Newly Elected Board Members

Ray Story

Patrick Crawford

Louisville Ballard High School Principal Pat Crawford, and North Hardin High School Principal Ray Story were recently elected to serve four-year terms as members of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association Board of Control

The highly personable Crawford, a newcomer to the Board, succeeds Oldham County Principal, and past K.H.S.A.A. president, J.D. Minnehan, in representing Regions 7 and 8.

Crawford, though, is no newcomer to sports. "I've always been active in high school athletics in Kentucky," states Crawford, "and I've had an interest in becoming a member of the Board of Control."

His zeal for high school athletics dates back to his high school days in Glouster, Ohio, where he participated on both football and baseball teams at Glouster High School. Upon graduation, he accepted a football scholarship to enroll at Eastern Kentucky University, where he performed under the tutelage of Tom Samuels. He received his B.S. Degree from Eastern in Health and Physical Education.

Crawford's next educational step was enrollment at the University of Louisville, where he acquired a double Master's Degree in Counseling and Administration. Crawford completed his education by earning his Rank I Degree at Eastern and U. of L.

After returning from a three year stint in the Army in 1958. Crawford accepted a teaching and coaching position at Louisville Waggener High School. His coaching responsibilities included head swimming coach and assistant football coach.

From Waggener, Crawford moved to Westport High School in 1961, to accept a counseling position. He served as a Westport High School assistant principal from 1962-1966, at which time he accepted the Robert Frost Middle School principalship.

Crawford, who began his current tenure in 1968, and his wife, the former Suzanne Doyle, have one daughter, Jennifer, age 17, a Ballard High School senior who will attend the University of Louisville in the fall.

Ray Story is set for his second term as a Board of Control member. He follows Charles Miller, principal of Louisville Pleasure Ridge Park High School, to the position of representation for Regions 5 and 6.

Story has strong feelings concerning the K.H.S.A.A. "The K.H.S.A.A. has to continue the excellent job of promoting amateur athletics in the State," offered Story.

Of his previous years as a member of the Board, he adds, "I have found it to be a first class organization and hope to help it continue in that manner."

Never fear, Story brings just that, calss, to the Association.

A graduate of Memorial High School, in Lincoln County, Story was a member of the school's basketball and baseball teams. From Memorial High School, he chose Campbellsville College, where he obtained his B.S. Degree in English. Story continued his education at Western Kentucky University, receiving his Master's and Rank I Degrees.

His career began as a sixth grade teacher in Vine Grove. In 1963, he was hired at North Hardin High School as an English teacher, and became that school's assistant principal in 1965. Since 1967, he has served in the capacity of principal.

Story, whose first term on the Board spanned the years 1974-1978, has "always enjoyed being around sports, and the Board of Control gave me this involvement at the highest level."

Story, and his wife, the former Sue Cecil, of Stephensburg, Kentucky, have two sons. Mark, a 17 year old senior at North Hardin is bound for Centre College, and Tim is a 13 year old eighth grader.
