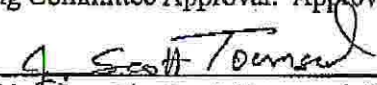

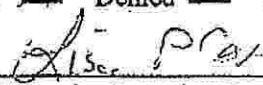

Additional comments to complement the syllabus:

Dr. Violette has taught this course (unofficially) as a service-learning course for several years and with significant success, as indicated by positive course evaluations and comments from past students and community partners. The course has been slightly adjusted to meet the criteria for the "S" designation and to include more regular and rigorous reflection activities.

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

A. 1. Specific action requested: (Example: To increase the number of credit hours for ABC 100 from 1 to 2.)
 Change course from a Lecture schedule type to a Lecture/Lab schedule type to allow for a longer meeting time.

A. 2. Effective date: (Example: Fall 2001)
 Fall 2010

A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: (if applicable)
 NA

B. The justification for this action:

The course is a Cinema Genre Course and involves watching films as a part of the in-class experience with a "talk-up" about the film at the beginning and an analysis at the end. The Lecture/Lab designation would allow the course to run for a sufficient length of time to watch a feature film with the above-mentioned "book-ends."

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

A. 1. Specific action requested: (Example: To increase the number of credit hours for ABC 100 from 1 to 2.)
Change CMS 485 under Major Requirements in B.A, Communication Studies to CMS 485S and permit either CMS 450, Mediation or CMS 485S, Training & Development as a required course in the major.

A. 2. Effective date: (Example: Fall 2001)

B. The justification for this action:

The number of students in the CMS major continues to grow. In order to accommodate this, an additional UD course should be offered as an alternate to CMS 485. CMS 450 was offered on an optional class, but now the major requirements will allow either CMS 485 or CMS 450. Will allow more flexibility.

Minor in Entrepreneurship

The Entrepreneurship Minor is offered to students majoring in programs other than business who have a desire to obtain basic business knowledge and skills related to starting their own business or possibly assuming management of an existing business (family-owned, for example). The program consists of 18 hours of required courses and three hours of electives from specified business courses. To enroll in a 300-level business course, students must have completed a minimum of 60 hours and have met the prerequisites of the specific course. Students must earn at least 12 of the total hours used for the Minor in Entrepreneurship at ECU and attain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 in the minor.

RE: Department Name Change

*Approved:

W. E. Davis 3/2/10*

On behalf of the faculty, I am requesting the name of the Department of Technology be changed to the Department of Applied Engineering and Technology.

This effort was a faculty led and chair supported process. A motion was made and passed by the faculty to change the name of the department. The faculty implemented a decision making process that included three voting rounds to select the name from six possible choices/combinations.

Rationale and Justification

- a) The international organization that the department most closely aligns with, and holds a charter, recently conducted an extensive study that resulted in a significant change in name. The organization's name has changed to the Association of Technology, Management, and Applied Engineering. Because many programs in the department are accredited by this body, association with the new name is important.
- b) The stand alone name 'Technology' is very general and is repeatedly confused with other campus computing entities such as Information Technology.

- c) Because of various initiatives in the state of Kentucky, the term Applied Engineering better matches terminology used in these initiatives. Such a name change will help guide prospective students seeking such curriculum to the department

The faculty has developed a plan to move this Department forward and to establish a stronger role for regional and national prominence. This plan includes the following items:

1. Renaming to Department of Applied Engineering and Technology.
2. Conducting a review/revision of all undergraduate programs and reducing programs (were appropriate) to 120 hours. Conduct a review/revision of all graduate programs.
3. Develop an articulated Masters Degree with regional institutions (Western Kentucky, Murray State and Morehead State). We have actively been working on this and hope to have an agreement by May 2010.
4. Develop an aggressive recruiting and public relations campaign on and off campus to get out the word about the programs within the department. This would include new materials to be sent out to incoming freshmen and a stronger focus on transfer students and undeclared students.

We feel the changing of the department name is a critical step. We see positive impacts on the entire department and the College of Business and Technology.

We request your approval of this name change for the department

If you have any questions regarding this request, please let me know.

