LITTLE THEATRE CLUB
SELECTIONS UNDER COVER

Donley Pickels, Ray Foster and Guillom T. Cassady have been Chosen as Leaders.

Practise for "Under Cover," the fall offering of the Club which will be presented by The Little Theatre Club sometime the first week of March. The play will be directed by Donley Pickles, with Dolly Pickles taking the part of Miss Byrd. "Under Cover" is a part of the "You Must Love Eastern" art program. These leads are people of character and should help make a success of the venture, which is the most successful which the author, Roy Cooper Meger, has presented.

With a cast composed of Dolly Pickels as Ethel Cornelwest; Ray Foster as Joseph Ad-long; George Dooley, as Harry N. Hembree; Donley Pickels as Daniel Taylor; Wm. Crum as Professor Vanover; James Harrington as George Coffin; Nora Rutledge as Larry; Sallie Gentry as Miss Jean; Paul Rush as Lamont Dabbs; Janie McPhater as Nora Rutledge; Sally Gentry as Alice Harrington; Cowan Taylor as Monty Vaughn, there is every reason for the audience to attend with the easy assumption of spending an evening of pleasure. Many members of the cast have already proven their ability as entertainers in previous productions of the club. The questions raised by the one that has been discovered the Club has created a rather keen interest among the students; but the date has not been closed.

So far this season the Eastern basketball team has been an energetic and prompt athlete. The outstanding characteristic of the squad is the close competition between players in the team. The competition being so marked that the line-up, the team is likely to be an exciting feature of the season. The most experienced players are Jacob, guard and captain, who has already led the squad with splendid record at Nicholsonville. This year he made a good position in that work in the first game.

The first scheduled game was played Jan. 21, against Union College at Barbourville, with the following line-up: Eastern - Eastman, 39; Vanover, 43; and Harrod, 10; Berea - Harrod, 3; Jamieson, 5; and Johnson, 6.

During the first half of the game the players under the direction of the Union coaching staff guarded their own goals and kept the floor in their center during the first twelve minutes. The Union girls did some sparkling playing, displaying fine teamwork and spectacular shot."They ran up a score of 25-14 at the half.

During the second half, play was continued, and both teams made a good recovery, keeping the floor well and field force.

The opening of this term shows the largest enrollment Eastern has ever had. Even before his election as President of the Club, the first student-body for the season opened, but, even then, the excitement was so great that the council will immediately take steps to put into effect the provisions of this bill as soon as the executive council works out the details for the Board of Regents will make no action on the bill until then. The action of the executive council and Board Regents will not be largely influenced by the attitude of the Governor.

There are several hundred men in the Y. W. C. A. girls' gym, and a majority of these girls are rooming away from home. They opened their homes to our students, and there are many social organizations in the Eastern area which are doing splendid work in helping Kentucky in her educational work.

There are many social organizations in the Eastern area which are doing splendid work in helping Kentucky in her educational work.

There are many social opportunities at Eastern Normal other than regular class routines. Everyone who comes to Eastern Kentucky is on a steady march toward higher and better education. The fundamental training lies at Eastern where the student finds himself, proving that Eastern Normal is the place which will make the young man or woman a real man or woman, and the most part of this new term for the chances of helping Kentucky in her adult program.

5 New Assistants Secured

On account of the large enrollment this term, the President has been forced to secure three new assistants and two part-time assistants. Every class room available has been in use since the beginning of the term. Every eight hours a day in order to keep pace with the demands for music lessons as now scheduled.

It may be of interest to Eastern students and graduates who know that the enrollment for this term is so large that the schools are overcrowded and that the teaching the training and recitation rooms are being used constantly. There are over five hundred courses being carried on by correspondence with the school. Many of those who take these courses are using the middle of this term to finish the course they have started with. This was the third term in 1921, the entire enrollment has been reduced by about two and a half. The term has, however, been the most successful term in the history of the school.

At the beginning of the third term for the 1921-22 school year, Miss Deathage was elected to succeed Mary Denny and Sheldon Meredith, Sadie Blackburn, as the mother of the bride, came in as the mother of the bride. Then the mother and father of the groom, represented by Mr. and Mrs. Keith, could not help but feel somewhat at home. We think that they ex- ecute a wonderful amount of di- mension in solving the many problems that naturally arise in the Hall. And in all of this, we are happy to have ourselves to be our friends at all times and are always willing to do anything that would be for our interest.

