THE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

By Richard Stanton, Principal
Fridley High School, Minnesota

I would begin my presentation by making it clear that I consider the athletic directorship to be one of the key positions on my senior high school staff. I say this primarily because I am a firm believer in the positive benefits of a sound athletic program to any school. If we are to have a truly successful program, the athletic director must be a hard working individual, dedicated to young athletes and their welfare. He must be a winner, not a loser, in his approach to the job. While I suppose we are all interested in a young athlete having a variety of experiences, the greatest experience of all is to have success. In athletics this means winning. This reflects my own personal philosophy of athletics. We can teach young athletes to be good losers, and too many times we do a good job of this at Fridley, but to be truly successful we must be winners. Toward this end our program is hopefully geared.

Specifically, what then do I expect of my athletic director. I will direct my thoughts to some ten major points. This will be done as briefly as possible and with the format of this panel in mind. You may see fit to disagree with me later.

1. I expect my athletic director to have a sound educational philosophy. This involves his views reflecting our athletic program realistically in terms of our total program at school. This infers that this educational philosophy must basically be in tune with mine. If the principal and athletic director are at odds on this basic philosophy, chances for a successful program are slim. I believe this is the most critical factor of all. If they don't team up and share common concerns, there is little hope for success. When a principal selects an athletic director, a thorough discussion of educational philosophy is in order. They need to agree as to the emphasis athletics is to have. They need to agree as to their ways of handling boys. I believe many principal-athletic director combinations existing today might benefit greatly from some soul searching in this area. Some better relationships might develop.

2. The athletic director must have a sincere interest in all types of athletes. There is much more to an athletic program than merely developing the talented athlete. His program should offer something to all kinds of boys. I am confident most of us in this room have experienced some of our greatest satisfaction in seeing a boy with limited talent experience some real success in athletics. The athletic director has an obligation to protect the limited ability type of athlete from becoming disenchanting when he does not meet with success. He must keep them participating in some capacity. When a coach loses a boy, or gives up on him, it is then the athletic director's job to keep that boy "alive" athletically. An athletic "drop-out" many times becomes a serious school problem. It is easy and fun to identify with the successful, talented athlete. It's sometimes a little tougher with the others. My athletic director has an obligation to provide a program for all interested boys.

3. The athletic director must reflect a sincere interest in all sports. Because most athletic directors are former coaches, it is especially significant that they display an equal interest in all sports. There is no faster way for an athletic director to lose rapport with a coaching staff than to show favoritism to a particular sport. I believe too many times we tend to evaluate our athletic program primarily in terms of the success in one or two of the so called "major sports." It is more realistic, in terms of a true athletic program, to measure success in terms of all sports. Although the participation bit is sometimes overdone, the percentage of students in a school participating in some athletic event during the year is perhaps the most significant statistic in the evaluation of a program. Although not practical in some schools, I believe it is highly desirable that an athletic director not be actively involved in coaching. Only in this situation can he give important attention to all sports. The athletic director must build a harmonious organization of all coaches. The successful program reflects a consistency between various sports. Such things as training rules will be enforced to a greater or lesser degree by some coaches than others, unless the athletic director demands consistency. This illustrates the athletic director's responsibility to develop policies which are in the best interests of all athletes and then sees they are equally administered.

4. I expect my athletic director to have the courage of his convictions. Assuming that educational philosophy I mentioned earlier is sound, during any year the athletic director will have to stand up and fight for the things he believes. Differences will come from many quarters. Perhaps it will come from the downtown group who are dissatisfied with a coach. Perhaps it will come from his own employers. Often today it may come from the student body itself. I believe the athletic director finds himself in a position today similar to that of the school principal. Your actions are criticized from most quarters. You tend to be personally evaluated on the most insignificant aspects of the entire program. I suspect things will get worse in this area before they get better. The public will expect you to continue to improve your athletic program at your school, but will be less willing to provide dollars for its support. Your superintendents and principals will probably expect you to find new ways to stretch that dollar. Your coaches will continue to demand more in equipment and supplies and your athletes will probably demand fewer restrictions and be tougher to handle. As your job becomes tougher, it will be more difficult to uphold your personal ideals and to maintain your position as the leader of the athletic program.

5. I expect my athletic director to be the salesman for the athletic program in our school. In this day of protest even an old institution like high school athletics is under attack. Our recent bouts with special interest groups and their attacks on the Minnesota State High School League

National Federation Basketball Test

Part II of the National Federation basketball examination will be given all over Kentucky on Monday, December 6, to officials who wish to work for the Approved and Certified ratings. The examination sites will be determined by the Commissioner. Officials registered with the K.H.S.A.A. for the first time this year and who have not been registered previously in any other state association, are not eligible to take the test. Those interested should advise the State Office immediately in order that necessary arrangements can be made with the school administrators who will supervise the taking of the exam. Officials living in Kentucky need not suggest the name of the examiner. The Approved rating does not carry forward from year to year, but must be earned each year.