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

A. 1. Specific action requested: (Example: To increase the number of credit hours for ABC 100 from 1 to 2.)
 Change the prerequisite requirement to AEM 202 and also change the course title to Integrated Materials Management which reflects the current trend in the industry environment.

A. 2. Effective date: (Example: Fall 2001)
 Fall, 2010

A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: (if applicable)

B. The justification for this action:
 The prerequisites to enter AEM 202 and the contents of AEM 202 will allow the instructor of AEM 406 to present and apply statistical calculations in a much great depth and more appropriate for a 400 level course. The title represents the integrated global aspect of planning, material storage and distribution.

- A. 1. Specific action requested: (Example: To increase the number of credit hours for ABC 100 from 1 to 2.)

- A. 2. Effective date: (Example: Fall 2001)
 Fall 2010
- A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: (if applicable)

B. The justification for this action:

1. The body that accredits the Industrial Technology program completed a year-long self-study in an effort to understand and better reflect changes in the field. As part of this effort, the organization determined that a name change was appropriate. The name of the accrediting agency has been changed from the "National Association of Industrial Technology" to the "Association of Technology, Management, and Applied Engineering." A program name change at the graduate level is proposed in order to maintain consistency with changes to our undergraduate program and our accreditation agency.
2. A prefix change is recommended to bring it in line with the program name change.
3. Six Sigma has evolved from Total Quality and encompasses TQ concepts, but extends past it. Six Sigma has a significant foothold in industry, and our students need to be familiar with the philosophy, tools, and techniques.

V. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. [BOK: I.A.1] The 506 student will be able to describe why organizations use six sigma and how organizations apply their philosophy of six sigma continuous improvement. The 706 student will additionally be expected to analyze the way organizations approach six sigma implementation and evaluate the results.
1.1. METRICS: Case study analysis, quizzes/exams, project/field study, informal prompts
2. [BOK: I.A.2] The 506 student will be able to analyze key drivers for a business and describe how key metrics are developed. The 706 student will additionally be expected to evaluate the potential impact of such a measurement system on the entire organization.
2.1. METRICS: Case study analysis, quizzes/exams, project/field study,
3. [BOK: II.A.1, II.A.2, and III] The 506 student will be able to collect data and apply graphical, statistical, and qualitative tools to analyze customer requirements and process performance. The 706 student will additionally be expected to evaluate the use of specific tools in specific circumstances.
3.1. METRICS: Homework assignments, quizzes/exams, project/field study
4. [BOK: V.C.] The 506 student will be able to create and implement solutions using various improvement methods such as brainstorming, main effects analysis, multi-variable studies, FMEA, measurement system capability, and post-improvement capability analysis to identify and implement solutions through various statistical tests. The 706 student will additionally be expected to evaluate and validate the use of the various improvement methods.
4.1. METRICS: project/field study

VI. EVALUATION METHODS:

Final evaluation will be determined by the scores made on the following:

	INT 506	INT 706
A. Projects	25%	40%
B. Homework	25%	20%
C. Exams	25%	20%
D. WSJ	20%	15%
F. Participation	5%	5%

**Each student must obtain an EKU email/Blackboard account and maintain participation in Blackboard throughout the semester (at least prior to each class period). Grades, assignments, and supplemental materials will be regularly posted and assigned. Homework submitted more than one class period late will not be accepted.

Grades will be distributed according to the following:

- A.....90+
- B.....80 - 89
- C.....70 - 79
- D.....60 - 69
- F ..... below 60

NOTE: No grade below a “C” is acceptable in the Applied Engineering Management Degree Program.

VII. STUDENT PROGRESS:

Students will be provided with written and/or Blackboard information on their progress at least once prior to mid-term. Additionally, students will meet individually with the professor prior to midterm to discuss current grades.

VIII. ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Students are expected to attend each class session to derive full benefits from the course. One unexcused absent is permitted in the event of an emergency.

