FIRST PLACE - AMANDA ANN McMAKIN, BATH COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

I feel that I have the qualities that Walt Disney based his "4 C's" on, not only because of my interscholastic activities, but also because of my active roles in a variety of community projects.

When I look back on my life I feel that attending a small school has given me some advantages that large school systems do not offer, in that all of my teachers personally know me and my capabilities, therefore challenging me to develop myself to my full potential and sparking my curiosity to expand my knowledge. This has encouraged me to go for the best, set my goals high, and through my scholastic achievements and involvement in a variety of clubs and organizations have given me the self confidence needed to be successful in my future endeavors.

I think that being actively involved in extracurricular activities and clubs is a very important part of developing one's character and teaching them to live up to the expectations of their peers. These activities have given me a perspective of what is expected of me in our society, and has also taught me the real meaning of responsibility. I am the type of person who faces my challenges and tries my best to make things successful.

I am grateful that I have had the opportunity to learn responsibility, and develop myself through my interscholastic involvements. These have given me greater appreciation of mankind and the courage to help me to meet and overcome the challenges of tomorrow.

SECOND PLACE - MARK STILES, SILVER GROVE HIGH SCHOOL

Interscholastic activities have become a major part of my high school years. Each activity has its' own influence on my life. My personality has improved greatly with the involvement of these activities. When a discussion arises in one of my interscholastic groups, I am the one who listens to my curiosity and asks, "What if" or suggests possible new and better ideas which usually proves to be correct. If there is one strong characteristic of myself, it is confidence. I feel that in order for someone to succeed, they should have much confidence. I do not just suggest ideas, I back them up with actions. If I have a job to do, I will tell you when it will be done and that it will be my best, and it always is. It is very difficult to succeed in life. Many kids my age will probably not amount to very much because they lack courage. It is so important to be courageous. It is worthless to join a club or team if you do not voice your opinion, even if you feel it is silly. By gaining much courage through interscholastic activities, it has prepared me for adulthood. What makes a student a great student? Constancy! Who wants a teammate who is unpredictable? We all need people we can count on. I earnestly strive for constancy. By practicing constancy in interscholastic activities, I have become a teammate and a friend that all can count on. Scholastic activities build the mind. Interscholastic activities provide the tools needed to use your mind to expand and succeed. Intelligence without work is dead. Curiosity, confidence, courage, and constancy are the characteristics of the total student.

THIRD PLACE - AMY MICHELLE LUSCHER, FRANKFORT HIGH SCHOOL

In this generation, it takes great effort for a student to excell scholastically. The odds seem to be stacking higher and higher against students and it requires a greater motivation to reach your goals. I have always been encouraged by my teachers to ask questions, to have faith in my abilities, to stand up for my beliefs and to set my goals and never lose sight of them.

I feel that in being involved in a variety of different interscholastic activities, I demonstrate a great curiosity. This curiosity can only be satisfied by jumping at every chance to try something new. I have not always been confident in my abilities. This attribute, having been instilled in me by my teachers and our school administration, has become my greatest asset. I have held many elected offices in my three years of high school and have also been selected for several leadership conferences and roles. One must have a good deal of courage to achieve anything in life. I've found myself drawing from an inner strength whether it be on the field, in the stands, in the classroom, or behind a podium facing the Junior Class. I have always been an honor roll student, while participating in extracurricular activities. I have set a goal for myself. The process in reaching it is slow and there are many setbacks but I will not be deterred.

alcohol will ultimately use marijuana, cocaine, etc., but studies do show that the majority of marijuana, cocaine and heroin users started out with tobacco and alcohol.

In the Office for Substance Abuse Prevention's publication, What You Can Do About Drug Use in America, physical and psychological effects of alcohol and marijuana is discussed: Alcohol

Alcohol, a natural substance formed by the fermentation that occurs when sugar reacts with yeast, is the major active ingredient in wine, beer and distilled spirits. Although there are many kinds of alcohol, the kind found in alcoholic beverages is ethyl alcohol.

Whether one drinks a 12-ounce can of beer, a shot of distilled spirits or a 5-ounce glass of wine, the amount of pure alcohol per drink is about the same - one-half ounce. Ethyl alcohol can produce feelings of well-being, sedation, intoxication or unconsciousness, depending on the amount and the manner in which it is consumed.

Alcohol is a "psychoactive" or mind-altering drug, as are heroin and tranquilizers. It can alter moods, cause changes in the body, and become habit forming. Alcohol is called a "downer" because it depresses the central nervous system. That's why drinking too much causes slowed reactions, slurred speech and sometimes even unconsciousness (passing out).

Alcohol works first on the part of the brain that controls inhibitions. As people lose their inhibitions, they may talk more, get rowdy and do foolish things. After several drinks they may feel "high" but their nervous systems actually are slowing down.

A person does not have to be an alcoholic to have problems with alcohol. Every year, for example, many young people lose their lives in alcohol-related automobile accidents, drownings and suicides. Serious health problems can and do occur before drinkers reach the stage of addiction or chronic use.