Wrestling Regions

An increase in the number of schools sponsoring wrestling during the 1971-72 school year has made it necessary for the number of regions to be increased from four to eight. This being true, only the two finalist in each weight class in the regionals will be eligible to enter the State Wrestling Tournament.

The assignment of schools sponsoring wrestling for the current school year is as follows:

Fort Campbell Region—Caldwell County, Christian County, Fort Campbell, Henderson County, Hopkinsville, Madisonville—North Hopkins, Trigg County, Union County.

Hardin County Region—Bowling Green, Bullitt Central, East Hardin, Franklin-Simpson, North Hardin, West Hardin

West Jefferson Region—Doss, Fairdale, Flaget, Pleasure Ridge Park, Stuart, Valley, Western

Central Jefferson Region—Atherton, Durrett, Kentucky School for the Blind, Moore, St. Xavier, Seneca, Trinity

East Jefferson Region—Ballard, Eastern, Fern Creek, Jeffersontown, Louisville Country Day, Waggener, Westport

Frankfort Region—Boyle County, Danville, Frankfort, Jessamine County, Oldham County, Woodford County

Lexington Region—Belfry, Bryan Station, Harrison County, Henry Clay, Johns Creek, Lafayette, Millersburg Military Institute, Tates Creek.

Simon Kenton Region—Boone County, Campbell County, Conner, Holmes, Newport, Newport Catholic, Simon-Kenton

Wrestling Rules Clinics

Four clinics for wrestling coaches and officials have been set up by the State Wrestling Committee. The dates and sites of the clinics are as follows:

The Game Guy Award

The K.H.S.A.A. will continue to give the Game Guy Award. School representatives and registered officials may make nominations for the award. The eligible person should be a pupil at the junior or senior high school level who has overcome great physical handicap in order to take part in athletics. Letters of recommendation should be addressed to "Game Guy Committee, K.H.S.A.A., P. O. Box 1173, Lexington, Kentucky 40501." Deadline for the 1972 nominations is April 1.

Football Certification

Two additional names have been added to the list of Certified officials which appeared in the October issue of the ATHLETE. They are Ted Osborne and Gordon Reed.

Minutes of Meeting
K.H.S.A.A. Wrestling Committee
Lexington, Kentucky, October 23, 1971

The K.H.S.A.A. Wrestling Committee, meeting in the Association office on October 23, 1971, was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by Chairman Orville Williams. The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was waived since the minutes had appeared in the ATHLETE.

With no old business to discuss, the Committee went to work on a list of new business to be considered. The first item is a statement by the Committee to encourage the use of certified scales for the '71-'72 season, with an eye to its requirement in the future seasons. (2.) In consideration of a limit on the heavyweight class, hwt. will remain unlimited this year, and the Committee will submit a limit to the Association to take place in '72-'73. (3.) Discussion was also held on the size of the facilities for the State Tournament. The Committee is looking at this problem, and for a suitable larger location for '72-'73.

Approval by Committee: First round of wrestle-backs in the State will be held during the semi-final round. (5.) Motion was made to do away with riding time. Carried 4-1. (6.) Motion made and seconded to recommend to the Board of Control that all head coaches and officials must attend at least one clinic given by the Committee each year starting in '72-'73. Carried unanimously. (7.) A need to have a Vice-Chairman ready to take over in case of illness of the Chairman was approved. President Combs of the K.H.S.A.A. has appointed Will Evans, Ky. School for the Blind.

(8.) Seeding criteria have been modified for Regional Tournaments as follows: If two boys have met during the season, the victor will be seeded ahead of the loser. Also, a boy must have wrestled four matches in his certified weight classes, and three of these four must be in his regions, and against different opponents. (9.) A "Most Outstanding" trophy will be awarded at the State starting this year: to be given to one of twelve champions, and decided upon by a committee made up of the three officials and the eight regional chairman. Regional trophy will remain the same.

Wrestle-backs at Region level will be held this year to determine a second and third place winner. Upon completion of the finals, the winner of the wrestle-backs will wrestle the loser of the finals to determine second place in the region, and a birth in the State. Again this year, Mr. Sanford drew for the State seeding. Because of the 160,900 different ways this could be drawn, only one drawing for all classes was held.

A discussion was held on the subject of new Regions. Three plans were submitted by Mr. Abney, Mr. Weenolsen, and Mr. Sanford. After lengthy consideration and discussion, Mr. Sanford announced that the final lineup for the eight regions would be published in the November issue of the ATHLETE.