IX. LAST DAY TO DROP THE COURSE:

August 31, 2010: Drop without effect to transcript

October 31, 2010: Last day to “withdraw” with a “W” from a full-term class or from the University

X. COURSE OUTLINE:

Part 1: Six Sigma Implementation and Management

1. Six sigma infrastructure
2. Six sigma goals and metrics
3. Creating customer-driven organizations
4. Training for six sigma
5. Six sigma teams
6. Selecting and tracking six sigma projects

Part 2: Six Sigma Tools and Techniques

1. DMAIC and other improvement models
2. Problem solving tools
3. Basic principles of measurement
4. Measurement system analysis
5. Knowledge discovery
6. Statistical process control techniques
7. Process capability analysis
8. Statistical analysis of cause and effect
9. Managing six sigma projects
10. Risk assessment
11. Design of experiments
12. Maintaining control after the project

13. Design for six sigma (DFSS)
14. Lean manufacturing and six sigma

XIII: COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Adobe Connect

See instructions at the end of this syllabus.

Wall Street Journal Student Subscription

There is no materials fee for this course; however, all students are required to obtain at least a 15-week subscription to the Wall Street Journal at a cost of $34.95.

Institutional Expectations

Upper Division Courses (INT 506): Minimum of three hours of outside preparation for every hour of lecture.

Graduate Level Courses (INT 706): Minimum of four hours of outside preparation for every hour of lecture.

The course may, at various times, encompass reading assignments, written assignments, outside speakers, audio-visual presentations, industrial visitations, small group and class discussion, and objective tests. Assignments should be prepared in a careful manner. All written work must be completed using a computer. In all cases where direct quotations, major ideas, or facts are used, the student is to give the proper reference citations according to APA (6th edition) format. In such cases, a proper reference or bibliography must be included.

NOTE: Material covered in reading assignments from the text may be on exams, even if not covered during class periods. Students are expected to complete readings before the topic is covered in class so that all students are able to participate in class discussions.

X. DISABILITY STATEMENT:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please obtain your accommodation letters from the OSID and present them to the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you believe you need accommodation and are not registered with the OSID, please contact the Office in the Student Services Building Room 361 by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in an alternative format.

XI: ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT:

Students are advised that EKU's Academic Integrity Policy will strictly be enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at www.academicintegrity.eku.edu. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

XII: OFFICIAL E-MAIL:

An official EKU e-mail is established for each registered student, each faculty member, and each staff member. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this EKU e-mail address.

Completion of A, B, and C is required: (Please be specific, but concise.)

A. 1. Specific action requested: (Example: To increase the number of credit hours for ABC 100 from 1 to 2.)
 Change prefix and course name from "Manufacturing Experiment Design" to "Design of Experiments." Change prerequisites from INT 336 to AEM 202.

A. 2. Effective date: (Example: Fall 2001)
 Fall 2010

A. 3. Effective date of suspended programs for currently enrolled students: (if applicable)
 NA

B. The justification for this action:

1. The body that accredits the Industrial Technology program completed a year-long self-study in an effort to understand and better reflect changes in the field. As part of this effort, the organization determined that a name change was appropriate. The name of the accrediting agency has been changed from the "National Association of Industrial Technology" to the "Association of Technology, Management, and Applied Engineering." A program name change at the graduate level is proposed in order to maintain consistency with changes to our undergraduate program and our accreditation agency.
2. A prefix change is recommended to bring it in line with the program name change.
3. This is one half of the 530/730 course series, but the current catalog has different course names and different prerequisites for the courses. This change will standardize the course names and prerequisites.

Academic Integrity:

Students are advised that EKU's Integrity Policy will be strictly enforced in this course. The Academic Integrity policy is available at <http://www.academicintegrity.eku.edu/>. Questions regarding the policy may be directed to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Provision for Individual Needs:

If you are registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please make an appointment with the course instructor to discuss any academic accommodations you need. If you need academic accommodations and are not registered with the Office of Services for Individuals with Disabilities, please contact the office on the third floor of the Student Services Building, by email at disserv@eku.edu or by telephone at (859) 622-2933 V/TDD. Upon individual request, this syllabus can be made available in alternative forms.

Materials Fee:

There is no materials fee for this course.