In some studies more than 25 percent of hospital admissions were alcohol-related. Some of the serious diseases associated with chronic alcohol use include alcoholism and cancers of the liver, stomach, colon, larynx, esophagus and breast.

ALCOHOL USE CONTINUES TO RISE

Alcohol and other drugs are a major concern in our schools today. Some people say use is declining, but that is debatable. The age of first use is becoming younger. The time of denial is past; we must face the fact that it is our problem.

Organizations, schools, communities, parents and others must forget their sacred turf about fingering or favoring individuals or programs and work together to solve the problem. One of the TARGET trainers commented that "if you are not part of the solution you are part of the problem."

We cannot condone or ignore the use of tobacco and alcohol by our youth and expect them to refrain from using marijuana, cocaine, etc. Tobacco and alcohol are not only the drugs of choice by our young people, they are a gateway substance. This is not to say that all who use tobacco or

REMINDER TO SCHOOLS CONCERNING LIMITATION OF SEASONS

All schools are reminded of the Limitation of Seasons Rules, K.H.S.A.A. By-Law 27, as it applies to competition after the conclusion of the regular season. ALL SPORTS are affected by this rule, which states that following the teams' last regular season match, there shall be no further practice or play as a team for the remainder of the school year, with the exception of the K.H.S.A.A. tournament. Please be sure your coaches are aware of this important rule, and that they are not involved in coaching the team in an outside league, or other competition. For the high school coach, be they the Head Coach or an assistant coach, to coach members of the high school team in a league outside of the school's legal regular season competition, regardless of the type of league, would be a violation of the rules governing the Limitation of Seasons.

1989-90 NATIONAL FEDERATION VOLLEYBALL RULE INTERPRETATIONS

PUBLICATION CORRECTIONS

Rule Book

Page 23, rule 7-1-2, second sentence, change "Once submitted" to "Thereafter."

Page 33, Rule 10-2-PEN 2a, delete "without further penalty."

Page 34, Rule 10-2-PEN 2, delete "No further penalty is assessed."

Page 36, Rule 11-4-1, change to read, "In the case of an injury/illness, the game shall resume with a replay."

NOTE: In the following situations, Team S is the Serving Team and Team R is the Receiving Team.

SITUATION #1: The court at a match site, (a) is marked in meters, (b) has a 2" center line, (c) has no center line through a mascot in the center of the gym.
RULING: In (a) and (b), legal. In (c), home management shall take a 2" or 4" line where needed over the mascot.

COMMENT: A court must have a center line. The line may be 2" or 4" wide. (2-1-1, 2-1-4)

SITUATION #2: A net standard is padded with a makeshift arrangement of propped-up mats tied to the pole. Although the mats are resilient and shock-absorbing, the arrangement makes it difficult for the umpire to see the play.
RULING: Umpire makes the best of the situation, but officials should inform home management that the proper padding for the net standards be procured as soon as possible. (3-1-3a)

SITUATION #3: A coach repeatedly stands up in front of her bench in order to see the scoreboard, requests the number of a player who committed a net foul for statistical purposes.
RULING: No penalty.

COMMENT: Officials should use discretion when enforcing the rules. Officials have the authority to make decisions about infractions throughout the match. (3-3-2, 5-1-2, 12-2-4)

SITUATION #4: The bleachers are being used as the team benches. The referee asks host management to place tape on the bleachers in line with the out-of-bounds extension of the 10 foot line.
RULING: Correct procedure. This will keep team personnel in proper location. (3-5-1)

SITUATION #5: A player attempts to enter the game wearing a plastic covered air cast covered with (a) an ace bandage on her forearm; (b) a sock on her ankle.
RULING: In (a) illegal equipment, unnecessary delay, (b) legal. (4-1-1, 2)

SITUATION #6: During warm ups, a player is wearing elastic shorts which extend below the uniform shorts. The official notifies the player's coach that there would be a penalty for improper uniform of point or side-out assessed once during the match or the elastic shorts must be removed before the player participates in the match.
RULING: Correct procedure (4-2-1, 2, 4-3-1, 2)

SITUATION #7: Two players on Team A are (a) wearing white t-shirts which are visible beneath maroon uniform shirts; (b) bicycle tights which extend below uniform shorts
RULING: In both (a) and (b), improper uniform.

COMMENT: Undershirts must be of like-color to uniform shirts and players may not wear tights which extend below the shorts without written medical authorization from a physician. Preventive officiating before match may remedy the situation. (4-3-2, 3)

SITUATION #8: The referee notices one of the starting players on Team S (serves first in the game) is wearing a uniform with temporary numbers.
RULING: Improper uniform, side-out to begin the game.

COMMENT: The penalty for improper uniforms is assessed once during a match for the entire team. (4-3-4a, 4-3-Pen.)

SITUATION #9: Team A appears at the match site in matching uniforms with permanent, legal numbers. On most players, the 4" numbers on the upper front of the shirt extend below the level of the armpits. On some small players, the 4" numbers extend below the chest.
RULING: Legal.