Use of timers and scorekeepers for the state will come from a list of names submitted by coaches of the regions to the Chairman of those people who have experience in these fields, and understand wrestling.

Clinics will be held again this year by Mr.

Williams and Mr. Weenolsen. November 6th at Seneca, Louisville, at 10:00 A.M.; November 13th, Fort Campbell at 1:00 P.M.; November 20th in Lexington at 9:00 A.M.; November 21st at Simon-Kenton at 3:00 P.M. The Committee recommends the use of registered officials for all Varsity dual meets.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 2:00 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
 Robert O. Weenolsen
 Secretary, Wrestling Committee

K.H.S.C.A.
Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Kentucky High School Coaches Association met at 10 a.m. in Room 101 of the Convention Center, Louisville, Kentucky. The following officers were present along with 150 coaches and visitors: Vince Hancock, Elizabethtown; Bowman Davenport, Clarkston; Garnis Martin, Bardstown; Joe Ohr, Irvine; Bill Case, Bourbon County; Estill Branham, Rockfield.

Coach Don Morris opened the meeting with prayer.

On motion of Young and seconded by Branham the reading of the minutes was dispensed with since they were published in the Athlete, the official publication of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association.

The financial report made by Joe Ohr, Treasurer, was approved.

Estill Branham, games director, introduced Coach Lee Corso, University of Louisville Football Coach, who made a most interesting and entertaining speech. Corso stated that a football coach had a most responsible job and that he was most proud of being a football coach, because people are looking for leadership. As coaches, he stated that we are the last stronghold for discipline. Corso stated "I believe in this, Irv Spencer said coaching is not a job, it is a privilege." "We have more to do than win games, it is our job to develop boys to become better men after they leave the playing field. This should be our objective."

Corso challenged the coaches to set an example for your boys. Show that all people can live together and yet keep their individuality. Teach boys to have self discipline, not regimentation.

The key to motivation is the players believing in their coach. A player must respect his coach, have respect for authority and in the majority of cases where bad sportsmanship is shown, the blame can be placed on the coach.

"Dishonesty is the key thing to the destruction of a team. It is not worth victory to cheat. Evaluate yourself in the manner in which you provide leadership for your players," Corso stated.

At the University of Louisville we never allow a negative attitude to be displayed to our players. We are always positive.

Probably one of the most profound remarks made by Corso in his speech was the statement, "The men who play for us have the right and the dignity to be different."

Garnis Martin, Coach at Bardstown, presented a gold, official size basketball to Jack Upchurch, Anderson County, as the Coach of the Year 1970-71. A similar award (football) was presented to Mike Murphv, football coach at Highlands, as the Coach of the Year. The presentation was made by Vince Hancock, Elizabethtown.

In the election of officers for the year 1972-73, Joe Ohr was elected by acclamation as Secretary-Treasurer and Irv Spencer (Valley) was elected Sgt.-At-Arms.

Motion was made that the vote count of the All-Star players be published in the Athlete. The motion carried.

A committee was appointed to talk with Commissioner Sanford regarding football playoffs. Mr. L. J. Charmoli and Estill Branham were appointed by President Bill Case.

"Butch" Gilbert, Western Kentucky University football coach, presented to the outgoing President of the K.H.S.C.A., a plaque for his leadership and service, Mr. Bill Case, Bourbon County, being the recipient.

Meeting adjourned at 12:10 p.m.

Executive Meeting

The committee discussed and passed a rule that in the future the All-Star basketball coaches will be chosen from those who go the farthest in the State Tourney; Regions 1-8 making up the West and Regions 9-16 making up the East. In case of a tie, a flip of a coin will decide the coach.

Coaches of the All-Stars were to be raised $100.00 making the lead coaches receive $300.00 and assistant coaches receive $200.00.

Meeting adjourned at 12:30 p.m.

Executive Meeting

It was moved by Hancock and seconded by Martin that Branham be given an extension of one year in his duties as games manager. This extension runs through the year of 1972-73.

A tentative date of August 4th and 5th was set as the date of the clinic and all-star games in 1972. Plans were discussed and approved to have a night session of the clinic.

In discussing the expenditure of funds from the All-Star Account, it was recommended that grants be made to Albert Viperman, football coach at Belfry High School and Jack Wells, Prestonsburg. The committee recommended that each person be given a grant of $500.00.

The executive committee voted to send the President and the Secretary to the National Football Rules Meeting, with reimbursement for travel, lodging and meals to be made on receipts presented. The expense is to come from the Kentucky High School Coaches Association Account. The above motion was made by Garnis Martin of Bardstown and seconded by Bowman Davenport of Clarkson. Motion passed.

girls programs are growing and will receive more emphasis in the future. My athletic director had better be prepared to cope with the situation.