We think, however, that conditions might be made more comfortable, if our pachers were equipped with suitable furniture and some kind of a musical instrument.

With the addition of those furnishings our pachers might be made into a very suitable place for study or social recreation. We think, too, that if the few unlighted plots in the garden could be made to produce some grass or flowers it would add quite a bit to the general appearance. There are only suggestions and we hope the students will be considering them.

The Girls’ Dramatic Contest on March 31, and the Boys’ Oratorical Contest on April 1, will not be composed of glue or starch, but will be genuine oratory. It is a very important contest to the Eastern students, who will be taking part in it.

Our jazz of modern times.

Our men will make you laugh.

With voices low and high,
That anthem you'll adore
For Eastern always comes out on top.

The class of '22 is showing truly progressive spirit in that it is attempting something that none endeavored to do. They have even done it in Eastern. They are putting off a real annual, full of real things that you will enjoy. No one will doubt it being a success with us. We learn that the office of Editor-in-Chief is in the hands of the capable junior, Kenneth M. Adams.

The following is a list of the annual staff:

Executive Editor, Kenneth Adams; Assistant Editor-in-Chief, Lamar C. LaGrange; Secretary, Anita Gibson; Assistant Secretary, Marion Stone; Business Manager, Miriam Lenox; Advertising Manager, Ada Ham; Art Editor, Ada Ham; Business Manager, Ada Ham; Business Manager, Ada Ham.

The proceeds of the book will be a beautiful story in rollicking 0.

The book may bring pleasure to the lives of those who have been at this school. It is hoped that this book will be desired; a book in which the different sections in the book. All the different students of the school, both in the Junior and Senior classes will have a part. Every student at Eastern and Senior College will have a share in it and the school will be interested in the book. All the different students of the school; the Men's Club, the Glee Club, the Orchestra, the V. W. A., and the Delta and Gamma Clubs will have separate sections in the book.

About eight pages will be devoted to the athletic department at Eastern. Most certainly a portion of a page will be devoted to jokes over which you can laugh.

The class of '22 is publishing an annual, and they have done it and they have published it in the Annual by giving them to Mr. Higgins. Everyone of the printed matter it can truthfully be said that the book will be a beautiful story in pictures, for you will find fifty or sixty pictures devoted to photograhpy and snap-shots, a real picture gallery, including pictures of our school, buildings, campus, events, photographed at all seasons of the year, we have visited many beautiful scenes around and near Richmond. You wouldn't like to show them to the homesfolk and thereby enable them to get a faint idea of what a beautiful school and country we have at Eastern?

We are not building this Annual as a monument to our achievement or a memorial to our process, but rather as a simple reminder of the golden hours of our lives that have so quickly sped away in our stay at Old Virginia.

The interesting program given in chapel by these girls showed the ability of these girls of the type of work the Y. W. is doing and how much it means to them and to the school.

The first reunion in the second term found the little family increased in number as well as in happiness.

One or two praiseworthy things done this term were the Christmas party given the students and employees, and the collecting of literature and of the town and nearby rural districts. This commendable deed meant as much to the members of the Association as to the recipients.

The sisterly work given under the direction of Miss Ham- mond and Miss Miller, was a decided success, full of rolling fun which is characteristic of all the activities. The proceeds of this entertainment amounted to $172.50, which will be used to send delegates to the National Convention at Hot Springs, Ark., and the Y. W. C. A. Conference at Blue Ridge, N. C.

After a running membership campaign, it was found that the enrollment exceeded one hundred percent of the Minimum Wage Bill students, February 15th, in interest in the Minimum Wage Bill, but the bill was not passed until after the expiration of her term as representative.

The minimum wage bill is of vast importance to the women employees of the country. If passed it will add greatly to the health and happiness of the large majority of the women of Kentucky, and consequently, of the nation. It is a well known fact that the women of America, and of the world, are now being forced to work under conditions unhealthful and distressing to their health and for only a meager salary. These adverse conditions are, unfortunately, having a most distressing effect on the women employed in America, and consequently, on our youth. The passage of this bill would undoubtedly alleviate some of these conditions for the standard of living among women employees.