Field Trips:

Any field trips for which the department incurs travel expenses will be billed separately, also through the business office. Unless otherwise notified by the instructor, students will be responsible for their own transportation on field trips.

Other Resources

Check the INT 801 course listing in Blackboard for additional information concerning course topics. We will be adding web sites, suggested references, etc. as the course progresses.

Purpose

The purpose of this course is threefold:

1. To introduce students to topics that play a role in making effective economic decisions for operations. Quantitative methods and computer applications will be used to formulate decisions relating to manufacturing operations.
2. To familiarize students with economic topics that are critical for a technologist or engineer to consider in order making a managerial decision. Specifically, applications of the value engineering equations used in the decision making process will be discussed; criteria typically used when deciding to manufacture and market a product will be analyzed; and the impact of specific economic decisions on a project and the parent company will be synthesized.
3. To introduce students to the accounting and financial functions in relation to overall lean business and operational objectives. This course will not focus on traditional accounting methods, but will provide a perspective on management accounting from a lean operations point of view.
4. To introduce students to the use of EXCEL spreadsheet for economic analysis.

Institutional Expectations

Graduate level courses, such as INT 801, are expected to require a minimum of four hours of outside preparation for every hour of lecture (2009-2010 ECU Graduate Catalog, p. 33)

Student Progress

The instructor will provide the students with a midterm grade via Blackboard as evidence of their progress in the course prior to midnight on Friday, October 15, 2010.

Attendance Policy:

Unless otherwise noted, the Department of Technology Class Attendance Policy will apply. Students are expected to participate in all on-line sessions. Students should be aware that, due to the nature of some activities, there might NOT be an opportunity to make up even excused absences.

Course Outline

The course may, at various times, encompass reading assignments, written assignments, outside speakers, audio-visual presentations, industrial visitations, individual participation, role-playing, small group and class discussion, and objective tests.

Assignments should be prepared in a careful manner. All written work must be completed using a word processor. In all cases where direct quotations, major ideas, or facts are used, the student is to give the proper reference citations according to APA (6th edition) format. In such cases, a proper reference or bibliography must be included.

NOTE: Material covered in reading assignments from the text may be on exams, even if not covered during class periods. Students are expected to complete readings before the topic is covered in class, so that all students are able to provide thoughtful, high-quality contributions to class discussions.

On-line quizzes or homework will be posted in Blackboard. Students are expected to check their INT 801 Blackboard accounts several times a week (at a minimum) to ensure that they are aware of any new postings and due dates. On-line quizzes are to be done individually, without assistance from other students, and without reviewing or otherwise using on-line quizzes from previous semesters. These quizzes are intended to help prepare the student for exams, and to help the instructor evaluate which concepts need additional explanation.

Student Learning Objectives

The instructional goals for INT 801 are presented as terminal performance competencies. Upon successfully completing this course, the student will be able to:

1. Calculate the time value of money with respect to inflation rate, interest rates, etc.
2. Select investment alternatives such that an optimal rate of return can be reached.
3. Explain the terms Present Worth, Future Worth, Annual Worth, Cash Flow, etc.
4. Analyze economic risk factors when choosing between maintenance and replacement of equipment, making a product in-house or out-sourcing it, and building or leasing a facility.
5. Evaluate accounting measures, budgeting, and capital planning from a lean perspective.
6. Compare and contrast cost management versus cost accounting.

Course Assessment

Assessment activities include on-line quizzes, examinations, projects, and team evaluations. Each student must be punctual in getting in his or her assigned work. Spelling, grammar, and punctuation are integral components of written work; these elements will play a role with respect to the grade assigned to your work.