COMMENT: "Upper front" is designated to exclude the placing of numbers on the shirt tail or low on the shirt so that the number is obscured when a player bends over. Uniforms that meet the intent of the rule should not cause penalties based on the size or shape of a high school player. (4-3-4b)

SITUATION #10: Team A is videotaping the match. Team A's coach attempts to show the players from Team A a video replay of a close call by the officials during (a) the game; (b) the intermission between games

RULING: Unsportsmanlike conduct, point or side-out awarded the opponent immediately in (a) and to being the next game in (b). (5-1-2)

SITUATION #11: The umpire whistles and signals a center line foul. The referee joins the umpire in signaling the center line foul and they both signal point/side-out.
RULING: Correct procedure

COMMENT: The referee does not blow the whistle if the umpire initiates the call. (5-3-3c1)

SITUATION #12: Coach from Team A submits a roster and lineup 15 minutes before match time. The coach observes poor behavior by one her starters. Five minutes before match time, the coach changes the lineup

RULING: Legal. A lineup becomes official 2 minutes prior to the first game of the match, not at the time it is submitted.

COMMENT: The scorer should not enter the numbers of the starting lineup until 2 minutes prior to the first game. (5-5-1b, 7-1-2)

SITUATION #13: Team R has 7 players on its roster, one of whom is wearing a different color shirt. One of the starting players is injured and is removed from the game. Team S is serving with the score 13-12. Team R wants to play short, rather than forfeit a point for improper uniform.

RULING: Illegal. No team may play with less than 6 when it can do otherwise. The seventh player is a legal, uninjured player and must be entered or a point is awarded Team S. (6-1-2)

SITUATION #14: At the moment of serve, CB of the receiving team is crouched close to her teammate, CF. CB's feet are behind CF's toes, but CB's hand is on the floor in front of CB's toes.
RULING: Legal.

COMMENT: Overlapping is determined only by the players' foot/feet touching the floor. (6-3-2b2)

SITUATION #15: In game 2 of a match, the wrong team is awarded service, scores 3 points, then there is a side-out. The opposing team serves and earns one point before the error is discovered.
RULING: Play continues.

COMMENT: If the error had been discovered while the wrong team was serving or before the opponent had served following the side-out, the 3 points would be cancelled and the game resumed with the proper team serving. (6-3-Pen. 2c, 8-2-4c)

SITUATION #16: In checking the starting lineup of players on the court, the umpire discovers #8 on the court and #4 on the lineup sheet. The coach asks to take a penalty and leave #8 on the court.
RULING: Request denied, player #4 must come into the lineup. Unnecessary delay may be assessed if there is delay of game. (7-1-2, 10-1-4)

SITUATION #17: CB on Team B is overlapping at the moment that RB on Team A serves. The server is touching the end line at the moment she serves.
RULING: Illegal serve, side-out (8-2-7a)

SITUATION #18: CB on Team R is overlapping at the moment that RB on Team S serves. The served ball hits: (a) the antenna; (b) the server's teammate; (c) the ceiling
RULING: Point, (a), (b) and (c) illegal alignment, point. (8-2-7b)

SITUATION #19: A player from Team S successfully plays a ball from out-of-bounds and immediately breaks the plane of an antenna determined by legal ground rules to be a nonplayable area.
RULING: Out-of-bounds, side-out.

COMMENT: Neither a player nor the ball is permitted to break the plane of a nonplayable area. (9-3-3k, 2-4-1b)

SITUATION #20: Team S hit the ball three times. However, no part of the ball crosses the net, and Team R blocks the ball. Team S contacts the ball following the legal block.
RULING: Legal, play continues

COMMENT: A ball is considered to have crossed the net, even though no part of the ball crossed the net when it was legally blocked. (9-4-2, 9-4-4c)

SITUATION #21: The LF from Team S and the RF from Team R block a ball that is above the net. After simultaneous contact by both opponents, the ball goes out-of-bounds on Team R's side.
RULING: Out-of-bounds, side-out.

COMMENT: The LF of the serving team is considered to have touched the ball last. (9-4-6c)

SITUATION #22: A player on Team S, making no attempt to block but with hands raised overhead and standing close to the net, is hit by Team R's dinked ball well below the top of the net. The ball rebounds from the player's head and she then sets the ball to her teammate.
RULING: Double hit, side-out.

COMMENT: The play did not meet all 3 criteria for a block. (9-4-8a, 9-5-1c)

SITUATION #23: In a single play, a spike hits CF (a legal blocker) rebounding from one hand to the other, then striking the CF on the head before being legally played by a teammate.
RULING: Legal, play continues.

COMMENT: Since the ball is contacted near the top of the net, the play is considered a block. (9-4-8a)

SITUATION #24: A player from Team R receiving a dink/tip has multiple contacts on one attempt to play the ball.
RULING: Double hit, point. (9-4-8b, 9-5-1b(1))

SITUATION #25: Team S serves and wins the point, making the score 14-12. It is discovered that Team R has an illegal substitute on the court. The official assesses Team R with an unnecessary delay penalty. Team R has already used its two time-outs.
RULING: Point awarded to Team S. It wins the game 15-12.

COMMENT: When a team has taken its allotted time-out, point/side-out is awarded the opponents. (9-9-Pen, 10-3-Pen, 11-2-Pen. 2)
