K.E.A. Football and Basketball Clinics

Something new has been added to K.E.A. this year with the announcement of football and basketball clinics to be sponsored by the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board on Saturday morning, April 13th. Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant will conduct the football clinic assisted by outstanding high school coaches who are being contacted. Coach Adolph Rupp, also of the University of Kentucky, has been contacted to serve as clinic director for the basketball clinic.

Actual demonstrations of offensive and defensive football as well as the demonstration of the fine points of basketball coaching are planned. Local high school players of the Jefferson County communities will be dressed and used in the demonstrations. A local high school gymnasium near downtown Louisville will be used for the clinic work. The exact location will be publicized the first week in April.

All Kentucky coaches desiring to have certain problems of coaching presented and taken up in the clinics are invited to write the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board, 402 Fiscal Court Building, Louisville, Ky., stating the particular phase of football or basketball offense or defense they would like to see presented and the clinic directors will strive to make those coaching points clear.

The Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board cordially invites all Kentucky coaches and officials to come to the K.E.A. Clinic.

U-K Winner of Invitational Tourney

After disposing of Arizona 77-53 and West Virginia 59-5 in the early rounds Coach Adolph Rupp's blue-shirted Kentucky Wildcats went on to cop the National Invitational tournament by defeating Rhode Island in a thriller 46-45.

The Wildcats thus climaxed their most successful season during which they won 28 games, losing only to Temple and Notre Dame.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE

favored Frank Fraley of Breckinridge and W. B. Fisher of College High.

Joe "Red" Hagan, coach at Anchorage, was among four coming closest to the fans' consensus. He named nine of the ten fans' consensus on his ballot. Others in the nine class were Asa W. Jones, Buffalo; Howard Morgan, Benton, and Frank Heinze, Prestonsburg.

Referees' Corner

By Charlie Vettiner

Here's your rambling reporter back again all rested from a siege at the State Tournament and saying "Great work" to three swell state tournament officials, Jack Thompson, Eddie McNabb, and "Wild Bill" Utley. Numerous have been the compliments heard Referees' Corner concerning the work of these boys in the state meet. Coaches all over Kentucky are agreed that this year's state meet was well officiated.

To Bobby Laughlin, personable coach of the State Champs, we doff our hats. His was a powerhouse of superbly coached boys who were "swell" to officiate for. Courtesy to the officials was Breck's middle name. Time after time, in the heat of battle when the going was tough, Allen, Battson, or some other Breck boy would come to the officials and offer them the use of Breck towels to mop their perspiring brows. Yep, Bobbie, beside having a great team you had gentlemen playing for you. Referees' Corner salutes Breck and Morehead.

John Morgan Young, popular coach of Lawrenceburg, is now listed on Kentucky's proud roster of "Nature's Noblemen". When one sport's writer suggested that his team had received a tough deal in his game with Dawson Springs which he lost, affable John lost no time in announcing that the officiating was fine and that his team had simply been defeated by a team which was better than his that night. Men like John Morgan Young make Kentucky a grand state.

And now for a great human interest story about a great fellow, whose team did not reach the State Tourney. We are talking about Ezra Sparrow, principal and coach of Western High School at Sinai. Mr. Ezra, as he is lovingly called by all who know him, has devoted his life to training boys to be men. Getting along in years now Mr. Ezra looks back over a long teaching experience which started in 1920 in Anderson County after he had done his college work at U. of K. Besides his school work Mr. Ezra is a preacher, a farmer, and a lover of young people. His philosophy of life in relation to teaching young people is: (1) Help them to be clean in body, mind and soul, (2) equip them for the duties they owe to their community, their God and themselves. Is it any wonder everybody loves this grand old coach of Anderson County?

Brother Gerald Edward C F X, St. Joe's of Bardstown, get's an orchid from Referees' Corner for his courtesy extended to the officials working the district at Bardstown. Along with Bardstown's Bill Chilton these men showed the officials that refereeing can be a pleasure when crowds are properly handled and youth correctly trained.

Meet Grant Jones, Coach of Buffalo, minister, and leader. Grant's team could easily have been one of the outfits at the State meet having a wonderful season record of 22 games won and four lost. Grant and his boys wanted to be in the State Meet badly but according to this splendid young man Buffalo won the greatest championship of all because his boys were good losers and Kentucky sportsmen. We salute Grant Jones and his great Buffalo team.

Coaches and officials, please note: The Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board, for whom your reporter now serves in a supervisory capacity with Ray Baer, who developed state and national champion football teams, has something for you when you come to Louisville for K.E.A. ball clinics to be conducted by Paul "Bear" Bryant, U. of K. assisted by high school coaches and Adolph Rupp, who has been contacted to handle the basketball clinic. You'll enjoy the actual demonstrations of the science of both sports. Your questions regarding any phase of the coaching and officiating angles will be explained and clarified in the clinics. Ray, the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board and I look forward to one more swell session with Kentucky coaches and officials during K.E.A. Maybe we can get Bobby Laughlin in on this deal to give us some "dope" on power-house basketball.

So long—I'll see you at the clinics during K.E.A.

STILL PITCHING!

Conditions at the factories are not getting better and we doubt very much if they will be back to anything like normal before the middle of next year.

Manufacturers of raw materials are delivering slowly which means that the factories who make the finished products just have to sit and wait on those raw materials and cannot deliver to us with any degree of regularity.

We never know from week to week what the factories will ship—we have standing orders for anything in athletic goods and in any quantity. This means that our catalogues now are not accurate—When we receive your order and if we do not have the catalogue number you specify we may always have on hand some uncatalogued items which we can substitute. This is the only way we can come any way near to filling orders today. Keep your orders coming and we promise you to do our best to get you equipment.