Final course grades are based on the following weights, but it should be noted that a student’s team evaluation could impact his or her final project grade, in addition to the points associated with the Team Evaluation:

A. Mid-Term .....	25%
B. Final .....	25%
C. Problem Assignments .....	35%

D. Project .....	15%
Total	100%

Grade

% Points

A .....	$90 \leq \text{points}$	Note: Examination scores may be “curved” to adjust for variations in the difficulties of exams, but the % points required for the various grades will not be higher than those shown to the left. Please note that extra credit assignments are not an option.
B .....	$80 \leq \text{points} < 90$
C .....	$70 \leq \text{points} < 80$
D .....	$60 \leq \text{points} < 70$
F .....	$0 \leq \text{points} < 60$

The test schedule and due dates for assignments will be announced well beforehand. Problem assignments and due date will be posted on Blackboard at least one week in advance. Late work will not be graded, but one Blackboard quiz and one problem assignment will be eliminated from consideration during final grade calculations. This assures that students who conscientiously plan and complete their work will be acknowledged, while accommodating emergencies that occasional arise. At the discretion of the instructor, work can be marked "not late" if arrangements have been made with the instructor well before the due date.

The last day to turn in any work for grading with instructor’s permission will be Friday, December 10, 2010 at 5:00 p.m.

Project:

One of two options will be selected by the instructor:

1. Case studies will be assigned to complete; or,
2. Students, in consultation with the instructor, will select a capital project (equipment or facility-related) and complete an analysis for suitable for a management presentation justifying the investment.

Required Activities and Assignments:

1. Assignments will be evaluated according to their completeness, neatness, organization, legibility, and use of proper forms and format. All mathematical calculations will be shown when and if applicable.
2. Assignments are to be turned in on time, no later than noon on the Monday following the week in which that chapter’s reading assignment is due. To accommodate the occasional difficulty in meeting a deadline, one problem assignment will be eliminated from final grade calculations.
3. Make-up arrangement for assignments and tests must be made with the instructor prior to you missing a class and contact the instructor your first day back in class if excused by instructor. If arrangements are not made it will be assumed you do not intend to make the assignment or test up and a score of zero will be recorded. Test must be made up within one week of the day of the original date given.

4. Online quizzes in Blackboard related to the readings are to be completed before the class period for which the reading assignment is listed. These will be short quizzes (no more than 10 points) designed to encourage completion of the reading assignment before class discussion.

Teamwork:

Potentially some assignments will require that the student work with a partner or in a group. In these situations, the team will develop a “contract” that documents the expectations for team members, and the consequences for conduct detrimental to team goals. In addition, each team member may be asked to complete a team member performance evaluation for themselves and other group members. All team members are expected to contribute similar amounts of work to achieve team goals. The evaluation provides the opportunity for student feedback on this “division of labor” within the group. A student who does not submit a team evaluation will be considered to have given himself or herself a zero as a self-evaluation score, and mean scores (calculated from all evaluations submitted) for other team members. It should also be noted that team performance could impact the credit a student earns toward the project grade. Any student that receives poor marks for contributions to the project will not receive the same project grade as other team members. As a last resort after documented attempts to correct a problem have failed, according to the team contract and with the permission of the instructor, a team member may be “fired” from the group for lack of contribution. Under these circumstances, that team member will receive no team evaluation credit, and would need to complete the project on their own in order to receive any final project credit.

Hardcopy Homework Assignment Submissions (Handwritten or Word):

1. Write name in upper right corner of each page
2. Staple multi-page assignments in upper left corner
3. Use smooth edge standard 8½-inch x 11-inch paper
4. Use one side of paper only
5. Show all work for credit (in many cases the answer is available, so points are earned by showing the process by which one arrives at the correct answer)
6. Label all charts and graphs
7. Use a straight-edge for all charts and graphs done by hand

Electronic Homework Assignment Submissions (Excel):

1. Insert name, the chapter and assignment number in a header block so that it shows up on all pages when printed
2. Format the solution so that there are no right margin page breaks within individual problems. Any page breaks that occur at the bottom of the page should be adjusted for maximum readability of the solution and not simply left to fall where they may. Use “Print Preview” to verify that the solution set is easy to read and follow. The instructor reserves the right to send the solution back to the student for formatting if the formatting issue is not addressed.
3. Show all work for credit (in many cases the answer is available, so points are earned by showing the process by which one arrives at the correct answer). Use explanatory notes as needed to help the instructor follow the thought process.
4. Label all charts and graphs.