7. I expect my athletic director to work toward a position where he can coordinate the athletic program of the entire district. While I believe relatively few athletic directors have authority and responsibility in K-12 situations, he must either formally or informally be in a position to influence what is done in athletics throughout the school system. As we all know, our success at the senior high level is highly correlated with the junior high and elementary programs of the district. He must develop good rapport with elementary and junior high administrators who are many times not anxious to take direction from the senior high school. He must get them interested in the total program. They must be encouraged to attend contests at the senior high school. They must be given their fair share of credit for senior high successes. Above all, they must be reminded constantly of their obligation to provide activities which will enhance the cause of interscholastic activities as their students come into the senior high school.

are good evidence of this. It would seem that successful as we have been, our athletic programs carry the seeds for their own self-destruction. Many well meaning people today, in their over zealous desire to promote specific sports may very well be spelling doom for high school programs. It is quite possible that youth hockey programs today are so highly organized for elementary and junior high age boys that there will be nothing left in the way of a satisfactory athletic experience in a high school program. My athletic director has a responsibility to work toward sound community programs which will keep athletics in the proper perspective. This necessitates his active involvement in a variety of community organizations and activities. The athletic director's public relations obligations then are among his top priority items. The community, and especially the parents, must understand what the school athletic program is attempting to achieve. The athletic director is the person to bring that concept to them. In those communities where there are separate school and community recreation programs, the athletic director must be the school liaison man. I believe school sponsored programs are best. If the school has a sound program, it is difficult for a community program to begin. The athletic director then must be perceptive as to the needs of the community and its boys, and initiate within the school sound programs.

6. A new dimension of athletics has recently confronted us all. I refer to the current renewed interest in girls athletics. We probably have neglected far too long our responsibility to provide a competitive atmosphere for girls in our athletic programs. I don't believe this new program can be allowed to develop independently of the boys program. I believe it is a mistake for schools to separate the two programs. I expect my athletic director to administer the girls' program as well as the boys'. This may very well prove to be his most difficult task. I expect him to give the girls a fair break. This will mean our facilities will have to be scheduled tighter than ever before. It will mean some adjustment in the boys program. It will certainly follow that there is great potential for conflict between the coaches of boys and girls sports. It will take nothing short of a magical ability to resolve some of the problems. Whether the athletic director accepts it or not,

8. I expect my athletic director to manage all home contests. This is his 100% responsibility. This implies attendance at all home games. This responsibility includes crowd control, ticket sales, officials and facility arrangements. I am fully aware of the demands this places on his time, especially during the winter season, however, I see no other way. The responsibility is his. It is most difficult to delegate. For this he must be adequately compensated. A principal has a real obligation to an athletic director in this respect. He must see that time is available during the school day for preparations for home contests. He must see that the budget is adequate to provide the necessary assistance the athletic director will need. In my own school, as the athletic budget becomes a more critical factor than ever before as a part of the entire school budget, I will find it necessary to have him assume a greater role than in the past regarding budget development and administration.

9. I expect my athletic director to be a "counselor" both in regard to coaches and to athletes. The athletic director should visit individually with each head coach, at least once before the season, once during the season and once following the season. I am talking about reasonably formal sessions. Coaches should be allowed to voice concerns and make their needs known. The athletic director needs to make constructive, positive suggestions about the individual programs. I believe a meeting held after the season can be the most constructive. At this time the coach should be praised when praise is deserved and also made aware of any deficiencies. The athletic director certainly has this obligation to all coaches. He must be available to athletes as well. Boys having difficulty in school as well as in athletics can usually profit from a session with the athletic director. He can avoid the emotion which many times prevails when coaches and athletes must face problems together. He is more apt to see the total picture as far as the athlete's welfare is concerned. He is also in the best position to make parental contacts when this becomes necessary. I believe many athletic directors are the most successful counselors in a school system.

10. I expect my athletic director to assist me in the staffing of new coaches. It is only consistent that if the athletic director is to take primary responsibility for the athletic program, he will keep his "ear to the ground" regarding Each year I expect my athletic director to give me a list of recommended coaching assignments for the coming year. If new coaches are to be hired, I involve him in the interviewing process. I expect he will keep his "ear to the ground" regarding available candidates should vacancies develop on our staff. Once the coaches are given their assignment, I expect him to supervise them, just as I supervise a teacher in a classroom. If a coach does not do the job, I expect my athletic director to tell me and together we can take appropriate action.

In summary, I have high expectations for my athletic director, I expect him to be a part of a team which assists me in the operation of our high school. In many respects his job is similar to that of the assistant principal. I believe the very nature of his job demands that he be given responsibility and authority to carry out that responsibility.

I expect him to be hard working, understanding in his dealings with athletes and coaches, hard nosed when it is time to be hard nosed, sympathetic to all aspects of the school program, and certainly a winner in his approach to his duties.