A Simple Remedy

How to solve the liquor question, and thereby make the Vol- unteer law a success; Let the govern- ment tackle the habitual drinker or otherwise one of those "Keeley Cure" treatments, with the provision that the medicine shall be taken regularly until the desire for the accustomed "nip" has been thoroughly dis��. This having been done, the rest would be easy. So simple, isn't it?

Have you subscribed for the Senior Annual yet? You haven't, well, it is just this way. If you don't subscribe for an Annual you run a sad risk of not getting one at all, because only the subscribers for will be printed. You cannot miss this chance of getting one of these Annuals. This Annual is the biggest movement ever initiated by the students of Eastern and its success depends on a unanimous realization of this fact. Every student at Eastern must support the Seniors in this movement, their aunt, Mrs. Betty Yager, believes you are, but make it known this Annual a success. We believe you are, but make it known immediately how many copies to publish, and now is the time to say your mind is made up, and how many you desire. The Annual staff is convinced that the Eastern faculty and students will all be anxious to know just how the problem was solved. There are somewhere near 460 girls in Eastern, not including those in residence. Sullivan Hall accommodates 175 of them, Burnam 109, the Annex 36, and town rooms 138, making a total of 458. The Morris Alum have had their aunt, Mrs. Betty Vager, joining them, in Sullivan Hall. Miss Mary Joe Decker, who has left Eastern to accept a position of teaching Art in Covington, Ky., we regret holding as she was secretary of the class of 22 president of the Little Theatre Club, and with all popular student of Eastern. Mr. Paul Wilson, of Nicholasville, called on Miss Joesanne Jacobs at Sullivan Hall, Saturday evening, February 11th. Miss Ruth Lane has gone from our midst to accept a position in Covington, Ky. We regret holding as she was secretary of the class of 22 president of the Little Theatre Club, and with all popular student of Eastern. Miss Lillian Smith recently entertained visitors from Berea, visiting Miss Margarette Crooke. Miss Catherine Whiteley has returned home to Carlisle, Ky. Miss Margaret Benton has returned from a visit to the II, and is once more at "tale and tattletale." Miss Christine MacEwan visited her parents in Winchester recently.

So now, as a business proposition to your own interest, rush to Mr. Coner Taylor, our business Manager and pay him a dollar for which you will get six copies at a price less than one-third and not more than one-half of the usual price of the Annual. This will be equivalent to your guarantee to you a copy of the Annual and you run a sad risk of being one of the many who are going to wish they had subscribed.

THE EASTERN PROGRESS

DR. CHAS. McMURRAY LECTURES AT EASTERN
Dr. Chas. McMurray, head of the Department of Education, George Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., spent the first week of the third term at Eastern, delivering a series of addresses to the faculty and the student body. Each day at chapel hour, from 4 to 5 in the afternoon and again in the evening from 7 to 8, Dr. McMurray digested the different phases of educational problems, conducted demonstration classes, and emphasized the importance of the Training School in the life of the Normal School.

For a number of years, Dr. McMurray has been the recognized leader of elementary education in the United States. He is not only a leading Baptist, but is the author of several books on methodology which have been looked upon as the best work in this kind of work.

The purpose of having Dr. McMurray at Eastern is in line with the policy of giving students the faculty in giving the students and the faculty the opportunity of coming in contact with the leaders of the different phases of educational work. In several of his lectures the theme of reorganizing and simplifying the elementary course was developed. He showed the growth of the present system of study and of the elementary course from the Three R's to its present overwhelming enrichment. "It is true," said Dr. McMurray, "that we have in our present curriculum more than any general curriculum could possibly include.

"Every child in the country entitled to the best that the culture of the world has developed for us," he further stated. There is no reason why every teacher should not have the opportunity of teaching the entire ground. He said that if we should accept a position in Covington, Ky., we regret holding as she was secretary of the class of 22 president of the Little Theatre Club, and with all popular student of Eastern.

Miss Lillian Smith recently entertained visitors from Berea, visiting Miss Margarette Crooke. Miss Catherine Whiteley has returned home to Carlisle, Ky. Miss Margaret Benton has returned from a visit to the Ill, and is once more at "tale and tattletale." Miss Christine MacEwan visited her parents in Winchester recently.

"A golden success; the county and having gotten it, skips; and, finally, one who starts an account and pays—never.