5. Use the following format to name the files sent electronically to me: course number_homework number_initials (for example, someone with the initials “dwf” would label the first homework file as “801_hwk01_dwf.xls”. If everyone sends me files named “homework1,” or something similar, there is no way to keep them straight once they are saved without renaming them or opening up the files.

B. The justification for this action:

1. The body that accredits the Industrial Technology program completed a year-long self-study in an effort to understand and better reflect changes in the field. As part of this effort, the organization determined that a name change was appropriate. The name has been changed from the "National Association of Industrial Technology" to the "Association of Technology, Management, and Applied Engineering."
2. A prefix change is recommended to bring it in line with the program name change.
3. This change is proposed to better reflect the field of study and career paths of students in the program.
  - a. From: 15.0603 Industrial/Manufacturing Technology/Technician. (Deleted, Report under code 15.0612 or 15.0613) (Occupational Crosswalk)
    - i. 15.0612 Industrial Technology/Technician.
    - ii. (NEW) A program that prepares individuals to apply basic engineering principles and technical skills in support of industrial engineers and managers. Includes instruction in optimization theory, human factors, organizational behavior, industrial processes, industrial planning procedures, computer applications, and report and presentation preparation.
    - iii. Manufacturing Technology/Technician. (NEW) A program that prepares individuals to apply basic engineering principles and technical skills to the identification and resolution of production problems in the manufacture of products. Includes instruction in machine operations, production line operations, engineering analysis, systems analysis, instrumentation, physical controls, automation, computer-aided manufacturing (CAM), manufacturing planning, quality control, and informational infrastructure. (Occupational Crosswalk)
  - b. To: 15.1501 Engineering/Industrial Management. A program that focuses on the application of engineering principles to the planning and operational management of industrial and manufacturing operations, and prepares individuals to plan and manage such operations. Includes instruction in accounting, engineering economy, financial management, industrial and human resources management, industrial psychology, management information systems, mathematical modeling and optimization, quality control, operations research, safety and health issues, and environmental program management.
4. This change allows for some flexibility in grade point average and entrance exam requirements while slightly increasing overall admission requirements based upon these two factors.

MASTER OF SCIENCE

Applied Engineering and Technology Management ~~Industrial Technology~~

CIP Code: 15.1501 ~~15.0603~~

Dr. Dennis Field, Graduate Coordinator/Advisor

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

The Master of Science Degree in Applied Engineering and Technology Management ~~Industrial Technology~~ has been planned for those individuals who are interested in careers in industrial or technical management. Courses in the program have been designed to cause students to examine principles, concepts, attitudes, and methods for dealing with many of the challenges that confront business and industry now and in the future. The program will be of value to those who are currently employed in technical fields in business or industry and have professional growth aspirations. It will also be of value to those who have recently completed undergraduate study and want more preparation before embarking upon their career.

Upon completion of a degree in Applied Engineering and Technology Management ~~Industrial Technology~~, graduates will be able to: 1) plan, implement, and analyze technical projects; 2) demonstrate ability to formulate and apply advanced technical problem solving and managerial concepts; and 3) accurately synthesize their total program experience.

II. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants are expected to present proper prerequisite preparation or technical management experience. They should have an understanding of materials and processes, the principles of production control, and the economics of industry; computer literacy; the ability to communicate graphically; and the ability to apply statistics to the solution of industrial problems. ~~The program may have appeal to those with undergraduate preparation in such areas as industrial or manufacturing technology, business administration, and engineering or other graduates who have more than five years of experience in technical management. Applicants must complete either the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) General Test, or the Graduate Management Admissions Test, regardless of undergraduate grade point average. As part of the admission decision, a GAP score is calculated. When the GRE has been taken, the GAP score is obtained by summing the GRE verbal and quantitative scores and then multiplying that sum by the undergraduate grade point average as listed on the candidate's transcript. The minimum expected GAP score for the program based on the GRE is 2200. When the GMAT has been taken, the GAP score is obtained by multiplying the GMAT score by the undergraduate grade point average as listed on the candidate's transcript. The minimum expected GAP score for the program based on the GMAT is 1155. An undergraduate grade point average of 2.5 and a combined score on the Verbal and Quantitative Sections of the Graduate Record Examination of 800 or 420 on the Graduate Management Admissions Test are expected. Attributes of the applicant related to managerial and technical promise and other life experiences may will be considered by the department Graduate Studies Committee.~~

International Students — Applications from international students are encouraged. Refer to the University admission guidelines for admitting international students.

Students must also meet the general requirements of the Graduate School.

III. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Individual plans of study will include work from three areas:

Major Courses .....	18 hours
AEM #NF 706, 801, 802, 804, 805, and TEC 830.
Supporting Courses .....	6 hours
Selected from ACC 820, CIS 826, FIN 851, GBU 850, MGT 821, MKT 825, QMB 850, STA 700 and other courses by advisement.
Synthesis Experience .....	6 hours
AEM #NF 820 and 821, or AEM #NF 822.
Total .....	30 hours

IV. EXIT REQUIREMENTS

Comprehensive Examinations – The candidate will have an opportunity to show professional growth through a written and/or oral examination covering the various program components during the term in which graduation is scheduled.

First Day of Class Attendance: Use it or Lose it

Class enrollments during the first week.

This new enrollment verification process is designed to ensure:

- clear reinforcement of the message that class attendance at ECU is important
- that students enrolled but not attending ECU are identified and processed out of classes (during the first week of the term) in a way that provides full tuition reversal and no failing grades
- maximum efficiency of allocation of instructional resources, making unused class seats available to other students during the open online-registration period
- all students get the best possible opportunity for academic success by being present on the first day of class

This new enrollment verification process gives ECU instructors the authority to request disenrollment of a student for non-attendance during the first week of class only (providing the student has made no prior arrangement with the instructor for missing the class). This method is currently employed at other institutions and has proven effective.

This procedure will be in effect Fall 2010. A rigorous communication plan with faculty and students shall begin during the Spring 2010 term.

The Process:

- Classes meeting multiple times per week (MWF, TR, MW, etc.): If a student does not attend the 1st class meeting of the term, as scheduled by the University, the instructor may request that the Registrar disenroll the student.
- Classes meeting one time per week: If a student does not attend the 1st class meeting of the term, as scheduled by the University, the instructor may request that the Registrar disenroll the student.
- Online classes: Online instructors who wish to employ the faculty drop option of “Use It or Lose It” :
  - Should detail on their syllabus more than student activity intended to serve as confirmation of participation.
  - Devise these as requirements whereby the online student proactively demonstrates connection, communication, and/or some other tangible participation (e.g. emailing from their ECU email account, submitting a document in Blackboard, responding to a survey).
  - Schedule the participation requirements to begin as early as possible in the first week of the semester.
  - May then use the absence of such explicit class participation, as per the syllabus, to justify their determination that the online student is “not attending”, and (lacking any communication with the instructor) the student may be disenrolled.
- Students who know they will be absent should contact their instructor or the academic department office PRIOR TO THE CLASS MEETING to explain their absence and request that the instructor NOT drop them from the class.
- The additional 1st week data will enhance the ability of the Registrar and the Advising Office to identify “phantom first-time students”.
  - This faculty provided data will be combined with other objective indicators held in Banner, as well as information from University Housing and Student Accounting, to help confirm identity of students who are registered but not attending the university.

- This new process will also assist departments with efficiency of course offerings, and prevent inflated D, F, W rates because of such students.

Proposed Procedure:

1. A dedicated link will be in EKUDirect/Faculty Services with a roster where the instructor can indicate a student is missing during the 1st week of the full term, or during the online add/drop period of shorter partial-semester classes.
2. If a student misses class (see previous detail bullets), faculty may check the box:
  - “N/A Drop” = No-Attendance 1st Week-Faculty Drop. Registrar, disenroll this student for no-attendance/no-participation at 1st class meeting of term and no attendance related communication to instructor.
3. Faculty will be asked to identify these students immediately following the determining “missed class”, thereby making the missing student’s seat accessible to students waiting for availability in that class.
4. The Registrar will promptly drop the student from the class, per the instructor’s directive, providing the information is relayed DURING THE 1ST WEEK OF CLASS.
5. The Registrar’s Office will email each student immediately after the drop has been performed, via the student’s EKU email account; alerting the student that enrollment in one of his/her courses has been removed.
6. Students who are dropped for non-attendance, but who have a desire to take the class, may re-enroll online, (provided seats are still available), or may petition to register through the Late Enrollment process.
  - Students should note that the Late Enrollment process is dependent upon availability, and requires the written permission of the instructor, department chair, and dean of the college.
  - Depending upon the week of the term, the late add may also require approval at the Provost level.

Advising and Course Load

~~Students with two or more developmental area requirements are enrolled as “undeclared” majors and restricted to 13 hours of University enrollment, unless otherwise specified by admission status. The Office of Academic Advising will assist these students in creating linkages to the departments of their intended majors.~~

Restrictions with Developmental Requirements

- Students with more than one developmental area requirement will be enrolled in the Associate of General Studies Degree program. The Office of Academic Advising will assist these students in creating linkages to departments of academic interest.
- Students affected by the above policy, but who would be rendered ineligible for specific scholarship opportunities, or who would be denied entrance into academic programs with proven student retention success, may petition for permission to declare a baccalaureate degree program. Letters of petition should be sent after the student’s initial admission into EKU and addressed to the EKU Office of Advising.
- Students with two or more developmental area requirements are restricted to 13 hours of University enrollment, unless otherwise specified by admission status.
- Students enrolled in MAT 090 (Prealgebra) cannot enroll in any course with the following prefixes: AST, BIO, CHE, CIS, CNM, CSC, FOR, GLY, NAT, PHY, SCI, or STA.

SUBJECT: Academic Dismissal, Catalog Revision

DATE: 2/10/09

The Office of the Registrar submits the following Catalog text revision for your consideration, effective Fall 2010.

Minimum Academic Standards

(pg. 44 of the 2009-10 Undergraduate Catalog)

E. Academic Dismissal: Students returning to the University at the end of a third academic suspension must earn and maintain a term GPA of 2.0 or better each semester. Students returning after a third academic suspension will be academically dismissed from the University if they have a term GPA of less than 2.0 at the end of any semester. Students who are academically dismissed may not enroll in courses at EKU for five calendar years.

F. Attending Another School While Suspended or Dismissed ~~However~~ Course work earned at another regionally-accredited university during this period, while suspended or academically dismissed, will be considered for transfer to EKU. Students are responsible for requesting that an official transcript of any transfer course work be sent to the EKU Office of Advising when they apply for readmission to EKU. Students should consult with their advisor or college for the applicability of course work taken at another institution to their degree program at EKU.

G. Appealing Academic Standing If a student believes their academic suspension was the result of catastrophic circumstances beyond their control, they may appeal the academic suspension to the University Readmission Appeals Committee. The appeal must be in writing and students must provide appropriate documentation supporting the appeal. Students may not appeal an academic dismissal.

TO: JANNA VICE, INTERIM PROVOST
FROM: TINA DAVIS, UNIVERSITY REGISTRAR
SUBJECT: CR/NC COURSEWORK
DATE: FEBRUARY 17, 2010

Currently the catalog is silent on the use of "CR" (credit) and "NC" (no credit) course work for progress toward degree. I submit for CAA consideration language based upon the existing P/F (pass/fail) catalog text and past practice at EKU.

Previously all CR coursework was implied as similar to P/F courses but the catalog restrictions for P/F coursework is not appropriate for many situation where CR/NC is employed. Explicit language is needed for correct programming in the Degree Works software.

CR/NC CREDIT/NO CREDIT COURSEWORK

The grade of "CR" (credit) is awarded as recognition of appropriate scores on AP, IB, CLEP or other proficiency exams. This grade is also given for all transferred international coursework.

Course work with CR grades may be used to fulfill General Education, major, minor, and/or supporting program requirements to a maximum of 15 credit hours per degree program. There is no limit to the use of CR course work counting as free electives. Course work in which a CR is given may not count toward the 42 hour upper division university graduation requirement.
